I am out of my depth to understanding defamation and other legal hazards and don't want to end up in a law suit aimed at me from anyone if I can help it. Apparently even saying Virginia is a liar has hazard! I have never been in a suit criminal or civil and want it to stay that way.

The US lawyers for the Jane Does are filling additional discovery motions and if I speak I open my self to being part of discovery apparently. I am trying to stay out of litigation and not have to employ lawyers for years as I get lost in US legal nightmare. I stand no legal risk currently on these old charges and civil suits against Jeffrey We need to consult with US lawyers on any statement I make and the complaints too

Perhaps we make a statement of the legal risk of saying anything for potential defamation or something that prevents a full and frank detailed rebuttal + the press not being the place for that? Regardless, Philip plse call jeffrey lawyer and see what you can understand from him and pehaps craft something in conjunction with him? Either way I think you need to speak to him to understand my risk so you can help me understand it - too may cooks in the kitchen and I can't make good decisions. Plse reach out to him today

+ I have already suffered such a terrible and painful loss over the last few days that I can't even see what life after press he'll even looks like - statements that don't address all just lead to more questions..what is my relationship to clinton ? Andrew on and on.

Let's rest till monday. I need head space

Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL DEFENDANT TO ANSWER DEPOSITION QUESTIONS FILED UNDER SEAL¹

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this Motion to Compel Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions. During her recent deposition, Defendant refused to answer numerous questions about allegedly “adult” sexual activity related to Jeffrey Epstein. Because this activity is highly relevant to this case, Defendant should be ordered to answer questions about it.

As the Court is aware, this defamation case involves Ms. Giuffre’s assertions that she and other females were recruited by Defendant to be sexually abused by Jeffrey Epstein under the guise of being “massage therapists.” See Complaint, (DE 1), at ¶ 27 (Giuffre “described Maxwell’s role as one of the main women who Epstein used to procure under-aged girls for sexual activities and a primary co-conspirator and participant in his sexual abuse and sex trafficking scheme”). In response to these assertions, Defendant has made the sweeping claim that Ms. Giuffre’s assertions are “entirely false” and “entirely untrue.” Complaint, DE 1, at ¶ 31.

Yet during her deposition, Defendant refused to answer any questions that she construed as having something to do with “consensual adult sex.” Defense counsel supported that position that “frankly, [that’s] none of your business and I instruct the witness not to answer.” See Declaration of Sigrid S. McCawley (“McCawley Decl.”) at Exhibit 1, Tr. of Maxwell Depo. (Apr. 22, 2016) at 21. The result was that at a number of points throughout her deposition, Defendant refused to answer questions about subjects integral to this lawsuit, including questions about what the alleged “massage therapists” were doing at Jeffrey Epstein’s house and the sexual nature of those massages.

For example, Defendant refused to answer questions about whether she had given Jeffrey Epstein a massage:

Q. Have you ever given Jeffrey Epstein a massage?

MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form, foundation. And I’m going to instruct you not to answer that question. I don’t have any problem with you asking questions about what the subject matter of this lawsuit is, which would be, as you’ve termed it, sexual trafficking of Ms. Roberts.

To the extent you are asking for information relating to any consensual adult interaction between my client and Mr. Epstein, I’m going to instruct her not to answer because it’s not part of this litigation and it is her private confidential information, not subject to this deposition.

MS. McCAWLEY: You can instruct her not to answer. That is your right. But I will bring her back for another deposition because it is part of the subject matter of this litigation so she should be answering these questions. This is civil litigation, deposition and she should be responsible for answering these questions.

MR. PAGLIUCA: I disagree and you understand the bounds that I put on it.

MS. McCAWLEY: No, I don’t. I will continue to ask my questions and you can continue to make your objections.

Q. Did you ever participate from the time period of 1992 to 2009, did you ever participate in a massage with Jeffrey Epstein and another female?

MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection. Do not answer that question. Again, to the extent you are asking for some sort of illegal activity as you’ve construed in connection with this case I don't have any problem with you asking that question. To the extent these questions involve consensual acts between adults, frankly, they're none of your business and I will instruct the witness not to answer.

MS. McCAWLEY: This case involves sexual trafficking, sexual abuse, questions about her having interactions with other females is relevant to this case. She needs to answer these questions.

MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm instructing her not to answer.

MS. McCAWLEY: Then we will be back here again.

See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, Tr. of Maxwell Depo. (Apr. 22, 2016) at 19-22 (emphasis added).

Defendant's participation in massages with Epstein is a central part of this case. Ms. Giuffre has explained that during her first sexual encounter with Jeffrey Epstein, it was Defendant who provided instruction on how to do it and how to turn the massage into a sexual event. Obviously, proof that Defendant had previously massaged Epstein – include massages with sexual component – would provide important corroboration for Ms. Giuffre's testimony at trial. And proof that Defendant was involved in massages will further help prove that statements to the press that Virginia's allegations were "obvious lies" was itself an obvious lie.

As another example, Defendant refused to answer questions about her knowledge that Johanna Sjoberg was hired to work for Epstein and provided massages. In the police report, Johanna admitted that Maxwell recruited her to work for Epstein. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 3, Giuffre000076-77 (police report indicating that Johanna was recruited by Maxwell). Yet during Defendant's deposition, she refused to answer questions regarding Johanna Sjoberg.

Q. Do you know what tasks Johanna was hired to performance?

A. She was tasked to answer telephones.

Q. Did you ever ask her to rub Jeffrey's feet? . . .

A. I believe that I have read that, but I don't have any memory of it.

Q. Did you ever tell Johanna that she would get extra money if she provided Jeffrey massages?

A. I was always happy to give career advice to people and I think that becoming somebody in the healthcare profession, either exercise instructor or nutritionist or professional massage therapist is an excellent job opportunity. Hourly wages are around 7, 8, $9 and as a professional healthcare provider you can earn somewhere between as we have established 100 to $200 and to be able to travel and have a job that pays that is a wonderful job opportunity. So in the context of advising people for opportunities for work, it is possible that I would have said that she should explore that as an option.

Q. Did you tell her she would get extra money if she massaged Jeffrey?

A. I'm just saying, I cannot recall the exact conversation. I give career advice and I have done that.

Q. Did you ever have Johanna massage you?

A. I did.

Q. How many times?

A. I don't recall how many times.

Q. Was there sex involved?

A. No. . . .

Q. Did you ever have sexual contact with Johanna?

MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form and foundation. You need to give me an opportunity to get in between the questions.
Anything that involves consensual sex on your part, I'm instructing you not to answer.

Q. Did you ever have sexual contact with Johanna?

A. [MR. PAGLIUCA?] Again, she is an adult --

Q. I'm asking you, did you ever have sexual contact with Johanna?

A. I've just been instructed not to answer.

Q. On what basis?

A. You have to ask my lawyer.

See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4, Tr. of Maxwell Depo. (Apr. 22, 2016) at 60-62 (emphasis added).

Here again, this information is critical to the case. Among other things, these questions are designed to show a modus operandi (“M.O”) for Epstein and Maxwell – specifically, how they recruited for a non-sexual massage than converted the massage into sexual activities.

One last illustration comes from Defendant’s refusal to answer about her knowledge of Epstein’s sexual interests during massages:

Q. Does Jeffrey like to have his nipples pinched during sexual encounters?

MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form and foundation.

A. I’m not referring to any advice on my counsel. I’m not talking about any adult sexual things when I was with him.

Q. When Jeffrey would have a massage, would he request that the masseuse pinch his nipples while he was having a massage?

A. I’m not talking about anything with consensual adult situation.

See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5, Tr. of Maxwell Depo. (Apr. 22, 2016) at 82.

While Epstein himself might also provide answers to these questions, it appears likely that he will assert his Fifth Amendment privilege regarding his sexual activities. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre must pursue questioning of Maxwell to obtain information on this subject. Here again, information about Epstein’s sexual idiosyncrasies will provide important corroboration to Ms. Giuffre’s testimony that she had sexual interactions of an identical nature with Epstein.

These refusals are not an isolated instance. Instead, similar refusals to answer questions occurred repeatedly throughout the deposition. See, e.g., McCawley Decl. at Composite Exhibit 6. 52-55; 64-65; 82; 92-93; 137-38; 307-09.

The Court should compel Defendant to answer all these questions. In addition to the specific points made above, the “big picture” here reveals how vital such discovery is. At the core of Ms. Giuffre’s allegations is the allegation that Defendant lured her into a sexual situation with the offer of a job making money as a massage therapist; that Epstein always habitually tried to turn massages into sex (that was his modus operandi and plan all along); and that Maxwell recruited other females for an ostensibly proper position, such as therapeutic masseuse, with knowledge that the intent was for that person would be pressured to provide sexual gratification to Epstein. As a result, Epstein's use of massages for sexual purposes is a central part of this case.

And Defendant's role in those massages – and knowledge of the purposes of those massages – is a critical piece of evidence showing her state of mind when she attacked Ms. Giuffre's assertions as "entirely untrue." Ms. Giuffre intends to prove at trial that Defendant knew full well the sexual purpose for which she was recruiting females – including underage females like Ms. Giuffre. Ms. Giuffre is entitled to explore Defendant's knowledge of the sexual activities that took place under the guise of "massages." Otherwise Defendant will be able to portray to the jury an inaccurate picture of that what was happening at Epstein's house what nothing more than run-of-the-mill massage therapy. See, e.g., McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 7, Tr. of Maxwell Depo. (Apr. 22, 2016) at 51 ("Q: Did [the pay for massage therapists] vary on what sexual acts they performed? . . . A: No, it varied depending on how much time, some massage therapists charge more and some charge less.").

Defendant's refusal to answer questions about alleged "adult" consensual sex also blocks Ms. Giuffre from seeking legitimate discovery in this case. By refusing to answer questions about her and Epstein's sexual activities with alleged "adults," Defendant is essentially given the ability to refuse to answer any sexual question she does not wish to answer. Defendant simply has to deem the question as involving "consensual adult sex" and no need be given. The result is to leave Ms. Giuffre with no way of exploring the identity of these alleged adults, the ages of these alleged adults, and indeed whether they were adults at all. This allows Defendant to claim that she is unaware of any sexual activity involving underage females, because (she claims) the only sexual activity she was aware involved adults.

The Court should compel Ms. Maxwell to answer all questions about her knowledge relating to sexual activities with Epstein and other females while at Epstein's various homes. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 37(a)(3)(B)(i); see, e.g., Kelly v. AI Tech., No. 09 CIV. 962 LAK MHD, 2010 WL 1541585, at *20 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 12, 2010) ("Under the Federal Rules, when a party refuses to answer a question during a deposition, the questioning party may subsequently move to compel disclosure of the testimony that it sought. The court must determine the propriety of the deponent's objection to answering the questions, and can order the deponent to provide improperly withheld answers during a continued deposition" (internal citations omitted)). Of course, the party objecting to discovery must carry the burden of proving the validity of its objections, particularly in light of "the broad and liberal construction afforded the federal discovery rules" John Wiley & Sons, Inc. v. Book Dog Books, LLC, 298 F.R.D. 184, 186 (S.D.N.Y. 2014). For purposes of a deposition, the information sought "need not be admissible at the trial if the discovery appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence." Chen-Oster v. Goldman, Sachs & Co., 293 F.R.D. 557, 561 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (citing Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(1)).

Defendant cannot carry her burden of showing that the questions asked are not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. This is a case in which sexual activities lie at the heart of the issues in dispute. As a result, it is hardly surprising to find that discovery pertains to alleged "adult" sexual activities – and questions about such subjects are entirely proper. See, e.g., Condit v. Dunne, 225 F.R.D. 100, 113 (S.D.N.Y. 2004) (in defamation case, "Plaintiff is hereby ordered to answer questions regarding his sexual relationships in so far as they are relevant to a defense of substantial truth, mitigation of damages, or impeachment of plaintiff.”); Weber v. Multimedia Entm't, Inc., No. 97 CIV. 0682 PKL THK, 1997 WL 729039, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 24, 1997) (“While discovery is not unlimited and may not unnecessarily intrude into private matters, in the instant case inquiry into private matters is clearly relevant to the subject matter of the suit. Accordingly, plaintiff Misty Weber shall respond to defendants’ interrogatories concerning her sexual partners . . .”).

Generally speaking, instructions from attorneys to their clients not to answer questions at a deposition should be “limited to [issues regarding] privilege.” Morales v. Zondo, Inc., 204 F.R.D. 50, 54 (S.D.N.Y. 2001). In this case, defense counsel ranged far beyond the normal parameters of objections and sought to decide for himself what issues were relevant. That was improper and the Court should order a resumption of the Defendant’s deposition so that she can answer questions about her knowledge of sexual activity relating to Jeffrey Epstein.

CONCLUSION

Defendant should be ordered to sit for a follow-up deposition and directed to answer questions regarding her knowledge of alleged “adult” sexual activity.

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: This is the same
4 instruction about consensual or
5 nonconsensual.

6 Q. Was Emmy under the age of 18 when
7 you hired her?

8 A. No. I didn't hire her, as I said,
9 Jeffrey did.

10 Q. Did Emmy ever have sex with
11 Jeffrey?

12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
13 form and foundation.

14 A. How would I know what somebody else
15 did.

16 Q. You weren't involved in the sex
17 between Jeffrey, Emmy and yourself?

18 A. We already --

19 Q. Were you involved with sex between 20 Jeffrey, Emmy and yourself?

21 MR. PAGLIUCA: Everyone is talking
22 over each other. You heard the
23 question.

24 Again, you you know what the 25 instruction is. If there is any

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 consensual issue involved, I instruct
3 you not to answer.

4 A. Moving on.

5 Q. So you are refusing to answer that
6 question?

7 A. I've been instructed by my lawyer.

8 Q. Did you ever have sex with Jeffrey,
9 Emmy, Virginia and yourself when Virginia was
10 underage?

11 A. Absolutely not.

12 MR. PAGLIUCA: We've been going for
13 about an hour. I would like to take a
14 five-minute break, please.

15 MS. MCCAWLEY: I'm almost done.

16 MR. PAGLIUCA: You are not going to
17 allow a break.

18 MS. MCCAWLEY: As soon as I get
19 through my line of questioning, which is
20 perfectly appropriate.

21 Q. Did Emmy Taylor travel with you and
22 Jeffrey to Europe?

23 A. I'm sure she did.

24 Q. What is she doing today?

25 A. I have no idea.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 Q. Did you train Virginia on how to
3 recruit other girls to perform sexual
4 massages?

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
6 form and foundation.

7 A. No. And it's absurd and her entire
8 story is one giant tissue of lies and
9 furthermore, she herself has -- if she says
10 that, you have to ask her about what she did.

11 Q. Does Jeffrey like to have his
12 nipples pinched during sexual encounters?

13 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
14 and foundation.

15 A. I'm not referring to any advice on 16 my counsel. I'm not talking about any adult
17 sexual things when I was with him.

18 Q. When Jeffrey would have a massage,
19 would he request that the masseuse pinch his 20 nipples while he was having a massage?

21 A. I'm not talking about anything with 22 consensual adult situation.

23 Q. What about with underage --

24 A. I am not aware of anything.

25 Q. You are not aware of Jeffrey

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 Q. In your responsibilities in working
3 for Jeffrey, would you book massages for him
4 on any given day so that he would have a
5 massage scheduled? Would you take a call for 6 example and book a massage for him?

7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
8 form and foundation.

9 Q. You can answer.

10 A. Typically, that was not my 11 responsibility. He would either book the 12 massage himself or one of his other
13 assistants would do that.

14 Q. From time to time you had to do
15 that?

16 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
17 form and foundation.

18 A. Like I said, typically it was 19 somebody else's responsibility.

20 Q. If you were unable to book a girl
21 for a massage on a given day, would that mean
22 that you were responsible for giving him a
23 sexual massage?

24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
25 form and foundation and I instruct you

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 not to answer any questions about any of
3 your consensual adult sexual activity.

4 Q. So you are not going to answer that
5 question?

6 A. You just heard my counsel.

7 Q. Have you ever said to anybody that
8 recruiting other girls to perform sexual 9 massages for Jeffrey Epstein takes the 10 pressure off you?

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form
12 and foundation.

13 A. Repeat the question and break it
14 out.

15 Q. Have you ever said to anybody that
16 you recruit girls --

17 A. Stop right there. I never
18 recruited girls, let's stop there. Now
19 breakdown the question.

20 Q. Have you ever said to anybody --

21 A. By girls, we are talking about
22 underage people -- you said girls, are you
23 talking about underage -- we are not talking
24 about consensual acts -- this is a defamation
25 suit.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 the flights?

3 A. I can't recollect having a meal
4 with them, but just so we are clear, the 5 allegations that Clinton had a meal on
6 Jeffrey's island is 100 percent false.

7 Q. But he may have had a meal on
8 Jeffrey's plane?

9 A. I'm sure he had a meal on Jeffrey's
10 plane.

11 Q. You do know how many times he flew
12 on Jeffrey's plane?

13 A. I don't.

14 Q. Do you know who Doug Band is?

15 A. I do.

16 Q. How do you know him?

17 A. He used to work or still works for 18 Bill Clinton.

19 Q. Did you ever have a relationship
20 with him?

21 A. We are talking about adult
22 consensual relationships, it's off the
23 record.

24 Q. I'm not asking what you did with
25 him, I'm asking if you ever had a

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 relationship with him?

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: If you understand
4 the term relationship, certainly you can
5 answer that.

6 A. Define relationship.

7 Q. Somebody that you would have spent
8 time together, either seeing them in a
9 romantic relationship or --

10 A. You need to be, what do you mean by 11 romantic. I was friends with Doug but you
12 are suggesting something more so I want to be 13 clear what you are actually asking me.

14 Q. You defined it. You said you were 15 friends with him. If that's what you were 16 that's all I need to know.

17 While you were on the trip with
18 President Clinton, do you recall where you
19 stayed at these locations, in other words,
20 would you leave the jet and stay overnight at 21 a hotel, do you have a recollection of this
22 trip?

23 A. I recollect the trip but if you're
24 asking me where we stayed, you can see it's a
25 very fast paced trip. It was very tiring and

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 form and foundation.

3 A. I don't know why the name is -- I'm
4 sorry -- I can't -- I have no idea. I
5 recognize the name but that's it.

6 Q. Was Johanna Sjoberg a masseuse?

7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
8 form and foundation.

9 A. What are you asking me, I'm sorry?

10 Q. When Johanna Sjoberg worked for 11 Jeffrey Epstein, did she perform massages?

12 A. I've testified that when Johanna
13 came originally, she came to answer
14 telephones. I believe at some point she 15 became a masseuse. I don't recollect when
16 and I personally had massages from Johanna.

17 Q. What did Johanna do for Jeffrey
18 Epstein, did she perform massages, anything
19 else?

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
21 form and foundation.

22 A. When she came she answered phones
23 and at some point, I believe, I don't have 24 any firm recollection, but I believe she went 25 to school and became a masseuse and I had

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 messages from her.

3 Q. Did you ever have any sexual
4 interaction with her?

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form
6 and foundation and I'm going to instruct 7 you if we're talking about any
8 consensual adult contact, you are not
9 allowed to answer the question.

10 Q. Did you have any sexual contact
11 with her in the presence of Jeffrey Epstein?

12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same instruction.

13 Q. Did you have any sexual contact
14 with her in the presence of anybody other
15 than Jeffrey Epstein?

16 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same instruction.

17 Q. How many messages did you receive
18 from Johanna?

19 A. I really don't recall but a fair
20 amount.

21 Q. Did the messages involve sex?

22 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to
23 instruct you not to answer.

24 Q. Have you ever engaged in sex with 25 any female?

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to
3 instruct you not to answer.

4 MS. McCAWLEY: I want the record to 5 reflect that Ms. Maxwell's attorney is
6 directing her not to answer this series
7 of questions.

8 MR. PAGLIUCA: It definitely does.

9 Q. Were you responsible for
10 introducing Anuska to Jeffrey Epstein?

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
12 form and foundation.

13 A. I already testified that I don't
14 really recall Anuska.

15 Q. Were you responsible for
16 introducing Johanna to Jeffrey Epstein?

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
18 form and foundation.

19 A. Again, I don't like the 20 characterization of introduction. Johanna
21 came to answer telephones.

22 Q. When did you -- were you the person
23 who brought or introduced or met Johanna for 24 purposes of bringing her to Jeffrey Epstein's
25 home?

Questions About People Under the Age of 18 at Epstein's Home

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 Q. You can answer.

3 A. I have not any idea exactly of the 4 youngest adult employee that I hired for
5 Jeffrey.

6 Q. When you say adult employee, did
7 you ever hire someone that was under the age
8 of 18?

9 A. Never.

10 Q. Did you ever bring someone who was
11 under -- invite someone under the age of 18
12 to Jeffrey's home, any of his homes?

14 foundation.

15 A. Can you repeat the question?

16 Q. Did you ever invite anybody who was 17 under the age of 18 to Jeffrey's homes?

18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same objections.

19 A. I have a number of friends that 20 have children and friends of mine that have 21 kids and in the invitation of my friends and 22 their kids, I'm sure I may have invited some 23 of my friend's kids to come.

24 Q. Anybody that is not a friend of 25 yours.

Questions About Meeting the Plaintiff and Massages with Plaintiff

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 A. Ms. Roberts held herself out --

3 Q. I'm not asking how she held herself
4 out. I'm asking how she arrived at the home.
5 Did you meet her and invite her to come to
6 the home or how did she arrive there?

7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form
8 and foundation.

9 A. Ms. Roberts held her to be a
10 masseuse and her mother drove her to the
11 house.

12 Q. When did you first meet Virginia
13 Roberts?

14 A. I don't have a recollection of the 15 first meeting.

16 Q. Do you recall meeting her at
17 Mar-a-Lago?

18 A. Like I said, I don't have a
19 recollection of meeting Ms. Roberts.

20 Q. So you recall Ms. Roberts being 21 brought to the home by her mother, is that 22 your testimony?

23 A. That is my testimony.

24 Q. And that is the first time you met
25 her?

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

6 A. No.

7 Q. Have you visited Mar-a-Lago?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did you visit Mar-a-Lago in the
10 year 2000?

11 A. I'm pretty sure I did.

12 Q. When Ms. Roberts arrived at the 13 home with her mother, what happened?

14 A. I spoke to her mother outside of

16 exactly what happened because I was talking
17 to her mother the entire she was in the
18 house.

19 Q. Did you introduce Ms. Roberts to
20 Jeffrey Epstein?

21 A. I don't recall how she actually met
22 Mr. Epstein. As I said, I spoke to her
23 mother the entire time outside the house.

24 Q. Did you walk Ms. Roberts up to the 25 upstairs location at the Palm Beach house to

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
2 absolutely everything that took place in that
3 first meeting. She has lied repeatedly,
4 often and is just an awful fantasist. So
5 very difficult for anything to take place
6 that she repeated because I was with her
7 mother the entire time.

8 Q. So did you have -- did you give a
9 massage with Virginia Roberts and Mr. Epstein 10 during the first time Virginia Roberts was at 11 the West Palm Beach house?

12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form
13 and foundation.

14 Q. Yes or no?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Have you ever given a massage with 17 Virginia Roberts in the room and Jeffrey
18 Epstein?

25 foundation. And I'm going to instruct

Questions About Messages with Minors

2 questions.

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm instructing her
4 not to answer.

5 MS. McCAWLEY: Then we will be back
6 here again.

7 Q. Have you ever given a massage to 8 Mr. Epstein with a female that was under the 9 age of 18?

10 A. Can you repeat the question?

11 Q. Yes. Have you ever given a massage
12 to Mr. Epstein with a female that was under 13 the age of 18?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Have you ever observed Mr. Epstein
16 having a massage given by an individual, a
17 female, who was under the age of 18?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Have you ever observed females
20 under the age of 18 in the presence of 21 Jeffrey Epstein at his home?

23 and foundation.

24 A. Again, I have friends that have
25 children --

Questions About Hiring Massage Therapists

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 -- just another one of Virginia's many
3 fictitious lies and stories to make this a
4 salacious event to get interest and press.
5 It's absolute rubbish.

6 Q. Were you in charge of hiring
7 individuals to provide massages for Jeffrey
8 Epstein?

9 A. My job included hiring many people.
10 There were six homes. As I sit here, I hired
11 assistants, I hired architects, I hired
12 decorators, I hired cooks, I hired cleaners,
13 I hired gardeners, I hired pool people, I
14 hired pilots, I hired all sorts of people.

15 In the course and a very small part
16 of my job was from from time to time to find
17 adult professional massage therapists for
18 Jeffrey.

19 Q. When you say adult professional
20 massage therapists, where did you find these 21 massage therapists?

22 A. From time to time I would visit
23 professional spas, I would receive a massage
24 and if the massage was good I would ask that 25 man or woman if they did home visits.

Questions About Mr. Epstein and Sex

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 acts. I'm asking whether any of the massage
3 therapists performed sexual acts for Mr.
4 Epstein, as I have just described?

5 A. I have never seen anybody have
6 sexual intercourse with with Jeffrey, ever.

7 Q. I'm not asking about sexual
8 intercourse. I'm asking about any sexual
9 act, touching of the breast -- did you ever
10 see -- can you read back the question?

11 (Record read.)

12 A. I'm not addressing any questions
13 about consensual adult sex. If you want to 14 talk about what the subject matter, which is 15 defamation and lying, Virginia Roberts, that 16 you and Virginia Roberts are participating in 17 perpetrating her lies, I'm happy to address
18 those. I never saw any inappropriate
19 underage activities with Jeffrey ever.

20 Q. I'm not asking about underage. I'm
21 asking about whether any of the masseuses
22 that were at the home perform sexual acts for
23 Jeffrey Epstein?

24 A. I have just answered the question.

Questions About Sarah Kellen, Glen Dubin, Plaintiff, Johanna

2 A. I have.

3 Q. No, you haven't.

4 A. Yes, I have.

5 Q. You are refusing to answer the
6 question.

7 A. Let's move on.

8 Q. I'm in charge of the deposition. I
9 say when we move on and when we don't.

10 You are here to respond to my 11 questions. If you are refusing to answer the 12 court will bring you back for another
13 deposition to answer these questions.

14 Do you understand that?

15 MR. PAGLIUCA: You don't need to 16 threaten the witness.

17 MS. McCAWLEY: I'm not threatening
18 her. I'm making sure the record is 19 clear.

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Certainly can you
21 apply to have someone come back and the 22 court may or may not have her come back
23 again.

24 Again, she is not answering

20 you know him?

21 A. He is the husband of Eva Dubin.

22 Q. Is Eva Dubin one of your friends?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did you ever send Virginia to
25 Glenn's condo at the Breakers to give him a

2 message?

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
4 form and foundation.

5 A. No.

6 Q. Did you ever instruct Virginia
7 Roberts to have sex with Glenn?

8 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
9 form and foundation.

10 A. I have never instructed Virginia to 11 have sex with anybody ever.

12 Q. How old was Eva Anderson when she 13 met Jeffrey?

14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
15 form and foundation.

16 A. I have no idea.

17 Q. What's she under the age of 18?

18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
19 form and foundation.

20 A. I just testified I have idea how 21 old she was.

22 Q. You testified she was your friend.
23 You don't know how old she was when she met
24 Jeffrey?

25 A. That happened sometime in the '70s,

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 how would I know, or '80s. I have no idea.

3 Can you testify to what your friends did 30

4 years ago?

5 Q. You don't ask the questions here,

6 Ms. Maxwell.

7 What about Johanna Sjoberg, when

8 did you first meet Johanna?

9 A. I don't recall the exact date.

10 Q. Did you hire Johanna?

11 A. I don't hire people, she came to 12 work at the house to answer phones.

13 Q. Where did you meet her?

14 A. I just testified, I don't recall

15 exactly when I met her.

16 Q. Was one of your job

17 responsibilities to interview people that

18 would be then hired by Jeffrey?

19 A. That was one of my

20 responsibilities.

21 Q. Do you recall interviewing Johanna?

22 A. I don't recall the exact interview,

23 no.

24 Q. Do you know what tasks Johanna was

25 hired to performance?

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 A. She was tasked to answer
3 telephones.

4 Q. Did you ever ask her to rub
5 Jeffrey's feet?

6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
7 form and foundation.

8 A. I believe that I have read that,
9 but I don't have any memory of it.

10 Q. Did you ever tell Johanna that she
11 would get extra money if she provided Jeffrey
12 massages?

13 A. I was always happy to give career
14 advice to people and I think that becoming
15 somebody in the healthcare profession, either
16 exercise instructor or nutritionist or 17 professional massage therapist is an 18 excellent job opportunity. Hourly wages are 19 around 7, 8, $9 and as a professional
20 healthcare provider you can earn somewhere
21 between as we have established 100 to $200
22 and to be able to travel and have a job that 23 pays that is a wonderful job opportunity. So
24 in the context of advising people for
25 opportunities for work, it is possible that I

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 would have said that she should explore that
3 as an option.

4 Q. Did you tell her she would get
5 extra money if she massaged Jeffrey?

6 A. I'm just saying, I cannot recall
7 the exact conversation. I give career advice
8 and I have done that.

9 Q. Did you ever have Johanna massage
10 you?

11 A. I did.

12 Q. How many times?

13 A. I don't recall how many times.

14 Q. Was there sex involved?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did you ever instruct Johanna to 17 massage Glenn Dubin?

18 A. I don't believe -- I have no
19 recollection of it.

20 Q. Did you ever have sexual contact
21 with Johanna?

22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form
23 and foundation. You need to give me an 24 opportunity to get in between the
25 questions.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 Anything that involves consensual
3 sex on your part, I'm instructing you
4 not to answer.

5 Q. Did you ever have sexual contact
6 with Johanna?

7 A. Again, she is an adult --

8 Q. I'm asking you, did you ever have
9 sexual contact with Johanna?

10 A. I've just been instructed not to
11 answer.

12 Q. On what basis?

13 A. You have to ask my lawyer.

14 Q. Did you ever have sexual contact
15 with Johanna that was not consensual on 16 Johanna's part?

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: You can answer
18 nonconsensual.

19 A. I've never had nonconsensual sex
20 with anybody.

21 Q. Not Annie Farmer?

22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection.

23 A. I just testified I never had 24 nonconsensual sex with anybody ever, at any 25 time, at anyplace, at any time, with anybody.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 Q. So if Johanna were to testify that
3 she did not consent to a sexual act that you
4 participated in --

5 A. I just told you I have never ever
6 under any circumstances with anybody, at any 7 time, in anyplace, in any form had
8 nonconsensual relations with anybody.

9 Q. Did you introduce Johanna to Prince
10 Andrew?

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
12 form and foundation.

13 A. I've, again, read that Johanna
14 claimed that she met or that she said she met
15 Prince Andrew. I don't know if I was the one
16 who made the introduction or not.

17 Q. Do you know a female by the name of 18 Emmy Taylor?

19 A. I do.

20 Q. How do you know her?

21 A. Emmy was my assistant.

22 Q. So she worked for you?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did you hire her?

25 A. Again, Jeffrey hired people.

8 Q. Did you ever have sex with Jeffrey,
9 Emmy, Virginia and yourself when Virginia was
10 underage?

11 A. Absolutely not.

12 MR. PAGLIUCA: We've been going for
13 about an hour. I would like to take a
14 five-minute break, please.

15 MS. McCAWLEY: I'm almost done.

17 allow a break.

18 MS. McCAWLEY: As soon as I get
19 through my line of questioning, which is
20 perfectly appropriate.

21 Q. Did Emmy Taylor travel with you and
22 Jeffrey to Europe?

23 A. I'm sure she did.

2 about.

3 Q. So you didn't provide her with
4 that?

5 A. As I just testified, I have no idea
6 what you are talking about.

7 Q. I was trying to interpret whether
8 you didn't understand what a school girl
9 outfit was or you are saying that didn't
10 happen?

11 A. I clearly know what a school girl
12 outfit is. I have no recollection of 13 providing anybody with a school girl outfit.

14 Q. Did you have a set of outfits used
15 by the massage therapists that would include
16 things like a school girl outfit or a black
17 patent leather outfit or anything of that 18 nature?

19 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form
20 and foundation.

21 A. That would be just another one of 22 Virginia's lies.

23 Q. You didn't have anything like that?

24 A. I did not.

25 Q. Did you have a basket of sex toys

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 that you kept in the Palm Beach house?

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the

5 A. First of all what do you mean.

6 Q. A laundry basket that contained sex
7 toys in it?

8 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
9 form and foundation.

10 A. Can you ask the question again?

11 Q. Did you have a laundry basket that

14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
15 form and foundation.

16 Q. Did you have a laundry basket of 17 sex toys in the Palm Beach house?

18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same objection.

20 A. I don't recollect anything about a
21 laundry basket of sex toys.

22 Q. Do you recollect having sex toys at 23 the Palm Beach house?

24 A. You have to define what are you
25 talking about.

10 Q. Did you ever pay her?

11 A. I don't ever recall paying her.

8 the record, she is an absolute total liar and 9 you all know she lied on multiple things and 10 that is just one other disgusting thing she 11 added.

12 Q. Did you help her obtain an 13 apartment in Palm Beach to live in?

14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the

16 Q. Was that part of your

20 that from the many times you guys have gone
21 to the press to sell stories, so no.

8 A. When I was working for him, I think
9 he had six maybe.

10 Q. Would Virginia stay with him in 11 those homes?

12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
13 form and foundation.

14 A. I can only testify for when I was

18 Virginia stay in the homes with him?

19 A. I don't recall her staying in the

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 Q. Did you train Virginia on how to
3 recruit other girls to perform sexual
4 massages?

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
6 form and foundation.

7 A. No. And it's absurd and her entire
8 story is one giant tissue of lies and
9 furthermore, she herself has -- if she says
10 that, you have to ask her about what she did.

11 Q. Does Jeffrey like to have his
12 nipples pinched during sexual encounters?

13 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form

17 sexual things when I was with him.

18 Q. When Jeffrey would have a massage,

17 girlfriend?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Did you ever consider yourself his
20 girlfriend?

21 A. That's a tricky question. There
22 were times when I would have liked to think

25 A. Probably in the early '90s.

Questions About Recruiting Girls, an Underage Girl in London, and Foreign Girls

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 A. First of all I resent and despise
3 the world recruit. Would you like to define
4 what you mean by recruit and by girls, you
5 mean underage people. I never had to do
6 anything with underage people. So why don't
7 you reask the question in a way that I am
8 able to answer it.

9 Q. I'm asking if you ever said that to
10 anybody. So if you don't understand the word
11 recruit and you never used that word then the 12 answer to that question would be no.

13 A. I have no memory as I sit here
14 today having used that word.

15 Q. Did you ever meet an underage girl
16 in London to introduce her to Jeffrey to
17 provide him with a massage?

18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
19 form and foundation.

20 A. Run that past me one more time.

21 Q. Did you ever meet an underage girl
22 in London to introduce her to Jeffrey to
23 perform a massage?

24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same objection.

25 A. Are you asking me if I met anybody

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 that was underage in London specifically to
3 provide a massage to Jeffrey, is that your
4 question?

5 Q. Yes.

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do you know who Alexander Dixon is?

8 A. I don't recall her right now.

9 Q. Do you know if -- strike that.

10 During the time that you were
11 working for Jeffrey, did you ever observe any 12 foreign females, so in other words, not from 13 the United States, that were brought to 14 Jeffrey's home to perform massages?

15 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
16 form and foundation.

17 A. Females, what age are we talking?

18 Q. Any age.

19 A. Can you repeat the question?

20 Q. During the time you were working
21 for Jeffrey, did you ever observe any foreign
22 females of any age that were at Jeffrey's
23 home to perform a massage?

24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
25 form and foundation.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 A. Are you asking me if any foreigner,
3 not an American person, gave Jeffrey a
4 massage?

5 Q. Yes.

6 A. Well, as I sit here today, I can't
7 think of anyone who is foreign. Certainly --
8 I just can't think of anybody right this 9 second.

10 Q. How about any foreign girls who
11 were under the age of 18?

12 A. I already testified to not knowing
13 anything about underage girls.

14 Q. Were there foreign girls who were
15 brought to Jeffrey's home by Jean Luc Brunel
16 for the purposes of providing massages?

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
18 form and foundation.

19 A. I am not aware of Jean Luc bringing 20 girls. I have not no idea what you are 21 talking about.

22 Q. You have never been around foreign 23 girls who are under the age of 18 at 24 Jeffrey's homes?

25 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the

2 form and foundation.

3 A. I already testified about not
4 knowing about underage girls.

5 Q. Did you provide any assistance with 6 obtaining visas for foreign girls that were
7 under the age of 18?

8 A. I've never participated in helping
9 people of any age to get visas.

10 Q. Did Jeffrey, was it Jeffrey's
11 preference to start a massage with sex?

12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
13 form and foundation.

14 A. I think you should ask that 15 question of Jeffrey.

16 Q. Do you know?

17 A. I don't believe that was his 18 preference. I think -- you have to 19 understand, a massage -- perhaps you are not 20 really familiar with what massage is.

21 Q. I am, I don't need a lecture on
22 massage.

23 A. I think you do.

24 MR. PAGLIUCA: No question pending.

25 She will ask you another question now.

9 that you remember that were not family or

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF’S UNREDACTED REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL DEFENDANT TO ANSWER DEPOSITION QUESTIONS

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this Reply in Support of her Motion to Compel Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions. Instead of allowing Ms. Giuffre to take a full and complete deposition, Defendant flatly refused to answer questions critical to the key issues in this case. Contrary to Defendant’s assertions, Ms. Giuffre is not engaged in a “fishing expedition” but rather seeks to ask highly-focused questions specifically relevant to this case. In particular, Ms. Giuffre seeks to ask the Defendant questions regarding her participation in or knowledge of sexual activities connected with Jeffrey Epstein’s sexual abuse of females. Such questions are entirely appropriate in the discovery phase of this case, particularly where any answers will be maintained as confidential under the Protective Order entered in this case.

As the Court is aware from previous pleadings, at the heart of this case lies the issue of Defendant’s knowledge that Ms. Giuffre was sexually abused by Jeffrey Epstein. Indeed, as the Defendant boldly acknowledges in her response (at p. 2), she intends to argue at trial that (among other things) she “never arranged for or asked [Ms. Giuffre] to have sex with anyone.” At trial,

Ms. Giuffre intends to strongly disprove Defendant's false assertions and to demonstrate that Defendant recruited Ms. Giuffre to be involved in massages of a sexual nature with Epstein.

To develop evidence to support her position, Ms. Giuffre recently deposed Defendant about the central subjects in her case. Defendant flatly refused to answer a number of questions, and for the majority of the others, gave varying versions of "I don't recall." For example, when faced with the police report which contains statements from approximately thirty (30) different victims during a time frame which the Defendant acknowledges she was actively working for Epstein at his various homes, Defendant challenged the veracity of the victims' reports:

"Q. Are you saying these 30 girls are lying when they gave these reports to police officers?

A. I'm not testifying to their lies. I'm testifying to Virginia's lies."

See Declaration of Sigrid McCawley ("McCawley Decl.") at Exhibit 1, April 22, 2016

Deposition of Defendant at p. 89-90; 83-84. While Defendant was working with Epstein during the time period when these underage girls were visiting Jeffrey's home, Defendant claimed to be at the house maybe once in 2005. Id. at p. 84. Yet, according to flight manifests, in that same general time period, Defendant was listed as a passenger at least eleven times either landing in or departing from West Palm Beach, Florida on Jeffrey Epstein's private plane. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, April 22, 2016 Depo Tr. at p. 84; see also McCawley Decl. at Composite Exhibit 2, Flight Logs from Jeffrey Epstein's private planes.

Moreover, again according to flight logs, Defendant was on Epstein's planes over 300 times – including 23 times with Ms. Giuffre when Ms. Giuffre was underage. Yet, quite remarkably, Defendant claimed she "couldn't recall" even one of those flights. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, April 22, 2016 Deposition of Defendant at p. 120-122.

Defendant even testified that she did not recall having Ms. Giuffre at her London townhome with Prince Andrew. Defendant stuck to this incredible story despite flight logs establishing her traveling to London with Ms. Giuffre and despite a photograph the three – Ms. Giuffre, Prince Andrew and Defendant – all standing together in Defendant’s home. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, April 22, 2016 Deposition of Defendant at p. 108-111. Defendant’s deposition consisted almost entirely of “I don’t recall” or “I refuse to answer that question”¹ and also included a physical outburst that knocked the court reporter’s computer off the conference room table. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, April 22, 2016 Deposition of Defendant at 207-208.

Among the many questions that Defendant refused to answer at her deposition were a number of questions designed to show that Defendant was well aware that, for Epstein, a “massage” was actually a code word sexual activity – i.e., not a therapeutic massage but rather activity that involved sexual gratification for Epstein. Defendant refused to answer all such questions, asserting that they involved “private adult sexual relationships” which did not “relate in any way” to Ms. Giuffre’s claims. Id. at p. 4. But Defendant’s involvement in such “relationships” with Epstein would show that she knew full well the fate that was in store for Ms. Giuffre when she accepted Defendant’s invitation to come and provide “massages” to Epstein. Defendant admitted that she worked for Epstein from 1992 to 2009. See McCawley Decl. at

“Q. Have you ever said to anybody that you recruit girls to take the pressure off you, so you won’t have to have sex with Jeffrey, have you said that?”

A. You don’t ask me questions like that. First of all, you are trying to trap me, I will not be trapped. You are asking me if I recruit. I told you no. Girls meaning underage, I already said I don’t do that with underage people and as to ask me about a specific conversation I had with language, we talking about almost 17 years ago when this took place. I cannot testify to an actual conversation or language that I used with anybody at any time.”

See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, April 22, 2016 Depo Tr. at p. 94-95.

Exhibit 1, April 22, 2016 Deposition of Defendant at p. 10-11, 410. As the Court knows, the Palm Beach Police Report demonstrates multiple incidents of “massages” being given by untrained minor children that involved sexual acts. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 3, Palm Beach Police Report. Defendant is also identified in that Palm Beach Police Report. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 3, Palm Beach Police Report at p. 75-76. And the details of Epstein’s sexual activities with Defendant (for example) are highly relevant to this case, because they will help corroborate Ms. Giuffre’s testimony that, while she was underage, she also engaged in sexual activity of an identical nature with Epstein.

To allow Defendant to avoid answering these questions would preclude Ms. Giuffre from getting critical evidence in this case. Consider, for example, Defendant recruiting an eighteen year-old girl to be an “assistant,” bringing that girl to Epstein’s home, telling her she could make more money if she would give Epstein a massage, and then instructing her to give a massage that involved sexual acts. Under Defendant’s theory of discovery, Ms. Giuffre would be precluded from deposing her on that topic because the actions would culminate in “consensual adult sex.” Yet, that scenario would fully validate the pattern of events that occurred with Ms. Giuffre when she was under the age of eighteen. It would obviously show a “modus operandi” by Jeffrey Epstein and Defendant, which is clearly admissible under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b).

Moreover, such inquiries are crucial to impeaching the Defendant at trial. During her deposition, Defendant attempted to characterize her work for Epstein as nothing more than a normal job handling hiring for the various mansions. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, April 22, 2016 Deposition Tr. of Defendant at p. 9-12. Ms. Giuffre should be able to contest that assertion by having Defendant fully answer questions about whether that alleged “job” involved sexual activities, including orchestrating the hiring of females and converting massages into sexual encounters.

Defendant attempts to paint the picture that Ms. Giuffre somehow is interested in all sexual relationships that the Defendant may have been involved with. That is not true. Ms. Giuffre has no intention of asking unbridled questions. To be clear, Ms. Giuffre intends to ask Defendant only questions that involve the following very narrow and crucial subject areas: (1) Defendant's sexual relationship with Epstein from 1992 to 2009 – the time period in which she worked for Jeffrey Epstein and which Epstein (with the assistance of Defendant) was engaging in sexual acts with females under the cover of "massage"; (2) Defendant's sexual interactions with any person in Epstein's presence during that time period; (3) Defendant's sexual activities at Epstein's residences, including his private island "Little St. Jeff's," or his aircraft during that time period; (4) Defendant's sexual activities with identified participants in Epstein's sexual abuse during that time period; and (5) Defendant's sexual interactions that occurred during or through what began as a "massage"; and (6) Defendant's interactions with females to introduce to Jeffrey Epstein for the purpose of performing work, including sexual massages.

Defendant claims that such questions are a mere "fishing expedition" without acknowledging the fact that these questions go to critical issues in this case. Other witnesses have testified regarding Defendant's involvement in recruiting females for sex under the cover of a "massage." During the investigation of Jeffrey Epstein, certain household staff was deposed. Alfredo Rodriguez, who was Jeffrey Epstein's household manager, testified that the Defendant frequently stayed in Jeffrey Epstein's home and assisted with bringing in young girls to act as "masseuses" for Jeffrey Epstein.

Q. "Okay. Going back to where we started here was, does Ghislaine Maxwell have knowledge of the girls that would come over to Jeffrey Epstein's house that are in roughly the same age group as C. and T. (minor children) and to have a good time as you put it?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was her involvement and/or knowledge about that?

A. She knew what was going on.”

See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4, Alfredo Rodriguez July 29, 2009 Dep. Tr. at 176-177. See also McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4, Alfredo Rodriguez July 29, 2009 Depo Tr. at 96-101 (noting that high school age girls come to the home where Jeffrey Epstein and Ms. Maxwell reside).

Juan Alessi, another household employee, also testified that young girls were regularly present at

Jeffrey Epstein’s home where Ghislaine Maxwell resides. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5,

Juan Alessi November 21, 2005 Sworn Statement at p. 15-16, 21. Specifically, Juan Alessi informed the Palm Beach Police Detective as follows: “Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at most.” (emphasis added.) See

McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 3, Palm Beach Police Report at p. 57.

During Juan Alessi’s November 21, 2005 Sworn Statement taken by the Palm Beach

Police Department, Mr. Alessi revealed that girls would come over to give “massages” and he observed Ms. Maxwell going upstairs in the direction of the bedroom quarters. See McCawley

Decl. at Exhibit 5, Juan Alessi November 21, 2005 Sworn Statement at 10. He also testified that after the massages, he would clean up sex toys that were kept in “Ms. Maxwell’s closet.” Id. at 11-13. See also McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 6, Juan Alessi September 8, 2009 Depo Tr. at p. 76-

77. He added that he and his wife were concerned with what was going on at the house (Id. at

14) and that he observed girls at the house, including one named “Virginia.” Id. at 21.

Mr. Rodriguez also testified that Defendant also had naked pictures of girls performing sexual acts on her computer. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 7, Alfredo Rodriguez August 7,

2009 Dep. Tr. at 311-312; See also McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 6, Juan Alessi September 8, 2009

Depo Tr. at p. 40-41 (“I know she [Maxwell] went out and took pictures in the pool because later on I would see them at the desk or at the house. And nude - 99.9 percent of the time they were topless. They were European girls.”).

Q. “Did they appear to be doing any sexual?

A. Yes, ma’am.

Q. And in these instances were there girls doing sexual things with other girls?

A. Yes, ma’am.

Q. And I’m still talking about the pictures on Ms. Maxwell’s computer.

A. Yes, ma’am.”

Upon leaving his employment, Rodriguez testified that Defendant threatened him that he should not tell anyone about what happened at the house:

A. “I have to say something. Mrs. Maxwell called me and told me not to ever discuss or contact her again in a threaten(ing) way.

Q. When was this?

A. Right after I left because I call one of the friends for a job and she told me this, but, you know, I feel intimidated and so I want to keep her out...

Q. She made a telephone call to you and what precisely did she say?

A. She said I forbid you that you’re going to be – that I will be sorry if I contact any of her friends again...She said something like don’t open your mouth or something like that. I’m a civil humble, I came as an immigrant to service people, and right now you feel a little –I’m 55 and I’m afraid. First of all, I don’t have a job, but I’m glad this is on tape because I don’t want nothing to happen to me. This is the way they treat you, better do this and you shut up and don’t talk to nobody and—

Q. When you say this is the way they treat, who specifically are you talking about when you say that word they?

A. Maxwell. ”

See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4, Alfredo Rodriguez July 29, 2009 Dep. Tr. at 169 – 172.

In sum, at the core of this case are statements made by Ms. Giuffre that she was recruited, by Defendant, to be paid as a masseuse, yet was enticed or coerced into engaging in sexual acts with Epstein and Defendant for money. She has further explained that the recruitment of females through the offer of some legitimate position was the typical way in which Defendant and Epstein lured unsuspecting females to the house before converting the relationship into a sexual

one. Ms. Giuffre has described the frequency of these “massages”, the sexual tendencies of the participants, the manner in which the massages became sexual in nature, and Defendant’s role at each stage.

In response, Defendant has called Ms. Giuffre’s entire account “untrue” and “obvious lies.” Defendant has instead tried to portray her role as nothing more than an Epstein employee performing typical household management duties. Any personal knowledge Defendant has of Epstein’s sexual tendencies, habits, and use of massage for sex is entirely relevant to either corroborate Ms. Giuffre’s account. Likewise, Defendant’s participation in any sexual acts with Epstein, in his presence, on his properties, using his mode of converting massages into sex, or with females will directly corroborate Ms. Giuffre’s account. On the other hand, without access to the answers to these inquiries, Ms. Giuffre will be unable to expose the bias of Defendant, unable to thoroughly cross-examine Defendant’s position that she was just a lowly employee, and most importantly unable to demonstrate through the Defendant’s own admissions that Ms. Giuffre’s statements about Epstein and Defendant were absolutely true – and not “obvious lies.”

Finally, Defendant fails to recognize that, for the discovery purposes at issue here, relevance “is an extremely broad concept.” Am. Fed’n of Musicians of the United States & Canada v. Sony Music Entm’t, Inc., No. 15CV05249GBDBCM, 2016 WL 2609307, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 29, 2016). And once relevance is shown, “the party resisting discovery bears the burden of demonstrating that, despite the broad and liberal construction afforded the federal discovery rules, the requests are irrelevant, or are overly broad, burdensome, or oppressive.” Id. Here, the requests are not “overly broad” as Ms. Giuffre’s specific explanations of the targets of her questions make clear. Moreover, answering the questions is not “oppressive,” particularly given the fact that Defendant has placed all substantive aspects of the Deposition under seal. Of course, once Defendant answers the question – and her answers are placed under seal – the parties can file any further motions that may be required to determine whether the answers may be introduced at trial.

CONCLUSION

Defendant should be ordered to answer questions regarding sexual activity connected with Epstein's sexual abuse and sexual trafficking organization as specifically identified above

I don't remember, sir, but probably I 10 did. 11 MR. CRITTON: Form, move to strike, 12 speculation. 13 BY MR. MERMELSTEIN: 14 Q. Why do you say you probably did? 15 A. Because I was the only one paying -- 16 well, not the only one but, you know, but chances 17 are I paid her but I don't remember that 18 particular instance that I gave her money. 19 Q. Is it fair to say that the girls who came 20 to the Palm Beach residence, these are not the 21 girls who are staying there, the girls who came -- 22 were there to give massages. Correct? 23 MR. CRITTON: Form. 24 THE WITNESS: Yes. 25 BY MR. MERMELSTEIN:

GIUFFRE0001003

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF’S NON-REDACTED MOTION FOR LEAVE TO SERVE THREE DEPOSITION SUBPOENAS BY MEANS OTHER THAN PERSONAL SERVICE

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this Motion for Leave to Serve Three Deposition Subpoenas by Means Other Than Personal Service. The three persons to be subpoenaed – Jeffrey Epstein, Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcinkova – were each involved in the sexual abuse and sexual trafficking at issue in this case. It appears that all three of them have evaded attempts to personally serve them (and two of the persons, Epstein and Kellen, have attorneys who have not been authorized by their clients to accept service). Ms. Giuffre seeks leave to provide service by several alternative means that are designed to assure actual notice is provided to these persons. See Declaration of Sigrid McCawley (“McCawley Decl.”) at Composite Exhibit 1, Subpoenas for Jeffrey Epstein, Sarah Kellen (aka Sarah Kensington and Sarah Vickers) and Nadia Marcinkova. This Court has repeatedly held that Fed. R. Civ. P. 45 permits alternative service in appropriate circumstances, and this case presents such circumstances. Accordingly, the Court should grant Ms. Giuffre leave to serve deposition subpoenas by alternative means.

BACKGROUND

At the heart of this case lies Ms. Giuffre's allegations that that she was sexually abused by Jeffrey Epstein and the Defendant. Ms. Giuffre has also alleged that Epstein and the Defendant were aided by others who played keys roles in the sex trafficking organization, including Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcinkova. Defendant has called Ms. Giuffre a "liar" and Ms. Giuffre is now in the process of assembling testimony and evidence to prove the truth of her allegations.

Apart from the Defendant in this case, Jeffrey Epstein is the most important person for Ms. Giuffre to depose. It was Epstein who gave the directions to Maxwell to recruit Ms. Giuffre and bring her to Epstein's mansions to be sexually abused. At several points during her recent deposition, Ms. Maxwell refused to answer Ms. Giuffre's questions about Epstein, but instead told her she should go ask Epstein about the subject. See, e.g., Tr. of Depo. of Defendant (Apr. 22, 2016) at 100 ("Q: ... [W]as it Jeffrey's preference to start a massage with sex? . . . A: I think you should ask that question of Jeffrey."); id. at 146-47 ("Q: So would [Ms. Giuffre] be brought on trips that were for the purpose of work and decorating the house? A: Like I said, I never worked with her but you would have to ask Jeffrey what he brought her on the trip for."); id. at 389-90 ("Q: Does [Epstein] . . . have any knowledge of any illegal activity that you've conducted? . . . A: If you want to ask Jeffrey questions about me, you would have to ask him."). See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2.

Because of Epstein's importance to this case, Ms. Giuffre has diligently tried to personally serve Epstein with a subpoena for his deposition. Epstein, however, appears to have no interest in answering questions under oath about the scope of his sex trafficking organization and he has not authorized his lawyer to accept service of the subpoena. On March 7, 2016, Ms.

Giuffre's counsel contacted counsel for Epstein to seek agreement that he would accept service of the subpoena in this matter. See McCawley Decl. at Composite Exhibit 3, Electronic Correspondence to Attorney Marty Weinberg. Ms. Giuffre was unable to obtain that agreement so she retained an investigative company to attempt to locate Epstein for purposes of personal service¹. As explained in the attached affidavit, the Alpha Group Investigators commenced efforts to personally serve Epstein on April 26, 2016. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4 Affidavit of Douglas G. Mercer, Chief Investigator Alpha Group. Those efforts have continued for weeks, and included over sixteen (16) attempts to personally serve Epstein, including as recently as May 18, 2016, at which time the investigator affixed the subpoena to the front door of Epstein's residence and mailed copies of the subpoena to both of his New York addresses along with a witness check. Counsel for Ms. Giuffre also provided a copy of the subpoena to Marty Weinberg, Epstein's attorney.

Jeffrey Epstein is not the only key witness who has been evading Ms. Giuffre's efforts to depose them. The next echelon in the sex trafficking organization below Epstein and the Defendant includes Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcinkova. Ms. Giuffre alleges that they were heavily involved in the sex trafficking. Both Kellen and Marcinkova appear repeatedly on the flight logs of Jeffrey Epstein's aircraft. The U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida specifically identified both Kellen and Marcinkova as among four named "potential co-conspirators of Epstein" in the non-prosecution agreement it executed with Epstein as part of his guilty plea to Florida state sex offense charges. See Non-Prosecution Agreement, In re: Investigation of Jeffrey Epstein at 7. Additionally, both Kellen and Marcinkova previously invoked their 5th amendment privileges when asked about their involvement in Epstein and Defendant's sex trafficking ring. At her recent deposition, Defendant appeared to be well aware of the fact that Epstein had potential co-conspirators. See, e.g., Tr. of Depo. of Defendant (Apr. 22, 2016) at 49 ("Q: Are you aware that Sarah Kellen was . . . named as a co-conspirator in the case involving Jeffrey Epstein? . . . A: I am aware."). See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2.

As with Epstein, however, Kellen and Marcinkova appear to be evading efforts to serve them. On March 31, 2016, Ms. Giuffre's counsel reached out to Sarah Kellen's counsel to seek agreement that she would accept service of the subpoena in this matter. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5, Electronic Correspondence with Bruce Reinhart, of McDonald Hopkins, LLP in West Palm Beach, Florida. Mr. Reinhart represented that Ms. Kellen refused to allow her counsel to accept service of the subpoena, so Ms. Giuffre was forced to commence the efforts to attempt to personally serve her with the subpoena. As explained in the attached affidavit, the Alpha Group Investigators commenced efforts to personally serve Kellen on April 26, 2016. See McCawley Decl. at 4, Affidavit of Douglas G. Mercer, Chief Investigator Alpha Group. Those efforts have continued with over nineteen (19) attempts at service and concluded as recently as May 18, 2016, at which time the investigator affixed the subpoena to the front door of Kellen's residence and mailed copies of the subpoena to both of her New York addresses. Ms. Giuffre's counsel also provided a copy of the subpoena to Kellen's attorney.

Marcinkova has also been evading service. Ms. Giuffre has had her investigators make efforts to attempt to personally serve Marcinkova at her New York residence, and also made efforts to try to personally serve her while on a trip to California, but has been unable to obtain personal service. Ms. Giuffre's investigators made over ten (10) attempts to personally serve Marcinkova. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4, Affidavit of Douglas G. Mercer, Chief Investigator Alpha Group. In addition, counsel for Ms. Giuffre reached out to Ms. Marcinkova's former counsel but he indicated that he could not accept service as he no longer represents her. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 6, Electronic Correspondence with Jack Goldberger, at Atterbury, Goldberger & Weiss, P.A., in West Palm Beach, Florida.

(GIUFFRE001695). Both Marcinkova and Kellen are key witnesses in this action because they were present with Mr. Epstein and Maxwell during the time period when Virginia Giuffre was with Epstein and Maxwell.

ARGUMENT

A. The Court Should Permit Alternative Service

In the unique circumstances of this case, this Court should grant Ms. Giuffre leave to serve Jeffrey Epstein, Sarah Kellen, and Nadia Marcinkova via means other than personal service, because they are evading service of process and there are other means to assure actual notice. Under Rule 45(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, “[s]erving a subpoena requires delivering a copy to the named person” The purpose of “requiring delivery to a named person is to ‘ensure receipt, so that notice will be provided to the recipient, and enforcement of the subpoena will be consistent with the requirements of due process.’”

Aristocrat Leisure Ltd. v. Deutsche Bank Trust Co. Americas, 262 F.R.D. 293, 304 (S.D.N.Y. 2009) (quoting Med. Diagnostic Imaging, PLLC v. CareCore Nat., LLC, Nos. 06 Civ. 7764 & 06 Civ. 13516, 2008 WL 3833238, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 15, 2008) (internal quotation marks omitted)). See also First City, Texas-Houston, N.A. v. Rafidain Bank, 197 F.R.D. 250, 255 (S.D.N.Y. 2000) (finding that attaching a subpoena to the door, and mailing another copy to counsel of record was sufficient). Cases not only from this Court, but also from others in the Second Circuit, have interpreted that rule “liberally” to allow service so long as the “the type of service used ‘was calculated to provide timely actual notice.’” Aristocrat Leisure Ltd., 262 F.R.D. at 304 (quoting CareCore, 2008 WL 3833238, at *2 (noting that “nothing in the word ‘delivering’ [in Rule 45(b)(1)] indicates personal service, and a personal service requirement can be unduly restrictive”); see also Cordius Trust v. Kummerfeld, No. 99 Civ. 3200, 2000 WL 10268, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 3, 2000) (holding that because “alternative service by means of certified mail reasonably insures actual receipt of the subpoena by the witness, the ‘delivery’ requirement of Rule 45 will be met”); JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. v. IDW Grp., LLC, No. 08 CIV. 9116(PGG), 2009 WL 1313259, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. May 11, 2009) (“this Court joins other courts in this District in holding that effective service [of a deposition subpoena] under Rule 45 is not limited to personal service” (internal quotation omitted)).

A prerequisite for using means other than personal service is typically that the party “requesting the accommodation diligently attempted to effectuate personal service.” OceanFirst Bank v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., 794 F. Supp. 2d 752, 754 (E.D. Mich. 2011) (citing Franklin v. State Farm Afire and Casualty Co., 2009 WL 3152993, at *2 (E.D. Mich. 2009)). Here, Ms. Giuffre has diligently attempted to make personal service on each of the three individuals, having made multiple attempts to personal service them, including going to different locations at different times on different days, and attempting to reach them through their attorneys. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4, Affidavit of Douglas G. Mercer, Chief Investigator Alpha Group. Indeed, it appears that the only reason that personal service has been unsuccessful thus far is that the important witnesses Ms. Giuffre is attempting to serve are fully aware of her efforts and are attempting to evade service. This Court will recall that efforts to evade service are a familiar practice of Jeffrey Epstein and his colleagues. As described in earlier pleadings in this case, for example, the Defendant herself refused to comply with a deposition subpoena in an earlier case brought by one of Jeffrey Epstein's sexual assault victims. See Decl. of Sigrid McCawley at Composite Exhibit 9, Maxwell Deposition Notice; Subpoena and Cancellation Payment Notice, and January 13, 2015 Daily Mail Article.

Ms. Giuffre proposes that she be permitted to serve her deposition notices by means other than personal service. Ms. Giuffre asks this Court to rule that she be permitted to serve each of the three individuals in ways that are reasonably calculated to give them actual notice. The specific means that Ms. Giuffre proposes are the means that her investigators took on May 18th of posting the subpoenas to the addresses associated with each of the witnesses and mailing the subpoenas to those addresses with the witness fee check and providing copies of the subpoenas via e-mail to the witnesses known counsel. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4, Affidavit of Douglas G. Mercer, Chief Investigator Alpha Group.

Means such as those described above have been approved by this Court in other cases. For example, in Medical Diagnostic Imaging, PLLC v. Carecore National, LLC, 2008 WL 3833238 (S.D.N.Y. 2008) (Katz, J.), this Court allowed service of a deposition subpoena to be made through mailing a copy of the subpoena to the witness' place of employment along with a copy of the Court's order directing the witness to comply with the subpoena or face sanctions. Id. at *3. Similarly, in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. v. IDW Grp., LLC, No. 08 CIV. 9116(PGG), 2009 WL 1313259, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. May 11, 2009), this Court allowed service of a deposition subpoena to be made by sending a copy of the deposition subpoena to the witness' place of business and residence by certified mail; leaving a copy of the deposition subpoena at the witness' residence and place of business with a person of suitable age and discretion; and remitting a copy of the deposition subpoena by electronic mail and certified mail to counsel for a related corporation. And, in at least two cases, this Court has found that certified mailing of a subpoena to the witness alone satisfies Rule 45. See Cordius Trust v. Kummerfeld, 1999 U.S. Dist. Lexis 19980, *5–*6 (S.D.N.Y.1999); Ultradent Products, Inc. v. Hayman, No. M8-85 RPP, 2002 WL 31119425, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 24, 2002). Here, the means of service exceed those approved in those other cases and should be permitted.

CONCLUSION

Ms. Giuffre should be granted leave to serve Jeffrey Epstein, Sarah Kellen, and Nadia Marcincova with deposition subpoenas by means other than personal service. As Ms. Giuffre has made multiple attempts at personal service, Ms. Giuffre should be granted leave to serve deposition subpoenas by the means employed by her investigators of posting the subpoenas to the known locations and also sending the subpoenas via U.S. mail.

JANE DOE #1 and JANE DOE #2

v.

UNITED STATES
_____ /

JANE DOE #3 AND JANE DOE #4'S MOTION PURSUANT TO RULE 21 FOR JOINDER IN ACTION

COME NOW Jane Doe #3 and Jane Doe #4 (also referred to as “the new victims”), by and through undersigned counsel, to file this motion pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 21 to join this action, on the condition that they not re-litigate any issues already litigated by Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 (also referred to as “the current victims”). The new victims have suffered the same violations of their rights under the Crime Victims’ Rights Act (CVRA) as the current victims. Accordingly, they desire to join in this action to vindicate their rights as well. Because the new victims will not re-litigate any issues previously litigated by the current victims (and because they are represented by the same legal counsel as the current victims), the Government will not be prejudiced if the Court grants the motion. The Court may “at any time” add new parties to the action, Fed. R. Civ. P. 21. Accordingly, the Court should grant the motion.¹

¹ As minor victims of sexual offenses, Jane Doe #3 and Jane Doe #4 desire to proceed by way of pseudonym for the same reasons that Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 proceeded in this

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

As the Court is aware, more than six years ago, Jane Doe #1 filed the present action against the Government, alleging a violation of her rights under the CVRA, 18 U.S.C. § 3771. DE1. She alleged that Jeffrey Epstein had sexually abused her and that the United States had entered into a secret non-prosecution agreement (NPA) regarding those crimes in violation of her rights. At the first court hearing on the case, the Court allowed Jane Doe #2 to also join the action. Both Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 specifically argued that the government had failed to protect their CVRA rights (inter alia) to confer, to reasonable notice, and to be treated with fairness. In response, the Government argued that the CVRA rights did not apply to Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 because no federal charges had ever been filed against Jeffrey Epstein.

The Court has firmly rejected the United States' position. In a detailed ruling, the Court concluded that the CVRA extended rights to Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 even though federal charges were never filed. DE 189. The Court explained that because the NPA barred prosecution of crimes committed against them by Epstein, they had "standing" to assert violations of the CVRA rights. Id. The Court deferred ruling on whether the two victims would be entitled to relief, pending development of a fuller evidentiary record. Id.

Two other victims, who are in many respects similarly situated to the current victims, now wish to join this action. The new victims joining at this stage will not cause any delay and their joinder in this case is the most expeditious manner in which to pursue their rights. Because the background regarding their abuse is relevant to the Court's assessment of whether to allow them to join, their circumstances are recounted here briefly.

fashion. Counsel for the new victims have made their true identities known to the Government.

Jane Doe #3's Circumstances

As with Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2, Jane Doe #3 was repeatedly sexually abused by Epstein. The Government then concealed from Jane Doe #3 the existence of its NPA from Jane Doe #3, in violation of her rights under the CVRA. If allowed to join this action, Jane Doe #3 would prove the following:

In 1999, Jane Doe #3 was approached by Ghislaine Maxwell, one of the main women whom Epstein used to procure under-aged girls for sexual activities and a primary co-conspirator in his sexual abuse and sex trafficking scheme. In fact, it became known to the government that Maxwell herself regularly participated in Epstein's sexual exploitation of minors, including Jane Doe #3. Maxwell persuaded Jane Doe #3 (who was then fifteen years old) to come to Epstein's mansion in a fashion very similar to the manner in which Epstein and his other co-conspirators coerced dozens of other children (including Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2). When Jane Doe #3 began giving Epstein a "massage," Epstein and Maxwell turned it into a sexual encounter, as they had done with many other victims. Epstein then became enamored with Jane Doe #3, and with the assistance of Maxwell converted her into what is commonly referred to as a "sex slave." Epstein kept Jane Doe #3 as his sex slave from about 1999 through 2002, when she managed to escape to a foreign country and hide out from Epstein and his co-conspirators for years. From 1999 through 2002, Epstein frequently sexually abused Jane Doe #3, not only in West Palm Beach, but also in New York, New Mexico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, in international airspace on his Epstein's private planes, and elsewhere.

Epstein also sexually trafficked the then-minor Jane Doe, making her available for sex to politically-connected and financially-powerful people. Epstein's purposes in "lending" Jane Doe (along with other young girls) to such powerful people were to ingratiate himself with them for business, personal, political, and financial gain, as well as to obtain potential blackmail information.

One such powerful individual that Epstein forced then-minor Jane Doe #3 to have sexual relations with was former Harvard Law Professor Alan Dershowitz, a close friend of Epstein's and well-known criminal defense attorney. Epstein required Jane Doe #3 to have sexual relations with Dershowitz on numerous occasions while she was a minor, not only in Florida but also on private planes, in New York, New Mexico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. In addition to being a participant in the abuse of Jane Doe #3 and other minors, Dershowitz was an eye-witness to the sexual abuse of many other minors by Epstein and several of Epstein's co-conspirators. Dershowitz would later play a significant role in negotiating the NPA on Epstein's behalf. Indeed, Dershowitz helped negotiate an agreement that provided immunity from federal prosecution in the Southern District of Florida not only to Epstein, but also to "any potential co-conspirators of Epstein." NPA at 5. Thus, Dershowitz helped negotiate an agreement with a provision that provided protection for himself against criminal prosecution in Florida for sexually abusing Jane Doe #3. Because this broad immunity would have been controversial if disclosed, Dershowitz (along with other members of Epstein's defense team) and the Government tried to keep the immunity provision secret from all of Epstein's victims and the general public, even though such secrecy violated the Crime Victims' Rights Act.

Ghislaine Maxwell was another person in Epstein's inner circle and a co-conspirator in Epstein's sexual abuse. She was someone who consequently also appreciated the immunity granted by the NPA for the crimes she committed in Florida. In addition to participating in the sexual abuse of Jane Doe #3 and others, Maxwell also took numerous sexually explicit pictures of underage girls involved in sexual activities, including Jane Doe #3. She shared these photographs (which constituted child pornography under applicable federal laws) with Epstein. The Government is apparently aware of, and in certain instances possesses some of these photographs.

Perhaps even more important to her role in Epstein's sexual abuse ring, Maxwell had direct connections to other powerful individuals with whom she could connect Epstein. For instance, one such powerful individual Epstein forced Jane Doe #3 to have sexual relations with was a member of the British Royal Family, Prince Andrew (a/k/a Duke of York). Jane Doe #3 was forced to have sexual relations with this Prince when she was a minor in three separate geographical locations: in London (at Ghislaine Maxwell's apartment), in New York, and on Epstein's private island in the U.S. Virgin Islands (in an orgy with numerous other under-aged girls). Epstein instructed Jane Doe #3 that she was to give the Prince whatever he demanded and required Jane Doe #3 to report back to him on the details of the sexual abuse. Maxwell facilitated Prince Andrew's acts of sexual abuse by acting as a "madame" for Epstein, thereby assisting in internationally trafficking Jane Doe #3 (and numerous other young girls) for sexual purposes.

Another person in Epstein's inner circle of friends (who becomes apparent with almost no investigative effort) is Jean Luc Brunel. Epstein sexually trafficked Jane Doe #3 to Jean Luc Brunel many times. Brunel was another of Epstein's closest friends and a regular traveling companion, who had many contacts with young girls throughout the world. Brunel has been a model scout for various modeling agencies for many years and apparently was able to get U.S. passports for young girls to “work” as models. He would bring young girls (ranging to ages as young as twelve) to the United States for sexual purposes and farm them out to his friends, especially Epstein. Brunel would offer the girls “modeling” jobs. Many of the girls came from poor countries or impoverished backgrounds, and he lured them in with a promise of making good money. Epstein forced Jane Doe #3 to observe him, Brunel and Maxwell engage in illegal sexual acts with dozens of underage girls. Epstein also forced Jane Doe #3 to have sex with Brunel on numerous occasions, at places including Epstein’s mansion in West Palm Beach, Little St. James Island in the U.S. Virgin Islands (many including orgies that were comprised of other underage girls), New York City, New Mexico, Paris, the south of France, and California.

Epstein also trafficked Jane Doe #3 for sexual purposes to many other powerful men, including numerous prominent American politicians, powerful business executives, foreign presidents, a well-known Prime Minister, and other world leaders. Epstein required Jane Doe #3 to describe the events that she had with these men so that he could potentially blackmail them.

The Government was well aware of Jane Doe #3 when it was negotiating the NPA, as it listed her as a victim in the attachment to the NPA. Moreover, even a rudimentary investigation of Jane Doe #3’s relationship to Epstein would have revealed the fact that she had been trafficked throughout the United States and internationally for sexual purposes. Nonetheless, the Government secretly negotiated a non-prosecution agreement with Epstein precluding any Federal prosecution in the Southern District of Florida of Epstein and his co-conspirators. As with Jane Doe #1, and Jane Doe #2, the Government concealed the non-prosecution agreement from Jane Doe #3 – all in violation of her rights under the CVRA – to avoid Jane Doe #3 from raising powerful objections to the NPA that would have shed tremendous public light on Epstein and other powerful individuals and that would likely have been prevented it from being concluded in the secretive manner in which it was.

Jane Doe #4's Circumstances

If permitted to join this action, Jane Doe #4 would allege, and could prove at trial, that she has CVRA claims similar to those advanced by Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2, based on the following:

As with the other Jane Does, Jane Doe #4 was repeatedly sexually abused by Epstein. In or around the summer of 2002, Jane Doe #4, an economically poor and vulnerable sixteen-year-old child, was told by another one of Epstein's underage minor sex abuse victims, that she could make $300 cash by giving an old man a massage on Palm Beach. An acquaintance of Jane Doe #4 (also a minor sexual abuse victim of Epstein) telephoned Epstein and scheduled Jane Doe #4 to go to Epstein's house to give him a massage. During that call, Epstein himself got on the phone (a means of interstate communication) with Jane Doe #4, asking her personally to come to his mansion in Palm Beach.

Jane Doe #4 then went to Epstein's mansion and was escorted upstairs to Epstein's large bathroom by one of Epstein's assistants. Shortly thereafter Jeffrey Epstein emerged and lay face down on the table and told Jane Doe #4 to start massaging him. Epstein asked Jane Doe #3 her age and she told him she had recently turned sixteen. Epstein subsequently committed illegal sexual acts against Jane Doe #4 on many occasions.

Epstein used a means of interstate communication (i.e., a cell phone) to arrange for these sexual encounters. Epstein also frequently travelled in interstate commerce (i.e., on his personal jet) for purposes of illegally sexually abusing Jane Doe #4.

January. In the meantime, however, counsel for the victims believe that it is no longer appropriate to delay filing this motion and accordingly file it at this time. Because the Government is apparently opposing this motion, Jane Doe #3 and Jane Doe #4 have described the circumstances surrounding their claims so that the Court has appropriate information to rule on the motion.

CONCLUSION

Jane Doe #3 and Jane Doe #4 should be allowed to join this action, pursuant to Rule 21 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Their joinder should be conditioned on the requirement that they not re-litigate any issues previously litigated by Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2. A proposed order to that effect is attached to this pleading.

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this motion to take approximately seven additional depositions in this case beyond the presumptive ten deposition limit. Ms. Giuffre's requests is still within the total number of hours allowed by the ten deposition limit because the parties have agreed that they will split the time for all third party witnesses such that Ms. Giuffre will only be expending at most 3 ½ hours at those additional depositions. In an abundance of caution, even though Ms. Giuffre will not likely be exceeding the total number of hours allowed for depositions, she seeks leave from this Court to confirm that she may proceed with the additional depositions for the reasons stated below.

Ms. Giuffre has alleged that Defendant recruited females for Mr. Epstein, including underage females like herself, under the guise of working in a legitimate position - such as an assistant or as a massage therapist - only to almost immediately be coerced or enticed into engaging in sex for money. Defendant has challenged the veracity of Ms. Giuffre, and appears to intend to argue that Ms. Giuffre cannot support the allegation that Ms. Maxwell recruited females for Mr. Epstein or that the females were coerced or enticed into sex. The sexual abuse that lies at the heart of this case took place behind closed doors – doors of Jeffrey Epstein's various private mansions. Unsurprisingly, Ms. Giuffre must find supporting circumstantial evidence to support her claims. Moreover, because Mr. Epstein and Defendant were travelling between Mr. Epstein's numerous homes and thus many of the events relevant to this case took place more than 100 miles from the courthouse, Ms. Giuffre cannot compel most of the witnesses to appear via a trial subpoena. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre seeks leave to take more than the standard ten depositions in this case. At this time, she seeks leave to take seven additional depositions, as articulated below.²

² Ms. Giuffre's counsel met and conferred with Defendant's counsel both in person and by phone in an effort to obtain agreement to proceed with these depositions but was unable to obtain an agreement. See

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Court is aware of the scope of this case from earlier pleadings and numerous hearings. Initially, Ms. Giuffre anticipated the scope of discovery on this case would be narrow, because many of the events (such as flying to London on one of Epstein's planes with Maxwell) were supported by seemingly indisputable evidence, such as flight logs, and because the Defendant's counsel initially suggested that she may invoke her Fifth Amendment rights. Instead, during her recent deposition, Defendant simply failed to recall many of the most significant events in this case or refused to respond directly to many important questions. As a result, Ms. Giuffre is now in a position where she has to call multiple witnesses to establish fundamental facts in the case. For example, Defendant would not even admit that the initials "GM" which are on the private plane flight logs over 300 times, represent her initials for McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, May 17, 2016 Email Correspondence from Sigrid McCawley to Laura Menninger and Jeff Pagliuca with proposed deposition calendar. Ms. Giuffre's ability to determine exactly which depositions would need to be taken was hamstrung by the Defendant's refusal to sit for her deposition. As the Court will recall, Ms. Giuffre made efforts to set Defendant's deposition starting in February 2016, yet Defendant did not sit for her deposition until after being ordered by the Court on April 22, 2016. During that deposition, Defendant refused to answer a number of questions and refused to acknowledge basic facts in this case, thereby causing Ms. Giuffre to have to depose a number of unanticipated witnesses. Ms. Giuffre's counsel started conferring with Defendant's counsel in February 2016 and has actively engaged in discussion about these depositions that Ms. Giuffre knew she needed to take. On May 9, 2016, the parties conferred regarding deposition scheduling and Ms. Giuffre noticed depositions in accordance with the dates and locations that Defendant's counsel said were available, and, on May 17, 2016, provided her with a calendar outlining those dates. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, May 17, 2016 Email Correspondence from Sigrid McCawley. Ms. Maxwell waited until one day before the first deposition scheduled to take place on May 31, 2016 to inform Ms. Giuffre's counsel that she refuses to attend the deposition of this subpoenaed witness unless Ms. Giuffre drops her request to seek additional depositions by way of this motion. "If you intend to seek more than 10 depositions or to continue the discovery cut-off post July 1, then we will not be appearing at the depositions next week..." See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, May 27, 2016 e-mail Correspondence from Laura Menninger to Bradley Edwards. This obstruction of discovery by refusing to attend subpoenaed depositions that were noticed to her about one month ago on May 4, 2016 should not be condoned. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 3, May 4, 2016 Notice of Service and Subpoena to Juan Alessi. Defendant's counsel is also apparently refusing to appear at the other two depositions set for next week, of Maria Alessi set for Wednesday, June 1, 2016 and originally noticed on May 4, 2016 and Dave Rodgers set for Friday, June 3, 2016 and originally noticed on May 4, 2016. While Ms. Giuffre had originally hoped to be able to conclude discovery on July 1, 2016, Defendant's refusal to attend depositions and agree to scheduling is putting Ms. Giuffre in a position where she will need additional time to complete discovery. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4, May 26, 2016 Letter from Sigrid McCawley.

Ghislaine Maxwell. Therefore, Ms. Giuffre is now required to take the deposition of pilot Dave Rodgers to authenticate his pilot logs and the identity of the individuals on various flights.

In addition, as the Court knows, this case involves allegations that Ms. Giuffre was a victim of sexual abuse when she was under the age of 18 after being recruited by Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein. Ms. Giuffre has alleged that Defendant recruited her and other young females, inexperienced in massage, for sex with Jeffrey Epstein by lying to them and telling them that the job was to be her personal assistant or a massage therapist. That was a ruse. Instead, Defendant recruited these females for sex with Jeffrey Epstein and, often, with herself, and “massage” was a euphemism for sex in Defendant’s household. Defendant has stated that these claims are obvious lies.

Aside from the deposition of the Defendant, Ms. Giuffre has taken the deposition of one other witness, Johanna Sjoberg, on May 18, 2016. Ms. Sjoberg testified that, while a twenty-year-old college student with no massage training, Ms. Maxwell, a stranger to her, approached her on her college campus, and told her she would hire Ms. Sjoberg as her personal assistant. After Ms. Sjoberg began to work for Defendant inside the home she shared with Epstein, Defendant revealed that Ms. Sjoberg’s true “job” was to complete sex acts with Jeffrey Epstein. Defendant was explicit with her instructions, at one point scolding Ms. Sjoberg for failing to “finish [her] job” after Ms. Sjoberg massaged Epstein without completing the sex act, and because of this failure, Defendant, instead, had to “finish [her] job for her” and cause Epstein and complete the sex act. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5, Deposition of Johanna Sjoberg. Accordingly, in this manner, Ms. Giuffre needs to depose other witnesses to show the veracity of her claim that Defendant recruited young females, inexperienced in massage, for sex with Jeffrey Epstein, proving that Defendant was lying when she called Ms. Giuffre a liar, and knew at the time she made the defamatory statement that it was untrue. Testimony like that from Ms. Sjoberg's refutes Defendant's testimony, and goes to her credibility, and goes to the claim at the center of this case.

Additionally, to prove Ms. Giuffre's allegations, that span multiple years, on multiple continents, and multiple locations, Ms. Giuffre has arranged a series of depositions of persons with direct knowledge of the relevant issues. To prove her case, Ms. Giuffre believes that a minimum of seventeen depositions will be required. In reviewing this list of depositions, it is important to understand that only one of them – the Defendant's – will consume a full seven hours of questioning by Ms. Giuffre's counsel, as permitted under the rules. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(d)(1). Apart from the Defendant's deposition, all of the other depositions set by Ms. Giuffre have been pursuant to an agreement with Defendant's counsel that Ms. Giuffre will be given half of the seven hours to ask questions. In the descriptions below, the time Ms. Giuffre will have to ask questions (or thus far has asked questions) is indicated:

A. Depositions Taken Thus Far By Ms. Giuffre

1. Ghislaine Maxwell (7 hours). The defendant, of course, has relevant information in this case. But when Defendant was deposed, she refused to answer numerous questions about alleged adult consensual sex. Those refusals are currently before the Court in a pending motion to compel. DE 155. And, more broadly, Defendant's deposition makes it clear that she intends to contest many of the points that earlier had appeared to be potentially uncontested. For example, in pleadings before her deposition, Defendant had suggested that she might invoke her Fifth Amendment right to remain silent during questioning. Indeed, just a week before her deposition, Defendant filed a motion seeking the alternative relief of staying further proceedings so that she could get more information about whether to take the Fifth. See DE 101 at 2-4.

During her deposition, however, Defendant did not take the Fifth. Instead, she testified that she suffered from a series of memory lapses and could not recall many of the key issues in dispute in this case. As a result of Defendant's inability to remember events, a variety of issues are now in dispute. For example, at her deposition, Defendant indicated that she lacked recollection of or was otherwise unable to specifically answer the following questions:

- Whether Defendant observed a female under the age of 18 at Jeffrey Epstein's home in Palm Beach. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 6, Maxwell Depo. at 29.
- Whether Defendant had met Ms. Giuffre and introduced her to Epstein. Id. at 33.

- Whether Defendant had discussed with Prince Andrew any of the details of Ms. Giuffre's allegations against him. Id. at 400.

Because Defendant refused to answer those questions, Ms. Giuffre needs to depose other witnesses who have the requisite knowledge to testify concerning those issues.

2. Johanna Sjorberg (3 ½ hours). Ms. Sjorberg's deposition was taken on May 18, 2016, in Fort Lauderdale. She testified as follows:

- Johanna confirmed that Maxwell recruited her to work as an assistant but she was almost immediately converted into a massage therapist and worked for Maxwell and Epstein from 2001 – 2006. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5, (May 18, 2016 Deposition Tr. at p. 8-9)
- Johanna confirms that she knew Virginia was underage when she met her on the trip to NY with Jeffrey in 2001 because Virginia couldn't get into the casino and then later Johanna asked her and Virginia said she was 17. (p. 18). Johanna testified that Virginia looked young. (p. 18-19). Johanna added: "At the time I had the impression that she did not have a family or she had walked away from her family. And it seemed to me, you know, they had just sort of adopted her, not as a child, but they would take care of her." (p. 88)
- Johanna testified that Jeffrey had to have three (3) massages a day from different girls. (p. 30)
- Johanna testified that Jeffrey told her that he had three (3) massages a day because "he needed to have three orgasms a day. It was biological, like eating." (p. 32)
- Johanna testified that Maxwell "let me know that she was – she would not be able to please him as much as he needed and that is why there were other girls around." (p. 33) "She (Maxwell) said she doesn't have the time or the desire to please him as much as he needs and that's why there were other girls around." (p. 150-151)
- Johanna confirmed that she witnessed Virginia when she was seventeen (17) in Jeffrey Epstein's New York mansion with Prince Andrew and Ghislaine Maxwell. (p. 87) Johanna also testified that Prince Andrew sat with Virginia and Johanna and took a picture with a puppet in his image that had its hand and Prince Andrew's hand on their respective breasts. (p. 83)
- Johanna testified that Maxwell bought a camera for her and asked her to take naked pictures of herself for Jeffrey. (p. 145)
- Johanna testified that Maxwell would not give her the camera because Johanna "didn't finish the job" when massaging Jeffrey so Maxwell had to do it and was not happy. (p. 34) "She told me – called me after I had left and said, I have the camera for you but you cannot receive it yet because you came here and didn't finish your job and I had to finish it for you... She was implying that I did not get Jeffrey off and so she had to do it." Q When you say 'get Jeffrey off' do you mean bring him to orgasm? A. Yes." (p. 34-35)
- Maxwell told Johanna to always act "grateful" to Jeffrey Epstein. (p. 35)

- Maxwell called Johanna and the other girls her “children” when they were on a trip to the USVI. (p. 36)
- David Copperfield was at a dinner at Epstein’s and there was another girl present who looked young and Johanna asked what school she went to and Johanna did not recognize the school name as being a college and she said it was possible it was a high school aged girl. Johanna said Copperfield “questioned me if I was aware that girls were getting paid to find other girls” (p. 37-38)
- Johanna testified she heard Jeffrey call someone to try to find girls in Hawaii to send over the Fredrick Fekkai. (p. 38-39)
- Johanna testified Jeffrey told her “Clinton likes them young, referring to girls.” (p. 41)
- Johanna testified that she was naked for 25 – 50% of all massages. (p. 42)
- Johanna testified that Jeffrey made her perform sexual acts during massages including sexual toys and she had intercourse with him. (p. 43, 146-147)
- Johanna testified that Nadia Marcinkova and Maxwell were both with her in the USVI in 2005. (p. 44).
- Johanna testified that Maxwell asked her to find other girls to perform massages at the house. (p. 141) She gave a name of a girl from a restaurant to Maxwell and Maxwell paid her $200.00 for the girls’ name. “Did Maxwell ever ask you to bring other girls over for Jeffrey” (p. 46) A. Yes....”And I recall Ghislaine giving me money to bring her over...” (p. 141)
- Johanna testified that if a massage involved sexual acts that Jeffrey paid Johanna more than the normal $200.00. (p. 100-101)
- She testified that Defendant called Emmy Taylor her “slave.” (p. 15). Later she testified that Jeffrey: “He told me one time Emmy was sleeping on the plane and they were getting ready to land and he went and woke her up and she thought that meant he wanted a [sex act], so she started to unzip his pants, and he said, No, no, no you just have to wake up for landing.” (p. 143-144)
- Johanna said Defendant flew her in the helicopter from the main island to the USVI. (p. 55)
- Johanna said she believes what Virginia is saying about being abused by Jeffrey and Maxwell. “Basically that I believed her, even though she never spoke to me specifically about what was going on; that once I learned everything that happened based on reading the police report, I believed her side of the story.” (p. 122-123). “Q. And what experience in the house helped you form your opinion that what Virginia is saying is true? A. You know, Jeffrey being open with me about what other girls did for him and that I was not one of those girls. He was always trying to recruit me almost in a way that I could be one of them and travel with him and live the life of luxury if I only – if I only did this. So after five years of learning what was happening, I can look back knowing – I only knew Virginia a short time. Looking back, I can make assumptions about what was required of her.” (p. 123-124)

- She said she recalls that Defendant went to dinner with Governor Bill Richardson one time when Johanna was visiting the ranch in New Mexico (p. 110).

B. Future Depositions Sought by Ms. Giuffre

Ms. Giuffre has also scheduled the following depositions.

3. Juan Alessi (3 ½ hours). Mr. Alessi’s deposition is scheduled for May 31, 2016, in Florida³. Mr. Alessi was one of the employees in Epstein’s mansion. Mr. Alessi provided witness statements to police during the criminal investigation in Palm Beach, and was previously deposed in civil cases previously brought against Mr. Epstein. Specifically, Juan Alessi informed the Palm Beach Police Detective as follows: “Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at most.” (emphasis added.) See McCawley Decl. at Composite Exhibit 7, Palm Beach Police Incident Report at p. 57.

On November 21, 2005, the Palm Beach Police Department took a sworn statement from house employee Juan Alessi in which he revealed that girls would come over to give “massages” and he observed Ms. Maxwell going upstairs in the direction of the bedroom quarters. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 8, November 21, 2005 Sworn Statement at 10. He also testified that after the massages, he would clean up sex toys that were kept in “Ms. Maxwell’s closet.” Id. at 12-13. He added that he and his wife were concerned with what was going on at the house (Id. at 14) and that he observed girls at the house, including one named “Virginia.” Id. at 21. It is anticipated that he will testify consistently with that previous testimony.

4. Maria Alessi (3 ½ hours). Ms. Alessi's deposition is scheduled for June 1, 2016, in Florida. She was, with her husband, household staff for Epstein in the Palm Beach home he shared with Defendant, and, it is anticipated, will corroborate many of the observations of her husband about minor girls and massages inside of Epstein's Florida mansion. Mr. Alessi referenced during his prior deposition the things that Ms. Alessi observed with respect to the sexual massages and involvement of minor girls. Mrs. Alessi is also anticipated to testify regarding Ms. Maxwell's close association with Mr. Epstein and knowledge the visitors.

5. Dave Rodgers (3 ½ hours). Mr. Rodgers's deposition is scheduled for June 3, 2016, in Florida. Rodgers was one of the pilots for Epstein's private jets and will, it is anticipated, authenticate his flight logs showing Defendant and Ms. Giuffre together on the same flights. Defendant refused to admit that her name is reflected in the flight logs despite her initials "GM" appearing over 300 times. Therefore, such authentication is necessary because Defendant testified at her deposition she could not remember even the most basic things about flights in the flight logs. For example, when asked if "GM" represented her initials on the flight log, Defendant responded: "How do you know GM is me," (See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5, Maxwell Depo. at 29 at. 122) and "GM can stand for any level, it could be Georgina, George." (Id. at 123). Ms. Giuffre is also seeking additional flight logs in Mr. Rodgers possession that will further corroborate Defendant's involvement with Jeffrey Epstein.

6. Rinaldo Rizzo (3 ½ hours). Mr. Rizzo is scheduled for June 10, 2016 and will be able to testify regarding his observations of Defendant and Epstein with underage girls (girls less than 18 years of age). Mr. Rizzo was originally set for deposition on May 13, 2016 which was noticed on April 11, 2016, and Defendant requested that Ms. Giuffre reschedule that deposition just days before the scheduled date.

7. Jean Luc Brunel (3 ½ hours). Mr. Brunel's deposition is set for June 7, 2016, in New York. He has relevant information because he has known Maxwell and Epstein for many years and was present with Epstein and Defendant on many occasions at Epstein's homes in New York, Palm Beach and the USVI, and he has personal knowledge of the disputed issues in this case

8. Ross Gow (3 ½ hours). Mr. Gow is Defendant's press agent who issued the press statement at issue in this case on Defendant's behalf. He will be able to testify regarding the defamatory statement, its distribution, any other defamatory statements that were distributed, and any information he had regarding the basis for the statement. Ms. Giuffre has requested that Defendant agree to produce Mr. Gow rather than requiring the time and expense of having to serve a subpoena on Mr. Gow, located in London, under the Hague convention, but counsel for Defendant has not agreed to produce Ross Gow for deposition.

9. Dana Burns (3 ½ hours). Ms. Burns' deposition is set for June 8, 2016, in New York City. [REDACTED]

10. Jo Jo Fontanella (3 ½ hours). Jo Jo Fontanella is a critical witness because he has been working as Jeffrey Epstein's butler in his New York mansion for a number of years including during the time that Ms. Giuffre was staying the night at the mansion when she was a minor child. Virginia interacted with Mr. Fontanella frequently during the time she was with Mr. Epstein and the Defendant. Mr. Fontanella will be able to testify to what he observed at the New York mansion including his observation regarding the age and number of females who visited the house each day. Mr. Fontanella will be able to testify regarding Defendant's presence at the home at various times and what he observed Defendant doing while she was at the New York mansion.

11. Detective Joe Recarey (3 ½ hours). During Defendant's deposition, Defendant questioned the veracity of the Palm Beach Police report containing the accounts of the numerous minor children who were also sexually abused by Jeffrey Epstein. Defendant referred to at least one of those children as a prostitute, which is false. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5, Maxwell Deposition at 173:8-12; 359:11-18. The Palm Beach police report also includes statements about the Defendant. Detective Recarey is expected to testify regarding his investigation, what he observed, the evidence he collected from Mr. Epstein's Palm Beach mansion, the modus operandi of the Epstein organization, and the interviews he conducted with a number of females who were subject to abuse at the Palm Beach mansion. He will also testify regarding Jeffrey Epstein's, who is in a joint defense with Defendant, and his campaign to attack the credibility of the numerous minor children who reported sex offenses against him. Attacking the credibility of their victims, including Ms. Giuffre, is a part of Epstein and Defendant's modus operandi.

12. Former Palm Beach Police Chief Michael Reiter (3 ½ hours). Chief Reiter is scheduled for deposition on June 20, 2016. He was the Police Chief who was responsible for overseeing the Palm Beach Epstein investigation. He has made public statements about the 40 victims of Jeffrey Epstein’s abuse. He has made public statements about the fact that after he started the investigation into the crimes that took place at the Palm Beach mansion, he was followed by strange men and “investigated”. He also has made public statements that he sent to victims regarding the failure of the government to properly handle the matter. Reiter is relevant to many issues, among others, Defendant’s claimed innocence by the fact that she was never formally charged.

13. Emmy Taylor (3 ½ hours). Emmy Taylor was Defendant’s “assistant” during the time Ms. Giuffre was being abused. Ms. Taylor is on flight logs to Europe with Ms. Giuffre and other locations in the United States. Johanna Sjoberg testified that Emmy Taylor was referred to by the Defendant as “my slave” and that Ms. Taylor trained Ms. Sjoberg to give massages while Ms. Sjoberg was naked. Emmy Taylor will be able to testify as to what she observed and experienced during the years she was with Defendant and Epstein. Ms. Giuffre is still attempting to locate Ms. Taylor, but she is believed to reside in London.

15. Nadia Marcinkova (3 ½ hours). Ms. Marcinkova's deposition is set for June 16, 2016, in New York.⁴ Ms. Marcinkova was specifically identified by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida as a "potential co-conspirator of Epstein" in the non-prosecution agreement it executed with Mr. Epstein as part of his guilty plea. She has relevant information because she observed the recruitment of underage girls for sex and, in fact, participated in sex acts with minors. She was also on numerous flights with Defendant (in contradiction to Defendant's testimony), and she can provide valuable testimony about Maxwell's role in the recruitment of females.

16. Sarah Kellen (a/k/a Sarah Kensington or Sarah Vickers) (3 ½ hours). Ms. Kellen's deposition is set for June 22, 2016, in New York. Ms. Kellen specifically identified by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida as a "potential co-conspirator of Epstein" in the non-prosecution agreement it executed with Mr. Epstein as part of his guilty plea. She has relevant information because she was present during the time when Virginia was with Epstein and the Defendant, and she travelled with all of them during this critical time period. It is believed that she worked at the direction of, and directly under, Ms. Maxwell and was taught by Ms. Maxwell how to recruit females for sex with Mr. Epstein.

⁴ Marcinkova, Kellen and Epstein have not been personally served and are all subject to Ms. Giuffre's Motion for Alternative Service [D.E. 160].

17. Jeffrey Epstein (3 ½ hours). Ms. Giuffre's counsel have been in touch with Epstein's counsel and is continuing to work to schedule his deposition. Epstein lies at the center of this case, and he can testify that Defendant recruited females for sex with him, including Mrs. Giuffre, under the offer of being a massage therapist, and ultimately paid these females for sex. He can testify that Defendant lured dozens if not hundreds of young females, including many underage females, to his residences for sexual purposes.

II. DISCUSSION

Ms. Giuffre has attempted to conduct discrete, focused discovery in this case to limit any burdens on the Defendant and on the Court. Nonetheless, this case presents numerous challenges that require that she take more than ten depositions – not the least of which is Defendant's extraordinary lack of memory about many events that would appear to have indisputably taken place. Ms. Giuffre, however, is not seeking to exceed the allotted hours for depositions under Rule 45 -- only the number of depositions. Ms. Giuffre seeks leave of Court to 7 additional depositions, for a total of seventeen depositions.

Under the rules, each party is entitled to take ten depositions which total seven hours each. Fed. R. Civ. P. 29(d)(1). Thus, the presumptive time limit for depositions is a total of seventy hours (10 depositions x 7 hours per deposition). For the convenience of opposing counsel, Ms. Giuffre has stipulated that they may have half of the seven hour deposition time for each third party witness. Thus, if the Court grants Ms. Giuffre's motion, she will end up taking less than seventy hours of deposition testimony. Specifically, she will only take one deposition of seven hours (Defendant's) and sixteen depositions of three-and-a-half hours – a total of 66 and ½ hours of depositions.

In light of the accommodation she had extended to opposing counsel, Ms. Giuffre requested that opposing counsel agree that both sides could schedule additional depositions beyond the presumptive limit of ten. Defendant refused to agree and is also in disagreement about the proposed schedule for depositions, despite the fact that Ms. Giuffre scheduled depositions based on the dates Defendant's counsel represented were available for depositions in this case. At Defendant's counsel's request Ms. Giuffre scheduled depositions of witnesses who lived in the same geographical location on consecutive days to limit the travel time and expense. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1.

Sadly, it appears that Defendant's counsel may be attempting to delay Ms. Giuffre's ability to obtain depositions because certain witnesses are avoiding service and others were difficult to locate, and the time period for the close of discovery is swiftly approaching. The Court will recall that the Defendant managed to delay her deposition until April 22, 2016, through unnecessary motion practice. And now that the need to depose other witnesses has been established, Defendant's counsel are employing other delay tactics. The Court currently has before it, for example, Ms. Giuffre's motion for leave to serve three deposition subpoenas by means other than personal service. DE 160. As recounted at greater length in that motion, three of the critical witnesses in this case – Jeffrey Epstein, Sarah Kellan, and Nadia Marcinkova – have all thus far managed to evade service of process, despite repeated, diligent, and expensive efforts at personal service. Of course, all three of these witnesses are persons who have worked very closely with Defendant in the past. Epstein is also in a joint defense agreement with Defendant.

In other situations, Ms. Giuffre has been forced to delay taking depositions because of Defense Counsel. For example, Ms. Giuffre served a subpoena on Mr. Rizzo and opposing counsel on April 11, 2016 for a deposition a month later on May 13, 2016. Just days before the deposition, Defendant's counsel said they didn't realize the deposition was scheduled and that they could not proceed forward on that date. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 9, May 5, 2016 E-mail Correspondence Regarding Scheduled Depositions. This forced Ms. Giuffre's counsel to have to reset the witness for June 10, 2016. Of course, with each delay, Ms. Giuffre is hamstrung in identifying which further witnesses need to be deposed.

Under Rule 30(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, any party who wishes to conduct more than ten depositions without stipulation by the opposing party must seek leave of the court. Fed.R.Civ.P. 30(a)(2)(A)(i). Once such a motion is made, "[t]he court must grant a request to exceed ten depositions unless the additional depositions would be unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, the requesting party had a prior opportunity in discovery to obtain the information sought, or the burden or expense of additional depositions would outweigh any likely benefit." In re Weatherford Int'l Sec. Litig., No. 11 CIV. 1646 LAK JCF, 2013 WL 5762923, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 24, 2013) (citing Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(2)(C); Raniola v. Bratton, 243 F.3d 610, 628 (2d Cir.2001)). Given the liberal discovery allowed by the rules, the burden on the party seeking additional depositions is not great. Rule 30(a)(2)'s ten-deposition limit is "a useful and appropriate 'Stop' sign, not as a 'Road Closed' sign. Once any party has taken ten depositions, it makes perfect sense to require that party to demonstrate the need for more. But that showing need not be onerous. If the need exists, discovery should not be prevented." Scott v. City of Sioux City, Iowa, 298 F.R.D. 400, 402-03 (N.D. Iowa 2014).

As the Court can readily determine from the summary of anticipated testimony above, none of the anticipated testimony is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative. Rather, all of the anticipated testimony goes to central and now-disputed issues in the case. The Court should be aware that, at every turn, Defendant appears ready to brand Ms. Giuffre as a “liar” who cannot be believed. Thus, obtaining witnesses, like Ms. Sjoberg, who can corroborate that she is telling the truth is more important in this case than it would be in many others. It is equally important that Ms. Giuffre be able to depose the witnesses who can refute Defendant's testimony.

The Court can also readily determine that Ms. Giuffre has not had any prior opportunity to obtain discovery of the witnesses she seeks to depose. The case is only now in the fact discovery phase, and she has had no opportunity to previously depose these third-party witnesses.

Finally, there is no substantial burden involved with deposing seven additional witnesses. Any assessment of burden must take into account the scope of the underlying case. Ms. Giuffre is seeking both compensatory and punitive damages that would total millions of dollars. Against that backdrop, a handful of additional depositions cannot be seen as unduly burdensome. Moreover, this is not a situation where Defendant lacks means to pay for counsel to attend the depositions. Defendant's vast wealth does not appear to be in doubt.⁵

During the meet-and-confer on this issue, the Defendant's substantive reason for not stipulating to these additional depositions is that, with regard to three of the witnesses (Epstein, Kellan, and Marcinkova), it appears likely that they will invoke their Fifth Amendment right to refuse to answer some questions about Defendant's involvement in the sexual abuse of Ms. Giuffre. But until those witnesses actually take the Fifth, the conclusion that they will actually take the Fifth is, at a minimum, premature.⁶ The witness may, for example, answer some questions and not others. And, in any event, even if they take the Fifth when asked about Defendant's sexual abuse of minors, those invocations will quite likely be admissible against the Defendant at trial.

The Second Circuit has squarely held that a witness' invocation of Fifth Amendment rights can in proper circumstances be used against a party. The Second Circuit's seminal decision is LiButti v. United States, 107 F.3d 110, 121 (2d Cir. 1997), which upheld the drawing of adverse inferences based on a non-party's invocation of a Fifth Amendment right to remain silent. The Second Circuit instructed that, the circumstances of given case, rather than status of particular nonparty witness, determines whether nonparty witness' invocation of privilege against self-incrimination is admissible in course of civil litigation. Id. at 122-23. The Circuit also held that, in determining whether nonparty witness' invocation of privilege against self-incrimination in course of civil litigation and drawing of adverse inferences is admissible, court may consider the following nonexclusive factors:

- (1) nature of witness' relationship with and loyalty to party;
- (2) degree of control which party has vested in witness in regard to key facts and subject matter of litigation;
- (3) whether witness is pragmatically noncaptioned party in interest and whether assertion of privilege advances interests of witness and party in outcome of litigation; and
- (4) whether witness was key figure in litigation and played controlling role in respect to its underlying aspects.

Id. at 124-25.

Clearly, many of these factors are going to weigh heavily in favor of drawing an adverse inference against Defendant. For example, Jeffrey Epstein is a "pragmatically noncaptioned party in interest” regarding issues of whether he and Defendant together sexually abused Ms. Giuffre. And Defendant is in a joint defense agreement with Epstein. Also, some of the most important events in this case took place in private bedroom where just three people were present – Ms. Giuffre, Defendant, and Epstein. With Defendant denying these events, the fact that Epstein may take the Fifth could provide decisive information to the jury.

⁶ The Court should be aware that these are also the three witnesses who have been attempted to evade service of process.

But the Court need not make any determinations now as to precisely how these factors will play out. Instead, it is enough to note that very important and unique evidence may be secured from the deposition of each of these three individuals and therefore Ms. Giuffre should be permitted to take their deposition.

CONCLUSION

Ms. Giuffre respectfully requests that she be allowed to take a total seventeen depositions in this case.

1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now on the
2 record. This is begins Videotape No. 1 in the 3 deposition of Johanna Sjoberg, in the matter of 4 Virginia Giuffre versus Ghislaine Maxwell.

5 Today is May 18th, 2016. The time is
6 9:04 a.m. This deposition is being taken at 7 401 East Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale,
8 Florida.

9 The videographer is Ryan Kick. The court
10 reporter is Kelli Ann Willis. We both
11 represent Magna Legal Services.

12 Will counsel and all parties present state
13 their appearance and whom they represent.

14 MS. McCAWLEY: Yes. I'm Sigrid McCawley,
15 with the law firm of Boise Schiller & Flexner,
16 and I represent Virginia Giuffre. And I have
17 here two colleagues of mine, Meredith Schultz
18 and Sandra Perkins, from my firm as well.

19 MS. MENNINGER: Hi. I'm Laura Menninger
20 from Haddon Morgan & Foreman, and I represent
21 Ghislaine Maxwell.

22 MR. LOUIS: I'm Dore Louis from Sinclair
23 Louis & Zavertnik. I'm here on behalf of the 24 deponent.

25 Thereupon:

1 JOHANNA SJOBERG

2 a witness named in the notice heretofore filed,
3 being of lawful age and having been first duly
4 sworn, testified on her oath as follows:

5 E X A M I N A T I O N

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. Good morning, Johanna. Thank you for
8 coming. I'm going to talk to you a little bit about 9 the deposition process before we get started to make
10 sure you understand what's going to happen here
11 today.

12 You just heard there's a videographer, and 13 he's going to be taking your video during this 14 deposition and generally what's happening in the 15 course of the deposition.

16 And then you have a court reporter here
17 who takes down the words that we say. And it's a
18 little bit tricky because I tend to speak quickly
19 sometimes and speak over people, and she needs to 20 get down all of the words. So I'll try to do my 21 best to go slower and make sure I'm not talking over
22 you.

23 And, similarly, if you've got an answer to 24 a question, make sure that you're verbally
25 responding, not just nodding or making a gesture

1 because she can't get that down. We want to make
2 sure our responses are verbal. I'll try to remind
3 you of that if that happens.

4 Have you ever been deposed before?

5 A. No.

6 Q. No. Okay.

7 So what's going to happen is I'm going to
8 ask questions, and you'll give answers. And like I
9 said, everybody will be recording those.

10 Is there any reason, any medical reason,
11 anything you've taken today that would cause you to 12 not to be able to give truthful testimony today?

13 A. No.

14 Q. No. Okay.

15 All right. So we're going to get started,
16 and if you have any questions during the deposition
17 or you need to stop to take a break, you can just 18 let me know and we'll take that break.

19 So what I -- the only thing I ask is if 20 we're in the midst of a question, you finish the 21 answer before we take a break.

22 A. Sure.

23 Q. But I'll try to make sure that I take 24 regular breaks, as well.

25 You stated your name for the record. Can

1 you tell me your date of birth?

3 Q. That makes you how old now?

5 Q. Okay. And where are you currently living?

7 Q. And I'm going to show you what I'm going
8 to mark as the first two exhibits in the matter.
9 And I'm going to ask the court reporter if I can 10 mark those.

11 (The referred-to document was marked by
12 the court reporter for Identification as 13 Sjoberg Exhibits 1 and 2.)

14 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

15 Q. Okay. I'm going to show you what I'm 16 marking as Exhibit 1. It's going to be the 17 re-notice of your videotaped deposition, which is 18 simply a notice I'm going to show you. And then
19 Exhibit 2 is the subpoena that we served on you.

20 So you're here today pursuant to our
21 Notice of Deposition and the subpoena that we served
22 on you.

23 Are you familiar with the subpoena? Have 24 you seen that document before?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. Great.

2 All right. Do you know a female by the
3 name of Ghislaine Maxwell?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And when did you first meet Ms. Maxwell?

6 A. 2001. March probably. End of
7 February/beginning of March.

8 Q. And how did you meet her?

9 A. She approached me while I was on campus at 10 Palm Beach Atlantic College.

11 Q. And what happened when she approached you?

12 A. She asked me if I could tell her how to 13 find someone that would come and work at her house.
14 She wanted to know if there was, like, a bulletin
15 board or something that she could post, that she was 16 looking for someone to hire.

17 Q. And what did you discuss with her?

18 A. I told her where she could go to -- you
19 know, to put up a listing. And then she asked me if 20 I knew anyone that would be interested in working 21 for her.

22 Q. Did she describe what that work was going
23 to be?

24 A. She explained that she lived in Palm Beach
25 and didn't want butlers because they're too stuffy.

1 And so she just liked to hire girls to work at the
2 house, answer phones, get drinks, do the job a
3 butler would do.

4 Q. And did she tell you what she would pay
5 for that kind of a job?

6 A. At that moment, no, but later in the day,
7 yes.

8 Q. And what did she say?

9 A. Twenty dollars an hour.

10 Q. Was there anybody else with Ms. Maxwell
11 when you met her?

12 A. There was another woman with her. I don't 13 recall her or what she looks like or how old she 14 was.

15 Q. And what happened next?

16 A. And then she asked me if I would be 17 interested in working for her. And she told me that
18 she was -- I could trust her and that I could jump
19 in her car and go check out the house at that moment
20 if I wanted.

21 And so I said, Sure, let's do it, and went 22 to her home with her.

23 Q. And where was that home?

24 A. In Palm Beach.

25 Q. And did she describe that home as being

1 her home?

2 A. She described it as being her home and
3 alluded to the fact that it was her and Jeffrey's
4 home and that she had homes all over the world.
5 Yes.

6 Q. And what happened when you arrived at the 7 home?

8 A. I believe she just showed me around.

9 Q. Do you recall meeting anybody at the home?

10 A. I don't recall if I met Jeffrey at that 11 time or the next time that I was there.

12 Q. How did you meet Jeffrey? Did Maxwell
13 introduce you to Jeffrey?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What do you recall of your first meeting
16 with Jeffrey?

17 A. I remember him being in a bathrobe. I
18 recall talking to him about how I was a major in 19 psychology. And he had studied psychology, and so
20 he spoke with me about different topics.

21 I remember thinking this guy is very
22 smart. That was my first impression.

23 Q. And when you refer to Jeffrey, are you
24 referring to Jeffrey Epstein?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. How did the meeting -- you said Maxwell
2 took you to the home. Do you remember how that
3 meeting ended?

4 A. Well, she dropped me back off at campus.

5 Q. And did you --

6 A. She got my number and I took her number.
7 And then she called me the next weekend to work.

8 Q. So at that point you started working for
9 Ms. Maxwell?

10 A. At that time, yes.

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

12 Sorry.

13 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

14 Q. Did you then start working for Ms. Maxwell
15 after that first meeting?

16 A. She called me and I went over to the home
17 the next Sunday to work.

18 Q. And what work -- can you describe for me
19 the first day at work, what work you performed?

20 A. Sure. I remember answering the phones and 21 taking messages. And at one point, she asked me to 22 go pick up printer ink, and I took her car to Office
23 Depot to get ink.

24 She asked me to go buy some magazines, so
25 I went to Palm Beach Daily News and bought a few

1 magazines.

2 She and I went -- she wanted to take me
3 shopping to Worth Avenue, but it was a Sunday and
4 Nieman Marcus was closed, so we went back to, like,
5 a little book store. And I remember she bought, I
6 think, five pairs of reading glasses because she
7 thought Jeffrey would like them. He had them all
8 over the house. On every table there was reading
9 glasses.

10 And that's about it. It was a pretty
11 simple day.

12 Q. Were you paid that day for that work?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And how much were you paid? Do you
15 remember?

16 A. I don't remember how many hours I was 17 there -- I was there. She paid me cash.

18 Q. So Maxwell paid you?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And then was she the one who trained you
21 with what -- with respect to what you were supposed
22 to do during the day, directed you to, like you
23 said, go to --

24 A. I believe she was the one that was kind of 25 showing me around.

1 Q. And how long did you work in that position
2 answering phones and doing --

3 A. Just that one day.

4 Q. Just that one day.

5 And did your duties change?

6 A. Well, the next time she called me, she 7 asked me if I wanted to come over and make $100 an 8 hour rubbing feet.

9 Q. And what did you think of that offer?

10 A. I thought it was fantastic.

11 Q. And did you come over to the house for 12 that purpose?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And when you came over to the house, was 15 Maxwell present?

16 A. I don't recall.

17 Q. And what happened that second time you
18 came to the house?

19 A. At that point, I met Emmy Taylor, and she 20 took me up to Jeffrey's bathroom and he was present.
21 And her and I both massaged Jeffrey. She was 22 showing me how to massage.

23 And then she -- he took -- he got off the 24 table, she got on the table. She took off her
25 clothes, got on the table, and then he was showing

1 me moves that he liked. And then I took my clothes
2 off. They asked me to get on the table so I could
3 feel it. Then they both massaged me.

4 Q. So it was more than a foot massage at that
5 point?

6 A. Yeah, it was mostly, like, legs and back.

7 Q. Was everybody in the room without clothes
8 on?

9 A. When they were on the massage table, yes.

10 Q. Did they -- when they got off the massage
11 table to perform the massage, did they dress or 12 did --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. They dressed.

15 And do you recall who paid you for that 16 first day that you did the massages?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Do you recall whether Maxwell was at the 19 house during that first day when you were doing the 20 massage with Emmy and Jeffrey?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, asked and
22 answered.

23 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

24 Q. You can answer.

25 A. I don't recall.

1 Q. Who did Emmy work for?

2 A. Ghislaine.

3 Q. Did Maxwell ever refer to Emmy by any 4 particular term?

5 A. She called her her slave.

6 Q. You said your job duties changed. Did you
7 start to travel as part of your job with Jeffrey and
8 Ghislaine?

9 A. Yes. The next time they called me, they
10 asked me to go to New York.

11 Q. And did you -- do you recall when that was 12 approximately?

13 A. That was Easter of 2001.

14 Q. And do you recall who was on the plane
15 with you for that trip?

16 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

17 MS. McCAWLEY: Actually, I'm going to stop
18 really quickly and I'm going to ask for the 19 next exhibit, please.

20 MS. MENNINGER: This is 3?

21 MS. McCAWLEY: Yes. I'm going to mark
22 this as Exhibit 3 for purposes of the 23 deposition.

25

1 (The referred-to document was marked by
2 the court reporter for Identification as
3 Sjoberg Exhibit 3.)

4 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

5 Q. Johanna, I'm going to direct you -- I
6 flagged some pages, but for the record, I'm going to 7 say what pages they are before I hand you the 8 exhibit.

9 A. Sure.

10 Q. These are Giuffre 000748 and 000758, are 11 the two pages right now I may refer you to. The 12 document itself is 000721 through 789.

13 And these are flight logs from pilot David
14 Rogers that have been produced in this case.

15 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation,
16 asking the witness any questions about this
17 document.

18 THE WITNESS: Can I touch it?

19 MS. McCAWLEY: Yes, you may.

20 MS. MENNINGER: I just have to say things
21 every now and then.

22 THE WITNESS: Okay.

23 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

24 Q. So you mentioned that you traveled to New 25 York. If you turn to page -- flagged page which

1 should be 000748, at the top of that document you're
2 going to see a date of April 2001.

3 I'm just going to ask you to go down to 4 the -- if you look at the line on the left to where 5 it says 9 for the date, and look over where it has 6 the names.

7 Do you see -- can you identify your name
8 on that list?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And can you tell me -- I know there are 11 initials there -- who else to the extent you
12 remember was on the plane with you?

13 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation,
14 leading, form of question.

15 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

16 Q. Johanna, do you recall who was on the 17 plane with you that day?

18 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation,
19 form, leading.

20 The witness is reading the document.

21 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

22 Q. You can answer.

23 A. Okay. JE, Jeffrey Epstein; ET, Emmy
24 Taylor; VR, Virginia Roberts; BK, I do not recall;
25 and myself.

1 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. The witness is
2 reading the document.

3 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

4 Q. And do you recall where you flew when you
5 went to -- when you traveled that first time with
6 Jeffrey Epstein?

7 A. We left from Palm Beach and landed in
8 Atlantic City for a few hours because there was a
9 storm in New York, and then got back on the plane a
10 few hours later and landed in Teterboro.

11 Q. And you said that you recall landing in 12 Atlantic City. Did you go into Atlantic City?

13 A. Yes, went to one of Trump's casinos.

14 Q. Did you actually go into the casino
15 itself?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Do you recall Virginia -- at the time
18 Virginia Roberts being present with you?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Do you recall if she went into the casino?

21 A. She was underage. I did not know anything
22 about how old you had to be to gamble legally. I
23 just knew she could not get in because of an ID
24 issue. So she and I did not gamble.

25 Q. In your opinion, did Virginia look young,

1 in your view?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Did you ever -- did you at that time
4 wonder why she was traveling with Jeffrey?

5 A. At that time, I did not.

6 Q. Did you later wonder that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what was your impression?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, vague,
10 speculative.

11 THE WITNESS: I -- we're jumping ahead; is 12 that okay?

13 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

14 Q. Yes, that's okay.

15 A. A few days later, I remember asking her
16 questions to try to figure out her role, why she was 17 there, and she gave me vague answers and was never 18 specific.

19 And so I thought perhaps she just was an
20 assistant, someone that did massages well. I wanted
21 to believe that she was innocent.

22 Q. Did you ever refer to her as being 23 orphan-like?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. And how did that come about?

1 A. No, I only -- to you, I said that to you.
2 I just saw her as perhaps someone who may not have
3 had a strong family, and they took her under their 4 wing.

5 Q. Now, you mentioned remembering going to
6 Atlantic City.

7 Did you go -- where did you go after
8 Atlantic City?

9 A. Once we landed in New York, Emmy and I
10 went in a car and drove around the city for a half
11 hour or so, just to see some of the city.

12 Q. And then where did you go after doing the 13 sightseeing?

14 A. We went to the townhouse on East 71st.

15 Q. And can you describe that location for me?

16 A. Sure. Between Madison and Park. I think
17 the address might have been 9 East 71st Street.

18 Q. And who owned that home?

19 A. As far as I knew, Epstein.

20 Q. Can you describe for me physically what --

21 A. Palatial. When you walk up, it looks like
22 a normal door to a townhouse, and when you walk
23 in -- I thought there were four floors. I heard
24 there were seven floors. I didn't see them all.

25 Q. And do you recall who, if anybody, was at

1 Jeffrey's home when you arrived?

2 A. Yes. When I first walked in the door, it
3 was just myself, and Ghislaine headed for the
4 staircase and said -- told me to come up to the
5 living room.

6 Q. And what happened at that point, when you
7 came up to the living room?

8 A. I came up and saw Virginia, Jeffrey,
9 Prince Andrew, Ghislaine in the room.

10 Q. And did you meet Prince Andrew at that
11 time?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what happened next?

14 A. At one point, Ghislaine told me to come
15 upstairs, and we went into a closet and pulled out
16 the puppet, the caricature of Prince Andrew, and
17 brought it down. And there was a little tag on the 18 puppet that said "Prince Andrew" on it, and that's
19 when I knew who he was.

20 Q. And did -- what did the puppet look like?

21 A. It looked like him. And she brought it
22 down and presented it to him; and that was a great
23 joke, because apparently it was a production from a
24 show on BBC. And they decided to take a picture
25 with it, in which Virginia and Andrew sat on a

1 couch. They put the puppet on Virginia's lap, and I
2 sat on Andrew's lap, and they put the puppet's hand
3 on Virginia's breast, and Andrew put his hand on my
4 breast, and they took a photo.

5 Q. Do you remember who took the photo?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. Did you ever see the photo after it was
8 taken?

9 A. I did not.

10 Q. And Ms. Maxwell was present during the --
11 was Ms. Maxwell present during that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What happened next?

14 A. The next thing I remember is just being
15 shown to which room I was going to be staying in.

16 Q. When you exited the room that you were in 17 where the picture was taken, do you recall who
18 remained in that room?

19 A. I don't.

20 Q. Do you recall seeing Virginia exit that
21 room?

22 A. I don't.

23 Q. During this trip to New York, did you have 24 to perform any work when you were at the New York
25 house?

1 A. I performed at least one massage that I
2 recall.

3 Q. And who instructed you to give that
4 massage?

5 A. Jeffrey.

6 Q. And can you describe for me what happened
7 during that massage?

8 A. Near the end, he asked me to rub his
9 nipples while he masturbated.

10 Q. And did that take place?

11 A. It did not.

12 Q. And why not?

13 A. I was not comfortable with it. And so I
14 left the room.

15 Q. Did you have any -- did you say anything
16 to him before leaving the room?

17 A. I believe I said, "I'm done."

18 Q. Do you recall what his reaction was to 19 that?

20 A. I do not. At the time, at that moment, I
21 do not.

22 Q. Did you recall later what --

23 A. Well, we had a conversation a little 24 later, talking about his expectations, and that was 25 the conversation where he said that the next trip

1 they were going on was to the island in the Virgin
2 Islands, and I would be invited; however, there
3 would be, quote, sex stuff happening.

4 Q. Can you describe for me -- can you
5 describe for me what that -- in New York, where you
6 massaged and what that looked like?

7 A. He had one room that was the massage room.
8 It was about the size of a spa room in a spa. It
9 had high ceilings. It had dark tapestry on the 10 walls. It was a very dark room. There was a very 11 large picture of a naked woman whom I don't recall.
12 That's all I remember.

13 Q. In the New York home, did you observe
14 photos around the house?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. In the Palm Beach home that we were 17 talking about earlier, did you recall seeing photos
18 in that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And did you recall seeing photos of naked
21 females in that home?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Approximately -- can you tell me where you
24 would see those in the home?

25 A. I definitely saw them in his bathroom.

1 And I can't recall if they were in the main living
2 areas.

3 Q. Did you see them in the stairwell up to 4 the second story of the house?

5 A. I can't recall.

6 Q. Do you know who -- who the people were in
7 those photos? Were you familiar with any of them?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Were you in any of those photos?

10 A. At one point, yes.

11 Q. And were you naked in that photo?

12 A. Topless.

13 Q. Do you recall seeing any naked photos of 14 Virginia Roberts?

15 A. I do not.

16 Q. Where did you go next, after the New York
17 visit?

18 A. I went to the Virgin Islands.

19 Q. And who told you that you would be going
20 to the Virgin Islands?

21 A. He asked me if I wanted to go, and I said
22 I would still like to go.

23 Q. And do you recall who you -- who went with 24 you to the Virgin Islands?

25 A. I believe -- well, I know Virginia was

1 with me. Ghislaine was there. Jeffrey. And there
2 were two other women that I don't recall their 3 names.

4 Q. Did you travel on Jeffrey's plane to get
5 to the Virgin Islands?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. I want to show you again the flight log
8 that you have there in front of you. If you can 9 flip to --

10 MS. MENNINGER: I'm going to object to the 11 foundation again.

12 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

13 Q. It's that same page that you were on. The 14 date is the 11th.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you see the TEB to TIST there?

17 A. Yes.

18 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading. The 19 questioning is testifying now.

20 MS. McCAWLEY: Can you let me finish my 21 question, please?

22 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

23 Q. Can you tell me who the initials are there
24 that you see that were on the plane?

25 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation,

1 leading.

2 THE WITNESS: Jeffrey Epstein; Ghislaine
3 Maxwell; AP and PK are the two women I do not
4 recall; Virginia Roberts; and myself.

5 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

6 Q. Do you recall how you flew back from the 7 location in the US Virgin Islands?

8 A. They put me on a commercial flight. I
9 wanted to be home in time for Easter.

10 Q. When you say "they," do you recall who
11 made those arrangements for you?

12 A. It could have been Ghislaine.

13 Q. Did you -- do you recall performing
14 massages while you were in the US Virgin Islands?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Who was involved in -- was there more than 17 one?

18 A. Yes. I massaged Ghislaine at one point.
19 And I massaged Jeffrey, Virginia and I, both, on the 20 beach.

21 Q. Were you dressed during the massage that 22 was on the beach?

23 A. Yes. Bikinis probably, most likely.

24 Q. Do you recall what Virginia was wearing?

25 A. I believe she was wearing a bathing suit,

1 as well.

2 Q. Were you paid for the massage on the beach
3 with Virginia?

5 home, Ghislaine gave me $1,000.

6 Q. You mentioned that you massaged -- you
7 recall massaging Ghislaine on the trip to the USVI.

8 Do you recall when that took place?

9 A. I don't even recall what days we were 10 there, so...

11 Q. Do you recall where it took place?

12 A. I believe it was -- well, either in my 13 guest cottage or one of them. There were three
14 guest houses set up that were all similar and that I
15 was staying in. Virginia and I stayed in one
16 together. And it was either in there or in another
17 one that was identical.

18 Q. And was that massage performed with 19 Virginia as well or by you alone?

20 A. I don't recall.

21 Q. Were there other females in the USVI on 22 that trip with you besides Virginia?

23 A. Two others.

24 Q. And do you recall who they were?

25 A. I do not.

1 Q. Did you ever see Ghislaine Maxwell during
2 that trip laying out by the pool?

3 A. There was one time where we were all by 4 the pool, yes.

5 Q. Was Ghislaine Maxwell ever nude or topless
6 by the pool?

7 A. I don't recall. She was nude when she
8 went swimming in the ocean.

9 Q. At that moment in the USVI home, did you
10 observe any photos there of nude females?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. Besides Virginia, who you mentioned, you
13 observed to be young, did you observe any other
14 females that in your view appeared to be essentially
15 under the age of 18?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you observe any females who you
18 thought looked young, younger than you?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Do you remember an individual by the name
21 of that you met during your time with Jeffrey
22 Epstein?

23 A. In Palm Beach?

24 Q. Yes.

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Did you observe her to be young when you
2 met her?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, vague as to
4 time.

5 THE WITNESS: All of the women were 6 generally young. I did not know the ages of 7 really anyone, so...

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. How many massages did Jeffrey receive on 10 average in a given day?

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: Three a day.

13 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

14 Q. Let me back up for a moment.

15 How long did you work for Jeffrey and
16 Ghislaine?

17 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading and
18 foundation.

19 THE WITNESS: I believe it was five years,
20 2001 to 2006.

21 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

22 Q. And how many massages did Epstein receive
23 per day on average?

24 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

25 THE WITNESS: Three.

1 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

2 Q. Were the massages performed by the same
3 girl or different females?

4 A. Different.

5 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. What did the females who performed the 8 massages look like?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

10 THE WITNESS: They all looked different.
11 Some of them were ethnic, some were blond, some 12 were short, some were tall. Everyone was thin.

13 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

14 Q. Were the girls who performed the massages
15 young or old?

16 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

17 THE WITNESS: I don't recall anyone being 18 old.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. Do you recall anybody being over the age
21 of, say, 25?

22 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, form.

23 THE WITNESS: Yeah, I believe there was 24 probably a few women that were older than 25.

25 MS. MENNINGER: I'm sorry. I get a chance

1 to object and then you can still answer. No
2 one is going to stop you from answering. I
3 just need to get the objection on the record,
4 in the same way she needs to be able to talk
5 before you. My apologies. I'm not trying to 6 cut you off, but I am supposed to get it in 7 before you answer.

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell you why he received
10 so many massages from so many different girls?

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay.

12 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

13 Q. You can answer.

14 A. He explained to me that, in his opinion,
15 he needed to have three orgasms a day. It was 16 biological, like eating.

17 Q. And what was your reaction to that
18 statement?

19 A. I thought it was a little crazy.

20 Q. And what did -- do you recall what -- when 21 you observed the other females giving massages, do
22 you recall what they would dress like? Did they 23 wear scrubs or did they typically wear normal
24 clothes?

25 A. Normal clothes.

1 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

2 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

3 Q. Do you believe that from your
4 observations, Maxwell and Epstein were boyfriend and
5 girlfriend?

6 A. Initially, yes.

7 Q. Did Maxwell ever share with you whether it
8 bothered her that Jeffrey had so many girls around?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading,
10 hearsay.

11 THE WITNESS: No. Actually, the opposite.

12 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

13 Q. What did she say?

14 A. She let me know that she was -- she would 15 not be able to please him as much as he needed and 16 that is why there were other girls around.

17 Q. Did there ever come a time -- did you ever
18 take a photography class in school?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And did there ever come a time when 21 Maxwell offered to buy you a camera?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

24 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

25 Q. Did Maxwell ever offer to buy you a

1 camera?

2 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes.

4 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

5 Q. Was there anything you were supposed to do
6 in order to get the camera?

7 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

8 THE WITNESS: I did not know that there
9 were expectations of me to get the camera until 10 after. She had purchased the camera for me,
11 and I was over there giving Jeffrey a massage.
12 I did not know that she was in possession of 13 the camera until later.

14 She told me -- called me after I had left
15 and said, I have the camera for you, but you
16 cannot receive it yet because you came here and 17 didn't finish your job and I had to finish it
18 for you.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. And did you -- what did you understand her
21 to mean?

22 A. She was implying that I did not get
23 Jeffrey off, and so she had to do it.

24 Q. And when you say "get Jeffrey off," do you
25 mean bring him to orgasm?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did Ghislaine ever describe to you what
3 types of girls Jeffrey liked?

4 A. Model types.

5 Q. Did Ghislaine ever talk to you about how
6 you should act around Jeffrey?

7 A. She just had a conversation with me that I
8 should always act grateful.

9 Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell you that he took a
10 girl's virginity?

11 A. He did not tell me. He told a friend of 12 mine.

13 Q. And what do you recall about that?

14 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay,
15 foundation.

16 THE WITNESS: He wanted to have a friend
17 of mine come out who was cardio-kickboxer
18 instructor. She was a physical trainer.

19 And so I brought her over to the house,
20 and he told my friend Rachel that -- he said,
21 You see that girl over there laying by the 22 pool? She was 19. And he said, I just took 23 her virginity. And my friend Rachel was 24 mortified.

1 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

2 Q. Based on what you knew, did Maxwell know
3 that the type of massages Jeffrey was getting
4 typically involved sexual acts?

5 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation,
6 leading.

7 THE WITNESS: Yes.

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. What was Maxwell's main job with respect
10 to Jeffrey?

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: Well, beyond companionship,
13 her job, as it related to me, was to find other 14 girls that would perform massages for him and 15 herself.

16 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

17 Q. Did Maxwell ever refer to the girls in a
18 particular way?

19 A. At one point when we were in the islands,
20 we were all watching a movie and she called us her
21 children.

22 Q. Did anybody respond to that?

23 A. I don't recall.

24 Q. Did she ever refer to herself as a mother?

25 A. Yes, like a mother hen.

1 Q. Do you recall who was present at the time
2 that she made that comment about children?

3 A. This was the second trip that I took to
4 the Virgin Islands, so, no. I don't want to speak,
5 you know, incorrectly. I can't remember. I can't
6 really remember.

7 Q. Have you ever met David Copperfield?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And do you recall when you initially met
10 him?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Can you tell me what that was?

13 A. Sure. Someone called me from the house
14 and said that he would be there, and if I wanted to 15 come have dinner, then I could meet him.

16 So when I arrived at the house, he wasn't
17 there yet, but I waited with, I believe, Sarah
18 Kellen, and there was another girl there which I had 19 never met and never seen. She seemed young to me.

20 And I asked her what school she went to,
21 kind of prodding to see if she went to one of the 22 area colleges, and I did not recognize the name of 23 the school.

24 And so I thought she could be younger than 25 college age, but I had to assume for my own sanity

1 that she was a daughter of one of his friends.

2 Q. But it was possible she was the school --
3 is it possible that the school she referred to was a
4 high school?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And what happened at that dinner, if
7 anything?

8 A. He did some magic tricks.

9 Q. Did you observe David Copperfield to be a
10 friend of Jeffrey Epstein's?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Did Copperfield ever discuss Jeffrey's
13 involvement with young girls with you?

14 A. He questioned me if I was aware that girls
15 were getting paid to find other girls.

16 Q. Did he tell you any of the specifics of 17 that?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Did he say whether they were teenagers or 20 anything along those lines?

21 A. He did not.

22 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, calls
23 for hearsay.

24 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

25 Q. Did you ever hear or observe Jeffrey

1 talking on the phone about Frederic Fekkai?

2 A. Yes.

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

4 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

5 Q. What did you hear?

6 A. I heard him call someone, and say, Fekkai
7 is in Hawaii. Can we find some girls for him?

8 Q. And what was your reaction to that?

9 A. Well, I was massaging and I didn't have a
10 reaction. I tried to remain reactionless the whole
11 five years.

12 Q. Did Jeffrey ever take you shopping?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Can you describe for me what happened?

15 A. Sure. He took me to Victoria's Secret. I
16 believe he picked out everything and went into the 17 room with me, the fitting room, which was very odd.

18 Q. Did he make any comments about being in 19 the fitting room with you?

20 A. He joked that one time he was in there
21 with another girl, and she said something like
22 "Dad." But that's all I recall.

23 Q. Did Jeffrey ever talk to you -- let me
24 back up a moment.

25 Have you ever been propositioned by anyone

1 to have a baby for someone?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And who propositioned you?

4 A. Jeffrey asked me.

5 Q. Did he ask you more than once?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And what did he say?

8 A. Basically just said, I want you to be the 9 mother of my baby.

10 Q. And do you recall your response to that?

11 A. Um, I don't believe that I said flat-out
12 no. I didn't agree to it. I would just say, Oh,
13 yeah, really? Okay.

14 Q. Did you ever bring other girls over as 15 Maxwell had requested?

16 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading,
17 hearsay, form.

18 THE WITNESS: One time.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. Let me back up a minute, just to make it a
21 clean question.

22 Did you ever bring friends over to massage
23 Jeffrey?

24 A. No.

25 Q. And why did you not bring friends over to

1 message Jeffrey?

2 A. I was living in secret about what I was
3 doing during the massages, and I did not want my
4 friends to be -- to know what I was doing. So I did
5 not want anyone else coming into that.

6 Q. Was Bill Clinton a friend of Jeffrey
7 Epstein?

8 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

9 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

10 Q. Let me back up.

11 Do you know if Bill Clinton was a friend
12 of Jeffrey Epstein?

13 A. I knew he had dealings with Bill Clinton.
14 I did not know they were friends until I read the 15 Vanity Fair article about them going to Africa
16 together.

17 Q. Did Jeffrey ever talk to you about Bill
18 Clinton?

19 A. He said one time that Clinton likes them
20 young, referring to girls.

21 Q. Did you ever -- do you recall ever taking 22 a trip to Jeffrey Epstein's home in New Mexico?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And do you recall who you went on that 25 trip with?

1 A. Sarah Kellen was there. Ghislaine was
2 there. That's all I recall.

3 Q. Do you recall why you went on the trip to
4 New Mexico?

5 A. To work.

6 Q. Did you perform massages on that trip?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did you -- do you recall whether you
9 performed massages with Sarah Kellen on that trip?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Do you recall in the New Mexico home ever
12 observing nude photos of females there?

13 A. I don't recall.

14 Q. When you would provide massages, would you
15 provide those massages naked?

16 A. On occasion.

17 Q. On average, would you be naked, if it was 18 100 percent of the time, more than 50 percent of the
19 time?

20 A. Can you repeat it?

21 Q. Sure. When you're performing the
22 massages, can you tell me -- you said on occasion.
23 Over the five years that you worked for him, how 24 often did you perform massages naked?

25 A. Somewhere between 25 and 50 percent of the

1 time.

2 Q. Did Epstein try to make the massages
3 sexual?

4 A. On occasion.

5 Q. Would Epstein have you rub his nipples?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Would he masturbate during the massages?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did he use sex toys or vibrators on you?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Would he leave the sex toys or vibrators
12 out after the massage or would he clean up after 13 himself?

14 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, vague, form.

15 THE WITNESS: He did not ever clean up.

16 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

17 Q. Do you believe that your experience during 18 the years you were with Jeffrey and Maxwell damaged
19 you?

20 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

21 THE WITNESS: It affected me. "Damaged"
22 is a strong word.

23 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

24 Q. And in what way did it affect you?

25 A. It affected future relationships with men,

1 trust issues, expectation issues.

2 Q. Did you observe Nadia Marcinkova and
3 Ghislaine at the house at the same time?

4 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

5 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. On the USVI trip, the second trip that you
8 took, do you recall Nadia Marcinkova being present?

9 A. I believe she was present at that trip.

10 Q. Do you recall Maxwell being present on 11 that trip?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Do you know an individual by the name of 14 ?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And who is ?

17 A. She was one of the girls that was around.

18 Q. Was around both Jeffrey Epstein
19 and Ghislaine Maxwell?

20 A. I don't recall.

21 Q. Do you recall where you first met
22

23 A. In Palm Beach.

24 Q. At Jeffrey Epstein's home?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And what -- do you recall any observations
2 about when you met her?

3 A. To speak with, she was a little rough
4 around the edges, and I could see the progression of
5 her being groomed a little. They got her braces.
6 She had terrible posture. And with a lot of
7 massages, she learned to stand up straight. So I
8 just saw her become a much more confident person.

9 Q. Do you recall how old she was when you
10 first met her?

11 A. I assumed she was 18, but I do not know
12 her age.

13 MS. McCAWLEY: We're going to take a break
14 really quickly and then we will be back. So we 15 are going to go off the record.

16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record at 9:48.

17 (Thereupon, a recess was taken, after
18 which the following proceedings were held:)

19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record at 9:58.

20 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

21 Q. I'm just going to resume. I have a few
22 more questions for you.

23 You mentioned visiting the US Virgin
24 Islands.

25 Do you recall doing any activities with

1 Maxwell when you were on the visit to the USVI?

2 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, vague as to
3 time.

4 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.

5 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

6 Q. Do you recall ever going hiking with her?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did Maxwell ever ask you to try to bring
9 other girls over for Jeffrey?

10 A. At that time?

11 Q. Yes.

12 A. No.

13 Q. Any other time?

14 A. Well, she had asked me if I knew anyone
15 that could perform massages that would come to the
16 house.

17 Q. And what was your understanding of that 18 request?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection.

20 THE WITNESS: Well --

21 MS. MENNINGER: Form.

22 THE WITNESS: -- I just wondered why they
23 wouldn't just call me.

24 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

25 Q. And did you bring anybody else over to

1 perform massages?

2 A. I did not.

3 Q. When you were either in the USVI or in
4 Palm Beach, did you ever observe any females either
5 topless or naked out by the pool?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What did you observe?

8 A. Mostly skinny-dipping.

9 Q. Do you know who the individuals were that 10 you observed?

11 A. Sarah Kellen and Ghislaine.

12 Q. Anybody else?

13 A. Yes, but I don't recall who.

14 Q. Did that happen on more than one occasion?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. How often do you remember making those 17 observations?

18 A. Three times.

19 Q. Do you recall giving a statement to the 20 police regarding Jeffrey Epstein?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Do you recall when you gave that
23 statement?

24 A. I don't recall the date.

25 Q. Do you recall the year?

1 A. I want to say it was early 2006 or late
2 2005.

3 Q. Do you recall who you met with?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Do you recall what you told the police?

6 A. It was similar to this. They were asking
7 me a lot of questions that I answered. They knew a
8 lot. They knew what the bathroom looked like. They 9 knew that the couch had a hot pink throw on it with 10 green tassels.

11 I assumed that there had been videos and 12 they had seen me. They had seen the videos. That's 13 what I had assumed. I didn't know that maybe people
14 had already come forward and given them statements.

15 Q. Did they talk to you at all about the 16 videos?

17 A. They said, Were you aware that there were 18 video cameras in the house?

19 I said, No, but it would not surprise me.

20 MS. McCAWLEY: And I'm going to mark as
21 Exhibit 4 -- do you have an extra -- sorry.
22 Did you get one? Okay. Giuffre 0002 through
23 89.

24 And I'm going to direct you to page 00076,
25 and I'm going to hand it to you.

1 (The referred-to document was marked by
2 the court reporter for Identification as
3 Sjoberg Exhibit 4.)

4 BY MS. MCCAWLEY:

5 Q. I'm just going to ask that you take a look
6 at that. As you can see, under the narrative line
7 there, there is a name. It says, "Reported by 8 Recarey, Joseph." Is that a name you recall meeting
9 with, a Detective Recarey?

10 A. Yes. I mean, I don't recall his name,
11 only except that he had been following me around,
12 and he left me cards, like, on my car and in my
13 door. I tried to avoid him for a long time.

14 Q. And can you just look at the text
15 underneath there?

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. Take a moment to look at that.

18 A. Sure.

19 Q. Does that refresh your recollection as to 20 what you told the police during the investigation?

21 A. There are errors in here. I was not 23
22 when I met him. I was 21.

23 Q. Anything else that doesn't look correct?

24 A. The same error: That I had met him three
25 years ago, and it obviously had been closer to five.

1 There is also the error, he obviously
2 misunderstood me: He did not pay for my tuition at 3 college. I'm still paying those school loans. But 4 he did pay for me to go to massage school and to 5 cosmetology school.

6 Okay. It pretty much ends here.

7 Q. Yes. Right. About halfway through the
8 page.

9 A. Okay.

10 MS. McCAWLEY: So, Johanna, that concludes 11 my initial piece. I'm going to reserve the 12 rest of my time for redirect. I'm going to 13 turn it over to Laura.

14 MS. MENNINGER: Can we take just a little
15 break?

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Sure, no problem.

17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record at
18 10:05.

19 (Thereupon, a recess was taken, after
20 which the following proceedings were held:)

21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record at 10:14.

22 E X A M I N A T I O N

23 BY MS. MENNINGER:

24 Q. Hi.

25 A. Hello.

1 Q. We've never met before today, correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Can you tell me a little bit about your
4 current job?

5 A. Sure. I just purchased a salon. I'm a
6 salon owner. I'm a hairstylist.

7 Q. Congratulations.

8 A. Thank you.

9 Q. How long have you been a hairstylist?

10 A. For 10 years.

11 Q. And what did you do before that?

12 A. I briefly did massage in a spa for about a 13 year and a half. And before that I was a nanny, and 14 before that I was in school.

15 Q. And I believe you said you studied
16 psychology in school?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Did you graduate?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. With a degree in psychology?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Where did you get training to be a massage
23 therapist?

24 A.

1 Q. And when did do you that?

2 A. That would have been, I believe, in

3 Q. And how long did you study there?

4 A. I think it was a six-month program.

5 Q. And you worked in a spa thereafter?

6 A. I did.

7 Q. What was the name of the spa again?

8 A.

9 Q. And are you married?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Do you have children?

12 A. No.

13 Q. And how old are you now?

14 A.

15 Q. Can you tell me about your first meeting
16 with Ghislaine Maxwell?

17 A. Sure. I was sitting on a bench [REDACTED]
18 [REDACTED]. She approached me.

19 I was getting ready to go to a class. It was my 20 junior year. Yes, it was the second semester of my 21 junior year. And she and another woman approached
22 me. The other woman didn't speak that I recall.

23 And she asked me about -- she had a house
24 in Palm Beach, and she was looking for someone that 25 she could hire to work at the house, where she could

1 post that she needed help.

2 She then asked me if I knew anyone, and I
3 didn't know who she was, I didn't want to take the 4 responsibility of finding someone to work for her,
5 and so I said, Sorry, I don't.

6 And then she said, Well, maybe what about
7 you?

8 And I was at a point in life, I was super
9 spontaneous and willing to skip school.

10 So she said, Come to my house, come in my 11 car and check it out.

12 And so I did.

13 Q. Okay. So for those of you -- of us who 14 don't know, is this like a college campus, like a
15 traditional college campus, or is it in a city
16 setting?

17 A. It's in a city setting. I mean, Palm
18 Beach is not a big city. So it's on the 19 Intracoastal, and there was a big grassy area that 20 were surrounded by buildings, so she was inside of 21 the campus.

22 Q. And she was looking for a bulletin board
23 where she could post a job?

24 A. Something like that, yes.

25 Q. Did she have any kind of flyers --

1 A. Not that I recall.

2 Q. But that's what she asked you, for
3 directions to a bulletin board where she could post
4 a job?

5 A. Yes.

6 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

7 BY MS. MENNINGER

8 Q. And it sounds like you guys got into a
9 conversation; is that fair?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Can you describe Ghislaine Maxwell's
12 personality?

13 A. Well, I instantly picked up on the fact
14 that she was British. She had on, like, workout
15 clothes. I believe she was wearing all black. And 16 she -- I mean, she was a little snarky, but I felt
17 comfortable enough to get in the car with her.

18 Q. And it sounds like you had contact with 19 her over the next several years; is that fair?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And did you get to know more about her
22 personality over those five years, four or five
23 years?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And can you describe her for me, how you

1 observed her personality to be?

2 A. Sure. She definitely had a great sense of
3 humor, she loved making jokes. I mean, in a very
4 British way. I don't remember her ever laughing,
5 but she was funny.

6 And I remember just thinking, she -- the
7 first weekend that we flew to the Virgin Islands,
8 she flew the helicopter from Saint, wherever we were 9 to little Saint Jeff [sic] or whatever the name of 10 the island was, and I just thought, wow, who is this 11 woman.

12 Q. Would you say that you respected her?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. When you ended up getting in the car with 15 her and this other woman and going back to the 16 house, who was driving the car?

17 A. She was driving.

18 Q. And where did she take you?

19 A. She took me to the house in Palm Beach.

20 Q. And can you describe the house in Palm
21 Beach?

22 A. Sure. It's at the end of El Brillo Way,
23 on the Intracoastal. The house was either white or 24 pink. It was pink at one time it may have been 25 painted. It was nothing fancy, it was large, it was

1 like a beach house.

2 Q. And when you got there, do you remember
3 meeting other people while you were there that first
4 time?

5 A. I remember other people being in the home.
6 I don't really remember who was there.

7 Q. Do you remember meeting, like, a butler
8 or --

9 A. Potentially, a chef. Someone in the 10 kitchen. Maybe a house manager, yeah.

11 Q. What was your impression of this other
12 woman that was with Ms. Maxwell at this time?

13 A. Zero. She left zero impression on me.

14 Q. Age, height, hair color? Nothing?

15 A. I want to say she was brunette. Age, 20s.
16 Yeah.

17 Q. And you were going for the purposes of 18 checking out potentially working at this job?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. It sounds like you met Jeffrey Epstein
21 that first time that you did go to the house, right?

22 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

23 THE WITNESS: I believe I either met him
24 that time or the next time. I can't recall.

25

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Okay. And tell me about your first
3 meeting with him.

4 A. Sure. I met him, I believe it was in the
5 hallway right beside the kitchen. There was a
6 hallway. It was actually more like a room, a pantry
7 type of room. That's where all of the pieces of 8 paper with the phone messages would lay.

9 And I remember sitting on the counter and 10 speaking with him, and he was in a bathrobe, and he
11 spoke with me about me being in college and studying
12 psychology.

13 Q. And did you form an opinion of him in that
14 first meeting?

15 A. I -- yeah. I believed that he was smart.
16 He was personable and could speak to anyone.

17 Q. Did he give off any sexual vibes in the 18 first meeting?

19 A. No.

20 Q. And where was Ghislaine when you were 21 speaking with Mr. Epstein?

22 A. I don't recall.

23 Q. Do you recall going to a second floor of 24 the home during that first meeting?

25 A. I don't recall. Ghislaine said at one

1 point, You might get a massage today. That was --
2 sorry, that was the second time when I was in the 3 home working. And I just thought it was crazy that
4 I would get a massage while I was working. But it
5 did not end up happening because the masseuse could 6 not stay.

7 Q. Do you know who the masseuse was that
8 could not stay?

9 A. No.

10 Q. But that didn't happen on the first
11 meeting; you believe that was the second meeting?

12 A. Yes, that was when I was there to work.

13 Q. How long -- how did the first trip to the 14 house end?

15 A. She gave me her phone number, and she took 16 my phone number, and she took me back to school.

17 Q. And were you full-time at school at the
18 time?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And how many classes were you taking, if 21 you remember?

22 A. Probably four or five.

23 Q. How did you -- how long was it before you
24 heard from Ms. Maxwell again?

25 A. Within probably three days.

1 Q. And how did she contact you?

2 A. She called me on my -- at that time I had
3 a cell phone. It could have been on my cell phone.
4 It could have been on my house phone. We had house
5 phones back then.

6 Q. I remember.

7 Where were you living at the time?

8 A. I was in an apartment in West Palm Beach.

9 Q. And did you have a roommate or with 10 family?

11 A. I had a roommate.

12 Q. So when Ms. Maxwell called you on whatever
13 phone it was, do you remember what she said?

14 A. Yeah. She said, Do you want to come over
15 and work on Sunday?

16 Q. And what did you say?

17 A. I said, Sure.

18 Q. And did you?

19 A. I did.

20 Q. How did you get there?

21 A. That I don't recall, because I did not
22 have a car.

23 Q. Did you --

24 A. I think my roommate dropped me off,
25 honestly. I can remember what I was wearing.

1 Q. You do?

2 A. I do.

3 Q. What were you wearing?

4 A. I had a -- I still have the shirt. It's
5 an old, weathered, blue, North Carolina Tech Tar
6 Heels T-shirt.

7 Q. Because you -- did Ms. Maxwell explain to 8 you what you would be doing on that Sunday when you
9 came to work or was that part of the prior
10 conversation?

11 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

12 THE WITNESS: About what I was wearing?

13 BY MS. MENNINGER:

14 Q. No. About what you were going to do at 15 work.

16 A. She had explained that she just wanted
17 someone to help out around the house, answering
18 phones, you know, grabbing drinks if someone wanted
19 a drink, running errands.

20 Q. And so you dressed appropriate to what you
21 believed --

22 A. I did not know how to dress properly,
23 apparently. I should not have worn that. But I was 24 in college.

25 Q. Did anyone say anything to you?

1 A. No.

2 Q. So when you got there, what happened?

3 This is your second time to the house, but your
4 first time working, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 I was probably introduced to a few people
7 that were there. I mean, I was there for several 8 hours. Do I recall every minute? No. I just
9 recall when I would actually have to work, answer
10 the phone, pour some drinks for people. Just water;
11 they didn't drink alcohol. And run errands. There
12 were a few errands that I ran.

13 Q. You described those errands earlier?

14 A. I did. In her car.

15 Q. You used her car?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What kind of car was it?

18 A. It was a Mercedes convertible.

19 Q. Did anyone go with you?

20 A. No.

21 Q. You described a shopping trip. Was that 22 in the same car?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Was that a separate trip than when you
25 went to run errands?

1 A. Yes. That's when Ghislaine went with me
2 and she drove.

3 Q. Okay. So you ran errands, came back, more
4 than once?

5 A. Twice.

6 Q. And then you went on a shopping trip?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. During the time you were at the home, was 9 there anything that made you suspicious?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Or leery?

12 A. No.

13 Q. You mentioned there may have been some 14 discussion of a massage. Do you recall that
15 discussion?

16 A. I had never had a massage before. So she 17 just said there was a massage therapist coming and I
18 may get one.

19 Q. Did she say who it was?

20 A. No.

21 Q. So when you went shopping on this trip,
22 you said Ghislaine drove the car and you went with 23 her. Was anyone else there?

24 A. No.

25 Q. And where did you all go?

1 A. We went to Worth Avenue in Palm Beach, but
2 because it was Sunday, the stores were closed.

3 Bless you.

4 MR. LOUIS: Thank you.

5 THE WITNESS: So from there, we went to --
6 I believe it was Palm Beach Daily News, which
7 was like a little book store. And I remember
8 her purchasing reading glasses for Jeffrey and 9 some magazines.

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. Were those things for the home?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And earlier on your errands, you had been 14 purchasing things for the home or office?

15 A. Yes. Yes.

16 Q. Besides the printer cartridge, ink
17 cartridge, do you remember anything else?

18 A. Well, yes. Like they wanted specific
19 magazines. I don't know if it was, like, Scientific 20 American or something to that effect. It was 21 wasn't, like, Playboy.

22 Q. Okay. Did you ever answer phones?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. When did you answer phones?

25 A. That day.

1 Q. Do you remember anything notable about the
2 phone calls?

3 A. I just remember I always had to say, He's
4 unavailable, can I take a message?

5 Q. And where did you take a message?

6 A. On a little notepad next to the phone.

7 Q. Do you recall any small children calling
8 the house that day?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Were you speaking to anyone about their 11 school experience or anything like that?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Did you take any messages for famous
14 people?

15 A. They could have been famous and I would 16 have been clueless.

17 Q. Did you take messages at any other point
18 during the time that you worked with Jeffrey?

19 A. No.

20 Q. And you said you remember at the end of 21 that day being paid by Ghislaine?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you were paid for doing the errands
24 and answering phones and whatever else you did?

25 A. Yes.

1 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

2 BY MS. MENNINGER:

3 Q. Did you do anything else that day in terms
4 of errands or things around the house that you
5 remember?

6 A. Not that I recall.

7 Q. Did you come back to answer phones and do
8 errands any other day?

9 A. No.

10 Q. That was the only day you did it?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right.

13 Tell me the second time -- how long was it
14 before you got another sort of contact from anybody
15 at the home?

16 A. Okay. Well, after that -- I remember
17 actually that day of working, I sat with Ghislaine
18 outside on this -- outside table on the patio by the 19 pool. I told her that I was getting ready to go to 20 Nicaragua for spring break on a mission trip. I
21 remember her going, Why would you ever go to 22 Nicaragua? So I was going to be gone the next week
23 for spring break.

24 So she called, after I returned, and asked
25 if I wanted to make $100 an hour rubbing feet.

1 Q. Was that the whole conversation?

2 A. That was pretty much it. I said, Okay,
3 sure, tell me when.

4 Q. And were you excited about the prospect of 5 rubbing feet and making $100?

6 A. I was actually with -- while I was on the 7 trip in Nicaragua, I was rubbing feet, I was 8 massaging people, their feet. So it just seemed 9 kind of crazy that it all happened at the same time.

10 Q. How was it rubbing feet?

11 A. I guess I just liked doing it. I didn't
12 know that I did, but I was massaging people's feet.

13 Q. Were these strangers?

14 A. No, no, no. They were -- it was a group
15 of us that went on the trip. So we were all very 16 close.

17 Q. What kind of trip was it?

18 A. It was a -- well, a PBA, you had to do
19 these things called Workshop hours, which you had to 20 do community service, 40 hours every year. And so
21 that was the way to do them all, and you would go on 22 these trips and help build a school or feed children
23 or do some sort of -- something nice.

24 Q. Nice.

25 What other trips did you take while you

1 were there?

2 A. I did a trip and worked with Habitat for
3 Humanity in Baltimore. And then I went back to 4 Nicaragua the next year and did the same thing.

5 Q. Very nice.

6 And you were there for a whole week?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right.

9 So you got a call from Ghislaine after you
10 returned?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And that's when she asked you about 13 rubbing feet?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And did she tell you when she would like
16 you to come over?

17 A. It was either that night or the next day.

18 Q. And do you know how you got there?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Do you know what you were wearing?

21 A. No, I don't remember.

22 Q. When you got there, I think you said you
23 don't remember if Ghislaine was actually there the 24 second time?

25 A. I want to believe that she was there

1 because she was my main contact, and so I would
2 assume that she was probably at the house and
3 greeted me; however, I do not recall if she was
4 there.

5 Q. It sounds like you met Emmy Taylor?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How did you meet Emmy Taylor?

8 A. She was at the house the first day that I
9 worked running errands. And I realized she was also 10 a personal assistant type of person.

11 Q. Do you know who she worked for?

12 A. She, well, Ghislaine, it appeared to me
13 that she worked for Ghislaine. Ghislaine sort of 14 told her what to do and where to go.

15 Q. And I believe you mentioned she called her
16 her slave?

17 A. She did. It was in a joking way, but she
18 said, Yes, that's my slave.

19 Q. You did not see her in any type of slavery
20 situation?

21 A. Not any chains or anything of the sort,
22 no.

23 Q. So tell me what you remember about the 24 second time you went.

25 A. The third time?

1 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

2 BY MS. MENNINGER:

3 Q. I'm sorry. You're right. Third time.

4 The second time you went to work, but the third time
5 you were there.

6 A. Correct.

7 So I was escorted up to the bathroom,
8 which is where 99 percent of the massages happened.
9 And Emmy Taylor was with me and Jeffrey. And I
10 don't remember the order, but Emmy was on the table
11 at one point. She took all of her clothes off, got 12 on the table.

13 I remember thinking, Okay, she's just
14 going to strip naked and get on the table. Well,
15 that's cool. We're cool. That's what we do.

16 And Jeffrey was showing me how to massage
17 on her body. And then I took my clothes off and got 18 on the table, and then they showed me what it felt
19 like with the both of them.

20 And then Jeffrey got on the table and Emmy
21 showed me how to massage.

22 Q. So Ghislaine was not in the room?

23 A. No.

24 Q. You said that 99 percent of the massages
25 took place in the bathroom.

1 Did you see massages take place in other
2 places of the house at all?

3 A. Did I see any? No, besides us maybe
4 hanging out on the couch and someone massaging his
5 foot or me massaging his foot. But not, like, on a
6 table.

7 Q. So just casual foot-rubbing might happen
8 elsewhere in the home, but not a full-blown, full
9 body massage?

10 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

11 THE WITNESS: Yes.

12 BY MS. MENNINGER:

13 Q. Did you see any full-blown, full body
14 massages out by the pool?

15 A. Not that I recall.

16 Q. And do you remember ever giving any 17 yourself?

18 A. By the pool?

19 Q. Out by the pool, yes.

20 A. On a table?

21 Q. Yes.

22 A. No.

23 Q. All right.

24 You said that you had subsequently been
25 trained as a massage therapist, correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Would you describe it as normal massage
3 protocol for a person to be naked under a towel
4 during a massage, a regular massage?

5 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: Naked under a towel during a
7 massage, the person getting massaged?

8 BY MS. MENNINGER:

9 Q. Yes.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And as a massage therapist, you're trained
12 how to drape the person so that they're covered in 13 the right places, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So when you were being trained by Emmy and 16 Jeffrey on some massage techniques, did anyone say
17 anything sexual during that conversation?

18 A. Not that I recall.

19 Q. What was the mood like? Was it, you know,
20 laughing?

21 A. Yes. Comfortable.

22 Q. And just to clarify, the people who were 23 giving the massages at the various points in time
24 were clothed while they were doing that, correct?

25 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. In this period you just described with
3 Emmy Taylor and Jeffrey in a bathroom upstairs on 4 your third visit to the house, people giving the 5 massages had their clothes on, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. All right.

8 What was the next time you remember coming
9 to the house there?

10 A. The next time was to do a massage. All by 11 myself.

12 Q. Okay. And how did that one come about?

13 A. Hmm, someone must have called me, but I
14 don't remember who.

15 Q. And to whom did you give the massage on 16 this next visit to the house?

17 A. Jeffrey.

18 Q. Was Ghislaine present during that massage?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Did anything unusual occur during that 21 massage?

22 A. After.

23 Q. What happened? After the massage?

24 A. He asked me how well do I orgasm. And I
25 said, I don't, I'm a virgin. And he was quite

1 surprised.

2 Q. Where were you when you were having this
3 discussion?

4 A. In the bathroom.

5 Q. Were you clothed?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Was he clothed?

8 A. I don't remember him being naked. He was 9 probably either wrapped with a towel or in a
10 bathrobe.

11 Q. Were you caught off guard by this
12 question?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Was that the first time anyone had said
15 anything sexual to you during this --

16 A. Ever? Yes.

17 Q. Did he say anything else that you recall
18 during that conversation?

19 A. I mean, we had a little bit of a
20 conversation about it, but I don't recall
21 specifically.

22 Q. And how did that massage encounter end?

23 A. Normal. There was nothing I had to do,
24 just normal massage.

25 Q. Did he pay you?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. How much did he pay you?

3 A. $200.

4 Q. How did he pay you?

5 A. Cash.

6 Q. And where was the cash?

7 A. I don't recall specifically. It was
8 either -- he brought it upstairs with him or it
9 would have been down on his desk.

10 Q. And I'm assuming that you had other
11 massages that you gave him under similar
12 circumstances in the next years, right?

13 A. Many, right.

14 Q. So recalling this particular one is not 15 sticking out in your mind?

16 A. Yes.

17 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. Do you remember the next time after that?

20 A. I don't. I mean, from there, it's just a
21 blur of random invites to come over and do it.
22 Massage was, like, I would see him maybe three days
23 a row, and I wouldn't see him for two months. It
24 would be kind of that irregular schedule.

25 Q. Do you ever recall a time where you came

1 over every day for three weeks in a row?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Were you paid $200 per massage?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And how long did the massages last?

6 A. Anywhere from 30 minutes to an hour and a
7 half.

8 Q. Did you ever give a four-hour massage to
9 him?

10 A. Good grief, no, not that I recall.

11 Q. Have you ever given a four-hour massage to 12 anyone in your whole life?

13 A. No, I haven't.

14 Q. Tell me how the whole idea of traveling to 15 New York came up.

16 A. I actually was not home. They called
17 my -- my apartment. My roommate answered. When I
18 got home, she said, You need to call Jeffrey Epstein
19 immediately. He wants to take you to New York, but 20 they are leaving at 4:00.

21 And I was excited because I had never been 22 to New York.

23 Q. Are you from

24 A. I am.

25 Q. But you never went to New York?

1 A. Just flying over it.

2 Q. When you said they called, do you know who
3 called your roommate?

4 A. I don't know who called my roommate.

5 Q. In this sort of pre-trip to New York
6 period, do you recall discussing any of the 7 particulars of your massages with Jeffrey, with
8 Ghislaine?

9 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. If that makes sense.

12 A. No.

13 Q. So before you got this call, had anyone
14 mentioned the idea of traveling to you?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did you call Jeffrey immediately?

17 A. I did.

18 Q. And what conversation did you have with 19 him?

20 A. Basically he said, I want to take you
21 to -- to New York City. Can you be here quickly?

22 And I got to the house, and he said, Do
23 you have your passport?

24 I said, No.

25 He said, Go get it.

1 So I went back and picked up my passport,
2 and went back to the house before we went to the 3 airport.

4 Q. And why did you need your passport?

5 A. I was ready to find out. I had no idea.

6 Q. This was the spontaneous phase?

7 A. Exactly.

8 Q. So you went and got your passport. You
9 came back. And then what happened?

10 A. Then we went to the airport.

11 Q. And who is we?

12 A. So, I don't remember the ride to the 13 airport, but the people that I recall being on the 14 plane was Jeffrey, Ghislaine, Virginia and I.

15 Q. And when was the first time you met
16 Virginia?

17 A. I believe it was that day.

18 Q. In your previous visits to the house, had 19 you seen her there?

20 A. Not that I recall.

21 Q. And what was your impression the first day
22 you met her?

23 A. She seemed young and blond and cute.

24 Q. What was her personality like?

25 A. I honestly don't recall her personality.

1 Bubbly.

2 Q. Did you see her in the plane or on the
3 trip to New York engaged in any kind of affectionate
4 or sexual contact with Jeffrey?

5 A. No.

6 Q. With Ghislaine?

7 A. No.

8 Q. How did it come to be that you were in a
9 casino in Atlantic City?

10 A. We, as we were flying, Jeffrey said, Why
11 don't you go sit in the cockpit to check out the 12 landing?

13 So we were sitting there, and the pilots
14 told me to go back and tell him that we can't land
15 in New York and that we were going to have to land
16 in Atlantic City.

17 Jeffrey said, Great, we'll call up Trump
18 and we'll go to -- I don't recall the name of the 19 casino, but -- we'll go to the casino.

20 Q. And what happened with an ID issue?

21 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection:

22 THE WITNESS: All I knew is that she was
23 not going to be allowed to gamble, and so I
24 spent time with her. We were just walking
25 around. I don't remember what we did. Because

1 either she didn't have an ID or she was too
2 young. I don't remember specifically why. I
3 just knew that she could not gamble.

4 BY MS. MENNINGER:

5 Q. Okay. So you walked around with her in
6 Atlantic City?

7 A. Uh-huh. In the casino. We never left the 8 casino.

9 Q. Were you disappointed that you couldn't
10 gamble?

11 A. No.

12 Q. When you were walking around and talking
13 to her, did you learn anything about her?

14 A. Not that I recall.

15 Q. Did you have an impression about why she 16 was on the trip?

17 A. At that point, no. I was so new to the 18 whole thing, I was just trying to figure out my 19 position and who everybody was. At that point, I
20 had no idea -- I didn't know anything sexual was 21 happening at all. So I just felt like she was just 22 another visitor.

23 Q. Did she tell you at that time that she had 24 been to New York with Jeffrey before?

25 A. Not that I recall.

1 Q. Did she tell you anything about Ghislaine
2 during that walk-about?

3 A. No.

4 Q. And then you all traveled on to New York
5 that same night?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How long were you in New York for that
8 visit?

9 A. It was maybe two nights.

10 Q. And where did you sleep at night?

11 A. I slept in one of the guest rooms at his 12 townhouse on 71st Street.

13 Q. And did you stay in the same room as 14 Virginia?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Do you know where she stayed?

17 A. No.

18 Q. All right.

19 And then when you got into Manhattan, how 20 did it come to be that you were doing some 21 sightseeing?

22 A. Well, they knew that I had never been, so
23 I believe Jeffrey asked the driver and Emmy just to 24 drive me around to see the Empire State Building.
25 That's all I remember. It was late. It was dark.

1 It wasn't long, maybe 30 minutes.

2 Q. When you got back to the house, what
3 happened?

4 A. I walked into the front door, and
5 Ghislaine stuck her head over the grand staircase
6 and asked me to come upstairs into the living room.

7 Q. And can you describe the living room?

8 A. Oh, it was very large and very formal.
9 And Jeffrey and her and Virginia and Prince Andrew
10 were there.

11 Q. What were they all doing when you came in?

12 A. Just socializing. I don't remember them
13 doing an activity. It was just being together.

14 Q. Was anyone unclothed?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Was this the same room where Jeffrey had a
17 desk?

18 A. It could have been, but I can't remember.

19 Q. Did you go to New York more than one time?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. How many times did you go to New York?

22 A. Two times.

23 Q. This was the only time that you met Prince
24 Andrew in New York, though?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. When you came upstairs, where was Virginia
2 sitting?

3 A. I don't remember.

4 Q. Do you remember what she was wearing?

5 A. No.

6 Q. She was already there when you got back
7 from sightseeing?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Tell me what happened with the caricature.

10 A. Ghislaine asked me to come to a closet.
11 She just said, Come with me. We went to a closet
12 and grabbed the puppet, the puppet of Prince Andrew.
13 And I knew it was Prince Andrew because I had 14 recognized him as a person. I didn't know who he 15 was.

16 And so when I saw the tag that said Prince
17 Andrew, then it clicked. I'm like, that's who it
18 is.

19 And we went down -- back down to the 20 living room, and she brought it in. It was just 21 funny because -- he thought it was funny because it
22 was him.

23 Q. Tell me how it came to be that there was a
24 picture taken.

25 MS. McCawley: Objection.

1 THE WITNESS: I just remember someone
2 suggesting a photo, and they told us to go get
3 on the couch. And so Andrew and Virginia sat
4 on the couch, and they put the puppet, the 5 puppet on her lap.

6 And so then I sat on Andrew's lap, and I
7 believe on my own volition, and they took the 8 puppet's hands and put it on Virginia's breast,
9 and so Andrew put his on mine.

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. And this was done in a joking manner?

12 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

13 THE WITNESS: Yes.

14 BY MS. MENNINGER:

15 Q. Do you recall a photo being taken of that 16 event?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You've never seen the photo?

19 A. No.

20 Q. You don't know whose camera it was?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Virginia was sitting on the couch next to
23 Andrew, not in a big leather armchair?

24 A. Maybe. I'm just trying to remember how I
25 remember it.

1 Q. To the best of your recollection, you went
2 and sat on Andrew's lap, correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. On his knee?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And Virginia was not sitting on his knee,
7 correct?

8 A. I don't recall. I just remember I was --
9 she might have been on his other knee, like Santa.
10 I don't remember.

11 Q. After that, do you remember any other
12 pieces of that social engagement?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Do you know where you went?

15 A. From there, I went to bed.

16 Q. Were people drinking?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Did you hear Ghislaine Maxwell tell
19 Virginia to do anything while you were in that room?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Do you recall what happened the next day
22 in New York?

23 A. Bits. I mean, that was the day I went to 24 Victoria's Secret. I went and walked around by 25 myself and went to a souvenir shop, got a mug or

1 something. That's all I recall.

2 Q. Did you go anywhere with Virginia?

3 A. Oh, my gosh, yes. We went to Phantom of 4 the Opera.

5 Q. Who else went?

6 A. I think it was just she and I. I forgot
7 about that. Thank you for that memory.

8 Q. It's my job.

9 Anything else you remember about that day
10 in New York?

11 A. No.

12 Q. You said you had given a massage to 13 Jeffrey while you were there on that trip or was it
14 a subsequent trip?

15 A. That trip.

16 Q. And how did that come to be?

17 A. Either he or somebody asked me to go and 18 do it. Someone showed me to the room, but I don't 19 remember who it was.

20 Q. Can you describe that room?

21 A. Yes. It was high ceilings, dark. There
22 were, like, dark red walls or dark blue walls or 23 dark blue carpeting or something. It had a massage
24 table set up in the middle, and there was a large --
25 I want to say like a 15-foot photo, either photo or

1 painting of a naked girl.

2 Q. Pornographic or artistic?

3 A. No. No, I wouldn't say pornographic.

4 Artistic.

5 Q. Artistic.

6 Was Ghislaine present during that massage?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did something about that particular
9 massage session stand out to you?

10 A. Yes. That was when I was first asked to 11 squeeze and rub his nipples while he pleasured
12 himself.

13 Q. And did he say that's what he was going to 14 do?

15 A. He -- yes, he was just very blunt about 16 it. He said, Rub my nipples, I'm going to jerk off.
17 I was like, No, done.

18 Q. And you walked out?

19 A. I did.

20 Q. Were there any repercussions of you
21 walking out?

22 A. Amazingly, no. Knowing what I know now,
23 I'm surprised I was ever called back. But, no, I
24 just stood my ground and walked out. I'm not 25 comfortable with that.

1 Q. Do you know personally whether anyone else
2 had said no to him?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Did anyone ever tell you that they had
5 been in a massage scenario and told him no?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do you recall when in your trip the 8 massage occurred?

9 A. Well, it was not the day we landed. It
10 must have been that next day that we were there.

11 Q. Do you remember anything else about
12 Virginia from that trip other than the Prince Andrew
13 thing and Phantom of the Opera?

14 A. Well, we were getting ready to leave to go
15 to the airport, and we were waiting. She and I sat
16 on the steps in the foyer. I do remember just kind
17 of asking a few questions to try to understand her
18 role, because at that point now I knew what he 19 wanted from me in the massage. And -- but she did
20 not make it clear to me that she was participating
21 in that. So I was prodding gently to see if there
22 was anything happening that shouldn't have been,
23 because I was getting the impression that she was --
24 she told me she was 17.

25 Q. She told you she was 17?

1 A. Uh-huh.

2 Q. How did that come up?

3 A. I asked her.

4 Q. Was anyone else present during this
5 conversation?

6 A. No.

7 Q. You mentioned in your earlier testimony
8 that she seemed orphan-like.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. But you said that was something you had 11 said to Ms. McCawley, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. That was not said at the time?

14 A. Right. No. At the time I was getting an 15 impression that she did not have a family or she had 16 walked away from her family. And it seemed to me,
17 you know, they had just sort of adopted her, not as 18 a child, but they would take care of her.

19 Q. Did you observe anyone speaking to her as 20 a child, like make up your bed?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did you observe whether she was using
23 drugs during that trip?

24 A. No.

25 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Did you ever observe her using drugs?

3 A. Not that I recall.

4 Q. Did she tell you that she was using Xanax?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Cocaine?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Ecstasy?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Heroin?

11 A. No.

12 Q. When was the second trip you took to New 13 York?

14 A. Later. Maybe 2005. I don't know. I
15 could look in the flight record.

16 Q. That's all right.

17 A. I don't remember exactly.

18 Q. That's all right.

19 You just recall it being several years or 20 so after?

21 A. Yes. Several years later.

22 Q. And just so I'm clear, can you just list
23 for me the places you recall traveling with Jeffrey?

24 A. Yes. That first trip was New York and the 25 Virgin Islands. And then not again until around

1 2005, we went to New Mexico and to New York City and
2 the Virgin Islands.

3 Q. So you were in New York twice and the 4 Virgin Islands twice and New Mexico once?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Anywhere else?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Were those primarily on the private plane?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You said you flew commercially once to get 11 back?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Did you recall any other commercial
14 flights?

15 A. He bought a couple of flights for me when 16 I wanted to go up to New York for personal reasons.
17 One time I went to New York commercially, and I was 18 there with friends, but I did go over to his house
19 while I was in the city.

20 Q. And that's not the trip to New York?

21 A. No. Separate.

22 Q. Would you characterize your relationship
23 with Jeffrey as friendly?

24 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. If you asked him to buy a ticket to New
3 York, that might be something that he would do?

4 A. I never asked him to do anything for me,
5 but I told him I was interested in something, and he
6 always offered.

7 Q. The second trip to New York, anything
8 memorable about that? The one -- I'm sorry, the one
9 that you mentioned that was with Jeffrey.

10 A. I do recall Nadia being there. While I
11 massaged, she gave him a facial, but nothing sexual 12 happened.

13 Q. And do you recall if Ghislaine was part of 14 that trip or not?

15 A. I remember her being in New Mexico.

16 Q. What do you remember about her being in
17 New Mexico?

18 A. I remember she took me to -- when they 19 were building the ranch, they had a little 20 three-bedroom home, just like a prefab house. She 21 took me over there. So we went for a little walk.

22 I remember she had two new puppies named
23 Max and Mini, little Yorkies. And I want to say
24 that it was around Jeffrey's birthday when we were 25 there, but nothing -- there was no, like,

1 celebration or cake with candles. It was just
2 another day.

3 Q. You said that the Virgin Islands were a
4 part of that second trip, as well?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And do you remember Ghislaine being part
7 of the Virgin Islands the second time?

8 A. Yes. That's when she called -- went to 9 bed and kissed us all on the head and called us her
10 children.

11 Q. Who were the other participants in that
12 session?

13 A. That's who -- I don't recall who was 14 there. I want to say that Nadia was.

15 Q. But Virginia was not there?

16 A. Virginia was not there.

17 Q. Do you recall the point in time in which
18 Virginia went away?

19 A. Sort of. After the trip to New York, I
20 was given her phone number to call. And I remember
21 one time I tried to get ahold of her. Her boyfriend
22 answered. A boyfriend, I would assume, and he
23 sounded like he was high. And I couldn't find out
24 where she was. And then from there on, she was out
25 of the picture.

1 Q. Do you recall how long after the New York
2 trip that occurred?

3 A. I would say it was probably within a month
4 or two.

5 Q. Did she tell you she was working
6 elsewhere?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did you ask her?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did she mention that she was a waitress?

11 A. No.

12 Q. And worked at Taco Bell?

13 A. Huh-huh.

14 Q. Did you speak to her boyfriend or a
15 boyfriend at any other time associated with her?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you meet her boyfriend?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Her fiancé?

20 A. No.

21 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

22 BY MS. MENNINGER:

23 Q. When you were on the plane with Jeffrey
24 during these two trips, he was present on all of 25 those flights?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did you observe any sexual behavior
3 happening on the plane?

4 A. No. He told me a story of something that
5 had happened one time.

6 Q. Did it involve Ghislaine Maxwell?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did it involve Virginia Roberts?

9 A. No.

10 Q. And you didn't see anything?

11 A. No.

12 Q. You did give massages to Ghislaine
13 Maxwell, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. On how many occasions?

16 A. Maybe somewhere between five and 10.

17 Q. Was that over the course of the five
18 years?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Was there some point during that five 21 years where Ghislaine Maxwell was not around as 22 much?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Do you recall when that was?

25 A. In the middle.

1 Q. Did you know why that might be?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Is that about the time that you started
4 seeing Nadia more frequently?

5 A. Yeah, I guess she was probably in the 6 picture more. Her and Sarah both had kind of been 7 around the most.

8 Q. Did you observe Nadia or Sarah appearing
9 to act like Jeffrey's girlfriend?

10 A. Nadia, not Sarah.

11 Q. What did you observe?

12 A. She was just very loving, kissing him.

13 Q. Did you know how old she was?

14 A. I didn't know.

15 Q. So you gave massages to Ghislaine five or 16 10 times. Was there anything unusual about those 17 massages?

18 A. No.

19 Q. You've been quoted in the press perhaps as 20 saying that she wasn't very picky?

21 A. About massage?

22 Q. About her massages.

23 A. Not like Jeffrey, I guess. I mean, saying
24 that meant that, you know, I would do whatever I
25 wanted to do in the massage; whereas, Jeffrey was,

1 like, Do my foot, do my leg. He would kind of
2 narrate what he wanted. She just wanted a massage.
3 So if that makes sense.

4 Q. She may have been naked under a towel --

5 A. Definitely.

6 Q. -- in a regular massage fashion?

7 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: Yes. Actually, I do recall
9 an instance where I was massaging her and
10 Jeffrey came into the room and he did something
11 sort of sexual to her, whether it was fondling
12 her or slapping her butt or something, and she 13 brushed him off like she was embarrassed.

14 BY MS. MENNINGER:

15 Q. So she never asked you to touch her in a
16 sexual manner, correct?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And she did not rub her breasts on you,
19 for example?

20 A. No.

21 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

22 BY MS. MENNINGER:

23 Q. She did not demand that you perform oral
24 sex on her?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Did she did not demand that you undress
2 during your massages?

3 A. No.

4 Q. There was nothing from her that was sexual
5 during the massages that you gave to her?

6 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

7 THE WITNESS: Correct.

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. Do you recall when the last time you gave 10 her a massage was?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. Do you recall meeting with her in about 13 2006 when she was in town for some helicopter
14 training?

15 A. I do recall that.

16 Q. Do you recall giving her some massages
17 during that period?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Do you remember going out to dinner with 20 her and to a movie?

21 A. I remember to a movie, and I don't
22 remember if we went to dinner. I remember her
23 cooking dinner. That was another way she impressed
24 me: She knew how to cook like a chef. She had done
25 some culinary training.

1 Q. And you guys had a normal type
2 conversation?

3 A. Yes. It was very fun.

4 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

5 MS. MENNINGER: I would like to take about
6 a 5-, to 10-minute break, if that's okay.

7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record at
8 11:05.

9 (Thereupon, a recess was taken, after
10 which the following proceedings were held:)

11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the beginning
12 of Disk 2. On the record at 11:25.

13 BY MS. MENNINGER:

14 Q. Hi. I believe when we left off I was 15 asking you about massages that you gave to
16 Ghislaine.

17 Did Ghislaine pay you when she got a
18 massage from you?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Do you know how much she paid you?

21 A. I believe it was 200. It was the going
22 rate.

23 Q. The same as you were getting paid by 24 Jeffrey, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Ghislaine was not present when you were
2 giving massages to Jeffrey, correct?

3 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

4 THE WITNESS: Correct.

5 BY MS. MENNINGER:

6 Q. At some point Jeffrey became more
7 aggressive with you, correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. At what point was that?

12 A. In the last year.

13 Q. And what does that mean to you, "became 14 more aggressive"?

15 A. He was pressuring me to do more than I was 16 comfortable with doing.

17 Q. Is that what ultimately caused you to 18 leave working for Jeffrey?

19 A. What caused me to leave was when it was 20 made public what I was doing.

21 Q. What do you mean by that?

22 A. Well, after I had spoken with the police
23 report -- the police and there was a police report,
24 I did not realize that was public knowledge,
25 journalists would get a hold of. So at one point

1 the news channel 12 showed up at my door asking me
2 questions.

3 Q. When Jeffrey was pressuring you to do more
4 than you felt comfortable with, did you observe him
5 being more aggressive in general? Outside of the 6 massage context?

7 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: No.

9 BY MS. MENNINGER:

10 Q. Do you know whether he was taking any type
11 of steroids?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Did you ever see him wearing a patch or 14 something like that?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. Did you tell anyone that Jeffrey was 17 becoming more aggressive with you contemporaneous
18 with when it was happening?

19 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

20 THE WITNESS: No.

21 BY MS. MENNINGER:

22 Q. When Jeffrey asked you to do other things
23 besides a normal massage, did he offer to pay you
24 additionally?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. How much?

2 A. One hundred dollars extra.

3 Can I clarify?

4 Q. Absolutely.

5 A. He didn't ever say he would pay me more,
6 but when the massage was more than just a massage
7 and it was sexual, then he would pay me more.

8 Q. It wasn't a discussion; it's just what
9 happened?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Thank you for clarifying.

12 The things that took place with you and
13 Jeffrey behind closed doors were when you were a
14 consenting adult, correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Correct.

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. And you did not have knowledge of what 20 took place with other women behind closed doors and 21 Jeffrey, correct?

22 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

23 THE WITNESS: Correct.

24 BY MS. MENNINGER:

25 Q. Do you recall giving an interview to a

1 reporter from the Mail on Sunday?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. You told that reporter, I believe, that
4 the police report painted a picture that it was a
5 big orgy all the time, but it wasn't?

6 A. What I saw, I did not see anything out in
7 the open sexually. Me, personally.

8 Q. Right. You did not see orgies happening
9 in the pool, for example?

10 A. No.

11 Q. You did not see people engaging in sexual 12 conduct out in the open areas of the home, correct?

13 A. Right.

14 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

15 BY MS. MENNINGER:

16 Q. When you became aware of the allegations
17 against Jeffrey, those came as a surprise to you,
18 correct?

19 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

20 THE WITNESS: Correct.

21 BY MS. MENNINGER:

22 Q. And the surprise was that it involved
23 underaged girls making that allegation, correct?

24 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

25 THE WITNESS: Correct.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. You were asked some questions with
3 Ms. McCawley about nude photographs that were 4 present in the home? Homes?

5 A. Uh-huh.

6 Q. In Palm Beach, I believe you said there
7 were some in the room where the massage table was?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Can you tell me what you recall seeing?

10 A. It wasn't candid photos. They were all,
11 like, staged.

12 Q. Like a model?

13 A. Yes. And my -- I don't recall necessarily 14 knowing any of the people in those photos. I
15 remember at one point there was a photo of myself,
16 but...

17 Q. Were they fully frontally nude or were 18 they staged, like, with, you know, parts of bodies
19 showing?

20 A. I really only remember topless photos. I
21 don't remember full frontal photos.

22 Q. So exposing the breasts, but not exposing
23 the genitalia?

24 A. Not that I recall. And Ghislaine's
25 bathroom, I believe there was a photo of her

1 topless, or a painting.

2 Q. A painting?

3 A. Uh-huh.

4 Q. Did you see any nude or semi-clad photos
5 of young girls?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Preteens, for example?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Something you would consider child
10 pornography?

11 A. Never.

12 Q. Other than in the bathroom or the massage
13 room at the Palm Beach home, do you recall any other
14 place in the Palm Beach home where you saw any of 15 these topless photos of women?

16 A. I remember there being photos everywhere,
17 and the ones that stick out in my memory are the 18 ones -- there was a photo of Ghislaine with the 19 Pope. It would not surprise me if there were naked
20 photos around. I just didn't retain them in my 21 memory.

22 Q. So when you say there were photos
23 everywhere, you mean just photos in general?

24 A. Yes. They had a lot of photos around the
25 house.

1 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

2 BY MS. MENNINGER:

3 Q. And Ghislaine was not topless in a photo
4 with the Pope, just so I'm clear?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. I just want to make sure we get that
7 record really clear.

8 So you recall there being photos
9 everywhere; you just remember a couple sticking out
10 in your brain as being topless?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And the walls on the staircase to the 13 upstairs were not just covered with nude
14 photographs, to your recollection?

15 A. To my recollection, I just -- I don't
16 remember.

17 Q. Did you observe what you would consider to 18 be child pornography on any computer in the home?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Did you observe anyone taking photographs
21 of young girls in the home?

22 A. No.

23 Q. The photograph of yourself that you saw,
24 was that something that you had posed for?

25 A. Not, like, professionally. But I was just

1 sitting, and I believe Jeffrey took the photo. I
2 was just sitting on a couch upstairs in the 3 bathroom.

4 Q. It wasn't taken by a hidden camera?

5 A. No. No. I was smiling in the picture.

6 Q. And, likewise, in the New York home, did
7 you see anything -- you described a large painting
8 or a photograph that was in the massage room?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Do you recall any other photos of 11 semi-clad or naked females?

12 A. I don't recall.

13 Q. Anything that you would consider to be 14 child pornography that you saw in the New York home?

15 A. No.

16 Q. And, likewise, in New Mexico?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Do you recall seeing any semi-clad photos
19 in New Mexico at all?

20 A. I do not recall.

21 Q. And the Virgin Islands?

22 A. Yes, in his bathroom, master bathroom.

23 Q. And what do you recall, if anything, about 24 that photo?

25 A. There was a photo of me in there.

1 Q. And, again, was that something that you
2 were okay with?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Jeffrey Epstein never told you that he
5 knowingly had sexual contact with an underaged girl,
6 correct?

7 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: When I asked him if the 9 accusations were true, after I spoke with the 10 police, he said yes, but they lied about their 11 age.

12 BY MS. MENNINGER:

13 Q. How did that conversation come about?

14 A. He asked me if the police had ever spoken
15 to me and I asked him, is it true.

16 Q. And you were talking about underaged
17 girls?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And he said that he had been lied to by 20 those girls?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Did he say anything else to you about it?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Did you ask him anything else about it?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Did you attempt to have any conversation
2 like that with Ghislaine Maxwell?

3 A. No.

4 Q. I saw one press report that said you had
5 met Cate Blanchett or Leonardo DiCaprio?

6 A. I did not meet them, no. When I spoke
7 about them, it was when I was massaging him, and he 8 would get off -- he would be on the phone a lot at 9 that time, and one time he said, Oh, that was 10 Leonardo, or, That was Cate Blanchett, or Bruce
11 Willis. That kind of thing.

12 Q. So name-dropping?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. So you had not met Cate Blanchett or 15 Leonardo DiCaprio?

16 A. I have not.

17 Q. Would you remember if you had?

18 A. I would hope I would remember.

19 Q. Did you meet Cameron Diaz?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Bill Clinton?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did you see Bill Clinton on the island?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did you see Bill Clinton in a helicopter

1 being flown by Ghislaine Maxwell?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Did Ghislaine Maxwell ever tell you that
4 she had flown Bill Clinton in her helicopter?

5 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: I don't recall her saying
7 that.

8 BY MS. MENNINGER:

9 Q. Did you ever meet Senator ?

10 A. I don't know what he looks like. I might 11 have.

12 Q. If I told you he was from Maine, would 13 that stick out in your mind?

14 A. It should, but I do not recall meeting
15 him.

16 Q. Do you ever remember meeting Prime
17 Minister Ehud Barak from Israel?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Do you recall meeting any prime minister?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Any foreign president?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Nobel Prize winners?

24 A. Not to my knowledge.

25 Q. Naomi Campbell?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Al Gore?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Alan Dershowitz?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Les Wexner?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Tom Pritzker?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Kevin Spacey? I may have already asked
11 you, but have you met Kevin Spacey?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Did you meet Governor Bill Richardson of 14 New Mexico?

15 A. Hmm, I want to say that he was supposed to 16 come to dinner when we were in New Mexico. I don't
17 know if I met him. I believe that he and Ghislaine
18 had dinner separate from myself.

19 Q. Jean Luc Brunel?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You did meet him?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Tell me about that.

24 A. He was just in the house at one time in 25 Palm Beach.

1 Q. Socializing?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Did you observe him to be with underaged
4 girls?

5 A. I don't recall.

6 Q. Did you give him a massage?

7 A. I don't think I did. I gave a lot of 8 guests massages. I don't remember any of their
9 names. So it could have been any of those people
10 besides the movie stars.

11 Q. You would know?

12 A. Exactly.

13 Q. And did you engage in sexual contact with 14 any of the guests for whom you gave a massage?

15 A. No. That's why he would call me for his 16 guests, because I was not comfortable with the 17 sexual contact. So he still wanted to employ me as 18 a massage therapist, but it was all normal.

19 Q. So this was an actual conversation that 20 you had?

21 A. No, but I -- I noticed. I noticed that I
22 wasn't -- I was massaging him less and less and 23 massaging his guests more.

24 Q. So there was a change in the frequency
25 with which you were giving Jeffrey Epstein massages?

1 A. Right.

2 Q. And an increase corresponding to massages
3 you were giving to guests, correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did any of the guests for whom you gave a
6 massage mention that they expected something sexual?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did they ask you to engage in sexual
9 contact and you refused?

10 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

11 THE WITNESS: No.

12 BY MS. MENNINGER:

13 Q. Marvin Minsky?

14 A. I don't know that.

15 Q. George Lucas?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Donald Trump?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Did you ever massage Donald Trump?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Sorry, I have to ask, but did you ever
22 have sex with Alan Dershowitz in the back of a
23 limousine with Virginia and Jeffrey present?

24 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

25 THE WITNESS: Absolutely not.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Do you know who Alan Dershowitz is?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. You would remember --

5 A. I would remember that.

6 Q. Did you ever see Virginia Roberts with any 7 of the people that I just asked you about?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did Virginia ever talk to you about having 10 been with any of those people?

11 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

12 THE WITNESS: No.

13 BY MS. MENNINGER:

14 Q. Did she tell you that she had met any of 15 those people?

16 A. No.

17 Q. I believe you saw in that police report a
18 reference to a friend of Jeffrey named Glenn and his 19 wife?

20 A. Uh-huh.

21 Q. Do you remember them?

22 A. Vaguely.

23 Q. Tell me what you remember.

24 A. I remember they had an apartment in -- on 25 Breakers Row. I went up there and massaged. It may

1 have been more than once, but I only really remember
2 one time. But there was nothing sexual.

3 Q. Neither with the wife, nor with Glenn?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. Do you remember the apartment?

6 A. I only remember that I had to carry my
7 massage table up some stairs.

8 Q. So you actually gave the massage on a
9 massage table?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Does that help you place it in time as to 12 when that might have occurred? In other words --

13 A. Well --

14 Q. -- did you get your massage license at 15 some point and a massage table?

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Yes. He bought me my 18 massage table around the time that I went to 19 massage school. So it could have been any time
20 after. If I thought really hard, I could
21 remember when I went to school. But it -- I
22 want to say it's around 2003.

23 BY MS. MENNINGER:

24 Q. Nothing sexual happened with Glenn?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Did Glenn ask you to give him a massage on
2 the floor of the home?

3 A. I don't recall.

4 Q. Did you ever discuss Glenn with Virginia?

5 A. Not to my recollection.

6 Q. Did you ever go to Virginia's home?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you know where she lived?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did she talk about it?

11 A. Not that I remember.

12 Q. Did you see anything in your interactions
13 with Virginia that led you to believe that she was a
14 sex slave?

15 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

16 THE WITNESS: No.

17 BY MS. MENNINGER:

18 Q. Did you see anyone forcing her to remain
19 in the home?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did you see her look traumatized at some
22 point?

23 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

24 THE WITNESS: No.

25

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Did you see anything that led you to
3 believe Virginia Roberts had been trafficked,
4 sexually trafficked to third parties?

5 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: No.

7 BY MS. MENNINGER:

8 Q. Did Virginia ever tell you that she had 9 been trafficked?

10 A. No.

11 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

12 BY MS. MENNINGER:

13 Q. Did you hear anyone direct Virginia
14 Roberts to go have sex with someone?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did Jeffrey ever ask you to go have sex
17 with another person?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Did Ghislaine Maxwell ever ask you to go
20 have sex with another person?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did Ghislaine Maxwell ever ask you to give 23 a massage to someone else?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did Ghislaine Maxwell ever ask you to

1 dress up in any outfit?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Did she ever buy you an outfit for you to 4 wear in terms of a sexual profile?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Did she tell you what kind of clothes you
7 should buy?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did she direct you to go get Brazilian
10 bikini waxes?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did she direct you to go get your teeth
13 whitened?

14 A. No.

15 MS. MENNINGER: I would like to mark as an
16 exhibit -- I have no recollection what number
17 we're on. Thank you. Exhibit 5.

18 (The referred-to document was marked by
19 the court reporter for Identification as
20 Sjoberg Exhibit 5.)

21 BY MS. MENNINGER:

22 Q. Have you seen this article before?

23 A. It has followed me everywhere.

24 MS. McCAWLEY: I'm sorry. Can I just ask
25 you to put the Bates numbers on the record?

1 MS. MENNINGER: Sure. It's Bates marked
2 Giuffre 1131 through 1138.

3 BY MS. MENNINGER:

4 Q. What do you mean it has followed you
5 everywhere?

6 A. Well, if you Google me, it comes up.

7 Q. I wanted to just ask you a couple of
8 questions.

9 On the third page, towards the bottom,
10 there is a photograph that begins "we had a picture 11 taken," and just to orient you, this is in the 12 discussion around the Prince Andrew meeting you had.

13 Did you meet Prince Andrew any other time
14 besides the time you already described in your 15 testimony?

16 A. No.

17 Q. If you want to take a look at that
18 paragraph before I ask you questions.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. In that paragraph, it describes that
21 Andrew -- Virginia sat on the chair, and then Andrew
22 sat on another chair, and you sat on his lap.

23 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

24 BY MS. MENNINGER:

25 Q. Is that what it says?

1 A. That's what it says.

2 Q. Do you recall telling that to the 3 reporter?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And this was back in 2007 or so?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. As you sit here today, does that make
8 it -- does that refresh your recollection that 9 Virginia was sitting in one chair and you were 10 sitting on another, with Andrew?

11 A. Yeah. If I said that, then I remember it
12 that way. I'm just trying to remember. Whether we 13 were on a couch or a chair, I just remember the 14 boobs part, the hand on the boobs.

15 Q. I understand that part stands out.

16 And I also completely understand if you
17 don't remember things that happened a long time ago.

18 A. Right.

19 Q. I'm just wondering if, having looked at 20 this news article, it refreshes your memory that 21 Virginia was sitting in a different place?

22 A. In a different chair?

23 Q. Does it?

24 A. It does say that. Does it refresh my
25 memory?

1 Q. Okay. That's fine.

2 A. Yeah, sure.

3 Q. If it doesn't, it doesn't. I'm just
4 asking.

5 Did Virginia say anything to you about
6 having met Prince Andrew before this time in New
7 York?

8 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

9 THE WITNESS: She did not say.

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. Did Prince Andrew say or do anything that 12 led you to believe that he had met Virginia prior to 13 that time?

14 A. I don't recall.

15 Q. Did you ever see Al Gore on the island?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you see his wife, Tipper Gore, on the 18 island?

19 A. No.

20 Q. What is your understanding of what the 21 lawsuit we are here today is about?

22 A. I understand that Ghislaine is calling
23 Virginia a liar, and so Ghislaine is suing Virginia.
24 I'm sorry. Strike that. Reverse it.

25 Right, Virginia is suing Ghislaine for

1 defamation.

2 Q. And do you know what Virginia said about
3 Ghislaine?

4 A. That Ghislaine recruited her.

5 Q. Do you know anything else that Virginia
6 said about Ghislaine?

7 A. Only what was spoken to me.

8 Q. And I should clarify. Don't tell me
9 anything your lawyer has conveyed to you.

10 A. Exactly. That's all I know. I've met
11 with Virginia once last summer.

12 Q. Okay. Tell me about that.

13 A. She -- there was a moderator between us,
14 like an investigator. And she was in Palm Beach.
15 And it was more about Jeffrey. It was less about 16 Ghislaine. I don't remember specifically about
17 Ghislaine at all.

18 Q. So you met with Virginia and an 19 investigator at the same time?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And they were what, talking to you about
22 Jeffrey in what context?

23 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

24 THE WITNESS: Basically, they were trying
25 to find people that would help her get her

1 story out, because this is when Dershowitz --
2 Dershowitz was saying nothing was happening and
3 he was calling her a liar. And she was just
4 trying to find people to back up her story.

5 BY MS. MENNINGER:

6 Q. And what did you understand her story to 7 be? Did she tell you?

8 A. That she was recruited to give massages,
9 sexual massages, and have sex with people such as 10 Dershowitz and Andrew. But I knew none of that at 11 the time.

12 Q. Right. Did you tell them anything -- did
13 you tell them during that meeting that you knew of 14 anything about her being recruited to give sex to 15 either Jeffrey or to other people?

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Can you rephrase?

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. Yes. That wasn't a very good question.

20 What did you say during this meeting with 21 Virginia and her investigator?

22 A. Basically that I believed her, even though
23 I -- she never spoke to me specifically about what 24 was going on; that once I learned everything that
25 happened based on reading the police report, I

1 believed her side of the story.

2 Q. And did she tell you what her side of the 3 story was?

4 A. You know, just that she wasn't a liar;
5 that, you know, she was there to have sex with men
6 that Jeffrey wanted her to sleep with.

7 Q. Did she tell you in that meeting who she 8 had sex with?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did she name any of the famous people?

11 A. Only Dershowitz came up.

12 Q. Did you two talk about the incident in New
13 York with the puppet?

14 A. I don't recall.

15 Q. And you formed this opinion about whether 16 she was a liar based on things that you've read in 17 the police report?

18 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

19 THE WITNESS: I formed my opinion based on 20 my experience in the house.

21 BY MS. MENNINGER:

22 Q. Okay. And what experience in the house
23 helped you form your opinion that what Virginia is 24 saying is true?

25 A. You know, Jeffrey being open with me about

1 what other girls did for him and that I was not one
2 of those girls.

3 He was always trying to recruit me almost
4 in a way that I could be one of them and travel with
5 him and live the life of luxury if I only -- if only
6 I did this.

7 So after five years of learning what was
8 happening, I can look back knowing -- I only knew
9 Virginia for a very short time. Looking back, I can 10 make assumptions about what was required of her.

11 Q. Did she tell you how old she was when she 12 said she started working with Jeffrey?

13 A. She didn't.

14 Q. Did she tell how long she had worked with 15 Jeffrey?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Have you read all the things that have 18 been attributed to her in the press?

19 A. Many of them.

20 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

21 THE WITNESS: I don't know that I've read
22 all of them, but I have read some.

23 BY MS. MENNINGER:

24 Q. In this meeting with Virginia and the 25 investigator, you said Ghislaine Maxwell did not

1 come up?

2 A. Not that -- not that I recall.

3 Q. Do you know the name of the investigator?

4 A. Valerie Rivera.

5 Q. Have you read the statement that Ghislaine
6 Maxwell issued to the press?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you know what it says?

9 A. No.

10 Q. You said you have read some of Virginia's
11 statements to the press but not all of them?

12 A. I don't know how many there are. I know I
13 read something. I don't know if I read all of them.

14 Q. Have you read her book manuscript?

15 A. No.

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 BY MS. MENNINGER:

18 Q. Did she tell you that she was writing a
19 book?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did she tell you she was trying to get a
22 book deal?

23 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

24 THE WITNESS: No.

25

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Did she tell you that he hired a ghost
3 rider?

4 A. No.

5 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

6 BY MS. MENNINGER:

7 Q. Did she tell you that she hired a literary
8 agent?

9 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

10 THE WITNESS: No.

11 BY MS. MENNINGER:

12 Q. Did you speak with John Connelly?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. When did you speak with John Connelly?

15 A. He was first calling me around the time
16 that everything was coming out in 2006. And I
17 didn't say a lot to him, but I did say a few things.
18 And I asked him not to use my name, and he used my 19 name. And then he quoted me as saying things I
20 never said.

21 Q. Do you know to whom he quoted things that 22 you had never said?

23 A. I don't remember the news outlet, no.

24 Q. So it was published somewhere?

25 A. Somewhere on the Internet.

1 Q. Something that you said to John Connelly
2 got twisted?

3 A. Yes. He put words in my mouth.

4 Q. And it was misreported and published?

5 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: Correct.

7 BY MS. MENNINGER:

8 Q. Have you spoken to him lately?

9 A. No. He called me again at the beginning
10 of last year, around New Year's last year, but I did
11 not return his call.

12 Q. Do you recall what it is he attributed to 13 you falsely?

14 A. It was mostly about how I felt about 15 certain things. I don't remember specifically what
16 he said, but he was giving an opinion for me that I
17 never spoke to him about.

18 Q. And that you did not hold?

19 A. Well, I can't remember what it was. Yeah.

20 Q. Okay. Do you know whether Virginia has 21 lied about any of her experience?

22 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

23 THE WITNESS: I don't know that she has 24 lied.

25

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Do you know that she has told the truth?

3 A. As far as I know, she has.

4 Q. Do you know whether the press has
5 accurately reported everything that Virginia has 6 said?

7 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

9 BY MS. MENNINGER:

10 Q. Other than John Connelly and the police,
11 who else have you spoken to about your experience?

12 A. Well, the woman from the Daily Mail. Her
13 name is Wendy Leigh.

14 Q. And that's Defendant's Exhibit 5 -- not 15 Defendant's Exhibit, just Exhibit 5, correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Did Wendy Leigh accurately report your
18 statements?

19 A. She did a little bit of embellishment, as 20 well, but the facts are all true.

21 Q. And what parts do you believe are 22 embellished?

23 A. Near the end, when she was doing a
24 summary, when she wrote, "Sure, I had a good time,
25 but I also think it damaged me a bit." I don't

1 recall saying that.

2 And there's another part in here where she
3 said I said that I made a deal with the devil, which
4 I never would have said that. The words she used.

5 Q. On page 2 of 8, it's about -- it's about
6 even with the hem of your skirt.

7 A. "I made a pack with the devil in exchange
8 for excitement and glamour. I was only a college
9 student. I was hard-up and foolish."

10 That I never said, any of that. I was a 11 college student, that's true. "Hard-up and 12 foolish," I would have never called myself foolish.

13 Q. Were you paid any money for this
14 interview?

15 A. I was paid $1,500.

16 Q. And how long did the interview last?

17 A. A couple of hours.

18 Q. Where did it take place?

19 A. At Cafe Boulud in the Brazilian Court
20 Hotel in Palm Beach.

21 Q. Who else besides Wendy Leigh and John
22 Connelly and the police --

23 MS. McCawley: Objection.

24 BY MS. MENNINGER:

25 Q. -- and Virginia and the investigator --

1 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

2 BY MS. MENNINGER:

3 Q. -- did you talk to about your experience?

4 A. Family and friends.

5 Q. Did you speak to any other reporters?

6 A. I had other reporters calling me. I
7 avoided almost all of the calls. I had someone
8 coming at me, stalking me. I do not know who he
9 was. He offered me $25,000 to give a story, and I
10 turned him down.

11 Q. Who?

12 A. He showed up in my work multiple times.

13 Q. There were other stories printed in the 14 Daily Mail, not by Wendy Leigh, later.

15 Did you see any of those stories? I'm
16 sorry. Let me be a little clearer. That attributed 17 comments to you.

18 A. I don't recall specifically, but I feel
19 like I stayed on top of it, and I wasn't surprised
20 when my name was brought up.

21 Q. Do you recall giving another interview?

22 A. No, never.

23 Q. Do you recall anything that was printed
24 other than the John Connelly thing that you believe
25 to be inaccurate?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Was there anybody else present when you
3 were interviewing with Wendy Leigh?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Was she recording it on a recorder?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Have you ever heard that recording?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Do you know whether the police were 10 recording their interview with you?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Have you ever heard that recording?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Did you ever receive notification that you
15 were named as a victim in any of Jeffrey Epstein's
16 criminal cases?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Other than the $1,500 from Wendy Leigh, 19 did you receive any other money for making any
20 statements?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did you give an interview to Virginia's
23 attorneys?

24 A. Yes. Right?

25 MS. McCAWLEY: You can say yes.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. When was that?

3 A. Two weeks ago, roughly.

4 Q. And who was present during that meeting?

5 A. My lawyer and several others.

6 Q. Several other what?

7 A. Lawyers. I don't know. I don't know who 8 they all are.

9 Q. So Ms. McCawley you recall being there?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Ms. Schultz you recall being there?

12 A. No. I didn't learn it, no. You weren't
13 there.

14 Q. Brad Edwards?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Paul Cassell?

17 A. Maybe. I don't remember.

18 Q. And was that interview recorded?

19 A. I don't know. It may have been. I don't
20 remember.

21 Q. Did anyone ask your permission to record
22 it?

23 A. Maybe. I don't recall.

24 Q. Were you shown any documents during that 25 meeting?

1 A. Flight logs.

2 Q. Any other documents?

3 A. No.

4 Q. What did Ms. McCawley or Mr. Edwards or
5 any of the other lawyers say to you about Ghislaine
6 Maxwell?

7 A. They just asked impressions. They never
8 said anything about her.

9 Q. Were you shown a copy of any report that 10 came out of that interview?

11 A. Which interview?

12 Q. The one with the -- Virginia's attorneys.

13 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

14 THE WITNESS: No.

15 BY MS. MENNINGER:

16 Q. You testified earlier about an incident
17 with a camera that Ghislaine Maxwell had given you.
18 I want to ask you some questions about that.

19 A. Sure.

20 Q. Do you know when that was?

21 A. That was in 2002.

22 Q. And why does that date stick out?

23 A. Because I was living -- where I was living
24 specifically and where I had the phone call.

25 Q. Tell me what you remember about the

1 conversation.

2 A. I had been over to her house prior
3 massaging Jeffrey. And I got a phone call from her,
4 and she told me she had a camera for me for my
5 photography class, but yet, she couldn't give it to 6 me yet because during the massage I didn't finish my
7 job and she had to finish it for me.

8 Q. Did she say what she meant?

9 A. No, but I knew.

10 Q. Was there any other time that you had 11 discussed with her finishing your job?

12 A. Not that I recall.

13 Q. Any other time you just recall discussing 14 with her anything about your sexual contact with
15 Jeffrey?

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: No.

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. Did she give you the camera?

20 A. I did get the camera.

21 Q. Okay. When did she give you the camera?

22 A. I guess the next time I went to the house.

23 Q. What was said at that time?

24 A. I honestly don't know that she handed it
25 to me. I remember it being there for me.

1 Q. What kind of camera was it?

2 A. A Canon Rebel 35-millimeter.

3 Q. Do you still have it?

4 A. I do not. No one uses 35-millimeter
5 anymore.

6 Q. What's that?

7 A. No one uses 35-millimeter.

8 Q. Back to the cell phone conversation.

9 A. Right.

10 Q. Was it your birthday?

11 A. It was just I was taking a photography
12 class and I needed a camera.

13 Q. Do you know her to be a photographer?

14 A. Not a professional, but I knew she was 15 interested in photography.

16 Q. Did you see her with cameras?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you see her taking photographs of nude
19 people?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did she ever ask you to take a photograph
22 of you semi-clad or naked?

23 A. Did she ever ask to take a photo of me?

24 Q. Semi-clad or naked.

25 A. No.

1 Q. Did she ever ask to take a photograph of
2 you at any point?

3 A. I don't remember.

4 Q. Did you tell anyone else about this
5 conversation: You couldn't give it to me now
6 because I hadn't finished my job?

7 A. No.

8 MS. MENNINGER: I think I'm going to
9 reserve the rest of my time for recross, so you
10 all, I guess, can take a break.

11 MR. LOUIS: Can I have one second?

12 MS. MENNINGER: Sure.

13 MS. McCAWLEY: We can go off the record?

14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record at
15 12:09.

16 (Thereupon, a recess was taken, after
17 which the following proceedings were held:)

18 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record at 12:10.

19 BY MS. MENNINGER:

20 Q. Sorry, just a couple of more questions.

21 It sounds like maybe there was an
22 additional telephone conference that one might
23 construe as a meeting with attorneys; is that true?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. All right. Tell me about that.

1 A. They just wanted to -- we had met prior,
2 and they just wanted to clarify a few things and ask
3 a few more questions.

4 Q. Okay. What did they clarify?

5 A. Any other specific times that I had, you
6 know, seen Ghislaine naked, or if I had, you know,
7 had any sexual massages with her, any type of 8 questions like that.

9 Q. Okay. And what did you tell them about
10 having any sexual massages with Ghislaine?

11 A. That I was not asked to do -- to perform
12 anything with her.

13 Q. And you did not?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And what did you tell them about specific
16 times of seeing Ghislaine Maxwell naked?

17 A. Only when she would swim or get a massage.

18 Q. And that's swimming -- you mentioned
19 earlier skinny-dipping?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And I think you said perhaps some other
22 time that you saw her jump off a dock and swim --

23 A. Correct, yes.

24 Q. -- in the nude?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And then you saw her under a towel during
2 messages?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Is there any other time that you recall
5 seeing Ghislaine Maxwell naked?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Is there anything else about that
8 telephone conference with the attorneys to clarify
9 that you recall, the topics?

10 A. No.

11 MS. MENNINGER: All right. Thank you. I
12 think we can go off the record now.

13 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record at
14 12:12.

15 (Thereupon, a lunch recess was taken,
16 after which the following proceedings were 17 held:)

18 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record at 12:54.

20 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

21 Q. Johanna, I'm going to ask you a couple of 22 more just follow-up questions.

23 When Laura was talking to you, she
24 mentioned some names of famous people that you --
25 most of which you had not met.

1 Did you ever meet anybody famous when you
2 were with Jeffrey?

3 A. I met Michael Jackson.

4 Q. Oh, really? And where was that?

5 A. At his house in Palm Beach. At Jeffrey's
6 house in Palm Beach.

7 Q. Did you massage him?

8 A. I did not.

9 Q. Anybody else you remember? I know you
10 mentioned David Copperfield earlier. Anybody else?

11 A. No, I'd remember that.

12 Q. I believe you also testified that you had 13 never had a massage before you started working with 14 Jeffrey and Ghislaine; is that correct?

15 A. I don't recall having a massage before
16 then.

17 Q. And I think you said on the first day,
18 when you were doing the clerical work, Maxwell
19 mentioned that you might be able to get a massage;
20 is that correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Did you tell Maxwell that you had never 23 had a massage at that point?

24 A. I don't remember.

25 Q. Did you remember telling Jeffrey that you

1 had never had a massage?

2 A. No.

3 Q. And then you were talking about the 4 massage -- the first massage when you were being in
5 the room with Jeffrey and Emmy?

6 A. Uh-huh.

7 Q. And I know you said Emmy was naked or took 8 off her clothes at some point?

9 A. Uh-huh.

10 Q. And then laid on the table.

11 And then you changed positions with her;
12 is that what happened?

13 A. Yes. I don't remember the sequence, but 14 at one point she was, I was, and Jeffrey was.

15 Q. And in the -- in the time when there was 16 changeover, for example, when you're on the table
17 and Emmy is not on the table and Jeffrey is not on 18 the table, did Emmy at that point remain naked or 19 did she actually stop and get dressed and continue
20 massaging?

21 A. I don't recall her getting dressed, but I
22 would probably remember if she massaged naked.

23 Q. Do you know if Jeffrey remained naked
24 during that massage?

25 A. He was never, like, naked standing up. He

1 always covered himself with a towel.

2 Q. I believe I asked this, but I just want to
3 clarify to make sure that I did: Did Maxwell ever
4 ask you to bring other girls over to -- for Jeffrey?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Yes?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what did you -- did you do anything in
9 response to that?

10 A. I did bring one girl named --
11 no. -- it was some girl named
12 that I had worked with at a restaurant. And I
13 recall Ghislaine giving me money to bring her over;
14 however, they never called her to come.

15 Q. And then I believe you mentioned that one
16 of your physical fitness instructors, you brought a
17 physical fitness instructor; was that correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And what did she do?

20 A. She gave him a -- like a training session,
21 twice.

22 Q. Twice.

23 Did anything sexual in nature happen
24 during the session?

25 A. At one point he lifted up her shirt and

1 exposed her bra, and she grabbed it and pulled it
2 down.

3 Q. Anything else?

4 A. That was the conversation that he had told
5 her that he had taken this girl's virginity, the
6 girl by the pool.

7 Q. Okay. Did Maxwell ever say to you that it
8 takes the pressure off of her to have other girls
9 around?

10 A. She implied that, yes.

11 Q. In what way?

12 A. Sexually.

13 Q. And earlier Laura asked you, I believe, if
14 Maxwell ever asked you to perform any sexual acts,
15 and I believe your testimony was no, but then you
16 also previously stated that during the camera
17 incident that Maxwell had talked to you about not
18 finishing the job.

19 Did you understand "not finishing the job"
20 meaning bringing Jeffrey to orgasm?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

22 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

23 Q. I'm sorry, Johanna, let me correct that
24 question.

25 What did you understand Maxwell to mean

1 when she said you hadn't finished the job, with
2 respect to the camera?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

4 THE WITNESS: She implied that I had not
5 brought him to orgasm.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected
8 you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging
9 Jeffrey?

10 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form,
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: I can answer?

13 Yes, I took that conversation to mean that
14 is what was expected of me.

15 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

16 Q. And then you mentioned, I believe, when
17 you were testifying earlier that Jeffrey told you a
18 story about sex on the plane. What was that about?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay.

20 THE WITNESS: He told me one time Emmy was
21 sleeping on the plane, and they were getting
22 ready to land. And he went and woke her up,
23 and she thought that meant he wanted a blow
24 job, so she started to unzip his pants, and he
25 said, No, no, no, you just have to be awake for

1 landing.

2 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

3 Q. Do you recall witnessing any sexual acts
4 on the plane?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Did Emmy ever talk to you about performing
7 sexual acts on the plane?

8 A. No.

9 Q. We looked earlier at the police report,
10 and I just want to clarify, you identified some 11 areas where there were discrepancies in that report.

12 And you can take another look at it if you
13 want, but other than the discrepancies you pointed 14 out, is that a recollection of what you remember
15 telling the detective?

16 A. Yes.

17 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, outside the
18 scope of cross.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. You mentioned that there was a time when 21 you noticed that Maxwell was around a little bit
22 less?

23 A. Uh-huh.

24 Q. And I believe you said that was during the 25 middle of the time you were with Jeffrey.

1 Do you remember approximately when that
2 was year-wise?

3 A. I don't. I would say it was probably
4 sometime between 2003 and 2004.

5 Q. And what made you think that?

6 A. I just saw her less and less at the house.

7 Q. Were you there more at the house during
8 that time period?

9 A. No, not necessarily. It's just at the 10 beginning, she was around a lot. And then I would 11 see her occasionally without him. The one time we 12 spent a few days together in 2006, she wasn't there
13 at all.

14 Q. So you saw her in the -- is it fair to say
15 that you saw her in the 2005 and 2006 time frame?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Then we were talking about the photography
18 earlier and about the photographs.

19 Did Maxwell ever ask you to take nude
20 photos of yourself for Jeffrey?

21 A. She asked me to take photos of myself for 22 Jeffrey, yes.

23 Q. And did you do that?

24 A. I did not.

25 Q. And the photos that were around that were

1 in the bathroom, that you mentioned a couple of
2 times places that there were photos of you, who took 3 those?

4 A. He did.

5 Q. And when we were talking about the Palm
6 Beach house and you were describing an area where 7 there were just a lot of photographs, is it fair to 8 say that there could have been nude photographs
9 amongst those photos that you saw?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And earlier you testified that you don't
12 have knowledge of what happens behind closed doors,
13 but you also said that Jeffrey had told you what 14 other girls did for him and that he wanted you to do
15 those things for him.

16 Is it fair to say that you knew that other
17 girls were performing sexual acts?

18 A. Yes.

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation,
20 form.

21 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

22 Q. And I know you mentioned previously that 23 your relationship and the interaction with him
24 progressed over time.

25 Did there come a time when you were

1 expected to have sexual intercourse with Jeffrey?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And when was that?

4 A. 2005.

5 MS. McCAWLEY: That's it. I just do want
6 to also put on the record that we're
7 designating the testimony as confidential under
8 the protective order.

9 F U R T H E R E X A M I N A T I O N

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. Okay. You just testified that you have 12 knowledge -- you had knowledge that -- of what
13 Jeffrey was doing behind closed doors with other
14 girls. Was that your testimony?

15 A. Based on what he had told me.

16 Q. Okay. So Jeffrey told you things that he 17 had done with other girls?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You did not observe any of those things?

20 A. No.

21 Q. You did not talk to any of those girls
22 about what they had done with Jeffrey behind closed
23 doors?

24 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

25

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Correct?

3 A. No. Correct.

4 Q. The only source of knowledge you have is
5 based on what Jeffrey told you he had done with
6 other girls?

7 A. Correct.

8 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

9 BY MS. MENNINGER:

10 Q. You said that there were possibly nude
11 photos amongst the other photos that you saw on 12 various walls at the Palm Beach house, correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. None of them stood out to you?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. None of them appeared pornographic?

17 A. No.

18 Q. You didn't see any fully frontally nude
19 photographs, correct?

20 A. No, not that I recall.

21 Q. And you don't recall seeing any girls that 22 appeared to be underaged, correct?

23 A. No.

24 Q. You said Ghislaine asked you to take
25 photos of yourself for Jeffrey, correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Did she ask you to take a nude photograph
3 of yourself or just a photograph of yourself?

4 A. A nude photograph of myself.

5 Q. What exactly did she say to you?

6 A. I don't remember exactly, but I know that
7 I never felt comfortable. I would have felt fine
8 taking photos of myself, my face, but I knew I was 9 never comfortable with it because I had to take 10 photos of my body. And I also didn't know how to 11 take a photo from standing behind. You have to have 12 someone else involved.

13 Q. That's my question. How would you take a
14 nude photograph of yourself?

15 A. Exactly. Someone else would have to do
16 it.

17 Q. Do you recall any of the particulars of 18 what she said to you that led you to believe she 19 wanted you to do that?

20 A. No, just asking for the photos.

21 Q. Do you know when in your time there?

22 A. It was near the beginning, because that's 23 when I was interested in the photography.

24 Q. Was it in the context of your discussion
25 of your photography class?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Was it in the context of anything?

3 A. About the camera that she had bought for
4 me.

5 Q. What did she say in relationship to the
6 camera that she bought for you and taking
7 photographs of you?

8 A. Just that Jeffrey would like to have some 9 photos of me, and she asked me to take photos of 10 myself.

11 Q. What did you say?

12 A. I don't remember saying no, but I never
13 ended up following through. I think I tried once.

14 Q. This was the pre-selfie era, correct?

15 A. Exactly.

16 Q. I want to go back to this: You testified
17 to two things just now with Sigrid that you said
18 were implied to you.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. The first one was it would take pressure
21 off of Maxwell to have more girls around?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. What exactly did Maxwell say to you that
24 led you to believe that was her implication?

25 A. She said she doesn't have the time or

1 desire to please him as much as he needs, and that's
2 why there were other girls around.

3 Q. And did she refer specifically to any
4 other girls?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Did she talk about underaged girls?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Was she talking about massage therapists?

9 A. Not specifically.

10 Q. Okay. There were other girls in the house
11 that were not massage therapists, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Nadia is another person that was around,
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. There were other people he traveled with?

17 A. Uh-huh.

18 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

19 BY MS. MENNINGER:

20 Q. Correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Other girls?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Adults?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. When I say "girl," I really mean women,
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. There were other women around who hung out
5 with Jeffrey, and you don't know what they did
6 behind closed doors, correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. So when you heard the implication that she
9 wanted other girls around to take the pressure off
10 of her sexually, in your mind that meant other adult
11 women that he had in his life, correct?

12 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

13 THE WITNESS: Correct, doing what I was 14 expected to do in a massage, you know.

15 BY MS. MENNINGER:

16 Q. Ghislaine didn't have anything to do with 17 you bringing this woman over for a physical workout
18 with Jeffrey, correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. She asked you to bring another girl to 21 be -- to perform massages at the home?

22 A. Yes. Well, she was always asking if I
23 knew anyone else. And so I brought this one girl
24 that I didn't even know I worked with her at a
25 restaurant. So I didn't care what she thought of me

1 if anything happened. And so -- but it never turned
2 into anything.

3 Q. She was an adult?

4 A. She was an adult.

5 Q. Working at a restaurant with you?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What restaurant was that?

8 A. It's a restaurant that's closed. It's 9 called .

10 Q. You were asked about the famous people.
11 You said you met Michael Jackson?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. But you did not give him a massage?

14 A. No.

15 Q. There were other famous people, perhaps,
16 who were around Jeffrey's home that you didn't meet,
17 correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Do you know whether Virginia Roberts has 20 told the truth about the age she was when she met
21 Ghislaine Maxwell?

22 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection. Exceeds the
23 scope of cross.

24 THE WITNESS: I don't have any idea what
25 she told them in terms of her age.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Do you know if Virginia Roberts is telling
3 the truth about whether she spent her sweet 16th
4 birthday with Jeffrey and Ghislaine Maxwell?

5 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: I don't know anything about
7 that.

8 BY MS. MENNINGER:

9 Q. Do you know whether Virginia Roberts is
10 telling the truth about whether Ghislaine Maxwell
11 sexually assaulted her on her first day on the job?

12 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

13 THE WITNESS: I have not knowledge of
14 that.

15 BY MS. MENNINGER:

16 Q. Do you have any knowledge of whether
17 Virginia Roberts is telling the truth about
18 Virginia -- excuse me -- about Ghislaine Maxwell
19 forcing Virginia Roberts to "go down" on her?

20 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

21 THE WITNESS: No knowledge.

22 BY MS. MENNINGER:

23 Q. Do you have any knowledge about whether
24 Virginia Roberts is telling the truth about whether
25 Ghislaine Maxwell forced her to participate in

1 orgies with other women?

2 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

3 THE WITNESS: No.

4 BY MS. MENNINGER:

5 Q. Do you have any knowledge about whether
6 Virginia Roberts is telling the truth about whether
7 Ghislaine Maxwell directed her to have sex with 8 Prince Andrew?

9 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

10 THE WITNESS: No. Only based on what I've 11 read in the media.

12 BY MS. MENNINGER:

13 Q. And Alan Dershowitz?

14 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

15 THE WITNESS: The same.

16 BY MS. MENNINGER:

17 Q. Prime ministers?

18 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

19 THE WITNESS: No.

20 BY MS. MENNINGER:

21 Q. Do you have any knowledge about whether
22 Virginia Roberts is telling the truth about foreign 23 presidents?

24 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

25 THE WITNESS: No knowledge.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Do you know whether Virginia Roberts is
3 telling the truth about Ghislaine Maxwell forcing
4 her to participate in an orgy with Prince Andrew and
5 other underaged girls on the island?

6 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

7 THE WITNESS: No knowledge.

8 BY MS. MENNINGER:

9 Q. Did Ghislaine Maxwell ever ask you to have 10 her baby?

11 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

12 THE WITNESS: No.

13 MS. MENNINGER: No further questions.

14 MS. McCAWLEY: Thank you for your time.

15 THE WITNESS: We are done.

16 MS. McCAWLEY: We are off the record.

17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 1:11. This 18 concludes the video deposition. Off the photographed by CSI Pavlik and then videotaped by myself. The search was concluded at approximately 3:05 p.m. whereupon Detective Recarey and I were the last two officers in the house. Upon securing the residence we met with the gentleman who identified himself to Detective Recarey as the lawyer for the defendant and he was informed that the residence was secured and that copies of the inventory return had been left on the first floor table of the personal assistant's office.
19 record.

Detective Recarey and I returned to Police Headquarters and secured for the day.

On October 20, 2005, I assisted Detective Recarey in the execution of a search warrant at 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach, Florida, 33480.

Upon the announcement of the search warrant, immediate contact was made with three white males who came out of the house or surrounding structures. Those males were identified as Janusz Banasiak, Daniel Estes, and Mark Zeff. As other members of the police department cleared the home, I kept watch over these three males. Once the house was cleared, those males were turned over to Detective Recarey.

Detective Dicks and I were assigned to assist in the search of the main house, the cabana and the servant's quarters. We started in the garage. All areas of the garage were searched to include four vehicles. These vehicles were three black Mercedes Benz cars registered to Jeffrey Epstein. The fourth vehicle was a Harley Davidson motorcycle, green in color, registered to Jeffrey Epstein. Nothing was recovered from the garage.

A towel closet and pantry located off the kitchen were searched and yielded negative results.

The kitchen was searched and taken into evidence was a phone message book that was located near a house phone.

North of the kitchen was an office room which contained a computer. The room had a closet that contained a locked gun locker. The combination was entered by Banasiak in the presence of Sgt. Frick and the safe was opened. Items were taken from the room. See the completed property receipt for a detailed list.

A green bathroom located on the first floor was searched and nothing was taken.

A closet located just west of the green bathroom was searched. Two massage tables were located in the closet along with a photo of a nude

I searched two bedrooms and their adjoining bathrooms, which were located on the second floor on the East side of the house. In the Northeast bedroom closet I found adult sex toys called Twin Torpedoes.

Soap made in the shape of a penis and vagina were also found in these upstairs bedrooms. See the property receipt for details.

I searched the pool cabana located on the South side of the pool. Photos were taken from the wall. See the property receipt for details.

I assisted in the search of Banasiak's living quarters. Numerous CD s along with a message book was seized. See the property receipt for details.

Reported By: RECAREY, JOSEPH

11/08/05

Entered By.: ALTOMARO, NICKIE A.

11/08/05

On November 1, 2005, I was contacted by Atty. Gus Fronstin, who advised he was willing to assist with the investigation. Atty. Fronstin advised he would try to have his client, Jeffrey Epstein available to be interviewed. I explained I would be interested in conducting an interview with his client as well as other employees that are employed within the house. Atty. Fronstin advised he would return my call once he received confirmation on the interviews.

On November 6, 2005, I attempted contact with [REDACTED] at her residence. I left a business card for her to return my call. Upon returning to the police department, I had received a telephone call from [REDACTED]. I returned her call at [REDACTED] and spoke with [REDACTED]. She made arrangements to respond to the station to provide an interview. At approximately 3:30 pm, she arrived at the Palm Beach Police Station with her boyfriend. Her boyfriend was allowed to sit in the lobby area while Ms. [REDACTED] was interviewed.

I took Ms. [REDACTED] to the Detective Bureau Interview room. I closed the door for privacy and explained to her that I appreciated her coming to the police station for the interview. Fronstin stated he had spoken with ASA Lana Belohlavek and expressed Mr. Epstein has a passion for massages. I called ASA Lana Belohlavek and confirmed that Fronstin had telephoned her reference this case. Although nothing was discussed, Mr. Fronstin did advise her that Epstein is very passionate about massages.

I also spoke with ASA Daliah Weiss reference the previous employees, Juan and Maria Alessi. She advised that they had been served through a subpoena process server. They were both scheduled to appear on Monday November 21, 2005 at 12:00 p.m.

On November 21, 2005, I met with ASA Weiss, Atty. Donnie Murrell and Juan and Maria Alessi at the State Attorney Office. ASA Weiss had requested a court reporter to be present to take the statement of the Alessi s. I spoke with Maria Alessi, in the presence of her attorney, Donnie Murrell. She advised she had worked for Epstein for eight years, from the period of 1994 through 2002. She advised she had never had any direct conversations with him. She stated it was her husband who spoke directly with Epstein. Her work consisted of doing house cleaning, shopping and other preparations when Epstein would arrive in town. Alessi stated the preparations consisted of preparing the house and bathrooms for his arrival. She advised she did view several masseuses that arrived at the house. She advised that two or three girls would come during a day and provide the massages. The girls that arrived looked young in age. Mrs. Alessi did not know any of the girls personally and were always different. She was told that when Epstein was in residence he did not want to encounter the Alessis during his stay in Palm Beach.

I then spoke with Mr. Alessi in the presence of his attorney, Donnie Murrell. Mr. Alessi stated that he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein. He originally was hired as a part time employee and then moved up into a full time position. His duties included everything. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. He remembered dealing with his girlfriend, Ms. Maxwell originally and then dealt with Epstein directly.

I asked Mr. Alessi about massages that occurred within the home. Mr. Alessi stated Mr. Epstein had up to three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. There were times he recalled that he would set up the massage tables either in Epstein s bedroom or in his bathroom. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage. Alessi was never privy to what went on during the

He was asked if he remembered any names of the girls that massaged Epstein. He tried to remember and was unable to provide any exact names of any girls. Alessi was asked about any contact with anyone from the Epstein organization. Alessi said he did speak with Mr. Epstein shortly after my initial contact with him to find out what was going on. Alessi also stated that approximately on November 11, 2005, he was contacted by a private investigator from the Law Office of Roy Black. The investigator had called him to meet with him to ascertain what he was going to tell the police. Alessi stated they met at the Carrabba s Restaurant in Boynton Beach and discussed the same questions I was asking him. I informed Mr. Alessi and Mr. Morrell that as this is an ongoing investigation and anything we discuss should be confidential. They both acknowledged the fact that the information would be kept confidential. It should be noted that a court reporter was present during the interviews and would be providing a copy of the statements to me when they become available.

On November 21, 2005, I received a voice mail from Mr. Fronstin who advised he would not be making Mr. Epstein available for any statements. He did have some words that he wanted to relay on behalf of Mr. Epstein. I telephoned his office and left a message for him to return my call.

On November 29, 2005, I received a call back from Mr. Fronstin who left a voice mail after hours on November 28, 2005, advising he would return my call during normal business hours to speak with me reference the case on November 29, 2005.

On November 29, 2005, at approximately 2:30 p.m. I received a telephone call on the department issued cell phone. The massages are therapeutic and spiritually sound for him that is why he has had many massages. Mr. Fronstin stated he appreciated the way the investigation has not been leaked out into the media. I explained to Mr. Fronstin that it is as important to protect the innocent if the allegations are not substantiated. Mr. Fronstin was told of the allegations that the private investigators assigned to the case have been portraying themselves as police officers. A review of the telephone message books, which were obtained during the search warrant, was conducted in which various messages from different dates were made to Jeffrey Epstein. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages was time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by Sarah for Jeffrey Epstein. Based on the context of the body of the messages, I requested subpoenas for subscriber information on the telephone numbers and the time frame involved. Copies of the messages were made for evidentiary purposes.

I obtained [REDACTED] yearbooks for 2005, 2004 and 2003. I first reviewed the 2005 yearbook and located most of the girls I had spoken with. Additionally, I located [REDACTED]. Based on the corrected name spelling, I was able to locate her to her residence in [REDACTED]. On December 8, 2005, Det. Caristo and I responded to [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]. I located [REDACTED] at her home. She advised she is attending [REDACTED] and is participating in the early release program so she can maintain her part time job. As she is still a minor, I left my business card to have her mother return my call to request an interview with her daughter. We then left the area.

I also had previously researched the telephone number for [REDACTED] and telephone number [REDACTED]. A subpoena had been issued for the information on [REDACTED]. The telephone number was registered to [REDACTED] of [REDACTED]. A query of [REDACTED] revealed that she is the daughter of [REDACTED] and is currently residing at [REDACTED]. Det. Caristo and I attempted contact with [REDACTED] with negative results. I left my business card on her front door requesting she return my call. We then responded to [REDACTED]. I also attempted contact with Mr. [REDACTED] with negative results. I left my business card for him to return my call.

On December 9, 2005, I received a telephone call from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] mother, who was made aware of the on going investigation in Palm Beach. [REDACTED] advised she was told of everything that occurred at Epstein's house involving Epstein and his staff. She advised she would allow me to question her daughter about what occurred and would cooperate with the investigation. [REDACTED] provided me with [REDACTED] cellular telephone number to schedule an appointment for an official interview. I telephoned her cellular telephone and made a tentative appointment for Monday, December 12, 2005.

I then received a telephone call from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] father of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who stated he found the business card on his door. I explained that I was conducting an investigation and needed to speak with [REDACTED] as she may have information that could assist in the investigation. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that his daughter no longer resides with him and has her own trailer in another trailer park. He advised he would tell her to call me.

On December 12, 2005, due to a conflict with schedules, arrangements were made to meet with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] on Tuesday, December 13, 2005 at 5:00 pm. On December 13, 2005, Det. Dawson and I traveled to [REDACTED] and met with [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. During a sworn taped statement, [REDACTED] stated that when she was sixteen years old, she was taken to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. [REDACTED] stated it was before Christmas last year when [REDACTED] [REDACTED] approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas; [REDACTED] stated she did and agreed to provide a massage for money. [REDACTED] made arrangements to take [REDACTED] to the house and drove [REDACTED] to the house to "work." [REDACTED] stated she could not remember the street name but would be able to drive to the street. They drove to the last house on the street and pulled in the last house on left side. They walked up the driveway and entered through a side gate which led to a kitchen door. They knocked on the door and were encountered by an employee who [REDACTED] described as a "Spanish looking lady." They informed her that they were expected. They were then encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [REDACTED] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [REDACTED] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it with a sink to the right. [REDACTED] was introduced to Jeff who was on the phone when she entered. Jeff was wearing a white towel and lay on his stomach so that [REDACTED] may massage his feet and calves. [REDACTED] started the massage with the massage oil Jeff chose and rubbed his feet and calves. Jeff got off the phone and requested she massage his back as well. [REDACTED] began rubbing his back and got to the small of his back. During the rubbing of his back Jeff asked her to get comfortable. He requested she remove her pants and shirt. [REDACTED] removed her shirt and pulled her pants off. [REDACTED] stayed in her bra and thong panties.

As she finished the small of the back, Jeff then turned onto his back. He instructed she rub his chest and pinch his nipples. As she began to rub his chest, Jeff asked her questions about herself.

[REDACTED] remembered telling him she attended [REDACTED]. Jeff asked her if she was sexually active. Before [REDACTED] could answer, he also asked what sexual positions does she enjoy. [REDACTED] stated she was shy didn't like talking about those things. She continued rubbing his chest. Epstein reached up and unsnapped her bra from the front. [REDACTED] explained the bra she used had a front snapping device. Epstein rubbed her breasts and asked her if she like having her breasts rubbed. [REDACTED] said "no, I don't like that." Epstein then removed his towel and lay on the bed naked exposing his penis to [REDACTED]. He began touching his penis and masturbated as he touched her breasts. [REDACTED] explained Jeff then touched her vagina area by rubbing her vagina with his fingers on the outside of her thong panties. [REDACTED] tensed up and stated Jeff was aware that she was uncomfortable.

[REDACTED] stated that Jeff told her, "Relax, I'm not going inside." She further explained Jeff commented to her how beautiful and sexy she was. Jeff then moved her thong panties to one side and now was stroking her clitoris. [REDACTED] said "Jeff commented how hard my clit was." He then inserted two fingers in her vagina and was stroking her within her vagina. She tried pulling back to pull out his fingers from within her vagina. Jeff removed his fingers from within her vagina and apologized for putting his fingers inside her. During this time he kept his hand on her vagina area rubbing her vagina. [REDACTED] stated he rubbed her real hard as he was masturbating. [REDACTED] said he climaxed onto the towel he had been previously wearing and got up from the table. Jeff told her there was $200.00 dollars for her on the dresser within the master bathroom. Jeff also told her that there was an additional $100.00 that was to be given to [REDACTED] for bringing her there to massage him. Jeff told her to leave her telephone number with his assistant as he wanted to see her again. Jeff stated his assistant would contact her to work again soon.

I asked her if she ever received any formal massage training to which [REDACTED] stated she did not. [REDACTED] stated it was the only time she ever went to work for Jeff and knew what happened to her was wrong. She stated she no longer speaks to [REDACTED] because she was upset that [REDACTED] took her there. She further stated that she had never been contacted for any additional work. The interview was terminated and we left the area.

On 102005 at approx 0930hrs I assisted with the execution of a search warrant at 358 El Brillo Ave, Palm Beach.

Initially I was assigned to enter the residence and conduct a sweep of the premises for safety purposes. I then accompanied CSEU tech Pavlik while she photographed the exterior of the house. Once this was complete I was assigned to search certain areas of the house with Det. Dawson as part of the search warrant.

We began in the garage, searching three Mercedes Benz vehicles, a Harley Davidson motorcycle and adjacent closets in the garage. Nothing of evidentiary value was located.

We then searched two closets off the kitchen area on the east side. These can best be described as pantry or storage closets. Nothing of evidentiary value was obtained.

A small office with adjoining bath was then searched. In the bath area I located a phone message book with recent messages. This item was seized as evidence. Please note this bath and shower area are not used as designed but are storage areas containing a variety of items to include a gun safe in the shower and assorted household items.

We then searched a bath area and closet at the base of the main stairs in the foyer. Inside the closet two massage tables were located as well as partial nude female photographs. These items were later seized as evidence. Nothing of evidentiary value was noted in the bathroom.

We then searched two bedrooms upstairs on the east side of the residence. Located in the bath room of the south bedroom was penis shaped soap. Located in the bedroom of the northern bedroom was penis and vagina shaped soap as well as an adult sex toy. These items were seized as evidence.

We then searched the pool cabana located in the south west corner of the property. Several photographs of nude females were seized as evidence.

I was then assigned to stand by with a person I believe was Douglas Schoettle. Mr. Schoettle was in the residence at the beginning of the search warrant. He was present during the warrant service and subsequent search. I stood by with him until the search was completed and I departed the residence. I had no conversation with him regarding the reason for our presence.

Regarding seized evidence, all items were photographed in place and then collected by CSEU personnel.

This concludes my involvement in this case.

On Thursday, October 20, 2005 at approximately 0936 hours, I assisted in the execution of a search warrant located at 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach, Florida, residence of Jeffrey Epstein. I was instructed by Case Agent Det. Joseph Recarey, to secure all computer and media related material from the residence.

Upon my arrival I was directed by Det. Recarey to a room designated as the Kitchen Staff Office. I observed a, Silver in color, CPU with the left side cover removed, exposing the CPU s hardware sitting on floor next to a glass type desk. The CPU had no discernable identifiers or features indicating a make or model. This CPU was powered off with the power cord not plugged in. The keyboard and mouse were atop the CPU. It should be noted that the CPU was not connected to a monitor, printer, or other media device. On the back Panel of the CPU, I observed an A/V card with RCA jacks attached. This type of hardware would allow audio and video to be downloaded onto the CPU s hard disk. The ends of the RCA jacks were unattached at the time of the search and no external camera was located within this room.

The CPU was located on the right side of a desk that held a flat panel LCD screen. The desk also held another keyboard and mouse, indicative of a second computer; however, no other computer was found. It appeared as though a second computer had been recently removed as the cables ends from the monitor, keyboard and mouse were in the same area. A further search of the room revealed no media storage devices, i.e. CD s, Floppy Disks, Zip Disks, etc. This type of media is commonly stored in an area where computers are placed, yet no media was found.

After completing a search of this room, I secured the CPU and turned all items over to the Evidence Custodian for future forensic analysis via a property receipt.

I was then directed by Det. Recarey to a room designated as the Garden Room, where I observed a wooden desk facing west. The desk held a flat screen LCD monitor, keyboard, mouse, media card reader and printer; however, no CPU was located. All of the cables were removed from an area where a computer had once been. A search of the desk area revealed no signs of any media devices.

Det. Recarey directed me to a third location designated as the Cabana room, which is detached from the residence and located just south of the pool. In the South East corner of the room, I observed an office type setting, with an L-shaped desk holding a flat screen LCD monitor, keyboard, mouse and printer; however, no CPU was located. All of the cables were removed from an area where a computer had once been. A search of the desk area revealed no signs of any media devices.

Det. Recarey directed me to a second detached structure located on the South East corner of the property. This area of this structure was assigned with single letters to identify a particular part of the room. In the office area, designated as Room B, I observed a powered on Dell Dimension 2350, attached to an LCD flat panel monitor. The screen displayed an open Microsoft Internet Explorer browser with URL address of <http://home.bellsouth.net/>. I observed no other active windows in the Start panel window and photographed screen. The power cord was removed from the back of the Dell CPU and I disconnected the cable modem to prevent remote access. At that time, the Dell CPU, marked with Serial Number 6WTVN21, was secured and turned over the evidence custodian for future forensic analysis via property receipt.

I also located several media related items within Room B, which were recorded onto a property receipt and turned over the Evidence Custodians.

I then responded to a Bedroom designated as Room F, where I observed a white in color CPU marked Premio. The Premio CPU was in a computer desk which held a white CRT monitor, both of which were powered on. The CRT monitor displayed a message from Norton Antivirus software, warning of an expired subscription. I observed no other active windows in the Start panel window and photographed screen. I removed the power cable from the back of the Premio CPU and shutdown all other media. The Premio CPU, marked with Serial Number 2000091078, was secured and turned over the evidence custodian for future forensic analysis via property receipt. I also located several media related items within Room F, which were recorded onto a property receipt and turned over the Evidence Custodians.

This concluded my participation in the search of the residence.

On December 20, 2005, I contacted ASA Daliah Weiss in an attempt to subpoena the Epstein former houseman, Alfredo Rodriguez. Rodriguez, who resides in Miami, had eluded the process servers previously and was not served the investigative subpoena. A telephone message was left as she is not available during the week of 12/19/2005. I made contact with State Attorney Inv Theresa Wyatt and requested the same via telephone message.

I then researched the victim's [REDACTED] cellular telephone subpoena data which had been received from a previous subpoena request. I analyzed the records which depict several calls from Haley Robson. The telephone calls start on February 6, 2005 at 12:49 pm.; the same day which the victim and the victim's father stated the incident occurred at Epstein's house. The first incoming call was from Robson's residence at 561 333-0180. The second incoming call from Robson's cellular phone 561-308-0282 occurred at 1:02 pm. The call durations were one minute or less. The time frame was within thirteen minutes apart. It should be noted that Robson's residence was in close proximity to the victim's. The next call occurred at 5:50 pm when the victim telephoned Robson's residence. Several calls were made after the above mentioned calls both incoming and outgoing to Robson. Further analysis showed no telephone calls to either Robson's cellular telephone or Robson's residence were registered prior to February 6, 2005.

Additionally, I also conducted an analysis on the telephone calls from 305-710-5165. The subscriber information confirmed that the number is registered to Paul A Lavery from Hialeah, Florida. The address was crossed referenced to the Office of Kiraly and Riley Private Investigators. I researched the web page www.rileykiraly.com which also showed various cases in which they assisted. I also located another web site under www.coralspringssparklandrotary.org in which Mr. Riley attended a Miami Rotary meeting and confirmed Atty. Roy Black is among his clientele.

The telephone calls revealed Lavery had telephone contact with [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] either just after I attempted to interview them, or just prior. A background was conducted on Lavery which revealed he holds a current Private Investigator License. A criminal arrest record revealed he had been previously arrested for possession of cocaine and solicitation of prostitution.

I also researched the girls using www.myspace.com. The site allows one to establish your own myspace.com page and decorate the page any way one wishes. I received a Cingular Wireless packet which contained a CD which contained the results of the subpoena request for verbatim calls on [REDACTED]. An analysis will be conducted in the near future on the phone numbers called.

I located [REDACTED] inside the foundation and informed her that I was investigating a case against Jeffrey Epstein and knew she had been at the house. [REDACTED] started to cry and advised she had put that part of her life behind her. I explained that although she is seventeen years old I needed to inform her parents that she would be interviewed. She provided her home telephone number. I attempted contact and left voice mail messages at the house to speak with her parents.

Det. Caristo and I then located [REDACTED] at her residence located at [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]. I attempted to interview her about Jeffrey Epstein. She advised she is so in love with Jeff Epstein and would do anything for him. She further explained that she would not speak with us about him either negative or positive. She asked us to leave her property. I informed her that although she did not wish to speak with us, I had sufficient information at this point in the investigation to know she was at Epstein's house and provided girls to Epstein to work. I also explained that prior to our arrival at her residence I had telephone contact with her father, [REDACTED], who was told she would be interviewed. [REDACTED] is currently seventeen years old and as a juvenile, parental notification would be required. We then left the area and returned to the police station.

While at the police station, I left another telephone message for [REDACTED] parents. I began an analysis of Sarah Kellen's Cellular telephone. The telephone number 917-855-3363 is assigned to Sarah Kellen and the financially responsible party is Jeffrey Epstein of 457 Madison Ave. in New York City, New York. The time frame which was subpoenaed was September 2005, through October 2005. There were eighty seven pages of calls made either to the cell phone or from the cell phone. The local (561) numbers were analyzed. A spread sheet was prepared and placed into the attachment file of who was called.

The unknown numbers were researched using FoneFinder.com and subpoenas were requested to determine subscriber information. This was done to identify additional victims or witnesses. The analysis revealed that Kellen had called the victim/witnesses frequently when Epstein was in the Town of Palm Beach to "work." This confirms what the girls interviewed had previously stated. Kellen would notify them when Epstein was in town and their willingness to "work." The CD was placed into evidence.

This package was in response to a previous meeting in which Mr. Dershowitz called to assist in the investigation in providing any additional witnesses such as house employees who have been reluctant to speak with law enforcement.

I reviewed the profiles Mr. Dershowitz enclosed. [REDACTED] who designed her blog to be [REDACTED] "still attends [REDACTED] sends and receives messages from friends which contain some profanity. Upon reviewing her friends' comments section from Myspace, most of her good friends sent messages to establish contact and invite her to go out.

I then reviewed [REDACTED] web blog which was provided by Mr. Dershowitz. Ms. [REDACTED] designed her blog to be [REDACTED]. Her blog states that her interests include music, theater and weed (Marijuana). I reviewed her packet in which [REDACTED] declares her love for her live-in boyfriend. She also describes using marijuana with her boyfriend [REDACTED].

The letter Mr. Dershowitz sent advised he was looking into the allegation that one of the private investigators used by the private attorneys of Epstein, attempted to impersonate or state that they were police officers from Palm Beach. Mr. Dershowitz advised that the investigators used to interview [REDACTED] had "quite a distinct speech impediment", did not claim to be nor did they impersonate themselves as a police officer. This package was sent to both ASA Lana Belohlavic and ASA Daliah Weiss at the State Attorney's Office.

I made telephone contact with ASA Weiss to confirm she received the package and request an interview with Sarah Kellen, Nada Marcinkova, and Janusz Banasiak. She advised she would assist in attempting to

I made contact with Mr. [REDACTED], father of [REDACTED] who was told that I wished to interview his daughter. Mr. [REDACTED] stated he was aware and had spoken with his daughter about the incident. He stated that his daughter had previously told him that she was hired to model lingerie at a Palm Beach mansion. Mr. [REDACTED] stated he knew nothing else about what she did when she went to "work." Mr. [REDACTED] advised he would cooperate with the investigation and make his daughter available for interviews. I asked if she was available for an interview, [REDACTED] stated she was not at home at the moment. I informed him I would make contact with her at a later time. Mr. [REDACTED] expressed his interest in the resolution in this matter as he stated this information has affected his daughter emotionally.

On January 4, 2005, I acquired the subpoenas from the State Attorney's Office for Cingular Wireless, Metro PCS, Verizon, Bell South Telecommunications and Sprint for the unknown telephone numbers from Sarah Kellen's cellular telephone. The subpoenas were sent to the respective telephone carriers for subscriber information.

I received a telephone call from State Attorney's Office, who informed me that the former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein, Alfredo Rodriguez, was present at the State Attorney's Office for an interview. Rodriguez was issued an investigative subpoena for an interview on the on-goings at Epstein's house during his employ. I responded to the State Attorney's Office and encountered Mr. Rodriguez waiting in the lobby. I brought Mr. Rodriguez to the interview room.

During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months. He was referred by associates and his employment lasted the months of November 2004 through May 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffeur, chef, houseman, run errands for Mr. Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. Rodriguez advised he had very limited contact with Mr. Epstein. If Rodriguez needed to relay a message to Mr. Epstein, he would have to notify Epstein's secretary "Leslie" in New York City, who would then notify Epstein's personal assistant, Sarah, who would relay the message to Epstein. Rodriguez stated Epstein did not want to see or hear the staff when he was in residence.

I asked Rodriguez if Epstein received many guests during his stay in Palm Beach. Rodriguez advised he had many guests. I asked specifically about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated he would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either Sarah or Epstein would meet with them.

Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either Sarah or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. He advised he didn't ask their ages but felt they were very young. Rodriguez stated they ate like his own daughter who is in high school. Rodriguez stated they would eat tons of cereal and drink milk all the time. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to [REDACTED] for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massager/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed.

Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, so that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house. Rodriguez referred himself as a "human ATM machine" and was ordered by Epstein to maintain a minimum balance of $2,000 dollars on him at all times. When a girl would come by the house and Mr. Epstein was either not in residence or was not at home at the time, Rodriguez was to provide the girl (masseuse) several hundred dollars for their time and to notify Epstein the amount they were given. Epstein also ordered Rodriguez to purchase several gifts and provide them as tips to the girls. I asked what kind of gifts. Rodriguez stated he purchased IPODS, jewelry, anything the girls would want.

Rodriguez stated the amount of girls that came to the house was approximately fifteen. Each of the girls knew each other and all seemed to know at [REDACTED] who Mr. Epstein was. When asked to identify these girls, Rodriguez stated he could not at the moment but knew he wrote their names down on a journal he kept during his employ with Mr. Epstein. He kept a journal in the event he needed to explain either to Mr. Epstein or his assistants what was done at the house or who visited the house as he stated he was in-charge of Mr. Epstein's personal security while in Palm Beach. I informed him I would need to view this journal to which he stated he would research the book and contact me to provide the book. The interview was concluded and left the area. I returned back to the police station where the micro cassette was placed into evidence. At approximately 7:20 pm, I was notified Rodriguez located the journal and would call me on January 5, 2005 to provide the journal.

On January 5, 2006, I attempted to meet with Alfredo Rodriguez to recover the folder or journal in which he kept the notes that were given to him during his employ with Mr. Jeffrey Epstein. He kept this folder to justify what he did during his employ should the need arise to justify what occurred with the monies he had to keep or any questions as to the petty cash he withdrew from the household account from the bank. At approximately 10:00 pm, I attempted contact with Mr. Rodriguez and discovered he was assisting his wife at her place of employment and would not be able to meet with me. Mr. Rodriguez stated he would meet with me on January 6, 2006, in Broward County, in the morning hours.

On January 6, 2006, at approximately 9:00 am, I received a telephone call from Mr. Rodriguez who advised he had the file in hand and would be traveling northbound to meet with me in Broward County. At 10:50 am, I met with Alfredo Rodriguez at the parking lot of Bank of America in Boca Raton on Yamato Road and Military Trail (known as the Polo Center). Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [REDACTED] and direction to extend the rental contract. I returned to the Palm Beach Police Station and placed the folder into evidence.

On January 9, 2006, Det. Caristo and I traveled to 622 Holly Drive in Palm Beach Gardens in an attempt to locate Johanna Sjoberg, who had been previously seen on the property and identified through her Florida Drivers License and Florida license Plate. A business card was left for her to return my call. We then traveled to the [REDACTED] and located [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] agreed to speak with us and in a private room within the school provided us a taped statement.

During the statement, [REDACTED] advised that when she was fifteen or sixteen years of age, she was taken to Jeffrey Epstein's house by her associate, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated this occurred late May 2004 or early June 2004. She was told she could model lingerie for money for a wealthy Palm Beacher. She remembered they traveled by yellow cab from their residence in West Palm Beach to Epstein's house. She remembered encountering Epstein at the front door during the evening hours.

He introduced himself and brought them into the kitchen so that the chef could prepare something for them to eat. After having a meal, [REDACTED] and Epstein brought [REDACTED] upstairs to a master bedroom which had a large bathroom. She observed a large style shower, sauna and there was a large massage bed also in the bathroom. Epstein entered a room within the bathroom and came out wearing only a towel. [REDACTED] said they would provide a massage on his feet. [REDACTED] asked why they are doing this. [REDACTED] told her this was part of the routine and told her to rub his legs and calves. Epstein had told [REDACTED] to get comfortable. [REDACTED] continued rubbing Epstein's calves and feet. At Epstein's direction, [REDACTED] then left the room leaving [REDACTED] there by herself. Epstein told [REDACTED] to get comfortable. [REDACTED] removed her blouse and pants and stayed in her panties. [REDACTED] stated she was not wearing a bra. She believed she was wearing thong panties. Epstein turned over onto his back and began touching her. Epstein touched her breasts and began touching her in her vagina area. Epstein instructed her to rub his chest and rub his nipples. [REDACTED] stated the touching consisted over the panties on the first time; he stroked her vagina but stayed on top of the panties. During the first massage, she stated Epstein was stroking her and began masturbating himself at the same time. He put his hands under the towel and appeared as to masturbate himself however she never saw his penis. She continued rubbing his chest until he grabbed her and pulled her closer to him. He appeared to have climaxed because after he pulled her closer to him the massage was over. Epstein had told her that there was two hundred dollars for her on the dresser. He told her that she could not tell anyone what happened at the house or bad things could happen. [REDACTED] stated she went to Epstein's house three or four times total. [REDACTED] was very scared and felt very nervous. She knew because of Epstein's money he was powerful. After the massage, Epstein ordered his houseman at the time to drive the girls home. The employee was to drop off the girls at their house and watch them go inside their house.

[REDACTED] could not remember who the houseman was. She stated Epstein and his assistant Sarah would call her at her father's house to arrange for her to come and "work." She advised each time she returned to the house, Epstein would do the same thing. [REDACTED] stated it was a routine with Epstein. She would rub his feet and calves. He would then turn over and begin to touch her on her vagina area. The only difference was that it was done without panties. Epstein's fingers would stroke her vagina area as he would masturbate and finally climax and the massage would be over. She was paid $200.00 each time she went. Each time she went she was reminded not to speak of what happened at the house and that she would be contacted again. She began to purposely miss the calls when either Sarah or Epstein would call her. She once brought a friend, [REDACTED] unknown last name, to work for Epstein. She was paid $200.00 for bringing [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated she no longer returned to work for Epstein. She also stated that she wanted to notify the police of what happened at the house. [REDACTED] stated she was scared of what could have happened to her or her family if she notified authorities.

On January 10, 2006, I received the results from the subpoena from BellSouth Telecommunications for telephone number [REDACTED]. The number is assigned to Mr. [REDACTED], [REDACTED] father in [REDACTED].

I also received the results from Western Union which confirmed the money order sent to [REDACTED] from Jeffrey Epstein in New York City. The "wire" was sent by Jeffrey Epstein of 457 Madison Ave in New York City on December 23, 2004 at 12:05 pm. The amount of $222.00 was charged to Epstein's credit card so that [REDACTED] could receive $200.00 in [REDACTED]. The twenty-two dollars was for processing and local fees to send the money via Western Union. A copy of the check presented to [REDACTED] was also attached to the receipt of the wire. This confirmed what [REDACTED] advised she received as a Christmas bonus from Epstein.

three years old when she met Epstein, anything that happened was between two consenting adults. I explained to her that she was not in any trouble however as part of this investigation, I needed to ask certain questions. Sjoberg stated that there were times that Epstein would ask her to perform during the massage. He would instruct her to rub his nipples as he masturbated himself. Sjoberg stated she felt "grossed" about the behavior but as she was getting paid, she just continued. Sjoberg also advised she would on occasion perform the massages naked. Epstein would on occasion, utilize the vibrator/massager on her vagina area when she performed the massages. Sjoberg explained that Epstein never exposed himself to her as he maintained himself covered under the towel he would be wearing. When Epstein would masturbate he would be covered.

I asked if Sjoberg ever received any gifts, or any gratuities from Epstein. Sjoberg advised aside from being paid well, she advised Epstein took care of her tuition from Palm Beach Atlantic College. She received a rental car for a week when her scooter broke down.

Additionally she received other gifts from Epstein. Epstein also recommended her to another client who resides at Breakers Row in Palm Beach. The client she was referred to was "Glenn" unknown last name, and his wife, who she provided a massages to. The statement was concluded and placed into evidence upon our return to the Palm Beach Police Department.

While at the police station, I researched Florida tag [REDACTED] which was also previously seen on the property when there was physical surveillance being done at the property. The vehicle is registered to [REDACTED] of [REDACTED]. Researching Mr. [REDACTED] and the vehicle revealed that his daughter, [REDACTED] had been driving the vehicle and was cited for unlawful speed in Lake Clark Shores. A review of the video disks which was extracted at the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office Computer Crime Unit revealed that only one hidden camera was functional at the time. Several images of Epstein working at his office were seen. Additional footage of Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcinkova was seen. There was other footage of females seen. The identity of the females is unknown at this time, until such time as I meet with certain females to show the video footage to confirm if, in fact, it is them on the video. At this time it appears that [REDACTED] and Haley Robson are seen sitting with Epstein beside his desk in the evening hours. Due to poor lighting, a direct confirmation cannot be made at this time.

The money used to purchase the items was the money given by Epstein.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] continued shopping and having a day together. [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] explained how she and Epstein have been dating each other and he has been paying all of her bills. [REDACTED] claimed [REDACTED] advised they met in New York and had been dating ever since. They later returned to Epstein's home and encountered Epstein. He had a brief conversation with [REDACTED] about her modeling career. He knew of her modeling career from [REDACTED]. He requested to see her modeling portfolio and explained that he could help her with modeling jobs. [REDACTED] had her book with her to show [REDACTED] and showed the book to Epstein. He commented negatively about her photographs and portfolio. [REDACTED] felt uncomfortable with the comments made as she had been working with other professional modeling companies who had offered her work from her photographs. Epstein requested to see what was purchased at the mall. [REDACTED] took out the undergarments which were purchased. She immediately showed Epstein different sets purchased. Epstein then requested to view what [REDACTED] purchased. [REDACTED] was reluctant to show the outfit however since it was Epstein's money that purchased the item, she pulled it out of the bag. Epstein asked her to try it on. [REDACTED] looked at [REDACTED] who told her "yeah, try it on." Feeling compelled to try the undergarment outfit on; she went to another room and put on the bra and panty set. She walked out to the living room where they were sitting, and modeled the suit. She then went back into the other room and changed back into her clothes. [REDACTED] returned into the room and told [REDACTED] she would be going home. [REDACTED] scheduled another day for [REDACTED] to return for massages with her.

[REDACTED] stated within that same week, she returned to meet with [REDACTED] and have a massage. [REDACTED] had told her that she would be unable to stay with her as she would be going on a bike ride with Epstein. [REDACTED] explained she could stay at the house and take advantage of the massage.

██████████ stated she met with an unknown massage therapist and had the table already set up in a guest room. ██████████ removed her clothing, leaving her panties on, and wrapped herself with a towel for the massage. ██████████ remembered that the door to the guest room was closed but not locked. As the therapist was working her back, the door was opened by Epstein and entered into the room. ██████████ was trying to conceal herself as Epstein was talking to her about his chiropractic session. Epstein told ██████████ turn over onto her back. ██████████ eventually turned over exposing her breasts to Epstein as he applied pressure on her shoulder and her waist. ██████████ stated Epstein "popped" her back. ██████████ removed her self from the table, got dressed and left the house. ██████████ further stated ██████████ had attempted to call her on several occasions to invite her back to Epstein's house to which ██████████ replied "I'm busy." ██████████ advised she has not had contact with either ██████████ or Jeffrey Epstein. It should be noted that her mother, ██████████ was present during the interview. The interview was concluded and we thanked them her for their time.

On January 27, 2006, I made telephone contact with Christina Venero, at 772-878-7280. Venero is a licensed massage therapist who had frequented the home of Jeffrey Epstein. Ms. Venero has been unable to meet with me in Palm Beach County, and because she lives and works in Port St Lucie, a telephone interview was conducted. I explained to Ms. Venero that there was an on going investigation involving Jeffrey Epstein.

Venero stated she knows Epstein and has been employed by him for approximately three years. Epstein has paid Venero to perform Swedish Massages (Deep Tissue) on him and other guests. Venero explained that approximately three year ago she met Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein through a mutual friend. Epstein and Maxwell were looking for a massage therapist. Venero stated since that time, she is notified when Epstein is coming to Palm Beach. Venero stated she comes to his house and provides the massage or massages. Venero explained she has also massaged his guests and assistants. Venero continued that she is paid $100.00 and hour for the massage.

I asked Venero if anything occurred during the massage that would have made her feel uncomfortable. Venero stated she only provided massages and that was it. She never was approached for anything else. I asked if Epstein ever asked her to rub his chest she stated she would not rub his chest as that is not part of her massage. Venero explained that she was not Epstein's type. The girls she would see at Epstein's house were very thin, beautiful and without tattoos. Venero explained she has several tattoos that are visible. Maxwell and Epstein have commented negatively about her tattoos previously when she has provided massages.

Venero stated she only provided massages for Epstein and his associates and nothing happened during those massages. Venero stated as she does Swedish style massages, the patient is usually sore after the massages. I thanked her for her assistance and the interview was concluded at this time.

I received a facsimile from T-Mobile Cellular service on telephone number 561-317-5844, which is assigned to David Rodgers, pilot for Mr. Epstein, who resides in Lake Worth. Rodgers' telephone number was dialed on several occasions by Sarah Kellen. A background on Rodgers indicated he has a valid FAA pilot license First Class for the Southern FAA Region. Rodgers has another historical FAA license for Airline Transport Pilot.

On Friday, February 3, 2006, I had made arrangements to meet with Joanna Harrison at the Palm Beach Police Station. At approximately 1:00pm, Harrison and her friend, Victoria Bean arrived at the police station. During an interview with Harrison, she stated she met Epstein when she turned eighteen years old and was brought to Epstein's house to provide a massage. She advised this occurred on May of 2005. She advised Haley Robson had informed her if she wanted to provide a massage for $200.00. Harrison agreed and was brought to Epstein's house to provide a massage. Harrison stated she had been to the house on many occasions during the massage sessions. Harrison also stated she would remove her clothing to provide the massage on Epstein. Harrison advised Epstein would pay her $300.00 to rub his back, legs and chest. During the massages, Epstein would masturbate himself as she rubbed his chest. I asked her if Epstein ever touched her breasts during the massages. Harrison replied. "Yes." I asked her if Epstein ever touched or massaged her vagina. Harrison stated he had on several occasions. I asked her if he ever penetrated her with either his penis or any other objects. Harrison stated that during a massage he inserted his fingers in her vagina as she massaged him. She stated this occurred one time only. Harrison stated the massage would be over when Epstein would climax onto a towel. I asked Harrison if she had any formal massage training to which she replied that she did not. Harrison was then asked if she ever brought anyone to the house to "work." Harrison stated she brought two people to the house. She advised she received money for bringing people to the house to "work." Harrison stated she brought a girl named [REDACTED] and her friend Tory Bean. Bean was still waiting for Harrison in the lobby of the police station. I thanked Harrison for her time and her cooperation and escorted her to the lobby.

I asked Ms Bean if I could speak with her about this investigation. I brought her to the interview room and explained to her that I was conducting an investigation on Jeffrey Epstein and felt she may have information pertaining to the investigation. Ms Bean identified herself as Victoria Bean and resides in Wellington, Florida. She advised approximately a year ago she was brought to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. Bean stated she needed to make money and felt it was a quick way to make some money. Bean stated she was brought to the house by Harrison and was introduced to Epstein and his assistant. She was brought to his main bathroom and provided a massage. I asked her if she provided the massage naked. Bean stated she did. She rubbed Epstein's legs, back and chest. I asked Bean if Epstein touched her during the massage. She advised he did not, however he did masturbate himself as she rubbed his chest. Once he climaxed the massage was over. She was paid her money and left the area. Bean advised it occurred one time and she never returned to Epstein's house. The interview was concluded and Bean was escorted to the lobby.

I located a telephone number for [REDACTED] and attempted to contact her on several occasions. I called [REDACTED] and spoke with Ms. [REDACTED] who advised she would speak with me in [REDACTED] where she resides. Due to a scheduling conflict, we were unable to meet. I informed her I would contact her to schedule another appointment to speak with her about this investigation. I have attempted to meet with her and make telephone contact with negative results.

On February 13, 2006, I met with David Rodgers at 7318 Heathley Drive in Lake Worth. Rodgers was identified as Epstein's pilot. I spoke with Rodgers who advised he has been employed with Epstein since 1991. He flies both planes for Epstein depending where he wants to fly to.

Rodgers was asked about passengers in the plane he flies. Rodgers stated unless Epstein flew to his island off of St Thomas, there would be no way of knowing who the passengers were. I mentioned a recent flight to Ohio, where Rodgers flew to Ohio to pick up [REDACTED]. Rodgers stated he recalled flying on several occasions and did remember [REDACTED]. Rodgers stated once he is in the cockpit, he does not know who the passengers are. When he prepares the passenger manifests, he lists Epstein and his assistants he knows by name, Sarah and Adrianna. Rodgers stated he would list either female or male passengers on the manifests only to keep a count on the passengers. Mrs. Rodgers came into the living room and recommended that her husband consult with an attorney. Mr. Rodgers agreed he would speak with the family attorney to inform him of this questioning. I explained to Mr. Rodgers that he was not the suspect in this investigation and ceased all questions. Based on the fact Rodgers could not advise who passengers were in the plane, I then left the area.

I attempted to locate [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]. I left my business card for her to return my call. On February 14, 2006, at 12:06 pm, I received a call back from Ms. [REDACTED].

A Grand Jury Session was requested during the month of February 2006, in which all the girls that had been interviewed would have been called to testify before the Grand Jury to seek an indictment against Jeffrey Epstein. Due to subsequent meetings with the State Attorney's Office and Defense Attorney Alan Dershowitz the Grand Jury was postponed until a later time. Dershowitz had provided a package of material on the main victims in this case in which they appear on myspace.com and speak about alcohol use and some marijuana use. The State Attorney's Office wanted time to review the material.

I requested additional subpoenas from the State Attorney's Office in which I requested information from Dollar Rent a Car and Jet Aviation. The information requested from Dollar Rent a Car was for the rented vehicle by Alfredo Rodriguez while under the employ of Epstein for one of the victims. The other subpoena requested was for Jet Aviation for dates and times when Epstein's planes were in Palm Beach County.

I continued to research other names that were acquired either from interviews or intelligence gathered during the investigation. I located [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]. I responded to [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]. During the interview, [REDACTED] stated she knew I would be speaking with her. [REDACTED] stated she was first introduced to Epstein when she turned eighteen years old. [REDACTED] stated she was sure of her age as it was her senior year in [REDACTED]. She advised she was brought there to make money and was told she would have to provide a massage to this Palm Beach guy. She remembered she met Epstein and his assistant Sarah in the kitchen area. She stated she was taken by one of her friends, [REDACTED]. She stated she went upstairs with Sarah while Epstein got ready for the massage. He exited his bathroom naked and [REDACTED] turned around. Epstein asked her if being naked offended her. [REDACTED] stated it made her uncomfortable. Epstein then put on a towel and lay on the table. [REDACTED] stated she rubbed his back and feet. She stated she had no massage training or experience. [REDACTED] stated during the massage, Epstein attempted to touch her buttocks. [REDACTED] pulled away as he touched her buttocks. She told him again she was uncomfortable with him touching her. Epstein then cut the massage short and became upset with her. Epstein paid her $200.00 for the massage and told her to leave the house. [REDACTED] never returned to the house. She did advise of one time she went with [REDACTED] however she waited in the car for [REDACTED] as she did not want to go into the house. At the conclusion of [REDACTED] visit with Epstein they left the area. [REDACTED] stated she had heard from other girls that have gone to the house that Epstein now required them to do the massage naked and allow him to touch them in their private areas for monies. The interview was concluded as [REDACTED] did not have any other information to provide.

I then learned from the original victim, [REDACTED] the defense attorney had learned of her identity. I spoke with the father of the victim, who stated there has been a private investigator on his house photographing his family and chasing visitors who come to the house. He provided a Florida License of E79-4EH. This vehicle is registered to Ivan Robles of West Palm Beach. Robles is a private investigator intern who is licensed by the state. I informed the State Attorney's Office of the above information.

I received the Grand Jury subpoenas to be delivered to three victims for a Grand Jury session to be held on April 18, through April 20, 2006.

10, 2006, at approximately 2:30 p.m., I served [REDACTED] at her residence in [REDACTED]. The subpoena was given to her mother, [REDACTED].

I learned through one of the victims [REDACTED] that she was personally contacted through a source that has maintained contact with Epstein. The source assured [REDACTED] she would receive monetary compensation for her assistance in not cooperating with law enforcement. [REDACTED] also stated she was told, "Those who help him will be compensated and those who hurt him will be dealt with." I told [REDACTED] that tampering with a witness/victim is an arrestable offense and very serious. I asked her who approached her during this encounter. [REDACTED] originally was reluctant to provide the name of the person who approached her to offer her not to testify because she felt they were still friends.

On April 11, 2006, Det Dawson and I traveled to Tallahassee, Florida and met with the victim, [REDACTED] identified [REDACTED] W/F, [REDACTED], as the person who approached her in Royal Palm Beach while she was home during Spring Break in March 2006. [REDACTED] also stated she did not want to pursue the intimidation charges on [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was concerned that the defense attorney was given a copy of the report as certain things she had told me in confidence were repeated to her by Beal. Prior to our departure, the victim was given a copy of her subpoena for the Grand Jury which was scheduled to commence April 18, 2006.

Upon our return from Tallahassee, I notified the State Attorney's Office of what was told to me. I also notified them that the subpoenas were delivered to the witnesses and they would be calling for arrangements for the date and time needed for the Grand Jury. I spoke with ASA Weiss and informed her of the possible intimidation by the defense.

On April 13, and April 14, 2006 I attempted contact on several occasions with ASA Weiss and ASA Belohlavic to ascertain when the victims needed to report for Grand Jury testimony. Messages were left on their voicemail. On April 17, 2006, during the hours of 9:00 am and 11:30 am, I again left messages for ASA Weiss and ASA Belohlavic for either of them to return my call as I had not heard from the State Attorney's Office as to the time and date of the Grand Jury.

At approximately 12:30 pm, I went to the State Attorney's Office and located ASA Weiss and ASA Belohlavic in their offices. I entered ASA Belohlavic's office who informed me that she was going to return my call. She explained that an offer was made to the defense, Atty Guy Fronstin and Atty Alan Dershowitz. The offer is 1 count of Agg Assault with intent to commit a felony, five years probation, with adjudication withheld. Epstein would have to submit to psychiatric/sexual evaluation and no unsupervised visits with minors. When asked about the all the other victims, ASA Belohlavic stated that was the only offer made as to one victim, [REDACTED]. ASA Belohlavic cell phone rang and went to voice mail. She checked her voice mail and played the message on speaker. The caller identified himself as

Atty Guy Fronstin and acknowledged the deal made between them. Fronstin stated in the message, he spoke with his client, Jeffrey Epstein, and agreed to the deal. Fronstin asked to call off the grand jury as they would accept this deal. Belohlavic stated a probable cause would be needed to book Epstein in the county jail and would let me know as to when it would be needed. I explained my disapproval of the deal and not being consulted prior to the deal being offered. However I expressed that was only my opinion and the final approval would come from the Chief of Police. She explained to have Chief Reiter call Barry Krisher about the deal. I left the area and returned to the police station where I briefed the Chief about the deal offered.

I checked my voice mail messages and discovered a message from [REDACTED] stepmother for the victim [REDACTED]. She was calling because the State Attorney's Office still had not returned any of her calls as to when they are needed for this case. I then called ASA Belohlavic's office and left messages for her to call the victims on this case and explained to them what the State Attorney's Office had done.

On April 17, 2006, at approximately 4:30 pm, State Attorney Investigator Tim Valentine called to officially notify me of the cancellation of the Grand Jury. He requested I contact the victims that had been served to appear, to notify them of the cancellation. I advised Valentine that as this Grand Jury session was called based on the State Attorney's Office decision to have the victims heard by the Grand Jury that I felt it was the States Attorney's Office responsibility to contact the victims and advise them of the reason they were no longer needed.

On May 10, 2006, information was received that Epstein's associate, Leslie Wexner, The Limited Inc, CEO's, plane had arrived in West Palm Beach, PBIA. The plane, a Gulfstream 4 bearing a N900LS registration, was on the tarmac at Galaxy Aviation. As Epstein had recently acquired the services of a new attorney, and the fact that Epstein's house is currently under remodeling, it was believed that Epstein may be in Palm Beach. I conducted physical surveillance at the residence, 358 El Brillo Way. I observed a large construction crew conducting remodeling at the house. The contractor, David Norr, was observed driving a Ford Explorer, white in color. The vehicle has a Florida registration of F30QQF. Norr left Epstein's house and traveled north on County Road. Det Caristo and I conducted surveillance on Norr. Norr traveled to several construction sites and checked on certain jobs. Surveillance was discontinued on Norr and Det Caristo and I traveled to Galaxy Aviation. I observed the white plane with a blue stripe along the body and tail of the plane; the tail number was visible on the bottom of the tail, closer to the body of the plane. We maintained visual surveillance on the plane until 4:57 p.m., when a caravan of Cadillac Escalades drove onto the tarmac. We observed several people exit the vehicles and discovered that they were part of the executive team for Limited Inc. The executives were in Palm Beach County for an executive meeting for the day. They arrived in Palm Beach County on May 9, 2006 at 9:30 pm and were scheduled to leave on the 10th at 5:00 pm.

On May 12, 2006, I met with ASA Lana Belohlavek at the State Attorney's Office. She explained that her boss, Barry Krischer, was requesting this case be taken to the Grand Jury again. I explained to her I had requested arrest warrants for Jeffrey Epstein, Sarah Kellen, and Haley Robson. I asked that she either issue the warrants or direct file, as so much time has elapsed since the original request to the Grand Jury. I explained that the Palm Beach Police Department had concluded the case in December of 2005 and has been waiting for the case to go forward. Belohlavek stated the original offer was again offered to the new defense attorney. She was waiting for their answer by Friday May 19, 2006. She stated she would advise me of the answer.

On May 22, 2006, I received several phone calls throughout the day from Mr. [REDACTED] who stated he had been followed aggressively by a private investigator. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that as he drove to and from work and running errands throughout the county, the same vehicle was behind him running other vehicles off the road in an attempt not to lose sight of Mr. [REDACTED] vehicle.

I explained to him as Mr. Epstein had retained new legal council it was possible it would be new private investigators following him to observe his daily activities. I also explained to him that there was a meeting scheduled with ASA Lana Belohlavek and Attorney Jack Goldberger at Mr. Krischer's office scheduled on June 1, 2006 at 9:00 am. I attempted to call ASA Lana Belohlavek to inform her of the private investigators following Mr. [REDACTED] however; she was on her vacation during the week of May 22 through May 30 2006.

On May 23, 2006, I received other phone calls from Mr. and Mrs. [REDACTED] who advised they were able to acquire the private investigators license plate information. The subject following them was again driving very aggressively and caused Mrs. [REDACTED] to run off the road. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated the vehicle is a green Chevy Monte Carlo bearing Florida tag I35-XGA. The vehicle is registered to Zachary Bechard of Jupiter Florida. Bechard is employed with Candor Investigations from Jupiter, Florida. Bechard is a licensed Private Investigator in the State of Florida.

Since the discovery of the threat made against one of the victims in this case [REDACTED], I requested subpoenas for all calls made to and received from [REDACTED] during the month of March 2006 for her cell phone and home phone. I had confirmed with Florida State University the exact dates of Spring Break for 2006. The Spring Break was from March 4, 2006 through March 12, 2006. I received a subpoena from Sprint/Nextel with all calls made during the month of March 2006. I reviewed the 989 calls made and received during the month of March 2006. of call in seconds, inbound or outbound calls and calls made to or from [REDACTED] phone. On March 7, 2006, at 11:03 am, [REDACTED] made a call to the victim [REDACTED] which lasted 492 seconds (8 minutes and 2 seconds). The victim then returned the call at 11:16 am which lasted 6 seconds. The victim then made contact with [REDACTED] at 11:22 am for 877.2 seconds (14 minutes and 6 seconds). These sequences of calls were consistent with what the victim had described to me on the date of the intimidation. Immediately after speaking with the victim, [REDACTED] makes a call to Sarah Kellen, Epstein's assistant, which lasts for forty-eight seconds. A call is then immediately received, a telephone number registered to a Corporation affiliated with Jeffrey Epstein located at 457 Madison Ave in New York. An extensive computer check revealed 457 Madison Ave is a business address in which Epstein has his corporations assigned to. Epstein had corporation attorney, Darren Indyke, register the businesses and register himself as an agent. I also observed Epstein has his El Zorro Ranch Corporation, New York Strategy Group, Ghislaine Corporation, J Epstein and Company and the Financial Strategy Group registered to this same address. Finally, a third call is received by [REDACTED] at 12:02 pm from the same corporate number which lasts 12 minutes and 1 second. It should be noted that there is no further contact with either the victim during the month of March or April of 2006. I also noted that there was no further contact with Sarah Kellen or Jeffrey Epstein during the remainder of the month of March or April 2006.

On June 1, 2006, ASA Lana Belohlavek telephoned me to inform me of the meeting that occurred with Atty. Jack Goldberger and her reference this case. She advised she would make her determination on whether to file on this case or not by Monday June 5, 2006.

On June 29, 2006, I had spoken to ASA Lana Belohlavic who informed me that the case would be sent to the Grand Jury for charges. She informed me that the grand jury would convene on July 19, 2006 to hear the Epstein case. Belohlavic stated State Attorney Barry Krisher made the determination to go the Grand Jury to hear the case.

On July 12, 2006, I spoke with Mrs. [REDACTED] mother of the victim, [REDACTED] who inquired about the status of the case. I explained to her that I was told we would be going to the Grand Jury during the week of July 19, 2006. She stated she had not been contacted as of yet by the State Attorney's Office for any information. I provided her with the telephone numbers to the State Attorney's Office.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
VIRGINIA L. GIUFFRE,

Plaintiff,
v.
GHISLAINE MAXWELL,

Defendant.
-----X

15-cv-07433-RWS

DEFENDANT GHISLAINE MAXWELL'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF'S SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby responds to Plaintiff's Second Request for Production of Documents (the "Requests").

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT AND GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. This response is made to the best of Ms. Maxwell's present knowledge, information and belief. Ms. Maxwell, through her attorneys of record, have not completed the investigation of the facts relating to this case, have not completed discovery in this action, and have not completed preparation for trial. Ms. Maxwell's responses to Plaintiff's requests are based on information currently known to her and are given without waiving Ms. Maxwell's right to use evidence of any subsequently discovered or identified facts, documents or communications. Ms. Maxwell reserves the right to supplement this Response in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e).

2. Ms. Maxwell objects to the Requests to the extent they attempt to impose any requirement or discovery obligation greater than or different from those under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the local rules of this Court or any Orders of the Court.

3. Ms. Maxwell objects to the Requests to the extent they seek documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, Rule 408 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, any common interest privilege, joint defense agreement or any other applicable privilege.

4. Ms. Maxwell objects to the Requests to the extent they seek documents or information outside of Ms. Maxwell's possession, custody or control.

5. Ms. Maxwell objects to the Requests to the extent they seek information which is not relevant to the subject matter of the litigation and/or is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

6. Ms. Maxwell objects to the Requests to the extent they are overly broad, unduly burdensome and/or propounded for the improper purpose of annoying, embarrassing, or harassing Ms. Maxwell.

7. Ms. Maxwell objects to the Requests to the extent they are vague and ambiguous, or imprecise.

8. Ms. Maxwell objects to the Requests to the extent they seek information that is confidential and implicates Ms. Maxwell's privacy interests.

9. Ms. Maxwell incorporates by reference every general objection set forth above into each specific response set forth below. A specific response may repeat a general objection for emphasis or for some other reason. The failure to include any general objection in any specific response does not waive any general objection to that request.

10. The Requests seek information that is confidential and implicates Ms. Maxwell's privacy interests. To the extent such information is relevant and discoverable in this action, Ms. Maxwell will produce such materials subject to an appropriate protective order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) limiting their dissemination to the attorneys and their employees.

OBJECTIONS TO DEFINITIONS

11. Ms. Maxwell objects to Definition No. 1 regarding "Agent" to the extent that it purports to extend the meaning beyond those permissible by law.

12. Ms. Maxwell objects to Definition No. 3 regarding "Defendant." The Definition is overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent it attempts to extend the scope of the Requests to documents in the possession, custody or control of individuals other than Ms. Maxwell or her counsel.

13. Ms. Maxwell objects to Definition No. 5 regarding "Employee." Ms. Maxwell is an individual, sued in an individual capacity, and therefore there is no "past or present officer, director, agent or servant" of hers. Additionally, "attorneys" and "paralegals" are not "employees" of Ms. Maxwell given that she herself is not an attorney and therefore cannot "employ" attorneys.

14. Ms. Maxwell objects to Definition No. 10 regarding "You" or "Your." The Definition is overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent it attempts to extend the scope of the Requests to documents in the possession, custody or control of individuals other than Ms. Maxwell or her counsel.

OBJECTIONS TO INSTRUCTIONS

15. Ms. Maxwell objects to Instruction No. 1, in particular the definition of the “Relevant Period” to include July 1999 to the present, on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome and calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The Complaint at paragraph 9 purports to describe events pertaining to Plaintiff and Defendant occurring in the years 1999 – 2002. The Complaint also references statements attributed to Ms. Maxwell occurring in January 2015. Defining the “Relevant Period” as “July 1999 to the present” is vastly overbroad, irrelevant and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and as to certain of the Requests, is intended for the improper purpose of annoying or harassing Ms. Maxwell and it implicates her privacy rights. Thus, Ms. Maxwell interprets the Relevant Period to be limited to 1999-2002 and December 30, 2014 - January 31, 2015, except to the extent that any the answers “relate to any activity of defendant with respect to the practice which has been alleged and the duties alleged to be performed by Defendant, ‘activities’ being defined as sexual abuse or trafficking of any female,” in which case her answers reflect the period 2000-today. Ms. Maxwell specifically objects to production of any documents outside that period, except as specifically noted.

16. Ms. Maxwell objects to Instruction No. 3 on the grounds that it is unduly burdensome and is intended for the improper purpose of annoying or harassing Ms. Maxwell. Ms. Maxwell cannot possibly recall the specific disposition of documents, particularly electronic documents, dating back over 16 years. However, Ms. Maxwell, prior to this litigation has long had a practice of deleting emails after they have been read.

17. Ms. Maxwell objects to Instruction Nos. 5, 8, 9, 12, 17 to the extent they seek to impose obligations to supply explanations for the presence or absence of such documents, to specifically identify persons or documents, to provide information concerning who prepared documents, the location of any copies of such documents, the identities and contact information for persons who have custody or control of such documents, the reasons for inability to produce portions of documents, and the “natural person in whose possession they were found,” beyond the requirements of Rule 34. This Instruction improperly seeks to propound Interrogatories pursuant to Rule 33.

18. Ms. Maxwell objects to Instructions No. 13 on the grounds that it is unduly burdensome and is intended for the improper purpose of annoying or harassing Ms. Maxwell. Ms. Maxwell cannot possibly recall the specific circumstances upon which a document dating back 16 years has ceased to exist.

19. Ms. Maxwell objects to Instruction No. 15 to the extent that it calls for documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege.

20. Ms. Maxwell objects to Instruction Nos. 18 & 19 to the extent they require information on any privilege log above and beyond the requirements of Local Civil Rule 26.2.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO PLAINTIFF'S SECOND REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Produce all documents that Your attorneys reviewed and/or relied upon in the March 21, 2016, meet and confer discussion when Mr. Pagliuca stated that (1) Plaintiff made false allegations concerning her sexual assault; (2) she made them in roughly the same time frame that Plaintiff was abused by Jeffrey Epstein; (3) that the allegations were made against a number of individuals in the area; and (4) that the allegations were found to be unfounded by local police.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell has no knowledge of any statements made by Mr. Pagliuca during the March 21, 2016 meet and confer and hence has no documents responsive to this Request. Further, this Request inaccurately characterizes the statements of Ms. Maxwell's counsel during the March 16, 2016 meet and confer.

Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege.

Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information relating to Virginia Roberts Giuffre that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing, Defendant refers to the public documents and news reports regarding Plaintiff's allegations of sexual abuse and investigation of the same, which have been previously produced, are available in the public domain, or referenced in court papers. Defendant also refers Plaintiff to documents within the possession, custody and control of Plaintiff and her counsel, including without limitation Mr. Bradley Edwards, which were requested in Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests, but were not produced despite certification of Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel that such Responses were truthful and complete.

Without waiver of any such objections, Ms. Maxwell has made available documents related to some of Ms. Giuffre's false allegations of sexual assaults in her Second Supplemental Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A) disclosures.

Produce all documents concerning how any such police report, or how any such recounting, retelling, summary, or description of any such police report (as referenced in Interrogatory No. 1), came into Your possession. This request includes, but is not limited to, all documents concerning how, when, and by whom such reports (or descriptions of reports) were obtained from a minor child's sealed juvenile records and files.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request in that there is no "Interrogatory No. 1" to which the Request corresponds. She further objects to the Request in that it improperly seeks to propound an Interrogatory in the form of a Request for Production of Documents and is a contention Interrogatory barred according to Plaintiff's interpretation of the Local Rules. The Request embeds a number of assumptions that are not true and for which Plaintiff supplies no basis for assertion of their veracity.

Ms. Maxwell likewise objects to this Request because it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege.

Finally, Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information relating to Virginia Roberts Giuffre that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Defendant refers to the public documents and news reports regarding Plaintiff's allegations of sexual abuse and investigation of the same, which have been previously produced, are available in the public domain, or referenced in court papers. Defendant also refers Plaintiff to documents within the possession, custody and control of Plaintiff and her counsel, including without limitation Mr. Bradley Edwards, which were requested in Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests, but were not produced despite certification of Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel that such Responses were truthful and complete.

Without waiver of any such objections, Ms. Maxwell has made available documents related to some of Ms. Giuffre's false allegations of sexual assaults in her Second Supplemental Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A) disclosures. Ms. Maxwell is withholding documents responsive to this request on the basis of the attorney-client and work product privileges.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 3

Produce all documents concerning how information or knowledge of the local police's findings or opinions concerning Ms. Giuffre's allegations of sexual assault as a minor child came into Your possession, including but not limited to documents concerning any statements made by law enforcement or any state attorney, written or oral, concerning such allegations.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege.

Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information relating to Virginia Roberts Giuffre that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing, Defendant refers to the public documents and news reports regarding Plaintiff's allegations of sexual abuse and investigation of the same, which have been previously produced, are available in the public domain, or referenced in court papers. Defendant also refers Plaintiff to documents within the possession, custody and control of Plaintiff and her counsel, including without limitation Mr. Bradley Edwards, which were requested in Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests, but were not produced despite certification of Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel that such Responses were truthful and complete.

Without waiver of any such objections, Ms. Maxwell has made available documents related to some of Ms. Giuffre's false allegations of sexual assaults in her Second Supplemental Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A) disclosures. Ms. Maxwell is withholding documents responsive to this request on the basis of the attorney-client and work product privileges.

Produce all documents concerning any investigations, internal or otherwise, by any law enforcement or governmental agency, regarding the illegal disclosure, illegal purchase, and/or theft of sealed juvenile police records concerning Plaintiff.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls information relating to Virginia Roberts Giuffre that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Defendant objects to this request to the extent that it characterizes the gathering of public information as "illegal."

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing, Defendant has been unable to locate any documents responsive to this Request.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 5

Produce all documents concerning any rape, sexual assault, sexual intercourse, or other sexual encounter involving Plaintiff. This Request includes, but is not limited to, (1) any documents concerning any sexual assault of Plaintiff while a minor; (2) any police reports, or documents concerning any police reports, that were created concerning such claims of sexual assault; and (3) documents concerning any communications received by You (or Your agents or attorneys) by other individuals that reference any sexual assault of Plaintiff while a minor.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege.

Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information relating to Virginia Roberts Giuffre that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing, Defendant refers to the public documents and news reports regarding Plaintiff's false allegations of sexual abuse and investigation of the same, which have been previously produced, are available in the public domain, or referenced in court papers. Defendant also refers Plaintiff to documents within the possession, custody and control of Plaintiff and her counsel, including without limitation Mr. Bradley Edwards, which were requested in Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests, but were not produced despite certification of Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel that such Responses were truthful and complete.

Defendant objects to the characterization of Plaintiff's documented false claims of sexual contact as "rape" or "sexual assault."

Without waiver of any such objections, Ms. Maxwell has made available documents related to some of Ms. Giuffre's false allegations of sexual assault in her Second Supplemental Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A) disclosures.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 6

Produce any Joint Defense Agreement entered into between You and Jeffrey Epstein from 1999 to the present.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Defendant is withholding production of any such agreement on the basis of such privileges.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 7

Produce any documents concerning any Joint Defense Agreement entered into between You and Jeffrey Epstein from 1999 to the present.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Defendant is withholding documents on the basis of such privileges.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 8

Produce any documents concerning any of Your, or Your attorneys or agent's, communications with Jeffrey Epstein's attorneys or agents from 1999 to the present relating to the issue of sexual abuse of females, or any documents concerning any of Your, Your attorneys or agent's, communications with Jeffrey Epstein's attorneys or agents from 1999 to the present relating to the recruitment of any female under the age of 18 for any purpose, including socializing or performing any type of work or services.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request on the grounds that it is cumulative and duplicative. Ms. Maxwell has already produced documents related to her communications with Jeffrey Epstein in response to Plaintiff's First Requests for Production of Documents, all of which document her denial that she did "recruit[] any female under the age of 18 for any purpose."

Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing, Defendant has been unable to locate any additional documents responsive to this Request.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 9

Produce any Joint Defense Agreement entered into between You and Alan Dershowitz from 1999 to the present.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing, Defendant has been unable to locate any documents responsive to this Request.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 10

Produce any documents concerning any Joint Defense Agreement entered into between You and Alan Dershowitz from 1999 to the present.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing, Defendant has been unable to locate any documents responsive to this Request.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 11

Produce any documents concerning any of Your attorneys' or agents' communications with Alan Dershowitz's attorneys or agents from 1999 to the present

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Defendant is withholding communications between Mr. Dershowitz's counsel and Defendant's counsel which contain work product and concern joint defense or common interest matters.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 12

Produce all documents concerning Virginia Giuffre (a/k/a Virginia Roberts), whether or not they reference her by name. This request includes, but is not limited to, all communications, diaries, journals, calendars, blog posts (whether published or not), notes (handwritten or not), memoranda, mobile phone agreements, wire transfer receipts, or any other document that concerns Plaintiff in any way, whether or not they reference her by name.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and interposed for improper purposes. Response to this Request would literally entail defense counsel reviewing for privilege every single document in their possession related to this case.

Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is cumulative and duplicative. Ms. Maxwell further objects to this request as exceeding the scope of this Court's March 17, 2016 Order. Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information relating to Virginia Roberts Giuffre that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing, Defendant has been unable to locate any such documents.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 14

Produce all documents concerning any contracts, including but not limited to indemnification agreements and employment agreements, between You and Jeffrey Epstein, or any entity associated with Jeffrey Epstein, from 1999 to the present.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request on the grounds that it seeks multiple categories of documents within a single request for production. Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege. Ms. Maxwell is producing her engagement letter with her counsel in this action. Defendant has been unable to locate any additional documents responsive to this Request.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 16

Produce all documents concerning any action or lawsuit brought against You from 1999 to the present, including, but not limited to, actions or lawsuits brought in foreign jurisdictions.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request on the grounds that it is over-broad and unduly burdensome and calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. Subject to and without waiving the above objections, Ms. Maxwell has been unable to locate any documents responsive to this Request.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 17

Produce all documents concerning any statement made by You or on Your behalf to the press or any other group or individual, including draft statements, concerning Ms. Giuffre, by You, Ross Gow, or any other individual, from 2005 to the present, including the dates of any publications, and if published online, the Uniform Resource Identifier (URL) address.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request on the grounds that it is cumulative and duplicative. Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. Ms. Maxwell is not producing documents that are available in the public domain. Ms. Maxwell has been unable to locate any additional documents responsive to this Request.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 18

Produce all documents concerning which individuals or entities You or Your agents distributed or sent any statements concerning Ms. Giuffre referenced in Request No. 18 made by You or on Your behalf.

Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. Ms. Maxwell is not producing documents that are available in the public domain. Ms. Maxwell has been unable to locate any additional documents responsive to this Request.

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 19 Produce all documents concerning any alleged illegal activity involving Plaintiff from the Relevant Period. This request includes, but is not limited to, any documents concerning the Roadhouse Grill in Florida.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request as vague and confusing. Ms. Maxwell is unaware of all illegal activities in which Plaintiff may have been engaged in during the stated time period, and documents concerning those activities are uniquely within Plaintiff's possession, custody and control.

Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege or any other applicable privilege.

Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information relating to Virginia Roberts Giuffre that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing, Defendant refers to the public documents and news reports regarding Plaintiff's allegations of sexual abuse and investigation of the same, which have been previously produced, are available in the public domain, or referenced in court papers. Defendant also refers Plaintiff to documents within the possession, custody and control of Plaintiff and her counsel, including without limitation Mr. Bradley Edwards, which were requested in Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests, but were not produced despite certification of Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel that such Responses were truthful and complete.

Ms. Maxwell is not re-producing documents already produced by her and produced by Plaintiff in this action, for example, in response to Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests to Plaintiff which requested inter alia documents related to Plaintiff's residences since 1999.

Without waiver of any such objections, Ms. Maxwell has made available documents related to some of Ms. Giuffre's dwellings in her Second Supplemental Fed. R. Civ. P.

26(a)(1)(A) disclosures. Ms. Maxwell has been unable to locate any additional documents responsive to this Request.

DOCUMENT REQUESTS “CONCERNING PUNITIVE DAMAGES”

DOCUMENT REQUEST NO. 21

Produce all copies of the complaints in any lawsuits that You have filed in any court in which You seek damages or any other financial recovery from 2014 to the present.

RESPONSE: Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome and calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request on the grounds that it is propounded for the improper purpose of annoying or harassing Ms. Maxwell. ------------------------------------	----

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this response to Defendant's Motion to Compel All Attorney-Client Communications and Attorney Work Product Placed at Issue by Plaintiff and Her Attorneys (DE 164). The motion should be denied in its entirety.

INTRODUCTION

Defendant argues Ms. Giuffre and two of her attorneys (Cassell and Edwards) have somehow placed "at issue" her confidential attorney-client communications and therefore have made a "sweeping waiver" of attorney-client privilege in this case. Defendant, however, fails to cite the controlling law on this issue: Federal Rule of Evidence 502. Enacted in 2008, Rule 502 was designed to block exactly the kind of argument Defendant is making. Rule 502 provides that litigants are entitled to the most protective law on attorney-client privilege, either state law where the disclosure was made or federal law. The alleged disclosures in this case were made in Florida, and under Florida law did not constitute any waiver of attorney-client privilege. Indeed, Defendant does not reveal to the Court that the Florida judge who handled the case during which the alleged "waivers" occurred (the Dershowitz case) has already considered – and rejected in their entirety – the very arguments that Defendant is advancing here.

In addition, none of the alleged disclosures were made by Ms. Giuffre, who as the holder of the privilege is the only individual with authority to waive it. Moreover, none of the alleged disclosures concerned the substance of confidential attorney-client communications. And finally, Ms. Giuffre will not be seeking to introduce or otherwise take advantage of any confidential attorney-client communications in this case. Accordingly, for these and other reasons, the Court should deny Defendant's motion in its entirety.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The CVRA Case

The facts relevant to this issue begin in 2008, when attorney Bradley J. Edwards (soon joined by co-counsel Professor Paul Cassell) filed a pro bono action in the Southern District of Florida under the Crime Victims' Rights Act (CVRA), 18 U.S.C. § 3771. Filed on behalf of Jane Doe 1 (and later Jane Doe 2) the CVRA action alleged that federal government had failed to protect the rights of Jane Doe 1 and other similarly situated victims of sex offenses committed by Jeffrey Epstein. See Declaration of Sigrid McCawley ("McCawley Decl.") at Exhibit 1, Complaint filed in Jane Doe 1 v. United States, No. 9:08-cv-80736 (S.D. Fla. July 7, 2008). Jane Does 1 and 2 achieved many victories in the case, including a ruling that the CVRA rights of victims could apply before charges were filed, Does 1 and 2 v. United States, 817 F.Supp.2d 1337 (S.D. Fla. 2011);¹ that they had standing to challenge the non-prosecution agreement reached between the Government and Epstein, Jane Does 1 and 2 v. United States, 950 F.Supp.2d 1262 (S.D. Fla. 2013); and that plea negotiations were not protected from disclosure by any federal rule of evidence, Does v. United States, 749 F.3d 999 (11th Cir. 2014). Congress has also followed the developments in the case closely, recently amending the CVRA to insure that in the future crime victims receive notice of any non-prosecution agreement entered into by the Government. See Pub. L. 114-22, Title I, § 113(a), (c)(1), May 29, 2015, 129 Stat. 240, 241 (adding 18 U.S.C. § 3771(a)(9) to give crime victims "[t]he right to be informed in a timely manner of any plea bargain or deferred prosecution agreement).

On December 30, 2014, Cassell and Edwards filed a Motion Pursuant to Rule 21 for Joinder in the Action on behalf two additional victims: Jane Doe 3 and Jane Doe 4. (Jane Doe 3, Virginia Giuffre, subsequently decided to reveal her name). The joinder motion argued that Jane Does 3 and 4 should be allowed to join the two existing plaintiffs in the action because they had suffered the same violations of their rights under the CVRA. McCawley Decl., Exhibit 2, Jane Does’ 3 and 4 Joinder Motion.² To establish that they were “victims” of Epstein’s sex crimes with standing to join the suit, Jane Does 3 and 4 alleged that they had suffered sexual abuse from Epstein. For example, Jane Doe 3 alleged that she had been forced by Epstein to have sexual relations with various persons, including Alan Dershowitz – who had been one of Epstein’s defense attorneys negotiating the non-prosecution deal and arranging to keep it secret from the victims. McCawley Decl., Exhibit 2 at 4. Jane Doe 3 also alleged that Defendant (i.e., Ghislaine Maxwell) had participated in the sexual abuse of Jane Doe 3. Id. at 4-5.

After Dershowitz also filed a motion to intervene to contest the allegations (DE 282), Jane Doe 3 filed a response to Dershowitz’s intervention motion. McCawley Decl., Exhibit 3, Response to Motion to Intervene.³ The response explained that the allegations against Dershowitz were relevant to at least eight separate issues in the CVRA case. Id. at 18-26. The response also explained some of the evidence supporting the allegations against Dershowitz, including:

- sworn testimony from one of Epstein’s household employees (Juan Alessi) that Dershowitz came “pretty often” to Epstein’s Florida mansion and got massages while he was there;

² The Joinder Motion attached as an exhibit is a “corrected” motion, filed on January 2, 2015. As discussed below, several paragraphs in this motion were later stricken by Judge Marra.

³ This document is currently restricted/under seal in the CVRA case, although an order sealing it is not found in the Court record so far as can be determined. In light of the sealing of the document, we have marked aspects of this pleading dealing with the document as confidential.

- sworn testimony from another of Epstein’s household employees (Alfredo Rodriquez) that Dershowitz was present alone at the home of Epstein, without his family, in the presence of young girls;
- invocations of Fifth Amendment rights to remain silent by three of Epstein’s identified co-conspirators (Sarah Kellen, Nadia Marcinkova, and Adrianna Mucinska) when asked questions about whether Dershowitz had been involved with massages by young girls;
- refusals by Jeffrey Epstein to discuss Dershowitz’s involvement but instead to invoke his Fifth Amendment right.

Id. at 26-38.

Several months later, on April 7, 2015, the Court (Marra, J.) denied Jane Doe 3 and Jane Doe 4’s motion for joinder. McCawley Decl., Exhibit. 4, Order denying Jane Doe 3’s motion to join. With regard to the eight separate issues as to which the allegations against Dershowitz were relevant, the Court addressed only the first (establishing “victim” status) and found that the “factual details regarding with whom and where the Jane Does engaged in sexual activities are immaterial and impertinent to this central claim (i.e., that they were known victims of Mr. Epstein and the Government owed them CVRA duties), especially considering that these details involve non-parties who are not related to the respondent Government.” Id. at 5.⁴ Accordingly, the Court struck the factual details from the victims’ pleading as unnecessary at that time. The Court specifically recognized, however, that the details could be reasserted by the parties to the action – i.e., Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2 – if they could “demonstrate a good faith basis for believing that such details are pertinent to a matter presented for the Court’s consideration.” Id. at 6. Following the Court’s ruling, additional litigation has proceeded in the CVRA case.

The Dershowitz case

⁴ In asserting that the non-parties were “not related to the respondent Government,” the Court did not address Jane Doe 3’s argument that Dershowitz, as one of Epstein’s defense counsel, had helped negotiate the non-prosecution agreement and helped to arrange to keep it secret from the victims.

While the CVRA case was moving forward in the Southern District of Florida on behalf of Jane Does 1 and 2, separate litigation developed between the pro bono attorneys who had filed the lawsuit (Cassell and Edwards) and Dershowitz. After the filing of the joinder motion in the CVRA case, Dershowitz took the airwaves to attack not only Jane Doe 3, but also Cassell and Edwards. Typical of these attacks was one levelled on CNN, in which Dershowitz alleged:

If they [Cassell and Edwards] had just done an hours' worth of research and work, they would have seen she is lying through her teeth. . . . They're prepared to lie, cheat, and steal. These are unethical lawyers. . . . They can't be allowed to have a bar card to victimize more innocent people.

Hala Gorani – CNN Live (Jan. 5, 2015).⁵

Cassell and Edwards then filed a state law defamation action against Dershowitz in Broward County, Florida. See McCawley Decl., Exhibit. 5, Complaint in Edwards and Cassell v. Dershowitz. The complaint alleged that Dershowitz had engaged in a “massive public media assault on the reputation and character” of Cassell and Edwards. Id. at 4. Ms. Giuffre was not a party to this defamation lawsuit.

The Florida Court Rejects a Waiver of Attorney Clients Privilege Argument

As Cassell and Edwards' Florida defamation action moved forward, Dershowitz sought to make an argument that they had somehow waived their client's (Ms. Giuffre's) attorney-client privilege. On September 8, 2015, Dershowitz filed a motion to compel Cassell and Edwards to produce documents and additional responses to interrogatories. McCawley Decl., Exhibit. 6, Motion to Compel. In his motion, Dershowitz argued that Cassell and Edwards “have waived any privilege or protection that would otherwise attach to responsive documents and information by bringing this defamation action placing at issue the truthfulness of Jane Doe No. 3's allegations against Dershowitz" Id. at 3-5. In his motion and reply pleading (McCawley Decl., Exhibit 8, Reply in Support of Motion to Compel), Dershowitz argued that Cassell and Edwards' actions throughout the case constituted a waiver of attorney-client privilege.

Cassell and Edwards responded, arguing that Ms. Giuffre was not a party of the defamation action and that she was the only person who could waive her privilege. McCawley Decl., Exhibit 7 at 4-6, Response in Opposition to Motion to Compel. Cassell and Edwards also argued that there had been no waiver because confidential attorney-client communications with Ms. Giuffre were not "at issue" in the defamation case. Id. at 6-9. Cassell and Edwards also later filed a sur-reply, further elaborating on the argument that Ms. Giuffre had not waived any attorney-client privilege by publicly discussing her sexual abuse by Epstein and his associates. McCawley Decl., Exhibit 9, Sur-Reply in Support Opposition to Motion to Compel. Cassell and Edwards also explained that communications with Ms. Giuffre were protected not only beginning in March 2014, but even earlier than that date when Ms. Giuffre understood that she was obtaining legal services from Cassell and Edwards. Id. at 1.

Following this extensive briefing on waiver issues,⁶ on December 8, 2015, the Florida Court (Lynch, J.) ruled, denying Dershowitz's argument that attorney-client privilege had been waived. McCawley Decl., Exhibit 10, Order Denying Motion to Compel. Specifically, the Court denied the motion to compel, explaining "Pre March 2014 communications are protected by the work product privilege and the witness has not waived the communications that were protected by the attorney-client privilege. Also, there was no waiver by the [Cassell and Edwards] by filing suit." Id. at 1.

⁶ And following the filing of Cassell and Edwards' summary judgment motion, filed on November 26, 2015.

Ms. Giuffre's Deposition in the Defamation Case

As the defamation action moved forward, Dershowitz subpoenaed Ms. Giuffre to a deposition. McCawley Decl., Exhibit 11, Composite Exhibit of excerpts from transcript of deposition of Ms. Giuffre. During the deposition, held in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Ms. Giuffre was represented by the undersigned legal counsel, who asserted objections to revealing attorney-client information where the questions called for revealing confidential attorney client communications. See, e.g., id. at 22-23; 131-32; 173-74; 183; 208. During the deposition, Ms. Giuffre specifically stated that “I decide not to waive my [attorney-client] privilege at this time.” Id. at 174. Ms. Giuffre also denied that Cassell and Edwards had ever pressured her into identifying someone as being involved in her sexual abuse. Id. at 200-12

The Settlement of the Defamation Case

Ultimately, Cassell, Edwards, and Dershowitz agreed to settle their defamation case. That settlement included both a public statement and confidential monetary payments. As part of the settlement, Cassell and Edwards withdrew their allegations against Dershowitz in the defamation case contained in the then-pending summary judgment motion. McCawley Decl., Exhibit 12, Notice of Withdrawal of Summary Judgment Motion. As explained in the notice of withdrawal of this motion, “the withdrawal of the referenced filings is not intended to be, and should not be construed as being, an acknowledgement by Edwards and Cassell that the allegation made by Ms. Giuffre were mistaken. Edwards and Cassell do acknowledge that the public filing in the Crime Victims’ Rights Act case of their client’s allegation against Defendant Dershowitz became a major distraction from the merits of the well-founded Crime Victims’ Rights Act by causing delay and, as a consequence, turned out to be a tactical mistake.” Id. All these actions settling the Florida defamation case took place in Florida.

LEGAL STANDARDS FOR WAIVER

A. Federal Rule of Evidence 502 Controls on the Issue of Waiver

Defendant asks this Court to find that Ms. Giuffre has somehow waived her attorney-client privilege regarding various communications in this case. This is no small step. The attorney-client privilege is one of the “oldest recognized privileges for confidential communications.” Swidler & Berlin v. United States, 524 U.S. 399, 403 (1998)). The privilege’s purpose is to “encourage full and frank communication between attorneys and their clients and thereby promote broader public interests in the observance of law and the administration of justice.” 524 U.S. at 403 (internal quotation marks omitted).

In setting out the legal standards pertaining to waiver of attorney-client privilege, Defendant fails to cite the controlling – and protective – law on the issue. In a federal case, issues of alleged waiver of attorney-client privilege must be resolved under the new standards in Federal Rule of Evidence 502. In 2008, Congress enacted Federal Rule of Evidence 502, which is entitled “Attorney-Client Privilege and Work Product; Limitations on Waiver.” New rule 502 places a number of protections in place to reduce litigation over claims that a party has somehow “waived” attorney client privilege. See generally Adv. Comm. Note, Rule 502. Notably, Defendant does not discuss, or even cite, Rule 502 in her motion.

The issue currently before the Court is specifically controlled by Rule 502(c), which covers situations where a disclosure in a state proceeding is alleged, in a federal proceeding, to establish waiver. Rule 502(c) provides the greater of protections found in federal or state law:

- (c) Disclosure Made in a State Proceeding. When the disclosure is made in a state proceeding and is not the subject of a state-court order concerning waiver, the disclosure does not operate as a waiver in a federal proceeding if the disclosure:
- (1) would not be a waiver under this rule if it had been made in a federal proceeding; or
 - (2) is not a waiver under the law of the state where the disclosure occurred.

As is readily apparent from the text of the rule, there are two separate ways in which a party can prove that no waiver of attorney-client privilege has occurred: (1) by demonstrating that no waiver exists under federal law; or (2) by demonstrating that no waiver exists under the state law where the disclosure occurred. Between these two possibilities, the drafters of the rule decided to apply the most protective law that governs waiver. See Fed. R. Evid. 502(c), Adv. Comm. Notes (“The [Advisory] Committee [on the Federal Rules of Evidence] determined that the proper solution for the federal court is to apply the law that is most protective of privilege and work product” (emphasis added)).

B. Florida Law

C.

Florida’s protective law on the attorney-client privilege provides that neither an attorney nor a client may be compelled to divulge confidential communications between a lawyer and client which were made during the rendition of legal services. Fla. Stat. Ann. § 90.502(1)(c). Communication denotes more than just giving legal advice; it also includes giving information to the lawyer to enable him to render sound and informed advice. Hagans v. Gatorland Kubota, LLC/Sentry Ins., 45 So.3d 73, 76 (Fla. 1st DCA 2010).

Under Florida law, while the burden of establishing the attorney-client privilege usually rests on the party claiming it, First Union National Bank v. Turney, 824 So.2d 172, 185 (Fla. 1st DCA 2002), when communications appear on their face to be privileged, the burden is on the party seeking disclosure to prove facts which would make an exception to the privilege applicable. Ford Motor Co. v. Hall-Edwards, 997 So.2d 1148, 1153 (Fla. 3^d DCA 2008); Rousso v. Hannon, 146 So.3d 66, 70 (Fla. 3^d DCA 2014). In this case, Defendant does not appear to dispute that an attorney-client privilege exists with regard to the communications between Ms. Giuffre and her attorneys. Rather, Defendant’s argument is that the privilege has somehow been waived. See Motion to Compel at 1-2. Therefore, under Florida law, Defendant must shoulder the burden of overcoming the privilege. (Of course, because Defendant failed to even cite, much less discuss, Florida law, she has not carried that burden.)

Defendant asserts that she can force disclosure of the privileged communications between Ms. Giuffre and her counsel under the “at issue” doctrine. To establish this alleged waiver, Defendant’s motion relies on a federal district court case – Hearn v. Rhay, 68 F.R.D. 574 (E.D. Wash. 1975), which was cited in Bank Brussels Lambert v. Credit Lyonnais (Suisse), S.A., 210 F.R.D. 506, 509-10 (S.D.N.Y. 2002) (Ellis, M.J.). See Motion to Compel at 8. As discussed below, as a matter of controlling federal authority, these cases have been repudiated by the Second Circuit. And to the same effect, Florida law also rejects the expansive Hearn approach to waiver. See Guarantee Ins. Co. v. Heffernan Ins. Brokers, Inc., 300 F.R.D. 590, 593-95 (S.D. Fla. 2014) (discussing Florida authorities). Florida law disfavors waiver of the attorney-client privilege and will not readily find an “at issue” waiver. See Guarantee Ins. Co. v. Heffernan Ins. Brokers, Inc., 300 F.R.D. 590, 593 (S.D. Fla. 2014) (citing Coates v. Akerman, Senterfitt & Eidson, P.A., 940 So.2d 504, 508 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2006) (refusing to find waiver based on the at-issue doctrine)). In contrast to Hearn, under Florida law, at-issue waiver only occurs “when a party ‘raises a claim that will necessarily require proof by way of a privileged communication.’” Coates, 940 So.2d at 508 (quoting Jenney v. Airdata Wiman, Inc., 846 So.2d 664, 668 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2003)) (emphasis in original). Indeed, in 2014, the Southern District of Florida rejected the Hearn “at issue” analysis and instead, adopted the analysis of the Third Circuit as outlined in Rhone–Poulenc Rorer, Inc. v. Home Indemnity Co., 32 F.3d 851 (3d Cir. 1994). Guarantee Ins., 300 F.R.D. at 595. The Third Circuit deemed the Hearn test to be of “dubious validity” because, although it “dress[es] up [its] analysis with a checklist of factors, [it] appear[s] to rest on a conclusion that the information sought is relevant and should in fairness be disclosed.” Id. at 864. The Third Circuit specifically rejected Hearne because relevance is not the standard for determining whether or not evidence should be protected from disclosure as privileged. Rhone, 32 F.3d at 863. Florida law tracks that of the Third Circuit. See 300 F.R.D. at 593-95 (citing Florida case law).

Also, under Florida law, the client – not her attorneys – holds the attorney-client privilege. See Fla. Stat. Ann. § 90.502(3); see also Fla. Stat. Ann. § 90.502(2) (a client has a privilege to refuse to disclose, and to prevent any other person from disclosing, the contents of confidential communications when such other person learned of the communications because they were made in the rendition of legal services to the client). Some Florida courts have even recognized serious due process issues could be created by a procedure through which a client lost their privilege without an opportunity to be heard in the proceedings. See, e.g., Rogers v. State, 742 So.2d 827, 829 (Fla. 2d DCA 1999). Under Florida law, so long as a client has a reasonable expectation of privacy in the communication, under § 90.507, the privilege is protected. McWatters v. State, 36 So.3d 613, 636 (Fla. 2010). Also under Florida law, only the client – not her attorney – can waive attorney-client privilege. See Savino v. Luciano, 92 So.2d 817 (Fla. 1957), Coates v. Akerman, Senterfitt & Edison, P.A., 940 So.2d 504 (Fla. 2d DCA 2006), and Genovese v. Provident Life and Accident Ins. Co., 74 So.3d 1064 (Fla. 2011).

C. Federal Law

Rather than discuss Florida privilege law, Defendant exclusively cites federal case law. See Mot. to Compel at ii-iii (table of authorities citing only federal cases). Yet as this Court has previously held in ruling on an earlier privilege motion made by the Defendant, state law generally provides the rule of decision in this diversity case. See Giuffre v. Maxwell, DE 135 at 6, 2016 WL 175918 at * 6 (applying New York privilege law) (citing Allied Irish Banks v. Bank of Am., N.A., 240 F.R.D. 96, 102 (S.D.N.Y. 2007) (“Because this Court’s subject matter jurisdiction is based upon diversity . . . state law provides the rule of decision concerning the claim of attorney-client privilege.”)). Accordingly, an argument can be made that New York state law applies in this case⁷ – but Defendant does not explain why she jumps to federal law.

As explained above, in the particular context of a waiver argument, Federal Rule of Evidence 502 applies the more protective of state law or federal law in determining whether a waiver of privilege has occurred. In this case, the controlling federal law is at least as protective as Florida law. The controlling federal law here comes from the Second Circuit, including In re Cnty. of Erie, 546 F.3d 222 (2d Cir. 2008) – a case not even cited, much less discussed, by the Defendant. In view of the importance of the attorney-client privilege, the Second Circuit in that case held that any finding of waiver should be made with “caution.” Id. at 228.

Rather than cite this controlling Second Circuit precedent, Defendant relies on a 2002 case from this Court applying the Hearn “at issue” doctrine. See Mot. to Compel at 8 (citing Bank Brussels Lambert v. Credit Lyonnais (Suisse), S.A., 210 F.R.D. 506, 509-10 (S.D.N.Y. 2002) (Ellis, Magistrate Judge) (quoting Hearn v. Rhay, 68 F.R.D. 574, 581 (E.D. Wash. 1975))). Defendant goes on to argue that “courts have generally applied the Hearn [at issue] doctrine liberally, finding a broad waiver of attorney-client privilege where a party asserts a position ‘the truth of which can only be assessed by examination of the privilege communication.’” Mot. to Compel at 8 (internal quotation omitted).

Defendant fails to recognize that the Second Circuit has explicitly disavowed the Hearn doctrine. In In re Cnty. of Erie, 546 F.3d 222 (2d Cir. 2008), the Second Circuit explained that “[c]ourts in our Circuit and others have criticized Hearn and have applied its tests unevenly.” Id.

⁷ As a protective matter, Ms. Giuffre will also provide citations to New York state authorities in this response.

at 227-28.⁸ The Second Circuit also noted that the Hearn test “has been subject to academic criticism. See, e.g., Richard L. Marcus, The Perils of Privilege: Waiver and the Litigator, 84 MICH. L. REV. 1605, 1628-29 (1986); Note, Developments in the Law-Privileged Communications, 98 HARV. L. REV. 1650, 1641-42 (1985) (identifying “the faults in the Hearn approach”). In light of these strong criticisms of Hearn, the Second Circuit decided that “[w]e agree with its critics that the Hearn test cuts too broadly and therefore conclude that the District Court erred in applying it here. . . . Nowhere in the Hearn test is found the essential element of reliance on privileged advice in the assertion of the claim or defense in order to effect a waiver.” 546 F.3d at 229 (emphasis added). The Second Circuit held that, for an “at issue” waiver to occur, “a party must rely on privileged advice from his counsel to make his claim or defense.” Id. (emphasis added).

In light of the Second Circuit’s holding, recent cases from this Court have explained that “reliance on privileged advice in the assertion of the claim or defense is an ‘essential element’ of a claim of waiver.” Aristocrat Leisure Ltd. v. Deutsche Bank Trust Co. Americas, No. 04 CIV 10014 PKL, 2009 WL 3111766, at *16 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 28, 2009).⁹ For the sake of completeness, it may be relevant to note that New York state privilege law applies the same

⁸ The Second Circuit cited numerous cases, including cases from this Court – e.g., Pereira v. United Jersey Bank, Nos. 94 Civ 1565 & 94 Civ 1844, 1997 WL 773716, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 11, 1997) (“Hearn is problematic insofar as there are very few instances in which the Hearn factors, taken at face value, do not apply and, therefore, a large majority of claims of privilege would be subject to waiver.”); Allen v. West Point-Pepperell, Inc., 848 F.Supp. 423, 429 (S.D.N.Y. 1994) (noting that district courts within this Circuit have reached conflicting decisions in the application of Hearn, and rejecting reliance “upon a line of cases in which courts have unhesitatingly applied a variation of the Hearn balancing test”); Connell v. Bernstein-Macaulay, Inc., 407 F.Supp. 420, 422 (S.D.N.Y. 1976) (“The actual holding in [Hearn] is not in point because the party there asserting the privilege had expressly relied upon the advice of counsel as a defense to the plaintiff’s action.”); Rhone-Poulenc Rorer, Inc. v. Home Indem. Co., 32 F.3d 851, 864 (3d Cir. 1994) (deeming Hearn to be of “dubious validity” because, although it “dress[es] up [its] analysis with a checklist of factors, [it] appear[s] to rest on a conclusion that the information sought is relevant and should in fairness be disclosed”).

⁹ The Aristocrat Leisure case accordingly rejected a party’s reliance on the same authority that Defendant relies upon here. See Aristocrat, 2009 WL 3111766 at *16 n.6 (discussing Bank Brussels Lambert v. Credit Lyonnais (Suisse), S.A., 210 F.R.D. 506 (S.D.N.Y. 2010), and then noting in the next sentence that the Hearn test relied upon by Bank Brussels “recently has been criticized by the Second Circuit on this very issue.”).

Ct. 2013) (“‘at issue’ waiver occurs ‘when the party has asserted a claim or defense that he intends to prove by use of the privileged materials.’ An example of an affirmative act that does constitute ‘at issue’ waiver of privilege is a party’s ‘assert[ing] as an affirmative defense [its] reliance upon the advice of counsel.’”).¹⁰

DISCUSSION

I. MS. GIUFFRE DID NOT WAIVE HER ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE WHEN EDWARDS AND CASSELL FILED AND PURSUED THEIR OWN DEFAMATION ACTION AGAINST ALAN DERSHOWITZ.

Defendant’s lead argument is that Cassell and Edwards waived Ms. Giuffre’s attorney-client privilege when they filed and pursued a defamation action against Alan Dershowitz. See Mot. to Compel at 10. This claim is meritless for numerous reasons, including the fact (not disclosed by Defendant) that this very argument has been fully litigated before the Florida court handling that defamation action, which specifically rejected any finding of waiver.

A. The Florida Court Presiding over the Defamation Action Has Already Rejected the Same Waiver Claim that Defendant is Advancing Here.

The claim that Cassell and Edwards somehow waived Ms. Giuffre’s attorney-client by pursuing their own, personal defamation action against Dershowitz has already been the subject of extensive briefing – and, ultimately, a Florida court ruling. Defendant has scoured the docket in the Dershowitz defamation case to collect every flyspeck of information that she believes support her argument that a “waiver” has taken place. See Mot. to Compel at 10-12 and numerous associated exhibits. But, remarkably, she has not revealed to this Court the most relevant information from the docket: that the Florida court considered the same waiver issues and rejecting the same arguments that the Defendant now advances. This Florida court ruling, applying Florida law, is controlling here.

¹⁰ New York and federal authorities also hold that when attorneys are not acting on the client’s behalf, they cannot waive their client’s privilege. N.Y. C.P.L.R. § 4503(a); Dillenbeck v. Hess, 73 N.Y.2d 278, 290, 536 N.E.2d 1126, 1134 (N.Y. 1989) (“[T]he sine qua non of any evidentiary privilege is that it is personal to, and can only be waived by, the privilege holder.”). See also In re von Bulow, 828 F.2d 94, 100-01 (2d Cir. 1987) (“Of course, the privilege belongs solely to the client and may only be waived by him. An attorney may not waive the privilege without his client’s consent.”); In re Bank of New York Mellon Corp. Forex Transactions Litig., 66 F. Supp. 3d 406, 410 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) (same); Ferreira v. Capitol Specialty Ins. Corp., 31 Misc. 3d 1209(A), 929 N.Y.S.2d 199 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 2011) (“CPLR 4503 makes clear that an attorney cannot waive the attorney-client privilege rather waiver is only effective when done by the beneficiary of the privilege or their personal representative.”).

As discussed above in the factual section of this response, in the Florida case, Dershowitz filed a motion to compel advancing legal and factual arguments identical to those the Defendant is advancing here. See McCawley Decl., Ex. 6 at 3, Dershowitz motion to compel (arguing that Cassell and Edwards “have waived any privilege or protection that would otherwise attach to responsive documents and information by bringing this defamation action placing at issue the truthfulness of Jane Doe No. 3’s allegations against Dershowitz . . .”). Id. at 3. Citing Hearn v. Rhay, 68 F.R.D. 574, 581 (E.D. Wash. 1975), Dershowitz claimed that information Ms. Giuffre had confidentially provided to Cassell and Edwards as her attorneys had become “at issue” in the defamation action. McCawley Decl., Ex. 6 at 4-5. Dershowitz argued broadly that a whole host of alleged attorney-client communications were “at issue” in the case, including:

(1) Jane Doe No. 3’s allegations against Dershowitz asserted in the action captioned Jane Doe #1, et al. v. United States of America, Case No. 08-cv-80736 (S.D. Fla.) (the “Federal Action”); (2) [Cassell and Edwards’] investigation into Jane Doe No. 3’s allegations against Dershowitz; (3) [Cassell and Edwards’] assertion in the Complaint that Dershowitz was an alleged participant in the criminal conduct committed by Jeffrey Epstein (“Epstein”); and (4) Jane Doe No. 3’s whereabouts and activities during the time when she claims to have been “sex slave” for Epstein.

Ex. 6 at 3. As the briefing on the issue continued, in an October 26, 2015 response filing, Dershowitz argued that Ms. Giuffre’s public statements waived the privilege,¹¹ along with actions by her attorneys Cassell and Edwards. Ex. 8 at 5-8.¹²

After all these arguments were fully briefed, the Florida court (Lynch, J.) rejected Dershowitz’s arguments that any waiver of the attorney-client privilege had taken place. McCawley Decl., Ex. 10 at 1 (“Defendant/Counterclaim Plaintiff’s Motion to Compel Production of documents and complete responses to interrogatories is hereby denied.”). In a December 8, 2015, order, Judge Lynch provided a short explanation of his reasoning and entered an order denying Dershowitz’s waiver motion. Id.

In her pending motion to compel, Defendant recycles the same arguments that Dershowitz made, such as the claim that Cassell and Edwards waived privilege by filing suit (Mot. Compel at 10), that her March 2011 interview with Scarola and Edwards was a waiver (id. at 10), and other similar claims (id. at 11-13). But Dershowitz already litigated these issues a few months ago in the Dershowitz case – and his claims were rejected by the Florida court. Defendant is now collaterally estopped from relitigating these identical issues here, because Dershowitz had a full and fair opportunity to litigate those issues and Defendant was in a “common interest” agreement with Dershowitz at the time. The doctrine of collateral estoppel protects litigants – and the courts – from relitigating identical issues and promotes efficiency by barring unnecessary litigation. See Parklane Hosiery Co., Inc. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322, 326 (1979). As this Court has explained, for collateral estoppel to apply, there must have been a full and fair opportunity to litigate the decision that now controls and the issue in the prior action must be identical to and decisive of the issue in the instant action. Zois v. Cooper, 268 B.R. 890, 893 (S.D.N.Y. 2001), aff'd sub nom. In re Zois, 73 F. App'x 509 (2d Cir. 2003). A non-party can be bound by a decision, so long as her interests were “effectively represented.” Zois, 268 B.R. at 893.¹³ As this Court can readily determine from reviewing the pleadings Dershowitz filed in the Florida case, see McCawley Decl. at Ex. 6 & 8, Dershowitz fully briefed identical issues to those presented here. And he was effectively representing Maxwell at the time. The elements of collateral estoppel apply.

¹² Dershowitz specifically argued that (among other illustrations) Cassell’s answers to interrogatories and testimony at his deposition in the case had waived privilege. Ex. 6 at 11-12.

Moreover, entirely apart from collateral estoppel doctrine, Judge Lynch's decision is highly persuasive. Judge Lynch was the presiding judge over the Dershowitz matter, so he was intimately familiar with (for example) what matters were “at issue” in that particular case. Moreover, Judge Lynch is, of course, a Florida judge skilled in applying Florida legal principles. His ruling on whether a waiver of attorney client privilege existed under Florida law should be given heavy weight here. See Elliott Associates, L.P. v. Banco de la Nacion, 194 F.3d 363, 370 (2d Cir. 1999). Finally, Defendant's briefing entirely ignores even the existence of Judge Lynch's ruling. In such circumstances where the Defendant has failed to offer any reason for questioning Judge Lynch's holding, this Court should follow Judge Lynch's lead and hold that no waiver of the attorney-client privilege exists under Florida law. And, because Florida law controlled when the disclosures took place, under Fed. R. Evid. 502(c), no waiver exists in this proceeding.

¹³ Zois relied on New York law. Florida law is to the same effect, as is federal doctrine. See O'Brien v. Fed. Trust Bank, F.S.B., 727 So. 2d 296, 298 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1999) (“Collateral estoppel prevents relitigation of issues where the identical issues previously have been litigated between the parties or their privies.”); Montana v. United States, 440 U.S. 147, 153-54 (1979).

B. Actions by Cassell and Edwards Do Not Waive Ms. Giuffre's Attorney-Client Privilege.

Not only has Judge Lynch already ruled on the attorney-client privilege issue, but his ruling was entirely correct. Defendant's argument rests on the proposition that Cassell and Edwards had authority to waive Ms. Giuffre's privilege while they pursued their Florida defamation action. But in filing their own, personal defamation claims against Dershowitz in a lawsuit where Ms. Giuffre was not a party, Cassell and Edwards were not acting on Ms. Giuffre's behalf. Defendant never attempts to even explain, much less prove, how that defamation action could have benefitted Ms. Giuffre. And Florida law is clear that when attorneys are not acting on the client's behalf, they cannot waive their client's privilege. See Charles W. Ehrhardt, 1 Fla. Prac., Evidence § 502.6 (2015 ed.); Schetter v. Schetter, 239 So.2d 51, 52 (Fla. 4th DCA 1970).

To find that an attorney waived his client's privilege, a clear record must exist concerning the attorney's attorney to waive privilege. See Bus. Integration Servs., Inc. v. AT&T Corp., No. 06 CIV. 1863 (JGK), 2008 WL 318343, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 4, 2008). Here, to the contrary, the record is clear that Ms. Giuffre did not authorize any waiver of her attorney-client privilege. See McCawley Decl., Ex. 13, affidavit of Ms. Giuffre (Ms. Giuffre did not authorize any waiver). Accordingly, under Florida law, Cassell and Edwards' actions did not waive Ms. Giuffre's privilege.¹⁴

The main examples Defendant offers in support of her waiver argument come from a summary judgment motion that Cassell and Edwards filed. See Mot. to Compel at 16. Of course, that motion was filed on their behalf – not Ms. Giuffre’s. To be sure, that motion contained (among other supporting information) a sworn affidavit from Ms. Giuffre.¹⁵ But the routine step of submitting an affidavit is not a waiver of attorney-client protections, as discussed at greater length in Part II.D., infra. And, in any event, Defendant does not include that affidavit among her supporting materials to her motion, much less explain how the recitation of factual information in that affidavit constitutes a waiver by Ms. Giuffre with respect to communications with her attorneys. See Koon v. State, 463 So.2d 201, 203-04 (Fla. 1985) (no waiver when the client merely discloses facts which were part of the communication with the client’s attorney). Ms. Giuffre has not waived her privilege.

C. Ms. Giuffre’s Confidential Communications With Her Attorneys Were Never “At Issue” in the Florida Dershowitz Litigation.

Defendant’s argument that Ms. Giuffre’s attorney-client privilege has been waived under the “at issue” doctrine also fails under Florida law because her confidential communications were never at issue in the Dershowitz litigation.

Florida law on when confidential attorney-client communications are at issue comes from the Florida Supreme Court’s decision in Savino v. Luciano, 92 So.2d 817 (Fla. 1957). There, the Florida Supreme Court announced the test for determining whether confidential communications were “at issue” as whether a claim or defense would “necessarily require that the privileged matter be offered in evidence.” Id. at 819 (emphasis added); see also Diaz–Verson v. Walbridge Aldinger Co., 54 So.3d 1007, 1011 (Fla. 2d DCA 2010). More recent decisions from Florida have emphasized that Savino does not mean that a party waives attorney-client privilege merely by bringing or defending a lawsuit. Coates v. Akerman, Senterfitt & Edison, P.A., 940 So.2d 504 (Fla. 2d DCA 2006). Instead, waiver occurs only when a party “must necessarily use the privilege information to establish its claim or defense.” Id. at 510-11 (emphasis added). Most recently, in Genovese v. Provident Life and Accident Ins. Co., 74 So. 3d 1064, 1069 (Fla. 2011), as revised on denial of reh’g (Nov. 10, 2011), the Florida Supreme Court cited both Coates and Savino to hold that the “at issue” doctrine allows discovery of privileged material only when the holder of the privilege – the client – raises the advice of counsel as a claim or defense in the action and the communication is essential to the claim or defense. Id.

Under these restrictive standards, Ms. Giuffre’s communications were never at issue in her attorneys’ personal, defamation case against Dershowitz. Consider, for example, a typical allegation Cassell and Edwards’ complaint:

Immediately following the filing of what Defendant, Dershowitz, knew to be an entirely proper and well-founded pleading, Dershowitz initiated a massive public media assault on the reputation and character of Bradley J. Edwards and Paul G. Cassell accusing them of intentionally lying in their filing, of having leveled knowingly false accusations against the Defendant, Dershowitz, without ever conducting any investigation of the credibility of the accusations, and of having acted unethically to the extent that their willful misconduct warranted and required disbarment.

McCawley Decl., Ex. 5 at 4 (¶ 17). As is immediately apparent, this allegation does not require an examination of Ms. Giuffre’s confidential communications with her attorneys. Instead, it requires an assessment of Dershowitz’s state of mind with regard to his knowledge of the information that Cassell and Edwards had to support the filing of the allegations. And, as supporting exhibits to the pleadings Cassell and Edwards filed made clear, the adequacy of their investigation could be readily established from many sources that did not have any connection to what Ms. Giuffre may or may not have told them in confidence. See, e.g., McCawley Decl., Ex.

3 at 26-38 (recounting information supporting allegations against Dershowitz, such as sworn testimony from household employees and invocations of the Fifth Amendment by Epstein and his co-conspirators).

To be sure, Dershowitz tried to make an argument that Ms. Giuffre’s communications with her attorneys might have some arguable relevance to the case. But Judge Lynch rejected that very argument – and quite properly so. Relevance is insufficient to waive privilege under Florida law. Guarantee Ins, 300 F.R.D. at 594 (citing Coyne v. Schwartz, Gold, Cohen, Zakarin & Kotler, P.A., 715 So.2d 1021, 1022 (Fla. 4th DCA 1998)). A client does not waive the attorney-client privilege simply because her credibility could be impeached by communications with her former attorney. See Jenney v. Airdata Wiman, Inc., 846 So.2d 664, 668 (Fla. 2d DCA 2003). Accordingly, under Florida law, Ms. Giuffre’s confidential communications with her attorneys were never at issue in the Florida litigation.¹⁶

D. Defendant Has Not Met the Other Requirements for Showing Waiver of Attorney-Client Privilege.

For the foregoing reasons, Defendant has failed to make the required showing for an “at issue” waiver of attorney-client privilege. But even more fundamentally, Defendant has failed to establish other elements necessary to find a waiver of attorney-client privilege. Defendant repeatedly refers to routine litigation actions, such as the filing of in-court affidavits, as a basis for finding some kind of waiver of privilege. See Mot. to Compel at 16. But it is obvious that such actions do not waive attorney-client protection. Litigation requires some limited communication to third parties — including the court and opposing counsel — of information learned in the course of the attorney-client relationship. Therefore, Florida law recognizes an absolute privilege to protect attorneys' statements made in communications that are preliminary to a proposed judicial proceeding, or in the institution of, or during the course and as a part of, a judicial proceeding. Fla. Stat. Ann. § 90.502(2); see also McCullough v. Kubiak, 158 So. 3d 739, 740 (Fla. 4th DCA, 2015). A waiver of the attorney-client privilege occurs only if the client voluntarily discloses in court the substance of a communication with her attorney. See, e.g., Delap v. State, 440 So.2d 1242, 1247 (Fla. 1983) (criminal defendant sought to use in court favorably testimony from his investigator while blocking inquiry into other testimony). No waiver occurs when the client merely discloses facts which were part of the communication with the client's attorney. See Koon v. State, 463 So.2d 201, 203-04 (Fla. 1985); see also Taylor v. State, 855 So.2d 1, 26 n.29 (Fla. 2003). Thus, the privilege attaches to the communication with counsel, not to the underlying facts. Brookings v. State, 495 So.2d 135, 139 (Fla. 1986); see also Lynch v. State, 2 So.3d 47, 66 (Fla. 2008).¹⁷ As a result, allegations that Giuffre disclosed to third parties the same facts that she may have related to Cassell and Edwards, without any evidence that she disclosed the substance of her confidential consultation with Edwards and Cassell, cannot overcome her privilege.¹⁸

To hold otherwise would eviscerate the attorney-client privilege. Such a ruling would mean that every time an attorney filed a declaration by his client that contained the factual basis for the client's claim, the opposing party would have the right to examine all privileged communications. Defendant has not cited any authority either in Florida (or elsewhere) to support his extreme assertion that Ms. Giuffre waived her privilege simply by allowing an affidavit to be filed in a court proceeding.

¹⁷ New York state privilege law is to the same effect. See, e.g., Niesig v. Team I, 76 N.Y.2d 363, 372, 558 N.E.2d 1030, 1034 (1990) (because "the privilege applies only to confidential communications with counsel (see, CPLR 4503), it does not immunize the underlying factual information . . . from disclosure to an adversary").

¹⁸ As an illustration, Defendant notes that in 2011 Ms. Giuffre gave an interview to the Daily Mail. Mot. to Compel at 15. But Defendant does not explain how that interview disclosed any attorney-client communications. And because any such disclosures would have been extrajudicial, they would be narrowly construed. In re von Bulow, 828 F.2d 94, 103 (2d Cir. 1987).

Defendant also claims Cassell, at his deposition in the Dershowitz case, waived attorney-client privilege by discussing factual information related to his investigation of Ms. Giuffre's allegations (for example, flight log information). Cassell's deposition testimony did not constitute a waiver of Ms. Giuffre's attorney-client privilege. Indeed, Ms. Giuffre's own separate attorney (undersigned counsel, Ms. McCawley, from the law firm of Boies, Schiller & Flexner, LLP) raised a standing objection to Cassell answering any question that would require divulging any attorney/client communications. McCawley Decl., Ex. 14, deposition excerpt of Paul Cassell, Volume I, dated Oct. 16, 2015, at 39:24 – 40:2 (“Virginia Roberts does not waive her attorney/client privilege with her lawyers, and they are not entitled to testify as to information that she intended to be confidential that she communicated to her lawyers.”).¹⁹

Defendant also argues that because Cassell said at some (unspecified) point in his deposition that he “knew” some (unidentified) information about Ms. Giuffre, he must have been revealing attorney-client communications. Mot. to Compel at 17 (“Of course, the information [Cassell and Edwards] “knew” about [Ms. Giuffre] was a direct result of her attorney-client communications with them”). But Cassell knew a vast amount of information about Ms. Giuffre from the factual record in the case, such as the flight logs demonstrating flights that she took with Epstein and Defendant on Epstein's jet. Defendant's logic is simply incorrect.

E. Ms. Giuffre Will Not Seek to Use Confidential Attorney-Client Communications in her Action Here.

For all the reasons just explained, Ms. Giuffre has not waived her attorney-client privilege through events that occurred in the Dershowitz case. But one additional point bears emphasis: Defendant attempts to argue that the trial in this case will somehow be unfair if she does not receive access to confidential attorney-client communications that Ms. Giuffre had with her lawyers earlier. Mot. to Compel at 20-21. But regardless of what may or may not have been at issue in the Dershowitz case, confidential communications will not be at issue here. For example, Defendant writes that “[i]t would be prejudicial for [Ms. Giuffre] to be able to support her claim in this case that she is not a liar using her attorney’s testimony” Id. at 21. To be clear, Ms. Giuffre has no intention of calling, for example, Cassell and Edwards to testify at trial in an attempt to support her claims. Thus, this will not be a case where it will be “misleading to the court or any jury to hear testimony from [Ms. Giuffre’s] counsel about all the factual basis, work product and thought process on which they relied in making the allegations in the Joinder Motion,” Mot. to Compel at 22, for the simple reason that that Ms. Giuffre’s counsel will not be witnesses in the case. Nor will Ms. Giuffre be presenting a “state of mind” defense that might require a more extensive inquiry into attorney-client communications. See In re Cty. of Erie, 546 F.3d 222, 229 (2d Cir. 2008) (noting absence of good faith or state of mind issues as a reason for not finding “at issue” waiver of privilege); Nomura Asset Capital Corp. v. Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, 62 A.D.3d 581, 582, 880 N.Y.S.2d 617, 618-20 (N.Y. App. Div. 2009) (finding no waiver where plaintiff disavowed any intention to use confidential attorney-client communications; relevance alone insufficient to put privileged materials “at issue” because, “if that were the case, a privilege would have little effect”).

¹⁹ In her “excerpts” from Cassell's deposition, Defendant has not included this portion. See Menninger Dec., Ex. L.

To be sure, at trial Ms. Giuffre will present factual testimony supporting her version of events – just as, no doubt, Defendant will try to present testimony supporting her version. But such testimony (from both sides) does not create any waiver of attorney-client privilege. Instead, such testimony is simply the presentation of competing facts, from which the jury can decide who is telling the truth. None of this creates any need for Defendant to force Ms. Giuffre to reveal confidential communications.

II. MS. GIUFFRE DID NOT WAIVE HER ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE BY DENYING FABRICATED EVIDENCE DURING HER DEPOSITION.

Defendant spends significant time arguing that Ms. Giuffre's answers to several deposition questions about the absence of any communications from Cassell and Edwards that she provide false information constituted a waiver of attorney client privilege. Mot. to Compel at 11 (arguing that "never" answer to the question "Has Brad [Edwards] ever pressured you or encouraged you in any way or under any circumstances at any time to provide false information about Jeffrey Epstein" constituted a waiver of attorney-client privilege). While the arguments above are sufficient to dispose of this claim, it is worth emphasizing several additional points about this specific testimony.

First, disclosing the absence of communication is not the same as exposing any communication. It is a fundamental requirement of a waiver argument that a communication be exposed, see Fla. Stat. Ann. § 90.502 (extending privilege to a "communication between lawyer and client"), not the absence of such a communication. See Montanez v. Publix Super Markets, Inc., 135 So. 3d 510, 512-13 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 2014) (rejecting argument that client waived her attorney-client privilege by stating that an interrogatory answer was not "her" answer because this did not disclose the substance of her communications with her attorney). Cf. Mitchell v. Superior Court, 37 Cal. 3d 591, 602, 691 P.2d 642, 647 (Cal. 1984) ("Relevant case law makes it clear that mere disclosure of the fact that a communication between client and attorney had occurred does not amount to disclosure of the specific content of that communication, and as such does not necessarily constitute a waiver of the privilege.").

Second, the questions highlighted by Defendant asked Ms. Giuffre whether she had ever communicated with her attorneys Cassell and Edwards for purposes of committing a crime or fraud. See Mot. to Compel at 11 (recounting questions). If such a communication involving perjury had existed, it would not have been covered by the attorney-client privilege in the first instance because it would have involved an on-going crime or fraud. See Fla. Stat. Ann. § 90.502(4) (“There is no lawyer-client privilege under this section when . . . [t]he services of the lawyer were sought or obtained to enable or aid anyone to commit or plan to commit what the client knew was a crime or fraud.”).²⁰ Answering those questions by denying the existence of a crime or fraud accordingly did not constitute waiver of confidentiality over any otherwise-protected communication. Indeed, any other conclusion would essentially abolish the attorney-client privilege. A party could simply accuse the opposing side of fabricating evidence and, when that accusation was denied, argue that attorney-client privilege had been waived. This is not the law.

Finally, it is important to note that throughout her deposition, Ms. Giuffre’s attorney strenuously objected to any effort by Dershowitz to obtain attorney-client information. See McCawley Decl., Exhibit 11, Composite Exhibit of Deposition Excerpts from the Deposition of Virginia Giuffre at 131-32; 173-74; 183; 200-12.²¹ Clearly, at her deposition, Ms. Giuffre did not voluntarily waive any attorney-client privilege she held.

²¹ Once again, these objections are not included in Defendant’s excerpts from the deposition.

III. EDWARDS AND CASSELL HAVE NOT WAIVED WORK-PRODUCT PROTECTION AND MAXWELL HAS NOT DEMONSTRATED NEED TO PENETRATE THE PROTECTION.

A. Work Product Protection Has Not Been Waived.

For many of the same reasons that Ms. Giuffre has not waived her attorney-client privilege, the work-product protection has not been waived. Fed. R. Evid. 502’s protections against waiver apply not only to the attorney-client privilege but also to the work-product doctrine. On the facts of this case, Rule 502 thus extends all work-product protections that exist “under the law of the state where the disclosure occurred,” Fed. R. Evid. 502(c)(2) – i.e., Florida law – as well as the protection that exists under federal law, Fed. R. Evid. 502(c)(1).

Florida law provides that work-product protections extend to “documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable” if a party prepared those items “in anticipation of litigation or for trial.” Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.280(b)(3). The rationale supporting the work-product doctrine is that one party is not entitled to prepare his case through the investigative work product of his adversary where the same or similar information is available through ordinary investigative techniques and discovery procedures. Universal City Development Partners, Ltd. v. Pupillo, 54 So.3d 612, 614 (Fla. 5th DCA, 2011). The work-product of the litigant, his attorney or agent, cannot be examined, absent rare and exceptional circumstances. Surf Drugs, Inc. v. Vermette, 236 So.2d 108, 112 (Fla. 1970).

In Florida (as elsewhere), a party “can make a limited waiver of its . . . work product privilege.” Paradise Divers, Inc. v. Upmal, 943 So. 2d 812, 814 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 2006). A waiver by disclosure only includes “other unrevealed communications only to the extent that they are relevant to the communication already disclosed.” Id. (citing Eastern Air Lines, Inc. v. Gellert, 431 So.2d 329, 332 (Fla. 3d DCA 1983)). Waiver by disclosure does “not mean . . . that voluntary disclosure of confidential information effectively waives the privilege as to all conversations, or the whole breadth of discussion which may have taken place.” Procacci v. Seitlin, 497 So. 2d 969, 969-70 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1986) (citing Goldman, Sachs & Co. v. Blondis, 412 F.Supp. 286, 288 (N.D.Ill.1976)). Instead, waiver by disclosure is confined to “that specific subject during that particular conversation.” Procacci, 497 So. 2d at 970 (quoting Perrignon v. Bergen Brunswig Corp., 77 F.R.D. 455, 461 (N.D. Cal.1978)).²²

As with her attorney-client privilege argument, Defendant has not even cited Florida law on waiver of work-product protection, much less explained how she meets its demanding requirements. Moreover, the illustrations she provides do not prove any general waiver of work-product protection. For example, Defendant relies on the claim that Cassell and Edwards have waived work-product protection by disclosing a transcript of a portion of a 2011 telephone interview with Ms. Giuffre by attorneys Jack Scarola and Brad Edwards. But that recorded interview was never a confidential communication between Mr. Giuffre and the lawyers, but rather (as the transcript of the call itself makes clear) a communication that could be presented “to any jury that might ultimately have to hear these facts.” McCawley Decl., Ex. 15 at 1, transcript of Scarola/Edwards interview on April 7, 2011 (emphasis added). In other words, the recorded call was simply the functional equivalent of an affidavit – and affidavits are routinely disclosed with waiving work product protections, under the law of Florida and elsewhere.

Defendant also argues that Cassell and Edwards waived work-product protection by filing a summary judgment motion in the Dershowitz case which contained supporting exhibits (e.g., flight logs, sworn testimony by third-party witnesses, and other evidence). Mot. to Compel at 16. But providing information in support of a summary judgment motion is a routine step that attorneys take every day. While the materials produced are obviously not subject to work product protection, other materials and communications do not somehow become subject to discovery. Paradise Divers, Inc., 943 So. 2d at 814.

B. Defendant Has Not Proven “Need” to Penetrate Work-Product Protection.

Defendant’s argument on work product protection also simply assumes that it is the same as the attorney-client privilege and can be waived under an “at issue theory.” But the “at issue” legal theory Defendant relies on to argue (incorrectly) that attorney-client privilege has been waived applies only to that privilege. The work product doctrine is quite distinct from attorney-client privilege, and application of the privileges and exceptions to them differ. See West Bend Mutual Ins. Co. v. Higgins, 9 So.3d 655, 656 (Fla. 5th DCA 2009); Genovese v. Provident Life & Accident Ins. Co., 74 So. 3d 1064, 1068 (Fla. 2011), as revised on denial of reh’g (2011). The function of the work product doctrine is to protect counsel’s mental impressions. West Bend Mutual, 9 So.3d at 656. To pierce the privilege, Defendant must show “that the substantial equivalent of the material cannot be obtained by other means.” Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Deason, 632 So.2d 1377, 1385 (Fla.1994). Defendant has not even identified any specific work-product she claims to need, much less shown why she cannot get the underlying information from other sources.

Under the law of Florida (and elsewhere²³), to establish “need,” a party must present testimony or evidence demonstrating the material requested is critical to the theory of the requestor's case, or to some significant aspect of the case. Zirkelbach Const. Inc. v. Rajan, 93 So.3d 1124, 1130 (Fla. 2d DCA 2012). “[W]ell established in Florida is the principle that the unsworn analysis of a party’s attorney and/or a bare assertion of need and undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent [is] insufficient to satisfy this showing.” Butler v. Harter, 152 So.3d 705, 712 (Fla. 1st DCA, 2014); see Procter & Gamble Co. v. Swilley, 462 So.2d 1188, 1194 (Fla. 1st DCA 1985); State v. T.A., 528 So.2d 974, 975 (Fla. 2d DCA, 1988) (“[R]epresentations by counsel not made under oath and not subject to cross-examination, absent a stipulation, are not evidence). Further, Florida courts have held that “the showing of need encompasses a showing of diligence by the party seeking discovery of another party’s work product.” Butler v. Harter, 152 So.3d 705, 712 (Fla. 1st DCA, 2014); see also CSX Transp., Inc. v. Carpenter, 725 So.2d 434, 435 (Fla. 2d DCA 1999) (quashing order granting motion to compel discovery because the record did not contain affidavits supporting plaintiff’s argument that it was unable to obtain the substantially equivalent information by other means without undue hardship); Falco v. N. Shore Labs. Corp., 866 So.2d 1255, 1257 (Fla. 1st DCA 2004) (holding that need and undue hardship “must be demonstrated by affidavit or sworn testimony”); N. Broward Hosp. Dist. v. Button, 592 So.2d 367, 368 (Fla. 4th DCA 1992), (“[T]he unsworn assertions of plaintiff’s counsel were insufficient to constitute a showing of need and undue hardship.”), called into doubt on other grounds as stated in Columbia Hosp. Corp. of S. Broward v. Fain, 16 So.3d 236 (Fla. 4th DCA 2009).

Here, Defendant has ample information from which she can present her case. At the core of this case is whether Ms. Giuffre “lied” when she said that the Defendant recruited her to be sexually abused by Jeffrey Epstein. Defendant can, of course, testify to her interactions with Ms. Giuffre, as well as call other witnesses regarding the circumstances of those interactions.

Defendant can also get information from her close friend, Epstein, about the circumstances of the interactions. Defendant and Epstein are not only good friends but they have a “common interest agreement” that facilitates transfer of information between the two of them. Finally, to make her showing that she is unable to obtain “equivalent information” from other sources, Defendant would have to explain in detail what other steps she has taken to secure information from other sources, including not only Epstein but other witnesses present at Epstein’s mansion. Having failed to do any of this, Defendant has not made a sufficient showing to obtain work-product information. Pupillo, 54 So.3d at 614.

IV. COMMUNICATIONS WITH ATTORNEY JACK SCAROLA ARE COVERED BY A JOINT DEFENSE AGREEMENT AND ARE THUS PROTECTED BY ATTORNEY-CLIENT AND WORK-PRODUCTION PROTECTION.

As a tag-along argument at the end of her motion, Defendant argues that Ms. Giuffre has not established the existence of a common interest or joint defense agreement that embraces Jack Scarola, the attorney for Cassell and Edwards in the Dershowitz litigation. Mot. to Compel at 23-24. Disclosure of that agreement involved notice to the parties to the agreement. Now that appropriate notice has been provided, the agreement can be – and has been – disclosed. See McCawley Decl., Ex. 16, common interest agreement. In view of the existence of the valid agreement, it is clear that the referenced communications involving Scarola are protected. See, e.g., Giuffre v. Maxwell, No. 15 CIV. 7433 (RWS), 2016 WL 1756918, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. May 2, 2016) (noting common interest agreement protection) (citing GUS Consulting GMBH v. Chadbourne & Parke LLP, 20 Misc. 3d 539, 542, 858 N.Y.S.2d 591, 593 (Sup. Ct. 2008)).

CONCLUSION

Defendant’s motion to compel should be denied in its entirety.

1 A I believe this is when I was hoping to
2 join the CVRA case.

3 Q All right. And do you know when this
4 document was filed?

5 And actually, just to be clear, about
6 halfway there's actually a second document that was
7 filed. So this is a composite exhibit. Let me be
8 very clear.

9 So after page 14 -- I'm sorry, 13, there's
10 a second document that is styled Jane Doe #3 and Jane
11 Doe #4's Corrected Motion Pursuant to Rule 21 for 12 Joinder In Action.

13 Do you see that?

14 A Did you say page 14?

15 Q It is on the 14th page of this document.

16 Do you see that?

17 A I do.

18 Q And so this composite Exhibit 2 has both a
19 motion and a corrected motion.

20 Do you see that?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And were both of those pleadings
23 authorized by you to be filed?

24 A Yes.

25 Q In other words, you wanted to join the

1 CVRA action in or about December 30th, 2014, correct?

2 A I -- I'm not aware of the exact dates.

3 There's no dates on this. But I did try to join the
4 motion, yes.

5 Q All right. If you can look at the top
6 line of the document.

7 A Yes.

8 Q Does it say, Entered on FLSD --

9 A Oh, it does, too, I'm sorry, yes.

10 Q That's all right. So does that refresh
11 your memory as to about when you first sought to join
12 the CVRA action?

13 A Yes.

14 Q December 30th, 2014, correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And the corrected motion was filed a few
17 days later, correct?

18 A Yes, correct.

19 Q If I could turn to Defendant's Exhibit 3,
20 which was January 21st.

21 (Exhibit 3 marked.)

22 MR. EDWARDS: Thank you.

23 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recognize this
24 document?

25 A Yes, I do.

1 physical features of Ghislaine Maxwell?

2 A I can tell you that she had very large
3 natural breasts. I can tell you that her pubic hair
4 was dark brown, nearly black. I don't remember any
5 specific birthmarks or moles that I could point out
6 that would be relevant.

7 Q Any scar?

8 A I don't remember any scars.

9 Q Any tattoos?

10 A No tattoos.

11 Q When did you next go to the El Brillo
12 house?

13 A I believe it would have been the next day.

14 Q You believe it would have been or was it?

15 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

16 A I know that it was consecutive, that I
17 continued to go there after my first -- the first
18 time that the abuse took place there. It was 19 consecutive that I was there, I believe, over the
20 next course of weeks.

21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) What day of the week
22 was the first time you went?

23 A I don't know.

24 Q Do you know whether you went the very next
25 day or not?

1 A I believe I did.

2 Q All right. How did you get there the very
3 next day?

4 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

5 A I believe my dad dropped me off again.

6 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) When you say you
7 believe, do you recall him doing that or are you
8 guessing?

9 A I don't -- well, this is how I figure
10 this. I don't remember Ghislaine picking me up from 11 Mar-a-Lago. I didn't have my own car. So the only
12 way I could have really gotten there would have been
13 my dad picking me up -- I mean, sorry, dropping me
14 off.

15 Q Do you have a distinct recollection of 16 your father dropping you off there more than one day
17 in a row?

18 A Yes.

19 Q You do not recall the car he was driving?

20 A Like I said, he always drove trucks.

21 That's as good as I can get.

22 Q And so -- and you worked on weekends as
23 well at Mar-a-Lago or no?

24 A No.

25 Q So the second day would have had to be

1 A I wouldn't say directly.

2 Q How --

3 A I'd say I stayed with my parents for --
4 like, I think I finished school at Crestwood. So I
5 would have been in, I don't know, I guess eighth
6 grade, finished eighth grade. And then -- I don't
7 know. I really don't know. Around eighth grade.

8 Q You went to Growing Together?

9 A I think -- I think it was then.

10 Q And how many years did you live at Growing
11 Together?

12 A Over a year.

13 Q Were you ever in foster care?

14 A What Growing Together was, was like a
15 group home that sent you away to foster parents every
16 night.

17 Q So you lived in other people's homes
18 during the period of time you were assigned to
19 Growing Together?

20 A Well, you stayed at Growing Together
21 during the day and then at night you get sent home
22 with parents.

23 Q Did you go to school while you were at
24 Growing Together?

25 A Yeah, they offer education there.

1 Q So the education was at Growing Together?

2 A Yeah.

3 Q You did not attend a Palm Beach County --

4 A I did, but you had to earn your levels up
5 to be able to go outside. So I don't remember what
6 level you have to get up to, to go out to another
7 school. I think there was like seven levels or
8 something. And you had to make it to, like, level 4
9 to be able to go to outside school.

10 Q So for some period of time you were
11 assigned to Growing Together and you were going to 12 school at Growing Together. And for some period of 13 time you were going to other schools and coming back
14 to Growing Together?

15 A Correct.

16 Q And then when you came back to Growing
17 Together, you were sent to spend the night at a
18 family's home?

19 A Yes.

20 Q So you never slept at Growing Together?

21 A No.

22 Q Did you live -- other than living at or
23 staying at Growing Together during the day and
24 sleeping at these other homes at night, is there
25 anywhere else that you recall living in the period

1 a 3. I think it's [REDACTED]

2 [REDACTED]. I really can't make out
3 the telephone number.

4 Q Okay. Do you see Relationship? Can you
5 read that?

6 A Friend.

7 Q Okay. Do you see just below that there's
8 a line that says number 21?

9 A Do not stop -- sorry, Do not sign
10 application until requested to do so by
11 administering an oath.

12 Q Okay.

13 A Applicant's signature age 13 or older.

14 Q Oh, it's by the signature line?

15 A Yeah.

16 Q And that's your signature?

17 A Yes.

18 Q All right. And this is the document that
19 you recall filling out for your first passport?

20 A I don't recall doing it, but yes, it's in 21 my handwriting and it's got all of my information on
22 it.

23 Q Okay. And on line -- box 23 it's got your
24 driver's license checked off, right?

25 A July 23. Yeah, I really can't make out

1 And when they say massage, that means erotic, okay?
2 That's their term for it. I think there are plenty
3 of other witnesses that can attest to what massage
4 actually means.

5 And I'm telling you that Ghislaine told me
6 to go to Glenn Dubin and give him a massage, which 7 means sex.

8 Q Okay. So Glenn -- Ghislaine Maxwell told
9 you to go give a massage to Glenn Dubin?

10 A Correct.

11 Q That's your testimony?

12 A That is my testimony.

13 Q All right. Ghislaine Maxwell told you to 14 go give a massage to [REDACTED], correct?

15 A Correct.

16 Q Ghislaine Maxwell told you to give a
17 massage to Prince Andrew, correct?

18 A Correct.

19 Q Ghislaine Maxwell told you to give a
20 massage to Bill Richardson, correct?

21 A Correct.

22 Q When did Ghislaine Maxwell tell you to 23 give a massage to Bill Richardson?

24 A I don't know dates.

25 Q Where were you?

1 A When it happened?

2 Q When Ghislaine Maxwell used the words, Go
3 give a massage to Bill Richardson, where were you?

4 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
5 Mischaracterizes her testimony.

6 A I can't tell you where we were. I know
7 where I was sent to. I don't know where we were when
8 she told me to do that.

9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Where were you sent
10 to --

11 A New Mexico.

12 Q -- by Ghislaine Maxwell?

13 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
14 Mischaracterizes her testimony again.

15 A Are you smiling at me because --

16 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) No, I'm asking you to
17 answer the question.

18 A I have answered the question. I was sent
19 to New Mexico.

20 Q Okay. Where were you sent from?

21 A I already answered that. I don't know
22 where I was sent from.

23 Q Okay.

24 A I was flying everywhere with these people.

25 Q Where were you sent by Ghislaine Maxwell

1 to have sex with Jean Luc Brunel?

2 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

3 Mischaracterized her testimony.

4 A Many places.

5 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Ghislaine Maxwell sent
6 you to many places to have sex with Jean Luc Brunel?

7 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

8 A It happened at many places, yes.

9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You had sex with Jean
10 Luc Brunel at many places is what you're saying,
11 correct?

12 A I was sent to Jean Luc Brunel at many
13 places to have sex with him.

14 Q When did Ghislaine Maxwell send you to a
15 place to have sex with Jean Luc Brunel?

16 A You are asking --

17 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

18 A -- me to answer the impossible.

19 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. When did
20 Ghislaine Maxwell send you to have sex with the owner
21 of a large hotel chain?

22 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

23 Mischaracterization.

24 A I'm going to keep answering the questions
25 the same way that I keep answering them. I don't

1 know where it was when she said to go do this.

2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. Where were you
3 sent to have sex with the owner of a large hotel
4 chain by Ghislaine Maxwell?

5 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

6 A I believe that was one time in France.

7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Which time in France?

8 A I believe it was around the same time that
9 Naomi Campbell had a birthday party.

10 Q Where did you have sex with the owner of a
11 large hotel chain in France around the time of Naomi
12 Campbell's birthday party?

13 A In his own cabana townhouse thing. It was
14 part of a hotel, but I wouldn't call it a hotel.

15 Jeffrey was staying there. Ghislaine was
16 staying there. Emmy was staying there. I was
17 staying there. This other guy was staying there. I
18 don't know his name.

19 I was instructed by Ghislaine to go and
20 give him an erotic massage.

21 Q She used the words erotic massage?

22 A No, that's my word. The word massage is
23 what they would use. That's their code word.

24 Q Was she in the room when you gave this
25 erotic massage to the owner of a large hotel chain?

1 A No, she was not in the room. She was in
2 another cabana.

3 Q And other than telling you to go give the
4 owner of this large hotel chain a massage, do you
5 remember any other words she used to you to direct
6 you in what you should do?

7 A Not at the time, no.

8 Q Where did -- where were you and where was
9 Ms. Maxwell when she directed you to go have sex with
10 Marvin Minsky?

11 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

12 A I don't know.

13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Where did you go to
14 have sex with Marvin Minsky?

15 A I believe it was the U.S. Virgin Islands,
16 Jeff's -- sorry, Jeffrey Epstein's island in the U.S.
17 Virgin Islands.

18 Q And when was that?

19 A I don't know.

20 Q Do you have any time of year?

21 A No.

22 Q Do you know how old you were?

23 A No.

24 Q Other than Glenn Dubin, [REDACTED],
25 Prince Andrew, Jean Luc Brunel, Bill Richardson,

1 another prince, the large hotel chain owner and
2 Marvin Minsky, is there anyone else that Ghislaine
3 Maxwell directed you to go have sex with?

4 A I am definitely sure there is. But can I
5 remember everybody's name? No.

6 Q Okay. Can you remember anything else
7 about them?

8 A Look, I've given you what I know right
9 now. I'm sorry. This is very hard for me and very
10 frustrating to have to go over this. I don't -- I
11 don't recall all of the people. There was a large
12 amount of people that I was sent to.

13 Q Do you have any notes of all these people
14 that you were sent to?

15 A No, I don't.

16 Q Where are your notes?

17 A I burned them.

18 Q When did you burn them?

19 A In a bonfire when I lived at Titusville
20 because I was sick of going through this shit.

21 Q Did you have lawyers who were representing 22 you at the time you built a bonfire and burned these
23 notes?

24 A I've been represented for a long time, but
25 it was not under the instruction of my lawyers to do

1 this. My husband and I were pretty spiritual people
2 and we believed that these memories were worth
3 burning.

4 Q So you burned notes of the men with whom
5 you had sex while you were represented by counsel in
6 litigation, correct?

7 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

8 A This wasn't anything that was a public
9 document. This was my own private journal, and I
10 didn't want it anymore. So we burned it.

11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) When did you write
12 that journal?

13 A Just over time. I started writing it
14 probably in, I don't know, I can't speculate, 2012,
15 2011.

16 Q So you did not write this journal at the 17 time it happened?

18 A No.

19 Q You started writing this journal
20 approximately a decade after you claim you finished
21 being sexually trafficked, correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And you started writing a journal after
24 you had a lawyer, correct?

25 A Correct.

1 Q Including Mr. Edwards, who is sitting
2 right here, correct?

3 A Correct.

4 Q What did that journal look like?

5 A It was green.

6 Q And what else?

7 A It was just a spiral notebook.

8 Q Okay. And what did you put into that
9 green spiral notebook?

10 A Bad memories. Things that I've gone
11 through, lots of things, you know. I can't tell you.
12 There was a lot of pages. It was over 300 pages in
13 that book.

14 Q Did you ever show that book to your
15 lawyers?

16 A No.

17 Q Did you show that book to anyone?

18 A My husband.

19 Q Did you show it to anyone else besides
20 your husband?

21 A No.

22 Q Did you tear out pages and give them to
23 Sharon Churcher?

24 A No, I wrote -- those pages that you're
25 talking about, I wrote for her specifically. She

1 wanted to know about the Prince Andrew incident.

2 Q So that's a different piece of paper?

3 A Yeah, that's just random paper.

4 Q So you had a green spiral notebook that
5 you began sometime in 2011 or 2012 in which you wrote
6 down your recollections about what had happened to
7 you, and you burned that in a bonfire in 2013.

8 Did I get that right?

9 A You got that right.

10 Q And do you have no other names of people
11 to whom you claim Ghislaine Maxwell directed you to
12 have sex, correct?

13 A At this time, no.

14 Q Is there any document that would refresh
15 your recollection that you could look at?

16 A If you have a document you'd like to show
17 me, I would be glad to look at it and tell you the 18 names I recognize off of that.

19 Q I'm just asking you if there's a document
20 you know of that has this list of names in it?

21 A Not in front of me, no.

22 Q Where is the original of the photograph
23 that has been widely circulated in the press of you
24 with Prince Andrew?

25 A I probably still have it. It's not in my

1 possession right now.

2 Q Where is it?

3 A Probably in some storage boxes.

4 Q Where?

5 A In Sydney.

6 Q Where in Sydney?

7 A At some family's house. We got the boxes
8 shipped to Australia, and they were picked up off the
9 porch by my nephews and brought to their house.

10 Q Which is where?

11 A In Sydney.

12 Q Where in Sydney?

13 A [REDACTED]

14 Q And who lives in that house?

15 A Well, it's owned by my mother-in-law and
16 father-in-law, but my nephews live in the house.

17 Q What are their names?

18 A I'm not giving you the names of my
19 nephews.

20 Q What's the address of the house?

21 A Why would you want that?

22 Q I want to know where the photograph is.

23 I'm asking you where the photograph is. And you've
24 just told me it's somewhere in [REDACTED]?

25 A Yes.

1 Q So where in [REDACTED] is the photograph
2 located?

3 A If I can't 100 percent say that the
4 photograph is there, it could be at my house that I
5 presently live in. I'm not going to give you the
6 address of my nephews' residence.

7 Q When is the last time you saw the
8 photograph in person?

9 A When I packed and left America.

10 Q Colorado?

11 A Yes.

12 Q All right. So you had that photograph
13 here with you in Colorado?

14 A Yes.

15 Q What's on the back of the photograph?

16 A I'm sorry?

17 Q Is there anything on the back of the
18 photograph?

19 A There's like the date it was printed, but
20 no writing or anything.

21 Q Okay. Does it say where it was printed?

22 A I don't believe so. I think it just -- I
23 don't remember. I just remember there's a date on
24 it.

25 Q Whose camera was it taken with?

1 A My little yellow Kodak camera.

2 Q Who took the picture?

3 A Jeffrey Epstein.

4 Q And where did you have it developed?

5 A I believe when I got back to America.

6 Q So where?

7 A I don't know.

8 Q Palm Beach?

9 A I don't know.

10 Q What is the date the photograph was
11 printed?

12 A I believe it's in March 2001.

13 Q Okay.

14 A But that's just off of my photographic
15 memory. I don't -- it could be different, but I
16 think it's March 2001.

17 Q You have a photographic memory?

18 A I'm not saying I have a photographic
19 memory. But if I'd look at the back of the photo and
20 I remember what it says, I believe it was March 2001.

21 Q Did the photograph ever leave your
22 possession for a while?

23 A I gave it to the FBI.

24 Q Okay. And when did you get it back?

25 A When they took copies of it.

1 Q When was that?

2 A 2011.

3 Q When they came to interview you?

4 A Yes.

5 Q So from 2011 until you left Colorado it
6 was in your personal possession?

7 A Yes.

8 Q What other documents related to this case
9 are in that, storage boxes in Australia?

10 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

11 A Documents related to this case -- there --
12 I don't know. I really can't tell you. I mean,
13 there's seven boxes full of Nerf guns, my kids' toys,
14 photos. I don't know what other documents would be
15 in there.

16 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did anyone search
17 those documents after you received discovery requests
18 from us in this case?

19 A I haven't been able to obtain those boxes.
20 I can't get them sent back up to me. It's going to 21 cost me a large amount of money. And right now I'm
22 trying to look after my family, so I'm not able to
23 afford to get them up.

24 Q You live in Australia, correct?

25 A I do.

1 read it.

2 MS. MENNINGER: We're going off the
3 record.

4 MR. EDWARDS: Yeah, that's fine. She'll
5 read.

6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: That concludes today's
7 proceedings. We're off the record at 5:28.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
VIRGINIA L. GIUFFRE,
Plaintiff,
v.
GHISLAINE MAXWELL,
Defendant.
-----X

15-cv-07433-RWS

DEFENDANT’S RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO EXCEED PRESUMPTIVE TEN DEPOSITION LIMIT

Laura A. Menninger
Jeffrey S. Pagliuca
HADDON, MORGAN, AND FOREMAN, P.C.
East 10th Avenue
Denver, CO 80203
303.831.7364

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell (“Ms. Maxwell”) files this Response in Opposition to Plaintiff’s Motion to Exceed Presumptive Ten Deposition Limit, and states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

Despite having taken only three depositions to date, Plaintiff prematurely requests permission to exceed the presumptive ten deposition limit imposed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(a)(2)(A)(i) and to conduct 17 separate depositions, almost twice the limit. Without legal support, Plaintiff attempts to conflate the presumptive time limitation for each deposition of seven hours with a right to take a total of 70 hours of depositions. This is an absurd reading of the Federal Rules. The presumptive ten deposition limitation is an independent limitation, and speaks to the number of separate deponents, not deposition time. Indeed, the two independent limitations do not even appear in the same section of the rules.

The heart of Plaintiff’s argument is that Ms. Maxwell inconveniently testified and denied Plaintiff’s claims, rather than invoking the Fifth Amendment. This dashed Plaintiff’s apparent hope to obtain an adverse inference, rather than actually having to prove her case against Ms. Maxwell. Instead, Ms. Maxwell fully testified for the entire 7 hours, responded to all questions posed to her,¹ and testified based on her actual knowledge. Ms. Maxwell’s testimony simply bears no relevance to Plaintiff’s request to take more than 10 depositions of non-party witnesses.

Conspicuously absent from Plaintiff’s motion are (a) any actual information she believes these witnesses may provide which is neither cumulative nor duplicative of other information already disclosed in this case, (b) the fact the information can be obtained from other sources, and (c) facts demonstrating that the burden and expense of the discovery is justified by the needs of this case. Indeed, she has not established that the testimony is even relevant to the actual issues in this matter. Plaintiff's inability to establish these factors requires denial of the motion.

¹ Plaintiff flatly mis-represents to the Court that Ms. Maxwell “refused” to answer the questions posed to her, as the actual transcript amply demonstrates. Ms. Maxwell did not avoid any questions and answered all questions to the best of her recollection relating to alleged events 15 years ago. The majority of the bullet point “summary” of the matters about which Ms. Maxwell could not testify were based either on a lack of any personal knowledge or the fact that the events claimed by Plaintiff did not actually happen.

I. PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST IS PREMATURE

First, the request to exceed the presumptive ten-deposition limit is premature. “[C]ourts generally will not grant leave to expand the number of depositions until the moving party has exhausted the ten depositions permitted as of right under Rule 30(a)(2)(A) or the number stipulated to by the opposing party.” Gen. Elec. Co. v. Indem. Ins. Co. of N. Am., No. 3:06-CV-232 (CFD), 2006 WL 1525970, at *2 (D. Conn. May 25, 2006).

This guideline makes sense because a “moving party must not only justify those depositions it wishes to take, but also the depositions it has already taken.” Id. (citing Barrow v. Greenville Indep. Sch. Dist., 202 F.R.D. 480, 482 (N.D.Tex. 2001)). This rule is in place because “a party could indirectly circumvent the cap on depositions by exhausting the maximum allotted number to those that she could not justify under the Rule 26(b)(2) standards, and then seek[] leave to exceed the limit in order to take depositions that she could substantiate.” Id. at 483.

Here, Plaintiff seeks a pre-emptive determination that she should be permitted 17 depositions, almost twice the presumptive limit, yet her proposed depositions are not calculated to lead to admissible evidence in this case. By way of example, Plaintiff identifies Nadia Marcinkova, Sarah Kellen (a/k/a Sarah Kensington or Sarah Vickers), and Jeffrey Epstein as alleged “co-conspirators” with each other. She requests the depositions of each. Plaintiff anticipates each will invoke the Fifth Amendment – in other words, she will not obtain any discoverable information from them.

Plaintiff makes a bizarre argument that somehow this testimony can be used to create an adverse inference against Ms. Maxwell,² despite the fact that Ms. Maxwell did not invoke the Fifth Amendment and she testified fully and answered every question posed to her with the only exception the irrelevant and harassing questions Plaintiff posed to her concerning her adult, consensual sexual activities. In other words, depositions of Marcincova, Kellen and Epstein would serve Plaintiff's goal to make a convoluted legal argument, not to actually seek discoverable information. In light of this, the "burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the parties' resources, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues." Atkinson v. Goord, No. 01 CIV. 0761 LAKHBP, 2009 WL 890682, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 2, 2009); Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). If Plaintiff chooses to use her depositions in this manner, she risks utilizing three of her available 10 depositions for an illegitimate purpose. She should not be rewarded with a pre-emptive carte blanche in advance to take additional depositions.

II. THE PROPOSED DEPOSITIONS ARE CUMULATIVE, DUPLICATIVE, AND NOT RELEVANT TO THE CENTRAL ISSUES OF THE DISPUTE

Plaintiff has not met the requisite showing to permit in excess of 10 depositions. In Sigala v. Spikouris, 00 CV 0983(ILG), 2002 WL 721078 at *3 (E.D.N.Y. Mar. 7, 2002), the Court set forth the general principles relevant to a party's application to conduct more than ten depositions:

² Invocation of the Fifth Amendment by a third party witness cannot be used to create an adverse inference against a party in a civil action. See United States v. Dist. Council of New York City & Vicinity of United Bhd. of Carpenters & Joiners of Am., No. 90 CIV. 5722 (CSH), 1993 WL 159959, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. May 12, 1993) ("the general rule [is] that an individual's claim of Fifth Amendment protection is personal, and does not give rise to adverse inferences against others."); Brenner v. World Boxing Council, 675 F.2d 445, 454 n. 7 (2d Cir.), cert denied, 459 U.S. 835 (1982) ("Furthermore, since King was a non-party witness, no adverse inference against appellees could have been drawn from his refusal to testify.").

The Federal Rules presumptively limit the number of depositions that each side may conduct to ten. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 30(a)(2) (A) (“A party must obtain leave of court, which shall be granted to the extent consistent with the principles stated in Rule 26(b)(2), if ... a proposed deposition would result in more than ten depositions being taken”); accord Universal City Studios v. Reimerdes, 104 F.Supp.2d 334, 342 (S.D.N.Y.2000); Landry v. St. James Parish Sch. Bd., No. Civ. A 99-1438, 2000 WL 1741886, at *2 (E.D.La. Nov. 22, 2000). The purpose of Rule 30(a)(2)(A) is to “enable courts to maintain a ‘tighter rein’ on the extent of discovery and to minimize the potential cost of ‘[w]ide-ranging discovery’” Whittingham v. Amherst Coll., 163 F.R.D. 170, 171-72 (D.Mass.1995) (citation omitted). Accordingly, “[t]he mere fact that many individuals may have discoverable information does not necessarily entitle a party to depose each such individual.” Dixon v. Certainteed Corp., 164 F.R.D. 685, 692 (D.Kan.1996).

“The factors relevant to determining whether a party should be entitled to more than ten depositions are now set forth in Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(2)(C)³ and include whether (1) the discovery sought is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative or can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less extensive, (2) the party seeking discovery has had ample opportunity to obtain the information by discovery in the action, and (3) the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the parties' resources, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.” Atkinson, 2009 WL 890682, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 2, 2009) (internal quotations omitted).

³ Rule 26(b)(1) has since been modified to read “(i) the discovery sought is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, or can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive; (ii) the party seeking discovery has had ample opportunity to obtain the information by discovery in the action; or (iii) the proposed discovery is outside the scope permitted by Rule 26(b)(1).” The scope of discovery permitted by 26(b)(1) is “non-privileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues at stake in the action, the amount in controversy, the parties’ relative access to relevant information, the parties’ resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit.” Thus, the factors to be considered have simply been moved to a new number with cross reference.

Weighing these factors, there is no basis for permitting more than the presumptive ten deposition limit. First, as highlighted by the motion, the information purportedly sought is cumulative and duplicative. By way of example, Plaintiff has already deposed Johanna Sjoberg (a former Epstein employee), Juan Alessi (a former Epstein employee), and David Rodgers⁴ (former Epstein Pilot). She further seeks to depose Maria Alessi and Jo Fontanella (former Epstein household employees), as well as [REDACTED] and Emmy Taylor (identified as assistants to Ms. Maxwell or Mr. Epstein). The information Plaintiff claims each of the witnesses may have is identical to that of each other – what they observed while working for Epstein. Plaintiff goes so far as to state that Maria Alessi’s deposition is expected to “corroborate” the observations of her husband’s.

Plaintiff admits that the purpose in seeking the additional depositions is “obtaining witnesses, like Ms. Sjoberg, who can corroborate that [Plaintiff] is telling the truth.” Yet, Ms. Sjoberg did not “corroborate that [Plaintiff] is telling the truth.” Instead, she testified that she was hired as an adult by Jeffrey Epstein to provide professional massages, that Ms. Maxwell never asked her for any type of sexual massage, that she never saw Plaintiff giving a massage to Ms. Maxwell nor did she see Ms. Maxwell receive a massage from any underage girl, indeed, in her 5 plus years working for Mr. Epstein, she never saw any person underage at his home. Regardless, Plaintiff is looking in vain for more testimony of exactly the same character, precisely the type of testimony the presumptive limit is intended to prevent.

Similarly, the expected deposition testimony of former Palm Beach Detective Joe Recarey and former Palm Beach Police Chief Michael Reiter are duplicative of each other.

⁴ Mr. Rodgers deposition, held last Friday and requiring a separate trip to Florida for Colorado counsel after the scheduled court hearing on Thursday, served simply to authenticate flight logs. There are far more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive methods by which such information could have been obtained, such as a verifying affidavit, yet Plaintiff chose to unnecessarily burden counsel, the witness and counsel for the witness with a 3 hour deposition to accomplish the same end.

Putting aside the admissibility of this testimony, it appears that both men were involved in the investigation of Mr. Epstein and are expected to testify about their investigation. Plaintiff's allegations were not a part of their investigation, which took place years after Plaintiff left the country. Moreover, their investigation did not involve Ms. Maxwell. Again, such duplicative and irrelevant deposition testimony speaks to the intended purpose of the ten-deposition limit, not a reason to exceed that limit.

The same holds true for Nadia Marcinkova, Sarah Kellen (a/k/a Sarah Kensington or Sarah Vickers) and Jeffrey Epstein, each of whom Plaintiff anticipates will not respond to questions and invoke their Fifth Amendment right. As discussed above, such invocation has no bearing on the issues in this matter. Moreover, it is obviously cumulative and duplicative.

Plaintiff also identifies Rinaldo Rizzo and Jean Luc Brunel but fails to provide any information from which Ms. Maxwell or the Court could identify the subject matter of their expected testimony. Thus, it is unclear how these individuals have information that differs from or would add to the other proposed deponents. It is the Plaintiff's burden to explain to the Court why these depositions should be permitted if they exceed the presumptive limit, why the information would not be cumulative, and its relevance to the important issues in the action, or the importance of the discovery in resolving those issues. She simply fails to provide any information by which the Court can assess these factors, and thus should not be permitted to exceed the deposition limit based on her proffer.

III. THE TESTIMONY SOUGHT IS IRRELEVANT TO THIS SINGLE COUNT DEFAMATION CASE

This case is a simple defamation case. Plaintiff, through her counsel, filed a pleading making certain claims regarding "Jane Doe No. #3" – the Plaintiff – and her alleged “circumstances.” See Complaint. Ms. Maxwell denied the allegations made stating they were “untrue” and “obvious lies.” Plaintiff claims these statements are defamatory because she has been called a “liar.”

“A public figure claiming defamation under New York law must establish that ‘the statements ... complain[ed] of were (1) of and concerning [the plaintiff], (2) likely to be understood as defamatory by the ordinary person, (3) false, and (4) published with actual malice.’” Biro v. Conde Nast, 963 F. Supp. 2d 255, 276 (S.D.N.Y. 2013), aff’d, 807 F.3d 541 (2d Cir. 2015), and aff’d, 622 F. App’x 67 (2d Cir. 2015).

If Ms. Maxwell’s statements are essentially true – Plaintiff lied – Plaintiff cannot establish her claim, and it is an absolute defense.⁵ Further, if Plaintiff cannot prove actual malice by Ms. Maxwell, her claim fails. See Contemporary Mission, Inc. v. New York Times Co., 842 F.2d 612, 621 (2d Cir. 1988) (limited purpose public figure must establish by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant published the alleged defamatory statement with actual malice, “that is, with knowledge that it was false or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not”) (quoting New York Times, 376 U.S. 241, 280 (1964)). That is, Plaintiff must prove that Ms. Maxwell permitted the publication of the statement knowing it to be untrue.

None of the witnesses identified are listed as having discoverable information regarding any of the elements of this claim. None is claimed to have direct knowledge to confirm the truth of Plaintiff’s claims about what happened to her, that the acts she claims she participated in occurred or that they occurred with the people she claims to have been involved. Rather, each witness identified as being able to provide their observations regarding “other” allegedly underage girls, their own personal experience,⁶ or beliefs about Plaintiff’s credibility. None of this is relevant. This is not a case about Jeffery Epstein or the alleged “modus operandi of the Epstein organization.” This is a simple case of if Ms. Maxwell’s denial of the allegations made by Plaintiff about Plaintiff’s own interactions with Maxwell was defamatory, and if Ms. Maxwell acted with actual malice in issuing the denial. Plaintiff’s attempt to amplify this proceeding into something broader should not be condoned.

Because the evidence sought is nothing more than extraneous inadmissible “circumstantial evidence”⁷ irrelevant to proving the essential elements of the claim, “the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the parties’ resources, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.” Atkinson, 2009 WL 890682, at *1. As such, the request for the additional depositions should be denied.

WHEREFORE, Ms. Maxwell requests that the Motion to permit in excess of the presumptive ten deposition limit be denied; alternatively, if in excess of ten depositions are permitted, Ms. Maxwell requests that Plaintiff be required to pay all costs and attorney’s fees

⁶ The information sought is also inadmissible. Plaintiff seeks testimony from witness who she claims will testify to experience similar to her stories and this will “corroborate Ms. Giuffre’s account description of the motive, way in which Epstein and his co-conspirators created opportunity, intent, plan, knowledge, and to the specifics that make up the criminal signature of Epstein and his co-conspirators.” Motion at 15-16. Such evidence is prohibited by FRE 404(b), which states “Evidence of a crime, wrong, or other act is not admissible to prove a person’s character in order to show that on a particular occasion the person acted in accordance with the character.” Furthermore, no other witness has claimed as Plaintiff does that Ghislaine Maxwell sexually abused them, sexually trafficked them, or that she partook in daily sex with any underage girls. Plaintiff’s claim stands in isolation because it is fictional.

⁷ This “circumstantial evidence” has no bearing on the truthfulness of the stories published by Plaintiff. It is equally likely to show that Plaintiff became aware of the allegations of others and decided to hop on the band wagon. She then made up similar claims for the purpose of getting paid hundreds of thousands of dollars by the media for publicizing her allegations and identifying well know public figures whose names she has seen documents that she reviewed or other stories she had read.

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this reply in support of her Motion to Exceed Presumptive Ten Deposition Limit. The motion should be granted because Ms. Giuffre has shown good cause for needing to exceed the ten deposition limit and in light of recent developments, Ms. Giuffre has streamlined her request, and now seeks only a total of three additional depositions. Notably, while Defendant contests Ms. Giuffre's motion, Defendant has herself unilaterally – and without seeking any Court approval – set twelve witnesses for deposition in this matter. In contrast to Defendant's unilateral action, Ms. Giuffre has properly sought this Court's permission. The Court should grant her motion and allow her to take the three additional depositions.

I. THE PROPOSED DEPOSITIONS ARE IMPORTANT TO THE FUNDAMENTAL CLAIMS AND DEFENSES IN THIS CASE, AND NONE ARE DUPLICATIVE.

Defendant argues that the depositions Ms. Giuffre seeks to take are somehow “duplicative” of each other. Even a quick reading of the Defendant's pleading makes clear this is untrue. Defendant repeatedly gives her own narrow view of what existing witnesses have said. For example, Defendant argues that Ms. Sjoberg “did not corroborate that [Ms. Giuffre] is telling the truth.” Defendant's Response at 5. Defendant's characterization is untrue.¹ But, as the mere

¹ Defendant wholly mischaracterized Ms. Sjoberg's testimony as involving “professional massages.” Defendant's Resp. at 5. In fact, Ms. Sjoberg testified that, when she was a twenty-one-year-old college student, Defendant (not Jeffrey Epstein) recruited and hired her under the pretext of being a personal assistant to provide sexual massages. As one example of this testimony, Sjoberg testified that Defendant became angry with her for not “finishing your job” when Defendant was the one who ended up having to bring Epstein to orgasm when Ms. Sjoberg did not. See McCawley Dec at Exhibit 1, Sjoberg Dep. Tr. at 142:25-143:14(Q. What did you understand Maxwell to mean when you said that you hadn't finished the job, with respect to the camera? A. She implied that I had not brought him to orgasm. Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging Jeffrey? A. I can answer? Yes, I took that conversation to mean that it what was expected of me.) Ms. Sjoberg's testimony also shows that Defendant was a predator of young women and girls, and that her business was to provide girls for Jeffrey Epstein to have sex with. Id. at 141:3-5; 150:16-151:2 (Q. Did Maxwell ever ask you to bring other girls over to – for Jeffrey? A. Yes. Q. I want to go back to this: You testified to two things just now with Sigrid that you said were implied to you. A. Okay. Q. The fact of this dispute confirms, this case is going to be hotly contested and the weight of the evidence on each side is going to be vitally important. The Court is well aware of many other civil cases where the parties have taken far more than ten depositions by mutual agreement. Defendant's refusal to agree to a few more depositions here is simply an effort to keep all the relevant facts from being developed.

Since Ms. Giuffre filed her initial motion seeking seven additional deposition, she has worked diligently to try to streamline the necessary depositions and has discovered new information concerning witnesses and their knowledge of the claims in this case. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre currently brings before this Court a significantly shorter list² of witnesses she needs to depose to prove her claim, with some alterations. To be clear, Ms. Giuffre has narrowed her request and is now only seeking an additional three depositions from the Court as follows:

For descriptions concerning the depositions already taken (Defendant; Ms. Sjoberg; Mr. Alessi; Mr. Rodgers; and Mr. Rizzo), and those yet to be taken (Mr. Epstein; Mr. Gow; [REDACTED] Ms. Kellen; Ms. Marcinkova; Mr. Recarey; and Mr. Brunel), Ms. Giuffre references and incorporates her descriptions in the moving brief. The only remaining witness is William Jefferson Clinton. His deposition is necessary for the following reason:

first one was it would take pressure off of Maxwell to have more girls around? A. Right. Q. What exactly did Maxwell say to you that led you to believe that was her implication? A. She said she doesn't have the time or desire to please him as much as he needs, and that's why there were other girls around.).

That Ms. Sjoberg never saw Ms. Giuffre give a massage to Ms. Maxwell is immaterial. Ms. Sjoberg was with Defendant and Epstein when Ms. Giuffre was a minor child, and corroborates Ms. Giuffre's accounts concerning her being trafficked to Prince Andrew. Id. at 21-22. Ms. Giuffre refers the Court to Ms. Sjoberg's deposition testimony in its entirety (DE 173-5). It is depositions like this - verifying Ms. Giuffre's account of being recruited by Defendant for sex with Epstein - that Defendant is trying avoid. However, multiple other witnesses have testimony that supports Ms. Giuffre's claims, in different and various ways, and Ms. Giuffre needs that testimony to prove her defamation claim against Defendant.

² Ms. Giuffre is no longer seeking the deposition testimony of Emmy Taylor, [REDACTED], Jo Jo Fontanella, and Michael Reiter.

- In a 2011 interview, Ms. Giuffre mentioned former President Bill Clinton's close personal relationship with Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein. While Ms. Giuffre made no allegations of illegal actions by Bill Clinton, Ms. Maxwell in her deposition raised Ms. Giuffre's comments about President Clinton as one of the "obvious lies" to which she was referring in her public statement that formed the basis of this suit. Apart from the Defendant and Mr. Epstein, former President Clinton is a key person who can provide information about his close relationship with Defendant and Mr. Epstein and disapprove Ms. Maxwell's claims.

Ms. Giuffre is still working diligently with opposing counsel, these witnesses, and their attorneys on scheduling, as well as identifying other witnesses who may have factual information about the case. But, at this time, she seeks this Court's approval for an additional three depositions – depositions that will not consume the full seven hours presumptively allotted.

All three prongs of the three-factor test to evaluate a motion for additional depositions strongly support granting the motion. Atkinson v. Goord, No. 01 CIV. 0761 LAKHBP, 2009 WL 890682, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 2, 2009). First, as reviewed in detail on a witness-by-witness basis above, the discovery sought is not duplicative. The proposed deponents include the individual who assisted in making the defamatory statement, women Defendant Maxwell hired to recruit girls for Jeffrey Epstein, an individual with intimate knowledge of Defendant and Epstein's sexual trafficking ring, other victims of Jeffrey Epstein (including a then underage victim), Mr. Epstein himself, and other witnesses who can corroborate important pieces of Ms. Giuffre's statements or refute Ms. Maxwell's statements and positions. These witnesses' testimony will corroborate Ms. Giuffre's account of Defendant being a recruiter of females for Epstein and corroborate the type of abuse she and others suffered. Sadly, Ms. Giuffre is far from the only one of Defendant's victims, and there are other witnesses whose testimony is necessary in order to demonstrate the truth of Ms. Giuffre's claims and the falsity of the statements made by Defendant.

Second, if Ms. Giuffre is denied these depositions, she will not have had the opportunity to obtain the information by other discovery in this case. The Court will recall from Ms. Giuffre's opening motion that Defendant's surprising lack of memory has, in no small part, caused the need for additional depositions. See Motion at 5-8 (listing 59 examples of memory lapses during Ms. Maxwell deposition, including inability to remember events recorded on aircraft flight logs or a photograph). Defendant offers no explanation for her convenient forgetfulness. Moreover, evidence of being recruited by Defendant and being sexually assaulted is not something Ms. Giuffre can obtain through requests for production or through interrogatories. The only way of obtaining such evidence is from witness testimony by those who were victimized, those who assisted Defendant in recruiting and abuse, and those who observed the recruiting or the abuse. For example, Rinaldo Rizzo, an estate manager for a friend of Defendant and Epstein's, testified about an episode where Defendant had threatened a terrified 15 year old girl and confiscated her passport to try to make her have sex with Epstein on his private island: See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, Rizzo Deposition³ Mr. Rizzo testified about another episode where Defendant gave instructions to, and presided over, a group of eleven girls as young as 14 years old playing a “kissing game” with and for Jeffrey Epstein.⁴ Finally, the Defendant appears to be concealing critical evidence of the sexual abuse that other witnesses have testified she possesses. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. Yet Defendant has failed to produce a single photo in this case. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 3, Alessi Deposition at 36-41. Document discovery and interrogatories are not helpful in obtaining this type of evidence: depositions are needed.

Third, the burden and expense of this proposed discovery is limited to three additional depositions. Defendant in this case is a multi-millionaire with able counsel. Three depositions will not cause her undue burden, expense, or inconvenience. These depositions are important to resolving issues in this case. Given that very few witnesses reside within 100 miles of the courthouse and therefore cannot be compelled to trial, this request for only three additional depositions is a reasonable request.

While Defendant opposes Ms. Giuffre’s request for Court approval of more than ten depositions, she has unilaterally noticed more than ten depositions without bothering to seek approval. As of the date of this filing, Defendant’s counsel has issued twelve subpoenas for deposition testimony – the almost the exact same number Ms. Giuffre is seeking.⁵ Defendant cannot credibly oppose Ms. Giuffre’s additional depositions while she, herself, is trying to take more than ten without leave of court.⁶

It is plain why Defendant does not want these depositions to go forward. Ms. Sjoberg, Mr. Alessi, and Mr. Rizzo’s testimony was harmful to Defendant’s case, and the additional depositions will provide further evidence that Defendant acted as Jeffrey Epstein’s madam, proving the truth of Ms. Giuffre’s statements that Defendant proclaimed publically as “obvious lies.”

II. MS. GIUFFRE IS SEEKING HIGHLY RELEVANT TRIAL TESTIMONY.

All of the people Ms. Giuffre seeks to depose have discoverable and important information regarding the elements of Ms. Giuffre’s claims. Ms. Giuffre stated that Defendant recruited her and other young females for sex with Jeffrey Epstein. The people she now seeks to depose are all witnesses who can testify to Defendant working essentially as a madam for Jeffrey Epstein, recruiting young females for Epstein, or corroborate other important aspects of her statements. The fact that Defendant recruited girls, some of which were underage, for Epstein makes Ms. Giuffre’s claim that she was also recruited by Defendant to ultimately have sex with Epstein and others more credible – and that Defendant’s denials of any involvement in such recruiting is a bald-faced lie. Witnesses will testify that Defendant’s recruitment and management of the girls for Jeffrey Epstein was a major aspect of Defendant’s job, and that Ms.

⁵ Defendant’s counsel has taken the deposition testimony of (1) Ms. Giuffre; (2) Ms. Giuffre’s mother (Lynn Miller); (3) Ms. Giuffre’s father (Sky Roberts); and (4) Ms. Giuffre’s physician (Dr. Olson). Defendant’s counsel has noticed the following witnesses for deposition: (5) Mr. Austrich; (6) Mr. Figueroa; (7) Ms. Degorgieou; (8) a known victim of Jeffrey Epstein; (9) Mr. Weisfield; (10) Ms. Churcher; (11) Ms. Boylan; and (12) the 30(b)(6) witness for Victims Refuse Silence.

Giuffre's account of her sexual abuse and Defendant's involvement accords perfectly with other witnesses' accounts of what Defendant's job was for Epstein.⁷

That other young females were similarly recruited by the Defendant is evidence that Ms. Giuffre is telling the truth about her experiences – and thus direct evidence that Defendant defamed her when calling her a liar. Clearly, if Ms. Giuffre can establish that Defendant's modus operandi was to recruit young females for Epstein, that helps corroborate Ms. Giuffre's own testimony that Defendant recruited her for the same purposes and in the same manner. Although the Court need not make a final ruling on this evidentiary issue now, Rule 404(b) itself makes such testimony admissible. See Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) (other act "evidence may be admissible for another purpose, such as proving motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, absence of mistake, or lack of accident."). Indeed, even more specifically than the general provisions of Rule 404(b), Rule 415 makes these other acts admissible, due to the fact that those involved in sexual abuse of minors have a strong propensity for repeating those crimes. See Fed. R. Evid. 415(a) ("In a civil case involving a claim for relief based on a party's alleged sexual assault or child molestation, the court may admit evidence that the party committed any other sexual assault or child molestation.").

Entirely apart from corroborating Ms. Giuffre's own individual abuse, however, Defendant fails to recognize that in calling Ms. Giuffre a "liar", she was attacking all aspects of Ms. Giuffre's account – including Ms. Giuffre's statements that Defendant served generally as a recruiter of girls for Epstein and that Epstein sexually abused the underage girls that were brought to him. Thus, in this defamation case, the testimony of these witnesses are admissible not only to bolster Ms. Giuffre's testimony about her individual abuse, but because they are simply part of the body of statements whose truth or falsity is at issue in this case.

⁷ Defendant's specious suggestion that Ms. Giuffre heard about the other girls whom she recruited for sexual purposes and then decided to "hop on the band wagon" (Defendant's Resp. at 8 n.7) tacitly admits that Defendant procured a "band wagon" of girls for Jeffrey Epstein to abuse. Moreover, Defendant cannot refute the documentary evidence that she was on Epstein private jet with Ms. Giuffre over 20 times while Ms. Giuffre was a minor – flights that Defendant is, quite conveniently, now unable to recall. Motion at 5-8.

In addition, one of the witnesses that Ms. Giuffre seeks to depose is registered sex offender Jeffrey Epstein, who stands at the center of the case. Indeed, some of the most critical events took place in the presence of just three people: Ms. Giuffre, defendant Maxwell, and Epstein. If Epstein were to tell the truth, his testimony would fully confirm Ms. Giuffre's account of her sexual abuse. Epstein, however, may well attempt to support Defendant by invoking the Fifth Amendment to avoid answering questions about his sexual abuse of Ms. Giuffre. Apparently privy to her former boyfriend Epstein's anticipated plans in this regard,⁸ Defendant makes the claim that it would be a "convoluted argument" to allow Ms. Giuffre to use those invocations against her. Defendant's Resp. at 3. Tellingly, Defendant's response brief cites no authority to refute that proposition that adverse inference can be drawn against co-conspirators. Presumably this is because, as recounted in Ms. Giuffre's opening brief (at pp. 20-22), the Second Circuit's seminal decision of LiButti v. United States, 107 F.3d 110, 121 (2d Cir. 1997), squarely upheld the drawing of adverse inferences based on a non-party's invocation of a Fifth Amendment right to remain silent. The Second Circuit instructed that, the circumstances of given case, rather than status of particular nonparty witness, determines whether nonparty witness' invocation of privilege against self-incrimination is admissible in course of civil litigation. Id. at 122-23. The Second Circuit also held that, in determining whether nonparty witness' invocation of privilege against self-incrimination in course of civil litigation and

⁸ In discovery, Defendant Maxwell has produced several emails between Epstein and herself discussing Ms. Giuffre.

drawing of adverse inferences is admissible, court may consider the following nonexclusive factors:

- (1) nature of witness' relationship with and loyalty to party;
- (2) degree of control which party has vested in witness in regard to key facts and subject matter of litigation;
- (3) whether witness is pragmatically noncaptioned party in interest and whether assertion of privilege advances interests of witness and party in outcome of litigation; and
- (4) whether witness was key figure in litigation and played controlling role in respect to its underlying aspects.

Id. at 124-25. Ms. Giuffre will be able to establish that all these factors tip decisively in favor of allowing an adverse inference. Accordingly, her efforts to depose Epstein, Marcinkova, and Kellen seek important information that will be admissible at trial.

III. MS. GIUFFRE'S REQUEST IS TIMELY.

Defendant also argues that this motion is somehow "premature." Defendant's Resp. at 2-3. Clearly, if Ms. Giuffre had waited to file her motion until later, Defendant would have argued until the matter came too late. The motion is proper at this time because, as of the date of this filing, fact discovery closes in 17 days (although Ms. Giuffre has recently filed a motion for a 30-day extension of the deadline). In order to give the Court the opportunity to rule as far in advance as possible – thereby permitting counsel for both side to schedule the remaining depositions – Ms. Giuffre brings the motion now. She also requires a ruling in advance so that she can make final plans about how many depositions she has available and thus which depositions she should prioritize.⁹

⁹ Defendant tries to find support for her prematurity argument in Gen. Elec. Co. v. Indem. Ins. Co. of N. Am., No. 3:06-CV-232 (CFD), 2006 WL 1525970, at *2 (D. Conn. May 25, 2006). However, in that case, the Court found a motion for additional depositions to be premature, in part, because "[d]iscovery has not even commenced" . . . and the moving party "ha[d] not listed with specificity those individuals it wishes to depose." Of course, neither of these points applies in this case at hand: the parties are approaching the close of fact discovery, and Ms. Giuffre has provided detailed information about each individual she has deposed already and still seeks to depose.

An additional reason this motion is appropriate now is that, despite Ms. Giuffre's diligent pursuit of depositions, many witnesses have cancelled their dates, failed to appear, or wrongfully evaded service. These maneuvers have frustrated Ms. Giuffre's ability to take their depositions in a logical and sequential fashion, complicating the planning of a deposition schedule. For example, on April 11, 2016, Ms. Giuffre served notice on Defendant's counsel for the deposition of Rinaldo Rizzo, setting it for May 13, 2016. Nearly a month later, just a few days before that properly noticed deposition, Defendant's counsel requested that it be rescheduled, and, therefore, that deposition did not take place until June 10, 2016. Additionally, three other important witnesses evaded Ms. Giuffre's repeated efforts to serve them. It took Ms. Giuffre's motion for alternative service (DE 160) to convince Jeffrey Epstein to allow his attorney to accept service of process. The Court also has before it Ms. Giuffre's motion to serve Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcinkova by alternative service. These witnesses' evasion of service delayed the taking of their depositions, and, as of the date of this filing, none have been deposed yet.

CONCLUSION

For all these reasons, Ms. Giuffre should be allowed to take three more depositions than the presumptive ten deposition limit – a total of thirteen depositions.

Dated: June 13, 2016.

Plaintiff,

v.

GHISLAINE MAXWELL,

Defendant.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Deposition of JOHANNA SJOBERG, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401
Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida,
before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered
Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime
Reporter and Notary Public within and
for the State of Florida.

1 Jeffrey's home when you arrived?

2 A. Yes. When I first walked in the door, it
3 was just myself, and Ghislaine headed for the
4 staircase and said -- told me to come up to the
5 living room.

6 Q. And what happened at that point, when you
7 came up to the living room?

8 A. I came up and saw Virginia, Jeffrey,
9 Prince Andrew, Ghislaine in the room.

10 Q. And did you meet Prince Andrew at that
11 time?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what happened next?

14 A. At one point, Ghislaine told me to come
15 upstairs, and we went into a closet and pulled out
16 the puppet, the caricature of Prince Andrew, and
17 brought it down. And there was a little tag on the 18 puppet that said "Prince Andrew" on it, and that's
19 when I knew who he was.

20 Q. And did -- what did the puppet look like?

21 A. It looked like him. And she brought it
22 down and presented it to him; and that was a great
23 joke, because apparently it was a production from a
24 show on BBC. And they decided to take a picture
25 with it, in which Virginia and Andrew sat on a

1 couch. They put the puppet on Virginia's lap, and I
2 sat on Andrew's lap, and they put the puppet's hand
3 on Virginia's breast, and Andrew put his hand on my
4 breast, and they took a photo.

5 Q. Do you remember who took the photo?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. Did you ever see the photo after it was
8 taken?

9 A. I did not.

10 Q. And Ms. Maxwell was present during the --
11 was Ms. Maxwell present during that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What happened next?

14 A. The next thing I remember is just being
15 shown to which room I was going to be staying in.

16 Q. When you exited the room that you were in 17 where the picture was taken, do you recall who
18 remained in that room?

19 A. I don't.

20 Q. Do you recall seeing Virginia exit that
21 room?

22 A. I don't.

23 Q. During this trip to New York, did you have 24 to perform any work when you were at the New York
25 house?

1 always covered himself with a towel.

2 Q. I believe I asked this, but I just want to
3 clarify to make sure that I did: Did Maxwell ever
4 ask you to bring other girls over to -- for Jeffrey?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Yes?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what did you -- did you do anything in
9 response to that?

10 A. I did bring one girl named [REDACTED] --
11 no. [REDACTED] -- it was some girl named [REDACTED]
12 that I had worked with at a restaurant. And I
13 recall Ghislaine giving me money to bring her over;
14 however, they never called her to come.

15 Q. And then I believe you mentioned that one
16 of your physical fitness instructors, you brought a
17 physical fitness instructor; was that correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And what did she do?

20 A. She gave him a -- like a training session,
21 twice.

22 Q. Twice.

23 Did anything sexual in nature happen
24 during the session?

25 A. At one point he lifted up her shirt and

1 exposed her bra, and she grabbed it and pulled it
2 down.

3 Q. Anything else?

4 A. That was the conversation that he had told
5 her that he had taken this girl's virginity, the
6 girl by the pool.

7 Q. Okay. Did Maxwell ever say to you that it
8 takes the pressure off of her to have other girls
9 around?

10 A. She implied that, yes.

11 Q. In what way?

12 A. Sexually.

13 Q. And earlier Laura asked you, I believe, if
14 Maxwell ever asked you to perform any sexual acts,
15 and I believe your testimony was no, but then you
16 also previously stated that during the camera
17 incident that Maxwell had talked to you about not
18 finishing the job.

19 Did you understand "not finishing the job"
20 meaning bringing Jeffrey to orgasm?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

22 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

23 Q. I'm sorry, Johanna, let me correct that
24 question.

25 What did you understand Maxwell to mean

1 when she said you hadn't finished the job, with
2 respect to the camera?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

4 THE WITNESS: She implied that I had not
5 brought him to orgasm.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected
8 you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging
9 Jeffrey?

10 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form,
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: I can answer?

13 Yes, I took that conversation to mean that
14 is what was expected of me.

15 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

16 Q. And then you mentioned, I believe, when
17 you were testifying earlier that Jeffrey told you a
18 story about sex on the plane. What was that about?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay.

20 THE WITNESS: He told me one time Emmy was
21 sleeping on the plane, and they were getting
22 ready to land. And he went and woke her up,
23 and she thought that meant he wanted a blow
24 job, so she started to unzip his pants, and he
25 said, No, no, no, you just have to be awake for

1 A. No.

2 Q. Was it in the context of anything?

3 A. About the camera that she had bought for
4 me.

5 Q. What did she say in relationship to the
6 camera that she bought for you and taking
7 photographs of you?

8 A. Just that Jeffrey would like to have some 9 photos of me, and she asked me to take photos of 10 myself.

11 Q. What did you say?

12 A. I don't remember saying no, but I never
13 ended up following through. I think I tried once.

14 Q. This was the pre-selfie era, correct?

15 A. Exactly.

16 Q. I want to go back to this: You testified
17 to two things just now with Sigrid that you said
18 were implied to you.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. The first one was it would take pressure
21 off of Maxwell to have more girls around?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. What exactly did Maxwell say to you that
24 led you to believe that was her implication?

25 A. She said she doesn't have the time or

1 desire to please him as much as he needs, and that's
2 why there were other girls around.

3 Q. And did she refer specifically to any
4 other girls?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Did she talk about underaged girls?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Was she talking about massage therapists?

9 A. Not specifically.

10 Q. Okay. There were other girls in the house
11 that were not massage therapists, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. [REDACTED] is another person that was around,
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. There were other people he traveled with?

17 A. Uh-huh.

18 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

19 BY MS. MENNINGER:

20 Q. Correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Other girls?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Adults?

25 A. Yes.

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this reply in support of her Motion to Exceed Presumptive Ten Deposition Limit. The motion should be granted because Ms. Giuffre has shown good cause for needing to exceed the ten deposition limit and in light of recent developments, Ms. Giuffre has streamlined her request, and now seeks only a total of three additional depositions. Notably, while Defendant contests Ms. Giuffre's motion, Defendant has herself unilaterally – and without seeking any Court approval – set twelve witnesses for deposition in this matter. In contrast to Defendant's unilateral action, Ms. Giuffre has properly sought this Court's permission. The Court should grant her motion and allow her to take the three additional depositions.

I. THE PROPOSED DEPOSITIONS ARE IMPORTANT TO THE FUNDAMENTAL CLAIMS AND DEFENSES IN THIS CASE, AND NONE ARE DUPLICATIVE.

Defendant argues that the depositions Ms. Giuffre seeks to take are somehow “duplicative” of each other. Even a quick reading of the Defendant's pleading makes clear this is untrue. Defendant repeatedly gives her own narrow view of what existing witnesses have said. For example, Defendant argues that Ms. Sjoberg “did not corroborate that [Ms. Giuffre] is telling the truth.” Defendant's Response at 5. Defendant's characterization is untrue.² But, as the mere

² Defendant wholly mischaracterized Ms. Sjoberg's testimony as involving “professional massages.” Defendant's Resp. at 5. In fact, Ms. Sjoberg testified that, when she was a twenty-one-year-old college student, Defendant (not Jeffrey Epstein) recruited and hired her under the pretext of being a personal assistant to provide sexual massages. As one example of this testimony, Sjoberg testified that Defendant became angry with her for not “finishing your job” when Defendant was the one who ended up having to bring Epstein to orgasm when Ms. Sjoberg did not. See McCawley Dec at Exhibit 1, Sjoberg Dep. Tr. at 142:25-143:14(Q. What did you understand Maxwell to mean when you said that you hadn't finished the job, with respect to the camera? A. She implied that I had not brought him to orgasm. Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging Jeffrey? A. I can answer? Yes, I took that conversation to mean that it what was expected of me.) Ms. Sjoberg's testimony also shows that Defendant was a predator of young women and girls, and that her business was to provide girls for Jeffrey Epstein to have sex with. Id. at 141:3-5; 150:16-151:2 (Q. Did Maxwell ever ask you to bring other girls over to – for Jeffrey? A. Yes. Q. I want to go back to this: You testified to two things just now with Sigrid that you said were implied to you. A. Okay. Q. The fact of this dispute confirms, this case is going to be hotly contested and the weight of the evidence on each side is going to be vitally important. The Court is well aware of many other civil cases where the parties have taken far more than ten depositions by mutual agreement. Defendant's refusal to agree to a few more depositions here is simply an effort to keep all the relevant facts from being developed.

Since Ms. Giuffre filed her initial motion seeking seven additional deposition, she has worked diligently to try to streamline the necessary depositions and has discovered new information concerning witnesses and their knowledge of the claims in this case. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre currently brings before this Court a significantly shorter list³ of witnesses she needs to depose to prove her claim, with some alterations. To be clear, Ms. Giuffre has narrowed her request and is now only seeking an additional three depositions from the Court as follows:

For descriptions concerning the depositions already taken (Defendant; Ms. Sjoberg; Mr. Alessi; Mr. Rodgers; and Mr. Rizzo), and those yet to be taken (Mr. Epstein; Mr. Gow; [REDACTED] Ms. Kellen; Ms. Marcinkova; Mr. Recarey; and Mr. Brunel), Ms. Giuffre references and incorporates her descriptions in the moving brief. The only remaining witness is William Jefferson Clinton. His deposition is necessary for the following reason:

first one was it would take pressure off of Maxwell to have more girls around? A. Right. Q. What exactly did Maxwell say to you that led you to believe that was her implication? A. She said she doesn't have the time or desire to please him as much as he needs, and that's why there were other girls around.).

That Ms. Sjoberg never saw Ms. Giuffre give a massage to Ms. Maxwell is immaterial. Ms. Sjoberg was with Defendant and Epstein when Ms. Giuffre was a minor child, and corroborates Ms. Giuffre's accounts concerning her being trafficked to Prince Andrew. Id. at 21-22. Ms. Giuffre refers the Court to Ms. Sjoberg's deposition testimony in its entirety (DE 173-5). It is depositions like this - verifying Ms. Giuffre's account of being recruited by Defendant for sex with Epstein - that Defendant is trying avoid. However, multiple other witnesses have testimony that supports Ms. Giuffre's claims, in different and various ways, and Ms. Giuffre needs that testimony to prove her defamation claim against Defendant.

³ Ms. Giuffre is no longer seeking the deposition testimony of Emmy Taylor, [REDACTED] Jo Jo Fontanella, [REDACTED]

- In a 2011 interview, Ms. Giuffre mentioned former President Bill Clinton's close personal relationship with Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein. While Ms. Giuffre made no allegations of illegal actions by Bill Clinton, Ms. Maxwell in her deposition raised Ms. Giuffre's comments about President Clinton as one of the "obvious lies" to which she was referring in her public statement that formed the basis of this suit. Apart from the Defendant and Mr. Epstein, former President Clinton is a key person who can provide information about his close relationship with Defendant and Mr. Epstein and disapprove Ms. Maxwell's claims.

Ms. Giuffre is still working diligently with opposing counsel, these witnesses, and their attorneys on scheduling, as well as identifying other witnesses who may have factual information about the case. But, at this time, she seeks this Court's approval for an additional three depositions – depositions that will not consume the full seven hours presumptively allotted.

All three prongs of the three-factor test to evaluate a motion for additional depositions strongly support granting the motion. Atkinson v. Goord, No. 01 CIV. 0761 LAKHBP, 2009 WL 890682, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 2, 2009). First, as reviewed in detail on a witness-by-witness basis above, the discovery sought is not duplicative. The proposed deponents include the individual who assisted in making the defamatory statement, women Defendant Maxwell hired to recruit girls for Jeffrey Epstein, an individual with intimate knowledge of Defendant and Epstein's sexual trafficking ring, other victims of Jeffrey Epstein (including a then underage victim), Mr. Epstein himself, and other witnesses who can corroborate important pieces of Ms. Giuffre's statements or refute Ms. Maxwell's statements and positions. These witnesses' testimony will corroborate Ms. Giuffre's account of Defendant being a recruiter of females for Epstein and corroborate the type of abuse she and others suffered. Sadly, Ms. Giuffre is far from the only one of Defendant's victims, and there are other witnesses whose testimony is necessary in order to demonstrate the truth of Ms. Giuffre's claims and the falsity of the statements made by Defendant.

Second, if Ms. Giuffre is denied these depositions, she will not have had the opportunity to obtain the information by other discovery in this case. The Court will recall from Ms. Giuffre's opening motion that Defendant's surprising lack of memory has, in no small part, caused the need for additional depositions. See Motion at 5-8 (listing 59 examples of memory lapses during Ms. Maxwell deposition, including inability to remember events recorded on aircraft flight logs or a photograph). Defendant offers no explanation for her convenient forgetfulness. Moreover, evidence of being recruited by Defendant and being sexually assaulted is not something Ms. Giuffre can obtain through requests for production or through interrogatories. The only way of obtaining such evidence is from witness testimony by those who were victimized, those who assisted Defendant in recruiting and abuse, and those who observed the recruiting or the abuse. For example, Rinaldo Rizzo, an estate manager for a friend of Defendant and Epstein's, testified about an episode where Defendant had threatened a terrified 15 year old girl and confiscated her passport to try to make her have sex with Epstein on his private island: See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, Rizzo Deposition ⁴ Mr. Rizzo testified about another episode where Defendant gave instructions to, and presided over, a group of eleven girls as young as 14 years old playing a “kissing game” with and for Jeffrey Epstein.⁵ Finally, the Defendant appears to be concealing critical evidence of the sexual abuse that other witnesses have testified she possesses. For example, Mr. Alessi testified that Defendant kept a large book of naked photos that she took of young girls. Yet Defendant has failed to produce a single photo in this case. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 3, Alessi Deposition at 36-41. Document discovery and interrogatories are not helpful in obtaining this type of evidence: depositions are needed.

Third, the burden and expense of this proposed discovery is limited to three additional depositions. Defendant in this case is a multi-millionaire with able counsel. Three depositions will not cause her undue burden, expense, or inconvenience. These depositions are important to resolving issues in this case. Given that very few witnesses reside within 100 miles of the courthouse and therefore cannot be compelled to trial, this request for only three additional depositions is a reasonable request.

While Defendant opposes Ms. Giuffre’s request for Court approval of more than ten depositions, she has unilaterally noticed more than ten depositions without bothering to seek approval. As of the date of this filing, Defendant’s counsel has issued twelve subpoenas for

⁵ See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, Rizzo *Final Dep. Tr. “Q. So in the house, tell me if I am wrong, you have Jeffrey Epstein, Ghislaine Maxwell and approximately 11 girls? A. Yes, somewhere between 11 and 12. Q. Can you describe the 11 to 12 girls to your memory? A. In my recollection, various of ages. They could have been from as young as 14, 15 to 18 maybe, 19 . . . very girlish.” *32:8-24; “Q. Once inside the house, what happens next? A. I showed Ghislaine and Jeffrey into the living room, and Ghislaine was the one that instructed the girls, pointing that they needed to come to the living room.” *34:5-10. “Q. What happens next? A. . . . it was getting very perogative [sic], nothing I would want my children to see. The girls were grinding on each other, lifting up their tops, it was very inappropriate.” *37:11-38:6. “Q. What did you see next? A.. . . From what I knew, Jeffrey was with Ghislaine and now I have all these girls acting very inappropriate . . .” *38:22-39:7. “Q. When the girls are kissing either Jeff or other girls where was Ghislaine Maxwell? A. Sitting right next to Jeffrey.” *40:24-41:3. “Q. Is there something you remember vividly? A. . . . I did pull the nanny aside and I was really, my wife and I were dumbfounded, profound of the situation, and she mentioned this was an occurrence that had happened before, and they called it the kissing game.” *41:8-17.”

deposition testimony – the almost the exact same number Ms. Giuffre is seeking.⁶ Defendant cannot credibly oppose Ms. Giuffre’s additional depositions while she, herself, is trying to take more than ten without leave of court.⁷

It is plain why Defendant does not want these depositions to go forward. Ms. Sjoberg, Mr. Alessi, and Mr. Rizzo’s testimony was harmful to Defendant’s case, and the additional depositions will provide further evidence that Defendant acted as Jeffrey Epstein’s madam, proving the truth of Ms. Giuffre’s statements that Defendant proclaimed publically as “obvious lies.”

II. MS. GIUFFRE IS SEEKING HIGHLY RELEVANT TRIAL TESTIMONY.

All of the people Ms. Giuffre seeks to depose have discoverable and important information regarding the elements of Ms. Giuffre’s claims. Ms. Giuffre stated that Defendant recruited her and other young females for sex with Jeffrey Epstein. The people she now seeks to depose are all witnesses who can testify to Defendant working essentially as a madam for Jeffrey Epstein, recruiting young females for Epstein, or corroborate other important aspects of her statements. The fact that Defendant recruited girls, some of which were underage, for Epstein makes Ms. Giuffre’s claim that she was also recruited by Defendant to ultimately have sex with Epstein and others more credible – and that Defendant’s denials of any involvement in such recruiting is a bald-faced lie. Witnesses will testify that Defendant’s recruitment and management of the girls for Jeffrey Epstein was a major aspect of Defendant’s job, and that Ms.

⁶ Defendant’s counsel has taken the deposition testimony of (1) Ms. Giuffre; (2) Ms. Giuffre’s mother (Lynn Miller); (3) Ms. Giuffre’s father (Sky Roberts); and (4) Ms. Giuffre’s physician (Dr. Olson). Defendant’s counsel has noticed the following witnesses for deposition: (5) Mr. Austrich; (6) Mr. Figueroa; (7) Ms. Degorgieou; (8) a known victim of Jeffrey Epstein; (9) Mr. Weisfield; (10) Ms. Churcher; (11) Ms. Boylan; and (12) the 30(b)(6) witness for Victims Refuse Silence.

Giuffre's account of her sexual abuse and Defendant's involvement accords perfectly with other witnesses' accounts of what Defendant's job was for Epstein.⁸

That other young females were similarly recruited by the Defendant is evidence that Ms. Giuffre is telling the truth about her experiences – and thus direct evidence that Defendant defamed her when calling her a liar. Clearly, if Ms. Giuffre can establish that Defendant's modus operandi was to recruit young females for Epstein, that helps corroborate Ms. Giuffre's own testimony that Defendant recruited her for the same purposes and in the same manner. Although the Court need not make a final ruling on this evidentiary issue now, Rule 404(b) itself makes such testimony admissible. See Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) (other act "evidence may be admissible for another purpose, such as proving motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, absence of mistake, or lack of accident."). Indeed, even more specifically than the general provisions of Rule 404(b), Rule 415 makes these other acts admissible, due to the fact that those involved in sexual abuse of minors have a strong propensity for repeating those crimes. See Fed. R. Evid. 415(a) ("In a civil case involving a claim for relief based on a party's alleged sexual assault or child molestation, the court may admit evidence that the party committed any other sexual assault or child molestation.").

Entirely apart from corroborating Ms. Giuffre's own individual abuse, however, Defendant fails to recognize that in calling Ms. Giuffre a "liar", she was attacking all aspects of Ms. Giuffre's account – including Ms. Giuffre's statements that Defendant served generally as a recruiter of girls for Epstein and that Epstein sexually abused the underage girls that were brought to him. Thus, in this defamation case, the testimony of these witnesses are admissible not only to bolster Ms. Giuffre's testimony about her individual abuse, but because they are simply part of the body of statements whose truth or falsity is at issue in this case.

⁸ Defendant's specious suggestion that Ms. Giuffre heard about the other girls whom she recruited for sexual purposes and then decided to "hop on the band wagon" (Defendant's Resp. at 8 n.7) tacitly admits that Defendant procured a "band wagon" of girls for Jeffrey Epstein to abuse. Moreover, Defendant cannot refute the documentary evidence that she was on Epstein private jet with Ms. Giuffre over 20 times while Ms. Giuffre was a minor – flights that Defendant is, quite conveniently, now unable to recall. Motion at 5-8.

In addition, one of the witnesses that Ms. Giuffre seeks to depose is registered sex offender Jeffrey Epstein, who stands at the center of the case. Indeed, some of the most critical events took place in the presence of just three people: Ms. Giuffre, defendant Maxwell, and Epstein. If Epstein were to tell the truth, his testimony would fully confirm Ms. Giuffre's account of her sexual abuse. Epstein, however, may well attempt to support Defendant by invoking the Fifth Amendment to avoid answering questions about his sexual abuse of Ms. Giuffre. Apparently privy to her former boyfriend Epstein's anticipated plans in this regard,⁹ Defendant makes the claim that it would be a "convoluted argument" to allow Ms. Giuffre to use those invocations against her. Defendant's Resp. at 3. Tellingly, Defendant's response brief cites no authority to refute that proposition that adverse inference can be drawn against co-conspirators. Presumably this is because, as recounted in Ms. Giuffre's opening brief (at pp. 20-22), the Second Circuit's seminal decision of LiButti v. United States, 107 F.3d 110, 121 (2d Cir. 1997), squarely upheld the drawing of adverse inferences based on a non-party's invocation of a Fifth Amendment right to remain silent. The Second Circuit instructed that, the circumstances of given case, rather than status of particular nonparty witness, determines whether nonparty witness' invocation of privilege against self-incrimination is admissible in course of civil litigation. Id. at 122-23. The Second Circuit also held that, in determining whether nonparty witness' invocation of privilege against self-incrimination in course of civil litigation and drawing of adverse inferences is admissible, court may consider the following nonexclusive factors:

- (1) nature of witness' relationship with and loyalty to party;
- (2) degree of control which party has vested in witness in regard to key facts and subject matter of litigation;
- (3) whether witness is pragmatically noncaptioned party in interest and whether assertion of privilege advances interests of witness and party in outcome of litigation; and
- (4) whether witness was key figure in litigation and played controlling role in respect to its underlying aspects.

Id. at 124-25. Ms. Giuffre will be able to establish that all these factors tip decisively in favor of allowing an adverse inference. Accordingly, her efforts to depose Epstein, Marcinkova, and Kellen seek important information that will be admissible at trial.

III. MS. GIUFFRE'S REQUEST IS TIMELY.

Defendant also argues that this motion is somehow “premature.” Defendant's Resp. at 2-3. Clearly, if Ms. Giuffre had waited to file her motion until later, Defendant would have argued until the matter came too late. The motion is proper at this time because, as of the date of this filing, fact discovery closes in 17 days (although Ms. Giuffre has recently filed a motion for a 30-day extension of the deadline). In order to give the Court the opportunity to rule as far in advance as possible – thereby permitting counsel for both side to schedule the remaining depositions – Ms. Giuffre brings the motion now. She also requires a ruling in advance so that she can make final plans about how many depositions she has available and thus which depositions she should prioritize.¹⁰

¹⁰ Defendant tries to find support for her prematurity argument in Gen. Elec. Co. v. Indem. Ins. Co. of N. Am., No. 3:06-CV-232 (CFD), 2006 WL 1525970, at *2 (D. Conn. May 25, 2006). However, in that case, the Court found a motion for additional depositions to be premature, in part, because “[d]iscovery has not even commenced” . . . and the moving party “ha[d] not listed with specificity those individuals it wishes to depose.” Of course, neither of these points applies in this case at hand: the parties are approaching the close of fact discovery, and Ms. Giuffre has provided detailed information about each individual she has deposed already and still seeks to depose.

An additional reason this motion is appropriate now is that, despite Ms. Giuffre's diligent pursuit of depositions, many witnesses have cancelled their dates, failed to appear, or wrongfully evaded service. These maneuvers have frustrated Ms. Giuffre's ability to take their depositions in a logical and sequential fashion, complicating the planning of a deposition schedule. For example, on April 11, 2016, Ms. Giuffre served notice on Defendant's counsel for the deposition of Rinaldo Rizzo, setting it for May 13, 2016. Nearly a month later, just a few days before that properly noticed deposition, Defendant's counsel requested that it be rescheduled, and, therefore, that deposition did not take place until June 10, 2016. Additionally, three other important witnesses evaded Ms. Giuffre's repeated efforts to serve them. It took Ms. Giuffre's motion for alternative service (DE 160) to convince Jeffrey Epstein to allow his attorney to accept service of process. The Court also has before it Ms. Giuffre's motion to serve Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcinkova by alternative service. These witnesses' evasion of service delayed the taking of their depositions, and, as of the date of this filing, none have been deposed yet.

CONCLUSION

For all these reasons, Ms. Giuffre should be allowed to take three more depositions than the presumptive ten deposition limit – a total of thirteen depositions.

Defendant.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Deposition of JOHANNA SJOBERG, pursuant
to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401
Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida,
before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered
Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime
Reporter and Notary Public within and
for the State of Florida.

1 Jeffrey's home when you arrived?

2 A. Yes. When I first walked in the door, it
3 was just myself, and Ghislaine headed for the
4 staircase and said -- told me to come up to the
5 living room.

6 Q. And what happened at that point, when you
7 came up to the living room?

8 A. I came up and saw Virginia, Jeffrey,
9 Prince Andrew, Ghislaine in the room.

10 Q. And did you meet Prince Andrew at that
11 time?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what happened next?

14 A. At one point, Ghislaine told me to come
15 upstairs, and we went into a closet and pulled out
16 the puppet, the caricature of Prince Andrew, and
17 brought it down. And there was a little tag on the 18 puppet that said "Prince Andrew" on it, and that's
19 when I knew who he was.

20 Q. And did -- what did the puppet look like?

21 A. It looked like him. And she brought it
22 down and presented it to him; and that was a great
23 joke, because apparently it was a production from a
24 show on BBC. And they decided to take a picture
25 with it, in which Virginia and Andrew sat on a

1 couch. They put the puppet on Virginia's lap, and I
2 sat on Andrew's lap, and they put the puppet's hand
3 on Virginia's breast, and Andrew put his hand on my
4 breast, and they took a photo.

5 Q. Do you remember who took the photo?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. Did you ever see the photo after it was
8 taken?

9 A. I did not.

10 Q. And Ms. Maxwell was present during the --
11 was Ms. Maxwell present during that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What happened next?

14 A. The next thing I remember is just being
15 shown to which room I was going to be staying in.

16 Q. When you exited the room that you were in 17 where the picture was taken, do you recall who
18 remained in that room?

19 A. I don't.

20 Q. Do you recall seeing Virginia exit that
21 room?

22 A. I don't.

23 Q. During this trip to New York, did you have 24 to perform any work when you were at the New York
25 house?

1 always covered himself with a towel.

2 Q. I believe I asked this, but I just want to
3 clarify to make sure that I did: Did Maxwell ever
4 ask you to bring other girls over to -- for Jeffrey?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Yes?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what did you -- did you do anything in
9 response to that?

10 A. I did bring one girl named Francesca --
11 no. Florence -- it was some girl named Florencia
12 that I had worked with at a restaurant. And I
13 recall Ghislaine giving me money to bring her over;
14 however, they never called her to come.

15 Q. And then I believe you mentioned that one
16 of your physical fitness instructors, you brought a
17 physical fitness instructor; was that correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And what did she do?

20 A. She gave him a -- like a training session,
21 twice.

22 Q. Twice.

23 Did anything sexual in nature happen
24 during the session?

25 A. At one point he lifted up her shirt and

1 exposed her bra, and she grabbed it and pulled it
2 down.

3 Q. Anything else?

4 A. That was the conversation that he had told
5 her that he had taken this girl's virginity, the
6 girl by the pool.

7 Q. Okay. Did Maxwell ever say to you that it
8 takes the pressure off of her to have other girls
9 around?

10 A. She implied that, yes.

11 Q. In what way?

12 A. Sexually.

13 Q. And earlier Laura asked you, I believe, if
14 Maxwell ever asked you to perform any sexual acts,
15 and I believe your testimony was no, but then you
16 also previously stated that during the camera
17 incident that Maxwell had talked to you about not
18 finishing the job.

19 Did you understand "not finishing the job"
20 meaning bringing Jeffrey to orgasm?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

22 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

23 Q. I'm sorry, Johanna, let me correct that
24 question.

25 What did you understand Maxwell to mean

1 when she said you hadn't finished the job, with
2 respect to the camera?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

4 THE WITNESS: She implied that I had not
5 brought him to orgasm.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected
8 you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging
9 Jeffrey?

10 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form,
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: I can answer?

13 Yes, I took that conversation to mean that
14 is what was expected of me.

15 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

16 Q. And then you mentioned, I believe, when
17 you were testifying earlier that Jeffrey told you a
18 story about sex on the plane. What was that about?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay.

20 THE WITNESS: He told me one time Emmy was
21 sleeping on the plane, and they were getting
22 ready to land. And he went and woke her up,
23 and she thought that meant he wanted a blow
24 job, so she started to unzip his pants, and he
25 said, No, no, no, you just have to be awake for

1 A. No.

2 Q. Was it in the context of anything?

3 A. About the camera that she had bought for
4 me.

5 Q. What did she say in relationship to the
6 camera that she bought for you and taking
7 photographs of you?

8 A. Just that Jeffrey would like to have some 9 photos of me, and she asked me to take photos of 10 myself.

11 Q. What did you say?

12 A. I don't remember saying no, but I never
13 ended up following through. I think I tried once.

14 Q. This was the pre-selfie era, correct?

15 A. Exactly.

16 Q. I want to go back to this: You testified
17 to two things just now with Sigrid that you said
18 were implied to you.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. The first one was it would take pressure
21 off of Maxwell to have more girls around?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. What exactly did Maxwell say to you that
24 led you to believe that was her implication?

25 A. She said she doesn't have the time or

1 desire to please him as much as he needs, and that's
2 why there were other girls around.

3 Q. And did she refer specifically to any
4 other girls?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Did she talk about underaged girls?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Was she talking about massage therapists?

9 A. Not specifically.

10 Q. Okay. There were other girls in the house
11 that were not massage therapists, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Nadia is another person that was around,
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. There were other people he traveled with?

17 A. Uh-huh.

18 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

19 BY MS. MENNINGER:

20 Q. Correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Other girls?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Adults?

25 A. Yes.

¹ Pursuant to conferral with opposing counsel, Plaintiff has revised the first paragraph of this brief, as well as the second-to-last paragraph of Section I of this brief out of a concern Defendant raised with the use of the term “set” when referring to depositions. In an abundance of caution, to avoid unnecessary disputes and waste of this Court’s time, the undersigned agreed to revise the brief to remove the language in question. The remainder of this brief is unchanged.

² On June 13, 2016, Ms. Giuffre filed her Reply in Support of her Motion to Exceed the Presumptive Ten Deposition Limit (DE 203). This brief contained excerpt from Rinaldo Rizzo’s “rough” deposition transcript, as the final transcript had not yet been completed by the stenographer. Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this reply in support of her Motion to Exceed Presumptive Ten Deposition Limit. The motion should be granted because Ms. Giuffre has shown good cause for needing to exceed the ten deposition limit and in light of recent developments, Ms. Giuffre has streamlined her request, and now seeks only a total of three additional depositions. The Court should grant her motion and allow her to take the three additional depositions.

I. THE PROPOSED DEPOSITIONS ARE IMPORTANT TO THE FUNDAMENTAL CLAIMS AND DEFENSES IN THIS CASE, AND NONE ARE DUPLICATIVE.

Defendant argues that the depositions Ms. Giuffre seeks to take are somehow “duplicative” of each other. Even a quick reading of the Defendant’s pleading makes clear this is untrue. Defendant repeatedly gives her own narrow view of what existing witnesses have said. For example, Defendant argues that Ms. Sjoberg “did not corroborate that [Ms. Giuffre] is telling the truth.” Defendant’s Response at 5. Defendant’s characterization is untrue.³ But, as the mere fact of this dispute confirms, this case is going to be hotly contested and the weight of the evidence on each side is going to be vitally important. The Court is well aware of many other civil cases where the parties have taken far more than ten depositions by mutual agreement. Defendant's refusal to agree to a few more depositions here is simply an effort to keep all the relevant facts from being developed.

³ Defendant wholly mischaracterized Ms. Sjoberg’s testimony as involving “professional massages.” Defendant’s Resp. at 5. In fact, Ms. Sjoberg testified that, when she was a twenty-one-year-old college student, Defendant (not Jeffrey Epstein) recruited and hired her under the pretext of being a personal assistant to provide sexual massages. As one example of this testimony, Sjoberg testified that Defendant became angry with her for not “finishing your job” when Defendant was the one who ended up having to bring Epstein to orgasm when Ms. Sjoberg did not. See McCawley Dec at Exhibit 1, Sjoberg Dep. Tr. at 142:25-143:14(Q. What did you understand Maxwell to mean when you said that you hadn’t finished the job, with respect to the camera? A. She implied that I had not brought him to orgasm. Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging Jeffrey? A. I can answer? Yes, I took that conversation to mean that it what was expected of me.) Ms. Sjoberg’s testimony also shows that Defendant was a predator of young women and girls, and that her business was to provide girls for Jeffrey Epstein to have sex with. Id. at 141:3-5; 150:16-151:2 (Q. Did Maxwell ever ask you to bring other girls over to – for Jeffrey? A. Yes. Q. I want to go back to this: You testified to two things just now with Sigrid that you said were implied to you. A. Okay. Q. The first one was it would take pressure off of Maxwell to have more girls around? A. Right. Q. What exactly did Maxwell say to you that led you to believe that was her implication? A. She said she doesn’t have the time or desire to please him as much as he needs, and that’s why there were other girls around.). That Ms. Sjoberg never saw Ms. Giuffre give a massage to Ms. Maxwell is immaterial. Ms. Sjoberg was with Defendant and Epstein when Ms. Giuffre was a minor child, and corroborates

Since Ms. Giuffre filed her initial motion seeking seven additional deposition, she has worked diligently to try to streamline the necessary depositions and has discovered new information concerning witnesses and their knowledge of the claims in this case. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre currently brings before this Court a significantly shorter list⁴ of witnesses she needs to depose to prove her claim, with some alterations. To be clear, Ms. Giuffre has narrowed her request and is now only seeking an additional three depositions from the Court as follows:

For descriptions concerning the depositions already taken (Defendant; Ms. Sjoberg; Mr. Alessi; Mr. Rodgers; and Mr. Rizzo), and those yet to be taken (Mr. Epstein; Mr. Gow; [REDACTED] Ms. Kellen; Ms. Marcinkova; Mr. Recarey; and Mr. Brunel), Ms. Giuffre references and incorporates her descriptions in the moving brief. The only remaining witness is William Jefferson Clinton. His deposition is necessary for the following reason:

- In a 2011 interview, Ms. Giuffre mentioned former President Bill Clinton's close personal relationship with Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein. While Ms. Giuffre made no allegations of illegal actions by Bill Clinton, Ms. Maxwell in her deposition raised Ms. Giuffre's comments about President Clinton as one of the "obvious lies" to which she was referring in her public statement that formed the basis of this suit. Apart from the

Ms. Giuffre's accounts concerning her being trafficked to Prince Andrew. Id. at 21-22. Ms. Giuffre refers the Court to Ms. Sjoberg's deposition testimony in its entirety (DE 173-5). It is depositions like this - verifying Ms. Giuffre's account of being recruited by Defendant for sex with Epstein - that Defendant is trying avoid. However, multiple other witnesses have testimony that supports Ms. Giuffre's claims, in different and various ways, and Ms. Giuffre needs that testimony to prove her defamation claim against Defendant.

⁴ Ms. Giuffre is no longer seeking the deposition testimony of Emmy Taylor, [REDACTED] Jo Jo Fontanella, and Michael Reiter.

Defendant and Mr. Epstein, former President Clinton is a key person who can provide information about his close relationship with Defendant and Mr. Epstein and disapprove Ms. Maxwell's claims.

Ms. Giuffre is still working diligently with opposing counsel, these witnesses, and their attorneys on scheduling, as well as identifying other witnesses who may have factual information about the case. But, at this time, she seeks this Court's approval for an additional three depositions – depositions that will not consume the full seven hours presumptively allotted.

All three prongs of the three-factor test to evaluate a motion for additional depositions strongly support granting the motion. Atkinson v. Goord, No. 01 CIV. 0761 LAKHBP, 2009 WL 890682, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 2, 2009). First, as reviewed in detail on a witness-by-witness basis above, the discovery sought is not duplicative. The proposed deponents include the individual who assisted in making the defamatory statement, women Defendant Maxwell hired to recruit girls for Jeffrey Epstein, an individual with intimate knowledge of Defendant and Epstein's sexual trafficking ring, other victims of Jeffrey Epstein (including a then underage victim), Mr. Epstein himself, and other witnesses who can corroborate important pieces of Ms. Giuffre's statements or refute Ms. Maxwell's statements and positions. These witnesses' testimony will corroborate Ms. Giuffre's account of Defendant being a recruiter of females for Epstein and corroborate the type of abuse she and others suffered. Sadly, Ms. Giuffre is far from the only one of Defendant's victims, and there are other witnesses whose testimony is necessary in order to demonstrate the truth of Ms. Giuffre's claims and the falsity of the statements made by Defendant.

Second, if Ms. Giuffre is denied these depositions, she will not have had the opportunity to obtain the information by other discovery in this case. The Court will recall from Ms. Giuffre's opening motion that Defendant's surprising lack of memory has, in no small part, caused the need for additional depositions. See Motion at 5-8 (listing 59 examples of memory lapses during Ms. Maxwell deposition, including inability to remember events recorded on aircraft flight logs or a photograph). Defendant offers no explanation for her convenient forgetfulness. Moreover, evidence of being recruited by Defendant and being sexually assaulted is not something Ms. Giuffre can obtain through requests for production or through interrogatories. The only way of obtaining such evidence is from witness testimony by those who were victimized, those who assisted Defendant in recruiting and abuse, and those who observed the recruiting or the abuse. For example, Rinaldo Rizzo, an estate manager for a friend of Defendant and Epstein's, testified about an episode where Defendant had threatened a terrified 15 year old girl and confiscated her passport to try to make her have sex with Epstein on his private island: See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, Rizzo Deposition ⁵ Mr. Rizzo testified about another episode where Defendant gave instructions to, and presided over, a group of eleven girls as young as 14 years old playing a "kissing game" with and for Jeffrey Epstein.⁶ Finally, the ⁵ See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, Rizzo *Final Dep. Tr. *52:6-7; *55:23-57:23. "Q. How old was this girl? A. 15 years old." "What did she say? A. She proceeds to tell my wife and I that, and this is not – this is blurting out, not a conversation like I'm having a casual conversation, that quickly I was on an island, I was on the island and there was Ghislaine, there was Sarah, she said they asked me for sex, I said no. . . . And she says no, and she says Ghislaine took my passport. And I said what, and she says Sarah took her passport and phone and gave it to Ghislaine Maxwell, and at that point she said that she was threatened. And I said threatened? She says yes, I was threatened by Ghislaine not to discuss this. . . And she said that before she got there, she was threatened again by Jeffrey and Ghislaine not to talk about what I had mentioned earlier, about – again, the word she used was sex. Q. And during this time that you're saying she is rambling, is her demeanor continues to be what you described it? A. Yes. Q. Was she in fear? A. Yes".

⁶ See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, Rizzo *Final Dep. Tr. "Q. So in the house, tell me if I am wrong, you have Jeffrey Epstein, Ghislaine Maxwell and approximately 11 girls? A. Yes, somewhere between 11 and 12. Q. Can you describe the 11 to 12 girls to your memory? A. In my recollection, various of ages. They could have been from as young as 14, 15 to 18 maybe, 19 . . . very girlish." *32:8-24; "Q. Once inside the house, what happens next? A. I showed Ghislaine and Jeffrey into the living room, and Ghislaine was the one that instructed the girls, pointing that they needed to come to the living room." *34:5-10. "Q. What happens next? Defendant appears to be concealing critical evidence of the sexual abuse that other witnesses have testified she possesses. [REDACTED]

Third, the burden and expense of this proposed discovery is limited to three additional depositions. Defendant in this case is a multi-millionaire with able counsel. Three depositions will not cause her undue burden, expense, or inconvenience. These depositions are important to resolving issues in this case. Given that very few witnesses reside within 100 miles of the courthouse and therefore cannot be compelled to trial, this request for only three additional depositions is a reasonable request.

It is plain why Defendant does not want these depositions to go forward. Ms. Sjoberg, Mr. Alessi, and Mr. Rizzo's testimony was harmful to Defendant's case, and the additional depositions will provide further evidence that Defendant acted as Jeffrey Epstein's madam, proving the truth of Ms. Giuffre's statements that Defendant proclaimed publically as "obvious lies."

II. MS. GIUFFRE IS SEEKING HIGHLY RELEVANT TRIAL TESTIMONY.

All of the people Ms. Giuffre seeks to depose have discoverable and important information regarding the elements of Ms. Giuffre's claims. Ms. Giuffre stated that Defendant very perogative [sic], nothing I would want my children to see. The girls were grinding on each other, lifting up their tops, it was very inappropriate." *37:11-38:6. "Q. What did you see next? A. . . . From what I knew, Jeffrey was with Ghislaine and now I have all these girls acting very inappropriate . . ." *38:22-39:7. "Q. When the girls are kissing either Jeff or other girls where was Ghislaine Maxwell? A. Sitting right next to Jeffrey." *40:24-41:3. "Q. Is there something you remember vividly? A. . . . I did pull the nanny aside and I was really, my wife and I were dumbfounded, profound of the situation, and she mentioned this was an occurrence that had happened before, and they called it the kissing game." *41:8-17."

recruited her and other young females for sex with Jeffrey Epstein. The people she now seeks to depose are all witnesses who can testify to Defendant working essentially as a madam for Jeffrey Epstein, recruiting young females for Epstein, or corroborate other important aspects of her statements. The fact that Defendant recruited girls, some of which were underage, for Epstein makes Ms. Giuffre's claim that she was also recruited by Defendant to ultimately have sex with Epstein and others more credible – and that Defendant's denials of any involvement in such recruiting is a bald-faced lie. Witnesses will testify that Defendant's recruitment and management of the girls for Jeffrey Epstein was a major aspect of Defendant's job, and that Ms. Giuffre's account of her sexual abuse and Defendant's involvement accords perfectly with other witnesses' accounts of what Defendant's job was for Epstein.⁷

That other young females were similarly recruited by the Defendant is evidence that Ms. Giuffre is telling the truth about her experiences – and thus direct evidence that Defendant defamed her when calling her a liar. Clearly, if Ms. Giuffre can establish that Defendant's modus operandi was to recruit young females for Epstein, that helps corroborate Ms. Giuffre's own testimony that Defendant recruited her for the same purposes and in the same manner. Although the Court need not make a final ruling on this evidentiary issue now, Rule 404(b) itself makes such testimony admissible. See Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) (other act “evidence may be admissible for another purpose, such as proving motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, absence of mistake, or lack of accident.”). Indeed, even more specifically than the general provisions of Rule 404(b), Rule 415 makes these other acts admissible, due to the fact that those involved in sexual abuse of minors have a strong propensity for repeating those crimes. See Fed. R. Evid. 415(a) (“In a civil case involving a claim for relief based on a party’s alleged sexual assault or child molestation, the court may admit evidence that the party committed any other sexual assault or child molestation.”).

⁷ Defendant's specious suggestion that Ms. Giuffre heard about the other girls whom she recruited for sexual purposes and then decided to “hop on the band wagon” (Defendant's Resp. at 8 n.7) tacitly admits that Defendant procured a “band wagon” of girls for Jeffrey Epstein to abuse. Moreover, Defendant cannot refute the documentary evidence that she was on Epstein private jet with Ms. Giuffre over 20 times while Ms. Giuffre was a minor – flights that Defendant is, quite conveniently, now unable to recall. Motion at 5-8.

Entirely apart from corroborating Ms. Giuffre’s own individual abuse, however, Defendant fails to recognize that in calling Ms. Giuffre a “liar”, she was attacking all aspects of Ms. Giuffre’s account – including Ms. Giuffre’s statements that Defendant served generally as a recruiter of girls for Epstein and that Epstein sexually abused the underage girls that were brought to him. Thus, in this defamation case, the testimony of these witnesses are admissible not only to bolster Ms. Giuffre’s testimony about her individual abuse, but because they are simply part of the body of statements whose truth or falsity is at issue in this case.

In addition, one of the witnesses that Ms. Giuffre seeks to depose is registered sex offender Jeffrey Epstein, who stands at the center of the case. Indeed, some of the most critical events took place in the presence of just three people: Ms. Giuffre, defendant Maxwell, and Epstein. If Epstein were to tell the truth, his testimony would fully confirm Ms. Giuffre’s account of her sexual abuse. Epstein, however, may well attempt to support Defendant by invoking the Fifth Amendment to avoid answering questions about his sexual abuse of Ms. Giuffre. Apparently privy to her former boyfriend Epstein’s anticipated plans in this regard,⁸ Defendant makes the claim that it would be a “convoluted argument” to allow Ms. Giuffre to use those invocations against her. Defendant’s Resp. at 3. Tellingly, Defendant’s response brief cites no authority to refute that proposition that adverse inference can be drawn against co-conspirators. Presumably this is because, as recounted in Ms. Giuffre’s opening brief (at pp. 20-

⁸ In discovery, Defendant Maxwell has produced several emails between Epstein and herself discussing Ms. Giuffre.

22), the Second Circuit’s seminal decision of LiButti v. United States, 107 F.3d 110, 121 (2d Cir. 1997), squarely upheld the drawing of adverse inferences based on a non-party’s invocation of a Fifth Amendment right to remain silent. The Second Circuit instructed that, the circumstances of given case, rather than status of particular nonparty witness, determines whether nonparty witness’ invocation of privilege against self-incrimination is admissible in course of civil litigation. Id. at 122-23. The Second Circuit also held that, in determining whether nonparty witness’ invocation of privilege against self-incrimination in course of civil litigation and drawing of adverse inferences is admissible, court may consider the following nonexclusive factors:

- (1) nature of witness’ relationship with and loyalty to party;
- (2) degree of control which party has vested in witness in regard to key facts and subject matter of litigation;
- (3) whether witness is pragmatically noncaptioned party in interest and whether assertion of privilege advances interests of witness and party in outcome of litigation; and
- (4) whether witness was key figure in litigation and played controlling role in respect to its underlying aspects.

Id. at 124-25. Ms. Giuffre will be able to establish that all these factors tip decisively in favor of allowing an adverse inference. Accordingly, her efforts to depose Epstein, Marcinkova, and Kellen seek important information that will be admissible at trial.

III. MS. GIUFFRE’S REQUEST IS TIMELY.

Defendant also argues that this motion is somehow “premature.” Defendant’s Resp. at 2-3. Clearly, if Ms. Giuffre had waited to file her motion until later, Defendant would have argued until the matter came too late. The motion is proper at this time because, as of the date of this filing, fact discovery closes in 17 days (although Ms. Giuffre has recently filed a motion for a 30-day extension of the deadline). In order to give the Court the opportunity to rule as far in advance as possible – thereby permitting counsel for both side to schedule the remaining depositions – Ms. Giuffre brings the motion now. She also requires a ruling in advance so that she can make final plans about how many depositions she has available and thus which depositions she should prioritize.⁹

An additional reason this motion is appropriate now is that, despite Ms. Giuffre's diligent pursuit of depositions, many witnesses have cancelled their dates, failed to appear, or wrongfully evaded service. These maneuvers have frustrated Ms. Giuffre's ability to take their depositions in a logical and sequential fashion, complicating the planning of a deposition schedule. For example, on April 11, 2016, Ms. Giuffre served notice on Defendant's counsel for the deposition of Rinaldo Rizzo, setting it for May 13, 2016. Nearly a month later, just a few days before that properly noticed deposition, Defendant's counsel requested that it be rescheduled, and, therefore, that deposition did not take place until June 10, 2016. Additionally, three other important witnesses evaded Ms. Giuffre's repeated efforts to serve them. It took Ms. Giuffre's motion for alternative service (DE 160) to convince Jeffrey Epstein to allow his attorney to accept service of process. The Court also has before it Ms. Giuffre's motion to serve Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcinkova by alternative service. These witnesses' evasion of service delayed the taking of their depositions, and, as of the date of this filing, none have been deposed yet.

CONCLUSION

For all these reasons, Ms. Giuffre should be allowed to take three more depositions than the presumptive ten deposition limit – a total of thirteen depositions.

Dated: June 14, 2016.

⁹ Defendant tries to find support for her prematurity argument in Gen. Elec. Co. v. Indem. Ins. Co. of N. Am., No. 3:06-CV-232 (CFD), 2006 WL 1525970, at *2 (D. Conn. May 25, 2006). However, in that case, the Court found a motion for additional depositions to be premature, in part, because “[d]iscovery has not even commenced” . . . and the moving party “ha[d] not listed with specificity those individuals it wishes to depose.” Of course, neither of these points applies in this case at hand: the parties are approaching the close of fact discovery, and Ms. Giuffre has provided detailed information about each individual she has deposed already and still seeks to depose.

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell (“Ms. Maxwell”) files this Combined Response (“Response”) in Opposition to Plaintiff’s Motion to Extend Deadline to Complete Depositions (“Motion”) and Motion for Sanctions For Violation of Rule 45, and states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

Apparently, Plaintiff seeks to take six (6) depositions beyond the scheduling order deadline of July 1, yet has failed to demonstrate good cause or diligence as to any.¹ The witnesses include (1) President Bill Clinton, a witness that Plaintiff initiated informal attempts to depose on June 9, and (2) Ross Gow, who Plaintiff began steps to depose under the Hague Convention in London last Friday, June 17. Plaintiff also seeks to untimely depose (3) Jean Luc Brunel, a witness she had noticed for a mid-June deposition, who apparently did not appear on that date with agreement and consent of Plaintiff’s counsel.

The remaining three witnesses Plaintiff seeks to untimely depose are ones who repeatedly have expressed their intention to take the Fifth Amendment as to all questions posed. Counsel for (4) Jeffrey Epstein, offered to accept service on or about April 11 but Plaintiff ignored that offer for more than six weeks. Plaintiff only began on June 12 any attempt to schedule that deposition in the Virgin Islands. Last week, Mr. Epstein’s counsel filed a Motion to Quash his deposition subpoena. The final untimely depositions sought by Plaintiff are for witnesses (5) Sarah Kellen and (6) Nadia Marcincova, about whom Plaintiff has made no public claims and thus, have no testimony relevant to this defamation action concerning whether Plaintiff’s public allegations about Ghislaine Maxwell are – or rather are not – true. The attempted service of subpoenas on Epstein, Kellen and Marcincova all violated Rule 45(a)(4) and should be sanctioned by this Court.

As to all of these witnesses, Plaintiff has fallen far short of the “good cause” required by Rule 16(b)(4) to modify the Scheduling Order. In fact, for the most part, her failures to actively pursue depositions with these witnesses qualifies as in-excusable neglect: She frittered away seven of the eight months of the discovery period and now has placed Ms. Maxwell, this Court, and the witnesses in the untenable position of trying to accommodate her last-minute scramble. In the absence of any acceptable excuses, and for the limited evidentiary value that most of the requested witnesses can provide, this Court should deny the request for the extra time to take these six depositions.

The only witnesses for whom depositions should be permitted following the discovery cut-off are: (1) Ms. Sharon Churcher, Plaintiff’s friend, advocate and former journalist with the Daily Mail, who filed a Motion to Quash her subpoena on the day before her scheduled deposition,² and (2) Plaintiff, who refused to answer questions at her deposition concerning highly relevant, non-privileged information.³

Alternatively, if the Court is to grant additional time for Plaintiff to take depositions, Ms. Maxwell will be unduly prejudiced without sufficient additional time to (a) secure any witnesses to rebut testimony gleaned from these witnesses, (b) conduct discovery of Plaintiff’s retained experts, (c) submit a summary judgment motion which includes facts learned from these late depositions, and (d) prepare for trial. Thus, if the Court grants Plaintiff’s motion, the remaining deadlines in the Scheduling Order ought to be extended accordingly.

² Ms. Churcher’s motion to quash will be heard this Thursday by the Court.

³ Ms. Maxwell is filing simultaneously with this Response a Motion to Re-Open Plaintiff’s Deposition.

BACKGROUND

To divert attention away from her own lack of diligence, Plaintiff characteristically devotes much of her Motion blaming Ms. Maxwell and her counsel for her own problems with depositions. Not only is Plaintiff's account factually inaccurate, none of it matters to whether she could timely complete the six depositions at issue.

For example, the scheduling of Ms. Maxwell's deposition (which depended, among other things, on an historic snowstorm, a disputed protective order, Plaintiff's failure to timely produce documents, and counsel's conflicting calendars, all of which have been amply documented with this Court)⁴ does not inform any analysis regarding Plaintiff's lack of diligence in pursuing depositions of these six witnesses. See Rule 26d)(3) ("Unless the parties stipulate or the court orders otherwise for the parties' and witnesses' convenience and in the interests of justice: (A) methods of discovery may be used in any sequence, and (B) discovery by one party does not require any other party to delay its discovery."). Likewise, receipt of Ms. Maxwell's Rule 26 disclosures in February also had nothing to do with these witnesses. Id. Notably, each of the witnesses who Plaintiff now seeks to depose were known to her from the outset; all but President Clinton were included in her initial Rule 26 disclosures served on November 11, 2015 and two of the six were specifically mentioned in Plaintiff's Complaint.

Finally, the fact that witness Rinaldo Rizzo had a deposition re-scheduled from April until June does not have any bearing on the issue presented by this motion. Mr. Rizzo was deposed on June 14 and he has nothing to do with the remaining depositions. Mr. Rizzo, in fact, was practically gleeful to be a witness: he was the one who initiated contact with Brad Edwards after reading about the lawsuit, asked to be a witness in this case, hopes to make money from this case, already has sued Glenn Dubin, Epstein's friend, had counsel who was totally cooperative in the rescheduling and reported fanciful and never-before heard claims about Ms. Maxwell, the Dubins and others that he has never reported to any law enforcement even though he claims that he witnessed potential kidnappings and sexual assaults on children.⁵ Plaintiff's claim that Mr. Rizzo is an "example of delay that has harmed [her] ability to obtain all depositions in a timely manner" (Mot. at 3) is specious.

Contrary to Plaintiff's assertion, discovery began in this case on October 23, 2015, following the parties' Rule 26(f) conferral. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(d)(1). At the Rule 16(b) scheduling conference on October 28, 2015, this Court directed the parties to complete all fact discovery by July 1, 2016. (Doc. #13) On November 30, 2015, contemporaneous with the filing of her Rule 12(b) Motion to Dismiss, Ms. Maxwell also requested of this Court a stay of discovery pursuant to Rule 26(c). (Doc. #17) That motion was denied on January 20, 2016, with an additional two-week period granted to respond to Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents.⁶ The discovery was thus never stayed.

Plaintiff erroneously asserts that that discovery "did not commence in this matter until" February 8. What she means is that she neglected to seek any non-witness depositions until then; nothing in the Rules of Civil Procedure, this Court's Orders, or the law prevented Plaintiff from doing so at any point after October 23, 2015.⁷ Plaintiff has had over eight months to subpoena witnesses, schedule depositions and conduct them. Instead, she waited until the last minute and now complains of lack of time. Any lack of time is a product of her own bad faith and negligent litigation tactics and should not be sanctioned by this Court.

⁶ By agreement of the parties, the time to respond was extended an additional six days because defense counsel was in a jury trial at the time the Court's Order was handed down.

The failure to timely secure the depositions of the remaining six witnesses is through no fault of Ms. Maxwell or her counsel. As to these witnesses, Ms. Maxwell and her counsel have played no role in hindering Plaintiff's ability to depose the witnesses; in fact, as to four of the six Plaintiff attempted to serve subpoenas on the witnesses before ever providing notice to the defense, in clear violation of Rule 45(a)(4).

LEGAL AUTHORITY

Rule 16(b) permits modification of a scheduling order only upon a showing of "good cause." To satisfy the good cause standard "the party must show that, despite its having exercised diligence, the applicable deadline could not have been reasonably met." Sokol Holdings, Inc. v. BMD Munai, Inc., 05 Civ. 3749 (KMW)(DF), 2009 WL 2524611 at *7 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 14, 2009) (emphasis added) (citing Rent-A-Center Inc. v. 47 Mamaroneck Ave. Corp., 215 F.R.D. 100, 104 (S.D.N.Y. 2003) (McMahon, J.)); accord Parker v. Columbia Pictures Indus., 204 F.3d 326, 340 (2d Cir. 2000) (" '[G]ood cause' depends on the diligence of the moving party."); Perfect Pearl Co., Inc. v. Majestic Pearl & Stone, Inc., 889 F. Supp. 2d 453, 457 (S.D.N.Y. 2012) (Engelmeyer, J.) ("To show good cause, a movant must demonstrate that it has been diligent, meaning that, despite its having exercised diligence, the applicable deadline could not have been reasonably met.").

Good cause depends on the diligence of the moving party in seeking to meet the scheduling order. Grochowski v. Phoenix Const., 318 F.3d 80, 86 (2d Cir.2003). The Oxford Dictionary defines "diligence" as "careful and persistent work or effort." See "diligence" at http://www.oxforddictionaries.com/us/definition/american_english/diligence (last accessed on June 18, 2016). “Good cause” and diligence were not shown when a party raised the prospect of a deposition nine days prior to the discovery deadline. Carlson v. Geneva City School Dist., 277 F.R.D. 90 (W.D.N.Y. 2011); compare Reese v. Virginia Intern. Terminals, Inc., 286 F.R.D. 282 (E.D. Va. 2012) (depositions noticed very early in discovery period and movant engaged in continuing meet-and-confer dialogue with defendants throughout five month discovery period); Iantosca v. Benistar Admin. Svcs., Inc., 765 F.Supp.2d 79 (D. Mass. 2011) (correspondence indicated that the plaintiffs had tried on numerous occasions to schedule the depositions and to extend the discovery schedule but that the defendants had either refused or failed to respond, good cause found).

ARGUMENT

I. PLAINTIFF’S LACK OF DILIGENCE

Plaintiff has demonstrated an extreme lack of diligence in securing the remaining six depositions that she seeks.

A. President Bill Clinton

Plaintiff’s Motion failed to mention any desire to take the deposition of former President Clinton. No Notice of Deposition has been served and no scheduling of his deposition has commenced. Indeed, President Clinton first appeared on Plaintiff’s Third Revised Rule 26 Disclosures two weeks ago on June 1. Then, last week, in her Reply In Support of Motion to Exceed Ten Depositions filed on June 13 (“Reply”), Plaintiff averred that President Clinton’s deposition is “necessary” because Ms. Maxwell “in her deposition [on April 25] raised Ms. Giuffre’s comments about President Clinton as one of the ‘obvious lies’ to which she was referring in her public statement that formed the basis of this suit.” Reply at 3. This is utter nonsense and nothing more than a transparent ploy by Plaintiff to increase media exposure for her sensational stories through deposition side-show. This witness has nothing relevant to add to this case and Plaintiff has made no effort, much less one in good faith to timely secure his testimony.

Plaintiff admits she has “made not allegations of illegal actions by Bill Clinton.” Id. But Plaintiff has asserted that she spent time with President Clinton on the island of Little St. James, US Virgin Islands and that she flew there with the President in a helicopter piloted by Ms. Maxwell. In one article, authored by Sharon Churcher, Plaintiff related:

“On one occasion, she adds, Epstein did invite two young brunettes to dinner which he gave on his Caribbean island for Mr. Clinton shortly after he left office. But as far as she knows, the ex-President did not take the bait. ‘I’d have been about 17 at the time,’ she says. ‘I flew to the Caribbean with Jeffrey and then Ghislaine Maxwell went to pick up Bill in a huge black helicopter that Jeffrey bought her. She’d always wanted to fly and Jeffrey paid for her to take lessons, and I remember she was very excited because she got her license around the first year we met. I used to get frightened flying with her but Bill had the Secret Service with him and I remember him talking about what a good job she did. I only met Bill twice but Jeffrey told me they were good friends.’

See Sharon Churcher, “Teenage girl recruited by peadophile Jeffrey Epstein reveals how she twice met Bill Clinton,” DAILY MAIL (Mar. 5, 2011) (attached to Declaration of Sharon Churcher, Ex. 3 (Doc. #216-3)). Similarly, in Plaintiff’s unpublished and un-dated book manuscript, The Billionaire Playboys’ Club, she writes:

“The next big dinner party on the island had another significant guest appearance being the one and only, Bill Clinton. He is the only president in the world to be dismissed from his role as a world leader because he was caught with his trousers around his ankles and had the stain to prove it. Publicly humiliating his wife and himself he retired from his title but not from his lifestyle. This wasn't a big party as such, only a few of us eating at the diner table. There was Jeffrey at the head of it all, as always. On the left side was Emmy, Ghislaine and I sitting across the table from us was Bill with two lovely girls who were visiting from New York. Bill's wife, Hillary's absence from the night made it easy for his apparent provocative cheeky side to come out. Teasing the girls on either side of him with playful pokes and brassy comments, there was no modesty between any of them. We all finished our meals and scattered in our own different directions."

Menninger Decl. Ex. B at 110.

Each and every part of Plaintiff's claims regarding President Clinton has conclusively been proven false. Former FBI Director Louis Freeh submitted a report wherein he concluded that President Clinton "did not, in fact travel to, nor was he present on, Little St. James Island between January 1, 2001 and January 1, 2003." Menninger Decl., Ex. C. Further, if any Secret Service agents had accompanied Clinton to that location, "they would have been required to make and file shift logs, travel vouchers, and related documentation relating to the visit," and there was a "total absence" of any such documentation. Id. Remarkably, Plaintiff now even denies telling Churcher that she ever witnessed Ms. Maxwell flying President Clinton or his Secret Service anywhere, or joking with Clinton about "what a good job she did." Menninger Decl., Ex. D. Plaintiff's counsel remarkably instructed Plaintiff not to answer any additional questions about the other things Sharon Churcher inaccurately reported. Id. Lending even more incredulity to Plaintiff's story, Ms. Maxwell only received her pilot's license in mid-1999 casting insurmountable doubt that a recently retired president and his staff would be permitted to fly with her at the helm.

With the record thus, Plaintiff's claims about Clinton's presence on the Island and the fully concocted story about the dinner party that occurred thereon totally debunked by the former head of the FBI and with Plaintiff now disclaiming she ever witnessed the Secret Service or

President Clinton being flown in a helicopter by Ghislaine Maxwell, the relevance of any testimony he might add (i.e., confirm that he was, as Louis Freeh determined, never on the Island) is non-existent. The only purpose for seeking this deposition is for the calculated media strategy that Plaintiff and her publicity-seeking attorneys have devised.

Plaintiff failed to disclose President Clinton as a witness until June 1, failed to notice his deposition, failed to diligently pursue a subpoena on him and he has no relevant testimony to offer. Accordingly, Plaintiff's leave to modify the scheduling order to permit his deposition should be denied.

B. Ross Gow

As the Court likely recalls, Ross Gow actually issued the statement pertinent to this defamation suit. Plaintiff has known about Ross Gow and his role in this lawsuit since the outset: She referenced him repeatedly by name in the Complaint filed on September 21, 2015. See, e.g., Complaint paragraph 29 ("As part of Maxwell's campaign, she directed her agent, Ross Gow, to attack Giuffre's honesty and truthfulness and to accuse Giuffre of lying."). Plaintiff also has been well aware throughout that Mr. Gow resides in London. See, e.g., Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Improper Privileges, at 8 (Doc. #33).

After filing that Complaint in September and litigating the Motion to Compel based on privileges related to Mr. Gow in March, Plaintiff took exactly zero steps to depose Mr. Gow until she filed this Motion. Now, nine months after filing her Complaint, Plaintiff contends there is "not sufficient time" for her to "go through the Hague Convention for service on Mr. Gow" so as to "complete this process before the June 30, 2016 deadline." Mot. at 4. Indeed, Plaintiff only initiated that process three days ago, on Friday, June 17, two weeks shy of the discovery cut-off.

Plaintiff, once again, tries to blame Ms. Maxwell for her own lack of diligence by misrepresenting to this Court that "Ms. Giuffre asked that Defendant produce her agent, Mr.

Gow, for a deposition but Defendant has refused...despite acknowledging that Defendant plans to call Mr. Gow for testimony at trial.” Id. In truth, Plaintiff sent a letter on May 23 which read in its entirety, “This letter is to seek your agreement to produce Ross Gow for deposition, as the agent for your client, Ms. Maxwell. We can work with Mr. Gow’s schedule to minimize inconvenience. Please advise by Wednesday, May 25, 2016, whether you will produce Mr. Gow or whether we will need to seek relief from the Court with respect to his deposition.” Menninger Decl. Ex. E. That was the first communication regarding any deposition of Mr. Gow. Two days later, defense counsel requested any “legal authority that would allow Ms. Maxwell to ‘produce’ Ross Gow for a deposition” or “any rule or case that would either enable or require her to do so.” Id. Plaintiff never responded. She also has not explained when or how Ms. Maxwell “acknowledged” her “plans to call Mr. Gow for testimony at trial,” nor why that is relevant to whether Plaintiff has demonstrated good cause for her own failure to take steps to depose a foreign witness deposition until June 17, for a witness she was aware before even filing the Complaint.

During the hearing on March 24, this Court stated that it would consider expect to see “good faith showing” of efforts to comply with the schedule and “an inability because of Hague Convention problems,” before it would consider changing the Scheduling Order. Ms. Maxwell submits that waiting until June 17, two weeks before the end of discovery, to even begin the Hague Convention process falls far short of any such good faith showing and the request for leave to take Mr. Gow’s testimony beyond July 1 should be denied.

C. Jean Luc Brunel

With regard to Jean Luc Brunel, Plaintiff simply asserts that he was “subpoenaed,” and “set for mid-June deposition[,]” but “through counsel” has “requested we change the dates of [his] deposition.” Mot. at 4. That is her entire argument. She omits key facts that would, instead, demonstrate her lack of diligence in securing Mr. Brunel's testimony and also show that she has waived any right to seek an out-of-time deposition.

Plaintiff first issued a Notice of a Rule 45 subpoena for documents from Mr. Brunel on February 16, at an address "c/o" attorney, Joe Titone. No documents were ever produced pursuant to that subpoena. Menninger Decl., Ex. F. Then, on May 23, 2016, Plaintiff issued a new "Notice of Subpoena Duces Tecum," attached to which was actually a subpoena for deposition testimony to occur on June 8, at 9:00 a.m. in New York. Id. Again, the subpoena was addressed "c/o" attorney Robert Hantman. Then, on June 2, Plaintiff's counsel sent an email that they had received "an email yesterday from Mr. Brunel's attorney saying he needs to reschedule. I believe he is trying to get us new dates today or tomorrow." Id. The "scheduled date" of June 8 came and went without any indication of any new dates provided by Mr. Brunel's counsel. The following week, Plaintiff's counsel stated in a phone conversation that Mr. Brunel's counsel said his client had gone to France and it was unclear when he would be returning to the United States.

Following the filing of the instant motion, counsel for Ms. Maxwell requested copies of the certificates of service for all of Plaintiff's Rule 45 subpoenas in this case. Plaintiff's counsel provided certificates on June 14. Notably absent was any certificate of service for Mr. Brunel. Thus, either Mr. Brunel was never served, or he was served and Plaintiff unilaterally extended his compliance date to an unscheduled time in the future. Either way, the time to complain about a witness's non-compliance is at or near the time it occurs. Failure to timely complain regarding non-compliance with a subpoena constitutes a waiver. In any event, whether served or not, Mr. Brunel apparently promised to provide new dates before his deposition date came and went, did not do so, has left the country and not indicated a present intention to return. Given Plaintiff's role in failing to compel him to attend a deposition, no “good cause” has been demonstrated to take the deposition of Mr. Brunel after July 1.

D. Jeffrey Epstein

As with the other witnesses, Plaintiff has failed to demonstrate “good cause” for seeking to depose Jeffrey Epstein out of time. Plaintiff claims that she was unable to secure service on Mr. Epstein until May 27, 2016, because his counsel “refused to accept service” until she filed her motion for alternative service. The documents reflect the opposite: Mr. Epstein’s attorney agreed to accept service on April 11, 2016, and it was only on May 27, 2016, that Plaintiff agreed. See Poe Declaration in Support of Motion to Quash Epstein Deposition, Ex. 3 (Doc. # 223-3). Plaintiff fails to explain her strategic decision, or negligence, in failing to respond for over six weeks to Mr. Weinberg’s email offering to accept service. Indeed, in another failure of candor, Plaintiff’s counsel also neglected to tell this Court about the email offer from Mr. Weinberg either in the instant motion or in her motion to serve Mr. Epstein by alternate means. Mot. at 2; Doc. # 160.⁸

Plaintiff apparently now claims that she never received that email from Martin Weinberg. All of the preceding communications, however, indicate that Mr. Weinberg promptly responded to Ms. McCawley’s inquiries. See, e.g., Poe Declaration, Ex. 2 (email of April 6 from Weinberg to McCawley (offering to let her know regarding acceptance of service on April 7)); email of McCawley in response (“That works fine – thank you.”)). Thus, if Ms. McCawley received no follow up response from Mr. Weinberg, as she now claims, when he had been corresponding with her previously theretofore, she had a duty to follow up on that inquiry. A failure to do so is plain vanilla neglect.

Even after agreeing to the terms proposed by Epstein's counsel on May 27, that is, location of the deposition in the U.S. Virgin Islands and subject to right to oppose the subpoena, Plaintiff then waited an additional three weeks until June 12, to even attempt to schedule Epstein's deposition. Epstein Memorandum in Support of Mot. to Quash at 2 (Doc. # 222). Agreeing to take a deposition in the Virgin Islands on May 27, then waiting until June 12, to try to schedule a date for that deposition, when numerous other depositions had already been scheduled in New York, Florida, and California for the balance of June, is either neglect or strategic posturing by Plaintiff. Either way, it does not amount to "good cause" for such a deposition to take place beyond July 1.

Finally, Plaintiff suggests, without factual foundation, that Ms. Maxwell played some role in Mr. Epstein's counsel's refusal to accept service. See Mot. at 2 ("forced to personally serve the Defendant's former boyfriend, employer, and co-conspirator"). As the timeline and documents now reveal, however, Plaintiff failed to provide notice to Ms. Maxwell that she was attempting to serve a Rule 45 subpoena on Mr. Epstein for more than 7 weeks! Id. Plaintiff states that she began her service attempts on March 7, 2016. The very first Notice of Subpoena and Deposition served on Ms. Maxwell, however, is dated April 27. Menninger Decl. Ex. H. Thus, between March 7 and April 27, Ms. McCawley engaged in repeated attempts to serve Mr. Epstein a Rule 45 subpoena (including a request for documents) without providing the proper notice to the parties pursuant to Rule 45(a)(4) ("If the subpoena commands the production of documents... , then before it is served on the person to whom it is directed, a notice and a copy of the subpoena must be served on each party.") (emphasis added). As detailed below, this was not an isolated incident and merits sanction. In any event, it is difficult to imagine how it is Ms. Maxwell's fault that Plaintiff could not serve Mr. Epstein when she was never put on notice of any attempt to do so.

Given that Plaintiff knew as of April 11 the conditions pursuant to which Mr. Epstein would accept service through counsel, yet waited until May 27 to agree to those terms, and then waited another nearly three weeks to attempt to schedule Mr. Epstein's deposition on a date available for his counsel and Ms. Maxwell's counsel, Plaintiff has fallen far short of demonstrating "good cause" for taking Mr. Epstein's deposition beyond the end of the fact discovery cut-off.

E. Nadia Marcincova and Sarah Kellen

Finally, Plaintiff seeks the depositions of two other witnesses – Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcincova -- who, she complains, "despite being represented by counsel, have refused to accept service."⁹ Mot. at 3. Plaintiff claims that her process servers tried for three weeks (from April 25 until May 18) to personally serve Ms. Kellen and Ms. Marcincova with subpoenas duces tecum. She did not explain, however, why she waited until April to try to serve these two witnesses, about whom her attorneys have known since 2008. She also has not explained to this Court any legally relevant or admissible evidence that either possess, nor how she intends to introduce that evidence in a trial of this defamation claim between Plaintiff and Ms. Maxwell.

Apart from these witnesses stated intent to take the Fifth Amendment which renders their testimony inadmissible, as discussed more fully below, neither witness has any relevant testimony to offer because Plaintiff never made a public statement about either one of them.

⁹ Actually, in Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to Serve Three Deposition Subpoenas by Means Other than Personal Service, Plaintiff details that Ms. Marcincova's counsel stated he no longer represents her. (Doc. #161 at 5) ("counsel for Ms. Giuffre reached out to Ms. Marcinkova's former counsel but he indicated that he could not accept service as he no longer represents her"). It is unclear then, why Plaintiff persists in representing to this Court that Ms. Marcincova instructed her counsel not to accept service, or why Plaintiff seeks to serve Ms. Marcincova through her former counsel.

Plaintiff did not include either woman in her Sharon Churcher-paid interviews, nor were they mentioned in Plaintiff's Joinder Motion of December 30, 2014. Thus, neither Plaintiff's allegations about Ms. Maxwell, nor Ms. Maxwell's denial of the same based on her personal knowledge, are implicated by anything that Ms. Kellen or Ms. Marcincova may have done with anyone else. Their testimony cannot corroborate Plaintiff's account, nor can it shed light on whether Ms. Maxwell's denial of that account is accurate, because Plaintiff's account did not mention either of them.

Finally as to these witnesses, Plaintiff once again documented her own failure to comply with Rule 45 in regard to attempts to serve these two witnesses. Six of the service attempts occurred on April 25 and April 26. Yet Plaintiff only provided Notice to Ms. Maxwell of her intent to serve the subpoenas on April 27. Menninger Decl. Ex. I.

II. FIFTH AMENDMENT BY EPSTEIN, KELLEN OR MARCINCOVA NOT ADMISSIBLE IN THIS CASE AGAINST MS. MAXWELL

The depositions of Epstein, Kellen and Marcincova do not constitute "good cause" to modify the scheduling order in this case for the additional reason that they all have represented to Plaintiff their intention to assert the Fifth Amendment protection as to all questions and such assertion will not be admissible evidence in this trial. Indeed, counsel for Mr. Epstein recently filed a Motion to Quash his subpoena based on the same legal principle that his deposition is unduly burdensome in light of the fact that it will not lead to admissible evidence. (Doc. # 221, 222, 223) The Court should consider this additional factor to decline a finding of "good cause" for extending the discovery deadline.

Plaintiff wrongfully contends that any assertion of the Fifth Amendment during the depositions of Epstein, Kellen and Marincova will be admissible in the trial of this defamation matter (where none of those individuals are parties) based on an "adverse inference" that can be drawn against Ms. Maxwell. See LiButti v. United States, 107 F.3d 110, 121 (2d Cir. 1997). In fact, none of the LiButti factors support her argument. While noting that Ms. Maxwell anticipates more extensive briefing on this issue in support of Mr. Epstein's Motion to Quash, a few facts bear mentioning here:

- Ms. Maxwell was the employee of Mr. Epstein --in the 1990s -- not the other way around. Mr. Epstein has never worked for or been in control of Ms. Maxwell.
- Ms. Maxwell and Mr. Epstein have had no financial, professional or employment relationship in more than a decade, many years before 2015 when the purportedly defamatory statement was published. Ms. Maxwell testified that she has not spoken to Mr. Epstein in 2 years.
- Maxwell has not vested any control in Mr. Epstein "in regard to key facts and subject matter of litigation." As the Court is well aware from review of emails submitted in camera (and later produced to Plaintiff):
 - Mr. Epstein and his counsel gave advice to Maxwell regarding whether she should issue a statement after January 2, 2015. In one, Mr. Epstein even suggested what such a statement might say. Maxwell never issued any additional statement.
 - Maxwell had her own counsel who operated independently of Mr. Epstein and his counsel.
- Epstein is not "pragmatically a non-captioned party in interest" in this litigation nor has he "played controlling role in respect to its underlying aspects." Epstein is not, despite Plaintiff's suggestion, paying Ms. Maxwell's legal fees. Plaintiff sought by way of discovery any "contracts," "indemnification agreements," "employment agreements" between Ms. Maxwell and Epstein or any entity associated with Epstein, from 1999 to the present. Ms. Maxwell responded under oath that there are no such documents. Epstein played no role in the issuance of the January 2 statement, nor has he issued any public statement regarding Plaintiff. Indeed, Plaintiff and Epstein fully resolved any claims against one another by way of a confidential settlement in 2009, another action in which Ms. Maxwell had no role.
- Assertion of the privilege by Epstein does not advance any interest of Ms. Maxwell's. Quite to the contrary, Epstein would be a key witness in her support, exonerating her from Plaintiff's allegations regarding sex abuse, sexual trafficking and acting as his "madam" to the stars. As proof, one need look no further than emails already reviewed by this Court. In an email sent by Epstein to Ms. Maxwell on January 25, 2015, while the media maelstrom generated by Plaintiff's false claims continued to foment, he wrote: "You have done nothing wrong and I would urge you to start acting like it. Go outside, head high, not as an escaping convict. Go to parties. Deal with it." Menninger Decl. Ex. J

- Likewise, Epstein drafted a statement for Ms. Maxwell to issue (though she never did). In that statement, Epstein wrote (presumably what his testimony would reflect, should he not take the Fifth):

“Since JE was charged in 2007 for solicitation of a prostitute I have been the target of outright lies, innuendo, slander, defamation and salacious gossip and harassment; headlines made up of quotes I have never given, statements I have never made, trips with people to places I have never been, holidays with people I have never met, false allegations of impropriety and offensive behavior that I abhor and have never ever been party to, witness to events that I have never seen, living off trust funds that I have never ever had, party to stories that have changed materially both in time place and event, depending on what paper you read, and the list goes on.

I have never been a party in any criminal action pertaining to JE.

For the record:

At the time of Jeffrey’s plea, I was in a very long-term committed relationship with another man and no longer working with Jeffrey. Whilst I remained on friendly terms with him up until his plea, I have had limited contact since. Every story in the press innuendo and comment has been taken from civil depositions against JE, which were settled many years ago. None of the depositions were ever subject to cross examination, not one. Any standard of truth and were used for those who claimed they were victims to receive financial payment to be shared between them and their lawyers. One firm created and sold fake cases against Mr. Epstein – the firm subsequently imploded and the (sic) Rothstein, the owner of the firm was sent to jail for 50 years for his crime. The lawyer who is currently representing Virginia (Brad Edwards) was his partner. Need I say more.

These so called ‘new revelations’ stem from an alleged diary from VR that reads like the memoirs she is purporting to be selling. Also perhaps pertinent – in a previous complaint against others, her claims were rejected by the police ‘due to ..VR..lack of credibility.’”

The new interest in this old settled case results from lawyers representing some of JE victims filed a suit against the US government, not JE. They contend that the US govt violated their rights. The documents and deal that JE negotiated with the government was given to the lawyers 6 years ago and is a public document.

I am not a part of, nor did you have anything to do with, JE plea bargain. I have never even seen the proceedings nor any of the depositions. I reserve my right to file complaint and sue for defamation and slander.”; Id.

These correspondences demonstrate that Ms. Maxwell has no control over Mr. Epstein in regards to the alleged defamation statement, he had no role in issuance of the statement, he has no benefit in the outcome of this litigation and he played no controlling role in its respect.

Similarly, there is not any evidence at all to support an adverse inference to be drawn from either Sarah Kellen nor Nadia Marcincova's assertion of the Fifth. Ms. Maxwell hardly knows either woman, never worked with them, they have had nothing to do with this litigation and do not stand to benefit from it, especially as Plaintiff has never made any allegations about her involvement with either of the two of them, they are simply irrelevant to this defamation action.

III. PLAINTIFF'S BAD FAITH DISCOVERY TACTICS SHOULD NOT BE REWARDED WITH EXTRA TIME

1. Plaintiff's Rule 26 Revolving Door

Plaintiff's army of lawyers (who collectively have been litigating matters related to Jeffrey Epstein since 2008) served their Rule 26 initial disclosures on November 11, 2015. Those disclosures listed 94 individual witnesses with knowledge regarding the facts of this case, yet provided addresses (only of their counsel) as to just two, Jeffrey Epstein and Alan Dershowitz. Plaintiff then also listed categories of witnesses such as "all other then-minor girls, whose identities Plaintiff will attempt to determine" and "all pilots, chauffeurs, chefs, and other employees of" Ms. Maxwell or Jeffrey Epstein. Plaintiff claimed as to her Rule 26 disclosures that "only a fraction of those individuals will actually be witnesses in this case, and as discovery progresses, the list will be further narrowed." (Doc. #20 at 17) The opposite has happened.

Between November 11 and March 11, Plaintiff trimmed her Rule 26 list of persons with knowledge from 94 to 69, inexplicably removing 34 names, but adding 12 more. She removed, for example, witnesses Andrea Mitrovich and Dara Preece, but added Senators George Mitchell, Bill Richardson and Les Wexner.

Then between March 11 and June 1, a few weeks before the discovery cut-off, Plaintiff added 20 more witnesses, including President Clinton, Palm Beach officers Recarey and Reiter, and purported “victims of sexual abuse” including a client of Mr. Edwards, who he has clearly known about for years.¹⁰ As to several of these newly added witnesses, in particular [REDACTED] Recarey and Reiter, Plaintiff promptly scheduled their depositions in June, despite having just disclosed their names on June 1. And last Friday, on the business day just before the depositions of [REDACTED] and Recarey, Plaintiff disclosed 623 new documents, including for the first time the “unredacted” police reports from Palm Beach, that Plaintiff clearly has had in her possession, or her counsel’s possession, for years. Menninger Decl. Ex. K.

This is precisely the type of hide-and-seek that Rule 26 is designed to prevent. While Ms. Maxwell anticipates filing in the near future a separate motion concerning Plaintiff’s latest Rule 26 violations and seeking sanctions for the same, this Court can and should consider this behavior in determining whether Plaintiff has “good cause” to extend the discovery cut-off so that she can continue her gamesmanship.

2. Plaintiff’s Recurrent Rule 45 Violations

As this Court has previously held:

Rule 45(b)(1) requires a party issuing a subpoena for the production of documents to a nonparty to “provide prior notice to all parties to the litigation,” which has been interpreted to “require that notice be given prior to the issuance of the subpoena, not prior to its return date.” Murphy v. Board of Educ., 196 F.R.D. 220, 222 (W.D.N.Y.2000). At least one court in this circuit has held that notice provided on the same day that the subpoenas have been served constitutes inadequate notice under Rule 45. See, e.g., Fox Industries, Inc. v. Gurovich, No. 03–CV–5166, 2006 WL 2882580, *11 (E.D.N.Y. Oct. 6, 2006). ... The requirement that prior notice “must be given has important underpinnings of fairness and efficiency.” Cootes Drive LLC v. Internet Law Library, Inc., No. 01–CV–9877, 2002 WL 424647, *2 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 19, 2002). Plaintiff fails to provide an adequate explanation or argument for how a same-day notification satisfies Rule 45's requirements. See, e.g., id. (“[C]ounsel for the [offending party] offered no explanation or excuse for their failure to comply with the rule's strictures. They did not attempt to defend the timeliness of their notice. The [offending party's] admitted violation ... cannot be countenanced.”).

Usov v. Lazar, 13-cv-818 (RWS), 2014 WL 4354691, at *15 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 2, 2014) (granting motion to quash the subpoenas where notice given on the same day and served beyond 100 mile limitation of Rule 45). In that case, Plaintiff had provided same day notice of the issuance of a subpoena. Here, we have repeated attempts to serve a subpoena over the course of days before any notice was given to Ms. Maxwell. As described previously, Plaintiff has amply documented her own violations of the Rule by detailing her attempts to serve subpoenas duces tecum before ever providing notice to Ms. Maxwell with regards to witnesses Epstein, Kellen and Marcincova.

Likewise, with respect to witness, Alexandra Hall, Plaintiff served the subpoena prior to providing notice. See Menninger Decl. Ex. L. Served subpoenas before providing Notice under Rule 45. Accordingly, Plaintiff moves to quash the subpoenas on Epstein, Kellen and Marcincova as violations of Rule 45's notice provision. Ms. Maxwell further requests sanctions pursuant to Rule 37 for these documented violations.

With respect to Ms. Hall, who was deposed already earlier today, Ms. Maxwell believes that she did not offer any admissible testimony at her deposition. If Plaintiff's seek to introduce her testimony, the defense reserves the right to exclude such testimony both on evidentiary grounds as well as in violation of Rule 45's notice provision.¹¹

IV. MS. MAXWELL'S GOOD FAITH EFFORTS TO CONDUCT DISCOVERY

¹¹ Counsel for Ms. Maxwell only learned of the Rule 45 violation this past weekend after reviewing certificates of service provided by Plaintiff's counsel last week, without sufficient time to file a motion to quash the subpoena on Ms. Hall.

As already documented in previous pleadings, Ms. Maxwell's counsel has engaged in significant and repeated efforts to conduct discovery in this case in a professional, civil manner, especially as it relates to the depositions of non-parties. On February 25, 2016, counsel for Ms. Maxwell requested that the lawyers confer by telephone to arrange a schedule for the non-party depositions to occur in various states and countries.¹² Plaintiff ignored that request, and requests of the same ilk made on at least 6 different occasions in March and April. It was only on two and ½ months later, on May 5, 2016, when Plaintiff's counsel finally responded with "as is becoming clear, both sides are going to be needing to be coordinating a number of depositions."¹³ She then proposed a calendar which scheduled 13 additional depositions for Plaintiff and only 2 days (actually ½ days) for defendant to depose her remaining witnesses.¹⁴ Defendant provided a calendar which allowed for both sides to take remaining depositions, but Plaintiff ignored it and continued to schedule depositions on dates for witnesses without consulting defense counsel for their availability first. Menninger Decl., Ex. M.

Because of the breakdown in communications, defense counsel was left with little choice but to (a) show up at each of Plaintiff's noticed depositions, in Florida and New York, and (b) issue subpoenas for witness depositions on other dates in June. For example, Plaintiff issued a ¹² McCawley Decl. in Support of Request to Exceed Ten Deposition Limit, Exhibit 1 (Doc. # 173-1) at 28 (Letter of Menninger to McCawley (Feb. 25, 2015) ("I would suggest that rather than repeated emails on the topic of scheduling the various depositions in this case, or the unilateral issuance of deposition notices and subpoenas, you and I have a phone conference wherein we discuss which depositions are going to be taken, where, and a plan for doing them in an orderly fashion that minimizes travel and inconvenience for counsel and the witnesses. As you are well aware from your own practice of law, attorneys have other clients, other court dates and other commitments to work around. The FRCP and Local Rules contemplate courtesy and cooperation among counsel in the scheduling and timing of discovery processes. This rule makes even more sense in a case such as this spanning various parts of the country where counsel must engage in lengthy travel and the attendant scheduling of flights, hotels and rental cars.")).

Notice of Deposition for Juan Alessi on May 31, 2016, without any conferral with counsel, in Florida, fully aware that defense counsel would be traveling from Colorado. Defense counsel, in fact, did have to travel on Memorial Day to Florida for the 9:00 a.m. May 31 deposition. Mr. Alessi, however, did not appear on that date, believing that his deposition was for June 1, the same day that his wife had been subpoenaed to appear and because he and his wife live an hour away from Ft. Lauderdale. Thus, despite defense counsel's herculean efforts, no deposition occurred on May 31. On June 1, Mr. Alessi appeared, but there was insufficient time to take his wife's deposition, who presumably made the one hour drive for naught. Also, defense counsel then had to travel to New York for the June 2 hearing and back to Florida for a deposition of another witness, Mr. Rogers, that had been scheduled without input from defense counsel.

Counsel for Plaintiff makes much of her efforts to serve witnesses Epstein, Marcincova and Kellen. She fails to advise the Court that Ms. Maxwell has been "forced" to expend great time, money and resources to serve Plaintiff's own mother, father, former fiancé and former boyfriend. As described before, the defense even re-scheduled the deposition of Plaintiff's former fiancé due to the last minute unavailability of Plaintiff's counsel, although all counsel were already in Florida and had expended hundreds of dollars to serve him. Plaintiff made no effort to help serve those closest to her, including her own family members. Unlike Plaintiff, however, Ms. Maxwell and her counsel are fully aware that such are the difficulties of litigation. We do not ascribe to Plaintiff the blame.

Having flown to Florida a total of four separate times to attend depositions of five of Plaintiff's noticed witnesses, defense counsel has borne the brunt of Plaintiff's mismanagement of counsel and witness time. Defense counsel scheduled their own Florida depositions of three witnesses to occur during two of the four trips. Defense counsel offered to, and did, schedule the two Colorado non-party witnesses the same week in May, so as minimize Plaintiff's counsel's travel obligations. Plaintiff, however, rescheduled the deposition of Mr. Rizzo in New York for a week after this Court had a hearing, rather than accommodating any attempt to have the New York deposition occur when all counsel were already present in NY.

To the extent the Court wishes to consider the good faith efforts of defense counsel in conducting depositions when deciding whether to grant Plaintiff additional time, defense has more than met their burden.

V. GOOD CAUSE EXISTS TO TAKE RE-DEPOSE PLAINTIFF AND TO DEPOSE SHARON CHURCHER EXISTS

In contrast to the lack of good cause to extend discovery for Plaintiff's six witnesses, Ms. Maxwell seeks leave of the Court to take depositions beyond June 30. First, Ms. Maxwell properly served a deposition subpoena (and provided appropriate notice to Plaintiff's counsel) on Plaintiff's friend, confidante and former-Daily Mail journalist, Sharon Churcher for a deposition to occur in New York on June 16. Menninger Decl. Ex. N. On June 15, the day before her scheduled deposition, Ms. Churcher's counsel filed a Motion to Quash. That motion is to be heard by this Court on June 23. Should the Court deny the Motion to Quash, Ms. Churcher's deposition would need to be re-scheduled. Dates in early July would be sufficient for counsel.

Similarly, Ms. Maxwell is filing simultaneously with this Motion a request to re-open the deposition of Plaintiff on the grounds, inter alia, that she failed to provide numerous documents (ordered to be produced by this Court) until after her deposition (and still has failed to provide others)¹⁵, she materially changed substantive and significant portions of her testimony after the ¹⁵ For example, Ms. Giuffre testified that she had approximately 8 boxes, which included documents pertinent to this case, which she shipped from her home in Colorado to Australia in October 2015 to an undisclosed location (at her deposition, she would not testify where in Australia the boxes were located), and that the boxes had not been searched for responsive documents. Menninger Decl. Ex. D. In repeated conferrals following her deposition, on May 19, her counsel finally agreed to secure the boxes. As of today's date, the boxes still have not arrived, fact through her errata sheet on May 31, and she refused to answer material questions at her deposition on the advice of counsel, including for example, which of Ms. Churcher's many quotes attributed to her were incorrect. See, e.g., Menninger Decl. Ex. D, referenced supra. As with Ms. Churcher's deposition, the re-opened deposition of Plaintiff could occur in early July, assuming she provides the Court-ordered documents timely.

VI. ALTERNATIVELY, ALL OTHER DEADLINES NEED TO BE EXTENDED

Finally, Plaintiff glibly asserts that she seeks only 30 extra days to conduct her depositions, but does not want any other dates moved. Of course, that inures to her benefit and to Ms. Maxwell's detriment. July already was scheduled for expert disclosures (Plaintiff has yet to disclose her retained expert, and thus the defense has been unable to secure a rebuttal expert). Likewise, should any new information be learned in these late depositions that requires rebuttal, Ms. Maxwell will be unable to secure such evidence on a timely basis.

Further, summary judgment motions are due in this case on August 3. If depositions continue throughout August, Ms. Maxwell's ability to include any late-learned information in her anticipated motion will be jeopardized. Finally, the trial is scheduled for October, continuing fact discovery until August seriously impinges on Ms. Maxwell's ability to prepare for that trial, including preparing witnesses, exhibits and testimony.

WHEREFORE, Ms. Maxwell requests that the Motion to Extend the Deadline to Complete Depositions be denied; alternatively, if the deadline is extended for any of the listed six witnesses, Ms. Maxwell requests that the dates for expert discovery, dispositive motions and the trial date be extended as well. Further, Ms. Maxwell requests sanctions for Plaintiff's failures to comply with the notice provisions of Rule 45(a)(4).

apparently having been put on the slow boat to the US. One can only imagine where on the high seas the boxes may be located now. Of course, there were many alternative methods to search the boxes. The unknown custodians in Australia for example could have simply looked in them to see whether they contained any responsive documents.

Dated: June 20, 2016.

 2 Q. The lawsuit with the Dubins

 5 A. Correct.
 6 Q. That was pursuant to a confidential
 7 settlement agreement?
 8 A. Correct.
 9 Q. And I am assuming that you received
 10 a sum of money to settle that litigation, is 11 that correct?
 12 A. Correct.
 13 Q. And I'm not going to ask you the
 14 details about that, but in case I need to do
 15 something, let me put it this way. If I
 16 choose to subpoena that settlement agreement
 17 from the Dubins, are you going to have any 18 objection to that, or is it all right if we 19 do that as far as you are concerned?
 20 A. I would have to discuss it with my 21 lawyer.
 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: I can talk to you
 23 about that, if we decide to do it.
 24 Q. I just want to turn now, and this
 25 is the last series of questions I have, what

Page 129

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential
 2 you did in advance of coming here today.
 3 Have you talked to Mr. Edwards
 4 before?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. And when have you talked to Mr.
 7 Edwards?
 8 A. I don't recall the exact date and
 9 time.
 10 Q. Did Mr. Edwards call you or did you
 11 call Mr. Edwards first?
 12 A. I called him.
 13 Q. When did you call Mr. Edwards?
 14 A. I don't recall the exact date and
 15 time.
 16 Q. Years ago, days ago, months ago?
 17 A. It's been at least over a year.
 18 Q. Why did you call Mr. Edwards?
 19 A. At the time I was having a very
 20 hard time with my attorney. My wife and I
 21 had discussed the issue. As my wife put it,
 22 we needed an attorney with balls and she had
 23 been keeping track of the Jeffrey Epstein
 24 issue, and basically in our conversation --
 25 MR. LEWIS: Let me stop you there.

Page 130

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential
 2 There is a privilege of spousal
 3 privilege, so please don't disclose
 4 conversations you had with your wife.
 5 THE WITNESS: Sorry.
 6 MR. LEWIS: You can answer the
 7 question why you called, but you don't
 8 need to disclose anything about
 9 conversations with your wife.
 10 A. I was looking for an attorney that 11 basically could handle this kind of 12 situation, and I felt like, from what I had 13 read, that Mr. Edwards was probably someone I
 14 needed to attain, if I could.
 15 Q. And so the, you referenced
 16 dissatisfaction with an attorney. I'm
 17 assuming that was the attorney that filed
 18 this 13-cv-8664 action, is that correct?
 19 A. Correct.
 20 Q. So you weren't happy with that
 21 lawyer and you were looking for a more
 22 aggressive lawyer?
 23 A. Correct, or someone that could work
 24 with my lawyer.
 25 Q. The point being you were looking to

Page 131

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential
 2 recover some form of compensation, I take it,
 3 from the Dubins or Mr. Epstein?
 4 A. I was hoping -- how does Mr.
 5 Epstein --
 6 Q. I don't know. I'm asking the
 7 question.
 8 A. That's incorrect.
 9 Q. You were seeking to get
 10 compensation from the Dubins, though?
 11 A. Correct.
 12 Q. And that was the point of you
 13 calling Mr. Edwards is that, however you
 14 learned it, you learned about the Epstein
 15 litigation and you knew Mr. Edwards was 16 involved in the Epstein litigation?
 17 A. Correct.
 18 Q. The point of you contacting Mr.
 19 Edwards was to see if he could represent you
 20 in some litigation involving the Dubins in 21 which you would collect money, is that right?
 22 A. Correct.
 23 Q. And so when you called Mr. Edwards,
 24 what do you recall telling him?
 25 MR. LEWIS: At this point, I object

Page 132

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential
 2 on attorney/client privilege grounds.
 3 The conversation is privileged for the
 4 purpose of seeking legal advice.
 5 MR. PAGLIUCA: I don't understand.
 6 Mr. Edwards is the lawyer for the
 7 witness.
 8 MR. LEWIS: I am the lawyer for the
 9 witness.
 10 MR. PAGLIUCA: I know, I'm not
 11 asking about you.
 12 MR. LEWIS: He called Mr. Edwards
 13 for the purpose to determine whether Mr.
 14 Edwards could represent him in some 15 capacity in that other lawsuit, so the 16 conversations is privileged.
 17 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to
 18 disagree, and you know we may need to 19 revisit that issue respectfully.
 20 MR. LEWIS: Fair enough.
 21 MR. PAGLIUCA: Let me put some 22 parameters on this that don't ask for 23 communications.
 24 MR. LEWIS: Ask a question and I
 25 will object or not.

Page 133

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential
 2 Q. I think you said you called Mr.
 3 Edwards about a year ago?
 4 A. More or less, correct.
 5 Q. I didn't print out the docket
 6 sheet, but do you recall when you settled the 7 13-cv-8664 case?
 8 A. To the best of my recollection, I
 9 think it was in December.
 10 Q. Of?
 11 A. I don't recall. I mean, it's last
 12 year.
 13 Q. Without telling me what you told
 14 Mr. Edwards, what was the purpose of your 15 calling -- I think you already told me this,
 16 so I won't reask it. Never mind.
 17 Did you just speak with Mr. Edwards
 18 over the phone?
 19 A. Correct, yes.
 20 Q. And I take it Mr. Edwards did not
 21 become your lawyer in connection with any
 22 litigation against the Dubins, correct?
 23 MR. LEWIS: You may answer that.
 24 A. Correct.
 25 Q. And Mr. Edwards in some fashion

Page 134

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential
 2 indicated to you that he wasn't going to be
 3 your lawyer in connection with litigation,
 4 correct?
 5 MR. LEWIS: Objection. Do not
 6 answer that on privilege grounds.
 7 Q. Mr. Edwards never became your
 8 lawyer, is that right?
 9 A. Correct.
 10 Q. After that conversation, did you
 11 have any -- after you understood that Mr.
 12 Edwards was not your lawyer, did you have
 13 further conversations with Mr. Edwards?
 14 A. No, I did not.
 15 Q. You may object to this, but I need
 16 to ask this question. In the first
 17 conversation that you had with Mr. Edwards,
 18 did you tell Mr. Edwards the things that
 19 you've told us here today?
 20 MR. LEWIS: Objection. Do not
 21 answer.
 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Privilege?
 23 MR. LEWIS: Yes.
 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: So just so the 25 record is clear, it seems to me this

Page 135

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential
 2 would be a subject matter waiver of
 3 everything that he has talked about. I
 4 don't know why it makes a difference if
 5 he is talking about it now and he told
 6 Mr. Edwards, I think he can talk about
 7 what he said to Mr. Edwards. It seems
 8 to me there is a waiver here.
 9 MR. LEWIS: You are presuming what
 10 he said to Mr. Edwards. And secondly,
 11 just because, even if that were the 12 case, I'm not saying it is, just because
 13 you testify to incidents which you tell
 14 your attorney about doesn't mean the 15 disclosures to your attorney are not 16 privileged.
 17 MR. PAGLIUCA: Fair enough. We can 18 argue about this later if we need to.
 19 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:
 20 Q. Other than Mr. Edwards and your
 21 wife and your current attorney, have you
 22 talked to anyone else about the things that
 23 you've talked about here today?
 24 A. No, I have not.
 25 Q. I think you answered this question,

Page 136

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential
 2 but I want to make sure.
 3 After that first conversation with
 4 Mr. Edwards, did you speak with Mr. Edwards
 5 again in advance of this deposition today?
 6 MR. LEWIS: You may answer that.
 7 A. No, I have not.
 8 Q. Do you know, did Mr. Edwards
 9 provide a list of questions to your lawyer,
 10 who is here today, for you to provide those 11 answers to your lawyer to give to Mr.
 12 Edwards?
 13 MR. LEWIS: I advise the witness to
 14 only answer that question to the extent
 15 he knows it outside of any conversations
 16 that he might have had with me, which
 17 are privileged.
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. So let me explain that question,
 20 and here is my issue with that, and I don't 21 know if this happened or didn't happen, but 22 if there are questions that are given
 23 proposed to you by Mr. Edwards and you give 24 them to the client with the expectation he is 25 going to give that information to you to give

Page 137

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential
 2 to Mr. Edwards, it's not privileged.
 3 MR. LEWIS: I can represent that
 4 didn't happen.
 5 MR. PAGLIUCA: That solves the
 6 problem.
 7 Q. I'm just closing the loop on this
 8 and then we are done.
 9 Have you spoken to anyone who is
 10 affiliated with Mr. Edwards, either another
 11 lawyer in his office, paralegal, an 12 investigator, about the things that you've
 13 talked about here today?
 14 A. No, I have not.
 15 MR. PAGLIUCA: That's all I have.
 16 MR. EDWARDS: I don't have any
 17 questions. I appreciate you taking the 18 time. Sorry about your injury.
 19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 20 12:58 p.m. and we are going off the 21 record.

EXAMINATION	PAGE
MS. MENNINGER	8
PRODUCTION REQUEST(S) :
(None.)

1 wanted to know about the Prince Andrew incident.

2 Q So that's a different piece of paper?

3 A Yeah, that's just random paper.

4 Q So you had a green spiral notebook that
5 you began sometime in 2011 or 2012 in which you wrote
6 down your recollections about what had happened to
7 you, and you burned that in a bonfire in 2013.

8 Did I get that right?

9 A You got that right.

10 Q And do you have no other names of people
11 to whom you claim Ghislaine Maxwell directed you to
12 have sex, correct?

13 A At this time, no.

14 Q Is there any document that would refresh
15 your recollection that you could look at?

16 A If you have a document you'd like to show
17 me, I would be glad to look at it and tell you the
18 names I recognize off of that.

19 Q I'm just asking you if there's a document
20 you know of that has this list of names in it?

21 A Not in front of me, no.

22 Q Where is the original of the photograph
23 that has been widely circulated in the press of you
24 with Prince Andrew?

25 A I probably still have it. It's not in my

1 possession right now.

2 Q Where is it?

3 A Probably in some storage boxes.

4 Q Where?

5 A In Sydney.

6 Q Where in Sydney?

7 A At some family's house. We got the boxes
8 shipped to Australia, and they were picked up off the
9 porch by my nephews and brought to their house.

10 Q Which is where?

11 A In Sydney.

12 Q Where in Sydney?

13 A Bass Hill.

14 Q And who lives in that house?

15 A Well, it's owned by my mother-in-law and
16 father-in-law, but my nephews live in the house.

17 Q What are their names?

18 A I'm not giving you the names of my
19 nephews.

20 Q What's the address of the house?

21 A Why would you want that?

22 Q I want to know where the photograph is.

23 I'm asking you where the photograph is. And you've
24 just told me it's somewhere in Bass Hill?

25 A Yes.

1 Q So where in Bass Hill is the photograph
2 located?

3 A If I can't 100 percent say that the
4 photograph is there, it could be at my house that I
5 presently live in. I'm not going to give you the
6 address of my nephews' residence.

7 Q When is the last time you saw the
8 photograph in person?

9 A When I packed and left America.

10 Q Colorado?

11 A Yes.

12 Q All right. So you had that photograph
13 here with you in Colorado?

14 A Yes.

15 Q What's on the back of the photograph?

16 A I'm sorry?

17 Q Is there anything on the back of the
18 photograph?

19 A There's like the date it was printed, but
20 no writing or anything.

21 Q Okay. Does it say where it was printed?

22 A I don't believe so. I think it just -- I
23 don't remember. I just remember there's a date on
24 it.

25 Q Whose camera was it taken with?

1 A My little yellow Kodak camera.

2 Q Who took the picture?

3 A Jeffrey Epstein.

4 Q And where did you have it developed?

5 A I believe when I got back to America.

6 Q So where?

7 A I don't know.

8 Q Palm Beach?

9 A I don't know.

10 Q What is the date the photograph was
11 printed?

12 A I believe it's in March 2001.

13 Q Okay.

14 A But that's just off of my photographic
15 memory. I don't -- it could be different, but I
16 think it's March 2001.

17 Q You have a photographic memory?

18 A I'm not saying I have a photographic
19 memory. But if I'd look at the back of the photo and
20 I remember what it says, I believe it was March 2001.

21 Q Did the photograph ever leave your
22 possession for a while?

23 A I gave it to the FBI.

24 Q Okay. And when did you get it back?

25 A When they took copies of it.

1 Q When was that?

2 A 2011.

3 Q When they came to interview you?

4 A Yes.

5 Q So from 2011 until you left Colorado it
6 was in your personal possession?

7 A Yes.

8 Q What other documents related to this case
9 are in that, storage boxes in Australia?

10 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

11 A Documents related to this case -- there --
12 I don't know. I really can't tell you. I mean,
13 there's seven boxes full of Nerf guns, my kids' toys,
14 photos. I don't know what other documents would be
15 in there.

16 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did anyone search
17 those documents after you received discovery requests
18 from us in this case?

19 A I haven't been able to obtain those boxes.
20 I can't get them sent back up to me. It's going to
21 cost me a large amount of money. And right now I'm
22 trying to look after my family, so I'm not able to
23 afford to get them up.

24 Q You live in Australia, correct?

25 A I do.

1 Q Okay. How far away are the boxes from
2 where you live in Australia?

3 A Sydney is down here at the bottom. Cairns
4 is up here at the top.

5 Q Okay.

6 A It's probably a six-day drive.

7 Q Did you fly here through Sydney?

8 A No.

9 Q Have you been to Sydney since you've moved
10 back to Australia?

11 A I flew into Sydney with my three kids, but
12 it was a connecting flight to Brisbane.

13 Q Did you ask your nephews or anyone else to
14 search those boxes in response to discovery requests
15 that we issued in this case?

16 A They are my nephews. I would never let
17 them look at those.

18 Q Other than your green spiral notebook,
19 what else did you burn in this bonfire in 2013?

20 A That was it.

21 Q That's the only thing?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Did you use wood?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Charcoal?

1 A My husband built the bonfire out of wood
2 and I don't know what else he put in it. He's the
3 one who always makes the fires, not me.

4 Q Who else was present?

5 A Just him and I.

6 Q Were your kids there?

7 A No. They were inside sleeping.

8 Q And what beach was this?

9 A It wasn't a beach. It was in my backyard.

10 Q What's your address?

11 A At that time?

12 Q Um-hum.

13 A [REDACTED]

14 Q [REDACTED]

15 A Yes.

16 Q Who were your neighbors?

17 A Sweet people. Ray and -- I could look on
18 my phone if you want.

19 Q No, thank you. Do they still live there?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Do you keep in touch with them?

22 A Last time I talked to them was a few
23 months ago.

24 Q Did they see the fire?

25 A They've seen many fires that we've had.

1 We've had lots of bonfires there.

2 Q Did you ever ride in a helicopter with
3 Ghislaine Maxwell acting as pilot of the helicopter?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Who else was on the flight?

6 A I've been on the helicopter with her
7 plenty of times. I can't mention how many people
8 were on the -- on the helicopter at the same time.

9 Q How many times?

10 A I don't know. Do you have helicopter
11 records that you could show me?

12 Q I'm asking you how many times you were on 13 the helicopter with Ghislaine Maxwell acting as the
14 pilot --

15 A It's impossible for me to answer the
16 question without having the actual physical records
17 in front of me.

18 Q I'm asking you to look into your memory
19 and tell me how many times you recall being on a
20 helicopter with Ghislaine Maxwell at the pilot seat?

21 A There is no number I can give you.
22 There's plenty of times I've been on her helicopter.

23 Q Where did you go from and to on a
24 helicopter?

25 A I believe it was -- don't quote me on this

1 because I get confused on the islands there. I want
2 to say it was St. John's. It could have been
3 St. Barts. St. John or St. Barts, and then we would
4 fly straight to Jeffrey's island.

5 Q Okay. Did you ever go anywhere else on
6 the helicopter?

7 A No.

8 Q Were you ever on the helicopter with Bill
9 Clinton and Ghislaine Maxwell as the pilot of the 10 helicopter?

11 A No.

12 Q Were you ever on the helicopter with Bill
13 Clinton's Secret Service and Ghislaine Maxwell as the 14 pilot?

15 A No.

16 Q Do you recall telling Sharon Churcher that
17 you were?

18 A No.

19 Q Did you see the press article in which
20 Sharon Churcher reported that you were?

21 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. I'd just ask
22 that if you're going to ask this witness about a
23 specific article I'd like for her to see the article.
24 Otherwise she's not going to testify about it.

25 If you have something to show her, then,

1 please.

2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recall seeing a
3 press article in which Sharon Churcher reported that
4 you were on a helicopter with Bill Clinton and
5 Ghislaine Maxwell as the pilot?

6 MR. EDWARDS: Again, I'll let you answer
7 the question once she's looking at the document that
8 you're being asked about.

9 MS. MENNINGER: You're not letting her
10 answer a question about whether she recalls a
11 particular press statement?

12 MR. EDWARDS: I will let her answer every
13 question about the press statement as long as she
14 sees the press statement. I'm okay with that. She
15 can answer all of them.

16 MS. MENNINGER: No, there is a rule of
17 civil procedure that allows you to direct a witness
18 not to answer a question when there's a claim of
19 privilege.

20 What privilege are you claiming to direct
21 her not to answer this question?

22 MR. EDWARDS: I thought that you wanted
23 accurate answers from this witness. If the --

24 MS. MENNINGER: I asked her if she
25 recalled something --

1 MR. EDWARDS: If the sole purpose is to
2 just to harass her --

3 MS. MENNINGER: I asked her if she
4 recalled something --

5 MR. EDWARDS: Then that's just not going
6 to be what's happening today.

7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. So you're
8 refusing to answer a question about whether you
9 recall a particular press statement --

10 MR. EDWARDS: She's --

11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) -- is that true?

12 MR. EDWARDS: She is not refusing to
13 answer any questions. She --

14 A I'm not refusing to answer. I just want
15 to see the article you're talking about so I can be
16 clear in my statement.

17 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recall seeing a
18 press article written by Sharon Churcher reporting
19 that you flew on a helicopter with Bill Clinton and
20 Ghislaine Maxwell as the pilot?

21 A No, I do not recall reading a press
22 article saying that I was on a helicopter with Bill
23 Clinton as Ghislaine is the pilot.

24 Q Do you recall telling Sharon Churcher that
25 you had conversations with Bill Clinton regarding him

1 flying on a helicopter with Ghislaine Maxwell?

2 A I believe that it was taken out of
3 context. Ghislaine told me that she flew Bill
4 Clinton in. And Ghislaine likes to talk a lot of
5 stuff that sounds fantastical. And whether it's true
6 or not, that is what I do recall telling Sharon
7 Churcher.

8 Q So you told Sharon Churcher that Ghislaine
9 Maxwell is the one who told you that she flew Bill
10 Clinton in the helicopter?

11 A I told Sharon Churcher that Ghislaine flew
12 Bill Clinton onto the island, based upon what
13 Ghislaine had told me.

14 Q Not based upon what Bill Clinton had told
15 you, correct?

16 A Correct.

17 Q Did you ever ask Sharon Churcher to
18 correct anything that was printed under her name,
19 concerning your stories to Sharon Churcher?

20 A I wasn't given those stories to read
21 before they were printed.

22 Q After they were printed did you read them?

23 A I tried to stay away from them. They were
24 very hard. You have to understand it was a very hard
25 time for me and my husband to have to have this

1 public -- we didn't think it was going to be this
2 publicly announced and that big. So we turned off
3 the news and we stopped reading so many things.

4 Q You didn't read the articles about your
5 stories to Sharon Churcher --

6 A I've read some articles --

7 Q Let me just finish. You did not read the
8 articles published by Sharon Churcher about your
9 stories to Sharon Churcher?

10 A I have read some articles about what
11 Sharon Churcher wrote. And a lot of the stuff that 12 she writes she takes things from my own mouth and
13 changes them into her own words as journalists do.

14 And I never came back to her and told her
15 to correct anything. What was done was done. There
16 was nothing else I can do.

17 Q So even if she printed something that were
18 untrue you didn't ask her to correct it, correct?

19 A There was things that she printed that
20 really pissed me off, but there was nothing I could
21 do about it. It's already out there.

22 Q She printed things that were untrue,
23 correct?

24 MR. EDWARDS: Objection to the form.
25 Mischaracterization.

1 A I wouldn't say that they were untrue. I
2 would just say that she printed them as journalists
3 take your words and turn them into something else.

4 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) She got it wrong?

5 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
6 Mischaracterization.

7 A In some ways, yes.

8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did she print things
9 in her articles that you did not say to her?

10 MR. EDWARDS: I object and ask that the
11 witness be given the opportunity to see the document
12 so that she can review it and answer that question
13 accurately. Otherwise she's unable to answer the
14 question. I'm not going to allow her to answer.

15 MS. MENNINGER: You know the civil rules
16 tell you not to suggest answers to your client.

17 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And you understand
18 your lawyer is now directing you to not all of a
19 sudden remember what your answer is. That's what
20 he's suggesting that you say. So you're not supposed
21 to listen to him suggest that to you. You're
22 supposed to tell me from your memory.

23 MR. EDWARDS: That is not what I'm --

24 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did you --

25 MR. EDWARDS: That's not what I'm doing.

1 You don't get to just talk over me and
2 tell my client when not to listen to me. All you
3 have to do to get answers is show her the document
4 you're talking about, and I'll let her answer every
5 question. I don't know why we're so scared of the 6 actual documents.

7 MS. MENNINGER: I don't know why you're
8 scared of your client's recollection, Mr. Edwards.
9 But anyway --

10 MR. EDWARDS: Why would you do this to
11 her?

12 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did Sharon Churcher
13 print things that you did not say?

14 MR. EDWARDS: I'm going to instruct my
15 client not to answer unless you give her what it is 16 that you're talking about that was printed. And she 17 will tell you the answer, the accurate answer to your
18 question. Just without the document to refresh her
19 recollection and see it, she's not going to answer
20 the question.

21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did Sharon Churcher
22 print things that you did not say?

23 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
24 instruction not to answer.

25 I think I've made a very clear record as

1 to why I want my client to answer all of these
2 questions, but I want her to have the fair
3 opportunity to see this document.

4 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did Sharon Churcher
5 print things that you felt were inaccurate?

6 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
7 instruction. If she sees the document, she's going
8 to answer every one of these questions.

9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did any other reporter
10 print statements that you believe are inaccurate?

11 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
12 instruction.

13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did any reporter print
14 statements about Ghislaine Maxwell that were
15 inaccurate?

16 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
17 instruction.

18 This is harassing. This is harassing a
19 sexual abuse victim. And all I'm asking is for 20 fairness, that we just let her see the document so
21 she can answer this.

22 MS. MENNINGER: Mr. Edwards, please stop
23 saying anything other than an objection, what the
24 basis is, or instructing your client not to answer.

25 MR. EDWARDS: I will do that.

1 MS. MENNINGER: That's what the Federal
2 Rules of Civil Procedure provide.

3 MR. EDWARDS: I hear you. They also
4 provide for fairness and civility. And all I'm
5 asking, very calmly, is for her to see this.

6 MS. MENNINGER: Mr. Edwards, this is not
7 your deposition. I'm asking your client what she
8 remembers. If she doesn't want to talk about what
9 she remembers, then let her not answer. But you
10 cannot instruct her not to answer unless there's a
11 privilege.

12 What privilege --

13 MR. EDWARDS: I am instructing her not to
14 answer.

15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. You are
16 refusing to answer questions about whether statements
17 to the press about Ghislaine Maxwell attributed to
18 you were inaccurate?

19 MR. EDWARDS: She's not refusing not to
20 answer.

21 A You are refusing to show me these
22 documents so I could answer properly. I would give
23 you an answer if you were to show me some documents.

24 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You can't say without
25 looking at a document whether the press attributed to

1 you is accurate or inaccurate?

2 A Please show me the document.

3 Q You can't say from the top of your head
4 whether any inaccurate statement has been attributed
5 to you in the press?

6 A Please show me a document and I will tell
7 you.

8 Q Are you refusing to answer my questions
9 about your knowledge of whether inaccurate statements
10 have been attributed to you in the press?

11 A Are you refusing to give me the documents
12 to look at?

13 Q Are you refusing to answer the question?

14 A I am refusing to answer the question based 15 upon the fact that you are not being fair enough to 16 let me see the document in order to give you an
17 honest answer.

18 Q Ms. Giuffre --

19 A Yes.

20 Q -- we are talking about press that has
21 been published on the Internet, correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Do you have access to the Internet?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Have you looked on the Internet and read

1 articles that attribute statements to you about
2 Ghislaine Maxwell?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Do you know any statement that has been
5 attributed to you in a press article on the Internet
6 about Ghislaine Maxwell that is untrue?

7 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
8 instruction.

9 A Please show me a specific document.

10 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you know of any
11 such statement about Ghislaine Maxwell attributed to
12 you by the press that is inaccurate?

13 A If you could please show me a specific
14 document.

15 Q Tell me what Sharon Churcher asked you to
16 write for her.

17 A Any knowledge that I had about my time
18 with Prince Andrew.

19 Q And did you write it?

20 A Um-hum.

21 Q What did you write it in or on?

22 A Paper.

23 Q What kind of paper?

24 A Lined paper.

25 Q Was it in a book or single sheets?

1 A Single sheets.

2 Q And did you write a long document or a
3 short document? What was it?

4 A I can't recall how long the document was,
5 but I would say it would be a few pages.

6 Q And other than asking you to write
7 whatever you remember about Prince Andrew, did she
8 give you any other directions about what you should
9 write?

10 A She was interested in two things, really.
11 How Epstein got away with so many counts of child
12 trafficking for sex and how Prince Andrew was
13 involved in it. Those were her two main inquiries.

14 Q What did she ask you to write?

15 A She asked me to write about Prince Andrew.

16 Q Did she tell you to put it in your own
17 handwriting?

18 A No, she just asked me to write down what I
19 can remember.

20 Q Did you give her everything that you
21 wrote?

22 A Did I give her the whole entire pages that
23 I wrote?

24 Q Yes.

25 A Yeah, I wrote pages for her specifically.

1 Q In your own handwriting?

2 A In my own handwriting.

3 Q And what you wrote, was that true?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And did you get paid for those pieces of
6 paper?

7 A Not for the papers, I don't believe.

8 Q Okay. Have you gotten paid when they've
9 been reprinted?

10 A No.

11 Q Have you negotiated any deal with Radar
12 Online?

13 A No.

14 Q Have you negotiated any deal with Sharon
15 Churcher for the purpose of publishing those pieces
16 of paper?

17 A Not those pieces of paper.

18 Q When did you write those pieces of paper?

19 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

20 A A week before she came out.

21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And when did you give
22 them to her?

23 A When she came out.

24 Q When was that?

25 A Sometime, I believe, in early 2011.

1 Q What did you get paid for, if not for
2 those pieces of paper?

3 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

4 A I was paid for the picture with Prince
5 Andrew with his arm around me, Ghislaine in the 6 background. And I was paid for the, I guess, the 7 print of the stories.

8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Anything else?

9 A No.

10 Q You were not paid for those pieces of 11 paper?

12 A No.

13 Q All right. And how many pieces of paper
14 did you write?

15 A Like I said, I'm rounding it around three.

16 Q Three pieces of paper?

17 A That's what I -- I don't remember to be 18 exact on a number. I'm sorry. But over three pages.

19 Q And you wrote those sometime in 2011?

20 A The week that she was coming out to see
21 me.

22 Q And you gave them to her, right?

23 A I gave them to her.

24 Q Did you keep a copy of that?

25 A No.

Additional information regarding attempted service, etc.:

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

Subject: Depositions next week
Date: Thursday, June 02, 2016 9:23:30 AM

We got an email yesterday from Mr. Brunel's attorney saying he needs to reschedule. I believe he is trying to get us new dates today or tomorrow.

We got a similar email from Mr. Fontanella's lawyer yesterday saying that he is also not available next week. His email said he is available the week of the 27th. I told him I would call him to coordinate a new date once I had spoken with you.

I have not heard from anyone representing [REDACTED] yet. I was hoping you could tell me whether she is represented and whether next week works for her or will also need resetting.

As of right now, the only confirmed depo for next week is that of Mr. Rizzo.

Laura, can you talk later this afternoon to see what we can do about a deposition schedule that makes sense for everyone going forward? I figure Jeff will be flying.

If we don't connect today then I will try to make time to talk with him after the deposition tomorrow. I understand that the hearing did not go forward this morning which is unfortunate as it gives us a little guidance where the court stands on the deposition issues. Maybe you and I can talk and try to figure out some plan that works in the meantime.

20. If any Document requested herein is withheld, in all or part, based on a claim that such Document constitutes attorney work product, provide all of the information described in Instruction No. 19 and also identify the litigation in connection with which the Document and the information it contains was obtained and/or prepared.

21. Plaintiff does not seek and does not require the production of multiple copies of identical Documents.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE	21

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell (“Ms. Maxwell”) files this Motion for Rule 37(b) &(c) Sanctions for Failure to Comply with Court Order and Failure to Comply with Rule 26(a), stating as follows:

CERTIFICATE OF CONFERRAL

The undersigned has conferred with Plaintiff’s counsel on multiple occasions in an attempt to obtain records and interrogatory responses Ordered by the Court, including by letter dated April 25, 2016, outlining the expected productions and information. Menninger Decl., Ex. L. As set forth below, Plaintiff has not produced the documents and did not provide complete or accurate information.

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff is playing a game of catch and release. She is withholding information the Court ordered be produced and only releasing that information when she is caught in her deception.

At the April 21, 2016 hearing on Ms. Maxwell’s Motion to Compel, the Court clearly Ordered Plaintiff to disclose all of her treating health care providers since 1999 and produce their records. Plaintiff did not do so, and still has not provided this information to date. It is only through deposition testimony that Ms. Maxwell became aware of at least five – if not more – treating health care providers who were never previously identified. Yet, Plaintiff has never supplemented her discovery responses to include these health care providers. Plaintiff has also failed to provide records, or has provided incomplete records, of several of the health care professionals, both disclosed and newly discovered, despite her counsel’s assurances to this Court that all records have been produced. Further, Plaintiff has still failed to provide an actual computation of her damages, or any documentation supporting those claims.

These discovery abuses cannot be condoned. All of this information is directly relevant to, and necessary to defend against, Plaintiff's damages claims for "psychological and psychiatric injuries and resulting medical expenses" and "past, present and future pain and suffering, mental anguish, humiliation, embarrassment, loss of self-esteem." Plaintiff's claims for these categories of damages must be stricken or evidence as to these damages precluded from trial under Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(b)(2)(A)(ii)&(iii) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(c)(1)(C).

BACKGROUND FACTS

On February 12, 2016, Ms. Maxwell served Interrogatories on Plaintiff for the identities and locations of any Health Care Provider from whom she has "received any treatment for any physical, mental or emotional condition, including addiction to alcohol, prescription or illegal drugs, that You suffered from subsequent to the Alleged Defamation by Ghislaine Maxwell" (Interrogatory No. 12) and "prior to the Alleged Defamation." Interrogatory No. 13 (emphasis added). As to both, Ms. Maxwell provided releases for Plaintiff's signature.

On March 16, 2016, Plaintiff refused to provide the names of any of Plaintiff's treating physicians, nor the requested releases, claiming "privilege." Menninger Decl., Ex. A.

On March 22, 2016, Plaintiff served Supplemental Responses & Objections and then Amended Supplemental Responses & Objections. Menninger Decl., Ex. B. Neither contained responses as to Plaintiff's health care providers. On March 22, 2016, Plaintiff also provided an Addendum to Plaintiff's Rule 26 Initial Disclosures in which she listed as potential witnesses, Dr. Steven Olson and Dr. Carol Hayek. Menninger Decl., Ex. C.

In her Initial Disclosures, Plaintiff included medical records as documents that she intends to use to establish her damages claims. Menninger Decl., Ex. D. On March 22, 2016,

Ms. Maxwell was forced to file a Motion to Compel Plaintiff to Disclose Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1). Docket Entry (“DE”) 64.¹

On March 31, 2016, Ms. Maxwell was forced to file a Motion to Compel Plaintiff, inter alia, to properly respond to Interrogatory Nos. 12 and 13. Docket Entry (“DE”) 75.

On April 21, 2016, Plaintiff’s counsel represented to the Court during oral argument that “We have disclosed the names. She has those names. We have also disclosed the records, the more recent records. We have not contested that.... But we have disclosed the names of the providers.” (Tr. at 21-22) Plaintiff’s counsel stated the only missing doctors were “in the past.... years and years ago.” (Tr. at 22-23) attached to Menninger Decl., Ex. E.

At the April 21, 2016 hearing, the Court ordered Plaintiff to produce the records from Ms. Giuffre’s medical doctors (apart from pre-1999) and to respond fully to the interrogatories concerning all of her treating physicians after 1999. Id. (Tr. 20-21).

On April 29, 2016, Plaintiff served Second Amended Supplemental Responses & Objections. Menninger Decl., Ex. F. As to Interrogatory No. 12 (seeking the names of treatment providers subsequent to the Alleged Defamation). Plaintiff listed:

- Dr. Steven Olson
- Dr. Chris Donahue
- Dr. John Harris and Dr. Majaliyana
- Dr. Wah Wah
- Dr. Sellathuri
- Royal Oaks Medical Center
- Dr. Carol Hayek
- NY Presbyterian Hospital
- Campbelltown Hospital
- Sydney West Hospital
- Westmead Hospital
- Dr. Karen Kutikoff
- Wellington Imaging Associates
- Growing Together.

For some providers, Plaintiff provided records, and the nature of treatment was identified by reference to the records. For other providers, no records were produced. Where no documents were produced, Plaintiff failed to identify the dates and nature of the treatment received, as requested in the Interrogatory. Id. Plaintiff failed therein to identify any treatment providers prior to the alleged defamation, despite the Court's order concerning 1999-2015.

At Plaintiff's deposition on May 3, 2016, she described receiving treatment from Dr. Donahue and a Dr. Judith Lightfoot from October 2015 to the present. Menninger Decl., Ex. G at 308-14 & 328-331. Plaintiff also described obtaining prescriptions from Dr. Donahue [REDACTED] from Dr. Olson. She claimed she was not treated by any other physicians that had not been previously listed. Id.

During the deposition of Plaintiff's mother, Lynn Miller, on May 24, 2016, Ms. Maxwell learned that [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Menninger Decl., Ex. H at 144.

On June 1, 2016, Plaintiff produced additional documentation from Centura Health for treatment received by Plaintiff in March 2015 ([REDACTED]) and May 2015. These documents identify three additional health care professionals who treated Plaintiff, including Dr. Scott Robert Geiger, Dr. Joseph Heaney, and Donna Oliver P.A. Menninger Decl., Ex. I at 144.

On May 25, 2016, Plaintiff sent Ms. Maxwell additional records obtained from Plaintiff's treatment at Centura in June 2015. Those documents identify another medical provider, Dr. Michele Streeter. Menninger Decl., Ex. J at 144.

Further, during the deposition of Dr. Olson on May 26, 2016, Ms. Maxwell learned that he had additional records in his laptop that had not been produced prior to his deposition.²

Menninger Decl., Ex. K, p. 36.

As of today's date, more than four months after Ms. Maxwell first sought the identities of Plaintiff's health care providers and the records concerning the same, more than a month and a half since the Court ordered Plaintiff to produce such identities and records, and 10 days before the end of fact discovery in this case, Ms. Maxwell has learned of at least five additional doctors who have treated Plaintiff since the time of the alleged defamatory statement: Dr. Lightfoot, Dr. Geiger, Dr. Heaney, Donna Oliver P.A and Dr. Streeter. In each case, documents relating to these doctors were not provided until after their identities became known through deposition or other independent investigation by Ms. Maxwell.

Plaintiff still has failed to produce any records from: (a) Dr. Donahue, (b) Dr. Hayek, (c) Dr. Kutikoff, (d) Wellington Imaging Assocs., (e) Growing Together, (f) post 2011 records from Dr. Lightfoot, and (g) the remaining documents for treatment by Dr. Olson.

With respect to Dr. Donahue, Dr. Hayek, Dr. Kutikoff, Wellington Imaging Assocs., Growing Together and Dr. Olson, Plaintiff has failed to provide complete responses to the Interrogatories including the dates and nature or treatment. Menninger Decl., Ex. F.

Plaintiff has alleged the following categories of damages:

- (A) "Physical, psychological and psychiatric injuries and resulting medical expenses—in the approximate amount of $102,200 present value";
- (B) "Past, present and future pain and suffering, mental anguish, humiliation, embarrassment, loss of self-esteem, loss of standing in the community, loss of dignity, and invasion of privacy in her public and private life not less than $30,000,000.00"; and
- (C) Estimated lost income of $180,000 annually. Present value $3,461,000 to $5,407,000"

² At the deposition, copies were produced that were difficult to read. Despite requests, legible copies have not been provided.

I. SANCTIONS AVAILABLE FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH DISCOVERY ORDER OR PROVIDE RULE 26(A) DISCLOSURES

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37(b)(2) sets forth the sanctions for a party's failure to comply with a Court's discovery order, providing in relevant part:

(A) For Not Obeying a Discovery Order. If a party or a party's officer, director, or managing agent—or a witness designated under Rule 30\(b\)\(6\) or 31\(a\)\(4\)—fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order under Rule 26\(f\), 35, or 37\(a\), the court where the action is pending may issue further just orders. They may include the following:

- (i) directing that the matters embraced in the order or other designated facts be taken as established for purposes of the action, as the prevailing party claims;
- (ii) prohibiting the disobedient party from supporting or opposing designated claims or defenses, or from introducing designated matters in evidence;
- (iii) striking pleadings in whole or in part;
- (iv) staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed;
- (v) dismissing the action or proceeding in whole or in part;
- (vi) rendering a default judgment against the disobedient party; or
- (vii) treating as contempt of court the failure to obey any order except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination.

(C) Payment of Expenses. Instead of or in addition to the orders above, the court must order the disobedient party, the attorney advising that party, or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the failure was substantially justified or other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

These same sanctions are available for Plaintiff's failure to provide required disclosures under Fed. R. Civ. Procedure 26(a).³ Specifically, Rule 37(c) provides:

³ Rule 26(a)(iii) requires the Plaintiff to provide “a computation of each category of damages claimed by the disclosing party—who must also make available for inspection and copying as under Rule 34 the documents or other evidentiary material, unless privileged or protected from disclosure, on which each computation is based, including materials bearing on the nature and extent of injuries suffered.”

(1) Failure to Disclose or Supplement. If a party fails to provide information or identify a witness as required by Rule 26\(a\) or (e), the party is not allowed to use that information or witness to supply evidence on a motion, at a hearing, or at a trial, unless the failure was substantially justified or is harmless. In addition to or instead of this sanction, the court, on motion and after giving an opportunity to be heard

(A) may order payment of the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure;

(B) may inform the jury of the party's failure; and

(C) may impose other appropriate sanctions, including any of the orders listed in Rule 37\(b\)\(2\)\(A\)\(i\)–\(vi\).

“Under Rule 37(b)(2), courts enjoy broad discretion to sanction parties that fail to obey discovery orders. This discretion includes, but is not limited to, the power to issue an order ‘dismissing the action or proceeding in whole or in part.’” Naguib v. Pub. Health Sols., No. 12-CV-2561 ENV LB, 2014 WL 3695965, at *3 (E.D.N.Y. July 24, 2014), appeal dismissed (Nov. 5, 2014). In “exercise [] its broad discretion to order sanctions under Rule 37,” a court may consider a number of factors in issuing sanctions for failure to comply with a Court Order, “including: (1) the willfulness of the non-compliant party or the reason for the noncompliance; (2) the efficacy of lesser sanctions; (3) the duration of the period of noncompliance, and (4) whether the noncompliant party had been warned of the consequences of his non-compliance.” Nieves v. City of New York, 208 F.R.D. 531, 535 (S.D.N.Y.2002); see also S. New England Tel. Co. v. Glob. NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010) (same). This list is not exclusive, and many courts also consider the prejudice to the opposing party in determination of the sanction that should be awarded. See id. (factors not exclusive); Labib v. 1141 Realty LLC, No. 10 CIV. 8357 MHD, 2013 WL 1311002, at *7 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 29, 2013)(examining the prejudicial impact of the non-compliance).

The factors considered in evaluation precluded as a sanction for non-disclosure under rule 26(a) are: “(1) the party's explanation for the failure to comply with the discovery [requirement]; (2) the importance of ... the precluded [evidence]; (3) the prejudice suffered by the opposing party as a result of having to prepare to meet the new testimony; and (4) the possibility of a continuance.” Mikulec v. Town of Cheektowaga, 302 F.R.D. 25, 29-30 (W.D.N.Y. 2014) (quoting Ritchie Risk-Linked Strategies Trading (Ir.), Ltd. v. Coventry First LLC, 280 F.R.D. 147, 157 (S.D.N.Y. 2012)).

The examination of these factors demonstrates that preclusion of Plaintiff's claims regarding physical and emotional distress damages is the appropriate sanction for Plaintiff's failure to comply with the Court's April 21, 2015 discovery order and failure to provide medical information that bear directly on her damages claims under Rule 26(a)(iii).

A. Rule 37(b) Factors for Failure to Comply With Court Order

1. Plaintiff's actions were willful

“Noncompliance with discovery orders is considered willful when the court's orders have been clear, when the party has understood them, and when the party's non-compliance is not due to factors beyond the party's control.” Davidson v. Dean, 204 F.R.D. 251, 255 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Davis v. Artuz, 96 Civ. 7699(GBD), 2001 WL 50887 at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 19, 2001)).

The Court's Order at the April 21, 2016 hearing was entirely clear – Plaintiff was required to fully respond to the Interrogatory identifying all of her medical providers from 1999 to present, including the dates of treatment, reasons for treatment, and costs of treatment, as well as providing records relating to her treatment. Menninger Decl., Ex. E. For avoidance of doubt, undersigned counsel sent a confirming letter to Plaintiff's counsel setting forth the precise information required, and requesting that it be produced in advance of Plaintiff's deposition to so that Plaintiff could be fully examined on these issues. Menninger Decl., Ex. L.

At the hearing, Plaintiff's counsel represented to undersigned counsel and this Court that the identities and all medical records for Plaintiff's treatment providers after the alleged defamation had been provided. Menninger Decl., Ex. E at 21-23. This was simply false. At this point, there are at least five treatment providers that had not been disclosed. None of their records were disclosed until after their identities were uncovered through depositions.

Plaintiff was and is capable of at a minimum identifying the physicians and psychologists who have treated her – the matter is fully in her control. Yet, she completely failed to identify at least five health care providers. These were providers who she is currently seeing or has seen in the recent past, who have prescribed her medication, and are treating her for emotional and mental issues – the very things for which she is seeking damages. There can be no argument that the failure to identify and produce records from these doctors was anything but an intentional and willful violation.

Additionally, at her deposition, Plaintiff intentionally concealed other treating physicians who treated her [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] See Menninger Decl., Ex. I. As fully briefed, the existence of other or intervening physical and emotional distress damages was the primary purpose for requesting medical information and treatment providers. See Motion to Compel at 18-19 (DE 75). [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED].

Plaintiff's intentional refusal to obey this Court's Order, including failure to disclose her treating psychologist she is still seeing to this day for the very injuries she claims in this lawsuit, is ground for precluding her damage claims for physical and emotional distress.

2. Lesser sanctions will be insufficient and Ms. Maxwell has been prejudiced

Plaintiff's pattern of discovery abuses and failure to disclose necessary and required information makes clear that no lesser sanction will deter Plaintiff's continuing discovery abuses. "[T]he purposes of Rule 37 sanctions, [is] 'to 'ensure that a party will not benefit from its own failure to comply,' to 'obtain compliance with a particular order issued,' and to 'serve a general deterrent effect on the case at hand and on other litigation, provided that the party against whom they are imposed was in some sense at fault.'" Szafrankowska v. AHRC Home Care Servs., Inc., 2008 WL 186206, *1 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 22, 2008) (quoting Update Art, Inc. v. Modiin Pub., Ltd., 843 F.2d 67, 71 (2d Cir.1988)); see also S. New England, 624 F.3d at 149.

Ms. Maxwell has been severely prejudiced by Plaintiff's failure to provide the required identifying information and documents from her health care providers. One health care provider identified by Plaintiff in her deposition is a psychiatrist, Judith Lightfoot, who is located in Australia. Plaintiff's specifically claims [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Obviously, Dr. Lightfoot has relevant information concerning Plaintiff's emotional state both before and after the alleged defamatory statement. Indeed, her testimony could conclusively prove that Plaintiff's mental state has been unaffected by the alleged defamation. Despite this, Plaintiff purposefully omitted Dr. Lightfoot from her sworn interrogatory responses and has not produced any records from Dr. Lightfoot's recent treatment of Plaintiff.⁴ With less than ten days left in discovery, arranging for and taking the deposition of Dr. Lightfoot – a person living in a foreign county, is nearly impossible.

Likewise, Plaintiff has seen another doctor, Dr. Donahue, [REDACTED]. She has met with him [REDACTED] on two occasions, both after the alleged defamatory statement. Yet, Plaintiff failed to identify this as the nature of Dr. Donahue's treatment in her Interrogatory Responses. Nor did she identify the time frame in which she was treated by Dr. Donahue. She has never provided his records. Obviously, Dr. Donahue also has relevant information, which was entirely unclear from the Interrogatory response provided. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] This information is all relevant, discoverable, and was purposefully hidden by Plaintiff.

Any action short of precluding claims for physical, psychological and emotional distress damages will fall short of serving Rule 37's purpose to "ensure that a party will not benefit from its own failure to comply" with court orders. S. New England, 624 F.3d at 149. To permit Plaintiff to get away with her purposeful non-compliance would reward her by allowing her to conceal relevant discoverable information that might fully disprove causation between Ms. Maxwell's statement and Plaintiff's alleged physical symptoms and emotional distress.

3. Plaintiff has been non-compliant since the outset of discovery

From the initiation of discovery, Plaintiff has played hide the ball. Starting with the service of Rule 26(a) disclosures, Plaintiff has simply refused to turn over required and necessary information. In her initial Rule 26(a) disclosures in November 2015, Plaintiff failed to provide any information on the calculation of or supporting evidence for her damages claim. When she supplemented her Rule 26(a) disclosures, she provided none of the necessary information or an actual computation of damages, relying on other people's alleged earning potential and average damage awards in other cases with completely different claim types. See Motion to Compel Rule 26(a) Disclosure at 5-6 (DE 64).⁵ To date, over six months after her Rule 26(a) disclosures were required and with less than 10 days left in discovery, Plaintiff has failed and refused to provide any supporting documentation for her damages claims or an actual computation of her damages based on her alleged injury as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(iii). At a minimum, reliance on any calculation, information or evidence that has not been provided as of this filing of this motion must be precluded.

Plaintiff's Rule 26 failures do not end with the damages calculations. It has now become clear that Plaintiff failed to disclose witnesses with relevant information based on the subpoenas she has served in this matter. Plaintiff repeatedly has issued subpoenas to witnesses for depositions and document production before including them on her Rule 26 disclosures. To wit,

- Allyson Chambers – subpoena February 12; disclosed March 11
- Aviation Insurance – subpoena April 27; never disclosed
- [REDACTED] – subpoena notice May 16; disclosed June 1
- Joe Recarey – subpoena notice May 17; disclosed June 1
- Michael Reiter – subpoena notice May 17; disclosed June 1
- Shopper's Paradise – subpoena notice April 26; never disclosed

How many other witnesses are there with relevant information that Plaintiff has hidden?

⁵ No ruling had been made on this Motion.

Plaintiff has been equally evasive in responding to written discovery. Until Ms. Maxwell was forced to file a Motion to Compel, Plaintiff failed to give even the most basic relevant and fully discoverable information, including the identities of Plaintiff's physicians, information on her work and education history, and even the identity of her counsel and the matters on which they represent her. See DE 75. After being ordered to provide this information, Plaintiff continued her strategy of providing made up or false information, or simply refusing to provide the ordered information.

First, despite being ordered to produce all documents relating to alleged law enforcement inquiries other than Plaintiff's own statements (which would be provided for in camera review), she simply provided all documents relating to alleged law enforcement inquiries for in camera review, attempting to re-litigate the issue instead of complying with the Court's order. See DE 139. Second, she and her attorneys have fabricated and backdated a string of engagement letters attempting to substantiate their privilege claims, as fully detailed in Ms. Maxwell's Reply in Support of Motion to Compel Non-Privileged Documents. See DE 191, p. -9. As shown above, Plaintiff only selectively and belatedly turned over medical records and the identity of her medical providers, and only after Ms. Maxwell uncovered their existence. Similarly, Plaintiff was specifically asked for photographs of Plaintiff with certain individuals (including Prince Andrew), and production of those photographs in native format. Plaintiff claimed she produced documents she had, but did not possess any native format pictures. Menninger Decl., Ex. E at 26-27. In Plaintiff's deposition, she revealed that she had a box of documents that included pictures, including perhaps a photograph of herself and Prince Andrew, but that she did not look through the box or provide any of its contents. Menninger Decl., Ex. G at 208-13. Shortly thereafter, Plaintiff's counsel produced 60 pages of pictures previously withheld. Menninger

Decl., Ex. M. Plaintiff still not provided the native versions of these photographs. This pattern was repeated again in just the past few days when Plaintiff turned over additional relevant documents from Plaintiff's iCloud account, but only did so after Ms. Maxwell's counsel ferreted out that account through detailed review of documents produced showing that the account was used by Plaintiff including in her correspondence with her counsel. Plaintiff failed to disclose the account, the identity of which was requested discovery. Compare Menninger Decl., Ex. F at 8-9 with Menninger Decl., Ex. G at 277; Menninger Decl., Ex. N (letter re: iCloud account).

While Ms. Maxwell has been able to unearth some of the information Plaintiff has purposefully withheld, there is simply no telling what else she is still hiding. "The sanctions imposed by Rule 37 for obstructing or failing to comply with discovery procedures would be hollow indeed if they could be imposed only on those whose efforts at concealment proved to be successful. Plaintiff may not properly escape the consequences of [plaintiff's] own wrongful conduct because the defendants were diligent and persistent enough to overcome the obstacles which [plaintiff] placed in their path." Nittolo v. Brand, 96 F.R.D. 672 (S.D.N.Y. 1983). Put simply, Plaintiff's discovery abuses have been rampant since the beginning of this case. In the case of withholding required documents and information regarding health care providers that are central to the defense claimed damages, these abuses necessitate preclusion of the claims.

4. Plaintiff and her counsel are fully aware of sanctions for non-compliance with Court orders

"Although formal warnings often precede the imposition of serious sanctions, this court has never considered warning an absolute condition precedent." Davidson v. Dean, 204 F.R.D. 251, 257 (S.D.N.Y. 2001). Plaintiff is represented by no less than four law firms and has seven attorneys of record in this case. Each should be fully aware, without need for warning, that the failure to comply with this Court's orders can result in Rule 37 sanctions. "[I]t is an elementary fact and expectation of legal practice that an attorney who fails to abide by a court rule or order may be subject to sanctions or other adverse consequences.” In re Payne, 707 F.3d 195, 206 (2d Cir. 2013); see also Gurvey v. Cowan, Liebowitz & Lathman, P.C., No. 06 CIV. 1202 LGS HBP, 2014 WL 715612, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 25, 2014) (“Although [the offending party] was not expressly warned of the consequences of disobeying my Orders, she is an attorney and is chargeable with knowing the consequences of violating a court order.” (footnote omitted)).

B. Additional Rule 37(c) Factors for Failure to Comply With Initial Disclosure Requirements

The factors considered under Rule 37(b) and (c) largely overlap, and the issues of willfulness and prejudice are addressed above. The two additional factors considered in imposing the sanctions for failure to provide required Rule 26(a) damages calculations and documents -- the importance of the information withheld and possibility of continuance -- also warrant imposition of striking the claims for physical and emotional distress damages.

1. The information withheld is critically important

As fully explained in the Motion to Compel Rule 26(a) disclosures, to date Plaintiff still has not provided an actual computation of the physical and emotional distress damages she claims. Despite specific discovery requests, Plaintiff failed to provide the information about her most current physical and mental health treatment providers -- those people whom she saw after the alleged defamation. This information is critical to the defense against Plaintiff’s damages claims. The undisclosed records demonstrate that Plaintiff did not seek any treatment immediately following the alleged defamatory statement on January 2, 2015. The first treatment she sought thereafter was on March 5, 2015 and was unrelated to any physical or emotional distress caused by the alleged defamatory statement. Instead, she was treated at a hospital for a domestic violence incident in which her husband strangled and punched her. This highly

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. Yet, Plaintiff did not report this treatment or identify these health care providers in her Initial Disclosures or Interrogatory Responses. She also purposefully left this information out of her testimony relating to doctors she has seen after January 2, 2015. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. Plaintiff is obviously trying to hide this very serious other intervening cause of her damages – and she almost got away with it.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Dr. Lightfoot is perhaps the most relevant health care provider, yet her name appears nowhere in the Disclosures or in the Interrogatory Responses. Plaintiff still has not produced a single record from Dr. Lightfoot for any treatment after the alleged defamatory statement.

A third doctor, Dr. Donahue, may have been named, but the nature and dates of the treatment he provided were never disclosed. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. No records have been produced. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. Menninger Decl., Ex. G, p. 336. There is a clear need to depose Dr. Donahue regarding this failure to mitigate damages. Yet, his records have not been produced, and his role in Plaintiff's treatment was not disclosed until Plaintiff's deposition.

One can only assume Dr. Carol Hayek has relevant information – she was actually included in Plaintiff’s Second Supplemental Responses & Objections. Plaintiff nevertheless fails to identify the nature of Dr. Hayek’s treatment of her and no records have been produced. Plaintiff cannot be permitted to identify people with relevant information that she plans on relying on and yet refuse to inform the defense the content of the information.

The information that was withheld and only produced after Ms. Maxwell’s counsel discovered its existence is of paramount importance to the damages claims. It is likely that the still undisclosed evidence is equally compelling.

2. Ms. Maxwell would require an extension of the discovery period

Ms. Maxwell does not wish to extend the discovery deadlines in this matter and has diligently worked to meet all deadlines so that this case can proceed on the schedule set out in the Scheduling Order. Ms. Maxwell obtained the deposition testimony of the one treatment provider Plaintiff did initially identify⁶ – Dr. Olsen – who has provided valuable information that disproves any physical or emotional distress damages caused by the alleged defamation. Now, on the eve of discovery closing, Ms. Maxwell has learned of at least five other medical treatment providers in the most relevant timeframe – people providing medical and mental health services post the alleged defamatory statement in January 2015. Plaintiff’s discovery failures in hiding relevant treating physician information have prevented Ms. Maxwell from obtaining what now appears to be critical information. Two of these providers – Drs. Lightfoot and Donahue -- are located in Australia, requiring significant travel to obtain their deposition, and potentially requiring service of process through other means. Four other treatment providers – Dr. Geiger,

⁶ Plaintiff also originally disclosed a Dr. Carol Hayek as a treatment provider. However, no information has been provided on what Dr. Hayek treated Plaintiff for or when she was treated, and no medical records have been produced.

Dr. Heaney, Donna Oliver P.A and Dr. Streeter – reside in Colorado. Because they are outside of the jurisdiction, they are not subject to be compelled to appear at trial, requiring that their depositions be taken to present their testimony.

Ms. Maxwell does not wish to drag this case out, and should not be forced to incur the time and expense that would be required to obtain discovery from these hidden health care providers, especially at this late stage.

II. STRIKING CLAIMS FOR MEDICAL AND EMOTIONAL DISTRESS DAMAGES IS CONSISTENT WITH THE PURPOSE OF RULE 37, COMMENSURATE WITH THE INFORMATION WITHHELD, AND LESS HARSH THAN THE AVAILABLE DISMISSAL SANCTION.

Under Rule 37, Ms. Maxwell could certainly request the more severe sanction of dismissal of the case.⁷ This most severe sanction would be appropriate in this circumstance. Dismissal is consistent with the sanctions imposed by many courts in this district and throughout New York in similar situations where medical records have been withheld despite a court order to produce, and those medical records are central to the issue in the case. See Nittolo v. Brand, 96 F.R.D. 672 (S.D.N.Y. 1983) (dismissing plaintiff's claims under Rule 37 for providing false and evasive answers concerning material facts including medical history); Skywark v. Isaacson, No. 96 CIV. 2815 JFK, 1999 WL 1489038, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 14, 1999), aff'd, No. 96 CIV. 2815 (JFK), 2000 WL 145465 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 9, 2000) (dismissal of Plaintiff's claims for failure to turn over medical records relevant to claims, and withholding Court ordered information until uncovered by defendant); In re Consol. RNC Cases, No. 127, 2009 WL 130178, at *13 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 8, 2009) (dismissal of emotional distress claims under Rule 37 for failure to turn over relevant medical records despite Court Order); Witharana v. Dorsey, No. 13-CV-3102 ENV

⁷ Obviously, the Court has the power to elect this sanction on its own should it so choose.

MDG, 2015 WL 4510273, at *5 (E.D.N.Y. July 24, 2015) (dismissal of claims under Rule 37 for failure to provide Court Ordered medical releases relevant to claims).

Here, Ms. Maxwell seeks the lesser sanction of striking the claim or precluding evidence only on the damages that relate to the withheld documents and information. The information being withheld – medical and psychological providers and their records – related directly to the claims for physical, psychological and emotional distress damages. The sanction sought is commensurate with and directly related to Plaintiff's violation of the Court's Order. Given the ten days left in discovery Ms. Maxwell cannot adequately get discovery on this newly disclosed evidence. In light of Plaintiff's continuing and persistent discovery misconduct, the punishment fits.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Ms. Maxwell requests that this Court enter an Order:

- 1) Striking Plaintiff Damages Claims for psychological pain and suffering, mental anguish and emotional distress (Complaint ¶ 19), Physical, psychological and psychiatric injuries and resulting medical expenses (Rule 26(a) Disclosures, Paragraph (C)(1)) and "Past, present and future pain and suffering, mental anguish, humiliation, embarrassment, loss of self-esteem, loss of standing in the community, loss of dignity and invasion of privacy in her public and private life" (Rule 26(a) Disclosures, Paragraph (C)(1));
- 2) For attorneys' fees and costs incurred in filing this Motion; and
- 3) Warning Plaintiff that further violation of this Court orders or the discovery rules may result in the sanction of dismissal of her claims.

1 another prince, the large hotel chain owner and 2 Marvin Minsky, is there anyone else that Ghislaine 3 Maxwell directed you to go have sex with? 4 A I am definitely sure there is. But can I 5 remember everybody's name? No. 6 Q Okay. Can you remember anything else 7 about them? 8 A Look, I've given you what I know right 9 now. I'm sorry. This is very hard for me and very 10 frustrating to have to go over this. I don't -- I 11 don't recall all of the people. There was a large 12 amount of people that I was sent to. 13 Q Do you have any notes of all these people 14 that you were sent to? 15 A No, I don't. 16 Q Where are your notes? 17 A I burned them. 18 Q When did you burn them? 19 A In a bonfire when I lived at Titusville 20 because I was sick of going through this shit. 21 Q Did you have lawyers who were representing 22 you at the time you built a bonfire and burned these 23 notes? 24 A I've been represented for a long time, but 25 it was not under the instruction of my lawyers to do	1 Q Including Mr. Edwards, who is sitting 2 right here, correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q What did that journal look like? 5 A It was green. 6 Q And what else? 7 A It was just a spiral notebook. 8 Q Okay. And what did you put into that 9 green spiral notebook? 10 A Bad memories. Things that I've gone 11 through, lots of things, you know. I can't tell you. 12 There was a lot of pages. It was over 300 pages in 13 that book. 14 Q Did you ever show that book to your 15 lawyers? 16 A No. 17 Q Did you show that book to anyone? 18 A My husband. 19 Q Did you show it to anyone else besides 20 your husband? 21 A No. 22 Q Did you tear out pages and give them to 23 Sharon Churcher? 24 A No, I wrote -- those pages that you're 25 talking about, I wrote for her specifically. She
1 this. My husband and I were pretty spiritual people 2 and we believed that these memories were worth 3 burning. 4 Q So you burned notes of the men with whom 5 you had sex while you were represented by counsel in 6 litigation, correct? 7 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form. 8 A This wasn't anything that was a public 9 document. This was my own private journal, and I 10 didn't want it anymore. So we burned it. 11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) When did you write 12 that journal? 13 A Just over time. I started writing it 14 probably in, I don't know, I can't speculate, 2012, 15 2011. 16 Q So you did not write this journal at the 17 time it happened? 18 A No. 19 Q You started writing this journal 20 approximately a decade after you claim you finished 21 being sexually trafficked, correct? 22 A Yes. 23 Q And you started writing a journal after 24 you had a lawyer, correct? 25 A Correct.	1 wanted to know about the Prince Andrew incident. 2 Q So that's a different piece of paper? 3 A Yeah, that's just random paper. 4 Q So you had a green spiral notebook that 5 you began sometime in 2011 or 2012 in which you wrote 6 down your recollections about what had happened to 7 you, and you burned that in a bonfire in 2013. 8 Did I get that right? 9 A You got that right. 10 Q And do you have no other names of people 11 to whom you claim Ghislaine Maxwell directed you to 12 have sex, correct? 13 A At this time, no. 14 Q Is there any document that would refresh 15 your recollection that you could look at? 16 A If you have a document you'd like to show 17 me, I would be glad to look at it and tell you the 18 names I recognize off of that. 19 Q I'm just asking you if there's a document 20 you know of that has this list of names in it? 21 A Not in front of me, no. 22 Q Where is the original of the photograph 23 that has been widely circulated in the press of you 24 with Prince Andrew? 25 A I probably still have it. It's not in my

1 possession right now.

2 Q Where is it?

3 A Probably in some storage boxes.

4 Q Where?

5 A In Sydney.

6 Q Where in Sydney?

7 A At some family's house. We got the boxes

8 shipped to Australia, and they were picked up off the

9 porch by my nephews and brought to their house.

10 Q Which is where?

11 A In Sydney.

12 Q Where in Sydney?

13 A [REDACTED]

14 Q And who lives in that house?

15 A Well, it's owned by my mother-in-law and

16 father-in-law, but my nephews live in the house.

17 Q What are their names?

18 A I'm not giving you the names of my

19 nephews.

20 Q What's the address of the house?

21 A Why would you want that?

22 Q I want to know where the photograph is.

23 I'm asking you where the photograph is. And you've

24 just told me it's somewhere in [REDACTED]

25 A Yes.

Page 210

1 Q So where in [REDACTED] is the photograph

2 located?

3 A If I can't 100 percent say that the

4 photograph is there, it could be at my house that I

5 presently live in. I'm not going to give you the

6 address of my nephews' residence.

7 Q When is the last time you saw the

8 photograph in person?

9 A When I packed and left America.

10 Q Colorado?

11 A Yes.

12 Q All right. So you had that photograph

13 here with you in Colorado?

14 A Yes.

15 Q What's on the back of the photograph?

16 A I'm sorry?

17 Q Is there anything on the back of the

18 photograph?

19 A There's like the date it was printed, but

20 no writing or anything.

21 Q Okay. Does it say where it was printed?

22 A I don't believe so. I think it just -- I

23 don't remember. I just remember there's a date on

24 it.

25 Q Whose camera was it taken with?

Page 211

1 A My little yellow Kodak camera.

2 Q Who took the picture?

3 A Jeffrey Epstein.

4 Q And where did you have it developed?

5 A I believe when I got back to America.

6 Q So where?

7 A I don't know.

8 Q Palm Beach?

9 A I don't know.

10 Q What is the date the photograph was

11 printed?

12 A I believe it's in March 2001.

13 Q Okay.

14 A But that's just off of my photographic

15 memory. I don't -- it could be different, but I

16 think it's March 2001.

17 Q You have a photographic memory?

18 A I'm not saying I have a photographic

19 memory. But if I'd look at the back of the photo and

20 I remember what it says, I believe it was March 2001.

21 Q Did the photograph ever leave your

22 possession for a while?

23 A I gave it to the FBI.

24 Q Okay. And when did you get it back?

25 A When they took copies of it.

Page 212

1 Q When was that?

2 A 2011.

3 Q When they came to interview you?

4 A Yes.

5 Q So from 2011 until you left Colorado it

6 was in your personal possession?

7 A Yes.

8 Q What other documents related to this case

9 are in that, storage boxes in Australia?

10 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

11 A Documents related to this case -- there --

12 I don't know. I really can't tell you. I mean,

13 there's seven boxes full of Nerf guns, my kids' toys,

14 photos. I don't know what other documents would be

15 in there.

16 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did anyone search

17 those documents after you received discovery requests

18 from us in this case?

19 A I haven't been able to obtain those boxes.

20 I can't get them sent back up to me. It's going to

21 cost me a large amount of money. And right now I'm

22 trying to look after my family, so I'm not able to

23 afford to get them up.

24 Q You live in Australia, correct?

25 A I do.

Page 213

1 Q Okay. How far away are the boxes from
 2 where you live in Australia?
 3 A Sydney is down here at the bottom. Cairns
 4 is up here at the top.
 5 Q Okay.
 6 A It's probably a six-day drive.
 7 Q Did you fly here through Sydney?
 8 A No.
 9 Q Have you been to Sydney since you've moved
 10 back to Australia?
 11 A I flew into Sydney with my three kids, but
 12 it was a connecting flight to Brisbane.
 13 Q Did you ask your nephews or anyone else to
 14 search those boxes in response to discovery requests
 15 that we issued in this case?
 16 A They are my nephews. I would never let
 17 them look at those.
 18 Q Other than your green spiral notebook,
 19 what else did you burn in this bonfire in 2013?
 20 A That was it.
 21 Q That's the only thing?
 22 A Yes.
 23 Q Did you use wood?
 24 A Yes.
 25 Q Charcoal?

Page 214

1 A My husband built the bonfire out of wood
 2 and I don't know what else he put in it. He's the
 3 one who always makes the fires, not me.
 4 Q Who else was present?
 5 A Just him and I.
 6 Q Were your kids there?
 7 A No. They were inside sleeping.
 8 Q And what beach was this?
 9 A It wasn't a beach. It was in my backyard.
 10 Q What's your address?
 11 A At that time?
 12 Q Um-hum.
 13 A [REDACTED]
 14 Q [REDACTED]
 15 A Yes.
 16 Q Who were your neighbors?
 17 A Sweet people. Ray and -- I could look on
 18 my phone if you want.
 19 Q No, thank you. Do they still live there?
 20 A Yes.
 21 Q Do you keep in touch with them?
 22 A Last time I talked to them was a few
 23 months ago.
 24 Q Did they see the fire?
 25 A They've seen many fires that we've had.

Page 215

1 We've had lots of bonfires there.
 2 Q Did you ever ride in a helicopter with
 3 Ghislaine Maxwell acting as pilot of the helicopter?
 4 A Yes.
 5 Q Who else was on the flight?
 6 A I've been on the helicopter with her
 7 plenty of times. I can't mention how many people
 8 were on the -- on the helicopter at the same time.
 9 Q How many times?
 10 A I don't know. Do you have helicopter
 11 records that you could show me?
 12 Q I'm asking you how many times you were on 13 the helicopter with Ghislaine Maxwell acting as the
 14 pilot --
 15 A It's impossible for me to answer the
 16 question without having the actual physical records
 17 in front of me.
 18 Q I'm asking you to look into your memory
 19 and tell me how many times you recall being on a
 20 helicopter with Ghislaine Maxwell at the pilot seat?
 21 A There is no number I can give you.
 22 There's plenty of times I've been on her helicopter.
 23 Q Where did you go from and to on a
 24 helicopter?
 25 A I believe it was -- don't quote me on this

Page 216

1 because I get confused on the islands there. I want
 2 to say it was St. John's. It could have been
 3 St. Barts. St. John or St. Barts, and then we would
 4 fly straight to Jeffrey's island.
 5 Q Okay. Did you ever go anywhere else on
 6 the helicopter?
 7 A No.
 8 Q Were you ever on the helicopter with Bill
 9 Clinton and Ghislaine Maxwell as the pilot of the 10 helicopter?
 11 A No.
 12 Q Were you ever on the helicopter with Bill
 13 Clinton's Secret Service and Ghislaine Maxwell as the 14 pilot?
 15 A No.
 16 Q Do you recall telling Sharon Churcher that
 17 you were?
 18 A No.
 19 Q Did you see the press article in which
 20 Sharon Churcher reported that you were?
 21 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. I'd just ask
 22 that if you're going to ask this witness about a
 23 specific article I'd like for her to see the article.
 24 Otherwise she's not going to testify about it.
 25 If you have something to show her, then,

Page 277

1 A Oh, like I said, I don't recognize it, but
 2 it obviously comes from --
 3 Q Your e-mail address?
 4 A Yes.
 5 Q Now, what e-mail address is that, exactly,
 6 on the first page of this exhibit?
 7 A @icloud.com, that must be from a phone.
 8 Q So that's different from the other e-mail
 9 address?
 10 A Yeah, I don't actually know about that
 11 e-mail address. I obviously used it. It has my
 12 husband's name on it, Robert Giuffre.
 13 Q And is the e-mail signed by your husband?
 14 A No, it's signed by me.
 15 Q Okay. And in the subject line you wrote
 16 Virginia Roberts (Jane Doe 102), correct?
 17 A Subject line?
 18 Q The very top line of that page.
 19 A Oh, yeah, I see.
 20 Q Okay. And it was to
 21 jason.richards2@ic.fbi.gov, correct?
 22 A Correct.
 23 Q And is that Jason Richards we were just
 24 referring to?
 25 A Yes.

Page 278

1 Q All right. And you had some e-mails with
 2 Jason Richards over time; is that fair?
 3 A Sure.
 4 Q These ones that came from your computer,
 5 right?
 6 A Sure, yes.
 7 Q Okay. You talk about having spoken with
 8 Judge Paul Cassell in this first page, correct?
 9 A I am here to get this BS non-prosecution
 10 agreement thrown out and speaking with Judge Paul
 11 Cassal (sic). He suggested trying to get ahold of 12 any photos or video recordings released by the FBI to
 13 assist our case further in providing (sic) how much
 14 pedophilia occurred by Jeffrey and the many other
 15 monsters he obliged with underage girls.
 16 Q Okay.
 17 A If this is a possibility, please let me
 18 know so I can give you Brad Edwards (my attorney) his
 19 contact details. Many thanks for your time and I
 20 hope we should meet again.
 21 Q Okay. And so you were going back to Jason
 22 and trying to get any evidence that the FBI had about
 23 your case, right?
 24 A Correct. Any photographs pertaining to
 25 what -- myself, not of anyone else.

Page 279

1 Q Right.
 2 A But anything they had of me.
 3 Q And Brad Edwards, who is sitting right
 4 here, was your attorney at the time and you
 5 identified him as such in the e-mail, correct?
 6 A Correct.
 7 Q You did not identify Mr. -- Judge Cassell
 8 as your attorney in this e-mail, correct?
 9 A I knew him as a former judge, and I just
 10 wrote down, Judge Paul Cassal (sic) as it looks. But
 11 he was my attorney -- I don't know if he was my
 12 attorney at that time. But yes -- he's always --
 13 he's been with me since the beginning, so --
 14 Q So he's representing you in this case now,
 15 correct?
 16 A Yes.
 17 Q But at that time you don't know if he was
 18 your attorney?
 19 A I think he was. I mean, I've been talking
 20 with him since the beginning. And this is dated
 21 2014. So I believe at this time he was my attorney
 22 at the time as well.
 23 Q Okay. When do you recall first speaking
 24 with him?
 25 A Speaking with Paul, I'm not too sure. I

Page 280

1 can't remember if I spoke to Paul in the phone in
 2 Australia or if I met him in person in Florida.
 3 Q Do you remember when you signed any kind
 4 of fee agreement with him?
 5 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 6 A Um, the -- well, the first time I would
 7 have signed an agreement would have been in Florida.
 8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) When you were living
 9 [REDACTED] ?
 10 A As far as my knowledge reminds me. I
 11 mean, I'm looking at e-mails that I can't even
 12 remember sending. It's a possibility I could have
 13 signed earlier, but as far as I remember.
 14 Q Okay. Do you recall ever having e-mail
 15 communications with Sharon Churcher about her
 16 publishing the first serial of your book?
 17 A Serial, what does that mean? I'm sorry.
 18 Q Like a sequel.
 19 A A sequel to my book?
 20 Q Um-hum.
 21 A My book has never been published.
 22 Q Right. Do you remember ever e-mailing
 23 with Sharon about her being the one who would publish
 24 any subsequent follow-up book?
 25 A If you have something in front of you to

1 answered. Lacks predicate.

2 A I have been suffering from Ghislaine
3 Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein since the summer of 2000.
4 So hearing again in 2011 that she's denied it, of
5 course, it's going to hurt me.

6 Did I hear about this in 2011? I can't
7 tell you I honestly have.

8 In 2015 is when I know that she denied it.
9 And again, I haven't stopped suffering from the 10 repercussions that they put me through.

11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And I'm asking you to
12 separate, if you can, any symptoms that you
13 experienced anew in March of 2015 -- I mean, excuse
14 me, March of 2011, as a consequence of this statement
15 being issued, which I believe you said you don't
16 recall seeing at the time; is that fair?

17 A But you're asking me now about 2015?

18 Q Nope. March of 2011. Sorry, I misspoke
19 there.

20 A You're still on 2011?

21 Q Yes. Did you start taking any new
22 medications in March of 2011?

23 Let me ask you that.

24 A I've been taking medication to control my
25 [REDACTED] since 2002.

1 Q Okay. So did you take any new medications
2 or any additional amounts of medications in March of
3 2011?

4 A I have been taking the same medication
5 since 2002.

6 Q Okay.

7 A And that's due to [REDACTED]
8 caused from the pain that I suffered at the hands of 9 Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein.

10 Q Did you -- do you recall any neighbors or
11 other moms at the school or anybody in 2011
12 referencing to you in any way the fact that Ghislaine
13 Maxwell had issued a denial of the allegations about
14 her that had been published in the media in March of 15 2011?

16 A No. I didn't speak to any -- I didn't
17 speak to any moms about what I had gone through. I
18 mean, when it came out in the press, I don't think
19 any -- like, Australians don't pay attention to news,
20 number one.

21 Number two, the first time that my friends
22 contacted me they were shocked. And this was, I
23 believe in -- when the press picked it up again, I
24 think, was 2014/2015. And I got a whole bunch of
25 like Facebook texts from them saying, Oh, my God, I

1 can't believe you've been through this. I never
2 knew. I'm so sorry. You know, that kind of stuff.
3 So they never -- I never spoke to anybody about this
4 except for my husband.

5 Q All right. So the first time you recall
6 any sort of people in your community referencing
7 things to you is when the press picked up on it in
8 2014 or 2015?

9 A Yeah, I think it may be end of 2014, early
10 2015.

11 Q All right. And so in March of 2011 you
12 don't recall any neighbors or anybody saying anything
13 to you about this?

14 A No, I don't recall.

15 Q Did anyone tell you in March of 2011 about
16 Defendant's Exhibit 26, the statement on behalf of
17 Ghislaine Maxwell?

18 A No, otherwise I would have been able to
19 recall it.

20 Q Okay. Do you remember anyone in 2011
21 ridiculing you because of Defendant's Exhibit 26?

22 A Well, because nobody knew me as Virginia,
23 everybody knows me as Jenna, no one probably put two
24 and two together. And like I told you, I didn't tell
25 anybody. So there was nobody there to ridicule me in

1 2011 over this.

2 Q Where were you living in 2011 when Shaza
3 came to see you --

4 A Oh, [REDACTED]

5 Q Do you recall applying for any job in or
6 around 2011 and someone referencing Defendant's
7 Exhibit 26 and denying you a job?

8 A I don't -- I don't think I applied for a
9 job in 2011.

10 Q Okay. Did you go see a doctor and talk to
11 any doctor about Defendant's Exhibit 26?

12 A Not about this. Not about this paper
13 right here. But I have talked to doctors about my
14 abuse at the hands of Ghislaine and Jeffrey.

15 Q Have you talked to a doctor about any
16 statements in the press made by Ghislaine Maxwell?

17 A Recent statements, yes.

18 Q Which doctor did you speak to about that?

19 A Her name is Judith Lightfoot.

20 Q And where is she?

21 A She's in Australia.

22 Q Where in Australia?

23 A She's in Sydney, but we do phone
24 conversations.

25 Q Have you ever met her in person?

1 A Yes.

2 Q When?

3 A In 2011.

4 Q All right. And is she affiliated with an

5 office or a hospital or what?

6 A She's a psychiatrist.

7 Q All right. Have you seen her in person

8 since 2011?

9 A No, because I've lived so far away and

10 she's kind of the only person that -- like, I've seen

11 a lot of doctors. And I can honestly tell you --

12 it's really hard for them to break down the walls and

13 be comfortable enough to talk to them about this

14 stuff. Judith is different. She's somebody that I

15 feel I can trust. She's 76 and she's just a very

16 lovely lady.

17 And she offers me other ways to deal with

18 my pain and suffering. And I continue to see her

19 over the phone because I can't see her in person.

20 Q Do you recall ever discussing with her

21 Defendant's Exhibit 26?

22 A I can't recall ever seeing this exhibit.

23 So --

24 Q Okay.

25 (Exhibit 27 marked.)

1 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'm going to give you

2 Defendant's Exhibit 27.

3 A Yes.

4 Q All right. Have you seen this document

5 before?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And what do you understand it to be?

8 A Ross@acuityreputation sounds like a PR, if

9 I'm not right -- if I'm not wrong. Sent -- or

10 subject is Ghislaine Maxwell. I don't know [REDACTED],

11 [REDACTED],

12 [REDACTED]

13 It says: To whom it may concern, Please

14 find attached credible statement on behalf of

15 Ms. Maxwell.

16 And then it goes on, to hear about that

17 she is saying: Each time the story is retold it

18 changes with new salacious details about public

19 figures and world leaders and now it is alleged by

20 Ms. Roberts that Alan Dershowitz is involved in

21 having sexual relations with her, which he denies.

22 Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious lies and

23 should be treated as such and not publicized as news,

24 as they are defamatory. Ghislaine Maxwell's original

25 response to the lies and defamatory claims remains

1 the same. Maxwell strongly denies -- excuse me.

2 Excuse me -- strongly denies allegations of an

3 unsavory nature, which have appeared in the British

4 press and elsewhere and reserves her right to seek

5 redress at the repetition of such old defamatory

6 claims.

7 Q All right. Have you seen this statement

8 before?

9 A I've seen it recently, yes.

10 Q All right. What -- have you discussed

11 this statement with Ms. Lightfoot? I don't know if

12 she's a doctor or what.

13 A Psychiatrist, yeah.

14 Q Is she an MD?

15 A I don't know what her levels of credential

16 are. I'm sure she is.

17 Q Okay. When is the first time that you saw

18 the statement?

19 A This full statement I have only seen

20 through discovery. The original statement that I saw

21 in the press was, Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious

22 lies and so on, so forth. I don't remember seeing

23 this in the press.

24 Q Okay. So the part that you remember

25 seeing in the press is Ms. Roberts' claims are

1 obvious lies?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Anything else about this?

4 A I can't remember what else she printed in

5 the press. It's a very horrible thing for her to do,

6 turn around and call me a liar after everything that

7 she knows she's done. And I didn't expect her to

8 come out and be truthful.

9 Jeffrey Epstein hasn't even issued a

10 statement.

11 Q Sorry. I'm sorry if you misunderstood my

12 question.

13 A Yes.

14 Q Was there anything else within this

15 statement that you recall seeing in the press besides

16 the line, Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious lies?

17 A Without saying 100 percent, I think that

18 the original allegations are not new and have been

19 fully responded to be shown to be untrue. I don't

20 know if that's in the press or not, but I've read

21 this before.

22 So I don't know if I'm confusing this with

23 what I've read out of this or what I've read in the

24 press. The main thing is, I know she called me a

25 liar, and that's what she publicized.

Q And when you say she called you a liar, that's the Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious lies part?

A Yes.

Q Okay. When is the first time that you saw this whole document?

A I guess when you guys handed it over for discovery.

Q Okay. And who showed it to you?

A It was sent to me by e-mail.

Q Okay. Just through the course of communicating with your attorneys?

A Yes.

Q You've never seen it published?

A Not this whole e-mail, no.

Q All right. Did you -- I'm sorry, did you discuss this publication of what you saw in the press with Judith Lightfoot?

A Yes.

Q All right. And when did you discuss it with her?

A When I got back to Australia, Judith and I started seeing each other again. Before then, I spoke with a doctor in Colorado about this. His name is Dr. Olsen. And it was causing me a lot of distress to have to deal with being called a liar all a liar from the people that abused me.

Q Okay. Do you recall specifically mentioning to him Ghislaine Maxwell's statement to the press?

A I mentioned a lot of names to him.

Q Okay. What new symptoms did you experience following January 2nd, 2015?

A I think it's one thing to be a victim of sexual abuse and survive it and come out trying to tell the world my story, and then another thing for it to be shut down because these people, Ms. Maxwell and others are calling me liars (sic).

Q And I asked you what symptoms had you experienced --

MR. EDWARDS: She's going to finish her answer to this question. You cut her off so many times.

MS. MENNINGER: It has nothing to do with this.

MR. EDWARDS: It absolutely does. Because this is a psychological damages claim, and she is trying to explain to you what those damages are.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. What are your symptoms that you experienced since January 2nd, 2015 that are new?

over again, when I know I'm standing up doing the right thing. And the doctor prescribed me [REDACTED] And, yeah.

Q Okay. So my question was, when did you discuss it with Judith Lightfoot?

I think I now understand you did that after you returned to Australia in November or so of 2015; is that right?

A I returned to Australia in October, and that's when I picked up talking to her again.

Q All right. And you're saying that at another point in time you talked to another doctor, Dr. Olsen, in Colorado, correct?

A Correct.

Q And when did you meet with Dr. Olsen?

A I don't know the first date that I met with him.

Q Did you meet with him more than once?

A I believe so.

Q And you believe you spoke with him about Ghislaine Maxwell's published statement in the press that Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious lies.

That's what you believe you spoke with Dr. Olsen about?

A I spoke with Dr. Olsen about being called

A Very strong anxiety attacks, bad panic attacks. My throat closes up, I can't breathe. I vomit when I have anxiety attacks. My -- this is personal, but my sex life has suffered. My marriage has suffered. Psychologically, it's just hurt me all over again. I mean, they've hurt me before, and now they've hurt me again by doing this.

And I felt like I was in the process of healing before this came out because I had opened up this wonderful charity called Victims Refuse Silence. And then my aim was to heal by helping other girls get out of the situations that I was in before.

And my lawyers were nice enough to help me. I have this beautiful website where you can click on in any state and you can find a place. I have personally called all of them and they will help you get out of the situation that you're in. They will get you medical help. They will get you legal advice. I think I was in the really good process of healing. And when this came out, it just ruined me all over again.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. Tell me all of the damages that you claim occurred to you because of Defendant's Exhibit 27.

A My reputation, my psychological abuse,

1 Q And that hurt your feelings?
2 A Badly.
3 Q Did Buckingham Palace issue a denial of
4 your allegation?
5 A Yes, that's another one.
6 Q Did Prince Andrew make a public statement
7 in which he denied your allegations?
8 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
9 A I think he did.
10 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) How do you know which
11 harm you've suffered is attributable to Ghislaine
12 Maxwell's denial versus Alan Dershowitz's denial or
13 Prince Andrew's denial?
14 A Ghislaine Maxwell brought me into the sex
15 trafficking industry. She's the one who abused me on
16 a regular basis. She's the one that procured me,
17 told me what to do, trained me as a sex slave, abused
18 me physically, abused me mentally.
19 She's the one who I believe, in my heart
20 of hearts, deserves to come forward and have justice
21 happen to her more than anybody. Being a woman, it's
22 disgusting.
23 Q So you cannot delineate what harm you have
24 suffered in terms of all of the psychological damage
25 you just disclosed?

1 A Oh, of course.
2 Q -- if that is attributable to Ghislaine
3 Maxwell's statement on January 2nd versus Alan
4 Dershowitz calling you a serial liar on Good Morning
5 America?
6 A Of course, it all hurts. Okay? I know
7 Alan Dershowitz is lying himself. I know Prince
8 Andrew is lying himself. Of course those hurt. It
9 doesn't feel good to have people who have done
10 something to you deny something that's happened, when
11 I'm actually brave enough to come forward and talk
12 about it.
13 What hurts me the worst is that Ghislaine
14 Maxwell brought me into this. Not only has she hurt
15 me once, but she's hurt me twice coming forward and
16 saying, This is not true, this is categorically
17 untrue and obvious lies.
18 That to me is a stick in the mud and that
19 to me is what caused the most harm to me.
20 Q Okay. And so can you point to any person
21 who has referenced Ghislaine Maxwell's denial in the
22 press or to your face or anywhere?
23 A Can I point to a person?
24 Q Can you point to any time that someone has
25 referenced Ghislaine Maxwell's denial to you in any

1 context?
2 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form of the
3 question.
4 A Can I point to a person -- I'm sorry. I
5 don't understand. Can you rephrase it for me --
6 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right.
7 A -- so I can understand what you mean?
8 Q Where you live in Australia now, has
9 anyone referenced the name Ghislaine Maxwell to you?
10 A After all of the news hits, after the
11 press hits in 2015 and, you know, everyone is calling
12 me a liar, all of my friends in Australia called me
13 and talked to me and said, I can't believe this. I
14 can't believe what you went through.
15 That was very embarrassing for something
16 that I tried to keep separate from my other life
17 where I would like to help victims. I didn't want
18 the friends of my kids parents knowing about that
19 stuff. You know, and of course they all felt sorry
20 for me. And you know, like I said. I didn't know
21 anybody in Penrose. So there's nobody that could 22 have come up to me and talked to me about it. My
23 mom.
24 Q This question was about Australia, sorry.
25 A Oh, sorry, I thought you were talking

1 about pointing out people.
2 Q No.
3 A Okay, well in Australia, yes, at least a
4 dozen friends.
5 Q They came up and they mentioned Ghislaine
6 Maxwell's denial to the press to you?
7 A They couldn't believe what I had been
8 through and, you know, that these were, you know,
9 being denied, and they felt sorry for me. And, you
10 know, it was the whole circumference of things.
11 Q So the people in Australia that came up to 12 you had sympathy for you and believed you, correct?
13 A Yes.
14 Q All right. And when you spoke to
15 Dr. Olsen you recall specifically mentioning
16 Ghislaine Maxwell's press release?
17 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
18 A Yes, I remember mentioning her, as well as
19 the press release, as well as other press releases.
20 And the abuse that I had occurred (sic) from the
21 hands of Jeffrey and Ghislaine.
22 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. When have you
23 been diagnosed with a mental health condition, first?
24 A I don't know. I mean, I've been told that
25 I've [REDACTED] You know --

Q When were you first told that?

A Well, early in -- early in 2003, I believe is the first time that I was suffering from

And then my doctor, Judith Lightfoot, has in 2011

And, you know, I've recently seen another doctor who said that I've got the exact same symptoms that Judith Lightfoot mentioned, which is

Q Which doctor is that?

A You know, I don't honestly know his name.

Q When did you see this new doctor?

A Um --

MR. EDWARDS: Sorry. If you're referring to a doctor that's been sent to you by one of your lawyers --

THE DEPONENT: Yes.

MR. EDWARDS: -- at this time, I'm instructing you not to answer.

THE DEPONENT: Okay.

MS. MENNINGER: Wait. What is it? You've seen a doctor and you're not going to answer what doctor you've seen?

MR. EDWARDS: Sure. If it's a consulting witness in this case that has seen her at the direction of an attorney, that has not yet been disclosed per any expert witness disclosure, then I'm instructing her not to answer that question.

If that's what you're referring to. I don't know if that's what you're referring to.

THE DEPONENT: That's what I'm referring to.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. So you recall seeing Dr. Lightfoot. You recall seeing Dr. Olsen. And you recall seeing a new unnamed doctor recently.

Anyone else you've seen since January 2nd, 2015?

A Dr. Olsen, Dr. Lightfoot. Oh, Dr. Donahue.

Q Where is Dr. Donahue located?

A He's in my suburb or he's a suburb next to me in Australia.

Q And is that a psychiatric-type doctor, a medical-type doctor?

A He's medical.

Q And what did you see him for or her for?

A I didn't have anybody to basically -- I just got to Australia and Judith Lightfoot was helping me.

And I told him the reason.

Q And this is since you returned to Australia?

A Correct.

Q And this is the first time you had seen that doctor?

A I've seen that doctor twice now.

Q I'm sorry, what was the name again? I know you already said it, but I just --

A Dr. Donahue.

Q Donahue, all right.

This doctor that you haven't yet disclosed, where did you see that person? In what country?

A United States.

Q And in what state?

A San Francisco.

Q And when did you see that doctor?

A Um, Friday. Last Friday.

Q And how many times have you seen that doctor?

A Once. Well, twice actually. I saw him

the next day, too.

Q All right. Did you suffer from anxiety before meeting Jeffrey Epstein?

A I was never prescribed anything for anxiety before I met Jeffrey Epstein.

Q That wasn't my question.

A Did I --

Q Were you suffering from anxiety before you met Jeffrey Epstein?

A I think a person who has gone through as much trauma as I have in my life would suffer from quite a few problems. But like I said, I was never prescribed anything until I met Jeffrey Epstein.

Q Did you suffer from panic attacks before meeting Jeffrey Epstein?

A Nowhere near as bad, no.

Q So you did suffer from They just weren't as severe; is that what your testimony is?

A No, what I'm trying to say is I did have

I did have I had lived a very hard life prior to meeting Jeffrey Epstein as well.

After meeting Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell, everything escalated. That's when I started to take Xanax and smoke marijuana to help

1 calm the anxiety and everything down.
 2 Q Before you met Jeffrey Epstein, had you
 3 used any drugs?
 4 A Sure, yes.
 5 Q Which drugs had you used prior to meeting
 6 Jeffrey Epstein?
 7 A I smoked pot. I've taken Ecstasy.
 8 Q Cocaine?
 9 A Yeah, I would have snorted cocaine,
 10 um-hum.
 11 Q Did you ever abuse alcohol before meeting
 12 Jeffrey Epstein?
 13 A No, I was -- I wasn't even of age to be
 14 able to buy it. I mean, if there was alcohol at 15 parties I would have drank it, but I wouldn't say I
 16 abused it.
 17 Q Okay. Were there ever occasions upon
 18 which you were observed to be drunk by other people,
 19 prior to meeting Jeffrey Epstein?
 20 A If you're drinking, the possibility of
 21 getting drunk is always there. I don't -- I can't 22 recall exact situation where that was the case,
 23 but --
 24 Q Were you diagnosed as a drug addict prior
 25 to meeting Jeffrey Epstein?

1 A No, I was not diagnosed as a drug addict.
 2 Q Were you sent to live at a rehabilitation
 3 facility because of your use of drugs?
 4 A No, that was more of a group home. Yes,
 5 it was also a rehab facility, but it wasn't because I
 6 was a drug addict. I wasn't coming off of anything.
 7 Q Had you abused drugs prior to meeting
 8 Jeffrey Epstein?
 9 A I took drugs. I didn't abuse them, but I
 10 took them.
 11 Q Okay.
 12 A Recreationally.
 13 Q How often do you see Dr. Lightfoot?
 14 A Once a week every Monday. I've skipped
 15 this week because I've been over here and it's
 16 expensive to call back home right now, unless you
 17 FaceTime, but --
 18 Q Has Dr. Lightfoot recommended that you see
 19 a treating doctor in person?
 20 A No, she's -- she knows my history pretty
 21 well. And she's a very wonderful woman and I
 22 honestly wouldn't -- Dr. Donahue wants me to go see
 23 another psychiatrist in person, but I prefer to stay
 24 with Judith because she's someone I can personally
 25 relate to.

1 Q How much does it cost you every time you
 2 talk to Dr. Lightfoot?
 3 A Her normal fee is $200.
 4 Q And how much do you pay?
 5 A She doesn't charge me anything anymore.
 6 Q When did she stop charging you?
 7 A Since I got back to Australia.
 8 Q So before you left for Titusville,
 9 Florida, you saw her and you were paying $200 per 10 session?
 11 A Yes.
 12 Q And what has Dr. Lightfoot recommended
 13 that you do in order to get better?
 14 A She loves what I'm doing with speaking
 15 out. She thinks the more that I speak out about it,
 16 the stronger I'll become. She recommends that I
 17 write my book, I tell my story. She thinks not only
 18 will it help me, but by helping me it'll help others
 19 find a way to get out of the situation and to know
 20 that there's other girls who have gone through what
 21 I've gone through and what they're going through.
 22 She recommends meditation, breathing
 23 techniques, focus techniques.
 24 Q Does she prescribe medications for you?
 25 A No, she doesn't. She's a spiritual

1 doctor.
 2 Q Is there anything that she's recommended
 3 that you do that you're not doing?
 4 A Is there anything that I do that she
 5 recommends I don't? Sorry, say that one more time.
 6 Q That's okay. Is there anything that
 7 Dr. Lightfoot has recommended that you do that you
 8 are not actually doing?
 9 Are you following her advice?
 10 A Yes, I am.
 11 Q Okay. And what has Dr. Donahue
 12 recommended that you do?

EXHIBIT C

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF'S SECOND AMENDED SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANT'S FIRST SET OF
DISCOVERY REQUESTS TO PLAINTIFF

Plaintiff hereby serves her second amended supplemental responses and objections to Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests violates Local Civil Rule 33.3. Defendant has served interrogatories that are in direct violation of that Rule because the interrogatories are not "restricted to those seeking names of witnesses with knowledge of information relevant to the subject matter of the action, the computation of each category of damage alleged, and the existence, custodian, location and general description of relevant documents, including pertinent insurance agreements, and other physical evidence, or information of a similar nature." Local Civil Rule 33.3(a). Instead, they seek information under subsections (b) and (c) of Local Civil Rule 33.3, and therefore, they should not be served because they are not "a more practical method of obtaining the information sought than a request for production or a deposition," and because they were served in advance of the period "30 days prior to the discovery cut-off date."

Local Civil Rule 33.3(b), (c). The interrogatories you served violate Local Rule 33.3 and we ask that you immediately withdraw those interrogatories. See Rule 33.3, Local Rules for the Southern District of New York; see also Shannon v. New York City Transit Auth., No. 00 CIV. 5079 (Sweet, J.), 2001 WL 286727, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 22, 2001); accord Gary Friedrich Enterprises, LLC v. Marvel Enterprises, Inc., No. 08 CIV. 1533 BSJ JCF, 2011 WL 1642381, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 26, 2011). Specifically, Rule 33.3 provides:

- (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, at the commencement of discovery, interrogatories will be restricted to those seeking names of witnesses with knowledge of information relevant to the subject matter of the action, the computation of each category of damage alleged, and the existence, custodian, location and general description of relevant documents, including pertinent insurance agreements, and other physical evidence, or information of a similar nature.
- (b) During discovery, interrogatories other than those seeking information described in paragraph (a) above may only be served (1) if they are a more practical method of obtaining the information sought than a request for production or a deposition, or (2) if ordered by the Court.
- (c) At the conclusion of other discovery, and at least 30 days prior to the discovery cut-off date, interrogatories seeking the claims and contentions of the opposing party may be served unless the Court has ordered otherwise.

Similarly, Requests for Production numbers 1, 2, 4, 6(i), 9, 12, 30, 35 and 37 also violate Local Rule 33.3 in that they rely on the offending interrogatory requests. The Rule provides that a party must first try to obtain discovery through document production and testimony. Discovery does not close in this case until July 1, 2016, and Defendant has not yet noticed a deposition. As such, these interrogatories violate Local Rule 33.3 and are premature.

Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests also violates Rule 33, Fed. R. Civ. P., which provides "a party may serve on any other party no more than 25 interrogatories, including all discrete subparts" – in that Defendant has served a total of 59 interrogatories, including subparts, in violation of Rule 33. We ask that you immediately withdraw those interrogatories that exceed the 25 interrogatory limit set by Rule 33.

Ms. Giuffre objects to Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests to the extent they seek information that is protected by any applicable privilege, including but not limited to, attorney client privilege, work product privilege, joint defense/common interest privilege, public interest privilege, and any other applicable privilege.

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests call for the production of documents or information that is already in the possession, custody, or control of the Defendant. Ms. Giuffre further objects to the requests to the extent that Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests is duplicative of documents and information that can equally or more readily be obtained by the Defendant.

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent that they seek documents that are not relevant, material, or necessary to this action and, thus, are not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Many of the requests in the Defendant's First Set of Discovery seek documents that are in no way limited to their relation to this case. Indeed, they seek documents that are not important to resolving the issues; documents that are not relevant to any party's claim or defense; and documents that are not proportional to the needs of the case. Such requests create a heavy burden on Ms. Giuffre that outweighs any benefit. Such discovery is prohibited by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, particularly under the 2015 amendments to Rule 26(b)(1), Fed. R. Civ. P., and is wholly inappropriate.

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent that they are overly broad and unduly burdensome, as individually logging all privileged responsive documents would be overly burdensome. Plaintiff contends that requests targeting such privileged information are overly broad under Rule 26(b)(1), Fed. R. Civ. P. Specifically, Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests as overly burdensome to the extent that they would require logging voluminous and ever-increasing privileged communications between Ms. Giuffre and her counsel after the date litigation commenced on September 21, 2015. Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests as overly burdensome to the extent that they would require logging voluminous privileged documents between Ms. Giuffre and her counsel related to Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 v. United States, Case no. 08-80736-CIV-Marra, pending in the Southern District of Florida; Bradley Edwards and Paul Cassell v. Alan Dershowitz, Case no. CACE 15-000072, pending in the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, Broward County, Florida; and Jane Doe No. 102 v. Jeffrey Epstein, Case No. 09-80656-CIV-Marra/Johnson (Southern District of Florida). Accordingly, due the undue burden of individually logging responsive privileged documents related to Defendant's overly broad requests, Plaintiff has employed categorical logging of such privileged responsive documents pursuant to Local Civil Rule 26.2(c).

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests in that they seek to invade her privacy for the sole purpose of harassing and intimidating Ms. Giuffre who was a victim of sexual trafficking. Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent they are overly broad and unduly burdensome.

Ms. Giuffre objects to Defendant's definition of "your attorneys" because it includes names of attorneys that do not represent her, including Spencer Kuvin and Jack Scarola.

Ms. Giuffre's responses to Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests are being made after reasonable inquiry into the relevant facts, and are based only upon the information and documentation that is presently known to her. Ms. Giuffre reserves the right to modify and/or supplement her responses. Ms. Giuffre is producing documents and information herewith, and she will continue to review and produce relevant documents until completion.

Ms. Giuffre incorporates her above-listed general objections in the responses herein.

7 EXAMINATION

8 BY MS. MENNINGER:

9 Q Good morning, Ms. Giuffre.

10 A Good morning, Laura.

14 Ms. Giuffre?

15 A [REDACTED]

16 [REDACTED].

17 Q All right. And who lives with you there?

18 A My son, my other son, my daughter, my

19 husband and my in-laws.

20 Q And when did you return to the U.S. for 21 this visit?

22 A I believe it was around Thursday, the 23 29th, I think.

24 Q Okay. And who traveled with you?

25 A Myself.

1 Q Yourself?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Are you able to travel freely between the 4 U.S. and Australia?
5 A Yes.
6 Q Are you married?
7 A Yes.
8 Q To whom?
9 A Robert Giuffre.
10 Q All right. And did Mr. Giuffre travel
11 with you back to the U.S.?
12 A No.
13 Q All right. Have you taken any medications
14 in the last 24 hours?
15 A I have taken -- I have a cold, but I have
16 taken non-drowsy cold tablets and some DayQuil.
17 Q All right. Anything else?
18 A No.
19 Q All right. And what is your current 20 profession, Ms. Giuffre?
21 A I'm a housewife.
22 Q All right. And how long have you been a
23 housewife?
24 A For the last ten years, since I've had 25 kids.

1 Q All right. And what was your profession
2 in 2014?
3 A A housewife.
4 Q All right. Any other profession?
5 A No.
6 Q All right. You understand that you're
7 under oath today?
8 A Yes.
9 Q And you understand that if you don't
10 understand a question, you need to let me know that.
11 A Okay.
12 Q And ask for clarification.
13 A Um-hum.
14 Q Do you understand?
15 A Yes.
16 Q You also understand, I'm assuming, that 17 you have to say yes or no in answer to a question, or 18 you have to make a verbal response and not just shake
19 your head or something --
20 A Yes.
21 Q -- so the court reporter can get it.
22 You have -- you have been deposed before,
23 correct?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Do you understand what it means to be

1 under oath?
2 A Yes.
3 Q What does it mean to you?
4 A To tell the truth, the whole truth and
5 nothing but the truth.
6 Q All right. And what does the word truth
7 mean to you?
8 A To be honest.
9 Q Is there more than one truth?
10 A Is there more than -- no, there's no more
11 than one truth.
12 Q If you are confused by a question, you
13 need to let me know that so I can clarify the 14 question, okay?
15 A Okay.
16 Q For example, if I asked you the question
17 were you sexually trafficked to foreign presidents,
18 do you understand what that question means?
19 A Yes.
20 Q What does it mean?
21 A Was I lent out for the purposes of sex to 22 a foreign person -- president.
23 Q All right. And what is the answer to that
24 question?
25 A Yes.

1 Q And if I ask you have you met any foreign
2 presidents, do you understand what that question
3 means?
4 A Yes.
5 Q And what is the answer to that question?
6 A Yes.
7 Q All right. And if I asked you which
8 foreign presidents have you met, do you understand
9 what that question means?
10 A Yes.
11 Q What is the answer to that question?
12 A What is the name of the person?
13 Q Yes. Who are the foreign presidents that 14 you have met?
15 A I honestly can't remember his name at this
16 time. I'm a very visual person so --
17 Q All right. Can you describe him, then?
18 A Yes. He's Spanish.
19 Q Okay.
20 A Tall, dark hair.
21 Q All right. Anything else?
22 A And he's got a foreign tongue, accent.
23 Q And what age, approximately?
24 A Was I or was he?
25 Q Was he.

Page 13

1 A I'd say in his 40s.

2 Q Okay. And where did you meet him?

3 A I believe it was New Mexico.

4 Q New Mexico?

5 A Possibly New Mexico. I'm sorry. It's

6 really hard to go back and remember lots of different

7 events with lots of different people.

8 Q Okay. And is that the only foreign

9 president that you have met?

10 A I've met a lot of very high, powerful

11 people and I wasn't just introduced to them as who

12 they were. It's only going back through photos in

13 time to be able to realize who they are and what they

14 are now. So it's hard for me to distinguish who I've

15 actually met and when and where I've met them.

16 Q So to your knowledge, you have only met

17 one foreign president?

18 A To my knowledge at this time, yes.

19 Q And is there anything that might change

20 your knowledge at a different time?

21 A If I were to see more photos of other

22 people. I mean, I've been able to distinguish the

23 majority of the people I've been lent out to, but

24 who's to say there's not more.

25 Q All right. If I were to ask you the

Page 14

1 question how many times have you had sex with Tom

2 Pritzker, do you know what that question means?

3 A I believe so.

4 Q All right. And what is the answer to that

5 question?

6 A I believe I was with Tom once.

7 Q Okay. I would like to ask you about your

8 prior sworn statement.

9 You understand you're under oath today,

10 correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q All right. You've previously made

13 statements under oath, correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And you've previously authorized pleadings

16 to be filed on your behalf, correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q By various attorneys, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q All right. You have included in your

21 sworn statement allegations about my client,

22 Ghislaine Maxwell, correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And did you review any of those prior

25 sworn statements before appearing here today?

Page 15

1 A Yes.

2 Q And which ones did you review?

3 A I'd have to see which ones you're

4 specifically talking about. There's quite a lot of 5 statements I've made.

6 Q Right. And which ones do you recall

7 having reviewed before you attended this deposition

8 today?

9 A I've reviewed my affidavit. I'm not a

10 lawyer so I really don't know legal terms to half of

11 the, you know, legal jargon of statements, which they

12 are. If you showed me, I'd be able to tell you if

13 I've seen it or not.

14 Q Okay. So to your knowledge, can you

15 identify any sworn statement you reviewed before

16 attending the deposition today?

17 A Could I name what the statement is?

18 Q Right.

19 A The actual piece of paper that has the 20 title at the top?

21 Q Right.

22 A No, I don't.

23 Q Can you describe it in any other fashion?

24 A I don't understand. I'm sorry.

25 Q That's all right. You have to tell me if

Page 16

1 you don't.

2 Do you have any reason to believe that any

3 of your previous sworn statements that you have made

4 are not true?

5 A No.

6 MR. EDWARDS: I just object and ask that

7 if we're going to ask the witness questions about any

8 of her statements in whole or in part that the

9 witness be allowed to see the statement, review the 10 statement and then answer your questions.

11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You may answer the

12 question.

13 A Can you reask the question? I'm sorry.

14 Q Do you have any reason to believe that any

15 of your prior sworn statements are untrue?

16 A I have no reason to believe that my prior

17 statements are untrue.

18 Q Has anyone told you to say something that

19 was not true in connection with this case?

20 A No, ma'am.

21 Q All right. I'd like to start with a

22 lawsuit that you filed under the caption Jane Doe

23 versus Jeffrey Epstein.

24 Do you recall that lawsuit?

25 A I believe so.

Page 17	Page 19
1 (Exhibit 1 marked.) 2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'm going to show you 3 an exhibit that we are marking as Defendant's 4 Exhibit 1. 5 MR. EDWARDS: Can I see that for a second? 6 I'd just like to make an objection on the 7 record for the misidentification of this document. 8 While there was a lawsuit filed under the 9 style of Jane Doe versus Jeffrey Epstein, Jane Doe 10 was not Virginia Giuffre. And the lawsuit that's now 11 being handed to this witness is Jane Doe 102 versus 12 Jeffrey Epstein. 13 Is that the document we're talking about? 14 MS. MENNINGER: Counsel, if you have an 15 objection, you should state the basis for your 16 objection in a non-leading, non-suggestive manner. 17 If you have any other record to make, you 18 can do so in a pleading filed with the Court. 19 MR. EDWARDS: Sure. My objection is 20 you've misrepresented what you've handed the witness. 21 I want to make sure that the witness is holding what 22 you actually want her to be holding as opposed to the 23 lawsuit you said that you were going to hand her. 24 That's it. 25 MS. MENNINGER: Counsel, I will ask the	1 Q No. I'm just -- did you find it? 2 A I can see paragraph 23. 3 Q Okay. And do you see that there are 4 allegations about a Ms. Maxwell contained in that 5 complaint? 6 A Yes, I do. 7 Q All right. And do you understand that to 8 be Ghislaine Maxwell, my client? 9 A Yes. 10 Q All right. And Ms. Maxwell was not sued 11 as a part of this case, correct? 12 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form. 13 THE DEPONENT: Does that mean I can 14 answer? 15 MR. EDWARDS: Sure, you can answer. 16 MS. MENNINGER: Right. 17 MR. EDWARDS: If you understand the 18 question, answer it. 19 A Yes, Ms. Maxwell -- sorry, repeat the 20 question. 21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Was Ms. Maxwell sued 22 in this -- 23 A No, she wasn't. 24 Q -- in the case that's represented by 25 Defendant's Exhibit 1?
Page 18	Page 20
1 witness questions about the document. I did not ask 2 you any questions about the document. 3 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Ms. Giuffre, could you 4 please take a look at what we have marked as 5 Defendant's Exhibit 1. 6 Do you recognize that document, 7 Ms. Giuffre? 8 A I believe so. Yes. Yes, I do. 9 Q And do you see that the counsel on the 10 last page -- I'm sorry, not the last page, but the 11 third from the last page are Mr. Josefsberg and 12 Ms. Ezell from Podhurst Orseck? 13 A Yes. 14 Q Were those your lawyers? 15 A Yes, they were. 16 Q And did you authorize them to file Jane 17 Doe 102 versus Epstein on your behalf? 18 A Yes, I did. 19 Q And is that this complaint that's been 20 marked as Defendant's Exhibit 1? 21 A I believe so. 22 Q In that document, if I could ask you to 23 turn to page -- well, I'll turn to page 9 and 24 paragraph 23. 25 A Would you like me to read it?	1 A No, she wasn't. I'm sorry for 2 interrupting you. But no, she was not sued at this 3 time, no. 4 Q And why not? 5 MR. EDWARDS: I'd object and ask the 6 witness not answer that question because that would 7 be privileged, attorney-client privileged, 8 information that was between Ms. Giuffre and the 9 Podhurst Orseck firm at that time. 10 So I'm instructing you not to answer. 11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. 12 Ms. Giuffre, did you make a decision yourself whether 13 or not to sue Ms. Maxwell as a part of this lawsuit 14 against -- Jane Doe 102 versus Jeffrey Epstein? 15 A I think I've been advised not to answer 16 that question. 17 Q This is a different question. 18 A Oh, okay. 19 Q So your counsel can assert a privilege, 20 but that question did not call for privileged 21 information. 22 MR. EDWARDS: I -- 23 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'm asking about what 24 -- what you decided to do. Whether you decided to 25 sue Ms. Maxwell or not at the time Jane Doe 102

1 versus Epstein was filed?

2 MR. EDWARDS: And I disagree. And I
3 object to this invading the attorney-client
4 privilege.

5 And I'm instructing you not to answer.

6 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Can you answer that
7 question without revealing any attorney-client
8 communications, whether you made a decision to file a
9 lawsuit or not?

10 A I'm going to have to listen to my attorney
11 and not answer the question.

12 Q All right. I would like to show you some
13 documents that were filed in what we'll call the CVRA
14 case, the Crime Victims' Rights Act case.

15 Do you know what I mean by that reference?

16 A I am familiar with that.

17 Q Okay. I'm going to start with one on or 18 about December 30th, 2014. We will mark it as
19 Defendant's Exhibit 2.

20 (Exhibit 2 marked.)

21 MR. EDWARDS: Thank you.

22 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right.
23 Ms. Giuffre, do you recognize Defendant's Exhibit 2?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And what do you understand it to be?

Page 22

1 A I believe this is when I was hoping to
2 join the CVRA case.

3 Q All right. And do you know when this
4 document was filed?

5 And actually, just to be clear, about
6 halfway there's actually a second document that was
7 filed. So this is a composite exhibit. Let me be
8 very clear.

9 So after page 14 -- I'm sorry, 13, there's
10 a second document that is styled Jane Doe #3 and Jane
11 Doe #4's Corrected Motion Pursuant to Rule 21 for 12 Joinder In Action.

13 Do you see that?

14 A Did you say page 14?

15 Q It is on the 14th page of this document.

16 Do you see that?

17 A I do.

18 Q And so this composite Exhibit 2 has both a
19 motion and a corrected motion.

20 Do you see that?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And were both of those pleadings
23 authorized by you to be filed?

24 A Yes.

25 Q In other words, you wanted to join the

Page 23

1 CVRA action in or about December 30th, 2014, correct?

2 A I -- I'm not aware of the exact dates.
3 There's no dates on this. But I did try to join the
4 motion, yes.

5 Q All right. If you can look at the top
6 line of the document.

7 A Yes.

8 Q Does it say, Entered on FLSD --

9 A Oh, it does, too, I'm sorry, yes.

10 Q That's all right. So does that refresh
11 your memory as to about when you first sought to join
12 the CVRA action?

13 A Yes.

14 Q December 30th, 2014, correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And the corrected motion was filed a few
17 days later, correct?

18 A Yes, correct.

19 Q If I could turn to Defendant's Exhibit 3,
20 which was January 21st.

21 (Exhibit 3 marked.)

22 MR. EDWARDS: Thank you.

23 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recognize this
24 document?

25 A Yes, I do.

Page 24

1 Q What do you understand this document to
2 be?

3 A It's a rough background of the years that
4 I was abused by Ghislaine and Jeffrey.

5 Q All right. And this is something I
6 believe that you on page 15 signed; is that true?

7 A Just let me have a look.

8 Q Sure.

9 A I think I'm actually missing page 15. Oh,
10 here we go.

11 Q Sorry. I'm looking at the numbers on the 12 top right. I apologize. I believe there was some 13 cover page or something that was excluded.

14 MR. EDWARDS: And just for the record, I'm 15 going to object to the relevance of this document.
16 I'm going to allow the witness to answer the 17 question, but I want my objection on the record.

18 MS. MENNINGER: Okay. Simple objection,
19 relevance.

20 A Are we talking about this page?

21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Yes, the one with the 22 black box, yes. Do you believe that to have 23 contained your signature?

24 A Yes.

25 Q All right. And you executed that on

1 January 19th, 2015?
 2 A At the very top of the page it says
 3 January 21st, 2015.
 4 Q The date it was filed. Is there a date
 5 just above the signature block?
 6 A Oh, yes, sorry. Yes, there is.
 7 Q And what date -- what date was that?
 8 A The 19th day of January, 2015.
 9 Q Okay. And this document is something that
 10 you believe contains the truth, correct?
 11 A To the best of my knowledge at the time,
 12 yes.
 13 Q All right. Did something change between
 14 the time then and today that makes you believe that
 15 it's not all accurate?
 16 A Well, as you can see, in line 4 on page 1,
 17 I wasn't aware of my dates. I was just doing the
 18 best to guesstimate when I actually met them.
 19 Since then I've been able to find out that
 20 through my Mar-a-Lago records that it was actually
 21 the summer of 2000, not the summer of 1999.
 22 Q Oh, I'm sorry. Are you back on page 1?
 23 A On the first page.
 24 Q Okay.
 25 A Yes.

1 Q And you're talking about line 4?
 2 A Line 4.
 3 Q Paragraph 4 or line 4?
 4 A Oh, sorry. Number 4, the paragraph
 5 number 4.
 6 Q Okay. And what part of paragraph 4 do you
 7 now believe to be untrue?
 8 A In approximately --
 9 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 10 You can answer.
 11 A In approximately 1999 when I was 15 years
 12 old I met Ghislaine Maxwell.
 13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay.
 14 A I now know that it was 2000, that I was 16
 15 years old when I met Ghislaine Maxwell.
 16 Q So when you signed this document under
 17 penalty of perjury stating that it was true, you no
 18 longer believe that to be true, correct?
 19 A It was an honest mistake. We had no idea
 20 how to pinpoint without any kind of records or dates
 21 or anything like that. I was just going back
 22 chronologically through time. And that's the best
 23 time that I thought it was. And now I know the 24 facts, so it's good to know.
 25 Q So you now believe that a document you

1 filed under oath is no longer true, correct?
 2 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 3 A I wouldn't say that it wasn't true. I was
 4 just unaware of the times and the dates.
 5 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Again, is there more
 6 than one truth, Ms. Roberts?
 7 A No, there's no more than one truth.
 8 Q All right. So a document in which you
 9 swore that you were 15 years old when you met
 10 Ms. Ghislaine Maxwell is an untrue statement,
 11 correct?
 12 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 13 A It's not that it's an untrue statement.
 14 It was a mistake. So it wasn't intentionally trying
 15 to say something that wasn't true. It was to my best
 16 knowledge that I thought it was 1999. And when I got
 17 my records from Mar-a-Lago I was able to find out
 18 that it was 2000. And this was entered before I
 19 found out the actual dates that I did work at
 20 Mar-a-Lago.
 21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. So a document
 22 that you filed under oath --
 23 A Um-hum.
 24 Q -- is now, you believe to be untrue,
 25 correct?

1 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. Asked and
 2 answered.
 3 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You may answer.
 4 MR. EDWARDS: Answer again.
 5 A Again, I wouldn't say it's untrue. Untrue
 6 would mean that I would have lied. And I didn't lie.
 7 This was my best knowledge at the time. And I did my
 8 very best to try to pinpoint time periods going back
 9 such a long time ago.
 10 It wasn't until I found the facts that I
 11 worked at Mar-a-Lago in 2000 that I was able to
 12 figure that out.
 13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And approximately when
 14 did you learn those facts about the dates you worked
 15 at Mar-a-Lago?
 16 A I would say it was mid-2015.
 17 Q Mid-2015 is the first time you became
 18 aware of the dates --
 19 A I don't know the exact --
 20 Q If you could just let me finish.
 21 A I'm sorry.
 22 Q That's all right. Approximately mid-2015
 23 when you learned the true dates that you had worked
 24 at Mar-a-Lago?
 25 A That's correct. Sorry.

Page 29

1 Q And based on the fact that you learned the
2 fact you had worked at Mar-a-Lago in 2000 -- you
3 became aware in mid-2015 --
4 A Um-hum.
5 Q -- that you had met Ms. Maxwell in 2000,
6 correct?
7 A That's --
8 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
9 A That's correct.
10 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. And you
11 became aware in mid-2015 that you were not 15 years
12 old when you met Ghislaine Maxwell, correct?
13 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
14 A That's correct.
15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. And who 16 provided you those Mar-a-Lago records in 17 approximately mid-2015?
18 MR. EDWARDS: I'm going to object.
19 And to the extent that this invades the 20 attorney-client privilege, if it was your attorneys
21 that you spoke to and learned this information or 22 received this information from, then you're
23 instructed not to answer.
24 A I cannot answer that question.
25 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did you yourself look

Page 30

1 at records in the middle of 2015 regardless of who
2 showed them to you?
3 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. And to the
4 extent that they were showed to you or shared by any
5 of your lawyers, you're instructed not to answer the 6 question. It invades the attorney-client privilege.
7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did you look at 8 Mar-a-Lago records in the middle of 2015 yourself?
9 MR. EDWARDS: She's not answering the
10 question.
11 MS. MENNINGER: On what grounds is she not
12 answering the question?
13 MR. EDWARDS: I just told you it invades
14 the attorney-client privilege. If she learned --
15 I will instruct her if she learned by some 16 other way than her attorneys sharing the information
17 with her, then she can answer the question.
18 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'm asking you not to 19 tell me whether your attorneys showed you the record.
20 I'm asking you not to tell me the source of the
21 record.
22 I'm asking you if you personally in the 23 middle of 2015 looked at Mar-a-Lago records?
24 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection.
25 Same instruction.

Page 31

1 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'm going to show you
2 an exhibit filed on, I believe on or about
3 February 6th of 2015. Defendant's Exhibit 4.
4 (Exhibit 4 marked.)
5 MR. EDWARDS: Thank you.
6 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And drawing your
7 attention to the heading line that says, Entered on
8 the docket February 6th, 2015.
9 Do you see that?
10 A Yes.
11 Q All right. And Declaration of Jane Doe 3, 12 do you see that on the first page?
13 A Yes.
14 Q And it's in the CVRA case, correct, Jane
15 Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2 versus United States of America?
16 A Yes.
17 Q All right. And do you recognize this
18 document?
19 A Yes.
20 Q And what do you understand this document
21 to be?
22 A I believe it's more reason to why I should 23 have been added to the CVRA case.
24 MR. EDWARDS: Objection to the relevance,
25 Counsel.

Page 32

1 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. And again, if
2 you look to the last page of the document,
3 paragraph 67 --
4 A The last page?
5 Q Yes, the very last.
6 A 67, yes.
7 Q All right. It says in paragraph 67: I
8 declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing
9 is true and correct, right?
10 A Yes.
11 Q And it was executed on or about the 12 5th day of February, 2015, correct?
13 A It's a bit smudged, but it kind of looks
14 like a 5.
15 Q All right. And then there's a signature
16 block that's redacted that says Jane Doe 3, correct?
17 A Correct.
18 Q Do you believe that you signed this
19 document and it was later covered up by that block?
20 A Yes.
21 Q All right. And again, is there anything
22 in this document that you believe today to not be
23 true?
24 MR. EDWARDS: I just ask that you read
25 through the entire document and answer the question.

Page 33	Page 35
1 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Have you seen this 2 document before, Ms. Giuffre? 3 A I'm sure I have, but it's always good to 4 refresh your memory just looking over something. 5 Q All right. 6 (Pause.) 7 A Thank you for giving me time to read that 8 over. 9 Q Certainly. So have you had a chance to 10 read it now? 11 A Yes. 12 Q All right. And what parts of this 13 document sworn by you under penalty of perjury are 14 not true? 15 A Again, the only thing that I see is the 16 mistake that I made, I first met Epstein when I was 17 15 years old. 18 Q Okay. And that's in paragraph 5? 19 A That's in paragraph 5 on the first page. 20 Q All right. And everything else you 21 believe to be true? 22 A Yes. 23 Q Okay. If I could now turn to what I'll 24 mark as Defendant's Exhibit 5. 25 (Exhibit 5 marked.)	1 against Mr. Dershowitz; is that your understanding? 2 It's your understanding. You don't have 3 to look at your lawyer if you don't understand. You 4 don't have to -- 5 A No, I just don't know if I'm allowed -- 6 Q That's all right. 7 A -- to say certain things about that. But, 8 yes, I believe they were in a lawsuit. 9 Q Okay. And that's against Mr. Dershowitz, 10 right? 11 A Correct. 12 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form. I 13 object to the relevance of the document. 14 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. 15 Ms. Giuffre, again, if you could turn to the last 16 page of this document. And do you see a signature on 17 that page? 18 A I do. 19 Q Whose signature is that? 20 A That is mine. 21 Q And approximately when did you sign that 22 document? 23 A Executed this 20th day of November, 2015. 24 Q All right. So you signed that on 25 November 20th, 2015, correct?
Page 34	Page 36
1 THE DEPONENT: Thank you. 2 MR. EDWARDS: Thank you. 3 MS. MENNINGER: I think I have one more. 4 MS. McCAWLEY: It's okay if you don't. 5 MS. MENNINGER: I don't think I have all 6 of them. 7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. Do you 8 recognize Defendant's Exhibit 5? 9 A Yes. 10 Q What is the title of that document? 11 A Declaration of Virginia Giuffre. 12 Q And that's you, correct? 13 A Yes. 14 Q And do you recognize which case this 15 declaration was filed in? 16 A Yes. Bradley Edwards and Paul Cassell, 17 Plaintiff versus Alan Dershowitz, Defendant. 18 Q All right. And who do you understand 19 Mr. Edwards and Mr. Cassell to be? 20 A Mr. Edwards is my lawyer sitting next to 21 me. 22 Q All right. 23 A And Mr. Cassell is another one of my 24 lawyers. 25 Q All right. And they are in a lawsuit	1 A Correct. 2 Q All right. And that was under penalty of 3 perjury, correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q All right. If I could now turn to what 6 we'll mark as Defendant's Exhibit 6. 7 (Exhibit 6 marked.) 8 MR. EDWARDS: Thank you. 9 MS. McCAWLEY: Thanks. 10 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recognize this 11 document, Ms. Giuffre? 12 A I do. 13 Q All right. What do you believe this 14 document to be? 15 A I believe this is when I spoke to the FBI. 16 Q Okay. And do you remember about when you 17 spoke to the FBI? 18 A It says, Date of entry July 5th, 2013. 19 Q Do you believe that you spoke to the FBI 20 in 2013? 21 A I thought it was 2011 when I talked to 22 them. 23 Q Okay. I'm going to direct your attention 24 to the bottom of that page. 25 A Yes.

Page 37

1 Q The first page. Do you see that?
 2 A Yes.
 3 Q The last few lines there have another
 4 date.
 5 A Oh, yes, investigation of, yes.
 6 Q All right.
 7 A So that makes sense, okay.
 8 Q Okay. What do you understand that to be?
 9 And if it refreshes your recollection about when you
 10 spoke to the FBI, just let us know.
 11 A Yeah, March 17th, 2011 sounds more right
 12 than 2013.
 13 Q Okay. And where did you speak to them?
 14 A I believe this was in the office of the 15 consulate, American Consulate, in Sydney.
 16 Q Sydney, Australia?
 17 A Sydney, Australia.
 18 Q Okay. And you were there in person with 19 these FBI agents?
 20 A Correct.
 21 Q And were they taking notes when they spoke
 22 to you?
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q Were they recording the interview, to your 25 knowledge?

Page 38

1 A I believe they were.
 2 Q Okay. Have you had a chance to review
 3 this report?
 4 And I will make note for the record that
 5 there are obviously many places that are blacked
 6 out --
 7 A Yeah.
 8 Q -- or whited out. Is that fair?
 9 A Yes.
 10 Q All right. Have you had a chance to 11 review this one with whited-out portions of it before
 12 today?
 13 A Yes.
 14 Q All right. And you understood when you
 15 were speaking to the FBI that they were federal 16 agents, correct?
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q And that you were supposed to tell them
 19 the truth, correct?
 20 A Absolutely.
 21 Q And do you believe that you did, in fact,
 22 tell them the truth?
 23 A To the best of my knowledge. Again, when
 24 it comes to dates and times, I was obviously off.
 25 But everything else is absolutely 100 percent true.

Page 39

1 Q Okay. And have you reviewed any -- have
 2 you at any time reviewed this document without those
 3 portions whited out?
 4 A I don't believe I've seen this document
 5 without the portions.
 6 Q Okay. So you don't know, for example,
 7 what's behind those, other than what you recall --
 8 A No.
 9 Q -- having told the FBI at the time,
 10 correct?
 11 A That's correct.
 12 Q Okay. I'm going to show you a new
 13 document.
 14 A Okay.
 15 Q You can just put that to the side.
 16 Defendant's Exhibit 7.
 17 (Exhibit 7 marked.)
 18 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right.
 19 MR. EDWARDS: Thanks.
 20 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And do you recognize
 21 this document?
 22 A Yes.
 23 Q And what do you understand it to be?
 24 A This was a phone conversation that I had 25 between Jack Scarola and Brad Edwards.

Page 40

1 Q Okay. And do you see a date reflected on
 2 the front page?
 3 A April 7, 2011.
 4 Q Is that when you had that phone
 5 conversation with them?
 6 A If it's dated like that, it must be, yes.
 7 Q Well, I just need you to say from your
 8 memory, does that sound about right in terms of what
 9 you recall having been the phone conversation?
 10 A I'm sure it's correct.
 11 Q Okay.
 12 A I don't have a good calendar in my brain.
 13 So, yes, I'm sure that that's the correct date.
 14 Q Did you understand it was being recorded,
 15 correct?
 16 A Yes.
 17 Q Okay. Have you listened to the recording
 18 of that phone call?
 19 A I don't believe I listened to the
 20 recording, but I have seen the document.
 21 Q All right. And again, you were speaking
 22 the truth at the time you were speaking to them as 23 lawyers and officers of the court, correct?
 24 A Yes. And again, to the best of my
 25 knowledge when it comes to dates.

Q Okay. And then the last -- the last document, I hope, is --

MS. MENNINGER: The big one.
(Exhibit 8 marked.)

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. Do you recognize -- I'm going to -- I'm sorry, if I didn't say it already. This is Defendant's Exhibit 8. Do you recognize this document?

A Yes, I do.

Q And what is this document?

A This is a manuscript that I was writing, I believe, back in 2011 regarding some of my life story. And just to make it known, this is a based on true events. But I wouldn't say fictional, but just based on true events.

Not everything in it is -- not everything is in there and not everything is, you know, correct. So there's a few mistakes in there.

Q Okay. Off the top of your head, do you recall any mistakes that are in there now without reading the 140-page document?

MR. EDWARDS: We're going to be here a long time.

A Yeah, we could be here a very long time. I mean, I'd like to say a majority of it is correct.

Some names have been changed in order to protect other people.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Protect their privacy?

A Protect their privacy, yeah, I would say, just not getting them involved in, if this were to ever go public.

Q Well, again, without rereading the whole manuscript --

A Reading it, yeah. I'm trying to see if I can -- see something in here.

Q Let me narrow my question and maybe that will help.

A Yes.

Q Is there anything -- well, first of all, did you author that entire manuscript?

A Yes, I did.

Q Did anyone else author part of that manuscript?

A Do you mean did anyone else write this with me?

Q Right.

A No.

Q That's all your writing?

A This is my writing.

Q Okay. To the best of your recollection, as you sit here right now, is there anything in that manuscript about Ghislaine Maxwell that is untrue?

A I don't believe so. Like I said, there is a lot of stuff that I actually have left out of here.

Q Um-hum.

A So there is a lot more information I could put in there. But as far as Ghislaine Maxwell goes, I would like to say that there is 99.9 percent of it would be to the correct knowledge.

Q All right. Is there anything that you -- and I understand you're doing this from memory. Is there anything that you recall, as you're sitting here today, about Ghislaine Maxwell that is contained in that manuscript, that is not true?

A You know, I haven't read this in a very long time. I don't believe that there's anything in here about Ghislaine Maxwell that is not true.

MR. EDWARDS: I'd just ask, Counsel, if you have anything specific to show her about Ghislaine Maxwell --

MS. MENNINGER: I'll ask questions.

MR. EDWARDS: -- I'll have her look at it.

MS. MENNINGER: I'll ask questions.

MR. EDWARDS: I know, but I want the record clear that if she hasn't read it in a long time, she --

MS. MENNINGER: She made the record very clear. Thank you. She doesn't need you to make a record.

MR. EDWARDS: I'm not making records, but you're making this last longer. There's no need for this. This doesn't have to be an unpleasant process. I want her to help you.

MS. MENNINGER: I don't find it unpleasant. I'm sorry if you do.

MR. EDWARDS: Okay. Well, then, I object to that last series of questions to the extent that she was unable to look at what you wanted her to look at.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I would like to next turn to a document filed on March 16th of this year. Or actually, let me rephrase that. A document dated March 16th of this year, which we will mark as Defendant's Exhibit 9.

(Exhibit 9 marked.)

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recognize this document, Ms. Giuffre?

A Yes, I do.

Q All right. And what is your understanding of what this document represents?

Page 45

1 A Based upon the title, it is Plaintiff's
2 Response and Objections to Defendant's First Set of
3 Discovery Requests to Plaintiff.
4 Q And are you the plaintiff?
5 A I am the plaintiff, yes.
6 Q All right. So it's your response to
7 Ms. Maxwell's discovery request, correct?
8 A Correct.
9 Q All right. And if you look at the last
10 page -- or, I'm sorry, it would be the second to last 11 page -- you might see signatures of your attorney,
12 correct?
13 A I see printed names.
14 Q Printed. Electronic signature --
15 A Okay.
16 Q -- will have a little S in front of it.
17 A All right.
18 Q Do you see that?
19 A I can see the, yeah the printed names. So
20 if it's electronic signature, then yes.
21 Q All right. And the date on that is
22 March 16th of 2016?
23 A Correct.
24 Q All right. And so without revealing the 25 content of your conversations, you assisted in

Page 46

1 preparing responses to discovery requests, correct?
2 A Yes.
3 Q All right. I'm going to show you a
4 subsequent one marked Defendant's Exhibit 10 and
5 dated March 22nd.
6 (Exhibit 10 marked.)
7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) If you can take a look
8 at that.
9 A Thank you.
10 Q And while we're at it, I'm going to give 11 you Defendant's Exhibit 11 so you can look at them
12 together.
13 (Exhibit 11 marked.)
14 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right.
15 A Thank you.
16 Q All right. So looking at Defendant's
17 Exhibit 10, do you recognize that document?
18 A Plaintiff's Supplemental Response and 19 Objections to Defendant's First Set of Discovery
20 Requests to Plaintiff.
21 I've seen a lot of documents, and they all
22 look the same. But I'm sure I've seen it.
23 Q All right. And looking, again, at the 24 last page -- or I'm sorry, this time it will be the 25 third to last page.

Page 47

1 Do you see your attorney's signature and
2 the date, March 22nd, 2016, correct?
3 A I do.
4 Q All right. And then looking at
5 Defendant's Exhibit 11, that's your declaration,
6 correct?
7 A Yes, it is.
8 Q And declaring under penalty of perjury as 9 of March 22nd, 2016 that the supplemental response
10 and objections are true and correct, right?
11 A Correct.
12 Q And you -- that's your signature?
13 A That is mine.
14 Q And you are swearing under penalty of 15 perjury that Defendant's Exhibit 10 is true and 16 correct?
17 A Yes.
18 Q As of March 22nd, 2016, right?
19 A Yes.
20 Q All right. And then one more on that.
21 Defendant's Exhibit 12.
22 (Exhibit 12 marked.)
23 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And do you recognize
24 this document?
25 A Yes.

Page 48

1 Q Okay. And what is this document?
2 A Plaintiff's Second Amended Supplemental
3 Response and Objections to Defendant's First Set of
4 Discovery Requests to Plaintiff.
5 Q All right. And again, turning to the very
6 rear section, I think you'll see your attorney's
7 signatures again and the date of April 29th, 2016?
8 A I do see that.
9 Q All right. And again, you authorized this 10 document to be filed, correct?
11 A Correct.
12 Q And the statements contained therein are 13 true, to the best of your knowledge, correct?
14 A Correct.
15 Q And that's -- April 29th is just a few
16 days ago, correct?
17 A Yes.
18 Q All right. Did you review this April 29th
19 document before it was filed or served?
20 A Like I said, I've seen a lot of documents
21 and they all look alike, but I'm sure I've seen this
22 one.
23 Q Okay. And if it's something that was 24 served last Friday, does that refresh your 25 recollection that you reviewed it before it was

1 served on April 29th, 2016?
 2 A I believe I have seen this.
 3 Q And you were here in the U.S. last Friday?
 4 A Yes.
 5 Q So you saw it in person, correct?
 6 A Yes, I was looking at a lot of documents
 7 on Friday.
 8 Q Okay.
 9 A I believe this could definitely be one I
 10 looked at.
 11 Q All right. If I could direct your 12 attention to -- let me see, in that document --
 13 MR. EDWARDS: Exhibit 12?
 14 MS. MENNINGER: Um-hum, Defendant's
 15 Exhibit 12.
 16 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) -- to page -- sorry.
 17 You're not the only one who's seen a lot of 18 documents.
 19 Well, without asking you to look at a
 20 page, can you tell me what your -- between 1996
 21 and -- well, in 1996 to 2002, what was the first job
 22 that you held?
 23 A I believe the first job that I held was in 24 the year 2000, and that was at Mar-a-Lago.
 25 Q Okay. And is that the first job you held

1 as a teenager or at any point in time, that you
 2 recall?
 3 A Yes, that I recall.
 4 Q All right. Did you ever work at Taco
 5 Bell?
 6 A My ex-boyfriend used to work there and I
 7 would help him out. I was never really -- I don't
 8 think I was employed there. He was my boyfriend so I
 9 stayed there with him all the time.
 10 Q What was his name?
 11 A I called him Michael, but I think his real
 12 name was James.
 13 Q Okay. And so he was employed there, but 14 you were not employed there?
 15 A I used to go there and help him out.
 16 Q Did you have a uniform?
 17 A I would have to wear a shirt when I was 18 there, yes. He was the manager, so --
 19 Q Oh, a Taco Bell shirt?
 20 A Yes.
 21 Q Okay. And did you get a paycheck from
 22 them?
 23 A I believe Michael paid me.
 24 Q How did he pay you?
 25 A With a check.

1 Q Written from Taco Bell?
 2 A You know, I don't know, sorry. I just --
 3 I remember he asked me to come in and help him out,
 4 and that's -- I didn't really consider myself an
 5 employee there, but --
 6 Q Just wearing the shirt and getting a
 7 paycheck didn't cause you to think you were an 8 employee?
 9 A Well --
 10 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 11 Mischaracterizes her testimony.
 12 A Yeah, I know. I mean, it was my 13 boyfriend. I was helping him out. So that's the way
 14 I looked at it.
 15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Is there any other
 16 place that you wore a uniform and got a check from in 17 the years from '96 to 2000?
 18 A I did work at Publix as a bag girl, but
 19 that was only for a couple weeks, I think.
 20 Q Which Publix was that?
 21 A I believe it was in Loxahatchee.
 22 Q Okay. Do you remember the street?
 23 A No.
 24 Q All right. Anywhere else you wore a
 25 uniform and got a paycheck?

1 A I volunteered at a bird aviary.
 2 Q What was the name of that?
 3 A I don't know the name of it. But it
 4 was -- I'm an animal lover. So --
 5 Q Okay.
 6 A -- it's something I enjoyed doing.
 7 Q Okay. Did you get a check from them?
 8 A I volunteered. I think they eventually 9 put me on some kind of payroll. I don't think it was 10 much, though.
 11 Q Okay. So what year were you in helping 12 out in a Taco Bell wearing the uniform and getting a
 13 check?
 14 A I have no idea when it comes to years.
 15 Q Was it before or after Mar-a-Lago?
 16 A Before Mar-a-Lago.
 17 Q Okay. And how --
 18 A Mar-a-Lago was my first real job so --
 19 Q What's that?
 20 A Mar-a-Lago was like my first real job.
 21 Q What do you mean by real job?
 22 A Like, you know, fully employed, sit down
 23 for an interview and, you know.
 24 Q Okay. So Taco Bell, was Taco Bell the 25 first place you got a paycheck from?

1 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 2 A Uhm, I don't know, to be honest.
 3 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And in what order did
 4 Taco Bell, Publix and Mar-a-Lago go, and the aviary,
 5 sorry?
 6 A Oh, I would have to guess. Do you want me
 7 to guess?
 8 Q Sure.
 9 A Um, I would say Publix. And then, I think
 10 that's when I helped my boyfriend out at Taco Bell
 11 and then I think the aviary.
 12 Q And where was the Taco Bell?
 13 A I was living in Fort Lauder -- I think it
 14 was Fort Lauderdale. Don't quote me on that, but 15 somewhere in Florida, Broward County, something like
 16 that.
 17 Q And who were you living with at that time?
 18 A Michael. His name is James, but Michael.
 19 Q So you were living with Michael when you
 20 worked at the Taco Bell, right?
 21 A Yes, I was living with him.
 22 Q And you worked with Michael when you
 23 worked at the Publix, correct?
 24 A No.
 25 Q Okay. So Publix came after Taco Bell or

1 before?
 2 A I think it came -- like I said, don't
 3 quote me on it, but I think Publix came before it.
 4 Q And who were you living with when you
 5 worked at Publix?
 6 A My mom and my dad.
 7 Q And who were you living with when you
 8 worked at the aviary?
 9 A My mom and my dad.
 10 Q Anywhere else that you got a paycheck from
 11 before 2000?
 12 A No, not that I can think of.
 13 Q Okay. Anywhere else you wore a uniform?
 14 A Besides Mar-a-Lago and -- yeah, that's it.
 15 Q Okay. And so how long was it between
 16 working at any of those three places and the time
 17 that you worked at Mar-a-Lago?
 18 A I have no idea. I'm sorry. Um --
 19 Q Years? Months?
 20 A Oh, we're going to go back
 21 chronologically. I was trying to get my GED and I --
 22 there was a summer break. And that's when I started
 23 working for Mar-a-Lago. So that Mar-a-Lago we know
 24 now is in the year 2000. So I would have to say a
 25 month.

1 Q Months. And what was the job you believe
 2 you had immediately prior to Mar-a-Lago?
 3 A If I were correct, it would be the aviary
 4 that I volunteered at.
 5 Q Okay. And you believe you were living
 6 with your parents at the time you worked at the 7 aviary?
 8 A Yes.
 9 Q Okay. And not living with Michael?
 10 A Michael might have been living with me and 11 my parents.
 12 Q Okay. So you recall Michael was living 13 with you and your parents at the time you worked at 14 the aviary?
 15 A Yes.
 16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.
 17 Mischaracterizes testimony.
 18 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And was Michael living
 19 with you and your parents at the time you started at 20 Mar-a-Lago?
 21 A Yes.
 22 Q And what address was Michael living with 23 you and your parents at the time you started at
 24 Mar-a-Lago?
 25 A My parents' address?

1 Q Whatever address you were living at, at
 2 the time you started at Mar-a-Lago.
 3 A [REDACTED], Loxahatchee, Florida
 4 33470.
 5 Q How is it that you came to work at
 6 Mar-a-Lago?
 7 A My dad is a maintenance manager or 8 supervisor, I don't know what you call it. But he 9 worked in the maintenance department, mostly on 10 tennis courts, working on the air conditioning,
 11 helping set up for functions. And he got me a summer
 12 job there.
 13 Q Okay. And you said you were on a break?
 14 A Yes.
 15 Q What were you on a break from?
 16 A I think like -- this is going back so long
 17 now, but I was attempting to get my GED. And it,
 18 summer came, so school stops during the summertime
 19 here in America, and I got a summer job.
 20 Q All right. And where were you in school?
 21 A I don't actually know the name of the 22 place. It's -- yeah, I know.
 23 Q A GED place?
 24 A Yeah, it was, like, I was previously in 25 Royal Palm Beach High School, but, I mean, because of

1 a lot of the circumstances that I had been subjected
2 to, I decided I wanted to get my GED.

3 Q Okay. So you were going to an actual
4 school to get your GED, that's what you're saying?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And that school, whatever it was, where
7 you were getting your GED was not Palm Beach High
8 School, right?

9 A No.

10 Q And it -- whatever the school was where 11 you were getting your GED took a summer break?

12 A I believe so, yes.

13 Q And that was in 2000?

14 A Now that we know the right dates, yes.

15 Q And that's when your dad helped you get a
16 quote-unquote summer job?

17 A Yes.

18 Q All right. And that summer job was
19 Mar-a-Lago?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Okay. Now tell me how you sort of came 22 into Mar-a-Lago for the first time? He asked you to 23 come? They called you? What happened?

24 A My dad was very liked there. So I think
25 he talked to the people who were in HR. And then

1 they said for me to come in for an interview.

2 Q Um-hum.

3 A To be interviewed for a locker room
4 assistant.

5 Q Um-hum.

6 A They liked me. I had to go through a
7 series of drug tests, polygraph tests. I mean, it
8 was a very extensive regime to get a job there.

9 Q Yeah.

10 A And when all those came back good, I
11 started the job.

12 Q So how long do you think it took for you
13 to go through that extensive series of drug tests and 14 polygraph tests and --

15 A I did them both in the same day.

16 Q Okay. When was the interview? Was it on 17 the same day or a different day?

18 A I believe it was like a few days
19 beforehand.

20 Q Okay. And do you remember who you
21 interviewed with?

22 A No.

23 Q Do you remember the title of the job for 24 which you were interviewing?

25 A Locker room attendant.

1 Q Locker room attendant was the name?

2 A Of the position?

3 Q Yes.

4 A Yes.

5 Q And did they give you any training?

6 A No.

7 Q Did they show you how to work the lockers?

8 A Well, I mean, there was a girl who already 9 worked there at the front desk. I think she helped 10 make appointments and greeted people, and then she 11 just told me my duties in the locker room were to,
12 you know, make tea. I had never made tea before, so
13 that was -- that was fun. Learn how to make tea.
14 Clean up after the ladies who had been in the locker
15 room. Make sure the bathrooms were kept nice and 16 tidy. You fold the toilet paper into a little
17 triangle every time anyone went to the toilet. Clean
18 up the sink area. It was a very crazy job.

19 Q Do you remember the names of any of your
20 coworkers who you worked with at Mar-a-Lago?

21 A I believe the head of the spa area was 22 Adriana or Adrienne. I can't remember exactly.

23 Q Okay.

24 A And the girl who trained me, I have a very 25 clear picture of her face, but I can't remember her

1 name.

2 Q All right. What did she look like?

3 A She had blonde hair, probably to her
4 shoulders, and it was curly.

5 Q And how old was she?

6 A I'd say in her 20s.

7 Q All right. Did they check your
8 identification when you went in for your job
9 interview or your --

10 A It was very extensive. I'm sure they 11 would have had to check and make sure I was who I
12 was.

13 Q And so you had a driver's license, right?

14 A I believe so.

15 Q All right. And, let's see. Did you move
16 to a different position while you were there or did
17 you always stay as a locker room --

18 A I wasn't there very long. So I just --

19 Q Just one second. Did you always stay as a 20 locker room attendant?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. I just need to finish my question
23 for the court reporter.

24 A I know, I'm sorry. I have a tendency of 25 jumping in.

Page 61

Q Okay. If I can direct your attention back to Defendant's Exhibit 12 at page 15. And under the heading Response to Interrogatory Number 9, do you see that where it says --

A Yes.

Q -- Ms. Joffrey (pronouncing) -- Giuffre, excuse me, responds as follows?

A Yes.

Q Okay. It says you worked as a locker room attendant for the spa area, correct?

A Yes.

Q And it says records produced in this case identify the date of employment as 2000, correct?

A Yes.

Q What records that were produced in this case cause you to believe that the employment began in 2000?

A Uhm, is this going back to another question that I'm not allowed to answer?

Q No.

A I have seen the documents, and I know that my employment now was in 2000.

Q What documents did you see that caused you to make that answer?

A The Mar-a-Lago employment documents.

Page 62

Q Are they your Mar-a-Lago employment documents?

A Um --

MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

A My name is on there.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. Do you believe them to be your Mar-a-Lago employment documents?

A As far as I can tell.

Q Okay. So you were able to review your Mar-a-Lago employment documents --

MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) -- and respond to the question, as it says right there that you respond, correct?

A Yes.

Q When did you review the documents that you reviewed to cause you to respond to that answer that way?

A I don't think I found out till sometime mid -- mid last year, I believe.

Q Okay.

A I'm really not too sure. You know, I'm sorry, dates and documents, there's too many to remember. But --

Q Okay. You do admit that you filed in many documents that you met Ghislaine Maxwell in '98 or '99, correct?

A Yes.

Q And you do admit that you told members of the media that you met Ghislaine Maxwell in '98 or '99, correct?

MR. EDWARDS: Form.

A That was my closest approximation to what I could actually remember, so --

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You told the media that you met her in '98 or '99?

MR. EDWARDS: Form.

A Again, yes, as close as I can remember.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And the media published in the newspapers that you met Ghislaine Maxwell in '98 or '99, correct?

MR. EDWARDS: Form.

A Yes, they did.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And the news media published in the newspapers what you told them, which is that you were 15 when you met Ghislaine Maxwell, correct?

MR. EDWARDS: Form.

A Which is what I truly thought at the time, yes.

Page 64

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. And it is not true that you were 15 when you met Ghislaine Maxwell, correct?

A It was a mistake that I made, yes.

Q So that the printing in the newspaper that you met Ghislaine Maxwell when she was -- when you were 15 is not a true statement of fact, correct?

A It is an incorrect statement as I have now found out, that my employment started in 2000.

Q All right. And to the best of your recollection, you found that out in the middle of 2015, correct?

MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

A To the best of my recollection. I mean, I can't pinpoint an exact date I found out. But, yes.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) About a year ago?

MR. PAGLIUCA: Are we all participating in this deposition or just --

MS. McCAWLEY: Same way you guys did.

MR. PAGLIUCA: We did not.

MS. MENNINGER: I did not.

MS. McCAWLEY: You both objected.

MS. MENNINGER: No.

MR. PAGLIUCA: No, we didn't.

MS. McCAWLEY: We can go back through the

1 record.
 2 MR. PAGLIUCA: We sure can.
 3 So if we're all participating, maybe I'll
 4 have a few questions at the end of this. I think we
 5 should limit this to one lawyer. And your statement
 6 about two lawyers participating in the last
 7 deposition is wrong.
 8 MS. McCAWLEY: Well, I recall that she got 9 a microphone because she said she was going to be
 10 objecting. So --
 11 MR. PAGLIUCA: I know. She put on a
 12 microphone and didn't speak through the whole thing.
 13 MS. McCAWLEY: Well, we can take a look
 14 back at the record. You know, it's not a problem.
 15 Brad can make the objections.
 16 MR. PAGLIUCA: Okay. Let's take care of 17 it that way, then.
 18 MR. EDWARDS: Can you tell me when you're
 19 at a good stopping point?
 20 MS. MENNINGER: I was about to say it's 21 been an hour.
 22 MR. EDWARDS: Yeah.
 23 MS. MENNINGER: So this would be a good
 24 time to take a break.
 25 MR. EDWARDS: Okay. Thanks.

1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're off the record at
 2 10:12.
 3 (Recess taken from 10:12 a.m. to
 4 10:27 a.m.)
 5 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the
 6 record at 10:27.
 7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right.
 8 Ms. Giuffre, you testified that you first became
 9 aware that you -- your employment at Mar-a-Lago began
 10 in 2000, in mid-2015, correct?
 11 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 12 Mischaracterizes her testimony.
 13 A I don't know exactly when. It could be 14 towards the end of 2015. It could be towards the 15 beginning of 2016. I just know that I've learned
 16 about it recently. I'm not too sure exactly what
 17 date I did learn about it.
 18 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. But to your 19 mind, it's been within the last 6 to 12 months; is 20 that fair?
 21 A I wouldn't say 12 months, no. I would
 22 just say up until -- I don't know when I was shown
 23 that, when I actually first saw it, but it wasn't a
 24 year ago.
 25 Q Saw your employment records from

1 Mar-a-Lago?
 2 A Correct.
 3 Q Okay. I'm going to show you an exhibit
 4 marked as Defendant's Exhibit 13.
 5 (Exhibit 13 marked.)
 6 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. All right,
 7 Ms. Giuffre, do you recognize this document?
 8 A Yes, I do.
 9 Q What is this document?
 10 A This is a resume that I created myself.
 11 Q All right. And what address did you put 12 at the top of your resume?
 13 A [REDACTED]
 14 [REDACTED]
 15 Q And when did you live at that address?
 16 A I believe from 2013 to 2014.
 17 Q Okay. And you said you created this 18 document, correct?
 19 A Yes.
 20 Q And did you send it out to any employers?
 21 A Do you have any attachments that this goes
 22 with to say that I have? Because I'm not too sure.
 23 I've created a lot of resumes.
 24 Q Okay. And hold on, I'll see if we do.
 25 MS. MENNINGER: All right. I'll mark this

1 next as Defendant's Exhibit 14.
 2 (Exhibit 14 marked.)
 3 A Thank you.
 4 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. Do you
 5 recognize this document?
 6 A Yes.
 7 Q What is this document?
 8 A This is me replying to ads for jobs.
 9 Q Okay. And you were communicating with --
 10 by your e-mail, correct?
 11 A Yes.
 12 Q All right. And I apologize. This one
 13 actually has the resume attached to an e-mail.
 14 A Um-hum.
 15 Q Do you see that, towards the back of the
 16 document?
 17 A Yes, I do.
 18 Q Okay. So --
 19 A Sorry.
 20 Q To whom -- to whom -- with whom were you
 21 communicating about a job at this time?
 22 A Well, on the very top, Phil or Gary, and 23 that was for a bartending position.
 24 Q Okay.
 25 A Um --

Q Was that something your brother had recommended or your father? I don't know who.

A You know, I just looked at that, that's kind of why I giggled. I don't know why my brother -- that's my brother. That's the way we talk to each other: Hi, stupid head. Good luck, smelly, XOXOXO, sissie.

He's my little brother so you have to understand we kind of play around. But subject to my resume for hospitality, I'm not too sure why he would have gotten it, but apparently he did.

Q Okay. And you see that your resume was attached to an e-mail communication you had with your brother?

A Yes, I do.

Q Right. And that's also your brother was part of the e-mail chain with respect to an ad placed on craigslist for a position, correct?

A He was on -- let me just check the dates, then.

Q Sure.

A 1/20/2014, 1/21, so just within a day of each other, yes.

Q All right. And then the resume that's attached is the address you were living at in January --

A Yes.

Q -- of 2014, correct?

A Correct.

Q All right. So you believe you created the resume that's attached to Defendant's Exhibit 14, correct?

A Correct.

Q And you sent it out with respect to this employment you saw on craigslist, correct?

A Correct.

Q And you are the one who put into this document the contents of the resume, right?

A Yes.

Q All right.

MR. EDWARDS: We're talking about the resume that's attached to Exhibit 14, right?

MS. MENNINGER: We are.

MR. EDWARDS: Okay. Got it.

MS. MENNINGER: Thank you for clarifying.

MR. EDWARDS: Got it.

MS. MENNINGER: Although, I don't know there are any differences with Defendant's Exhibit 13.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) But just to be safe,

you believe the one attached to Defendant's Exhibit 14 is the one that you sent?

A There are differences, isn't there? Yes, there is.

Q Okay. What are the differences that you know?

A It starts -- I mean, let me see. The very top introduction is the same.

Q Um-hum.

A After the experience.

Q Um-hum.

A That changes. The dates change. And then underneath Employment Training Recruitment is Indigo Bar & Grill on Exhibit 14. On Exhibit 13 it's Mannway Logistics underneath Employment Training Recruitment.

And then underneath Mannway Logistics on Exhibit 13 is Mar-a-Lago Resort and Spa. And on Exhibit 14 is Gemma Catering/Wedding Receptions. So there is quite a few differences.

Q Okay. Great. Do you have any idea when you sent out Defendant's Exhibit 13, or if you did, to an employer?

A Unless you have something that's attached to it, I can't be sure that I did.

Q Okay. Is the content in Defendant's Exhibit 14, that you believe you sent out to an employer, correct?

A Unfortunately, I have to tell you that they are not correct. Through my experience I was in the mind-set that I was unemployable. I had been abused for many years and I was told by a job agency that I need to show that I've consistently worked at various places and given experience. So it's not something that I'm proud of, but I have had to plump up my resumes to make it look as though I could be employed.

Q What do you mean by plump up your resume?

A Well, I couldn't -- I didn't feel that I could go to an employer and tell them that I had held, you know, one job in the last 10 to 12 years and before that I was trafficked for the purpose of sex. And that's definitely something you don't want to put down on your resume, which makes you quite highly unemployable.

So I did add places in, such as Indigo Bar & Grill, Calmao Flamenco Bar & Restaurant.

Q Wait, wait. Which one?

A On Exhibit 14.

Q Um-hum.

1 A Underneath Experience, the dates are all
2 incorrect, as well. It's just to show that I was
3 consistently working, which I was not. And I needed
4 a job to help my family. I've got a family of five.
5 So like I said, it's not something proud that I had
6 to do, but I felt it was the only way that I could
7 actually get employed.

8 Q You lied on your resume?

9 A I made it look as though I had
10 continuously worked throughout the years so that way
11 an employer would see me as a potential candidate.

12 Q Okay. Well, let's start with Employment
13 Training and Recruitment, ET Australia.

14 Did you work at that place of employment?

15 A I did work there.

16 Q What dates did you actually work there?

17 A I know I finished working for -- we call
18 it ET Australia, so if you don't mind me abbreviating
19 it.

20 Q However you want.

21 A I know I finished there in January of 2006
22 right before my son was born, my first son was born.
23 And I believe I worked there for a year, I believe 24 so. It might have been a little bit over a year, but 25 just around a year.

1 Q All right. So you worked at a place for
2 about a year. And on your resume you typed that you
3 worked there for nine years, correct?

4 A Correct.

5 Q And you did that, correct?

6 A I did.

7 Q Nobody else typed that for you?

8 A No, I did it myself.

9 Q All right. And the next employment you
10 list here -- well, is your job description accurate?

11 A Yes, that is actually accurate.

12 Q Okay. And everything in there is what you
13 actually did?

14 A Yes, for ET Australia.

15 Q Okay. Indigo Bar & Grill, did you type 16 that in?

17 A I did type that in.

18 Q And did you actually work at Indigo Bar &
19 Grill?

20 A No, I did not.

21 Q All right. So the dates that you put on 22 your resume are not true, correct?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q The title of your job at that place was 25 not correct; you didn't work there, right?

1 A I never worked there.

2 Q The description that you typed out about
3 the things that you did at that Indigo Bar & Grill is
4 made up, correct?

5 A Well, it's -- it's generally what you
6 would do if you were a server or a waitress. But,
7 like I said, I did not work at Indigo Bar & Grill.

8 Q So when you represented to an employer
9 that you were applying for a job that you had done
10 these things, you had not actually done these things
11 at Indigo Bar & Grill, correct?

12 A Not at Indigo Bar & Grill, no.

13 Q All right. Can you read the first
14 sentence of your job description?

15 A For Indigo Bar & Grill?

16 Q Right.

17 A At this restaurant located inside of an 18 RSL, we were never slow.

19 Q Okay. So when you said, "We were never 20 slow," you just made that up, correct?

21 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

22 A I tried to give as much information to my
23 potential employer to show that I could handle a 24 large amount of pressure and guests. So, yes, I put 25 that in there.

1 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) But you represented
2 you were there working as a server or waitress and
3 that we were never slow. That is not true, correct?

4 A Well, I never worked there, so it's --
5 again, I was very highly unemployable, given my past.
6 So I did whatever I could to make it look as though
7 my potential employer could hire me.

8 Q Okay. You described your duties that were 9 not -- those were fictional duties, correct?

10 A They were duties that a waitress and a
11 server would do.

12 Q But you did not do at Indigo Bar --

13 A But I did not do them at Indigo Bar &
14 Grill.

15 Q Okay. You described your energetic
16 service and your service with a smile to the guests.
17 That was not true, correct?

18 A Everything in Indigo Bar & Grill is not
19 correct.

20 Q And you created that entire description,
21 correct?

22 A For the sole purpose of being able to 23 obtain employment, yes.

24 Q To get money?

25 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

1 A To make a wage for my family.
 2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. The next
 3 job, Gemma Catering and Wedding Receptions, did it --
 4 is that a job that you actually held?
 5 A I did actually work there. I don't know
 6 the dates, but I was a server, waitress and 7 bartender.
 8 Q March of 2003 to April 2004, is that about
 9 when you worked there?
 10 A It could be very close to it. I'm not too
 11 sure.
 12 Q You're not sure?
 13 A No, I'm not sure.
 14 Q Did you have children -- had you already
 15 had children at the time you worked there?
 16 A No, I do not believe I did. I became a
 17 stay-at-home mom when I had my first child.
 18 Q And what year was that?
 19 A 2006.
 20 Q Okay. So you believe you worked at Gemma
 21 Catering and Wedding Receptions before 2006?
 22 A I believe so.
 23 Q And other than that, you can't recall what
 24 dates you worked there?
 25 A I'm sorry, I couldn't help, no.

1 Q All right. And then what were your
 2 actual -- is that your actual job that you had there?
 3 A The description of it?
 4 Q The title, server, waitress, bartender?
 5 A Yes.
 6 Q All right. Is the description accurate?
 7 A To a T.
 8 Q What's that?
 9 A To a T.
 10 Q Okay. The next job you list is Mannway
 11 Logistics, Logistics Receptionist.
 12 Is that a job you actually held?
 13 A It is a job I held.
 14 Q And when did you hold it?
 15 A Again, I'm very bad at dates. I'm not too
 16 sure.
 17 Q All right. Approximately when did you
 18 have it?
 19 A I don't want to speculate and give you the 20 wrong answer, so I'm not too sure.
 21 Q Did you have children at the time you
 22 worked there?
 23 A No.
 24 Q So before 2006?
 25 A Yes.

1 Q And after you moved to Australia, which
 2 was what year?
 3 A I moved to Australia at the end of 2002, I
 4 believe.
 5 Q All right. Do you recall going to work
 6 shortly after you got to Australia?
 7 A Yes.
 8 Q How --
 9 A I had to obtain my -- my ability to work
 10 there. So I think that took a couple months. You
 11 can get a temporary visa that allows you to work
 12 while you're waiting for your permanent resident
 13 status, and that's what we did.
 14 Q All right. Were you able to apply for 15 that temporary job permission before you actually got
 16 married in Australia?
 17 A I got married in Aus -- we were married in 18 Thailand, really, but we made it official in January
 19 of 2003. And within a couple of weeks, I was granted
 20 the permission to work in Australia legally.
 21 Q Okay. So to the best of your
 22 recollection, you got permission to work in Australia
 23 sometime in the spring of 2003?
 24 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
 25 A That's actually summer over there.

1 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Fair enough. The
 2 first quarter of the year, calendar year --
 3 A Yes.
 4 Q -- 2003?
 5 A If we're going to be politically correct,
 6 yes.
 7 Q That's what you recall?
 8 A (Indicating.)
 9 I'm sorry, yes.
 10 Q And is your description of Mannway
 11 Logistics correct?
 12 A Yes.
 13 Q All right. And how long did you work
 14 there?
 15 A I think that was less than a year that I
 16 worked there. I would approximate about six, seven
 17 months.
 18 Q Can you name one coworker you had or boss
 19 or anybody else that worked there?
 20 A I know her name started with an M, but I
 21 can't remember. I remember what she looks like. I
 22 just don't remember her name.
 23 Q Okay. And how much did you make there?
 24 A I don't remember the exact amount.
 25 Approximately about $20 an hour, I think.

1 Q And how many hours per week were you
2 working for that six months to a year?
3 A I believe that was full time.
4 Q And is full time the same in Australia?
5 A Yeah it's a 40-hour week.
6 Q Okay.
7 A Well, 38 because you get two hours of 8 lunch, so, yes.
9 Q All right. Have you been in touch with 10 anyone from that employment in a while?
11 A No.
12 Q All right. The next job listed there is 13 what?
14 A Calmao Flamenco Bar & Restaurant.
15 Q Is that someplace you actually worked?
16 A No, it's not.
17 Q Is that a place that actually exists?
18 A I don't really know.
19 Q All right.
20 A I mean, I think I looked on the Internet
21 and found something similar to what the description I
22 was needing to fill, and that was it.
23 Q Okay. So when you were creating this 24 document in 2013/2014, right, that's when you had the 25 Titusville address?

1 A Yes.
2 Q All right. You went on the Internet and
3 you searched for a place that would be like the job
4 you were looking for?
5 A Correct.
6 Q And you found the name of an actual place,
7 Calmao Flamenco Bar & Restaurant.
8 Did I get that right?
9 A I'm not 100 percent on that, but I think
10 so.
11 Q Okay. And you did that in order to 12 impress the employer you were applying for here in 13 the e-mail, correct?
14 A Correct.
15 Q All right. And you did that in order to 16 get money from a job that you hoped to get from this
17 employer in the e-mail, correct?
18 A I was hoping to gain employment. And not 19 having much experience, I put in there that I had 20 experience.
21 Q Okay. And you said that you had been 22 advised to plump up your resume by a job agency; is 23 that right?
24 A Yes.
25 Q What was the name of that job agency?

1 A Before I worked at ET Australia, I was
2 actually a job seeker there. And a job seeker, I
3 don't know if you're familiar with the term.
4 Somebody who is looking for work and you
5 go to a job agency, and you go look on the computer.
6 And you actually have somebody who helps you find
7 employment. And they are the ones who recommend that 8 you show that you've continuously worked throughout
9 your years. They ended up really liking me, so
10 that's how I got the job there.
11 Q Okay. Was it a particular person there
12 that gave you the advice to plump up your resume?
13 A It would have been one of the counselors.
14 Q Which one?
15 A I don't know.
16 Q Okay. Do you remember the names of any of 17 the counselors?
18 A I only remember the name of one of the 19 girls I worked with, but I don't remember -- I don't
20 remember anyone else's name.
21 Q When did you first become a job seeker at 22 ET Australia?
23 A Well, if I finished there in 2006 and I
24 worked there for approximately a year, it would have 25 been 2005 -- late 2004, 2005. I'm not too sure.

1 Q Okay. So you were a job seeker there
2 first and then got employment there, right?
3 A Yes.
4 Q Okay. So the advice to plump up your
5 resume was while you were seeking a job or while you
6 were employed there?
7 A While I was seeking a job.
8 Q All right. And you were assigned a
9 counselor?
10 A Yes.
11 Q One or more than one?
12 A It changes on a daily basis. There's 13 somebody who comes into the office and they sit with 14 you and they help you with your resume. And then
15 they help you go on the computer and look for open
16 vacancies.
17 Q So someone in approximately 2005 gave you
18 the advice to plump up your resume. That's what 19 you're saying?
20 A To make it look like I've continuously
21 worked, yes.
22 Q Okay. So back to Calmao Flamenco Bar &
23 Restaurant, which is a place you found on the 24 Internet but did not actually work. Is that, the 25 dates for your employment there, December 2001 to

February 2003, not true, correct?

A Obviously, yes. At that time I was -- during 2001 I was with Jeffrey and Ghislaine being trafficked.

Q Um-hum. So you were not working at Calmao Flamenco Bar --

A Obviously not, yes.

Q And you said you got to Australia in late '02 and did not work there between late '02 and February of '03, correct?

A I've never worked at Calmao Flamenco Bar & Grill, period.

Q All right. And the job description that you crafted there is also fictional, correct?

A Yes.

Q All right. And Mar-a-Lago Resort and Spa you put down as a place you had worked, correct?

A Correct.

Q And you typed in August 2000 to September 2001, correct?

A Correct.

Q And you created your job description there, correct?

A Correct.

Q All right. And then turning to the last page you have your education, correct?

A Can I just make a statement to say that, again, with the Mar-a-Lago Resort and Spa, I did have to add dates to make it look as though I had continuously worked. So those, again, are incorrect dates.

Q But it is a date that you typed into a resume in 2013 or 2014 --

A That is the date that --

Q If you could just let me finish my question.

A Sure.

Q That is a date that you typed into your resume in 2013 or 2014, correct?

A That is the date that I did type in, but those are incorrect dates.

Q All right.

A And, as well as the -- the position, organizing, making and canceling appointments for massage therapists.

Q All right.

A I mean, I was their locker room attendant. I just wanted it to sound like I had more receptionist experience than I did.

Q You wanted it to look like you had more experience than you had had, correct; that's what you just said?

A Correct, I mean given that my past had not enabled me to be able to look for work or I wasn't able to put down what I actually had -- had to do in my past. So I made it look as though I was able to be employed.

Q You did not have the past that you thought the employer was looking for, right?

A I couldn't put down on there that I was sex trafficked for a couple years and did not have the experience to be able to apply for jobs and provide for my family.

So this is something that I said. Again, I am not proud of, but I felt was necessary to do to be able to gain employment.

Q All right. So you were applying for a job at a restaurant, right?

A At this -- according to the front e-mail, yes.

Q All right. And you did not put down Taco Bell on this resume, correct?

A No. The only jobs on here are the ones that we have mentioned.

Q Right. And so why did you choose August of 2000 as your start date for Mar-a-Lago?

A It just looks as though I've given them a longstanding history of employment.

Q You chose a month. Why did you choose that month?

A I chose months and dates for every single position on that resume. There is no specific reason why I chose that month. It was just purely to show that I was continuously employed.

Q On the last page it has some education. Which part of that is untrue?

MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

A I have received my business admin cert 3 from ET Australia. I've never held responsible service of alcohol and gambling.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you understand that to be a licensing of some sort or a class? Or what do you understand that --

A In Australia you have to have something called an RSA and RCG to be able to work as a waitress or bartender or anything. And I didn't know if it was the same out here in America. So I put down that I had.

I had taken a CPR and first aid. I don't remember when, but it's not current.

1 And I did go to Royal Palm Beach High
2 School and I didn't put down a degree there or
3 anything.

4 Q So is it fair to say you never worked as a
5 waitress in Australia. Is that what you just said?

6 A I did work as a waitress at Gemma
7 Catering.

8 Q Oh, okay.

9 A I don't believe I needed my RSA to work
10 there. I'm not too sure.

11 Q All right. And if I could just ask you
12 one other question about Gemma Catering. In the last
13 line of the job description it says: This job was a
14 second job. I would work in the evenings and 15 weekends for saving extra cash.

16 What was it a second job to?

17 A If my time period is right, it would be my 18 second job to Mannway Logistics because they were 19 both -- Gemma Catering and Mannway Logistics were 20 both in Sydney, whereas ET Australia was on the 21 central coast.

22 Q All right. ET Australia is on the central
23 coast?

24 A Correct.

25 Q And Gemma and Mannway are in Sydney?

1 A In Sydney, yeah.

2 Q All right. Got it.

3 Do you know if those two organizations
4 still exist?

5 A Mannway, I would definitely say, it's a --
6 it's a large logistic company. I would say it still 7 does exist.

8 Gemma Catering, I'm not too sure if that
9 exists anymore or not.

10 Q Okay. All right. So did you spend your
11 16th birthday with Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey
12 Epstein?

13 A No. I was 16 when I met them, now that I
14 know the correct dates. So I would have spent my 15 17th birthday with them.

16 Q So when you represented that you spent
17 your 16th birthday with Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey
18 Epstein, that was not true, correct?

19 A At my ability at the time, that's what I
20 believed to be true. It wasn't until I found the 21 Mar-a-Lago records stating the year 2000. Me being 22 born in 1983 would make me turning 17 that year.

23 Q So please describe for me your 17th
24 birthday that you claim you spent with Ghislaine
25 Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein.

1 A I remember spending a birthday with them
2 on Jeffrey Epstein's island called Little Saint
3 Jeff's. I wouldn't say it was a party. It was just 4 Ghislaine, me, Jeffrey. I believe Emery Taylor was 5 there. I got some presents from them.

6 Q What presents did you get?

7 A Ghislaine gave me a whole bunch of makeup,
8 like boxes of different kinds of eye shadows and
9 lipsticks and just makeup altogether.

10 Jeffrey gave me a bracelet and, I think
11 earrings.

12 Q What kind of earrings?

13 A They were what I believed to be diamonds.
14 I don't know what they exactly were. I think Jeffrey
15 was talking about, they could have been passed off as 16 good knock-offs. But they appeared to be diamonds.

17 Q Any other presents?

18 A I remember the makeup and the jewelry. I
19 don't remember much else.

20 Q And that was your 17th birthday, you said?

21 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

22 A It's hard for me to really pinpoint
23 exactly which birthday it was.

24 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) So it could have been
25 your 18th or your 19th?

1 A I don't want to lock down on which exact
2 birthday it could have been without knowing.

3 Q You don't know which birthday it was; is
4 that what you're saying?

5 A The one that I'm specifically telling you
6 about?

7 Q Right. You don't know which one?

8 A No.

9 Q All right. Do you remember spending more
10 than one birthday with Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine
11 Maxwell?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay. Tell me about the other ones that
14 you remember.

15 A Well, I know my 19th birthday. I can't
16 remember, really, my 18th birthday. But my 19th
17 birthday we celebrated it early, earlier than my 18 actual date of birth. And that's when he surprised
19 me with tickets to Thailand.

20 Q What do you mean he surprised you with 21 tickets to Thailand?

22 A He told me that the tickets for Thailand
23 were for my birthday.

24 Q Did he hand you something that looked like
25 a ticket to Thailand? What do you mean?

Page 93

1 A He didn't hand me the tickets at that
2 time, but he told me that he had booked me in for
3 massage training at an institute in Chiang Mai.

4 Q And he told you he had booked you tickets
5 to a massage training in Chiang Mai, Thailand
6 sometime before your actual 19th birthday?

7 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did I get that right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay. Did he hand you --

11 A Excuse me.

12 Q -- hand you anything at that time?

13 A No, I don't think so.

14 Q And where were you located when he told
15 you this about the Thailand massage training?

16 A Jeffrey, Ghislaine and I had just gone
17 scuba -- not scuba diving, not with the big tanks,
18 but snorkeling with just the mask and the two-piece,
19 and on Jeffrey's island, by the way.

20 And we had gone out for a while. And we
21 had come back. And he's got a pier where it's got a
22 ladder and you climb up. And we were wearing wet
23 suits. So we were taking off our flippers and our 24 wet suits and all of our gear.

25 And they said they wanted to sit down and

Page 94

1 talk to me, just the three of us. And he -- first,
2 he told me about the --

3 Q If I could just stop you. I think I asked
4 where were you --

5 A Oh, I'm sorry.

6 Q -- when you had this conversation about 7 the --

8 A Just the island. I'm just trying to 9 describe the instance that he gave it to me.

10 Q Oh, okay.

11 A It was on the island, on the pier in the 12 Caribbean.

13 Q Okay. And it was sometime before your 14 19th birthday?

15 A Correct.

16 Q How much time before?

17 A I don't know. A couple -- six weeks, a 18 couple of months. I don't know. Close to my 19 birthday. It was my birthday present, that's what he 20 told me.

21 Q Okay. So you don't know when you had this
22 conversation?

23 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

24 A I mean, I -- no, I didn't record the time
25 and the date, so I can only speculate. It was

Page 95

1 shortly before my birthday, but not my birthday.

2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. And he told you
3 he had booked you tickets to go to Thailand, right?

4 A Correct.

5 Q All right. So you remember one birthday
6 at which you received makeup, bracelet and earrings
7 and one birthday at which you received tickets to
8 Thailand.

9 Do you remember any other birthdays that
10 you spent with Jeffrey Epstein and/or Ghislaine
11 Maxwell?

12 A I'm sure there is, but I honestly can't
13 remember what I did for my 18th birthday.

14 Q Okay. Well, I'm sorry, did you know for 15 sure that the bracelet, earrings and makeup were from 16 your 17th birthday, or do you know?

17 A I don't know.

18 Q But you know they were not for your
19 16th birthday, right?

20 A Correct.

21 Q All right. If I could have you go back to 22 Defendant's Exhibit 1, I think.

23 A Defendant's, sorry, Exhibit 1?

24 Q Um-hum. Page 9, either at the bottom or 25 in the upper right-hand corner.

Page 96

1 Do you see that page?

2 A Page 9 of 27, yes.

3 Q All right. And paragraph 23, do you see
4 that paragraph?

5 A I see the paragraph.

6 Q All right.

7 A I was just going to read it over quickly.

8 Q By all means.

9 A I've read it.

10 Q And the sentence, Defendant and
11 Ms. Maxwell acknowledged and celebrated plaintiff's
12 16th birthday, is not a true statement, correct?

13 A Only upon learning about the fact that I
14 just found out my records. I assumed at the time it
15 was my 16th birthday. But now we know different.

16 Q You admit, as you sit here today, that 17 defendant and Ms. Maxwell did not celebrate your 16th
18 birthday with you, correct?

19 A Correct, based upon the records.

20 Q Which you don't know when you saw?

21 A I know it was, you know, it wasn't -- it
22 wasn't a year ago, but it wasn't that long ago
23 either. So I'm not too sure. I can't tell you the 24 date that I actually saw them.

25 Q All right. Last year you lived in

Colorado for part of the year, correct?

A For part of the year, yes.

Q And then you moved to Australia, correct?

A Yes.

Q You did not live in Florida at any point in time during 2015, correct?

A I believe I left Titusville at the end of 2014.

Q Okay. So you did not live in Florida during 2015, correct?

A I believe so.

Q All right. So when you reviewed these records sometime in 2015 that caused you to know the real date of when you worked at Mar-a-Lago, where were you physically located?

MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form and mischaracterized her testimony.

A I don't remember where I saw these records, when I saw these records. I know it wasn't a year ago. I know it was more recent. I can't pinpoint the date that I actually saw them, but I recently, I believe -- I don't know. I don't want to sit here and speculate and then give you the wrong answer. It's just new knowledge for me.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. Did you receive the records by e-mail?

A I believe so.

Q Okay. Did you use any e-mail address other than [REDACTED]

A No.

Q That's the only e-mail address that you've used?

A That's correct.

Q And the Mar-a-Lago records that you reviewed you received by e-mail at that e-mail address?

A Possibly. I mean, I can't say 100 percent. I could have been told about them. I could have seen them on a piece of paper. I really don't know. This is a very hazy subject. All I know is that I found out and that was able to clarify a lot of dates for us.

Q Okay. What other dates were clarified?

MR. EDWARDS: I object and instruct the witness not to answer if any of your knowledge is based on any privileged communication that you had between yourself and any of your lawyers.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. You just said you reviewed records yourself, correct?

MR. EDWARDS: Object. That

mischaracterized her testimony. She actually just testified that she may have heard that.

MS. MENNINGER: No, you're not testifying.

I've asked her --

MR. EDWARDS: I'm clearing the record up right now, though.

MS. MENNINGER: You can object based on form. That's a valid objection. You've made your record.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did you review records that clarified dates for you?

A I've either reviewed them or I've been told about -- I can't remember. I'm sorry. I know -- I know now that the dates are what they are, but I don't remember.

Q You don't know when you learned that the dates are what they are?

A No, I don't.

Q And your best guess is what?

MR. EDWARDS: Objection.

If any of your answer is based on attorney-client privilege, I'm instructing you not to answer.

A I can't answer, then.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. So have your attorneys told you to change your dates?

MR. EDWARDS: Objection.

Do not answer that question. This is a question intentionally devised to invade the attorney-client privilege.

She's not going to answer those questions.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You can answer a question about whether your attorneys had told you to lie. Because that would be a crime, and I'm sure --

A I will --

Q -- I'm sure you want to tell me that your attorneys did not tell you to lie, correct?

A I can tell you for a fact my attorneys have never told me to lie.

Q All right. And did your attorneys tell you to change a date?

MR. EDWARDS: Objection. She's not answering any questions about communications between her lawyers and herself, period.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) So if I could also direct your attention to Defendant's Exhibit 8. It's the manuscript. If you could turn to page 40.

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: I just have a quick request, Counsel.

Ms. Giuffre, would you mind bringing the

1 mic higher up on your jacket, please?

2 THE DEPONENT: Sure.

3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Thank you.

4 THE DEPONENT: Tell me if that's okay.

5 Better?

6 A Okay. Page 40?

7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Right. Do you see the

8 first full paragraph on that page?

9 A I do.

10 Q The first line begins: I spent my sweet

11 16th birthday on his island in the Caribbean next to

12 Little (sic) St. James Isle. He liked to call it

13 Little St. Jeff's. His ego was enormous as his 14 appetite for fornicating.

15 Do you see that sentence?

16 A I do.

17 Q That is not true, correct? You were not

18 spending your sweet 16th birthday on Little St. James

19 Isle, correct?

20 A Based on my knowledge at the time that I

21 wrote this manuscript, I thought I did spend my 16th

22 birthday there. And so I put it down in there as

23 that. Now I know that it wasn't my 16th birthday.

24 Q Or your sweet 16th birthday?

25 A Well, we --

1 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

2 Harassing.

3 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Was it your sweet 16th

4 birthday?

5 A Is it not custom to call your 16th

6 birthday sweet? Have you never heard that saying

7 before?

8 Q Was it your sweet 16th birthday,

9 Ms. Giuffre?

10 A As we --

11 MR. EDWARDS: She's answered the question.

12 It's been asked and answered.

13 MS. MENNINGER: She asked me a question,

14 actually. You're not testifying here.

15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Was it your sweet 16th

16 birthday?

17 A As I thought, in the manuscript when I

18 wrote it, I thought it was my sweet 16th birthday.

19 Q Okay. Now that you know it wasn't, where

20 did you spend your sweet 16th birthday?

21 A Well, I don't know.

22 Q Well, just give us your best guess.

23 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. And she's not

24 going to guess today. She's going to tell you the 25 answers as she remembers them.

1 If you remember the answer, please tell

2 her the answer.

3 A I don't know the answer, where I spent my

4 sweet 16th birthday.

5 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you know who you

6 were with on your sweet 16th birthday?

7 A No, I don't.

8 Q Do you know where you lived on your sweet

9 16th birthday?

10 A No, I don't.

11 Q Were you living with your parents on your

12 sweet 16th birthday?

13 A I don't know.

14 Q Were you living with Michael on your sweet

15 16th birthday?

16 A I don't know. I was a runaway a lot. I

17 don't know where I lived at the time.

18 Q Okay. Were you working at Taco Bell on 19 your sweet 16th birthday?

20 A I don't think so. I don't know.

21 Q Were you working at Publix on your sweet

22 16th birthday?

23 A I don't know.

24 Q Were you working at an aviary on your

25 sweet 16th birthday?

1 A Again, I don't know.

2 Q Do you recall any present you actually got

3 on your sweet 16th birthday?

4 A No, I don't. I don't know where I spent

5 it, who I spent it with or what I got. I'm sorry.

6 Q How long did you work at Mar-a-Lago?

7 A Best of my recollection, it was a summer

8 job. I believe I started in June. And I think I

9 only worked there approximately two weeks, two, three

10 weeks.

11 Q How many hours a week did you work?

12 A I want to say it was a -- I want to say

13 it's a full-time job.

14 Q Do you recall it being a full-time job?

15 A It was a summer job, but just thinking

16 back, my dad used to bring me in and bring me home.

17 So he worked full time, all day. So -- and I didn't

18 lounge around Mar-a-Lago so, yes, I think it would

19 have been a full-time job.

20 Q And how much did you make per hour?

21 A Approximately, I think I remember making

22 $9 an hour.

23 Q The bracelet and earrings you got for your

24 birthday, some birthday, on Little -- or where was

25 that birthday party, at Little St. James?

Page 105	Page 107
1 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form. 2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Where was it? 3 A At Little Saint Jeff's. 4 Q Okay. Where are those bracelet and 5 earrings now? 6 A I left everything behind me when I went to 7 Thailand. 8 Q Where did you leave them, exactly? 9 A I had a storage facility and my apartment 10 that I lived in. 11 Q So where were they, in the storage 12 facility or in the apartment? 13 A Most likely in the apartment. 14 Q Okay. What apartment was that? 15 A Royal Palm Beach. I don't know the 16 address, I'm sorry. 17 Q You don't know the address at all? 18 A Not at all. 19 Q Okay. Where was it roughly located in 20 Royal Palm Beach? 21 A I don't know. It's been a long time since 22 I've been back to Royal Palm. I don't remember 23 street names or anything. 24 Q Did it have one or two bedrooms? 25 A It was two bedrooms.	1 Q Well, all right. We'll come back to that 2 in a minute. But the apartment that you left in 2002 3 was the one in Royal Palm Beach that you lived at 4 originally with Michael and then after breaking up 5 with Michael, Tony lived there? That's the one we're 6 talking about? 7 A Correct. 8 Q That's the apartment we're talking about? 9 A That's not the one that -- 10 Q Okay. 11 A Sorry. I'm confused. Could you please 12 reask the question? 13 Q All right. I asked you where you left 14 your bracelet or earrings. You think you -- 15 A Okay, yes. 16 Q -- left them in an apartment, correct? 17 A Okay. Yes. Yeah, not the one -- not the 18 first one. The one where Tony eventually moved into. 19 Q That's the apartment you left the bracelet 20 and earrings at? 21 A I believe so, yes. 22 Q So when you were working at Mar-a-Lago, 23 you rode with your father every day? 24 A Yes. 25 Q What car did he drive at the time?
1 Q Was it on the first or second floor? 2 A The second floor. 3 Q Who lived there with you? 4 A Michael first lived there with me. 5 Michael and I broke up shortly after living there. 6 And Tony lived there with me. 7 Q Okay. And that's the apartment that you 8 left when you went to Thailand? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Did you live at more than one apartment 11 with Michael? 12 A When I was a runaway, he let me stay at 13 his apartment. 14 Q Was that a different apartment? 15 A Yes. 16 Q All right. So you lived at Michael's 17 apartment when you were a runaway? 18 A Correct. 19 Q And did you live anywhere else other than 20 those two apartments with Michael? 21 A We stayed at Michael's parents' house, I 22 think for a few weeks before the apartment. 23 Q Okay. The apartment that you rented? 24 A The apartment that Michael rented. I 25 think I was too young to go on a lease.	1 A I don't know. 2 Q Okay. Did you have a vehicle of your own 3 at the time? 4 A No. 5 Q Did you have a driver's license at the 6 time? 7 A Yes. I got my permit when I was 15 and my 8 driver's license when I was 16. 9 Q Okay. And how were you paid, by cash or 10 check or some other method? 11 A I don't remember. 12 Q Did you have a bank account at that time? 13 A I don't think I've ever had a bank 14 account -- well, up until recently, living here. I 15 don't remember having a bank account. 16 Q So you believe you got paid by unknown 17 means and you did not deposit it into a bank? 18 A Correct. 19 Q What was your uniform when you worked 20 there? 21 A At Mar-a-Lago? 22 Q Right. 23 A It was a white miniskirt with a little 24 white polo top with the emblem of Mar-a-Lago on it. 25 Q Did they give you more than one?

1 A I don't know, maybe.

2 Q Did you wear it to and from work every

3 day?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Did you get new ones when you arrived that

6 were clean or did you launder them at home?

7 A I would have had to wash them when I got

8 home, I suppose.

9 Q And you think you had more than one or you

10 don't recall?

11 A I don't recall.

12 Q All right. Was that something you

13 purchased or did they give it to you?

14 A They gave it to me.

15 Q And who else was wearing that uniform?

16 A The other locker -- the lady that did the 17 front desk next to the locker rooms.

18 Q She had the same one?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Was that Adriana?

21 A I don't think Adriana wore a uniform. I

22 think she just dressed professional.

23 Q Okay. And what other employees did you

24 see there at the spa at the time when you worked

25 there?

1 A There were -- well, this is in the massage

2 area and there's also like a fitness area. So

3 there's spa and fitness. So there would be the

4 masseuses and then there would be the trainers. And

5 that was just located in that one area away from the

6 main house and stuff.

7 Q And is that the area in which you worked?

8 A Yes.

9 Q In the spa area or the fitness area?

10 A The spa and the fitness area were in the 11 same complex.

12 Q Okay. What did the other people who

13 worked in the spa area wear?

14 A I don't remember what they wore.

15 Q All right. And what did the people in the 16 fitness area wear?

17 A I don't remember. I know it was -- we had

18 our own uniforms. Everyone else had their own.

19 Q Who is we?

20 A Well, the girls that worked in the meet

21 and greet area. Me and the other girl with the curly

22 hair I told you about --

23 Q Um-hum.

24 A -- had our own uniforms. And then the

25 fitness people had their own uniforms. And the

1 masseuses had their own uniforms.

2 Q What did the masseuses' uniform look like?

3 A I don't remember.

4 Q No recollection at all?

5 A None whatsoever.

6 Q Color?

7 A No, sorry. I remember mine.

8 Q Okay. How did it come to pass that you

9 were no longer working at Mar-a-Lago in two to three

10 weeks?

11 A I was approached by Ghislaine Maxwell.

12 Q Okay. And how long had you been working

13 at Mar-a-Lago when you were approached by Ghislaine

14 Maxwell?

15 A Roughly two to three weeks.

16 Q Okay. Where in the spa were you when you

17 were approached by Ghislaine Maxwell?

18 A Just outside the locker room, sitting

19 where the other girl that works there usually sits.

20 She was away from the desk. I was reading a book on 21 massage therapy.

22 Q Was that indoors or outdoors?

23 A Outdoors.

24 Q Okay. And what -- were you in the sun or

25 in the shade?

1 A In the shade underneath a -- I don't know

2 what you'd like to call it, but, you know, underneath

3 the complex, the building.

4 Q All right. And what was Ghislaine Maxwell

5 wearing when she approached you?

6 A I don't remember what she was wearing.

7 Q Any recollection, color of clothing or

8 anything?

9 A No.

10 Q Okay. Any details about her? Was she

11 carrying a purse or anything?

12 A No. She looked like, from my memory, she

13 looked like she was either there for a massage or

14 fitness. I remember she had a British accent. She

15 was very interested in the book that I was reading.

16 I mean, we can get into some more details

17 later if you'd like, but I don't remember any more

18 about what she was wearing that day.

19 Q Did you have a cell phone at that time?

20 A No.

21 Q Where were you living at that time?

22 A At my parents'.

23 Q And who else was living there with you at

24 the time?

25 A My mother and my dad and my brother.

1 Q Which brother?
2 A Sky.
3 Q What about your other brother?
4 A I think he had moved out by then.
5 Q What forms of communication did you have?
6 Just a home phone number, or what?
7 A Yeah, there was a home phone.
8 Q When do you recall ever getting a cell
9 phone?
10 A The first cell phone I ever got was the 11 one that Ghislaine gave to me.
12 Q So you never had -- your parents, did they
13 have ones when you were working at Mar-a-Lago?
14 A No, my dad used to -- like, we had phones
15 in the spa and maintenance area and so on, so forth.
16 And you could, so to speak, page people from around
17 the courts.
18 Q Okay. So tell me what you recall of the 19 first conversation that you had with Ghislaine
20 Maxwell.
21 A I'm sitting there reading my book about
22 massage therapy, as I'm working in the spa. And I'm 23 getting my GE -- well, I was in the process of 24 getting my GED before I went to my summer job. I
25 decided that I would like to become a massage

1 therapist one day. And the body really intrigued me,
2 you know, reading this massage was a lot about
3 anatomy, blood flow. Everything to do with, you
4 know, touching somebody somewhere and then triggering
5 a result somewhere else. I just was very intrigued
6 by the whole anatomy thing.
7 She came up, Ghislaine, sorry. Ghislaine
8 came up and approached me at the desk that I was 9 sitting at. And my book was like this (indicating)
10 and she said, Oh, you're reading a book about 11 massage. You want to do massage? And I told her,
12 Yes, you know, I'm very interested in it. One day I
13 would like to become a masseuse.
14 Q All right. Where did you get the book on 15 massage?
16 A Maybe the library.
17 Q Maybe or do you recall?
18 A I don't think I purchased it. So I'd have 19 to say the library.
20 Q Okay. What library was that?
21 A Whichever library was close to my house.
22 Q Do you remember a library being close to
23 your house?
24 A There's one in Wellington that I used to 25 go to. Oh, no, there's one in Royal Palm. Yeah,

1 there's one in Royal Palm and Wellington, and I used
2 to go to both.
3 Q Did you have a card for both?
4 A Did I have a card?
5 Q A library card?
6 A Yeah.
7 Q For both places?
8 A To be able to rent out a book, yeah.
9 Q Okay. So the best of your recollection is 10 you used one of your library cards at one of those 11 two libraries to check out a book on massage and 12 anatomy?
13 A Correct.
14 Q And when did you do that relative to 15 starting at Mar-a-Lago?
16 A Probably within the first week. I mean, I
17 saw what the massage therapists got to do. I mean,
18 their jobs were so relaxing. The music, like the 19 atmosphere, they always had happy clients. It just 20 seems like an ideal job.
21 Q And so you were spurred to go to the 22 library and check out a book?
23 A Well, I had been talking with the other
24 massage therapists and they're the ones who first
25 intrigued me about what they do. And, you know, I

1 wanted to aim for something higher than being a
2 locker room attendant one day. And. Yeah.
3 Q What was the name of the massage therapist
4 that you were speaking with?
5 A Oh, I have no idea.
6 Q Can you give me any physical description
7 of any of them?
8 A Um, there was one who had blonde short
9 hair. There was -- I would say there's probably 10 about four massage therapists that work in there.
11 So, I mean, I don't remember all of them.
12 Q Okay. What time of day was it?
13 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
14 A Afternoon.
15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) How late?
16 A Anywhere between 2 to 4.
17 Q And what time did you get off of work?
18 A I believe I got off at 5.
19 Q And what was the rest of your conversation
20 with Ms. Maxwell?
21 I'm sorry, I don't think you finished.
22 A Thank you. Well, she noticed I was 23 reading the massage book. And I started to have 24 chitchat with her just about, you know, the body and 25 the anatomy and how I was interested in it. And she

1 told me that she knew somebody who was looking for a
2 traveling masseuse.

3 And I said, Well, I don't have any
4 accreditations. This is the first book I've ever
5 read. She goes, That's okay. I know somebody. We
6 can train you. We can get you educated. You know,
7 we can help you along the way if you pass the
8 interview.

9 If the guy likes you, then, you know, it
10 will work out for you. You'll travel. You'll make 11 good money. You'll be educated, and you'll finally 12 get accredited one day.

13 Q Okay.

14 A She finished off by, you know, giving me
15 her number. And I told her I'd have to ask my dad.
16 And I called my dad. I ran over, actually, to see my 17 dad, talked to him. He said it would be okay. I
18 used the phone from Mar-a-Lago to call her and tell
19 her that I was allowed to come over.

20 And she said, Great. Meet me here at -- I
21 don't remember the exact address, but it was 22 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach -- after you get off.
23 And my dad drove me.

24 Q Did you write down her add -- the address
25 that she gave?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Did you write down her phone number?

3 A Yes.

4 Q So did you go run and talk to your dad
5 while she was still there?

6 A No, I believe she left. And she told me
7 to ask my dad and then to give her a phone call.

8 Q Okay. Did she ask you your age when she
9 had that conversation with you?

10 A No, she did not.

11 Q Did you tell her your age?

12 A No, I did not.

13 Q And so somewhere you wrote down a phone 14 number to call her back at?

15 A Um-hum.

16 Q All right. And where did you write that
17 down?

18 A Probably just a piece of paper lying
19 around the desk.

20 Q Okay. But you don't remember?

21 A I mean, no, I don't have that piece of 22 paper anymore, so no.

23 Q Okay. And did you write down an address?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And what number do you think you called?

1 A cell phone or a home phone, or do you have any
2 idea?

3 A I have no idea. Ghislaine answered. So
4 if it was a home phone, the butlers probably would
5 have answered. So most likely it was her cell phone.

6 Q All right. And what happened when you got 7 off of work?

8 A My dad drove me to El Brillo Way.

9 Q Um-hum.

10 A We arrived at a very large pink mansion.
11 And we knocked on the door. My dad got out of the 12 car and we knocked on the door.

13 Q Do you recall which car this was?

14 A I don't know what he was driving at the 15 time. My dad always drives trucks. So it would have 16 been some kind of truck.

17 Q But you don't know which kind?

18 A I don't know if it was a Ford or a Dodge
19 or --

20 Q What kind of car does your mom drive?

21 A Right now?

22 Q No, in 2000.

23 A Oh, I have no idea. I don't remember.
24 They change cars quite often. They like getting
25 different cars.

1 Q When did you get your first car?

2 A After my trip to London to meet Prince
3 Andrew.

4 Q Okay. What kind of car did you get?

5 A A Dodge Dakota.

6 Q And did you purchase that yourself?

7 A Yes, I did.

8 Q And how much did it cost?

9 A I don't remember off the top of my head
10 how much it cost.

11 Q Who did you buy it from?

12 A My dad helped me bargain with it. I don't 13 remember where we bought it from.

14 Q And was the title put in your name or your 15 dad's name?

16 A I think the title was put in my name. I
17 think. I mean, my dad was with me. I've never 18 registered a car or anything like that before. So --

19 Q So that was your first time?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Memorable, right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q When you got there, a butler or someone
24 answered the door, is that what you said?

25 A No, Ghislaine answered the door.

Q Okay. And then what happened?

A She shook hands with my dad. Like, she briefly opened the door. She stepped out, shook hands with my dad. Told her (sic) she'd look after me and she'd make sure I get a ride home. And just very briefly, that was it. And my dad left, and I went inside with Ghislaine.

Q Did Ghislaine and your dad have any discussion about what it was you were doing there, in your presence?

A You know, I can't recall exactly what was said. But I had already told my dad what was -- what the interview was for. So --

Q What did you tell your dad?

A That a very nice lady approached me and told me that she would offer me an education to become a massage therapist. And it was a great -- it would be great experience for me to be able to get educated and trained and eventually be accredited. So he was very happy for me as well.

Q You told him that outside of the presence of Ghislaine?

A Yes, when I first ran to the tennis courts where he was at.

Q And then, in your presence at the home,

did your dad and Ms. Maxwell have any conversation -- further conversation about what you were doing there?

A I don't recall. I think they probably would have chatted for approximately -- maybe 30 seconds. It really wasn't a long chat.

The things that stick out in my mind were, We will take good care of her and we'll be bringing -- we will make sure she gets a ride home.

Q And how far away did you live?

A Approximately 30 minutes.

Q And that's with your parents' house, right?

A That was my parents' house.

Q Did you see any other employees or any other people inside the house on that day?

A Yes.

Q Who else did you see?

A Juan Alessi.

Q Um-hum.

A And Maria. But Jeffrey and Ghislaine like to call them John and Mary.

Q Okay. Where did you see John?

A Downstairs after the whole ordeal.

Q Um-hum. Which room?

A The kitchen.

Q All right. Where did you see Mary?

A The same place, kitchen.

Q Were they talking to one another?

A No. Mary was doing something with the dishes. They were always either cleaning up or doing stuff, so --

Q And you saw them in the kitchen?

A In the kitchen area. I mean, you have to understand there's like three parts to that kitchen. So it's very large.

Q All right. What part did you see John in?

A In the corner, left hand. And Mary was in the same vicinity but not right next to him. They weren't chatting.

Q What is also contained in the corner, left hand of the room?

A There's like a -- like shelves with -- I don't know. Just shelves that I remember, you know, open door pantry stuff.

Q What was Ms. Maxwell wearing when you arrived at the home?

A I don't remember what she was wearing.

Q The book that you were reading at the spa that day, do you recall the name of it?

A No. I just know it was -- it said the word massage on the front of it. I don't know the title or the author.

Q Do you know the color of the book?

A It was -- it was dark. It was a, like plastic covering.

Q All right. And how big was it, if you can just demonstrate for the video?

A Smaller than that. Maybe -- I don't -- maybe a little bit less than that.

Q Can you hold it sideways for the video?

A (Complied.)

Q So you're saying the book size was a little bit less than half of --

A Right. I mean, the book was a little bit bigger. The pages were -- you know, this is very small print. This is printed A4 longways, whereas, I think. It wasn't A4 that way. I don't know. It was just a book. And I don't know how many pages it had either. I mean, approximately, maybe 100 pages.

Q Okay. So maybe my question wasn't a very good question.

How big was the outside of the book, not the thickness, but the length and the width?

A Maybe like here (indicating).

Q So a little bit bigger?

1 A Longer than this, yeah. We're going to
2 fold it in half again, and then like that
3 (indicating).
4 Q So larger than an 8 and a half and
5 11 piece of paper?
6 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
7 A I don't know what 8 and a half and
8 11 inches is. If this is 8 and a half and 11 inches,
9 then yes. It's (indicating).
10 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) So when you fold it in 11 half, is that a little bit smaller, folded in half,
12 than the book --
13 A Yeah, if I were going to hold the book
14 like this, if I were going to sit there and read the 15 book like this, in my mind it would be a little bit
16 bigger than what I'm holding right here.
17 Q All right. So you're demonstrating the 18 book as it's opened that way?
19 A Yeah, let's just say I'm reading it like
20 this.
21 Q Okay. Got it.
22 MS. MENNINGER: I'm going to suggest we
23 take a short break. We can --
24 MR. EDWARDS: Order --
25 MS. MENNINGER: -- order lunch for you

1 guys and then do a little bit more before the lunch
2 gets here --
3 MR. EDWARDS: Okay.
4 MS. MENNINGER: -- if that works for
5 everybody.
6 MR. EDWARDS: Yeah, that's great.
7 MS. MENNINGER: All right. Let's do that.
8 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're off the record at 9 11:38.
10 (Recess taken from 11:38 a.m. to 11 11:57 a.m.)
12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the
13 record at 11:57.
14 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) How long were you at 15 the El Brillo home on that first day you went?
16 A Over two hours.
17 Q Okay. And who took you home?
18 A Juan Alessi.
19 Q And what car was he driving?
20 A I believe it was a black Suburban.
21 Q Did anyone else ride in the car with you?
22 A Just Juan.
23 Q What time approximately did you get home?
24 A 8:30, approximately.
25 Q Was it dark?

1 A Yes.
2 Q Who else was at home when you got home?
3 A My mom, my dad and my brother.
4 Q Which brother?
5 A Sky.
6 Q And anyone else who was there at the time?
7 A I believe Michael might have been living
8 with me at that time. So he might have been there.
9 Q Do you recall if he was there when you got
10 home?
11 A I don't really remember. I remember what 12 I did when I got home, that I basically made a
13 beeline for the bathroom.
14 Q Let me ask you a question. Michael was 15 living with you at that home, at your parents' home
16 at the time, is your best recollection today; is that
17 right?
18 A That's my best recollection, yes.
19 Q When you say living with you, were you
20 guys staying in the same room?
21 A Yes.
22 Q Were you engaged at that time to him?
23 A That was a really weird relationship. He 24 was a friend who looked after me, and he did propose
25 to me and I did say yes. But my heart was never in

1 it.
2 He was somebody that helped me off the
3 streets so I felt compelled to say yes to him.
4 Q Okay. So when he proposed to you and you
5 said yes, did that take place before you started
6 working at Mar-a-Lago or after you started working at
7 Mar-a-Lago?
8 A Before.
9 Q And so if he were living with your parents
10 at that time, you were living in the same room; is 11 that correct?
12 A I believe so.
13 Q And your parents understood him to be your
14 fiance?
15 A I don't think they agreed with it, but I
16 think they understood it as that. I mean --
17 Q I mean, you communicated to them that he
18 had proposed and you had accepted?
19 A Yeah, in not such a pretty way. I mean,
20 they obviously weren't very happy about it. And it
21 wasn't my true intentions to ever marry him.
22 Q Okay.
23 A But I did it to make him feel okay. I
24 didn't want to be mean.
25 Q What did your mom say about your

1 engagement to Michael?
2 A Oh, they never thought it was going to go
3 forward either.
4 Q When you got home, you said you made a
5 beeline for the bathroom?
6 A Correct.
7 Q And what did you do in the bathroom?
8 A I showered.
9 Q Okay. Did you have a conversation with 10 anyone prior to going to the bathroom?
11 A My mom came into the bathroom and -- and 12 she, you know, she asked me how it went. And I told
13 her I'd rather not talk about it. And she didn't
14 push me any further for any more conversation.
15 Q Okay. And then she left the bathroom?
16 A She left the bathroom.
17 Q Did anyone overhear that conversation?
18 A No, the door was closed.
19 Q Was your dad at home?
20 A Yes.
21 Q Did you have a conversation with your dad
22 that night?
23 A Not that I remember, no.
24 Q And did you have any other conversation
25 with your mother that night?

1 A No.
2 Q Did you have any conversation with your
3 brother that night?
4 A No. He's -- he's five years younger than 5 me. It's not something I'd talk to him about.
6 Q And did you have any conversation with
7 Michael that night?
8 A I could have. I don't remember having
9 one, but I could have.
10 Q Did you call any of your friends that
11 night?
12 A No.
13 Q Who were your good friends at that time?
14 A Rebecca Boylan (phonetic). That was 15 really it. I didn't really have many friends. I
16 kept to myself a lot.
17 Q Did you call Tony Figueroa that night?
18 A I don't think Tony and I were -- we were 19 on and off friends from middle school. And no reason
20 on and off like we had an argument or something. We 21 just got out of touch.
22 Q Um-hum.
23 A So, no, at that time I don't think I was 24 talking to him.
25 Q Are you aware of any distinguishing

1 physical features of Ghislaine Maxwell?
2 A I can tell you that she had very large
3 natural breasts. I can tell you that her pubic hair
4 was dark brown, nearly black. I don't remember any
5 specific birthmarks or moles that I could point out
6 that would be relevant.
7 Q Any scar?
8 A I don't remember any scars.
9 Q Any tattoos?
10 A No tattoos.
11 Q When did you next go to the El Brillo
12 house?
13 A I believe it would have been the next day.
14 Q You believe it would have been or was it?
15 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
16 A I know that it was consecutive, that I
17 continued to go there after my first -- the first
18 time that the abuse took place there. It was
19 consecutive that I was there, I believe, over the
20 next course of weeks.
21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) What day of the week
22 was the first time you went?
23 A I don't know.
24 Q Do you know whether you went the very next
25 day or not?

1 A I believe I did.
2 Q All right. How did you get there the very
3 next day?
4 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
5 A I believe my dad dropped me off again.
6 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) When you say you
7 believe, do you recall him doing that or are you
8 guessing?
9 A I don't -- well, this is how I figure
10 this. I don't remember Ghislaine picking me up from 11 Mar-a-Lago. I didn't have my own car. So the only
12 way I could have really gotten there would have been
13 my dad picking me up -- I mean, sorry, dropping me
14 off.
15 Q Do you have a distinct recollection of 16 your father dropping you off there more than one day
17 in a row?
18 A Yes.
19 Q You do not recall the car he was driving?
20 A Like I said, he always drove trucks.
21 That's as good as I can get.
22 Q And so -- and you worked on weekends as
23 well at Mar-a-Lago or no?
24 A No.
25 Q So the second day would have had to be

1 another weekday or was it on a weekend?
 2 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
 3 A I don't know.
 4 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you know if you
 5 went after work at Mar-a-Lago?
 6 A Yes.
 7 Q So you went to work the very next day at
 8 Mar-a-Lago?
 9 A Yes.
 10 Q Did you have a conversation with anyone at 11 Mar-a-Lago about the day before at El Brillo?
 12 A No.
 13 Q You didn't talk to any of your coworkers
 14 about it?
 15 A No.
 16 Q Who was your boss at the time?
 17 A No.
 18 Q Did you have a boss at the time?
 19 A I think Adriana or Adrienne. I don't 20 remember the exact pronunciation of her name, but 21 it's along those lines. I believe she was my boss.
 22 Q And you did not talk to her about it?
 23 A No.
 24 Q You surmise that your father dropped you
 25 off because you can't think of another way you would

1 have gotten there, correct?
 2 A Correct.
 3 Q And when you came the second day, did your
 4 father come to the door?
 5 A I don't think he came to the door that
 6 time. I think I was just dropped off.
 7 Q All right. And what did you do when you
 8 got there?
 9 A Knocked on the door and --
 10 Q Who answered the door?
 11 A Juan Alessi.
 12 Q Okay. Was anyone else there besides Juan
 13 Alessi?
 14 A Jeffrey, Ghislaine and Emmy Taylor.
 15 Q Okay. And where did you see Emmy Taylor?
 16 A She was downstairs.
 17 Q Did you speak to her?
 18 A Just introductions.
 19 Q Tell me what you mean by introductions.
 20 A My name is Virginia. Nice to meet you.
 21 Her name, she introduced herself as Emmy. And she
 22 told me she was Ghislaine's personal assistant.
 23 Q Did you call yourself Virginia at the
 24 time?
 25 A No, I think I've gone by Jenna for a long

1 time.
 2 Q So did you introduce yourself as Virginia
 3 or as Jenna?
 4 A Most likely Jenna.
 5 Q Do you recall this or is this something
 6 that you're guessing about?
 7 A Well, considering that everybody knew me
 8 as Jenna, I think I would have introduced myself as 9 Jenna.
 10 Q You don't recall it?
 11 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
 12 A I don't recall the exact answer to that,
 13 no, but just knowing I had everybody pretty much call
 14 me Jenna.
 15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'm just trying to 16 make a clear record about what you do remember and 17 what you're guessing about. So when you say I think
 18 I would have, it leads me to believe you don't recall
 19 it.
 20 If you mean something different by that --
 21 A I --
 22 Q -- please feel free to clarify. I'm just 23 trying to explain to you what I'm asking.
 24 A Yes. And I'm doing the very best that I
 25 can tell you exactly what it is. But it's just hard

1 for me to remember so long ago. And knowing that I
 2 introduced myself as Jenna to everybody leads me to
 3 assume that I would have introduced myself to them as
 4 Jenna as well.
 5 Q All right. But if we were to speak to
 6 Emmy Taylor, she might have a different recollection,
 7 fair to say?
 8 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
 9 A She could.
 10 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) How is it that you
 11 knew to come there on this second day?
 12 A I was asked to come back.
 13 Q When were you asked to come back?
 14 A The day before, after the encounter they
 15 told me to come back at the same time after work.
 16 Q Who is they?
 17 A Jeffrey and Ghislaine.
 18 Q Okay. Did they both simultaneously say
 19 that or did one of them say it?
 20 A It was like a conversation that they both
 21 had with me separately. Jeffrey told me upstairs
 22 after the whole entire abuse had happened that he
 23 really liked me and he'd like me to come back.
 24 When I went downstairs --
 25 Q Let me just stop you there. Did he say, I

1 want you to come back tomorrow?
 2 A Yes.
 3 Q Okay. Did he tell you what time tomorrow
 4 he wanted you to come back?
 5 A No, he just said he wants me to come back
 6 tomorrow.
 7 Q Okay. And then you went downstairs and 8 what happened?
 9 A Ghislaine told me I did a really good job
 10 and she wants me to come back tomorrow after work.
 11 Q That's what she said, I want you to come
 12 back tomorrow after work?
 13 A Yes.
 14 Q You recall those words being used by her?
 15 A Yes.
 16 Q Did you ask them for a ride to get there
 17 the next day?
 18 A No.
 19 Q You just said, I'll come back tomorrow.
 20 A Yeah. I agreed to come back the next day.
 21 Q How did you agree?
 22 A Verbally.
 23 Q Okay. Was anyone else present when 24 Ghislaine said that to you and you responded, I'll 25 come back tomorrow?

1 A I believe Juan Alessi was pretty much
 2 within ear distance.
 3 Q Could you see him?
 4 A Yes.
 5 Q Okay.
 6 A Like I said, in ear distance, when I mean
 7 ear distance like hearing, in the hearing vicinity.
 8 And it was in the same time that she was asking him
 9 to drop me off at home.
 10 Q Okay. When you were driving home the 11 first night with Juan Alessi, did you have any 12 conversation with him?
 13 A No. I had told him my address. It was a
 14 very quiet ride.
 15 Q Did you ride in the front or the back?
 16 A The front.
 17 Q It is your contention that, Ghislaine
 18 Maxwell had sex with underage girls virtually every
 19 day when I was around her, correct?
 20 A Yes.
 21 Q All right. With whom did Ghislaine
 22 Maxwell have sex in your presence?
 23 A Well, there's a lot of girls that were 24 involved. We weren't on a first name basis with each
 25 other. I wouldn't be able to give you lists of names

1 of girls. It was continuous.
 2 Q It was continuous. Name one girl that
 3 Ghislaine Maxwell had sex with in your presence.
 4 A Emmy Taylor. I mean, that's a name that I
 5 know well because Emmy was always around.
 6 I'm trying to think of her name, sorry.
 7 Sarah. Her name used to be Sarah Kellen. I think
 8 she's changed it now that she's married.
 9 [REDACTED] (phonetic) -- I can't
 10 pronounce her last name properly, but it's around
 11 those lines.
 12 There were a lot of other girls that I
 13 honestly can't remember their names. I'm sorry. I
 14 wish I could help out more because I really would 15 like to provide more witnesses for this, but I can't 16 remember a lot of girls' names.
 17 Q So those are the three names of females
 18 that you observed Ghislaine Maxwell have sex with --
 19 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 20 Mischaracterizes testimony.
 21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) -- is that what I
 22 understand your answer to be?
 23 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. Mischaracterizes
 24 her testimony.
 25 A Those are -- those are some three of the 1 names that I know very well. Like I said, there was

 2 a lot more.
 3 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. Do you know the 4 names of any other girl that you personally observed
 5 Ghislaine Maxwell have sex with?
 6 A Do you mind me taking a minute to just try
 7 to reflect?
 8 Q No.
 9 A Um, her name is on the tip of my tongue.
 10 Her last name is [REDACTED]. I don't remember her 11 first name off the top of my head. I normally could
 12 remember it.
 13 Q Okay.
 14 A There's just a blur of so many girls.
 15 It's really hard for me to remember. And you have to 16 understand we weren't introduced to each other on a
 17 first name basis half the time. A lot of these girls
 18 would come and go and you'd never see them again.
 19 So, no, it's very difficult for me to 20 pinpoint exactly who they were. But those four that 21 I've given you are 100 percent.
 22 Q Okay. Did you observe Ghislaine Maxwell
 23 forcing any of those four girls to have sexual 24 contact with her?
 25 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

1 A I don't believe that any of the girls
2 involved were truly willing participants doing it out
3 of their own wanting. I believe we were all there
4 for one purpose, and that was to keep Jeffrey and
5 Ghislaine happy and to do our jobs, which was giving
6 them erotic massages and keeping them pleased
7 sexually.

8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. Do you know
9 what the word force means, physical force?

10 A If you mean like held down or a gun put to 11 the head, then no.

12 Q Okay.

13 A But force in a word -- like a way of 14 coercion. There was definitely indirect threats that 15 you knew these people were powerful. They had a lot
16 of contacts. They were very wealthy. They were 17 people you did not want to cross lines with on a bad
18 way.

19 Q Okay. What threats did you hear Ghislaine
20 Maxwell state to you?

21 A Just the reminders of the prominent people
22 that she knows personally.

23 Q When did Ghislaine Maxwell remind you
24 about the prominent people that she knows personally?

25 A It was on a constant basis. I mean, there

1 was no just one time that she said it. It was like a
2 reminder, you know. And Jeffrey did a lot more of
3 that than she did. But she definitely made it aware
4 that we shouldn't cross boundaries with them.

5 Q Or what would happen?

6 A Like I said, it was more of an indirect
7 threat. And it doesn't take an intellect to figure 8 out what they mean when they say that they're 9 powerful people and they're very wealthy and they
10 know a lot of people.

11 Q I need you to be very clear. You just 12 used the word "they." I've asked you about Ghislaine
13 Maxwell.

14 A Okay.

15 Q So I just want to make sure you understand
16 the question.

17 A Correct.

18 Q Because I don't want to have you, you
19 know, misunderstand the question.

20 A Correct.

21 Q So I'm asking you, what did Ghislaine
22 Maxwell say would happen in regards to crossing a
23 line with respect to her knowledge of famous people?

24 A In a --

25 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

1 Mischaracterizes her testimony.

2 You can answer.

3 A You wouldn't want to piss us off. You
4 wouldn't want to piss me and Jeffrey off. I mean
5 that's one way of saying it. Other than --

6 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did she say, I don't
7 want -- you would not want to piss me off?

8 A Piss me off is probably my word, using
9 piss, but it was along those lines. I don't remember
10 the exact word that she used.

11 Q And do you remember a specific occasion on 12 which she said that to you?

13 A I remember very early on.

14 Q Where were you?

15 A I believe it was during my, what I call
16 the training period with Jeffrey and Ghislaine.

17 Q Okay. And where were you?

18 A For a specific -- and like I said, it
19 happened a lot. But for one specific, I remember
20 being out on the balcony in the house at El Brillo,
21 sitting outside with her. This is when I thought
22 that -- I didn't know that I worked for Jeffrey
23 immediately. I thought I worked for Ghislaine
24 because she was the one who brought me in. And she 25 was the one offering the majority of the training to

1 me.

2 So, yeah, it was on the balcony, outside,
3 I believe the yellow room.

4 Q She said, You would not want to piss me
5 off because I know powerful people, or words to that
6 effect?

7 A Words to that effect, yes.

8 Q And did she say what would happen if you
9 pissed her off because she knows powerful people?

10 A That statement alone was enough to let me
11 know. I was scared and I didn't want to -- I didn't
12 want to push any further into that question. I
13 seemed like I would obey.

14 Q Up until that point in your life, had you
15 met any powerful people?

16 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

17 A I do believe that I've been put in very 18 dangerous situations, being a runaway and having a
19 lot of bad things happen to me. Understanding the 20 word powerful people and things that could happen,
21 I've put two and two together and knew what she 22 meant.

23 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. So you had met
24 powerful people before the day that Ghislaine Maxwell
25 said this to you; is that your testimony?

1 A Nowhere near as powerful as Jeffrey and
2 Ghislaine, nowhere near. But people that did scare
3 me, yes.

4 Q Okay. And you had met those people at 5 what age?

6 A I don't know what age I was. I'm sorry.
7 I was young. I was -- before I met Jeffrey and
8 Ghislaine.

9 Q Is there any girl who you personally
10 observed to have sexual contact with Ghislaine
11 Maxwell when she was under the age of 18?

12 A It's very hard to tell how many girls were 13 under the age of 18. My instruction from them was 14 the younger the better.

15 Q And, again, them, who told you that?

16 A Them, both of them. They both --
17 Ghislaine did the majority of my training in the 18 beginning. Jeffrey also insinuated and told me lots
19 of things as well.

20 Q Okay. So you don't know the age of any 21 other female that you saw have sexual contact with
22 Ghislaine Maxwell --

23 MR. EDWARDS: Object --

24 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) -- is that true?

25 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form of the

1 question. Mischaracterized her testimony. She
2 wasn't finished with her answer.

3 MS. MENNINGER: I wasn't finished with my
4 question when you objected. And at the end of my
5 question I said, "Is that true?" She can now restate
6 it without you suggesting to her the answer.

7 MR. EDWARDS: I have no idea what the
8 question is to even object to at this point.

9 Do you know the question?

10 A Do I know any underage girls that 11 Ghislaine slept with.

12 MS. MENNINGER: Can you please read back
13 the question?

14 (Record read as requested.)

15 MR. EDWARDS: Hold on. She wasn't
16 finished with her question, she told me. So that's 17 not the finished question.

18 MS. MENNINGER: You interrupted it. I
19 finished my question. She just read it to her.

20 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Can you please answer
21 the question?

22 MR. EDWARDS: Then I object to that
23 question as a mischaracterization of her testimony.
24 And she wasn't finished with her answer.

25 A It is impossible for me to know the ages

1 of all the girls that were sent to Jeffrey and
2 Ghislaine. That is my answer.

3 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I did not ask you
4 about the girls who were sent to Jeffrey and
5 Ghislaine. I asked you about any girl that you
6 personally saw have sexual contact with Ghislaine
7 Maxwell.

8 Do you understand that question?

9 A Do I know the ages of them?

10 Q Do you know the age of any girl that you
11 saw have sexual contact with Ghislaine Maxwell?

12 A Well, for instance, I mean, Sarah Kellen
13 was, I think, a year older than me. That's one way
14 of putting it. Emmy, I think was like a few years
15 older than me. [REDACTED] again, a few years older
16 than me. I mean, those are the girls that I can 17 actually name.

18 Without, not knowing the other girls'
19 names, there's no way for me to identify what age
20 they actually were.

21 Q Okay. Describe for me any other girl
22 other than the ones that you've named who you say you
23 saw have sexual contact with Ghislaine Maxwell with 24 your own two eyes.

25 A There's so many I don't know where you

1 want me to start. I find it impossible to answer
2 that question with the amount of girls that I have
3 witnessed. And without being able to give you
4 specific names, I don't think I'm able to answer that
5 question.

6 Q Okay. I asked you to describe them, so
7 you could give me a height, a hair color, anything
8 else that comes to mind?

9 A There were blondes, there were brunettes,
10 there were redheads. They were all beautiful girls.
11 I would say the ages ranged between 15 and 21.

12 Q And why do you believe the ages ranged 13 from 15 to 21?

14 A Some of them looked really young. Some of 15 them, I wouldn't say 21 looks old or anything like
16 that, but it's hard to gauge another person's age
17 without really asking them. But some of them looked 18 younger than me and some of them looked older than
19 me.

20 Q And in what physical locations did you see
21 Ghislaine Maxwell have sexual contact with any girl?

22 A 100 percent, the U.S. V.I.

23 Q Where?

24 A Jeffrey's island.

25 Q Where?

1 A In cabanas. Do you know what I mean by
2 cabana?

3 Q I do, thank you.

4 A In cabanas, in Jeffrey's room.

5 Q Describe Jeffrey's room on U.S. V.I. for
6 me.

7 A So can I use this as an idea? Like if
8 this is the island -- can I do that?

9 Q I'm asking you to describe the inside of a
10 room.

11 A Oh, the inside of a room. I thought you
12 meant located.

13 Q Um-hum.

14 A Okay. Large, stony. He had a king size
15 bed with posts on it. There was a large door, I
16 think it's called a door, where you put your clothes.
17 There was an adjacent bathroom with a more stony
18 look, giant tub.

19 Q What color was the paint on the wall?

20 A It was stone.

21 Q What color was the bedspread?

22 A White.

23 Q What color were the sheets?

24 A White.

25 Q And you saw Ghislaine Maxwell have sexual

1 contact with an unknown, unnamed female in that room,
2 correct?

3 A Absolutely.

4 Q All right. When were you there that you
5 saw this happen?

6 A This happened on so many occasions. The 7 island was a place where orgies were a constant thing
8 that took place. And again, it's impossible to know
9 how many. And, like I said, it wasn't just Jeffrey's
10 room. It was outside and, you know. It was --

11 Q When you were outside did you see
12 Ghislaine Maxwell have sexual contact with a female?

13 A When you say sexual contact does that mean
14 fornicating or down to taking explicit photos or 15 what -- can you define what you mean by sexual 16 contact?

17 Q Sure. It generally, in my mind, means
18 placing either mouth or intimate parts or hands on 19 the breasts, buttocks, or pubic area of another
20 person for sexual gratification.

21 A Sure.

22 Q Did you see Ghislaine Maxwell have sexual 23 contact with a woman outside on the U.S. Virgin
24 Islands?

25 A I would say a female. I wouldn't define

1 them as a woman. A woman is someone who is older.
2 But, yes, outside by the pool, down by the beach
3 there's these -- they're little -- I wouldn't call it
4 a hut. Little tiny wooden room that only could fit a
5 bed in it.

6 Q I'm talking about outside.

7 A That's outside.

8 Q So let's start with by the pool.

9 A Yes.

10 Q Is that a different occasion than the hut?

11 A I'm talking about many occasions.

12 Q Okay.

13 A Over time.

14 Q Let's just talk about the ones that you
15 saw happen outside, out of doors.

16 A Okay.

17 Q Okay?

18 A Yeah.

19 Q Do you recall any such specific occasion
20 or is it just a big blur in your mind?

21 A No, I mean, one occasion stands out.
22 Models were -- I think they were models -- were flown
23 in. There were orgies held outside by the pool.
24 That's one occasion.

25 Q All right. Let's stick with that

1 occasion.

2 A Okay.

3 Q What sexual contact did you observe
4 Ghislaine Maxwell have with a female by the pool at
5 an orgy on the U.S. Virgin Islands?

6 A Well, there was quite a few girls and it
7 was -- excuse me, if I'm saying this in an inexplicit
8 way, but I don't know how else to say it. So if you
9 don't understand, please let me know -- girl-on-girl
10 action. So there was a lot of -- what's the word for 11 it? Licking, licking vaginas, breasts.

12 Q Okay. Which --

13 A Fingers being used. She was involved with 14 that. I remember specifically I had to go down -- do
15 you know what I mean by go down?

16 Q It's your testimony. Go ahead.

17 A I had to go down on Ghislaine. Jeffrey
18 was there as well.

19 Q And this is -- we're still by the pool?

20 A We're still by the pool with lots of 21 girls.

22 Q Can you name any of those girls that were
23 there?

24 A They didn't even speak English. But this
25 was --

1 Q Can you describe them physically?
2 A Beautiful, tall, some were blonde, some
3 were sandy brown. They had a foreign tongue.
4 Q What -- what language were they speaking?
5 A I'm not too sure. It could have been
6 Russian. It could have been Czechoslovakian. It
7 could have been -- I think it's between those two, to 8 be honest. It could have been something else but, I
9 mean, I don't speak any other language other than 10 English, so I don't really know.
11 Q All right. Any other time you saw
12 Ghislaine Maxwell have sexual contact with another
13 female outdoors in the U.S. Virgin Islands other than 14 this, models with the unknown language?
15 A Are we talking about besides with me as 16 well?
17 Q I don't know if you participated. I'm 18 asking if you observed her have sexual contact with 19 another female?
20 A Another female other than myself?
21 Q You can answer it however you want.
22 A Well, and the list keeps going on.
23 Ghislaine and I and Jeffrey and Emmy Taylor
24 participated in, I guess what you would call a
25 foursome in the living room in the main house.

1 Q Okay. I was asking about outdoors.
2 Sorry.
3 A Oh. Well, I don't know if you'd consider
4 this outdoors, but on the beach where those -- it's
5 basically an outdoor setting. It's like a little
6 wooden house. It's not a house, only a bed can fit
7 in there. It's right on the beach. It's open.
8 Q Um-hum.
9 A Would you consider that outdoors?
10 Q I have never been there. So I don't know
11 whether it's outdoors or not.
12 A I would consider it outdoors. And --
13 Q How old were you at that time?
14 A I don't know.
15 Q Okay.
16 A I have no idea. Again, Ghislaine, myself,
17 Jeffrey, another girl in this blue, outdoor -- I
18 don't know what you want to call it. Cabana, that a 19 house -- just a bed could fit in.
20 Q How many times did you visit the island?
21 A I wouldn't be able to say. Lots of times.
22 Q More than five?
23 A Definitely more than five.
24 Q More than ten?
25 A More than ten.

1 Q More than 20?
2 A I would say more than 20.
3 Q More than 50?
4 A I don't think more than 50, but --
5 Q Did --
6 A I don't have an exact number. I mean,
7 if -- I think if you look at the flight logs, you
8 know, that helps, but then they're not fully 9 complete. We only have flight logs to one plane and 10 then there's a time I was flown commercially into the 11 island.
12 Q Um-hum.
13 A So it's really hard for me to gauge a
14 number.
15 Q Okay. Do you have any photographs of 16 yourself on the island?
17 A I know I used to, but they would be left
18 in that apartment.
19 Q What other locations did you participate
20 in sexual contact with Ghislaine Maxwell, other than 21 the island?
22 A Everywhere. New York, Palm Beach.
23 Q Where in New York?
24 A The mansion, Jeffrey's mansion.
25 Q Okay. Anywhere else in New York?

1 A Not at her townhouse.
2 Q Anywhere else in New York?
3 A No.
4 Q In Palm Beach?
5 A At the house in Palm Beach.
6 Q Anywhere else in Palm Beach?
7 A No.
8 Q In New Mexico?
9 A The house in New Mexico.
10 Q Anywhere else in New Mexico?
11 A No.
12 Q What other countries?
13 A France, uhm, England. Um -- we also -- I
14 mean, if we're going to talk about other countries
15 we've got to talk about international travel space or 16 plane space or whatever you want to call it because 17 it happened all the time on the planes.
18 Q Okay.
19 A Going from different country to country.
20 Q Where in France did you have sexual
21 contact with Ghislaine Maxwell?
22 A There's a couple places in France that we 23 used to go to.
24 Q When you say you used to go to, how many
25 times did you go to France?

Page 157

1 A I think I've been to France three times.

2 Q All right. How old were you when you went

3 to France?

4 A I don't know.

5 Q Did you have a passport when you went to

6 France?

7 A I would have had to, yes.

8 Q You did have a passport when you went to

9 France?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And you went to France three times, you

12 believe?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And when you were in France those three

15 times, how many of those three times did you have

16 sexual contact with Ghislaine Maxwell?

17 A Every time.

18 Q And in what locations in France did you

19 have sexual contact with Ghislaine Maxwell?

20 A The first time that I remember, we stayed

21 at a really fancy hotel.

22 Q In what city?

23 A Paris.

24 Q Okay.

25 A And it was within the view of the Champs-

Page 158

1 Elysees.

2 Q Did you have your own room or a separate

3 room?

4 A We all stayed in the same room, but that

5 room had adjoining rooms to it. So, you know, one

6 hotel room but with different rooms in it.

7 Q Okay. And anywhere else on that one trip

8 that you went?

9 A She brought in a redheaded French girl.

10 She walked up to her in Paris and, you know --

11 Q In your presence?

12 A In my presence.

13 Q Um-hum.

14 A And she walked up to this French girl to 15 show me how easy it was for her to procure girls. I

16 wasn't very good at it. And, you know, it was part

17 of my training was to bring in other girls. So she

18 walked up to her. Within five minutes she had her

19 number and that girl came over later that night to 20 the hotel and serviced Jeffrey. I didn't see

21 Ghislaine with her. I just know she told me what

22 happened and Jeffrey told me what happened.

23 Q So you were not there?

24 A I did not see it.

25 Q Okay. When did you have sexual contact

Page 159

1 with Ghislaine Maxwell at this hotel room overlooking

2 the Champs-Elysees?

3 A Before she picked up the redhead.

4 Q And was that just you and Ghislaine or was

5 anyone else a participant in that?

6 A Jeffrey and Emmy.

7 Q And where else in France did you have

8 sexual contact with Ghislaine Maxwell?

9 A The south of France.

10 Q Where?

11 A I wouldn't call it so much a hotel. I

12 don't know what you'd call it. It had like big

13 townhouse kind of things that you could rent out.

14 Q Was this on the same trip or a different

15 trip?

16 A Different trip.

17 Q Okay. Who else was present for that?

18 A Well, we were going to Naomi Campbell's

19 birthday party. It wasn't at the birthday party.

20 Q Right.

21 A It was before the birthday party.

22 Q Oh, you had sexual contact with Ghislaine

23 Maxwell before you went to Naomi Campbell's birthday

24 party?

25 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

Page 160

1 A That's correct.

2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And who else was

3 present during your supposed sexual contact with

4 Ghislaine Maxwell on this occasion?

5 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form of the

6 question.

7 A It wasn't supposed. It actually happened.

8 And Ghislaine was present, Jeffrey was present. I

9 believe Emily Taylor was present as well.

10 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Anyone else?

11 A There was someone else on that trip with 12 us, but they weren't involved with the sexual

13 activity at that time.

14 Q Okay. And what was the other location in

15 France?

16 A I believe the same exact place. I mean,

17 we stayed there for a few days.

18 Q Okay. So the three locations are hotel in 19 Paris, same place, same place?

20 A Correct.

21 Q And the second and third same places were

22 on the same trip?

23 A Same trip.

24 Q Okay. And then you had a third trip to

25 France where you did not have sexual contact with

1 Ghislaine Maxwell?
2 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
3 A I believe -- it's hard for me to remember.
4 I remember going to quite a few different countries
5 on that trip. I don't know if it was -- I don't know
6 if we did it in Paris or not, to be honest. We did
7 it in other places. But I've been to Paris three
8 times -- or not Paris, sorry, France.
9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. All right.
10 When did you first tell your parents that you would
11 be traveling with Jeffrey Epstein?
12 A I'm not too sure when I actually told
13 them.
14 Q How long after you were working with 15 Jeffrey Epstein did you travel with him?
16 A Well, I know my first trip was to New
17 York. I would say anywhere between six weeks -- I
18 would say after six weeks.
19 Q You were -- you had known Jeffrey Epstein
20 for six weeks before you started traveling with 21 him --
22 A I believe.
23 Q -- am I understanding that correct?
24 A I believe so. I mean, that's an
25 approximate answer.

1 Q And your first trip was to New York?
2 A Yes.
3 Q And did you just go to New York and come
4 back or did you go somewhere else?
5 A I think I just went to New York, but I
6 can't remember if we went somewhere else.
7 Q Okay. And did you tell your parents you
8 were going to New York?
9 A Yes.
10 Q And do you recall any part of your
11 conversation with your parents about going to New
12 York?
13 A I didn't get into details about what I was 14 having to do with Ghislaine and Jeffrey. I didn't 15 tell them that, but I told them I was going to New 16 York.
17 Q And you don't recall telling them anything
18 else about it?
19 A I don't know. I mean, I might have called
20 them from New York and told them it was cold and, you
21 know, just simple stuff. But I can't really recall
22 what I spoke to them about.
23 MS. MENNINGER: As I understand it, the 24 food is here. So I'm going to suggest that now is a
25 good time to take a break.

1 MR. EDWARDS: Sounds good.
2 MS. MENNINGER: All right.
3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're off the record at
4 12:42.
5 (Recess taken from 12:42 p.m. to 6 1:21 p.m.)
7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the
8 record at 1:21.
9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right.
10 Ms. Giuffre, I want to talk to you about where you
11 were living in the late '90s. Do you recall -- you
12 testified earlier, I believe, that you were living at 13 your parents' house and you gave us an address at the 14 time you started at Mar-a-Lago.
15 A Yes.
16 Q Do you remember where you lived previous
17 to living at your parents' house at that time?
18 A Like I said, I was a runaway, so there was 19 a lot of different places I lived. One of the places
20 I lived was, like I told you earlier, with Michael's
21 parents. That was somewhere around Fort Lauderdale,
22 I believe, maybe a little bit outside of it.
23 Q Okay.
24 A Michael got an apartment and I lived in
25 Michael's apartment for a short period.

1 Q And where do you recall that being?
2 A Somewhere in Fort Lauderdale, again.
3 Q Okay. And then you were living with your
4 parents or was there another place in between?
5 A Then I lived with my parents.
6 Q Okay. And then where is the next place
7 that you moved?
8 A An apartment that Jeffrey got for me in 9 Royal Palm Beach.
10 Q Okay. And you don't know the address of
11 that?
12 A No, I wish I could give it to you. I
13 don't know it.
14 Q And you stayed in that apartment until you
15 left for Thailand in the fall, later in the year in 16 2002, correct?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Right?
19 A Yes.
20 Q All right. And when did you first stop
21 living with your parents? How old were you when you
22 first stopped living with your parents?
23 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
24 A The very first time?
25 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Um-hum.

1 A I believe I was 11.

2 Q Okay. What caused you to stop living with
3 your parents when you were 11?

4 A I just had some trouble and my parents
5 thought it would be better if they sent me to
6 California.

7 Q Okay. What trouble did you have?

8 A It's very hard for me to talk about.
9 There was stuff that went on in my life that, you
10 know, made me so I -- I couldn't live with my parents
11 anymore.

12 Q What went on in your life that caused you
13 to not be able to live with your parents at the age
14 of 11?

15 A Do I have to answer this?

16 Q Well, did you talk to Sharon Churcher
17 about being molested as a child?

18 A I did.

19 Q And you authorized Sharon Churcher to 20 publish that in a newspaper, correct?

21 A I don't think I authorized her to do it.
22 I think she -- I wouldn't say she did it on her own
23 accord. But I talked to her about it and I wasn't 24 aware of exactly what she was going to publish and 25 what she wasn't.

1 Q So you were able to talk to a reporter for
2 the Mail On Sunday about this, correct?

3 A I did tell her a little bit about my past
4 and where I came from.

5 Q All right. So what caused you to be sent 6 away from your parents' home at the age of 11 to
7 California?

8 A Some of the prior abuse which led me to be
9 a very troubled young teenager. I mean, I guess you
10 wouldn't call 11 a teenager yet, but led me to 11 running away a lot and -- and my family just thought
12 it was best that I get out of the area and move
13 somewhere else.

14 Q Okay. You had run away prior to being the 15 age of 11?

16 A Yes.

17 Q All right. Was that reported to the 18 authorities?

19 A That I ran away?

20 Q Yes.

21 A Yes.

22 Q And where were your parents living at the
23 age of 11?

24 A The same address I gave you earlier.

25 Q Okay. So the authorities associated with

1 Loxahatchee, Florida were made aware that you had run
2 away from home at the age of 11?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And what abuse had you suffered prior to
5 the age of 11?

6 A There was a very close family friend who
7 was a very sick man. And he took advantage.

8 Q What's his name?

9 A Forest.

10 Q Forest what?

11 A Jones.

12 Q And where is Forest Jones today?

13 A I don't know where he is.

14 Q Does anyone in your family keep in contact
15 with him?

16 A No.

17 Q What did he do to you?

18 A Um, he touched me places I shouldn't be 19 touched. He sexually abused me.

20 Q For how long?

21 A I don't know how long.

22 Q Did you tell that to your parents?

23 A They know.

24 Q How do they know?

25 A I told them.

1 Q Did you tell them when you were under the
2 age of 11 or at the age of 11?

3 A I told them later.

4 Q When did you tell them?

5 A It took me a long time to forgive my
6 parents for sending me away. I didn't feel like
7 anybody understood me. So not until later in my life
8 did I feel like I was able to talk to anyone about
9 it.

10 Q Okay. Was it reported to the authorities?

11 A No. I went too late to talk to anybody
12 about it.

13 Q Did the event of you being molested cause
14 your parents to split up?

15 A I think Sharon reported that, but I don't
16 think that's the case, no. My parents split up
17 because they were really messed up.

18 Q Your parents split up because they were 19 really messed up?

20 A Oh, they just didn't get along. There
21 were a lot of marital problems.

22 Q When did they split up?

23 A I don't really remember what year it was.

24 Q How old were you?

25 A I believe I was living with Jeffrey at the

1 time.

2 Q With whom did you live in California?

3 A My Aunt Carol.

4 Q And who else?

5 A Uncle Mike.

6 Q And with who else?

7 A That's it.

8 Q And for how long did you live with them?

9 A I don't really know how long, maybe over a

10 year, maybe two years.

11 Q And then what caused you to not live with 12 them anymore?

13 A I kept running away from them, too.

14 Q And where did you live in California?

15 A I'm sorry?

16 Q Where in California did you live?

17 A Where did they live?

18 Q Where did you live with them?

19 A Salinas.

20 Q And do you know the address?

21 A No.

22 Q Do they still live there?

23 A No.

24 Q When did they stop living there?

25 A I don't know. I haven't kept in contact

1 with them.

2 Q And you believe you lived with them for a

3 little more than a year?

4 A Maybe a year, maybe two years. I'm not

5 too sure.

6 Q Did you go to school there?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Where did you go to school?

9 A Somewhere near Salinas, I'm assuming.

10 Q What grade were you in?

11 A Middle school.

12 Q Sixth grade, seventh grade?

13 A I think sixth grade.

14 Q And did you go there for more than one

15 year or just one year?

16 A Maybe -- I don't know. I'm sorry, I don't

17 know.

18 Q Were the authorities in Salinas alerted to 19 the fact that you ran away from home there?

20 A Yes.

21 Q How long was the longest you were away

22 from home in Salinas, California?

23 A Two weeks.

24 Q And you were in middle school?

25 A (Indicating.)

1 THE REPORTER: I'm sorry, your --

2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Yes? Yes or no?

3 A Oh. Yes.

4 Q And then when did you go back to Florida?

5 A I don't know.

6 Q Was your younger brother living with your

7 parents in Florida while you were in California?

8 A Um-hum, yes.

9 Q And was your older brother living with

10 your parents in Florida while you were in California?

11 A I don't think so.

12 Q How much older than you is he?

13 A Five years.

14 Q And when you went back to Florida, where

15 did you go to school, when you got back?

16 A I believe I went to Crestwood Middle

17 School.

18 Q And did you complete your studies at

19 Crestwood Middle School?

20 A Did I get out of middle school there, yes.

21 Q Okay. What grades were middle school?

22 A Six, seven and eight.

23 Q Okay. And when you went back to live with

24 your parents again, that was at the same address in

25 Loxahatchee?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And you don't believe your older brother

3 was in the home at the time?

4 A No, he was sent to boarding school.

5 Q Where did he go to boarding school?

6 A Washington.

7 Q State or city?

8 A Washington above California.

9 Q When was the next time you stopped living

10 with your parents?

11 A They sent me to a group home called

12 Growing Together.

13 Q Why?

14 A Because I kept running away.

15 Q Were the authorities alerted when you ran

16 away?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And how old were you when you went to live

19 at Growing Together?

20 A I don't know. It's hard for me to piece

21 back dates. Off the top of my head -- I don't want

22 to guess. I don't think I should guess. I don't

23 know.

24 Q But you moved directly from living with

25 your parents to living at Growing Together?

1 A I wouldn't say directly.

2 Q How --

3 A I'd say I stayed with my parents for --

4 like, I think I finished school at Crestwood. So I

5 would have been in, I don't know, I guess eighth

6 grade, finished eighth grade. And then -- I don't

7 know. I really don't know. Around eighth grade.

8 Q You went to Growing Together?

9 A I think -- I think it was then.

10 Q And how many years did you live at Growing

11 Together?

12 A Over a year.

13 Q Were you ever in foster care?

14 A What Growing Together was, was like a

15 group home that sent you away to foster parents every

16 night.

17 Q So you lived in other people's homes

18 during the period of time you were assigned to

19 Growing Together?

20 A Well, you stayed at Growing Together

21 during the day and then at night you get sent home

22 with parents.

23 Q Did you go to school while you were at

24 Growing Together?

25 A Yeah, they offer education there.

1 Q So the education was at Growing Together?

2 A Yeah.

3 Q You did not attend a Palm Beach County --

4 A I did, but you had to earn your levels up

5 to be able to go outside. So I don't remember what

6 level you have to get up to, to go out to another

7 school. I think there was like seven levels or

8 something. And you had to make it to, like, level 4

9 to be able to go to outside school.

10 Q So for some period of time you were

11 assigned to Growing Together and you were going to

12 school at Growing Together. And for some period of

13 time you were going to other schools and coming back

14 to Growing Together?

15 A Correct.

16 Q And then when you came back to Growing

17 Together, you were sent to spend the night at a

18 family's home?

19 A Yes.

20 Q So you never slept at Growing Together?

21 A No.

22 Q Did you live -- other than living at or

23 staying at Growing Together during the day and

24 sleeping at these other homes at night, is there

25 anywhere else that you recall living in the period

1 between the ages of eighth grade and when you started

2 working at Mar-a-Lago?

3 A Besides the ones I've told you about, you

4 know, I did run away from Growing Together quite

5 often. And I did end up being -- being abused by

6 another older guy who I stayed with for I don't know

7 how long.

8 Q How old were you then?

9 A I don't know. I'm sorry. I really wish I

10 could pinpoint dates. I don't know dates.

11 Q Okay. What was that man's name?

12 A Ronald Effinger.

13 Q And how long were you living -- were you

14 living with Ronald Effinger?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And for how long were you living with him?

17 A I don't know.

18 Q Days? Weeks? Months?

19 A I don't know. I mean, it wasn't days. I

20 don't think it was weeks. It would have been close

21 to maybe a few months.

22 Q Okay. And was Ronald Effinger prosecuted

23 by federal authorities in South Florida?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And you were located by the FBI, I

1 believe?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And you gave an interview to the FBI

4 concerning your time with Ronald Effinger, correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Did you ever get a victim's notification

7 letter regarding your status as a victim in Ronald

8 Effinger's federal criminal prosecution?

9 A I don't know. My parents handled

10 everything.

11 Q Do you know if your parents received such

12 a letter?

13 A I don't know.

14 Q Have you ever asked them?

15 A No, I've never really brought it up with 16 them. It really pissed them off a lot, so I never

17 brought it up with them.

18 Q It pissed them off that you were living

19 with Ronald Effinger?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Why did it piss them off, if you know?

22 A Well, I think they were just disgusted,

23 you know, that this happened to me again. And they

24 didn't want to talk about it. They didn't want to 25 talk about it.

1 Q But they were aware of it?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Your dad came and picked you up from the
4 police station?
5 A Yes.
6 Q And your dad would not let you come home?
7 A Well, I think it was more my mom didn't
8 want me to come home.
9 Q Did she say why?
10 A She just probably thought I was just going
11 to keep running away again. And --
12 Q Did she say that to you?
13 A Well, I asked my dad at the police station
14 if I could come home instead of going back to Growing
15 Together. And he said my mom didn't want me to come
16 home. And I told him if he didn't get me out within 17 a week, I'd run away again and he'd never hear from 18 me again.
19 Q And how is it that you came back to be 20 living at their house, then?
21 A I ran away again and I called him up and I
22 said, This is your final chance. And they came and 23 picked me up and they let me live there.
24 Q And when did you go live with Michael?
25 A Not long after that.

1 Q And when did you live with Michael's
2 parents?
3 A Well, I lived with Michael's parents
4 before I lived with Michael in his apartment.
5 Q And that was an apartment that Michael
6 rented?
7 A Michael and his friend. I can't remember
8 his friend's name. Mario, I think his friend's name
9 was.
10 Q When did you live with Tony and Crystal
11 Figueroa as parents?
12 A That was just a brief stint. I didn't
13 really stay there very long, but it was -- I was a
14 runaway. That's in between times of -- I don't know.
15 Q How old were you?
16 A I don't know.
17 Q I just want to be clear. Michael rented
18 an apartment that you moved into that he had rented,
19 correct?
20 A Correct.
21 Q And that was after you had lived with 22 Michael and his parents, correct?
23 A Yes.
24 Q And that was prior to you and Michael 25 living with your parents when you started working at

1 Mar-a-Lago, correct?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Do I have that sequence right?
4 A So far, yes.
5 Q And when did you stop living at your
6 parents' at the time you started working at 7 Mar-a-Lago? How long after you started at Mar-a-Lago
8 do you stop living with your parents?
9 A I don't know exact dates. I was traveling
10 with Jeffrey a lot, and I was making -- he was giving 11 me lots of money for the sex that I had with him and
12 Ghislaine.
13 And after, I would say, a short time --
14 I'm not too sure, darling, I don't know.
15 Q All right. Can you --
16 MS. MENNINGER: I have no recollection of 17 which number we're on in terms of exhibit.
18 MS. RODRIGUEZ: 15.
19 Q (MS. MENNINGER) Okay. I'd like to mark
20 as Defendant's Exhibit 15 a document and see if you
21 can identify it.
22 Actually, before I do that, when do you
23 recall ever getting a passport?
24 A I got my passport in New York. I don't
25 know what age I was.

1 Q Okay. And did you -- how did you get it?
2 Did you go somewhere or what happened?
3 A Jeffrey had me fill out paperwork and go
4 to a Kodak shop or something similar of a Kodak shop
5 and get my picture taken. I gave him my picture and
6 my paperwork. He sent it away. And I think a week
7 later he said he got it expedited.
8 Q Did you physically go to an office in New
9 York?
10 A Jeffrey's office.
11 Q An office associated with Immigration or 12 Homeland Security or whatever it was called back
13 then?
14 A Not that I recall.
15 Q And do you know how old you were?
16 A No. I don't know how old you have to be
17 to get a passport, so I'm not too sure.
18 (Exhibit 15 marked.)
19 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. I'm going to
20 show you Defendant's Exhibit 15.
21 Do you recognize this document?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Is this document the passport application
24 that you filled out?
25 A Yes.

1 Q Is it in your handwriting?
2 A Yes.
3 Q All right. What did you put down as your
4 address at this time to mail the passport to? It's
5 about the second line -- third line.
6 A Number 13?
7 Q Well, the third line says, Mail passport
8 to. What address did you put down?
9 A Are we talking about number 13, Permanent
10 address, do not list P.O. box, street?
11 Q No, I'm talking about the third line in 12 the entire thing that says, Mail passport to.
13 A Oh, I'm sorry, up here, the [REDACTED]
14 [REDACTED]
15 [REDACTED]
16 Q All right. So you asked to have the 17 passport mailed to you at your parents' address,
18 right?
19 A I don't know if it was mailed to my 20 parents' house, but that's the address I sent -- put 21 down, yes.
22 Q Okay. And if you look a little bit
23 further to the right, roughly equal with that line,
24 do you see a date that's stamped on there?
25 A Yeah, January 12th, 2001.

1 Q Okay. And then if you go down a little
2 bit further, as you pointed out, line number 13, you
3 gave your permanent address as your parents' address,
4 again, correct?
5 A Correct.
6 Q If you look at box number 12 where it asks
7 for occupation, what did you write down?
8 A Masseuse.
9 Q Okay. If you look at line number 18, Have 10 you ever been issued a U.S. passport before, what did
11 you put down?
12 A No.
13 Q All right. And if you go down a little 14 bit further than that, emergency contact, who did you
15 put down?
16 A James Austrich, who is Michael.
17 Q Okay. So is that the fiancé you were 18 talking about earlier?
19 A Yes.
20 Q In January of 2001 were you still his 21 affianced?
22 A Looks like it, yes.
23 Q And what address did you put down for 24 James Austrich?
25 A It's kind of hard to read. I think that's

1 a 3. I think it's [REDACTED]
2 [REDACTED]. I really can't make out
3 the telephone number.
4 Q Okay. Do you see Relationship? Can you
5 read that?
6 A Friend.
7 Q Okay. Do you see just below that there's
8 a line that says number 21?
9 A Do not stop -- sorry, Do not sign
10 application until requested to do so by
11 administering an oath.
12 Q Okay.
13 A Applicant's signature age 13 or older.
14 Q Oh, it's by the signature line?
15 A Yeah.
16 Q And that's your signature?
17 A Yes.
18 Q All right. And this is the document that
19 you recall filling out for your first passport?
20 A I don't recall doing it, but yes, it's in 21 my handwriting and it's got all of my information on
22 it.
23 Q Okay. And on line -- box 23 it's got your
24 driver's license checked off, right?
25 A July 23. Yeah, I really can't make out

1 numbers and stuff, though.
2 Q But the box, Driver's License is checked
3 off?
4 A Yes.
5 Q Okay. And then if you look in the lower
6 right-hand corner of the page, do you see what we
7 call a Bates stamp number? I don't know if you know
8 what that means.
9 A No.
10 Q Just the lower right-hand corner of the
11 document.
12 A Giuffre 004721?
13 Q Okay. Thank you.
14 So at January 2001 was James Austrich
15 living at Bent, I think you said, Cak Circle?
16 A Well, he would have had to have been if I
17 put it down there.
18 Q Okay. Was that the apartment that he had
19 rented?
20 A No, it's in Royal Palm Beach. The 21 apartment he rented was in Fort Lauderdale. So this 22 could be my apartment that he lived at with me.
23 Q Okay. So his apartment where he lived
24 with you was in Royal Palm Beach?
25 A Yes.

Q And he rented that apartment?

MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
Mischaracterization.

A He lived there with me for a short period.
I don't -- I don't know how long he lived there with me for.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And who rented the apartment?

A Well, Jeffrey paid for the apartment. I was the occupant, and he was an occupant.

Q Did you ever see the lease?

A Yes, I believe I had to sign the paperwork saying that I was living there.

Q So you were living at -- is it [REDACTED]

A I can't honestly read it. It looks like a
C-a-c (sic), but that doesn't make sense.

Q So January of 2001 you signed a document under oath putting James Austrich's address at Bent something Circle, right?

A Yes.

Q And you put your permanent address and your mail your passport to at your parents' address --

A Yes.

Q -- is that right?

And it's your position that that is the apartment that Jeffrey paid for and you signed a lease?

A Yes, Jeffrey paid for it and I think I had to sign something that said I was going to occupy it.
I don't know if James ever did.

Q Okay. And you stayed at that apartment from at least January 2001 until you left in the fall of 2002, right?

A I would say before then, yes. Like I said, I can't really tell you the exact date that I moved there, but --

Q Why did you have your passport sent to your parent's house if you weren't living at your parents' house?

A Um, I don't know. I guess a fail-safe.
I'm not too sure.

Q When was the next passport that you got?

A I think I had to reapply for one in -- well, this one expired in 2002. So I would have had to apply for another one.

Q I'm asking do you remember when you got another passport?

A This expired January 10th, 2002.

Q Let me have you put the paper down.

A Yes.

Q Do you recall applying for another passport?

A No.

Q Okay. Do you recall ever applying for another passport, ever?

A Well, yeah, when I got to Australia I had to -- I don't have it on me right now, but I could tell you it's -- I had to apply for another one because the other one ran out as expiree.

Q So whenever one expired, you applied for another one from the U.S.?

A (Indicating.)

Q Have you ever gotten -- Is that right?

A Yeah.

Q Have you ever gotten a passport from Australia?

A An Australian passport?

Q Right.

A No.

Q Have you ever lost a passport and had to get one replaced?

A I don't think so.

Q When was the first time that you came back to the U.S. from Australia?

A October 16th, 2013.

Q And did you come back before that?

A No.

Q Did you ever tell Sharon Churcher or Sharon White or Marianne Strong that you were going on a trip to New York in 2011?

A No.

Q Is it your contention that Ghislaine Maxwell sexually trafficked you to famous people?

A If you have a document in front of you that you could show me so I could see what you're talking about, yes.

Q I'm asking you, is it your contention that Ghislaine Maxwell sexually trafficked you to famous people?

A Could you be more specific, like are we talking about rock stars or royalty or --

Q Politically connected and financially powerful people.

A Yes.

Q Okay. To whom did Ghislaine Maxwell sexually traffic you?

A You have to understand that Jeffrey and

1 Ghislaine are joined hip by hip, okay? So they both
2 trafficked me. Ghislaine brought me in for the
3 purpose of being trafficked. Jeffrey was just as a
4 part of it as she was. She was just as a part of it
5 as he was. They trafficked me to many people. And
6 to be honest, there is people I could name and then
7 there's people that are just a blur. There was so
8 much happening.

9 Q Okay. Please name a person that Ghislaine
10 Maxwell directed you to go have sex with?

11 A Prince Andrew.

12 Q Okay. Who else?

13 A As a whole, they both trafficked me to 14 people. It was under both of their direction. So
15 it's not easy just to say Ghislaine. When I say
16 they, I mean both of them.

17 Q Okay. Well, I need you to say a time when 18 Ghislaine Maxwell directed you to go have sex with 19 another person. So can you please tell me to whom 20 Ghislaine Maxwell asked you to go have sex with 21 another person?

22 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

23 A Glenn Dubin.

24 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Who else?

25 A I'm going to continue to tell you that

1 they both directed me to do it. It was part of my
2 training. They both told me, you've got tickets to 3 go here. This is who you're meeting, and this is 4 what you're doing.

5 So [REDACTED] is another one.

6 Q Ghislaine Maxwell directed you to go have
7 sex with [REDACTED] ?

8 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form to the 9 extent it mischaracterized her testimony.

10 A I'm trying to tell you that they both did,
11 Ghislaine and Jeffrey both directed me. They both 12 paid me and they both directed me.

13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. When did
14 Ghislaine Maxwell direct you to go have sex with
15 [REDACTED] ?

16 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form. Same
17 objection.

18 A I don't know the time. I don't -- you
19 know, I could tell you the place. I don't know the
20 time.

21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) What words did
22 Ghislaine Maxwell use in talking to you and asking
23 you to go have sex with [REDACTED] ?

24 A We're sending you to a gentleman. We want
25 you to show him a good time. We want you to do

1 exactly what you would do for Jeffrey to him. Keep
2 him happy. I can't remember her exact words, and I'm
3 not going to put words in my mouth to make it sound
4 like what she said. But it was all along those 5 lines.

6 Q Those are words that Ghislaine Maxwell
7 used to you in directing you to go have sex with
8 [REDACTED]

9 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
10 Mischaracterized her testimony.

11 A Along those lines, yes.

12 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. Where were you
13 located when she used those words with you?

14 A It could have been Palm Beach. It could 15 have been New York.

16 Q You don't recall?

17 A I don't recall.

18 Q Okay. How old were you when she used
19 those words to you?

20 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

21 Mischaracterizes her testimony.

22 A I don't know. I would think I was 17.

23 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) But you're not sure?

24 A Well, it was in the beginning, like after 25 my training. Glenn Dubin and [REDACTED] were

1 the two first people I was sent out to.

2 Q Okay. Well, I was asking about [REDACTED]
3 [REDACTED] okay?

4 A Right. That's what I'm saying. If you
5 want me to categorically tell you when it happened
6 and why I think I was 17, because those were the two
7 first people I was sent to.

8 Q So you don't actually recall the 9 conversation regarding [REDACTED] ? You don't
10 recall where you were, right?

11 A I can't picture if it was New -- I know it
12 was either New York or Palm Beach. I don't remember
13 exactly which one.

14 Q You don't recall exactly what words were 15 used by Ghislaine Maxwell in speaking to you,
16 correct?

17 A I remember the tone that she used, the 18 type of words that she used. I can't word for word
19 replay what she said.

20 Q All right. And so when in time was 21 [REDACTED] relative to Prince Andrew?

22 A [REDACTED] was months, six months,
23 I'm not too sure.

24 Q Six months what?

25 A Before Prince Andrew. I don't know, I

1 think I met Prince Andrew in 2001. And Glenn Dubin
2 and Stephen Kaufmann were, like I said, the first
3 people I was sent out to after my training. So I
4 don't know. I'm not going to give you an exact time
5 if I don't know it.

6 Q I asked you the relative order.

7 A And I'm trying to give you it.

8 Q And where does Alan Dershowitz fit into 9 that group of people?

10 A Same. I can't tell you piece by piece by 11 piece who -- I know Glenn Dubin was first.

12 Q Okay.

13 A And I know Stephen Kaufmann was one of the 14 first I was sent to. Alan Dershowitz could have been 15 between there. Between, sorry, between Glenn and 16 Stephen. The first time I was with Alan Dershowitz
17 was in New York, so I wasn't actually sent to him.
18 It actually happened at one of Jeffrey's residences.

19 (Ms. McCawley left the deposition.)

20 A So it's very hard for me to 21 chronologically give you each person individually.

22 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. Name the other
23 politically connected and financially powerful people
24 that Ghislaine Maxwell told you to go have sex with?

25 A Again, I'm going to tell you "they"

1 because that's how it went. They instructed me to go
2 to George Mitchell, Jean Luc Brunel, Bill Richardson,
3 another prince that I don't know his name. A guy
4 that owns a hotel, a really large hotel chain, I
5 can't remember which hotel it was. Marvin Minsky.

6 There was, you know, another foreign
7 president, I can't remember his name. He was
8 Spanish. There's a whole bunch of them that I
9 just -- it's hard for me to remember all of them.
10 You know, I was told to do something by these people
11 constantly, told to -- my whole life revolved around
12 just pleasing these men and keeping Ghislaine and 13 Jeffrey happy. Their whole entire lives revolved
14 around sex.

15 They call massages sex. They call
16 modeling sex. They call --

17 Q I asked you the names for people. Are you
18 going to tell me any other names or is that all of 19 them?

20 A I'm trying to think. That's the answer
21 I'm trying to give to you. It's that it's so hard to 22 just keep naming and naming and naming.

23 Q All right.

24 A A lot of times I would be introduced to 25 them. I didn't know --

1 Q If you're going to tell me more names,
2 please continue your answer.

3 A I'm trying to think.

4 Q If you're just going to talk --

5 A I'm sorry. I'm trying to think.

6 Q Okay. Let's take a break and then you can
7 think over the break.

8 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're off the record at 9 2:01.

10 (Recess taken from 2:01 p.m. to 2:09 p.m.)

11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the
12 record at 2:09.

13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Ms. Giuffre, you have 14 filed a lawsuit against Ghislaine Maxwell, correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q You understand her to be my client,
17 correct?

18 A Yes.

19 Q I'm here today to talk to you about your
20 allegations against Ghislaine Maxwell.

21 Do you understand that?

22 A Yes.

23 Q I want you to tell me a single time that 24 you recall Ghislaine Maxwell using words to you and 25 directing you to go have sex with another person --

1 MR. EDWARDS: Object.

2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) -- not anybody else,
3 Ghislaine Maxwell?

4 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. Asked and
5 answered.

6 To the extent that she can answer the
7 question, I'd ask that she answer the question.

8 A I have answered the question. The 9 question that you're asking me is Ghislaine. And 10 Ghislaine and Jeffrey worked together. They were one
11 and the same of persons. They both directed me to do
12 this. They both directed me to report back to them.
13 They were both the same.

14 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You cannot recall a 15 single instance in which Ghislaine --

16 A I have to --

17 Q Excuse me.
18 -- in which Ghislaine Maxwell alone
19 directed you to have sex with another person --

20 A I have to --

21 Q -- correct?

22 A -- believe --

23 MR. EDWARDS: Object.

24 MS. MENNINGER: I am going to finish my
25 question.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Correct?

MR. EDWARDS: Are you finished with your question?

MS. MENNINGER: Now you may make your objection. And then she may answer.

MR. EDWARDS: Okay. Objection. Argumentative. Harassing for absolutely no reason. Mischaracterizing the witness's testimony.

Answer, if you can.

A I have given you the names of the people that Ghislaine herself has told me to go be sex trafficked to, along with Jeffrey Epstein, okay?

She's the one who brought me to Jeffrey Epstein to be trafficked in the fucking first place.

So I have given you as much information as I possibly can to let you know what she was about, who she told me to go with, what she wanted me to do. That is what I am stating and that's what I previously stated to you.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And these names that you have just given are people to whom Ghislaine Maxwell alone told you to go have sex?

MR. EDWARDS: Objection. Mischaracterization.

A Ghislaine and Jeffrey, I don't know how many times you want me to keep answering this question. Both told me to do this, okay? They both sent me to these people.

How many times do you want me to answer this?

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I think you're answering a different question so that's why I'm going to ask you again. I am not asking you anything about a time when Jeffrey and Ghislaine together told you to go do something. I'm asking you to name a single time during which Ghislaine Maxwell acting alone directed you to go have sex with another person?

MR. EDWARDS: Objection. Asked and answered. Harassing. Argumentative.

A I've given you the names of the people that Ghislaine instructed me to go have sexual relations with. I am not discluding (sic) the fact that Jeffrey also told me.

Ghislaine told me from her mouth to do these things. Jeffrey told me from his mouth to do these things with these people. Ghislaine instructed me to do the things that I did with Jeffrey Epstein on the very first meeting that I had with him. She brought me there under the preclusion (sic) that I was going to be trained as a masseuse and that she instructed me to take off my clothes and to give oral sex to Jeffrey Epstein.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Excuse me. I've asked you for the names.

A I've just given you a name. Jeffrey Epstein is a big name.

Q All right.

A She instructed me on that one.

Q So you're saying --

MR. EDWARDS: The witness is finishing her answer right now. She's in the process of explaining one of the people Ghislaine told her to have sex with.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) So you're saying Ghislaine Maxwell directed you to have sex with Jeffrey Epstein?

A Correct.

Q Ghislaine Maxwell directed you to have sex with Glenn Dubin?

A Correct.

Q What words did Ghislaine Maxwell tell you to go have sex with Glenn Dubin?

A It was the same all the time, all right?

They want me to go provide these men with a massage.

And when they say massage, that means erotic, okay? That's their term for it. I think there are plenty of other witnesses that can attest to what massage actually means.

And I'm telling you that Ghislaine told me to go to Glenn Dubin and give him a massage, which means sex.

Q Okay. So Glenn -- Ghislaine Maxwell told you to go give a massage to Glenn Dubin?

A Correct.

Q That's your testimony?

A That is my testimony.

Q All right. Ghislaine Maxwell told you to go give a massage to [REDACTED], correct?

A Correct.

Q Ghislaine Maxwell told you to give a massage to Prince Andrew, correct?

A Correct.

Q Ghislaine Maxwell told you to give a massage to Bill Richardson, correct?

A Correct.

Q When did Ghislaine Maxwell tell you to give a massage to Bill Richardson?

A I don't know dates.

Q Where were you?

1 A When it happened?

2 Q When Ghislaine Maxwell used the words, Go
3 give a massage to Bill Richardson, where were you?

4 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

5 Mischaracterizes her testimony.

6 A I can't tell you where we were. I know
7 where I was sent to. I don't know where we were when
8 she told me to do that.

9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Where were you sent
10 to --

11 A New Mexico.

12 Q -- by Ghislaine Maxwell?

13 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

14 Mischaracterizes her testimony again.

15 A Are you smiling at me because --

16 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) No, I'm asking you to
17 answer the question.

18 A I have answered the question. I was sent
19 to New Mexico.

20 Q Okay. Where were you sent from?

21 A I already answered that. I don't know
22 where I was sent from.

23 Q Okay.

24 A I was flying everywhere with these people.

25 Q Where were you sent by Ghislaine Maxwell

1 to have sex with Jean Luc Brunel?

2 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

3 Mischaracterized her testimony.

4 A Many places.

5 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Ghislaine Maxwell sent
6 you to many places to have sex with Jean Luc Brunel?

7 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

8 A It happened at many places, yes.

9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You had sex with Jean
10 Luc Brunel at many places is what you're saying,
11 correct?

12 A I was sent to Jean Luc Brunel at many
13 places to have sex with him.

14 Q When did Ghislaine Maxwell send you to a
15 place to have sex with Jean Luc Brunel?

16 A You are asking --

17 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

18 A -- me to answer the impossible.

19 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. When did
20 Ghislaine Maxwell send you to have sex with the owner
21 of a large hotel chain?

22 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

23 Mischaracterization.

24 A I'm going to keep answering the questions
25 the same way that I keep answering them. I don't

1 know where it was when she said to go do this.

2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. Where were you
3 sent to have sex with the owner of a large hotel
4 chain by Ghislaine Maxwell?

5 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

6 A I believe that was one time in France.

7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Which time in France?

8 A I believe it was around the same time that
9 Naomi Campbell had a birthday party.

10 Q Where did you have sex with the owner of a
11 large hotel chain in France around the time of Naomi
12 Campbell's birthday party?

13 A In his own cabana townhouse thing. It was
14 part of a hotel, but I wouldn't call it a hotel.

15 Jeffrey was staying there. Ghislaine was
16 staying there. Emmy was staying there. I was
17 staying there. This other guy was staying there. I
18 don't know his name.

19 I was instructed by Ghislaine to go and
20 give him an erotic massage.

21 Q She used the words erotic massage?

22 A No, that's my word. The word massage is
23 what they would use. That's their code word.

24 Q Was she in the room when you gave this
25 erotic massage to the owner of a large hotel chain?

1 A No, she was not in the room. She was in
2 another cabana.

3 Q And other than telling you to go give the
4 owner of this large hotel chain a massage, do you
5 remember any other words she used to you to direct
6 you in what you should do?

7 A Not at the time, no.

8 Q Where did -- where were you and where was
9 Ms. Maxwell when she directed you to go have sex with
10 Marvin Minsky?

11 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

12 A I don't know.

13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Where did you go to
14 have sex with Marvin Minsky?

15 A I believe it was the U.S. Virgin Islands,
16 Jeff's -- sorry, Jeffrey Epstein's island in the U.S.
17 Virgin Islands.

18 Q And when was that?

19 A I don't know.

20 Q Do you have any time of year?

21 A No.

22 Q Do you know how old you were?

23 A No.

24 Q Other than Glenn Dubin, Stephen Kaufmann,
25 Prince Andrew, Jean Luc Brunel, Bill Richardson,

1 another prince, the large hotel chain owner and
 2 Marvin Minsky, is there anyone else that Ghislaine
 3 Maxwell directed you to go have sex with?

4 A I am definitely sure there is. But can I
 5 remember everybody's name? No.

6 Q Okay. Can you remember anything else
 7 about them?

8 A Look, I've given you what I know right
 9 now. I'm sorry. This is very hard for me and very
 10 frustrating to have to go over this. I don't -- I
 11 don't recall all of the people. There was a large
 12 amount of people that I was sent to.

13 Q Do you have any notes of all these people
 14 that you were sent to?

15 A No, I don't.

16 Q Where are your notes?

17 A I burned them.

18 Q When did you burn them?

19 A In a bonfire when I lived at Titusville
 20 because I was sick of going through this shit.

21 Q Did you have lawyers who were representing
 22 you at the time you built a bonfire and burned these
 23 notes?

24 A I've been represented for a long time, but
 25 it was not under the instruction of my lawyers to do

1 this. My husband and I were pretty spiritual people
 2 and we believed that these memories were worth
 3 burning.

4 Q So you burned notes of the men with whom
 5 you had sex while you were represented by counsel in
 6 litigation, correct?

7 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

8 A This wasn't anything that was a public
 9 document. This was my own private journal, and I
 10 didn't want it anymore. So we burned it.

11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) When did you write
 12 that journal?

13 A Just over time. I started writing it
 14 probably in, I don't know, I can't speculate, 2012,
 15 2011.

16 Q So you did not write this journal at the 17 time it happened?

18 A No.

19 Q You started writing this journal
 20 approximately a decade after you claim you finished
 21 being sexually trafficked, correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And you started writing a journal after
 24 you had a lawyer, correct?

25 A Correct.

1 Q Including Mr. Edwards, who is sitting
 2 right here, correct?

3 A Correct.

4 Q What did that journal look like?

5 A It was green.

6 Q And what else?

7 A It was just a spiral notebook.

8 Q Okay. And what did you put into that
 9 green spiral notebook?

10 A Bad memories. Things that I've gone
 11 through, lots of things, you know. I can't tell you.
 12 There was a lot of pages. It was over 300 pages in
 13 that book.

14 Q Did you ever show that book to your
 15 lawyers?

16 A No.

17 Q Did you show that book to anyone?

18 A My husband.

19 Q Did you show it to anyone else besides
 20 your husband?

21 A No.

22 Q Did you tear out pages and give them to
 23 Sharon Churcher?

24 A No, I wrote -- those pages that you're
 25 talking about, I wrote for her specifically. She

1 wanted to know about the Prince Andrew incident.

2 Q So that's a different piece of paper?

3 A Yeah, that's just random paper.

4 Q So you had a green spiral notebook that
 5 you began sometime in 2011 or 2012 in which you wrote
 6 down your recollections about what had happened to
 7 you, and you burned that in a bonfire in 2013.

8 Did I get that right?

9 A You got that right.

10 Q And do you have no other names of people
 11 to whom you claim Ghislaine Maxwell directed you to 12 have sex, correct?

13 A At this time, no.

14 Q Is there any document that would refresh
 15 your recollection that you could look at?

16 A If you have a document you'd like to show
 17 me, I would be glad to look at it and tell you the
 18 names I recognize off of that.

19 Q I'm just asking you if there's a document
 20 you know of that has this list of names in it?

21 A Not in front of me, no.

22 Q Where is the original of the photograph
 23 that has been widely circulated in the press of you
 24 with Prince Andrew?

25 A I probably still have it. It's not in my

1 possession right now.

2 Q Where is it?

3 A Probably in some storage boxes.

4 Q Where?

5 A In Sydney.

6 Q Where in Sydney?

7 A At some family's house. We got the boxes

8 shipped to Australia, and they were picked up off the

9 porch by my nephews and brought to their house.

10 Q Which is where?

11 A In Sydney.

12 Q Where in Sydney?

13 A [REDACTED]

14 Q And who lives in that house?

15 A Well, it's owned by my mother-in-law and

16 father-in-law, but my nephews live in the house.

17 Q What are their names?

18 A I'm not giving you the names of my

19 nephews.

20 Q What's the address of the house?

21 A Why would you want that?

22 Q I want to know where the photograph is.

23 I'm asking you where the photograph is. And you've

24 just told me it's somewhere in [REDACTED] ?

25 A Yes.

1 Q So where in [REDACTED] is the photograph

2 located?

3 A If I can't 100 percent say that the

4 photograph is there, it could be at my house that I

5 presently live in. I'm not going to give you the

6 address of my nephews' residence.

7 Q When is the last time you saw the

8 photograph in person?

9 A When I packed and left America.

10 Q Colorado?

11 A Yes.

12 Q All right. So you had that photograph

13 here with you in Colorado?

14 A Yes.

15 Q What's on the back of the photograph?

16 A I'm sorry?

17 Q Is there anything on the back of the

18 photograph?

19 A There's like the date it was printed, but

20 no writing or anything.

21 Q Okay. Does it say where it was printed?

22 A I don't believe so. I think it just -- I

23 don't remember. I just remember there's a date on

24 it.

25 Q Whose camera was it taken with?

1 A My little yellow Kodak camera.

2 Q Who took the picture?

3 A Jeffrey Epstein.

4 Q And where did you have it developed?

5 A I believe when I got back to America.

6 Q So where?

7 A I don't know.

8 Q Palm Beach?

9 A I don't know.

10 Q What is the date the photograph was

11 printed?

12 A I believe it's in March 2001.

13 Q Okay.

14 A But that's just off of my photographic

15 memory. I don't -- it could be different, but I

16 think it's March 2001.

17 Q You have a photographic memory?

18 A I'm not saying I have a photographic

19 memory. But if I'd look at the back of the photo and

20 I remember what it says, I believe it was March 2001.

21 Q Did the photograph ever leave your

22 possession for a while?

23 A I gave it to the FBI.

24 Q Okay. And when did you get it back?

25 A When they took copies of it.

1 Q When was that?

2 A 2011.

3 Q When they came to interview you?

4 A Yes.

5 Q So from 2011 until you left Colorado it

6 was in your personal possession?

7 A Yes.

8 Q What other documents related to this case

9 are in that, storage boxes in Australia?

10 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

11 A Documents related to this case -- there --

12 I don't know. I really can't tell you. I mean,

13 there's seven boxes full of Nerf guns, my kids' toys,

14 photos. I don't know what other documents would be

15 in there.

16 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did anyone search

17 those documents after you received discovery requests

18 from us in this case?

19 A I haven't been able to obtain those boxes.

20 I can't get them sent back up to me. It's going to

21 cost me a large amount of money. And right now I'm

22 trying to look after my family, so I'm not able to

23 afford to get them up.

24 Q You live in Australia, correct?

25 A I do.

1 Q Okay. How far away are the boxes from
2 where you live in Australia?
3 A Sydney is down here at the bottom. Cairns
4 is up here at the top.
5 Q Okay.
6 A It's probably a six-day drive.
7 Q Did you fly here through Sydney?
8 A No.
9 Q Have you been to Sydney since you've moved
10 back to Australia?
11 A I flew into Sydney with my three kids, but
12 it was a connecting flight to Brisbane.
13 Q Did you ask your nephews or anyone else to
14 search those boxes in response to discovery requests
15 that we issued in this case?
16 A They are my nephews. I would never let
17 them look at those.
18 Q Other than your green spiral notebook,
19 what else did you burn in this bonfire in 2013?
20 A That was it.
21 Q That's the only thing?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Did you use wood?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Charcoal?

1 A My husband built the bonfire out of wood
2 and I don't know what else he put in it. He's the
3 one who always makes the fires, not me.
4 Q Who else was present?
5 A Just him and I.
6 Q Were your kids there?
7 A No. They were inside sleeping.
8 Q And what beach was this?
9 A It wasn't a beach. It was in my backyard.
10 Q What's your address?
11 A At that time?
12 Q Um-hum.
13 A [REDACTED].
14 Q [REDACTED]
15 A Yes.
16 Q Who were your neighbors?
17 A Sweet people. Ray and -- I could look on
18 my phone if you want.
19 Q No, thank you. Do they still live there?
20 A Yes.
21 Q Do you keep in touch with them?
22 A Last time I talked to them was a few
23 months ago.
24 Q Did they see the fire?
25 A They've seen many fires that we've had.

1 We've had lots of bonfires there.
2 Q Did you ever ride in a helicopter with
3 Ghislaine Maxwell acting as pilot of the helicopter?
4 A Yes.
5 Q Who else was on the flight?
6 A I've been on the helicopter with her
7 plenty of times. I can't mention how many people
8 were on the -- on the helicopter at the same time.
9 Q How many times?
10 A I don't know. Do you have helicopter
11 records that you could show me?
12 Q I'm asking you how many times you were on 13 the helicopter with Ghislaine Maxwell acting as the
14 pilot --
15 A It's impossible for me to answer the
16 question without having the actual physical records
17 in front of me.
18 Q I'm asking you to look into your memory
19 and tell me how many times you recall being on a
20 helicopter with Ghislaine Maxwell at the pilot seat?
21 A There is no number I can give you.
22 There's plenty of times I've been on her helicopter.
23 Q Where did you go from and to on a
24 helicopter?
25 A I believe it was -- don't quote me on this

1 because I get confused on the islands there. I want
2 to say it was St. John's. It could have been
3 St. Barts. St. John or St. Barts, and then we would
4 fly straight to Jeffrey's island.
5 Q Okay. Did you ever go anywhere else on
6 the helicopter?
7 A No.
8 Q Were you ever on the helicopter with Bill
9 Clinton and Ghislaine Maxwell as the pilot of the 10 helicopter?
11 A No.
12 Q Were you ever on the helicopter with Bill
13 Clinton's Secret Service and Ghislaine Maxwell as the 14 pilot?
15 A No.
16 Q Do you recall telling Sharon Churcher that
17 you were?
18 A No.
19 Q Did you see the press article in which
20 Sharon Churcher reported that you were?
21 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. I'd just ask
22 that if you're going to ask this witness about a
23 specific article I'd like for her to see the article.
24 Otherwise she's not going to testify about it.
25 If you have something to show her, then,

1 please.

2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recall seeing a
3 press article in which Sharon Churcher reported that
4 you were on a helicopter with Bill Clinton and
5 Ghislaine Maxwell as the pilot?

6 MR. EDWARDS: Again, I'll let you answer
7 the question once she's looking at the document that
8 you're being asked about.

9 MS. MENNINGER: You're not letting her
10 answer a question about whether she recalls a
11 particular press statement?

12 MR. EDWARDS: I will let her answer every
13 question about the press statement as long as she
14 sees the press statement. I'm okay with that. She
15 can answer all of them.

16 MS. MENNINGER: No, there is a rule of
17 civil procedure that allows you to direct a witness
18 not to answer a question when there's a claim of
19 privilege.

20 What privilege are you claiming to direct
21 her not to answer this question?

22 MR. EDWARDS: I thought that you wanted
23 accurate answers from this witness. If the --

24 MS. MENNINGER: I asked her if she
25 recalled something --

1 MR. EDWARDS: If the sole purpose is to
2 just to harass her --

3 MS. MENNINGER: I asked her if she
4 recalled something --

5 MR. EDWARDS: Then that's just not going
6 to be what's happening today.

7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. So you're
8 refusing to answer a question about whether you
9 recall a particular press statement --

10 MR. EDWARDS: She's --

11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) -- is that true?

12 MR. EDWARDS: She is not refusing to
13 answer any questions. She --

14 A I'm not refusing to answer. I just want
15 to see the article you're talking about so I can be
16 clear in my statement.

17 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recall seeing a
18 press article written by Sharon Churcher reporting
19 that you flew on a helicopter with Bill Clinton and
20 Ghislaine Maxwell as the pilot?

21 A No, I do not recall reading a press
22 article saying that I was on a helicopter with Bill
23 Clinton as Ghislaine is the pilot.

24 Q Do you recall telling Sharon Churcher that
25 you had conversations with Bill Clinton regarding him

1 flying on a helicopter with Ghislaine Maxwell?

2 A I believe that it was taken out of
3 context. Ghislaine told me that she flew Bill
4 Clinton in. And Ghislaine likes to talk a lot of
5 stuff that sounds fantastical. And whether it's true
6 or not, that is what I do recall telling Sharon
7 Churcher.

8 Q So you told Sharon Churcher that Ghislaine
9 Maxwell is the one who told you that she flew Bill
10 Clinton in the helicopter?

11 A I told Sharon Churcher that Ghislaine flew
12 Bill Clinton onto the island, based upon what
13 Ghislaine had told me.

14 Q Not based upon what Bill Clinton had told
15 you, correct?

16 A Correct.

17 Q Did you ever ask Sharon Churcher to
18 correct anything that was printed under her name,
19 concerning your stories to Sharon Churcher?

20 A I wasn't given those stories to read
21 before they were printed.

22 Q After they were printed did you read them?

23 A I tried to stay away from them. They were
24 very hard. You have to understand it was a very hard
25 time for me and my husband to have to have this

1 public -- we didn't think it was going to be this
2 publicly announced and that big. So we turned off
3 the news and we stopped reading so many things.

4 Q You didn't read the articles about your
5 stories to Sharon Churcher --

6 A I've read some articles --

7 Q Let me just finish. You did not read the
8 articles published by Sharon Churcher about your
9 stories to Sharon Churcher?

10 A I have read some articles about what
11 Sharon Churcher wrote. And a lot of the stuff that
12 she writes she takes things from my own mouth and
13 changes them into her own words as journalists do.

14 And I never came back to her and told her
15 to correct anything. What was done was done. There
16 was nothing else I can do.

17 Q So even if she printed something that were
18 untrue you didn't ask her to correct it, correct?

19 A There was things that she printed that
20 really pissed me off, but there was nothing I could
21 do about it. It's already out there.

22 Q She printed things that were untrue,
23 correct?

24 MR. EDWARDS: Objection to the form.
25 Mischaracterization.

1 A I wouldn't say that they were untrue. I
2 would just say that she printed them as journalists
3 take your words and turn them into something else.

4 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) She got it wrong?

5 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

6 Mischaracterization.

7 A In some ways, yes.

8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did she print things
9 in her articles that you did not say to her?

10 MR. EDWARDS: I object and ask that the
11 witness be given the opportunity to see the document
12 so that she can review it and answer that question
13 accurately. Otherwise she's unable to answer the
14 question. I'm not going to allow her to answer.

15 MS. MENNINGER: You know the civil rules
16 tell you not to suggest answers to your client.

17 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And you understand
18 your lawyer is now directing you to not all of a
19 sudden remember what your answer is. That's what
20 he's suggesting that you say. So you're not supposed
21 to listen to him suggest that to you. You're
22 supposed to tell me from your memory.

23 MR. EDWARDS: That is not what I'm --

24 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did you --

25 MR. EDWARDS: That's not what I'm doing.

1 You don't get to just talk over me and
2 tell my client when not to listen to me. All you
3 have to do to get answers is show her the document
4 you're talking about, and I'll let her answer every
5 question. I don't know why we're so scared of the 6 actual documents.

7 MS. MENNINGER: I don't know why you're
8 scared of your client's recollection, Mr. Edwards.
9 But anyway --

10 MR. EDWARDS: Why would you do this to
11 her?

12 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did Sharon Churcher
13 print things that you did not say?

14 MR. EDWARDS: I'm going to instruct my
15 client not to answer unless you give her what it is 16 that you're talking about that was printed. And she
17 will tell you the answer, the accurate answer to your
18 question. Just without the document to refresh her
19 recollection and see it, she's not going to answer
20 the question.

21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did Sharon Churcher
22 print things that you did not say?

23 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
24 instruction not to answer.

25 I think I've made a very clear record as

1 to why I want my client to answer all of these
2 questions, but I want her to have the fair
3 opportunity to see this document.

4 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did Sharon Churcher
5 print things that you felt were inaccurate?

6 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
7 instruction. If she sees the document, she's going
8 to answer every one of these questions.

9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did any other reporter
10 print statements that you believe are inaccurate?

11 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
12 instruction.

13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did any reporter print
14 statements about Ghislaine Maxwell that were
15 inaccurate?

16 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
17 instruction.

18 This is harassing. This is harassing a
19 sexual abuse victim. And all I'm asking is for 20 fairness, that we just let her see the document so
21 she can answer this.

22 MS. MENNINGER: Mr. Edwards, please stop
23 saying anything other than an objection, what the
24 basis is, or instructing your client not to answer.

25 MR. EDWARDS: I will do that.

1 MS. MENNINGER: That's what the Federal
2 Rules of Civil Procedure provide.

3 MR. EDWARDS: I hear you. They also
4 provide for fairness and civility. And all I'm
5 asking, very calmly, is for her to see this.

6 MS. MENNINGER: Mr. Edwards, this is not
7 your deposition. I'm asking your client what she
8 remembers. If she doesn't want to talk about what
9 she remembers, then let her not answer. But you
10 cannot instruct her not to answer unless there's a
11 privilege.

12 What privilege --

13 MR. EDWARDS: I am instructing her not to
14 answer.

15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. You are
16 refusing to answer questions about whether statements
17 to the press about Ghislaine Maxwell attributed to
18 you were inaccurate?

19 MR. EDWARDS: She's not refusing not to
20 answer.

21 A You are refusing to show me these
22 documents so I could answer properly. I would give
23 you an answer if you were to show me some documents.

24 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You can't say without
25 looking at a document whether the press attributed to

1 you is accurate or inaccurate?
2 A Please show me the document.
3 Q You can't say from the top of your head
4 whether any inaccurate statement has been attributed
5 to you in the press?
6 A Please show me a document and I will tell
7 you.
8 Q Are you refusing to answer my questions
9 about your knowledge of whether inaccurate statements
10 have been attributed to you in the press?
11 A Are you refusing to give me the documents
12 to look at?
13 Q Are you refusing to answer the question?
14 A I am refusing to answer the question based
15 upon the fact that you are not being fair enough to 16 let me see the document in order to give you an
17 honest answer.
18 Q Ms. Giuffre --
19 A Yes.
20 Q -- we are talking about press that has
21 been published on the Internet, correct?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Do you have access to the Internet?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Have you looked on the Internet and read

1 articles that attribute statements to you about
2 Ghislaine Maxwell?
3 A Yes.
4 Q Do you know any statement that has been
5 attributed to you in a press article on the Internet
6 about Ghislaine Maxwell that is untrue?
7 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
8 instruction.
9 A Please show me a specific document.
10 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you know of any
11 such statement about Ghislaine Maxwell attributed to
12 you by the press that is inaccurate?
13 A If you could please show me a specific
14 document.
15 Q Tell me what Sharon Churcher asked you to
16 write for her.
17 A Any knowledge that I had about my time
18 with Prince Andrew.
19 Q And did you write it?
20 A Um-hum.
21 Q What did you write it in or on?
22 A Paper.
23 Q What kind of paper?
24 A Lined paper.
25 Q Was it in a book or single sheets?

1 A Single sheets.
2 Q And did you write a long document or a
3 short document? What was it?
4 A I can't recall how long the document was,
5 but I would say it would be a few pages.
6 Q And other than asking you to write
7 whatever you remember about Prince Andrew, did she
8 give you any other directions about what you should
9 write?
10 A She was interested in two things, really.
11 How Epstein got away with so many counts of child
12 trafficking for sex and how Prince Andrew was
13 involved in it. Those were her two main inquiries.
14 Q What did she ask you to write?
15 A She asked me to write about Prince Andrew.
16 Q Did she tell you to put it in your own
17 handwriting?
18 A No, she just asked me to write down what I
19 can remember.
20 Q Did you give her everything that you
21 wrote?
22 A Did I give her the whole entire pages that
23 I wrote?
24 Q Yes.
25 A Yeah, I wrote pages for her specifically.

1 Q In your own handwriting?
2 A In my own handwriting.
3 Q And what you wrote, was that true?
4 A Yes.
5 Q And did you get paid for those pieces of
6 paper?
7 A Not for the papers, I don't believe.
8 Q Okay. Have you gotten paid when they've
9 been reprinted?
10 A No.
11 Q Have you negotiated any deal with Radar
12 Online?
13 A No.
14 Q Have you negotiated any deal with Sharon
15 Churcher for the purpose of publishing those pieces
16 of paper?
17 A Not those pieces of paper.
18 Q When did you write those pieces of paper?
19 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
20 A A week before she came out.
21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And when did you give
22 them to her?
23 A When she came out.
24 Q When was that?
25 A Sometime, I believe, in early 2011.

Q What did you get paid for, if not for those pieces of paper?

MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

A I was paid for the picture with Prince Andrew with his arm around me, Ghislaine in the background. And I was paid for the, I guess, the print of the stories.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Anything else?

A No.

Q You were not paid for those pieces of paper?

A No.

Q All right. And how many pieces of paper did you write?

A Like I said, I'm rounding it around three.

Q Three pieces of paper?

A That's what I -- I don't remember to be exact on a number. I'm sorry. But over three pages.

Q And you wrote those sometime in 2011?

A The week that she was coming out to see me.

Q And you gave them to her, right?

A I gave them to her.

Q Did you keep a copy of that?

A No.

Q Did you rip them out to make them look like they came out of a journal?

A No.

Q Were you directed to make them look like they came out of a journal?

A No.

Q Do you know why your lawyer would have told the federal judge in New York that that's what you did?

MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

A My lawyer in New York?

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Um-hum.

A Ripped them out of a journal?

Q Said that you had. Do you know why she would have said that?

A Maybe she thought that I did.

Q But you didn't?

A They were just pieces of paper written for Sharon Churcher's purpose.

Q And not directed to look like they came from a journal?

A Nobody told me to make them look like they came from a journal. They were just pieces of paper that I wrote down for Sharon Churcher.

Q Did Ghislaine Maxwell tell Prince Andrew

that you were 16 years old?

A No. I think -- I think they had played the guessing game and I was 17.

Q And so Ghislaine Maxwell did not tell Prince Andrew that you were only 16?

MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

Speculation.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) In your presence?

A I don't remember the exact conversation.

I just remember they liked to play the guessing game a lot.

Q And so you don't recall Ghislaine Maxwell telling Prince Andrew in your presence that you were quote, only, really only 16, right?

A Correct, I don't remember that.

Q And if that were in the paper, that would be untrue, correct?

A Correct.

MS. MENNINGER: I think now might be a good time for a break.

THE DEPONENT: Thank you.

MR. EDWARDS: Okay. Sounds good.

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're off the record at 2:45.

(Recess taken from 2:45 p.m. to 2:55 p.m.)

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the record at 2:55.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you have any photographs of yourself either nude or in a sexually compromising position that you claim were taken by Ghislaine Maxwell?

A I do not have any of those in my evidence. But if you ask Ghislaine Maxwell, she would have plenty.

Q Do you have any in your storage boxes in Sydney?

A No.

Q Do you know whether your attorneys have any such photographs that you claim were taken by Ghislaine Maxwell?

A No.

Q You don't know or they don't have them?

A I don't know. And I don't think they have them. If they had them, they would have told me. You should ask your client. She's got plenty of them.

Q What type of camera did Ghislaine Maxwell use?

A It was a black camera. And it had a, I don't know the types and names of them, but the lens

1 that goes out.

2 Q Was it digital or single reflex?

3 A Again, I don't know types of cameras. I

4 mean, I use my phone for using a camera. So it's a

5 black camera and it had a lens that you could put out

6 further or bring back.

7 Q Did you ask her to take any photographs of

8 you?

9 A No. She asked to take photographs of me.

10 Q Was it a film or a digital camera?

11 A I never saw how she printed them out.

12 Q What's the first time you told anybody

13 that you had been sexually trafficked?

14 MR. EDWARDS: Form.

15 A Tony Figueroa, my ex-boyfriend, knew some

16 of the stuff that was happening, though I did not go

17 in great detail to him, being that he's my boyfriend.

18 And then the first person I really opened up to about

19 everything was my husband.

20 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did you tell Tony

21 Figueroa that you were forced to have sex with

22 Jeffrey Epstein?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Did you tell Tony Figueroa you were forced

25 to have sex with Ghislaine Maxwell?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Did you tell Tony Figueroa that Ghislaine

3 Maxwell sent you to have sex with famous people?

4 A Yes.

5 Q When did you tell Tony Figueroa that?

6 A During conversations. Like, I'd call him

7 from places that I was at and just talk to him. And

8 like I said, I wouldn't get into great detail about

9 things. But, you know, I had to be with this person

10 or that person today and --

11 Q Did you tell Tony Figueroa not to call the 12 police?

13 A No. Tony enjoyed his lifestyle with me.

14 So he wouldn't have gone to the police.

15 Q Did you tell James Michael Austrich that

16 you were sexually trafficked?

17 A You know, I don't know what I told Michael

18 at the time. I know he asked me and I think I told

19 him, but I didn't get into detail with him.

20 Q What do you think you told him?

21 A That I wasn't just massaging these people.

22 Q Did you tell him what you were doing with

23 Jeffrey Epstein?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Did you tell James Michael Austrich what

1 you were doing with Ghislaine Maxwell?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Did you tell him what you were doing to

4 other people?

5 A I don't think I told him about many other

6 people, no.

7 Q What people did you tell him about?

8 A Mainly Ghislaine and Jeffrey.

9 Q When did you tell him that?

10 A From the start.

11 Q When was the start that you told him?

12 A From, I wouldn't say the first meeting,

13 but I told him around that time.

14 Q And what did Michael Austrich tell you to

15 do?

16 A He didn't mind what I had to do. Again,

17 he was another guy that used me because I made lots

18 of money, and he didn't tell me to do anything.

19 Q Did he tell you not to tell the police?

20 A No, he didn't tell me not to do anything.

21 Q Did he tell you to tell the police?

22 A Again, he told me not -- he didn't tell me

23 to do anything.

24 Q When did you tell your parents that you

25 were sexually trafficked by Jeffrey Epstein?

1 A After I had my kids.

2 Q When did you tell your parents that you

3 were sexually trafficked by Ghislaine Maxwell?

4 A I told them the same time about Jeffrey

5 and Ghislaine. So sometime after I had my children.

6 Q After you had had all three children or

7 after you had your first child?

8 A I think after I had all three of my

9 children.

10 Q What was the last year in which you had a

11 child?

12 A 2010.

13 Q So you believe you told your parents

14 sometime after 2010 that you had been sexually

15 trafficked?

16 A Yes.

17 Q You didn't tell your parents that you had

18 a lawsuit entitled Jane Doe 102 versus Jeffrey

19 Epstein in 2009?

20 A I wasn't very close with my parents.

21 Q Why not?

22 A We just had a hard relationship.

23 Q Why?

24 A Because we did. I don't know why. Some

25 people just don't get along.

1 Q Do you get along with your parents now?
2 A I get along with my parents now, yes.
3 Q Okay. Have you ever told anyone that you
4 were a sex slave for four years?
5 A Under the assumption that I got my dates
6 wrong, yes, I probably have.
7 Q And that's not true, correct?
8 A Not because I didn't mean it to be true.
9 Just because I didn't know my dates.
10 Q So four years is not two years, correct?
11 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
12 A Four years is not two years.
13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) What did your parents
14 say when you told them that you had been sexually
15 trafficked by Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell?
16 A I believe they were disgusted.
17 Q What did they tell you to do or to not do?
18 A I don't remember the exact conversations
19 that we had, but they weren't happy.
20 Q Were they both on the phone at the same
21 time?
22 A No.
23 Q Who was on the phone first?
24 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
25 A I don't know.

1 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You were in Australia
2 at the time, correct?
3 A Yes.
4 Q They were not?
5 A Yes.
6 Q Have they ever been to see you in
7 Australia?
8 A My dad has.
9 Q Has your mom ever been to see you in
10 Australia?
11 A No, my mom is afraid of flying.
12 Q When did your dad come to see you in
13 Australia?
14 A The birth of my son, my first one in 2006.
15 And then, I believe in 2010 when my daughter was 16 born.
17 Q And did you have this conversation with 18 your dad about this in person or on the phone?
19 A I've had conversations with him about it
20 since.
21 Q I'm talking about the first time you had a
22 conversation with your dad.
23 A On the phone.
24 Q What caused you to tell him in 2010?
25 A I was just starting to accept what I had

1 been through. I think for ten, however long many
2 years, I mean, over ten years, I had tried to start a
3 new life, become a new person. And I wanted to put
4 all that stuff behind me and not think about it. But 5 after you have children, something changes in you and 6 you just want to stand up and do the right thing and 7 protect any other children from having to go through
8 this.
9 Q Did you tell your parents how much money
10 you received from your settlement with Jeffrey
11 Epstein?
12 A No. That is a -- I think there's like a
13 non-disclosure statement. I don't know exactly what 14 the legal term is, but --
15 Q Did you send any money to your parents?
16 A No, I don't -- no. No, I've never sent
17 money to my parents.
18 Q Who is Anthony Valladares?
19 A One of Tony's shady friends.
20 Q Did you talk to Anthony Valladares about
21 your involvement with Jeffrey Epstein?
22 A No.
23 Q Did you ever live with Anthony Valladares?
24 A No, he used to come over to my house.
25 Q Between 2000 and 2002 did you ever have

1 any interactions with law enforcement?
2 A Yes.
3 Q When?
4 A When I tried to break away from Jeffrey
5 and Ghislaine, I started making myself unavailable.
6 And I got a job at Road House Grill. And Tony used
7 to come pick me up in the afternoons, at nighttime,
8 and he'd sit at the bar. And there's this big cup
9 that's got tips in it.
10 I was in the back room. And I had to --
11 first you have to sign out and you have to take off
12 your aprons, put your aprons away. And there's a
13 whole bunch of cleaning up stuff you have to do.
14 In that time period, Tony grabbed money
15 from a cup that had money in it. That was for the 16 bartenders for their tips. My boss called me the 17 next day. He told me that I had stolen the money,
18 which I hadn't. And I came back and I returned the 19 money after I confronted Tony about it. Gave the 20 money back to him and he said, I'm sorry, but it's 21 just law that I have to call the police. So he 22 called the police.
23 And knowing that Jeffrey has got the Palm
24 Beach Police Department in his pocket, I went to 25 Jeffrey Epstein and I told him what had happened.

1 And Jeffrey said, Don't worry about it. Let me take
 2 care of it for you.
 3 Q Okay. I'm sorry. When did you have
 4 interaction with law enforcement, then?
 5 A What year?
 6 Q Did you speak with a law enforcement
 7 officer?
 8 A I don't believe I spoke to them. Jeffrey
 9 handled everything.
 10 Q Okay. And you said that you had finished
 11 your shift at -- this is at the Road House Grill,
 12 correct?
 13 A Correct.
 14 Q You had finished your shift?
 15 A Yeah, it was the end of the shift.
 16 Q Okay. And you had cleaned up and were 17 checking out, correct?
 18 A Yeah, it's a completely separate part of 19 the -- it's like back of the house. Do you know what 20 that means, like in waitering terms?
 21 Q (Indicating.)
 22 A Yeah, back of the house.
 23 Q And what was -- who was this boss that you
 24 spoke to?
 25 A I can't remember his name.

1 Q Okay.
 2 A But, I mean, he was very nice. He didn't
 3 want to but he just had to because it's just the law.
 4 You know, the money was returned to him, but he still
 5 had to do what he had to do.
 6 Q You paid him back the money the next day?
 7 A Very next day.
 8 Q And did you ever speak with the Palm Beach
 9 County Sheriff's Office about it?
 10 A You know, I don't know if they called me
 11 or not, but I know that since my boss told me he had 12 to call the police, I went to Jeffrey. And Jeffrey
 13 said he'd handle it.
 14 Q How old were you at the time?
 15 A I don't know, 18, maybe 19.
 16 Q You weren't a juvenile, were you?
 17 A Well, juvenile being under 18, no.
 18 Q Is that the only interaction with law
 19 enforcement that you had between 2000 and 2002?
 20 A Correct.
 21 Q Were you, in fact, charged with theft
 22 based on that case?
 23 A No charges were ever brought to me.
 24 Q Do you know if they were filed?
 25 A No. Jeffrey told me he'd handle it, and I

1 never heard anything about it ever again.
 2 Q Did you ever check to see if you had a
 3 warrant out?
 4 A No. Jeffrey told me that he took care of
 5 it.
 6 Q Do you think it's a problem to leave the 7 country when you have an outstanding warrant?
 8 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 9 Foundation. Lack of predicate.
 10 A I don't think I have an outstanding
 11 warrant. Why would I -- do you have a document that 12 says I have an outstanding warrant?
 13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'm just asking you if 14 you believe it's a bad thing to leave the country
 15 when you have an outstanding warrant?
 16 A Absolutely.
 17 Q And you would never assist someone in 18 doing that, correct?
 19 A Correct.
 20 Q During the year 2015, have you spoken to 21 law enforcement about any topic other than Ghislaine
 22 Maxwell?
 23 A In 2015?
 24 Q Um-hum.
 25 A Did I talk to any law enforcement about

1 Ghislaine Maxwell?
 2 Q About anything other than Ghislaine
 3 Maxwell?
 4 MR. EDWARDS: And I would just object at 5 this point in time and instruct the witness not to 6 convey any answers as to who she has or who she has 7 not disclosed until such time as the Court rules on 8 the current outstanding motion.
 9 I know that we have some obligations to
 10 fulfill by the 4th. We intend to do that. And I
 11 also recognize we may be back to answer some of these 12 questions. But for today, she's not going to answer
 13 those questions.
 14 MS. MENNINGER: Well, I'm just going to 15 ask them and --
 16 MR. EDWARDS: I understand.
 17 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Have you spoken to any 18 law enforcement in Colorado since the beginning of
 19 January 2015?
 20 A I can't answer that question right now.
 21 MR. EDWARDS: Hold on one second. I may
 22 be able to get you an answer to that question. Can I
 23 take -- can I just take a quick break, and I think I
 24 can answer that particular question for you?
 25 MS. MENNINGER: I'm not asking you to

1 answer any questions --

2 MR. EDWARDS: Fine.

3 MS. MENNINGER: -- Mr. Edwards.

4 MR. EDWARDS: Fine.

5 MS. MENNINGER: I appreciate it, but I'm

6 asking the witness to answer these questions.

7 MR. EDWARDS: I know, I'm just trying to 8 help you today.

9 For today, don't answer the questions.

10 THE DEPONENT: I don't mind explaining.

11 MR. EDWARDS: I know, but you --

12 THE DEPONENT: Okay.

13 MR. EDWARDS: I wanted to help.

14 THE DEPONENT: Okay.

15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) So have you spoken to

16 any law enforcement officers in Colorado since

17 January of 2015 until today?

18 A I am not answering that question.

19 Q Have your attorneys spoken to any law

20 enforcement officers in Colorado since the beginning

21 of 2015 until today?

22 A I'm not answering that question.

23 Q Have you been living with your husband in 24 Australia since October of 2015?

25 A Yes.

1 other terms of his probationary period?

2 A No. He went to everything that he was

3 supposed to go to.

4 Q Has he paid his fines?

5 A Yes, as far as I know.

6 Q Describe for me the contract that you had

7 with the Mail On Sunday?

8 A Could you be a little bit more specific?

9 Like --

10 Q Have you had more than one contract with

11 the Mail On Sunday?

12 A Well, there was one contract for the 13 picture. And that was to pay me 140,000 for the 14 picture. And then two stories were printed after

15 that for the amount of 10,000 each.

16 Q Is that the only money that you received

17 from the Mail On Sunday?

18 A Correct.

19 Q Did you receive any money for syndication

20 of the photograph?

21 A Isn't that what the 140 was for?

22 Q I'm asking you.

23 A Well, I don't really know what syndication

24 means.

25 Q Did you have a written contract with the

1 Mail on Sunday?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Where is that contract right now?

4 A I don't know. I've moved that many times.

5 I -- I lose paperwork wherever I go.

6 Q Is it possible it's in the boxes in

7 Sydney?

8 A I don't think I kept it, to be honest.

9 Q Did you ever refer back to it after you

10 signed it?

11 A I know I kept it for a short while, but I

12 mean, like I said, I've moved countries twice in the 13 last two years and three different houses. So the 14 paper trail is lost. I don't know where it would be.

15 Q Did you receive it via e-mail?

16 A No. I received it -- Sharon Churcher

17 handed it to me by paper.

18 Q And you signed it?

19 A I signed it.

20 Q And then did you make a copy of it?

21 A No.

22 Q You never had a copy of it?

23 A Well, I had my own copy. I'm sure she has

24 hers.

25 Q Do you recall there being a period of

1 exclusivity?
 2 A Yes.
 3 Q What was that period?
 4 A I believe it was like a three-month period
 5 or something.
 6 Q Okay. And what other terms of the 7 contract, do you recall?
 8 A I couldn't talk to any other news
 9 publication about the story.
 10 Q Anything else?
 11 A Not that I know of.
 12 Q Were you happy when the period was up?
 13 A Well, I mean, at that time I wanted to 14 write about my story. So I guess, yes, I was happy
 15 when that period was up.
 16 Q And you were actively writing a book at 17 that time, correct?
 18 A My manuscript. I've never published it.
 19 Q You were writing the manuscript at the 20 time of your period of exclusivity with Sharon
 21 Churcher, correct?
 22 A Those three months were just craziness. I
 23 think I started after that.
 24 Q You think you started writing the book
 25 after the 90 days were up?

1 A Yeah.
 2 Q And then you attempted to sell that
 3 manuscript, correct?
 4 A I didn't attempt to sell it. I went to
 5 other publications, like, what do you call them?
 6 People -- I'm trying to think of the name of the 7 word. People who publish books, not like a newspaper
 8 or anything. And I inquired about what they thought
 9 of my manuscript and if they thought it was, you
 10 know, a good story. And, yeah.
 11 Q So you sent the manuscript to these people
 12 for the purposes of trying to publish the book,
 13 correct?
 14 A Some people, yes.
 15 Q And you were trying to get money from the 16 book publication, correct?
 17 A Well, I wasn't going to sell it to them
 18 for free.
 19 Q But you were unsuccessful in finding
 20 someone to publish it, correct?
 21 A Well, I was always on the fence with it.
 22 I wasn't too sure if I wanted to or didn't want to.
 23 I was more seeking judgment based upon these people
 24 who have done this plenty and plenty of times.
 25 Still to this day, I mean, I've had people

1 who have been interested in it and I still don't know
 2 if I want to do it yet. I mean, I think there's a
 3 lot more that can go into it, you know.
 4 Q You were actively sending the manuscript
 5 to people for purposes of having them reach a deal
 6 with you and publish it, correct?
 7 A No deal was ever talked about. What we 8 talked about was the possibility of publishing it, is
 9 it publishing-worthy, would I need to get a
 10 ghostwriter. You know, this is the first time I've 11 ever written a manuscript so I didn't know what I was 12 doing.
 13 Q Okay. You contacted Jarred Weisfeld,
 14 correct?
 15 A Correct.
 16 Q I'm going to mark a document as
 17 Defendant's Exhibit 16. It is a composite exhibit.
 18 (Exhibit 16 marked.)
 19 MR. EDWARDS: Thank you.
 20 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'm not going to ask
 21 you to read every single page of this, but if you
 22 look at the first page.
 23 A Um-hum.
 24 Q Can you tell what this is in terms of what
 25 type of document?

1 A It's an e-mail from me to Jarred.
 2 Q Okay. And there's also e-mails from
 3 Jarred to you on the same page, correct?
 4 A Yes.
 5 Q And can you tell -- I just presume that
 6 you know that you have turned over documents in this
 7 case; is that true?
 8 A Yes.
 9 Q All right. And do you see at the bottom
 10 it's got your name and some page numbers in the 11 bottom right-hand corner?
 12 A Giuffre 003529?
 13 Q Right.
 14 A Yes.
 15 Q So you understood that your lawyers sought
 16 from you e-mails, for example?
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q And searched your computer, correct?
 19 A Correct.
 20 Q And printed out e-mails, correct?
 21 A Yes.
 22 Q And these look like some of the e-mails?
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q Okay. Do you have any reason to believe
 25 that e-mails produced by your lawyers with your name

1 on the e-mail address line are anything other than
 2 your e-mail?
 3 A No, they're my e-mails.
 4 Q Okay. Did anyone else use your e-mail
 5 account?
 6 A No.
 7 Q Okay.
 8 A I mean, well, my husband uses it
 9 sometimes. My kids use it for games.
 10 Q Okay.
 11 A But that's about it.
 12 Q So if an e-mail is signed XOXO Jenna --
 13 A Yes.
 14 Q -- is that you?
 15 A Correct.
 16 Q All right. And do you believe anyone else
 17 in your family was communicating with
 18 [REDACTED]?
 19 A No, no one else.
 20 Q All right. What was the purpose of you
 21 communicating with Jarred?
 22 A We were trying to figure out if my book
 23 was -- my manuscript was ever published or 24 publishable. And this was at a time where there was 25 a lot of controversy about what's going on around JE.

1 And when I say JE, I mean Jeffrey Epstein.
 2 It was a very scary thing for a lot of publishers to
 3 even consider taking it on because Jeffrey is a very
 4 powerful person.
 5 Q Did you send your manuscript to Jarred?
 6 A I believe I did.
 7 Q All right. Did you ask Jarred to send it
 8 on to other people like Tony?
 9 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 10 A I can't -- I can't recall. I believe I
 11 met Tony through Jarred.
 12 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. I'm going to 13 ask you to turn -- well, on the first page, the 14 second e-mail says, is Epstein too big for Tony?
 15 Does that refresh your recollection that
 16 Jarred and Tony had something to do with one another?
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q Okay. And on the second page in the 19 middle of the page, just to be clear, is that an 20 indication that, Tony definitely does not want the 21 book, XOXO Jenna.
 22 Is that what you wrote?
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q And these first e-mails are in 2000 --
 25 July of 2012, correct?

1 A Yes.
 2 MR. EDWARDS: I object just to the
 3 apparent mischaracterization.
 4 MS. MENNINGER: Of 2012?
 5 MR. EDWARDS: Being the first e-mails.
 6 MS. MENNINGER: I only meant the first
 7 pages of this composite exhibit.
 8 MR. EDWARDS: Okay.
 9 MS. MENNINGER: But I appreciate your 10 clarification.
 11 MR. EDWARDS: Okay.
 12 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) The first e-mails of 13 this composite exhibit are dated July of 2012,
 14 correct?
 15 A Correct.
 16 MR. EDWARDS: The first page. As opposed
 17 to the first in the chronological timeline.
 18 MS. MENNINGER: Yes.
 19 MR. EDWARDS: Okay.
 20 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) If you flip sort of 21 anywhere towards the back, can you also see that 22 you -- there are e-mails between yourself and Jarred
 23 in 2011?
 24 A Excuse me. And which page?
 25 Q Really, you can take your pick anywhere

1 from the back of that exhibit?
 2 A Yeah, yeah, I see what you're talking
 3 about.
 4 Q Here. Why don't I direct you to the
 5 bottom right is Giuffre 3563. Now, it's going to be 6 a little tricky to find, but it's about eight
 7 pages -- I'm sorry, six pages from the back of the 8 composite exhibit.
 9 A Yes.
 10 Q Do you see on that page an e-mail from 11 yourself to Jarred from June 7th of 2011?
 12 A Yes.
 13 Q And in that e-mail you write: Dear Jarred
 14 Weisfeld, We spoke on the phone going back a couple
 15 months regarding the story I am writing called, The 16 Billionaires Playboy Club.
 17 Right?
 18 A Correct.
 19 Q I am no longer under any contract and 20 would like to ask you to review my synopsis and if 21 you are interested I would love for you to represent
 22 me as my literary agent.
 23 Correct?
 24 A Correct.
 25 Q I've included some of the press that has

1 covered the ongoing case of Jeffrey Epstein, the
2 world's richest pedophile. And my good friend and
3 journalist Sharon Churcher has a few from her
4 articles that she has written to send to you as well.

5 Correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q I am very serious about getting my book
8 published and believe this story will cover many 9 genres of interest, not only by those following the 10 lengthy case, but it is also a woman's story of 11 glitz, glamour, sorrow, compassion, and true love. I
12 hope you enjoy.

13 Correct?

14 A Correct.

15 Q Signed, yourself?

16 A Yes.

17 Q So in about June you sent to Jarred
18 Weisfeld a synopsis and were asking him to represent
19 you as your literary agent to sell the book, correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And you characterized Sharon Churcher as 22 your good friend, correct?

23 A Well, at that time -- you have to 24 understand, Jarred and Sharon are very close. Sharon
25 is the one who introduced me to Jarred. And that's

1 just being nice.

2 Q Do you disagree that Sharon Churcher was
3 your good friend at that time?

4 A Well, at that time I did trust her a lot
5 more than what I do now.

6 Q Why did you change your opinion of Sharon
7 Churcher?

8 A You know, I -- I just -- I think -- I
9 think talking to some journalists can be very 10 dangerous, especially sometimes how words can get 11 taken out of context. And I'm not saying that she's 12 a bad person. I'm just saying that just, I wouldn't 13 call her up and ask her what she's cooking for dinner
14 tonight or how the family is doing.

15 Q Did you ever introduce her to your hair
16 stylist?

17 A No.

18 Q All right.

19 A Oh, actually, yes, I did. She did get a
20 haircut where I was at.

21 Q All right.

22 MS. MENNINGER: So if I could have the
23 e-mails with Paulo Silva, please. I'm going to mark
24 these Defendant's Exhibit -- 18 -- 17.

25 Oh, I don't know if that's -- is that just

1 one? All right.

2 MR. EDWARDS: What are we on now, 17?

3 MS. MENNINGER: 17.

4 (Exhibit 17 marked.)

5 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Very similarly, can
6 you take a look at this exhibit? It is a composite 7 of documents produced by your attorneys with various
8 Bates ranges, Bates numbers in between Giuffre 2750
9 and 3928.

10 A 2750 and --

11 Q I think -- I think the last page is 3927,
12 but it does not contain all of -- I'm sorry, 3928.
13 But it does not contain all of the pages in between,
14 just to let you know.

15 A Okay. Is there one specific that you want
16 me to look at?

17 Q No, if you can just take a look at the 18 first page.

19 A Okay.

20 Q And tell me if you know who this person
21 is?

22 A Paulo Silva is somebody who works for the 23 Mail On Sunday. And he was the one in charge of 24 paying me.

25 Q Paying you for what?

1 A The 140 plus the 10 and the 10.

2 Q Okay. And did he also pay you on an
3 ongoing basis for further sales of the photograph of 4 yourself and Prince Andrew?

5 A No, it was a set fee of 140 plus the 10
6 and 10. But they broke it up for some reason. So as
7 you can see here, Thanks for transferring the money.
8 I will let you know when it reaches my bank account
9 but just a little bit confused as I have a previous 10 e-mail with the amount owed at 4100. Is there still 11 an outstanding amount yet to be paid.

12 So they broke it up into quite a lot of 13 different fractions but it still equaled the 140 plus
14 the 10 and the 10.

15 Q Okay. If I could ask you to flip back to 16 Giuffre 2758. They're in sequential order, so it
17 should be about eight pages back.

18 A Yes.

19 Q All right. Do you see -- do you see that 20 that's an e-mail from Paulo Silva to your e-mail
21 account?

22 A Yes.

23 Q On or about March 28th, 2011?

24 A Yes.

25 Q All right. And it appears to be his

1 introductory e-mail to you. Is that a fair
2 characterization of it?

3 A It would be hard to say. Like, I'd have 4 to look at the first one. That's June 24th. This is
5 March 28th. I suppose so, if he's introducing
6 himself as Paulo Silva.

7 Q All right. And in this e-mail he
8 introduces himself by name and tells you that he
9 works for Solo Syndication and represents they are 10 the official syndication agency for Daily Mail and 11 Mail On Sunday and that he's been overseeing the 12 syndication of your image, correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q All right. And then he tells you that 15 with regard to your image with Prince Andrew he can
16 confirm that they've been able to sell it frequently
17 over the last couple of weeks. And he listed the 18 names of various news agencies to whom they had sold
19 the image, correct?

20 A Correct.

21 Q And then he tells you what the sales were 22 as of last Friday and then what your share of it is,
23 correct?

24 A Correct.

25 Q And your share of it was approximately

1 half of whatever the sales were, correct?

2 A Yes, it looks that way.

3 Q All right. And so then he gave you their
4 general payment terms, correct?

5 A (Deponent perused document.)
6 Yes. Yep.

7 Q And is that syndication deal separate and 8 apart from your deal with the Mail On Sunday to get 9 paid for the stories and a chunk --

10 A Yes.

11 Q -- for the image?

12 A So I will have to correct my previous
13 statement.

14 Q Okay.

15 A So I forgot completely about the fact that 16 I received 4,487.50 for -- for the pictures that got 17 sold.

18 Q And is it possible it was sold some more
19 after this date, for which you received some money,
20 correct?

21 A I don't believe so. I -- I didn't even 22 remember this one, to be honest. So if there's any 23 others that you can show me, I'd be happy to look at 24 them.

25 Q Well, I'm just asking you if you remember

1 what the terms of your agreement were with this
2 syndication, Solo Syndication?

3 A Well, like you said, it looks like half
4 of --

5 In regards to your image with Prince
6 Andrew, I can confirm we've been able to sell it
7 quite frequently over the last few weeks. So far
8 we've been able to sell it to the following clients.
9 It lists names.

10 So far the total sales, as of last Friday,
11 is the number listed there.

12 Therefore, your share is 4,487.

13 Q So let me be clear. I guess I'm asking,
14 do -- do you recall what your deal was with Solo
15 Syndication?

16 A No, I do not recall it. I just remember
17 Sharon writing up the contract saying 140 plus the 10
18 and the 10. I completely forgot about the 19 syndication for $4,000 and 487 cents (sic).

20 Q Okay. I'm going to ask you to turn back
21 to 2754.

22 A 2754?

23 Q Correct.

24 A Okay.

25 Q And it's a document with the heading Solo

1 Syndication Limited. Is that the right page you're
2 on?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Dated May 23rd, 2011, correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q All right. And there's some handwriting
7 in the middle of the page towards the bottom.

8 A Not my handwriting.

9 Q It's not your handwriting?

10 A No.

11 Q Do you know whose it is?

12 A No.

13 Q All right.

14 A I don't even know what it says. Does it
15 say Chai canceled and something mode? I have no idea
16 what it even says.

17 Q Okay. And it's not your handwriting?

18 A No.

19 Q It was produced by your attorneys,
20 correct?

21 A I'm sorry?

22 Q It was produced to us by your attorneys,
23 correct?

24 A Yes. They went through and gave you guys
25 everything you asked for.

1 Q All right. Since these e-mails come from
 2 your e-mail address to and from Paulo Silva, do you
 3 have any reason to doubt that they are your e-mails?

4 A I have no reason to doubt.

5 Q All right. Do you recall a Sandra White?

6 A Yes. She was a possible ghostwriter that
 7 I was going to use. Sharon recommended that I got a
 8 ghostwriter to be involved. And we nearly settled on 9 some kind of agreement, but I wasn't really happy
 10 with the agreement in the end, so I decided not to 11 use her.

12 Q You weren't happy with the terms of her
 13 price, if you will?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And so you didn't come to an agreement
 16 with her, correct?

17 A We nearly did, but we in the end did not.

18 Q All right. If I can show you Defendant's
 19 Exhibit -- whew -- 18.

20 MR. EDWARDS: You did kill a tree there.

21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Take a look at that.
 22 (Exhibit 18 marked.)

23 THE DEPONENT: So put this one away?

24 MR. EDWARDS: Put these in some sort of 25 order. They don't have to be perfect, but just so

1 you know what you're looking at.

2 This is 18?

3 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. Again, do
 4 you recognize that the e-mail address --

5 A Is mine.

6 Q -- is yours and it's from and to Sandra
 7 White, correct?

8 A Correct.

9 Q And the date is in or around May 25th,
 10 June 5th, something like that?

11 A It's Australian so it's backwards. So
 12 it's the 6th of May, 2011.

13 Q Well, I would have thought that except the 14 bottom e-mail is May 24th, the middle one is May 25th
 15 and then the most recent one says 6/5. So I don't --
 16 I don't know. I didn't write the document.

17 A Yeah.

18 Q But I'm asking if you believe it was in or 19 around the end of May?

20 A The only reason I can tell you that is 21 because if you look here, 24/5/11 is the way that we 22 actually do our dates in Australia, whereas in 23 America you would do 5/24/11.

24 So right here where it's written makes it
 25 nice and clear but just to be clear, the dates are

1 backwards.

2 Q Right. So if an e-mail is responding to
 3 May 25th, is it more or less likely that it was
 4 written on June 5th or May 6th?

5 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

6 A I would say May 6th.

7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) So when responded to a
 8 May 25th --

9 A Oh, no, you're right. No, I'm sorry, I'm 10 going backwards because it's going up, isn't it?
 11 Okay. Yes.

12 Q All right.

13 A I'm confused, too.

14 Q Anyway. In the last e-mail it says: I'm 15 very sad we won't be able to work together as I've 16 been very excited about the project. As you know, I
 17 do not sell synopsis or individual chapters, and 18 especially not for those amounts. I'm merely 19 intrigued about where you were getting advice from.
 20 Rest assured what we have worked on is confidential.
 21 If you change your mind, let me know.

22 So that was around June 5th?

23 A 2011.

24 Q 2011, right?

25 A Yes.

1 Q All right. So you had been trying to
 2 reach an agreement with Sandra White prior to
 3 June 5th?

4 A Correct.

5 Q And were unable to do so?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And not that you need to read every page,
 8 but is it fair to say that you exchanged some 9 portions of your synopsis with Sandra during the 10 course of your interactions with her?

11 A Yes. And she rewrote some portion of it
 12 as well, which I don't even know, it might be in 13 here. It might not be in here. I don't know what 14 I've kept or not kept.

15 Q Okay. And did you get advice from Sharon
 16 Churcher with respect to the terms upon which you
 17 should be looking for the ghostwriting agreement?

18 A Sharon is the one who introduced me to 19 Sandra. I can't remember who was giving me the 20 advice. It's going back so long ago, you know, I
 21 don't want to pinpoint somebody and say it was 22 definitely them if it wasn't.

23 So, yeah, I'm just not going to comment on 24 that one without knowing.

25 Q Okay. You probably have e-mails, though,

1 do you think, perhaps?
2 A I haven't seen these e-mails since 2011.
3 So --
4 Q Okay. I'm going to show you Defendant's
5 Exhibit 19.
6 (Exhibit 19 marked.)
7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Who is Marianne
8 Strong?
9 A She's my literary agent.
10 Q All right. And can you identify
11 Defendant's Exhibit 19?
12 A I'm sorry?
13 Q Can you identify what Defendant's
14 Exhibit 19 is?
15 A Defendant's Exhibit 19, like the number at 16 the bottom?
17 Q No, do you know what kind of document this
18 is?
19 A Oh, it's an e-mail from me to Marianne
20 Strong.
21 Q All right. And at roughly what time
22 frame?
23 A February 20th, 2014.
24 Q All right. And what were you speaking
25 with Marianne or writing with Marianne Strong about?

1 A Can I just read it real quick and I'll
2 tell you?
3 Q Sure.
4 (Pause.)
5 A Sure.
6 Q Do you remember now the topic upon which
7 you and Marianne Strong were exchanging
8 communication?
9 A I don't recall talking about Lord Colin
10 Campbell or the Duke of Argyll or Colin. And Lord
11 Colin is Scottish. I don't know who Emily is. But I
12 do understand what she's saying. If I win, then my 13 story would be a much better story to write.
14 Q And what case was she referring to, if you
15 know?
16 A I think this was regarding probably the 17 time when I was in -- trying to get involved with the 18 CVRA case.
19 Q In February of 2014?
20 A Correct.
21 Q Okay. And at the bottom of the page
22 there's an e-mail from you to her, correct?
23 A I haven't read that part yet. Give me one
24 moment.
25 Q Yeah.

1 A Thank you.
2 So it cuts off after that, does it?
3 Q Um-hum.
4 A Oh, sorry. (Pause.)
5 Yep, I've read it.
6 Q All right. Do you remember that e-mail
7 now?
8 A It's going back a long time ago, but it's
9 definitely my kind of writing.
10 Q Okay. So in the -- on the bottom of the 11 first page, 3417 --
12 A Um-hum.
13 Q -- you represented to Marianne Strong that 14 you had served four years as Jeffrey Epstein's
15 personal and abused sex slave, correct?
16 A Correct.
17 Q That is not true, correct?
18 A Since we have now found out the actual
19 dates, it is not correct.
20 Q Okay. I want to turn the page, the second
21 page. On the first line, the first full sentence
22 that begins on the first line:
23 Even though there is over 40 women that
24 were once vulnerable girls that looked like the sweet
25 girl next door but now that they have been taken

1 advantage of by this disgusting Wall Street tyrant,
2 most of them have led a very unhealthy lifestyle
3 since having served Jeffrey, such as drug addictions
4 and prostitution and do not hold accreditation to 5 talk.
6 You wrote that, correct?
7 A Correct.
8 Q Who are the 40 women that you are talking
9 about here?
10 A When I spoke to the FBI, they told me that 11 there were -- and this is maybe just a guesstimate,
12 maybe there was more, maybe there was less that they 13 said. But they had told me that there was a lot of 14 other victims involved in this case. And this is 15 when I believed that after the FBI came to see me
16 that they were willing to reopen the case and do
17 something about it.
18 Q Okay. So the FBI is the one that told you
19 that there were 40 women?
20 A It could be less than 40. It could be 21 more than 40. I think I just summed it up to 40.
22 Q You came up with 40?
23 A Well, I didn't just come out with 40. I
24 think it was around that number. It could be 46. It
25 could be 39. I'm not too sure to be exact.

1 Q All right. But you based it on --
 2 A On my speaking --
 3 Q -- what?
 4 A -- with the FBI.
 5 Q Okay. And --
 6 MR. EDWARDS: Just let her finish her
 7 question before you answer.
 8 THE DEPONENT: Okay.
 9 MR. EDWARDS: I just want the record
 10 clear.
 11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Who at the FBI did you
 12 speak with?
 13 A I can't think of his name. I spoke to --
 14 oh, God, I can't even think of his name right now. I
 15 spoke to a male and a female. And I also spoke to 16 Marie Villafana about everything that was happening.
 17 Q Is it Jason Richards?
 18 A Jason Richards, yes.
 19 Q Did Jason Richards tell you that the FBI
 20 was reopening their case?
 21 A He wanted to reopen the case. And the 22 last conversation that I had with him, I can't 23 remember when it was, he said that he was having 24 trouble doing it from the people above him.
 25 Q Okay. When was that?

1 A Like I said, I don't know.
 2 Q Was it like a year ago or two years ago or
 3 three years ago?
 4 A I don't remember the last time I talked to 5 him. I think I was in Florida the last time I spoke
 6 to him.
 7 Q And was that on the phone or in person?
 8 A On the phone.
 9 Q Hmm?
 10 A On the phone.
 11 Q On the phone. Where was he located, if 12 you know, when you spoke to him?
 13 A I don't know.
 14 Q Do you have his phone number?
 15 A I have his card somewhere. Probably not 16 on me anymore. Like I told you, my paper trail is 17 (indicating).
 18 Q Okay. So in the fourth line you say:
 19 Miraculously since I came to light with the truth in 20 speaking out against him in 2011, the FBI have 21 reopened the case. Which as you know, has current 22 proceedings in which I am involved in.
 23 So what current proceeding were you
 24 involved in on February 19th, 2014?
 25 A Well, just speaking with the FBI, I was in

1 the assumption that the case was being reopened, that
 2 they still were investigating.
 3 Q Okay. Did you believe that the FBI had
 4 reopened their case in 2011?
 5 A I believe that's when they first started
 6 to reinvestigate and reopen it.
 7 Q And then sometime when you were in Florida
 8 Jason Richards told you that they were not actually
 9 going to continue investigating the case?
 10 A I believe I was in Florida, yes. And he 11 didn't say that -- he just said his hands were tied
 12 and up above, I don't know, chain of command, it
 13 just -- it didn't look like it was going anywhere.
 14 There was no definite no and a definite yes. It was 15 just, right now there's really nothing that we can
 16 do.
 17 Q All right. In the third paragraph from 18 the top, you said there's another major paper that 19 has followed the story for a while that has worked
 20 with me before and they were asking you for the 21 exclusive story but updated and obviously the end
 22 outcome from the judicial decision.
 23 Who was the other major paper that had 24 followed the story for a while and was asking you for 25 an exclusive story?

1 A That would -- that, just coming to mind
 2 must be the Daily Mail. If I said I've worked with
 3 them before, the only other -- the only other, what
 4 do you call them, press, that I had worked with was
 5 the Daily Mail, so --
 6 Q Okay. But you said you had held out on
 7 them because Marianne had told you about her contact
 8 with Emily at the New York City Post, right?
 9 A I have held out because you told me about
 10 your contact with Emily with the New York Post, and I
 11 appreciate you trying to make big headlines for the 12 story and hopefully one day the book. Yes.
 13 Q Okay. And then the last line of that 14 paragraph you say: I would also like to know that 15 I'm going to profit from this as well, correct?
 16 A Correct. I'm not going to give it for 17 free.
 18 Q Right. All right.
 19 (Exhibit 20 marked.)
 20 MS. MENNINGER: Defendant's Exhibit 20.
 21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recognize these 22 documents -- this document, which is another
 23 composite exhibit?
 24 A Yes.
 25 Q Do you recognize it?

1 A Oh, like I said, I don't recognize it, but
2 it obviously comes from --
3 Q Your e-mail address?
4 A Yes.
5 Q Now, what e-mail address is that, exactly,
6 on the first page of this exhibit?
7 A @icloud.com, that must be from a phone.
8 Q So that's different from the other e-mail
9 address?
10 A Yeah, I don't actually know about that
11 e-mail address. I obviously used it. It has my
12 husband's name on it, Robert Giuffre.
13 Q And is the e-mail signed by your husband?
14 A No, it's signed by me.
15 Q Okay. And in the subject line you wrote
16 Virginia Roberts (Jane Doe 102), correct?
17 A Subject line?
18 Q The very top line of that page.
19 A Oh, yeah, I see.
20 Q Okay. And it was to
21 jason.richards2@ic.fbi.gov, correct?
22 A Correct.
23 Q And is that Jason Richards we were just
24 referring to?
25 A Yes.

1 Q All right. And you had some e-mails with
2 Jason Richards over time; is that fair?
3 A Sure.
4 Q These ones that came from your computer,
5 right?
6 A Sure, yes.
7 Q Okay. You talk about having spoken with
8 Judge Paul Cassell in this first page, correct?
9 A I am here to get this BS non-prosecution
10 agreement thrown out and speaking with Judge Paul
11 Cassal (sic). He suggested trying to get ahold of
12 any photos or video recordings released by the FBI to
13 assist our case further in providing (sic) how much
14 pedophilia occurred by Jeffrey and the many other
15 monsters he obliged with underage girls.
16 Q Okay.
17 A If this is a possibility, please let me
18 know so I can give you Brad Edwards (my attorney) his
19 contact details. Many thanks for your time and I
20 hope we should meet again.
21 Q Okay. And so you were going back to Jason
22 and trying to get any evidence that the FBI had about
23 your case, right?
24 A Correct. Any photographs pertaining to
25 what -- myself, not of anyone else.

1 Q Right.
2 A But anything they had of me.
3 Q And Brad Edwards, who is sitting right
4 here, was your attorney at the time and you
5 identified him as such in the e-mail, correct?
6 A Correct.
7 Q You did not identify Mr. -- Judge Cassell
8 as your attorney in this e-mail, correct?
9 A I knew him as a former judge, and I just
10 wrote down, Judge Paul Cassal (sic) as it looks. But
11 he was my attorney -- I don't know if he was my
12 attorney at that time. But yes -- he's always --
13 he's been with me since the beginning, so --
14 Q So he's representing you in this case now,
15 correct?
16 A Yes.
17 Q But at that time you don't know if he was
18 your attorney?
19 A I think he was. I mean, I've been talking
20 with him since the beginning. And this is dated
21 2014. So I believe at this time he was my attorney
22 at the time as well.
23 Q Okay. When do you recall first speaking
24 with him?
25 A Speaking with Paul, I'm not too sure. I

1 can't remember if I spoke to Paul in the phone in
2 Australia or if I met him in person in Florida.
3 Q Do you remember when you signed any kind
4 of fee agreement with him?
5 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
6 A Um, the -- well, the first time I would
7 have signed an agreement would have been in Florida.
8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) When you were living
9 in Titusville?
10 A As far as my knowledge reminds me. I
11 mean, I'm looking at e-mails that I can't even
12 remember sending. It's a possibility I could have
13 signed earlier, but as far as I remember.
14 Q Okay. Do you recall ever having e-mail
15 communications with Sharon Churcher about her
16 publishing the first serial of your book?
17 A Serial, what does that mean? I'm sorry.
18 Q Like a sequel.
19 A A sequel to my book?
20 Q Um-hum.
21 A My book has never been published.
22 Q Right. Do you remember ever e-mailing
23 with Sharon about her being the one who would publish
24 any subsequent follow-up book?
25 A If you have something in front of you to

1 see and show me I would look at it. Like I said,
 2 there's a million e-mails here. I mean, there's a
 3 whole dead tree with e-mails I don't remember
 4 sending. So --
 5 Q So you don't remember that e-mail chain,
 6 as you sit here?
 7 A Yes.
 8 Q Okay. You have signed contingency fee
 9 agreements with Boies, Schiller, correct?
 10 A Yes.
 11 Q You've signed contingency fees with 12 Mr. Cassell, correct?
 13 A Correct.
 14 Q Mr. Edwards and his firm?
 15 A Correct.
 16 Q Stan Pottinger; is that correct?
 17 A Correct.
 18 Q And pursuant to those fee agreements you
 19 understand that you would get a recovery of any money
 20 that you won in this case, correct?
 21 A Correct.
 22 Q And what percent is that?
 23 A I don't know off the top of my head. I
 24 think it's 40 percent. I'm not too sure, to be 25 honest.

1 Q Do you remember having any conversations
 2 with Rebecca Boylan about money that you hoped to
 3 obtain from this case or from any other source
 4 related to this?
 5 A I remember talking to Rebecca Boylan as a
 6 girlfriend telling her what cases I was involved
 7 with. I don't believe we ever spoke about any 8 monetary settlements. There was no number that was 9 ever mentioned. I told her that I was involved in 10 these cases. And, you know, it was just girlfriend
 11 talk between girlfriends. I never expected her to 12 turn around and consort with the enemy.
 13 Q Well, it's fair to say you do hope to make
 14 money from bringing this lawsuit, correct?
 15 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
 16 A I hope to win, but that's not the only
 17 reason I want to win. I want to see justice come
 18 through.
 19 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Is money one of the 20 reasons you want to win?
 21 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection.
 22 A More than the money, I want to see
 23 Ghislaine and Jeffrey own up to what they have done
 24 and pay for the price, yes.
 25 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Is money tight in your

1 family?
 2 A We've been doing well.
 3 Q You've been doing well?
 4 A Yes.
 5 Q What is your source of income right now?
 6 A My husband is the main income -- he's the
 7 breadwinner and I'm a stay-at-home mom.
 8 Q And what is his job?
 9 A [REDACTED]
 10 [REDACTED]
 11 [REDACTED].
 12 Q And how long has he had that job?
 13 A He got that job, I believe, in December or 14 January. December 2015 or January 2016. I know he 15 got the job and then we had to go through all these 16 preliminary tests and everything to make sure you
 17 qualify. So --
 18 Q And what is the last paid employment that
 19 you had?
 20 A The last paid employment that I had was --
 21 there was that -- do you remember going back through 22 the e-mails where I had that resume and I sent it and 23 they said, What time do you want to come for an
 24 interview?
 25 I ended up getting the job there for two

1 days because the place was disgusting and the boss
 2 was just horrible.
 3 I didn't get paid from them, but I got
 4 employed by them. And other than that, the last time
 5 I worked was in -- ended in 2006 for ET Australia.
 6 Q Did you quit that job after two days
 7 because the place was disgusting?
 8 A It was vile. Okay. They had the -- the 9 whole place was closed down. The restaurant was 10 closed down for a period of, like, six months. And 11 he wanted me to go into this freezer area that had a
 12 dead rat in it and like this thick (indicating) layer
 13 of mold at the bottom. And he wanted me to clean it.
 14 Q All right.
 15 A And I was just like, No.
 16 Q Just checking, did you quit or did he fire
 17 you?
 18 A No, I definitely walked out of that one,
 19 hands up.
 20 Q Okay. I'm going to do one more document I
 21 have, quickly.
 22 (Exhibit 21 marked.)
 23 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'll show you
 24 Defendant's Exhibit 21, another composite exhibit.
 25 Do you recognize the to and froms on this e-mail?

1 A To Sharon Churcher from myself, yes.
 2 Q And this is the Sharon Churcher from Mail
 3 On Sunday we were discussing earlier?
 4 A That's correct.
 5 Q And these are from February of 2011,
 6 correct?
 7 A Yes.
 8 Q Okay.
 9 A I mean, it's just assuming that we're not
 10 looking at Australian backwards dates.
 11 Q Okay. Well, a few pages back, where it
 12 says 2/19/2011.
 13 A Oh, yeah, yeah.
 14 Q All right. If I could direct your 15 attention to one of the pages, it's 3676 in the lower
 16 right-hand corner.
 17 A 3676.
 18 Q Now, these are in sequential order.
 19 They're not in Bates stamp order so you might have to 20 look at the dates on the top to find one that's 21 February 19th of 2011.
 22 THE DEPONENT: Do you know which page it
 23 is?
 24 MR. EDWARDS: Well --
 25 MS. MENNINGER: It's almost in the middle.

1 MR. EDWARDS: It's like what she's saying
 2 is that --
 3 MS. MENNINGER: If you look at the date at 4 the top --
 5 MR. EDWARDS: If you look at the top it
 6 says 2/19/2011. That's not it. It's like half a
 7 page. Keep going.
 8 A 2/13, 2/17, 2/18, 2/19 -- 2/19/2011.
 9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) If it says 3676 in the 10 lower right-hand corner?
 11 A Yes.
 12 Q Okay. Is that an e-mail that you sent to 13 Sharon Churcher in response to an e-mail that Sharon
 14 Churcher sent to you?
 15 A To Sharon Churcher from Jenna, Subject
 16 R-E, received, yes.
 17 I tried to call the line was busy. Could 18 you call concerning the question you asked?
 19 Q All right. And that was in response to an
 20 e-mail just below it you received from Sharon
 21 Churcher, correct?
 22 A Yes.
 23 Q And what did Sharon Churcher write to you
 24 on February 19th of 2011?
 25 A Do you know a Nadia Marcinkova?

1 Supposedly JE purchased her at age 14 from her
 2 family.
 3 Q Okay. And then you asked her to call to
 4 discuss that, correct?
 5 A I tried to call. The line was busy.
 6 Could you call concerning the question you asked?
 7 Q Right.
 8 A Yes.
 9 Q All right. Defendant's Exhibit 22.
 10 (Exhibit 22 marked.)
 11 THE DEPONENT: Thank you.
 12 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. Do you
 13 recognize these series of e-mails?
 14 A So far. I mean, it's definitely from me
 15 to her. Or actually, Michael Thomas is the 16 photographer that worked with her, just to be clear.
 17 Q And is she one of the two -- the 18 recipients of the first-page e-mail? You and she 19 received an e-mail from Michael Thomas; is that 20 right?
 21 A Yes.
 22 Q Okay.
 23 MR. EDWARDS: I think she wants you to 24 look and make sure you recognize them.
 25 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Yeah, do you recognize

1 the document, the e-mails?
 2 A Like I said, these are back in 2011, but
 3 it's from my e-mail address. I recognize that. I
 4 recognize Sharon's name and I recognize Michael
 5 Thomas.
 6 Q Do you have any reason to doubt that the 7 e-mails from March of 2011 --
 8 A I don't have any --
 9 Q -- from yourself and Ms. Churcher are 10 accurately reflected from the documents taken from 11 your computer here?
 12 A I have no reason to doubt that.
 13 Q Okay.
 14 (Exhibit 23 marked.)
 15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Defendant's
 16 Exhibit 23. Again, e-mails between your e-mail
 17 address and Sharon Churcher from May of 2011.
 18 Do you recognize your e-mail address?
 19 A Yes.
 20 Q And Sharon Churcher's e-mail address?
 21 A Yes.
 22 Q And you're signing your e-mails to her,
 23 Much love, XOXO Jenna. And she's signing her e-mails
 24 to you, Love Shaza, correct?
 25 A Correct.

1 Q And Shaza is a name that you call her?
2 A In Australia we kind of shorten the names
3 of people and put z-a on the end, so yes.
4 Q So she became Shaza?
5 A She became Shaza, correct.
6 Q And do you recall having e-mail
7 communications with her in which you referred to her
8 as Shaza and --
9 A Yes.
10 Q -- she referred to herself as Shaza?
11 A She's the same person we're talking about,
12 yes.
13 Q All right. So it's coming from her e-mail
14 address as Sharon Churcher, right?
15 A Yes.
16 Q All right. And I think the last --
17 MR. EDWARDS: Are you at a stopping point?
18 MS. MENNINGER: Almost.
19 MR. EDWARDS: Okay. Okay. I just have to 20 a make a quick call, but I can wait a while so --
21 MS. MENNINGER: I understand. Almost 22 done.
23 MR. EDWARDS: Okay.
24 (Exhibit 24 marked.)
25 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) This is Exhibit 24,

1 e-mails between yourself and Sharon Churcher from
2 June of 2011?
3 A Um-hum. Yes, sorry.
4 Q And, again, Shaza and Jenna, Shaza, Jenna,
5 Jenna, Shaza, right?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And at the bottom of this first page, is 8 Sharon Churcher giving you advice regarding the 9 purchase by Vanity Fair of your picture with Prince
10 Andrew?
11 A May I have time to read it, please?
12 Q Please.
13 A Are we talking about the very bottom one
14 or the one in the kind of middle bottom?
15 Q The very bottom one.
16 A I would let VF buy your picture via Brad.
17 The big gamble would be to let him also give them a
18 statement.
19 Q Right.
20 A (Deponent perused document, sotto voce.)
21 The reason this is a gamble is Jeffrey
22 knows some of the most powerful people in publishing
23 and, once altered, will inevitably try to scare off
24 potential buyers. But the upside is it should help
25 you get a good agent. I would have Brad use the

1 phrase sex trafficked as that is a heads up about the
2 book revealing more than be printed.
3 Q All right. So is Sharon Churcher writing
4 to you about -- actually, it's cc'd to Brad, correct?
5 A Yes.
6 Q And I only use Brad, not his last name
7 because it's brad@pathtojustice.com, correct?
8 A Yes.
9 Q All right. And that's Brad Edwards, who 10 is sitting here, right?
11 A Yes.
12 Q All right. And so in the e-mail from 13 Sharon Churcher to you regarding whether or not you
14 should let Vanity Fair buy your picture, she's also 15 recommending in the last line that you should have
16 Brad use the phrase sex trafficked, correct?
17 A If a statement is made, yes. I don't
18 think Vanity Fair ever did, anyway.
19 Q And the picture that they're talking about
20 there is the one with Prince Andrew, correct?
21 A That's -- yeah, the big one.
22 Q The one that was previously sold?
23 A Yes.
24 Q And Paulo Silva was syndicating that one,
25 correct?

1 A Yes. Yeah.
2 Q And on that second page there's a
3 redaction. Who is -- who is in that redaction?
4 A I have no idea.
5 Q You don't know?
6 A No, I don't know.
7 Q So who are the two world's most respected
8 politicians? [REDACTED] and who?
9 A I don't know.
10 Q Do you recall ever telling Sharon Churcher
11 that you were trafficked to two of the world's most
12 respected politicians, [REDACTED] and somebody
13 else?
14 MR. EDWARDS: Object to form.
15 A Is that her wording? This is from her.
16 So this is her wording.
17 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Right.
18 A If she considered them to be the world's 19 most respected politicians, that would be her
20 opinion, not mine.
21 Q Okay. But you received this e-mail and 22 responded to it, correct?
23 A Is the top one above that what I responded
24 to? Sorry. It just confuses me because it goes
25 upwards, doesn't it, not downwards. We're not

1 reading chronologically down, are we?

2 Q You can probably look at the dates and
3 figure it out. I need you to do that, not me?

4 A Okay the 30th of the fifth, 31st of the 5 fifth, 6th of the first. Right. So I still don't 6 know who she's talking about there.

7 Q You don't know if you received this
8 e-mail?

9 A No, I received this e-mail, obviously, but
10 I don't know who's redacted there.

11 Q Okay. And in the e-mail that you
12 responded to, you're talking about -- you used B.
13 Clinton, correct?

14 A It does concern me what they could want to 15 write about me considering that B. Clinton walked
16 into VF and threatened them not to write sex
17 trafficking articles about his good friend JE.

18 Q Right. Does that refresh your memory that 19 when you got this e-mail unredacted Bill Clinton was 20 included as well as [REDACTED] ?

21 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

22 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) In the line referred 23 to as two of the world's most respected politicians?

24 A It could be. But, again, I would be
25 making an assumption because I don't know who that

1 name is.

2 Q I don't either.

3 A Okay.

4 Q Maybe our lawyers can tell us.

5 MS. MENNINGER: All right. Last one, and
6 then you can get your break.
7 (Exhibit 25 marked.)

8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Defendant's
9 Exhibit 25. Again, e-mails to and from yourself and 10 Sharon Churcher, correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And in this e-mail, it's dated 4/12/2015
13 on the first page of this composite e-mail?

14 A Yes.

15 Q She is encouraging you to do a book,
16 correct?

17 A As she has from the beginning, yes.

18 Q Right. And she suggested a roman a clef.
19 Do you know what that means?

20 A No.

21 Q On the third page back, she wrote you to 22 compliment you about David Boies taking your case,
23 correct?

24 A (Deponent perused document sotto voce.)

25 Just reading about David Boies taking your

1 case. How fantastic, Jenna! Have you asked him how
2 he'd feel about reviving your book? It would be an
3 incredible shame if the other project lifts your 4 story, which it could at least somewhat. Jarred is
5 still very keen to represent you. I'm afraid I
6 screwed you by steering you to Mimi.

7 I just had a great weekend in LA on a
8 celebrity story. Got to go to Rodeo Drive!!!

9 Much love, Shaza.

10 Yes.

11 Q So she's encouraging you to have David
12 Boies also help you in the book writing department,
13 right?

14 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
15 Mischaracterizes the exhibit.

16 A Is the question pending?

17 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Yes.

18 A She -- yeah, she encouraged me to -- I
19 mean, once she saw that, you know, there was more
20 litigation going on, she thought -- like she says,
21 How fantastic. And up until recently she's still 22 been trying to get me to get the book out.

23 Q And in May of 2015, do you have -- did you
24 have any active agreement to publish your book?

25 A In May of 2015, no. Jarred wanted to do

1 something again, but his only thing was, he wanted
2 Sharon to be in on it as like a ghostwriter. And I
3 said, Look, Sharon is all well and good, but I don't
4 want a journalist, you know, as they can twist things
5 around writing my story.

6 So he was like, Well, I'm sorry, I don't
7 want to work with you then. And I said, Well, that's
8 fine. No problem.

9 Q Do you, as you sit here today, have any 10 agreement to publish your story in written form?

11 A No, we have no agreement.

12 Q Do you have an agreement for anyone else
13 to write your story?

14 A No.

15 Q Have you got any ghostwriter in the book?

16 A Besides Sandra, who I didn't like, no.

17 MS. MENNINGER: All right. I think now is 18 a good time for a break. And then --

19 MR. EDWARDS: Okay.

20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are off the record
21 at 4:12.

22 (Recess taken from 4:12 p.m. to 4:22 p.m.)

23 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the
24 record at 4:22.

25 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) When you were e-mailing and speaking with Sharon Churcher in 2011 about the Vanity Fair possibly purchasing your photograph --

A Um-hum.

Q -- do you recall whether you shared with Sharon Churcher anything that you had discussed with your attorney, Mr. Edwards?

A In relationship to what? Like, have I identified people to her?

Q Right.

A Yes.

Q Okay. So you -- you identified people to her and you then looped back to her about your conversations with Mr. Edwards, correct?

MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

A I'm sorry, can you rephrase? I don't understand.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. So you were e-mailing with her --

A Um-hum.

Q -- getting her advice about whether or not to sell your Prince Andrew picture to Vanity Fair?

A Right.

Q She asked you to run some information by Brad --

A Yes.

Q -- Edwards. And you said that you were going to do that?

A Um-hum.

Q And then you spoke to Mr. Edwards, correct?

A I don't know if I spoke to him or if I e-mailed him.

Q Okay. And then did you report back to Sharon Churcher what you had discussed with Mr. Edwards?

A I'm not too sure. Like I said, going back to the 2011 e-mails, look at this pile here. It's impossible for me to know.

Q So you were having a lot of communications with Sharon Churcher in 2011?

A In 2011, yes.

Q All right. And Mr. Edwards was your attorney in 2011, correct?

A Yes.

Q And did you ever have Sharon Churcher draft for you e-mail to send to Mr. Edwards?

A Yes, I believe -- I believe she did.

Q And why did she draft e-mails for you to send to Mr. Edwards?

A I believe there was -- and this is just going off my recollection.

Q Um-hum.

A I believe there was a time when she was -- oh, God, I can't remember. I really can't remember and don't want to say anything without looking at that exact e-mail. Do you have it to show me?

Q Well, I'm sure it's probably in there but I don't want to take the time to look for it now.

A Okay.

Q So I understand you're just repeating what you recall from your memory.

A Yes.

Q And it may not be accurate because you're not looking at the document. I've got that caveat.

What do you recall, just as you're sitting there?

A I know there was e-mails that Sharon sent to me suggesting to say to Brad Edwards, I know that. I don't remember or recall exactly what was in those statements.

Q Okay. And did you send those e-mails to Mr. Edwards, as you recall today?

A I don't know. I'm sorry.

Q And do you know if you went back to Sharon

Churcher and told her about the conversations or e-mails you had with Mr. Edwards?

A Some of them, I'm sure, yes.

Q Because you were in fairly regular contact with Sharon Churcher at that time, correct?

A Right, at that time.

Q All right. I want to introduce to you Defendant's Exhibit 26.

(Exhibit 26 marked.)

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Have you seen this document before?

A I don't know if I've seen this specific document before, but I've seen something close to it, I think.

Q All right. Do you see the date on the document?

A March 10th, 2011.

Q March 9th?

A I see March 10th, sorry.

Q Hmm.

A London, March 10th, 2011.

MR. EDWARDS: Both dates are there.

MS. MENNINGER: I'm sure they are. I'm just not seeing the one that you're seeing.

THE DEPONENT: Oh, I'm sorry.

Page 301

1 MS. MENNINGER: That's okay.
 2 THE DEPONENT: Yeah. Sorry about that.
 3 MS. MENNINGER: Okay.
 4 MR. EDWARDS: One is right on top of the 5 other.
 6 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I don't doubt you. I
 7 was just looking for it.
 8 A Okay.
 9 Q All right. So after the word London,
 10 March 10th, 2011, correct?
 11 A Correct.
 12 Q And above that is a title, Statement on 13 behalf of Ghislaine Maxwell, right?
 14 A Yes.
 15 Q By Devonshires Solicitors, PRNE, correct?
 16 A Correct.
 17 Q And then Wednesday, March 9th, 2011,
 18 correct?
 19 A Correct.
 20 Q And you understand that March 9th or 21 March 10th, 2011 is roughly the time your original
 22 stories were published in the press --
 23 A Correct.
 24 Q -- internationally, correct?
 25 A Correct.

Page 302

1 Q And this statement issued by Ghislaine
 2 Maxwell or issued by Devonshires Solicitors on her
 3 behalf denied allegations about her that have
 4 appeared recently in the media, correct?
 5 A Correct.
 6 Q It says, These allegations are all
 7 entirely false, correct?
 8 Did I read that properly?
 9 A Ghislaine Maxwell denies the various
 10 allegations about her -- oh, yeah, right -- yeah,
 11 right below that. These allegations are entirely
 12 false.
 13 Q All right. In 2011, were you aware that 14 Ghislaine Maxwell issued a statement denying the 15 allegations about her that had appeared in the media?
 16 A I'm not too sure what I recall from 2011
 17 about Ghislaine Maxwell denying it. I know that she 18 denied it recently in 2015. I know that for a fact.
 19 Q So you don't know whether she denied it in 20 2011?
 21 A I can't recall back to 2011, if I do
 22 remember that.
 23 Q And you don't know whether she put out a
 24 press statement that said these allegations are all
 25 entirely false, correct?

Page 303

1 A It doesn't surprise me, but I don't
 2 remember reading this. I know that, you know, there
 3 was a lot of stories in press going on and a lot of 4 them I decided I just didn't want to read. There was 5 a lot of stuff in there that just, I didn't want to 6 go through.
 7 Q Okay. Were you harmed on March 10th or 8 March 11th, 2011 by the issuance of a statement on 9 behalf of Ghislaine Maxwell?
 10 A I am harmed by Ghislaine Maxwell denying 11 anything that has ever happened between us, whether
 12 it's in 2002 or 2011 or 2015. I think that she knows
 13 what she did, and she should be held accountable for 14 them. And not only has she hurt me once, but she's 15 hurt me apparently twice and now three times.
 16 Q So on March 11th, 2011, say, how were you
 17 harmed by the issuance of this press statement?
 18 A She's denied that she had any involvement
 19 in the procuring of me and other young girls.
 20 Q Um-hum.
 21 A And she tries to make herself look like
 22 she had no partake in it.
 23 Q Did you suffer any physical symptoms on 24 March 11th, 2011 after this statement was issued, as 25 a consequence of this statement being issued?

Page 304

1 A Not being able to remember reading this in
 2 2011, it's hard to say. But it's the same thing that
 3 I'm going through right now. I mean, she's denied it
 4 again. And it is painful. It's physically painful.
 5 I am taking medication to help me deal with this.
 6 And --
 7 Q Okay. I'm just limiting you right now to 8 March of 2011.
 9 MR. EDWARDS: I would just ask that she's
 10 able to finish her answer, though, please.
 11 MS. MENNINGER: Well, the answer is 12 nonresponsive, so --
 13 MR. EDWARDS: In your opinion it's not
 14 responsive.
 15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I want you to 16 understand that the question is related to any
 17 physical symptoms you suffered in March of 2011 as a
 18 consequence of Defendant's Exhibit 26 being issued.
 19 A If I would have seen this in March 10th,
 20 2011, this would have been harmful to me.
 21 Q Okay. Do you recall, as you sit here
 22 today, experiencing any physical symptoms as a
 23 consequence of Defendant's Exhibit 26 being issued to 24 the press?
 25 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. Asked and

1 answered. Lacks predicate.

2 A I have been suffering from Ghislaine
3 Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein since the summer of 2000.
4 So hearing again in 2011 that she's denied it, of
5 course, it's going to hurt me.

6 Did I hear about this in 2011? I can't
7 tell you I honestly have.

8 In 2015 is when I know that she denied it.
9 And again, I haven't stopped suffering from the 10 repercussions that they put me through.

11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And I'm asking you to
12 separate, if you can, any symptoms that you
13 experienced anew in March of 2015 -- I mean, excuse
14 me, March of 2011, as a consequence of this statement
15 being issued, which I believe you said you don't
16 recall seeing at the time; is that fair?

17 A But you're asking me now about 2015?

18 Q Nope. March of 2011. Sorry, I misspoke
19 there.

20 A You're still on 2011?

21 Q Yes. Did you start taking any new
22 medications in March of 2011?

23 Let me ask you that.

24 A I've been taking medication to control my
25 [REDACTED] since 2002.

1 Q Okay. So did you take any new medications
2 or any additional amounts of medications in March of
3 2011?

4 A I have been taking the same medication
5 since 2002.

6 Q Okay.

7 A And that's due to [REDACTED]
8 caused from the pain that I suffered at the hands of
9 Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein.

10 Q Did you -- do you recall any neighbors or
11 other moms at the school or anybody in 2011
12 referencing to you in any way the fact that Ghislaine
13 Maxwell had issued a denial of the allegations about
14 her that had been published in the media in March of 15 2011?

16 A No. I didn't speak to any -- I didn't
17 speak to any moms about what I had gone through. I
18 mean, when it came out in the press, I don't think
19 any -- like, Australians don't pay attention to news,
20 number one.

21 Number two, the first time that my friends
22 contacted me they were shocked. And this was, I
23 believe in -- when the press picked it up again, I
24 think, was 2014/2015. And I got a whole bunch of
25 like Facebook texts from them saying, Oh, my God, I

1 can't believe you've been through this. I never
2 knew. I'm so sorry. You know, that kind of stuff.
3 So they never -- I never spoke to anybody about this
4 except for my husband.

5 Q All right. So the first time you recall
6 any sort of people in your community referencing
7 things to you is when the press picked up on it in
8 2014 or 2015?

9 A Yeah, I think it may be end of 2014, early
10 2015.

11 Q All right. And so in March of 2011 you
12 don't recall any neighbors or anybody saying anything
13 to you about this?

14 A No, I don't recall.

15 Q Did anyone tell you in March of 2011 about
16 Defendant's Exhibit 26, the statement on behalf of
17 Ghislaine Maxwell?

18 A No, otherwise I would have been able to
19 recall it.

20 Q Okay. Do you remember anyone in 2011
21 ridiculing you because of Defendant's Exhibit 26?

22 A Well, because nobody knew me as Virginia,
23 everybody knows me as Jenna, no one probably put two
24 and two together. And like I told you, I didn't tell
25 anybody. So there was nobody there to ridicule me in

1 2011 over this.

2 Q Where were you living in 2011 when Shaza
3 came to see you --

4 A Oh, [REDACTED].

5 Q Do you recall applying for any job in or
6 around 2011 and someone referencing Defendant's
7 Exhibit 26 and denying you a job?

8 A I don't -- I don't think I applied for a
9 job in 2011.

10 Q Okay. Did you go see a doctor and talk to
11 any doctor about Defendant's Exhibit 26?

12 A Not about this. Not about this paper
13 right here. But I have talked to doctors about my
14 abuse at the hands of Ghislaine and Jeffrey.

15 Q Have you talked to a doctor about any
16 statements in the press made by Ghislaine Maxwell?

17 A Recent statements, yes.

18 Q Which doctor did you speak to about that?

19 A Her name is Judith Lightfoot.

20 Q And where is she?

21 A She's in Australia.

22 Q Where in Australia?

23 A She's in Sydney, but we do phone
24 conversations.

25 Q Have you ever met her in person?

1 A Yes.

2 Q When?

3 A In 2011.

4 Q All right. And is she affiliated with an
5 office or a hospital or what?

6 A She's a psychiatrist.

7 Q All right. Have you seen her in person
8 since 2011?

9 A No, because I've lived so far away and
10 she's kind of the only person that -- like, I've seen
11 a lot of doctors. And I can honestly tell you --
12 it's really hard for them to break down the walls and
13 be comfortable enough to talk to them about this
14 stuff. Judith is different. She's somebody that I
15 feel I can trust. She's 76 and she's just a very
16 lovely lady.

17 And she offers me other ways to deal with
18 my pain and suffering. And I continue to see her
19 over the phone because I can't see her in person.

20 Q Do you recall ever discussing with her
21 Defendant's Exhibit 26?

22 A I can't recall ever seeing this exhibit.
23 So --

24 Q Okay.
25 (Exhibit 27 marked.)

1 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) I'm going to give you
2 Defendant's Exhibit 27.

3 A Yes.

4 Q All right. Have you seen this document
5 before?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And what do you understand it to be?

8 A [REDACTED] sounds like a PR, if
9 I'm not right -- if I'm not wrong. Sent -- or
10 subject is Ghislaine Maxwell. I don't know [REDACTED]
11 [REDACTED]
12 [REDACTED].

13 It says: To whom it may concern, Please
14 find attached credible statement on behalf of
15 Ms. Maxwell.

16 And then it goes on, to hear about that
17 she is saying: Each time the story is retold it
18 changes with new salacious details about public
19 figures and world leaders and now it is alleged by
20 Ms. Roberts that Alan Dershowitz is involved in
21 having sexual relations with her, which he denies.

22 Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious lies and
23 should be treated as such and not publicized as news,
24 as they are defamatory. Ghislaine Maxwell's original
25 response to the lies and defamatory claims remains

1 the same. Maxwell strongly denies -- excuse me.

2 Excuse me -- strongly denies allegations of an
3 unsavory nature, which have appeared in the British
4 press and elsewhere and reserves her right to seek
5 redress at the repetition of such old defamatory
6 claims.

7 Q All right. Have you seen this statement
8 before?

9 A I've seen it recently, yes.

10 Q All right. What -- have you discussed
11 this statement with Ms. Lightfoot? I don't know if 12 she's a doctor or what.

13 A Psychiatrist, yeah.

14 Q Is she an MD?

15 A I don't know what her levels of credential
16 are. I'm sure she is.

17 Q Okay. When is the first time that you saw
18 the statement?

19 A This full statement I have only seen
20 through discovery. The original statement that I saw
21 in the press was, Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious
22 lies and so on, so forth. I don't remember seeing
23 this in the press.

24 Q Okay. So the part that you remember
25 seeing in the press is Ms. Roberts' claims are

1 obvious lies?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Anything else about this?

4 A I can't remember what else she printed in
5 the press. It's a very horrible thing for her to do,
6 turn around and call me a liar after everything that
7 she knows she's done. And I didn't expect her to
8 come out and be truthful.

9 Jeffrey Epstein hasn't even issued a
10 statement.

11 Q Sorry. I'm sorry if you misunderstood my
12 question.

13 A Yes.

14 Q Was there anything else within this
15 statement that you recall seeing in the press besides
16 the line, Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious lies?

17 A Without saying 100 percent, I think that
18 the original allegations are not new and have been
19 fully responded to be shown to be untrue. I don't
20 know if that's in the press or not, but I've read
21 this before.

22 So I don't know if I'm confusing this with
23 what I've read out of this or what I've read in the
24 press. The main thing is, I know she called me a
25 liar, and that's what she publicized.

1 Q And when you say she called you a liar,
2 that's the Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious lies part?
3 A Yes.
4 Q Okay. When is the first time that you saw
5 this whole document?
6 A I guess when you guys handed it over for 7 discovery.
8 Q Okay. And who showed it to you?
9 A It was sent to me by e-mail.
10 Q Okay. Just through the course of 11 communicating with your attorneys?
12 A Yes.
13 Q You've never seen it published?
14 A Not this whole e-mail, no.
15 Q All right. Did you -- I'm sorry, did you
16 discuss this publication of what you saw in the press
17 with Judith Lightfoot?
18 A Yes.
19 Q All right. And when did you discuss it
20 with her?
21 A When I got back to Australia, Judith and I
22 started seeing each other again. Before then, I
23 spoke with a doctor in Colorado about this. His name
24 is Dr. Olsen. And it was causing me a lot of 25 distress to have to deal with being called a liar all

1 over again, when I know I'm standing up doing the
2 right thing. And the doctor prescribed me
3 [REDACTED]. And, yeah.
4 Q Okay. So my question was, when did you
5 discuss it with Judith Lightfoot?
6 I think I now understand you did that
7 after you returned to Australia in November or so of 8 2015; is that right?
9 A I returned to Australia in October, and
10 that's when I picked up talking to her again.
11 Q All right. And you're saying that at 12 another point in time you talked to another doctor,
13 Dr. Olsen, in Colorado, correct?
14 A Correct.
15 Q And when did you meet with Dr. Olsen?
16 A I don't know the first date that I met
17 with him.
18 Q Did you meet with him more than once?
19 A I believe so.
20 Q And you believe you spoke with him about
21 Ghislain Maxwell's published statement in the press
22 that Ms. Roberts' claims are obvious lies.
23 That's what you believe you spoke with 24 Dr. Olsen about?
25 A I spoke with Dr. Olsen about being called

1 a liar from the people that abused me.
2 Q Okay. Do you recall specifically
3 mentioning to him Ghislaine Maxwell's statement to
4 the press?
5 A I mentioned a lot of names to him.
6 Q Okay. What new symptoms did you
7 experience following January 2nd, 2015?
8 A I think it's one thing to be a victim of 9 sexual abuse and survive it and come out trying to 10 tell the world my story, and then another thing for 11 it to be shut down because these people, Ms. Maxwell
12 and others are calling me liars (sic).
13 Q And I asked you what symptoms had you
14 experienced --
15 MR. EDWARDS: She's going to finish her
16 answer to this question. You cut her off so many 17 times.
18 MS. MENNINGER: It has nothing to do with
19 this.
20 MR. EDWARDS: It absolutely does. Because 21 this is a psychological damages claim, and she is 22 trying to explain to you what those damages are.
23 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. What are your 24 symptoms that you experienced since January 2nd, 2015
25 that are new?

1 A Very strong anxiety attacks, bad panic
2 attacks. My throat closes up, I can't breathe. I
3 vomit when I have anxiety attacks. My -- this is 4 personal, but my sex life has suffered. My marriage
5 has suffered. Psychologically, it's just hurt me all
6 over again. I mean, they've hurt me before, and now
7 they've hurt me again by doing this.
8 And I felt like I was in the process of 9 healing before this came out because I had opened up
10 this wonderful charity called Victims Refuse Silence.
11 And then my aim was to heal by helping other girls
12 get out of the situations that I was in before.
13 And my lawyers were nice enough to help
14 me. I have this beautiful website where you can
15 click on in any state and you can find a place. I
16 have personally called all of them and they will help
17 you get out of the situation that you're in. They 18 will get you medical help. They will get you legal 19 advice. I think I was in the really good process of 20 healing. And when this came out, it just ruined me
21 all over again.
22 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. Tell me
23 all of the damages that you claim occurred to you
24 because of Defendant's Exhibit 27.
25 A My reputation, my psychological abuse,

1 physical ailments. My marriage has suffered, my
2 family life has suffered. I'm constantly battling
3 depression. I feel like I've taken 10 steps forward
4 and 12 steps back since this all happened.

5 Q Okay. And by since this all happened, do
6 you mean since January 2nd, 2015?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q All right. Have you lost any income since
9 January 2nd, 2015 as a consequence of Defendant's
10 Exhibit 27?

11 A Well, I believe that my charity that was 12 going to go forward and help other victims was going 13 to not only bring in income but also be able to 14 provide women with shelters and food and assistance
15 that I wanted to help them with.

16 I haven't been able to get a job or work
17 or anything like that. You know, financially, my 18 husband brings home the money for me. But as myself
19 goes, I couldn't work right now with everything going 20 on.

21 Q How much income were you making prior to 22 December 30th, 2014?

23 A Well, I've been a stay-at-home mom since
24 2006.

25 Q So how much income have you lost as a

1 result of Defendant's Exhibit 27?

2 A I could only imagine, you know, being the
3 head of a corporation, a charity, I would be earning 4 a decent wage. It's hard to say how much I would be
5 earning because it is a non for-profit.

6 But because of these statements telling
7 everybody in the world that I'm a liar, my charity
8 has not been able to take off. And as a consequence
9 of that, I have missed out on the results of not 10 being able to go forward with it.

11 Q Okay. Have you applied for any job that 12 you've been denied since January 2nd, 2015?

13 A I haven't been denied a job. I haven't --
14 I've just -- I thought about applying for jobs, but I
15 mean, the second that you Google my name, people are 16 going to know exactly who I am. And these days,
17 employers Google everything, and it makes me fearful
18 that if I do go apply for a job, which I would like
19 to. I mean, my kids are all at school now. I'd like 20 to get back into the work force.

21 But I'm afraid if I do, my past is going
22 to stop me from being able to do that. No one wants
23 to hire a sex slave.

24 Q How has your reputation been harmed by
25 Defendant's Exhibit 27?

1 A Well, number one, my charity. I mean,
2 that's -- that was my voice for other people to get
3 help. And I don't think that people want to get help
4 from somebody who's being called a liar in the press,
5 somebody who is claiming to be a victim that isn't.
6 I mean, I wouldn't want to get help from somebody who
7 did that, you know.

8 And I know when I introduce myself to 9 people these days, I don't introduce myself as 10 Virginia anymore. I introduce myself as another name
11 because I'm afraid that if people read papers or if 12 people Google or find out who I am that they'll think
13 differently of me.

14 Q What do you introduce yourself as?

15 A I tell everybody my name is Jenna.

16 Q In what country or location has your 17 reputation been damaged as a consequence of
18 Defendant's Exhibit 27?

19 A Considering this is worldwide publication,
20 I would say England, America, Australia. You
21 know, friends in Australia were seeing my face on 22 national TV. Like I said, I can't remember if it was 23 2014 or 2015. And I have since not been in contact
24 with those friends. I thanked them for their 25 sympathies, but it's not something I want people to

1 know about. You know, especially people close to me.

2 I mean, I want to go out there and I want
3 to help other victims. But being called a liar and
4 people having to sit there and second guess if I'm
5 telling the truth or not doesn't really give me much
6 incentive to want to make friends.

7 Q Did anyone in Penrose, Colorado approach
8 you and mention Ghislaine Maxwell's name?

9 A We have reporters at our door.

10 Q Did anyone in Penrose, Colorado approach
11 you and mention Ghislaine Maxwell's name?

12 A What, reporters? Yes, plenty of them.

13 Q Did anyone who lives in Penrose, Colorado
14 approach you and mention Ghislaine Maxwell's name?

15 A Have you ever been to Penrose? It's --
16 it's in the middle of nowhere. So you really -- I
17 didn't have friends in Penrose. There was nobody
18 that I knew there.

19 Q All right. And which reporters mentioned
20 you and Maxwell's name to you in Penrose, Colorado?

21 A We have reporters chasing us down the 22 street, in car parks, taking my kids to the doctor's,
23 going to the grocery store. You know, asking me all
24 kinds of questions about it. And I didn't talk to 25 any journalists or reporters about it.

Q And what do you recall any reporter saying to you that included the name Ghislaine Maxwell?

A Asking me -- I don't remember what they asked me, to be honest. There was regarding Ghislaine and Alan Dershowitz and Jeffrey Epstein. I mean, it was an array -- you know how reporters can be when they're hashing at you.

Q Okay. So no one in Penrose, Colorado who lived there mentioned Ghislaine Maxwell by name to you?

A Besides reporters?

Q Right. People who live in Penrose, Colorado.

A Right. I didn't know anyone in Penrose, except for my mom.

Q Okay. Now, in March or April of 2015 did you fly to New York?

A I'm sorry, what date?

Q March or April of 2015, did you fly to New York?

A It's a possibility.

Q Did you stay at the Ritz-Carlton?

A It's definitely a possibility.

Q Were you there with Mr. Edwards and Mr. Cassell and Sigrid McCawley?

A I've been to New York quite a few times. So I'd have to refresh my memory. But I have been to New York with Brad Edwards and Paul Cassell and Sigrid McCawley.

Q Was that after January 2nd, 2015?

A Definitely could be.

Q Did you give an interview to ABC News on camera?

A I did.

Q And that was after January 2nd, 2015?

A I did.

Q Did you give an interview to Good Morning America?

A No.

Q All right. Did you correspond at all with Good Morning America about the publication of your story?

A I can't remember if ABC and Good Morning America wanted to do something together. I can't -- all I know is I was interviewed by one person at ABC. I never was interviewed by anyone from Good Morning America. Maybe they were going to show the same airing in the same show, but powers that be, of course, wouldn't let it go forward.

Q Did you give a lecture to the Human Trafficking Coalition sometime after January 2nd, 2015?

A I did give -- I did go for a speaking engagement. I don't remember when.

Q Was there any speaking engagement you had booked that was canceled after January 2nd, 2015?

A I can't remember off the top of my head.

Q All right. You founded Victims Refuse Silence in February of 2014, correct?

A It was -- it was a process because, obviously, you have to go through all the bylaws and everything. I think we started it in October of 2014, but it wasn't official until January, I think.

Q Okay. So in the period it was in operations before January 2nd, 2015, had you gotten any -- had you been paid any salary by Victims Refuse Silence?

A No, I hadn't.

Q Had --

A I mean, it was just up and running. So there was no --

Q Had any contributions been made to Victims Refuse Silence before January 2nd, 2015?

A I can't recall. You know, we've only had a few contributions. I don't know what dates they were put in.

Q Has anyone else called you a liar in the press?

A Yes.

Q Who?

A Alan Dershowitz.

Q Anyone else?

A Ghislaine Maxwell, obviously.

Q Anyone else?

A Not that I know of.

Q Has anyone else publicly denied your allegations?

A From what Ghislaine Maxwell said?

Q Have you seen any press in which another person has denied your allegations?

MR. EDWARDS: Objection. Vague.

A I've seen allegations denied by Ms. Maxwell. And I've seen the allegations denied by Alan Dershowitz.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And Alan Dershowitz actually went on TV and called you a serial liar, correct?

A Very correct.

Q You saw that, correct?

A Yes.

1 Q And that hurt your feelings?
2 A Badly.
3 Q Did Buckingham Palace issue a denial of
4 your allegation?
5 A Yes, that's another one.
6 Q Did Prince Andrew make a public statement
7 in which he denied your allegations?
8 MR. EDWARDS: Form.
9 A I think he did.
10 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) How do you know which
11 harm you've suffered is attributable to Ghislaine
12 Maxwell's denial versus Alan Dershowitz's denial or
13 Prince Andrew's denial?
14 A Ghislaine Maxwell brought me into the sex
15 trafficking industry. She's the one who abused me on
16 a regular basis. She's the one that procured me,
17 told me what to do, trained me as a sex slave, abused
18 me physically, abused me mentally.
19 She's the one who I believe, in my heart
20 of hearts, deserves to come forward and have justice
21 happen to her more than anybody. Being a woman, it's
22 disgusting.
23 Q So you cannot delineate what harm you have
24 suffered in terms of all of the psychological damage
25 you just disclosed?

1 A Oh, of course.
2 Q -- if that is attributable to Ghislaine
3 Maxwell's statement on January 2nd versus Alan
4 Dershowitz calling you a serial liar on Good Morning
5 America?
6 A Of course, it all hurts. Okay? I know
7 Alan Dershowitz is lying himself. I know Prince
8 Andrew is lying himself. Of course those hurt. It
9 doesn't feel good to have people who have done
10 something to you deny something that's happened, when
11 I'm actually brave enough to come forward and talk
12 about it.
13 What hurts me the worst is that Ghislaine
14 Maxwell brought me into this. Not only has she hurt
15 me once, but she's hurt me twice coming forward and
16 saying, This is not true, this is categorically
17 untrue and obvious lies.
18 That to me is a stick in the mud and that
19 to me is what caused the most harm to me.
20 Q Okay. And so can you point to any person
21 who has referenced Ghislaine Maxwell's denial in the
22 press or to your face or anywhere?
23 A Can I point to a person?
24 Q Can you point to any time that someone has
25 referenced Ghislaine Maxwell's denial to you in any

1 context?
2 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form of the
3 question.
4 A Can I point to a person -- I'm sorry. I
5 don't understand. Can you rephrase it for me --
6 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right.
7 A -- so I can understand what you mean?
8 Q Where you live in Australia now, has
9 anyone referenced the name Ghislaine Maxwell to you?
10 A After all of the news hits, after the
11 press hits in 2015 and, you know, everyone is calling
12 me a liar, all of my friends in Australia called me
13 and talked to me and said, I can't believe this. I
14 can't believe what you went through.
15 That was very embarrassing for something
16 that I tried to keep separate from my other life
17 where I would like to help victims. I didn't want
18 the friends of my kids parents knowing about that
19 stuff. You know, and of course they all felt sorry
20 for me. And you know, like I said. I didn't know
21 anybody in Penrose. So there's nobody that could
22 have come up to me and talked to me about it. My
23 mom.
24 Q This question was about Australia, sorry.
25 A Oh, sorry, I thought you were talking

1 about pointing out people.
2 Q No.
3 A Okay, well in Australia, yes, at least a
4 dozen friends.
5 Q They came up and they mentioned Ghislaine
6 Maxwell's denial to the press to you?
7 A They couldn't believe what I had been
8 through and, you know, that these were, you know,
9 being denied, and they felt sorry for me. And, you
10 know, it was the whole circumference of things.
11 Q So the people in Australia that came up to 12 you had sympathy for you and believed you, correct?
13 A Yes.
14 Q All right. And when you spoke to
15 Dr. Olsen you recall specifically mentioning
16 Ghislaine Maxwell's press release?
17 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
18 A Yes, I remember mentioning her, as well as
19 the press release, as well as other press releases.
20 And the abuse that I had occurred (sic) from the
21 hands of Jeffrey and Ghislaine.
22 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. When have you
23 been diagnosed with a mental health condition, first?
24 A I don't know. I mean, I've been told that
25 I've got [REDACTED]. You know --

Q When were you first told that?

A Well, early in -- early in 2003, I believe is the first time that I was suffering from [REDACTED]. And then my doctor, Judith Lightfoot, has in 2011 [REDACTED].

And, you know, I've recently seen another doctor who said that I've got the exact same symptoms that Judith Lightfoot mentioned, which is [REDACTED].

Q Which doctor is that?

A You know, I don't honestly know his name.

Q When did you see this new doctor?

A Um --

MR. EDWARDS: Sorry. If you're referring to a doctor that's been sent to you by one of your lawyers --

THE DEPONENT: Yes.

MR. EDWARDS: -- at this time, I'm instructing you not to answer.

THE DEPONENT: Okay.

MS. MENNINGER: Wait. What is it? You've seen a doctor and you're not going to answer what doctor you've seen?

MR. EDWARDS: Sure. If it's a consulting witness in this case that has seen her at the direction of an attorney, that has not yet been disclosed per any expert witness disclosure, then I'm instructing her not to answer that question.

If that's what you're referring to. I don't know if that's what you're referring to.

THE DEPONENT: That's what I'm referring to.

Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. So you recall seeing Dr. Lightfoot. You recall seeing Dr. Olsen. And you recall seeing a new unnamed doctor recently.

Anyone else you've seen since January 2nd, 2015?

A Dr. Olsen, Dr. Lightfoot. Oh, Dr. Donahue.

Q Where is Dr. Donahue located?

A He's in my suburb or he's a suburb next to me in Australia.

Q And is that a psychiatric-type doctor, a medical-type doctor?

A He's medical.

Q And what did you see him for or her for?

A I didn't have anybody to basically -- I

just got to Australia and Judith Lightfoot was helping me. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] And I told him the reason.

Q And this is since you returned to Australia?

A Correct.

Q And this is the first time you had seen that doctor?

A I've seen that doctor twice now.

Q I'm sorry, what was the name again? I know you already said it, but I just --

A Dr. Donahue.

Q Donahue, all right.

This doctor that you haven't yet disclosed, where did you see that person? In what country?

A United States.

Q And in what state?

A San Francisco.

Q And when did you see that doctor?

A Um, Friday. Last Friday.

Q And how many times have you seen that doctor?

A Once. Well, twice actually. I saw him

the next day, too.

Q All right. Did you suffer from anxiety before meeting Jeffrey Epstein?

A I was never prescribed anything for anxiety before I met Jeffrey Epstein.

Q That wasn't my question.

A Did I --

Q Were you suffering from anxiety before you met Jeffrey Epstein?

A I think a person who has gone through as much trauma as I have in my life would suffer from quite a few problems. But like I said, I was never prescribed anything until I met Jeffrey Epstein.

Q Did you suffer from panic attacks before meeting Jeffrey Epstein?

A Nowhere near as bad, no.

Q So you did suffer from [REDACTED]. They just weren't as severe; is that what your testimony is?

A No, what I'm trying to say is I did have [REDACTED]. I did have [REDACTED]. I had lived a very hard life prior to meeting Jeffrey Epstein as well.

After meeting Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell, everything escalated. That's when I started to take Xanax and smoke marijuana to help

1 calm the anxiety and everything down.

2 Q Before you met Jeffrey Epstein, had you
3 used any drugs?

4 A Sure, yes.

5 Q Which drugs had you used prior to meeting
6 Jeffrey Epstein?

7 A I smoked pot. I've taken Ecstasy.

8 Q Cocaine?

9 A Yeah, I would have snorted cocaine,
10 um-hum.

11 Q Did you ever abuse alcohol before meeting
12 Jeffrey Epstein?

13 A No, I was -- I wasn't even of age to be
14 able to buy it. I mean, if there was alcohol at
15 parties I would have drank it, but I wouldn't say I
16 abused it.

17 Q Okay. Were there ever occasions upon
18 which you were observed to be drunk by other people
19 prior to meeting Jeffrey Epstein?

20 A If you're drinking, the possibility of
21 getting drunk is always there. I don't -- I can't
22 recall exact situation where that was the case,
23 but --

24 Q Were you diagnosed as a drug addict prior
25 to meeting Jeffrey Epstein?

Page 334

1 A No, I was not diagnosed as a drug addict.

2 Q Were you sent to live at a rehabilitation

3 facility because of your use of drugs?

4 A No, that was more of a group home. Yes,

5 it was also a rehab facility, but it wasn't because I

6 was a drug addict. I wasn't coming off of anything.

7 Q Had you abused drugs prior to meeting

8 Jeffrey Epstein?

9 A I took drugs. I didn't abuse them, but I

10 took them.

11 Q Okay.

12 A Recreationally.

13 Q How often do you see Dr. Lightfoot?

14 A Once a week every Monday. I've skipped

15 this week because I've been over here and it's

16 expensive to call back home right now, unless you

17 FaceTime, but --

18 Q Has Dr. Lightfoot recommended that you see

19 a treating doctor in person?

20 A No, she's -- she knows my history pretty

21 well. And she's a very wonderful woman and I

22 honestly wouldn't -- Dr. Donahue wants me to go see

23 another psychiatrist in person, but I prefer to stay

24 with Judith because she's someone I can personally

25 relate to.

1 Q How much does it cost you every time you
2 talk to Dr. Lightfoot?
3 A Her normal fee is $200.
4 Q And how much do you pay?
5 A She doesn't charge me anything anymore.
6 Q When did she stop charging you?
7 A Since I got back to Australia.
8 Q So before you left for Titusville,
9 Florida, you saw her and you were paying $200 per 10 session?
11 A Yes.
12 Q And what has Dr. Lightfoot recommended
13 that you do in order to get better?
14 A She loves what I'm doing with speaking
15 out. She thinks the more that I speak out about it,
16 the stronger I'll become. She recommends that I
17 write my book, I tell my story. She thinks not only
18 will it help me, but by helping me it'll help others
19 find a way to get out of the situation and to know
20 that there's other girls who have gone through what
21 I've gone through and what they're going through.
22 She recommends meditation, breathing
23 techniques, focus techniques.
24 Q Does she prescribe medications for you?
25 A No. she doesn't. She's a spiritual

Page 336

1 doctor.

2 Q Is there anything that she's recommended

3 that you do that you're not doing?

4 A Is there anything that I do that she

5 recommends I don't? Sorry, say that one more time.

6 Q That's okay. Is there anything that

7 Dr. Lightfoot has recommended that you do that you

8 are not actually doing?

9 Are you following her advice?

10 A Yes, I am.

11 Q Okay. And what has Dr. Donahue

12 recommended that you do?

1 Q When was it?
2 A I don't know the exact date.
3 Q What's your best recollection?
4 A I don't know. I would have to have dates
5 in front of me. If you've got something that has a
6 date on there, I'm happy to look at it and tell you
7 it's right or wrong.
8 Q It was a few months ago or many months
9 ago?
10 A Um, to my best recollection, it was about
11 a year ago.
12 MS. MENNINGER: I have no further
13 questions for you at this time. As you know, there
14 are some questions that you refused to answer and 15 other questions that your attorney directed you not 16 to answer. So we will take those up with the Court
17 and may see you again.
18 THE DEPONENT: Okay.
19 MR. EDWARDS: And just as a matter of
20 clarification, I don't believe that there's anything
21 she's refused to answer. There may be things that 22 I've instructed her not to answer because I believe
23 that they were privileged or for whatever reason I
24 instructed her not to answer but she hasn't refused
25 to answer them.

1 Either way, the record is what it is.
2 MS. MENNINGER: I was going to say, do you
3 dispute that the court reporter has been taking down
4 what was said this entire time?
5 MR. EDWARDS: I'll read it. She'll read.
6 MS. MENNINGER: Actually, that's a good
7 question.
8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you have any 9 questions that I've asked you today that you don't
10 feel like you understood?
11 A No, I don't think that there's questions
12 that you've asked me that I don't think I've 13 understood. But, you know, I really just want to 14 state something for my own piece of mind, if that's 15 okay, if I'm allowed to do that.
16 Q No, that's not really what this forum is 17 about.
18 A Okay.
19 Q There are other forums.
20 MR. EDWARDS: That will only be good for 21 them. There is no reason to say that.
22 THE DEPONENT: Okay.
23 MR. EDWARDS: You get a chance to talk
24 later.
25 Do you have an order form? And she'll

1 read it.
2 MS. MENNINGER: We're going off the
3 record.
4 MR. EDWARDS: Yeah, that's fine. She'll
5 read.
6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: That concludes today's
7 proceedings. We're off the record at 5:28.

Hi Jenna,

My suggestion is for you to do a Freedom of Information Act request (www.foia.gov) for the information you are looking for because I am not able to release information (should there be any) from FBI records. You need to include as many details as possible so they can focus and narrow the search. Explain that you are looking for information related to your recovery as a victim of Ron Eppinger. The process may take some time but it is the appropriate method for you to obtain any possible records regarding your recovery. Hope this helps.

Best wishes,

Jason

G'day Jason,

I know I am a pain in your rear right now and I don't want to be but I am so close to wrapping up an era, just need a couple dates confirmed is all.

If you aren't sure about the dates which you have already said that's fine. I have turned the Wilton Manors police dept upside down looking through records and come up w nada. What was your acquaintance's name that took my statement about Ron Eppinger? Is it possible that it wasn't Wilton Manors and maybe it was somewhere else?

I'm really racking my brain about this!! It would be a personal favor to me and I am so very much appreciative of anything you might know!!

Thanks a lot mate!!

Hi Jason,

Long time, no talk. I hope all has been well for you and yours!! I am now back in the USA, not too many people know about that and I'd like to keep it that way as my case against Jeffrey Epstein has intensified!! I am here to get this BS non- prosecution agreement thrown out and speaking w Judge Paul Cassal he suggested trying to get ahold of any photos and/or video recordings released by the FBI to assist our case further in proving how much pedophilia occurred by Jeffrey and the many other monsters he obliged w underage girls. If this is a possibility please let me know so I can give you Brad Edwards(my attorney) his contact details. Many thanks for your time and I hope we should meet again.

Kindest Regards,
Virginia Roberts

Hi Christina,

I was wondering if you remember me from Sydney Consulate, I am a victim in the investigation from the Jeffrey Epstein case and was wondering if you could tell me if I would be able to get ahold of any of the pics and/or videos that the FBI might have confiscated from any of Epstein's residences? Also can I ask if you might have any of the flight logs that include my name in them to be sent to me as well. It's all for evidential purposes and would prove a many of things to help my case.

Kindest Regards,
Virginia Roberts

2 A. I think everyone here can
3 understand what intercourse is, is when you
4 have sex. I don't know how to say
5 intercourse any other way, having sex with 6 somebody. Perhaps you would like to define
7 it for me.

8 Q. I'm trying to get your definition
9 right now because you are the witness. When 10 you use the term intercourse, what are you
11 referring to?

12 A. I'm referring to a penis entering
13 someone's vagina.

14 Q. Now, have you ever engaged in oral
15 sex?

16 A. In my life?

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: There are specific
18 areas that the court has allowed inquiry
19 into, and those are delineated in the 20 court's order of June 20th. The 21 open-ended "Have you ever engaged in 22 oral sex" is not part of the court's
23 order at page 10, and the court
24 specifically indicated that sexual

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. With whom?

6 A. Mr. Epstein.

7 Q. Did you ever have oral sex with
8 anyone in any of Mr. Epstein's five homes
9 that you've identified other than 10 Mr. Epstein?

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to
12 instruct you not to answer, unless you
13 tie it to a specific individual related
14 to this case per the court's order.

15 MR. BOIES: I think the court's
16 order specifically permits this question
17 with respect to occasions related to 18 this case. If you instruct her not to 19 answer, all you're going to do is bring
20 her back. That's up to you.

21 MR. PAGLIUCA: It's up to you as
22 the questioner, Mr. Boies. The court's
23 order says the defendant need not answer
24 questions that relate to none of these
25 subjects or that is clearly not relevant

3 A. I would not know. I would say no.

4 Q. Did you engage in sexual activities
5 with Johanna?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do you know how Johanna came to 8 know Mr. Epstein?

9 A. I met her at her university and she
10 came to answer phones.

11 Q. When you say she came to answer
12 phones, where?

13 A. In Palm Beach.

14 Q. At Mr. Epstein's home in Palm
15 Beach?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. So is it fair to say that Johanna
18 was initially hired to answer telephones,
19 according to your testimony?

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: This has already 21 been testified to Mr. Boies. We are 22 repeating testimony now.

23 MR. BOIES: I think in the context
24 of the witness' answers, these are fair
25 questions.

2 Now, I've asked you before, if you

4 you want to go to the judge, we are

6 in the interest of moving it along, that
7 you stop these speeches.

8 MR. PAGLIUCA: You are not moving
9 it along is the problem, so maybe we
10 should call the court and get some
11 direction here, because I am not going
12 to sit here and rehash the testimony we 13 already gave.

14 MR. BOIES: That's fine.

15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is
16 10:51 a.m. and we are going off the 18 (Whereupon, an off-the-record

19 discussion was held.)

9 MR. BOIES: Exactly the procedure
10 that I have proposed from the beginning.
11 If you think a question is out of 12 bounds, instruct not to answer and we 13 will then let the judge decide it.

14 BY MR. BOIES:

15 Q. How did it happen, Ms. Maxwell,
16 that Johanna, who had been hired to answer
17 the phones, ended up giving massages to you
18 and Mr. Epstein?

19 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to
20 instruct you not to answer the question.
21 This has been previously, the subject of 22 your former deposition, it doesn't fall
23 into any of the categories ordered by 24 the court, and so you don't need to
25 answer that.

Confidential

Page 82

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential

2 Q. Was Johanna paid for the massages
3 that she gave you?

4 A. I didn't pay her, so I believe she
5 was paid.

6 Q. Who paid her?

7 A. I don't know who paid her.

8 MR. PAGLIUCA: Again, you've
9 already answered that there was no
10 sexual activity between yourself and
11 Mr. Epstein related to these massages.
12 That's record testimony today. That's
13 within the scope of the court's order.
14 The rest of this is outside the scope of 15 the court's order, and I instruct you
16 not to answer.

17 MR. BOIES: You are taking the
18 position that as long as she said says
19 that a massage did not involve sexual
20 activity, we cannot ask about massages.
21 That's your view?

22 MR. PAGLIUCA: On this particular
23 questioning, yes.

24 BY MR. BOIES:

25 Q. Did Mr. Epstein pay Johanna for the

Confidential

Page 83

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential

2 massages that she gave Mr. Epstein?

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: You just asked this
4 question, and I told her not to answer.
5 I will tell her not to answer again for
6 the same reasons.

7 Q. Do you know how much Mr. Epstein
8 paid Johanna to give massages?

9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same instruction to 10 the witness. Why do you believe this is
11 within the scope of the court's order?

12 MR. BOIES: Because of the court's
13 reference to massages, and because I
14 think how much a girl who was hired to 15 answer the phone was paid to give a
16 "massage" goes to whether there actually
17 was or was not sexual activity involved.

18 MR. PAGLIUCA: The witness has 19 testified there wasn't.

20 MR. BOIES: Perhaps it will
21 surprise you, I think it should not,
22 that I do not believe in my deposition I
23 need to simply accept her
24 characterization without
25 cross-examination. Now, that's

Confidential

Page 84

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential
2 something the judge can decide, but a
3 question as to how much this young girl
4 was being paid for a "massage", I think
5 goes directly to the issue of sexual
6 activity.

7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Here is the problem,
8 Mr. Boies, at the first deposition,
9 there were very limited instructions not
10 to answer and the witness was not told
11 not to answer questions about how much
12 people were paid or not paid or any of 13 those subject matters. The witness was 14 only instructed not to answer about 15 sexual activity concerning adults in the 16 home.

17 None of this came up during the
18 deposition, and you just don't get a
19 chance to redo the deposition because
20 you feel like you want to.

21 So the judge's order is in the 22 context of the instructions to the 23 witness not to answer in the first
24 deposition, which is simply sexual
25 activity involving adults, which was the

2 were sex toys or devices used in sexual
3 activities in Mr. Epstein's property in the 4 Virgin Islands?

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
6 and foundation.

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you know whether Mr. Epstein
9 possessed sex toys or devices used in sexual
10 activities?

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
12 and foundation.

13 A. No.

14 Q. Did you ever assist Mr. Epstein in 15 obtaining sex toys or devices used in sexual
16 activities?

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
18 and foundation.

19 A. No.

20 Q. In the 1990s and 2000s, did you
21 ever have possession of or use sex toys or 22 devices used in sexual activities?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Did you, in the 1990s and 2000s,
25 engage in sexual activities other than

Confidential

2 intercourse with women other than what you
3 have testified to already?

4 MR. PAGLIUCA: First of all, I
5 object to the form and foundation and
6 it's also outside of the court's order
7 because it's unclear as you question,
8 and I specifically direct you to the 9 last line of the court's order: Sexual
10 activity of third parties who bear no
11 knowledge or relation to key events,
12 individuals or locations in this case.

13 MR. BOIES: This simply asks yes or 14 no, and I think that it is an 15 appropriate question given some of the 16 witness' prior answers, but there is no
17 point in debating it, because if you
18 instruct her not to answer, the judge
19 will decide whether it's appropriate.

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm just telling you
21 if you tie it to something in this case,
22 I will let her answer.

23 MR. BOIES: Are you instructing her
24 not to answer?

25 MR. PAGLIUCA: Yes, unless you tie

2 A. I don't recall ever hearing such a
3 thing.

4 Q. You know Mr. Les Wexner, correct?

5 A. I do.

6 Q. Do you know whether or not Maria
7 Farmer was ever at Mr. Wexner's property in
8 Ohio?

9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Can you tell me how
10 that relates to this order, counselor?

11 MR. BOIES: Yes, I think it goes
12 directly to the sexual activity related
13 to Maria Farmer and what Mr. Epstein was 14 doing with Maria Farmer.

15 Again, you can instruct not to
16 answer.

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm trying to 18 understand why you are asking these
19 questions before I --

20 MR. BOIES: I'm asking these
21 questions because these are people who
22 not only have been publicly written
23 about in terms of the sexual activity
24 that they were put into in connection
25 with Mr. Epstein, but the person who

Confidential

Page 100

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential
2 wrote about them is somebody who talked
3 to this witness about it, and I think
4 that this is more than easily understood
5 cross-examination.

6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Your question was,
7 do you know whether or not Maria Farmer
8 was ever at Mr. Wexner's property in
9 Ohio.

10 MR. BOIES: Yes. And if you let
11 her answer, you will see where it leads.
12 If you won't let her answer, the judge
13 is going to determine it. And I just 14 suggest to you that you stop these
15 speeches and stop debating, because you
16 are not going to convince me not to 17 follow-up on these questions. If you
18 can convince the court to truncate the 19 deposition, that's your right, but all
20 you're doing is dragging this deposition
21 out.

22 MR. PAGLIUCA: You have the
23 opportunity to give me a good faith
24 basis why you are asking these
25 questions.

Confidential

Page 101

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential

2 MR. BOIES: I have given you a good
3 faith basis.

4 MR. PAGLIUCA: You haven't.

5 MR. BOIES: Then instruct not to
6 answer.

7 MR. PAGLIUCA: I am giving you the
8 opportunity to say why you are asking
9 the question, and why I'm telling her
10 not to answer and I am entitled to know
11 that.

12 MR. BOIES: You are not entitled to
13 know why I'm asking the question. You
14 are only entitled to know that it
15 relates to the subject matter that I am
16 entitled to inquire about, and I don't 17 think the judge is going to think that,
18 you know, where Mr. Epstein shipped
19 Maria Farmer off to is outside the scope
20 of what I'm entitled to inquire about.

21 THE WITNESS: Can we take a break?

22 MR. BOIES: Only if you commit not 23 to talk to your counsel during the 24 break.

25 THE WITNESS: That's ludicrous.

2 Q. Insofar as you were aware, did
3 Virginia Roberts ever have a male friend that
4 visited her at the Epstein residences?

5 A. I don't recall ever seeing a man
6 with Virginia. I believe she had a fiance
7 that I was aware of, I think, but that's all.

8 Q. When were you aware that Virginia
9 Roberts had a fiance?

10 A. I can't say I became aware from 11 reading all this stuff, or I was aware of it
12 at the time. I don't know.

13 Q. Did you ever meet Virginia Roberts'
14 fiance?

15 A. I don't think I ever did. I don't
16 recall meeting any men with Virginia.

17 Q. Do you know [REDACTED],

18 [REDACTED]

19 A. I never heard that name before.

20 Q. Have you ever heard the name of 21 Carolyn Andriamo, A-N-D-R-I-A-M-O?

22 A. I don't recollect that name at all.

23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Mr. Boies, those
24 names are on Exhibit 26, which we have 25 already gone over and she said she

Confidential

Page 155

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential
2 didn't recognize those people, so now we
3 are just repeating things that we went
4 over.

5 MR. BOIES: I am in the context of
6 seeing if I can refresh her
7 recollection, because these are women
8 that Mr. Figueroa, who she also does not
9 recall, brought over to Mr. Epstein's
10 residences, and I also want to make a
11 very clear record of what her testimony
12 is and is not right now.

13 Again, you can instruct her not to 14 answer if you wish.

15 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm trying to get to
16 nonrepetitive questions here. You
17 basically asked the same question three
18 times. Then we get a pile of notes that 19 get pushed up to you, you read those.
20 Then you ask those three times, and then
21 we go to another question. So it's 22 taking an inordinately long amount of 23 time and it shouldn't.

24 MR. BOIES: I think that is a
25 demonstrably inaccurate statement of

Confidential

Page 156

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential
2 what has been going on, and I
3 attribute -- maybe I shouldn't attribute
4 it at all.

5 But if you want to instruct not to
6 answer, instruct not to answer. If you
7 don't, again, all I will do is request
8 that you cease your comments. I can't
9 do that. All I can do is seek sanctions
10 afterwards.

11 BY MR. BOIES:

12 Q. Ms. Maxwell.

13 A. Mr. Boies.

14 Q. What?

15 A. I'm replying. You said Ms.
16 Maxwell, I said Mr. Boies.

17 Q. Do you have a question?

18 A. No.

19 Q. I have a question.

20 A. I'm sure you do.

21 Q. During the time that you were in 22 the property or at the property that
23 Mr. Epstein has in the Virgin Islands, were 24 you aware of Mr. Epstein getting any
25 massages?

2 court's order.

3 Q. In terms of preparing for this
4 deposition, what documents did you review?

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: To the extent I
6 provided you with any documents to
7 review, I will tell you that's both --
8 it's privileged and I instruct you not
9 to answer.

10 Q. Did your lawyer provide you with 11 any documents to review in preparation for 12 this deposition that refreshed your
13 recollection about any of the events that 14 occurred?

15 MR. PAGLIUCA: You can answer that
16 question.

17 A. No.

18 Q. How many documents did your lawyer
19 provide you with?

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: You can answer.

21 A. One, I believe.

22 Q. One document. Was that a document
23 that had been prepared by your attorney, or 24 was it a document from the past?

25 MR. PAGLIUCA: I will tell you not

Confidential

Page 177

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential

2 MR. PAGLIUCA: Don't answer that
3 question. It's outside the court's
4 order.

5 Q. In 2005, were you aware of any
6 effort to destroy records of messages you had 7 taken of women who had called Mr. Epstein in 8 the prior period?

9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Don't answer that
10 question. It's outside the court's
11 order.

12 MR. BOIES: I said I would give you
13 a break every hour. It's been an hour.

14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Do you want a break
15 or do you want to keep going?

16 THE WITNESS: Keep going.

17 MR. BOIES: What I told you before,
18 you asked for a break every hour. I am
19 happy to give you a break at a fixed
20 time. What I'm not happy to do is 21 interrupt a chain of examination.

22 So if you want a break now, we will
23 take a break now. If you don't want a
24 break now, we will not break for another
25 hour.

2 Q. Next one is Heidi --

3 A. Tony is Virginia's guy that you

5 Q. I asked you about a Tony Figueroa.

6 A. Right, I don't know him, so I'm
7 guessing, I don't know him.

8 Q. Nicole?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Colleen?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Crystal?

13 A. I don't know who these people are.

14 Q. Was there a list that was kept of 15 women or girls who provided massages?

16 MR. PAGLIUCA: This has been
17 previously deposed on. This is not part
18 of the court's order, I will tell her
19 not to answer.

20 MR. BOIES: You are going to tell
21 her not to answer a question that says
22 was there a list of women or girls who 23 provided massages?

24 MR. PAGLIUCA: She has been
25 previously deposed on this subject.

2 MR. BOIES: I think this is
3 squarely in the court's order, but if
4 you instruct her not to answer, you
5 instruct her not to answer.

6 MR. PAGLIUCA: We'll find out.

7 BY MR. BOIES:

8 Q. I take it you don't know the ages
9 of any of these people?

10 A. The ones that I did recognize were 11 roughly my age. The ones I don't know, I
12 wouldn't have a clue.

13 Q. Did you, or insofar as you are 14 aware anyone, maintain a list of females that 15 provided massage services to Mr. Epstein at 16 his residences?

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
18 and foundation.

19 You can answer if you can.

20 A. I don't know anything about a list.

21 Q. Let me go back to Exhibit 28. I
22 want to go down this list, excluding
23 Mr. Epstein himself, and just ask you a

25 each one.

DEFENDANT’S SUBMISSION REGARDING “SEARCH TERMS” AND NOTICE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COURT ORDER
CONCERNING FORENSIC EXAMINATION OF DEVICES

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell (“Ms. Maxwell”) respectfully files the following Submission Concerning Search Terms and Notice of Compliance with Court Order regarding Forensic Examination of Devices, as follows:

INTRODUCTION

Defense counsel has already run the amended list of search terms proposed by Plaintiff on each applicable device and as to each email account to which Ms. Maxwell has access. Based on those searches, not one single additional responsive and non-privileged document has been identified. Ms. Maxwell’s original search for responsive documents was complete at the time it was conducted in February 2016. The recent forensic imaging and searches have merely confirmed as much. Plaintiff has sent defense counsel, this Court and Ms. Maxwell on a costly, time-consuming and burdensome wild goose chase that has yielded not so much as a single goose feather. It is time to call off the hunt.

Submission Concerning Search Terms

The Requests for Production

Ms. Maxwell served Responses and Objections to Plaintiff’s First Discovery Requests on February 8, 2016. Those requests sought, inter alia:

- all communications with thirteen specific witnesses, namely Jeffrey Epstein, Virginia Roberts, Prince Andrew, Ross Gow, Alan Dershowitz, Emmy Taylor, Sarah Kellen, Glenn and Eva Dubin, Jean Luc Brunel, Nadia Marcincova and Bill and Hillary Clinton (RFPs 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 17, 32 and 37)
- documents relating to various topics include massages (RFP 5 and 29), travel records (RFPs 8, 9, 14 and 39), a civil deposition in 2010 (RFP 19), and Ms. Maxwell’s professional affiliation with Jeffrey Epstein (RFPs 10, 11, 12, 15, 20, 23, 24, 30);
- documents relating to any contact between Ms. Maxwell and law enforcement (RFP 13 and 38);
- photos of females under the age of 18 (RFP 7), of any time inside a home or aircraft of Epstein (RFP 15), of Plaintiff (RFP 18);

- documents relating otherwise to Plaintiff including her hospital records (RFP 25), passport (RFP 26), monetary payments made to her (RFP 27), her employment (RFP 28), and any person to whom she gave a massage (RFP 29).

Ms. Maxwell conducted a thorough search of her email systems and her devices prior to her production on February 8, 2016. All documents identified as responsive were reviewed by counsel and either produced or placed on a privilege log. The First Responses were the subject of litigation in March and April 2016. This Court limited the scope of a number of the requests (see Transcript of March 17, 2016 and Order of April 15, 2016 (Doc. # 098), and Ms. Maxwell later produced, pursuant to this Court's Order, documents that originally had been withheld pursuant to privilege. As of April 18, Ms. Maxwell's production of documents responsive to Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents was complete.

Plaintiff served a Second set of Requests for Production on April 14. Those Requests primarily concerned police reports about Plaintiff's various contacts with law enforcement and how the defense was able to obtain those publicly-available documents (RFP's 1-5, 19). The Second Requests also sought:

- Joint Defense Agreements with Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz (RFPs 6, 7, 9 and 10) and communications with Mr. Dershowitz's counsel (RFP 11);
- "all documents concerning Virginia Giuffre" (RFP 12);
- any contracts with or agreement for legal fees to be paid by Epstein (RFP 13-15);
- documents concerning public statements made by Ms. Maxwell (RFP 17-18).

Again, Ms. Maxwell and her counsel conducted a thorough search and produced any responsive non-privileged documents.

To date, Ms. Maxwell has produced 1,130 pages of documents. Litigation concerning whether the searches conducted were thorough enough then ensued leading to the instant submission.

Search Terms

On June 20, 2016, this Court Ordered

Defendant is ordered to collect all ESI by imaging her computers and collecting all email and text messages on any devices in Defendant's possession or to which she has access that Defendant used between the period of 2002 to present. Defendant is further directed to run mutually- agreed upon search terms related to Plaintiff's requests for production over the aforementioned ESI and produce responsive documents within 21 days of distribution of this opinion.

On June 30, 2016, Plaintiff's counsel provided a list of 368 search terms. See Menninger

Decl. Ex. A. Plaintiff's proposal included astoundingly broad terms, to wit:

- "Terramar" -- both the name of Ms. Maxwell's non-profit and [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
- "max*" -- part of Ms. Maxwell's last name, as well as all of her paternal relatives' names.
- "GM" -- Ms. Maxwell's initials.
- common words such as "hotel," suite, villa, "bed," "bath," and "lingerie."

Plaintiff's originally proposed search terms would literally hit on every single email from either Ms. Maxwell's personal or her business email addresses, as well as every document related to the non-profit, The Terramar Project, that Ms. Maxwell founded and runs.

Plaintiff's originally proposed terms also failed to relate to the actual discovery requests upon which they were to be based. For search terms 124-341, Plaintiff took her own Rule 26 disclosures, separated the first and last names of each witness she had identified, and asked that they be searched individually (along with "wild card character searches"), even though, as described above there were only 13 specific witnesses for whom Plaintiff had actually sought all communications. For example, Plaintiff wanted the names Bill, Mark, Phil, Bob, Mike and Todd searched yet there is no RFP related to those names, nor the vast majority of the other listed first and surnames.¹

By correspondence of July 14, Ms. Maxwell's counsel specifically identified the problematic terms, agreed to a limited list, and requested a substantive conferral call on this issue. See Menninger Decl., Ex. B. In that correspondence, Defendant's counsel gave specific reasons for the objection to a number of the terms that were problematic in that they called for the search of common words, names or phrases that would likely result pulling documents completely unrelated to this case. Id. Counsel also suggested proposed limiting terms with respect to names of individuals to appropriately limit the scope and target the search. Id. (suggesting limitations on searches of names to "make some effort to match them to actual people who have some relationship to this case (like first name /3 last name or some parts thereof)").

After explaining the appropriate and well-reasoned objections to certain terms, defense Counsel agreed to search over 110 of Plaintiff's proposed search terms, despite the fact that many of those terms were objectionable. Id. ("Although many of your other search terms are a

¹ On or about June 27, 2016, Plaintiff's counsel Bradley Edwards and Defendant's counsel Jeffery Pagliuca held a telephone meet and confer conference on a number of issues. Among the issues raised by Mr. Pagliuca was the overbreadth of the proposed search terms. The discussion was left that Mr. Edwards would talk with Plaintiff's team of lawyers to narrow the scope, as Mr. Pagliuca understood it. Thus, contrary to the representation in the Motion, Ms. Maxwell's counsel did inform Plaintiff's counsel of their disagreement with the proposed search terms. As well, Mr. Pagliuca informed Mr. Edwards that because he, Laura Menninger and Ms. Maxwell were all traveling on vacations in the weeks before and after the 4th of July holiday, that they would need additional time to comply with the Court's Order and provide the production. Mr. Pagliuca and Mr. Edwards agreed that productions would be made prior to Ms. Maxwell's second deposition, scheduled by agreement on July 22, 2016.

Based on this discussion, defense counsel was blindsided when they received the Motion for Sanctions, anticipating that they would soon be receiving a substantially limited and modified list of proposed search terms to permit search and production prior to the July 22 deposition. In the interim, all of Ms. Maxwell's electronic devices had been sent for imaging.

Defense counsel corresponded with Plaintiff's counsel upon receipt of the Motion for Sanctions, requesting that it be withdrawn (without prejudice), pending completion of conferral on the search terms as required by this Court's specific and general orders on conferral. It appears there was a miscommunication between Plaintiff's own counsel on this issue, as well as between counsel for both of the parties; but, it was clearly just that – a miscommunication and misunderstanding on where things stood.

tremendous stretch, I can agree to them in the interest of getting the search done on a timely basis.”).² Having heard nothing from Plaintiff’s counsel by the close of business on July 15, 2016, Ms. Maxwell’s counsel ran the 110 of Plaintiff’s proposed terms on the forensic images of Ms. Maxwell’s electronic devices and email accounts, including both [REDACTED]

Because of the breadth of the 110 terms proposed by Plaintiff, the original search resulted in approximately 9,000 documents and communications containing one or more term in the content or meta-data. The volume of the documents is explained by the breadth of the terms searched, resulting in pulling non-relevant, non-responsive information from Ms. Maxwell’s electronic devices and emails, including thousands of underwater photos related to Ms. Maxwell’s non-profit, the word “passport” due to the fact that the Terramar Project includes an “ocean passport” program, as well as numerous family holiday photos. All of the documents were reviewed individually by counsel for Ms. Maxwell for responsiveness to Plaintiff’s discovery request, pursuant to this Court’s Order. Of those documents, the only responsive documents were either communications between Ms. Maxwell and current counsel or were communications with, or prepared at the request of, Ms. Maxwell’s UK Counsel, Philip Barden,

² Defense counsel specifically requested a telephone conference to discuss any of the other terms, noting that the search would need to proceed over the weekend to permit review and production of any documents prior to Defendant’s deposition on July 22, 2016. Id. (“I am available by telephone today and tomorrow to discuss the issues raised herein. If I do not hear from you, I will presume that you are in agreement to the remainder of the terms being run on the devices.”). Plaintiff’s counsel did not timely respond to the July 14, 2016 letter, the clearly articulated counter-proposed terms (over 110 of the 368 proposed by Plaintiff), or set a time to discuss the articulated objections to other terms. Instead, on July 18, 2016, Plaintiff’s filed a response to the Letter Motion to Strike for Failure to Confer, inexplicably and inaccurately claiming 1) that defendant is running “secret search terms” and 2) claiming that defendant’s counsel refused to confer despite the clear conferral letter and request for telephone conference. See July 18, 2016 Letter to the Court from M. Shultz.

³ Plaintiff also requested searches of old email accounts of Defendant [REDACTED]. Ms. Maxwell has been able to access the [REDACTED] account and it contains no responsive documents. Ms. Maxwell has been unable to access [REDACTED] and does not recall ever using that account.

in anticipation of a potential lawsuit in the United Kingdom. See Menninger Decl. at paragraph 8. The documents concerning Mr. Barden have been added to the privilege log. Id.

Upon receipt of Plaintiff's Response to the Letter Motion to Strike for Plaintiff's failure to confer, the undersigned reiterated that there were no "secret search terms" and that Plaintiff's own proposed terms were used, as limited. See Menninger Decl., Ex. C. Defense counsel also reiterated the request for Court Ordered conferral, again offering times to confer that would permit any additional terms to be run, documents reviewed and production of non-privileged responsive documents (if any) prior to Ms. Maxwell's July 22, 2016 second deposition. Id.

Plaintiff's Revised List of Search Terms

Finally, on July 19, 2016, Plaintiff's counsel agreed to a telephone call with the undersigned to discuss the lack of responsive documents to the 110 search terms already run, as well as the remaining objectionable terms and their purported relevance. During the call, Plaintiff's counsel argued that their proposed search terms numbered 124-341 were relevant because they were witness names "related to massages" (RFP 5). That justification was clearly lacking because the terms included names like "Dore Louis," who is a lawyer for witness Johana Sjoberg and whose wife works with Ms. McCawley. They also included Plaintiff's treating physician Karen Kutikoff, Plaintiff's literary agent Jarred Weisfeld, Plaintiff's mother Lynn Miller, Detective Joe Recarey, Mr. Edwards' law partner Scott Rothstein, and countless other people who would have no knowledge of any massages nor otherwise were related to the discovery requests at issue. See Menninger Decl. Ex. A. Moreover, Ms. Maxwell already had run the Plaintiff's proposed terms related to massages, including "massage," "masseuse," "masseur," and "therapy." In effect, Plaintiff proposed search terms sought to expand her discovery requests from communications with a discrete set of individuals to all communications with anyone that Plaintiff believed was or might be a witness, although no discovery requests called for such communications.

Consequently, during the conferral call, Plaintiff's counsel agreed to withdraw the vast majority of objectionable terms. She also agreed to supply a list of witnesses who she believes truly might in some way relate to "massages" and submit that to defense counsel. See Menninger Decl., Ex. D. Plaintiff thereafter provided an additional 66 terms, all names, which Plaintiff claims she has some reason to believe are "related to massages." Menninger Decl. Ex. E. Ms. Maxwell does not believe that searching these terms is appropriate, because, for example, the names include a journalist (Vicky Ward), Mr. Epstein's elderly secretary, and various business people that form part of Plaintiff's false narrative regarding her "sex trafficking," and searching for names in the absence of a topic (i.e., massages) is well-beyond the actual requests for production.

Nevertheless, Ms. Maxwell did in fact run all of the names proposed by Plaintiff against the forensic images of Ms. Maxwell's computers and her email accounts. The second search yielded 284 additional documents, each of which were reviewed individually by counsel for Ms. Maxwell. Menninger Decl. paragraph 8 and 9. Again, not a single responsive, non-privileged document was located; the vast majority of documents were pleadings from this case.

The complete list of terms run against Ms. Maxwell's electronic devices and email accounts as agreed to by the parties is attached. Menninger Decl., Ex. F. Compliance with the Court's Order to run agreed to terms was completed by July 21, 2016, prior to Ms. Maxwell's second deposition.

Other Email Accounts

In addition to her home and work email addresses, Plaintiff also requested that Ms. Maxwell access two other email accounts that Plaintiff believes are associated with Ms. Maxwell, specifically [REDACTED].

Ms. Maxwell has used the [REDACTED] account as a “spam account,” i.e., an account address to use when registering for retail sales notifications and the like. Nevertheless, undersigned counsel gained access to that account and searched all of the documents contained therein, including in folders for inbox, trash and sent. The email account contained no responsive documents.

Ms. Maxwell does not recall ever using an account with [REDACTED]. She has attempted unsuccessfully to access that account. Counsel’s own attempts to access the account yields a message: “The email address you entered is not an [REDACTED] email address or ID.” Counsel for Ms. Maxwell has no reason to believe that the account exists.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, counsel for Ms. Maxwell through a certified forensic examiner has:

- a. imaged the hard-drives of Ms. Maxwell’s devices;
- b. imaged the servers containing emails from Ms. Maxwell’s personal and business email accounts;
- c. searched those forensic images for the search terms proposed by Plaintiff – including 110 from the first list and the additional 66 terms sent on July 19.

Counsel for Ms. Maxwell has reviewed the documents obtained from the searches described above as well as thoroughly searched the email account [REDACTED].

No additional responsive, non-privileged documents were identified in that process. An updated privilege log reflecting communications with Mr. Barden has been produced to Plaintiff.

Ms. Maxwell hereby respectfully requests that:

- i. Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre's Motion for an Adverse Inference Instruction Pursuant to Rule 37(b), (e) and (f), Fed. R. Civ. P., be stricken;
- ii. Ms. Maxwell be awarded the costs of engaging the forensic examiner.

Dated: August 1, 2016.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Laura A. Menninger

Re: Guiffre v. Maxwell
Case No. 15-cv-07433-RWS

Dear Laura,

I write pursuant to this Court's June 20, 2016, Order regarding search and production from Defendant's electronic media. Accordingly, please use IMAP Capable software (or a functional equivalent) to capture all of the sent/received emails from Ms. Maxwell's various email accounts, including but not limited to the following: (1) [REDACTED] (and any other accounts at [REDACTED] and any other accounts at [REDACTED] (3) any of Ms. Maxwell's email account associated with The Terramar Project (including any account [REDACTED]; and (4) any other email accounts either used in the past, or currently in use.

Additionally, please use FileSeek software (or a functional equivalent) to retrieve any data, including electronic documents (such as Word documents; PDFs; Excel sheets; etc.), from Ms. Maxwell's devices, including personal computers, work computers, any tablets, and any phones. This includes any cloud storage accounts. Please confirm that you have imaged Ms. Maxwell's hard drives and other devices.

Once you have gathered that data onto a platform (such as Summation or its functional equivalent), please run the below search terms. Since the Court ordered us to negotiate the search terms, please let me know if you think additional terms would be appropriate or whether you object to any terms, and your basis thereof.

When applying the search terms, the search terms need to "hit" on documents even if the terms are embedded within other words. So, for example, the term "acuity" would yield a hit on the document, even if the word in the document is "acuityreputatoin." To return a hit on those embedded terms, I request that you use “wildcards” to ensure that embedded terms are located. (Wildcard characters are used to expand word searches into pattern searches by “replacing” single or multiple characters.) Where there are a specific number of characters needed to be included, a single wildcard will achieve that purpose. For example, in some programs, ! is used for single character wildcards, and * is used for multiple character wildcards. For instance:

- (a) Single character wildcard example: a search for L!n! will return “long,” “link,” “lane,” “lone,” etc.
- (b) Multiple character wildcard example: a search for chil will return “children,” “chill,” “chilling,” etc.
- (c) Mixed use of wildcards: a search for L!n will return “lines,” “lining,” “linty,” etc.

Accordingly, the below search terms are submitted with wildcard characters to be applied in the manner of the examples above. Please apply them as such with whatever characters is required by the software/platform that you will be using.

Similarly, regarding how the terms are combined (AND or OR). OR should expand your results while AND will restrict result to only those which include all the terms.

Additionally, I want to clarify that I would like all of the metadata to be searched in addition to the text of the documents. For example, if the search term is “acuity,” “hits” should include all the document that include the word “acuity” in their text OR in their metadata (this includes words in items such as email subjects, filenames, as well as any documents which include that word somewhere within their text).

I also wanted to point out another special syntax with regard to proximity searching. This is a search that finds words within a specified distance from one another. On some software, this is represented as w/#, so a search for “meet w/2 greet” will return “meet and greet,” “greet and meet” and “meet and nicely greet.” Please apply accordingly.

Additionally, for searches for people’s initials in the search terms, please use “exact matches,” “stand alone,” or “literal” terms (see, e.g., PA, AD, JE, GM).

Finally, the search terms are not to be treated as case-sensitive, meaning that the terms should be searched according to their letters, regardless of whether they are represented in the list as containing upper case or lower case letters.

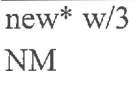

The following are the applicable search terms.

- 1) jef*
- 2) geof*

Subject: Giuffre - Conferral regarding search terms

Meredith –

I am writing to you, in compliance with the Court's Order, to negotiate the search terms for the search of our client's electronic devices. While Jeff raised many of these issues orally with Brad last week, I am including them in written form so that there can be no dispute about our position.

I do object to the vast number of your 368 search terms. Most are not tied to any Request for Production served on Ms. Maxwell, nor the Court's Orders limiting those requests.

Terramar –

Search term 49 is "Terramar." While we are searching our client's terramar email address for otherwise responsive documents, this search term would pull up thousands of documents related to her work for that organization which are (a) non-responsive and (b) irrelevant to this action. We will not agree to this standalone search term.

Witness Names

With regard to the search terms numbered 124-341, insofar as I can tell, you have simply broken apart the first and last names of every witness included within your Rule 26 disclosures. However, you never submitted a RFP seeking all communications between our client and your witnesses. There are some RFPs which identify individual witnesses whose communications with our client you sought (e.g., 1 – Epstein, 2, -Plaintiff, 3-Prince Andrew [REDACTED] Kellen, Dubins, Brunel and Marcincova, 17-Gow, 37-Clintons) and I will include those names within our searches.

As to other names included on the list, many are incredibly common names (e.g., Bill, Mark, Phil, Pete, Bob, Mike, Todd) which you are asking to search as standalone terms, i.e., divorced from the accompanying surnames or first names. You have included the name "max*" well aware that our client's surname, and that of all of her paternal family members, will begin with those three letters together. Your search terms thus are likely to yield every single email sent or received by our client, or her family members, or any other document in her possession with her own name on the document or in the metadata, in other words hundreds of thousands of non-responsive documents. Your search terms include "bill" and thus are likely to include every bill that our client has received or sent or discussed. Your search terms include Philip Barden who the court has already ruled maintains an attorney-client relationship with our client (and to the extent others are copied on his emails, those would be captured by searches for the other people's names). You included my client's boyfriend of many years, though he is not on any witness list or in any RFP.

In sum, I will not agree to the search terms regarding witness names numbered 124-341 unless you (a) provide me with an actual RFP to which they each relate, and (b) make some effort to match them to actual people who have some relationship to this case (like first name /3 last name or some parts thereof).

Lawyer Names

What is your basis for search terms numbered 366-368: McCawley, Schultz and Boies? Likewise to the extent Mr. Edwards and Cassell are also included in the witness list, what is your basis for searching for documents referencing them? These search terms seemed designed to pull privileged attorney-client communications and do not correspond to any RFP. We will not agree to these terms.

Common Words

You have included a number of words that relate to common items and place names. Please explain which RFP allows for a search of the following terms:

50 – Southern District (which will pull up every attorney-client communication that refers to our case and includes any pleading)
51 – Palm Beach (a place our client lived for many years)
64 – New Mexico
66-72 – USVI by various names
113 – hospital
114 – 116 – hotel, suite, villa (every single travel record related to our client’s travel which the Court has not ordered)
119 – 120 – Paris, France
121 – 122 – Zoro, Ranch
360 – Bed
361 – Bath
365 - Lingerie

Other Words

Many other words have no relationship to this case. Please advise me as to (a) which RFP they correspond to and (b) your good faith basis for seeking these search terms in relation to any such RFP:

93 – Abernathy
94 – Brillo
355 – Guggenheim
358 - Gerbil

Conferral

Although many of your other search terms are a tremendous stretch, I can agree to them in the interest of getting the search done on a timely basis. According to our forensic expert, running a search on Ms. Maxwell’s devices of all 368 terms will take more than a week. I am available by telephone today and tomorrow to discuss the issues raised herein. If I do not hear from you, I will presume that you are in agreement to the remainder of the terms being run on the devices. That should allow a production of documents in time for Ms. Maxwell’s continued deposition next week.

I am intentionally not taking a position regarding the other demands you provided in your letter of June 30 at pages 1-2. The searches will be conducted in accordance with standard practices in the industry and the Court ordered us to negotiate search terms only.

Subject: RE: Giuffre - Conferral regarding search terms

Dear Meredith,

I am in receipt of your opposition to the Letter Motion to Strike your Motion for an Adverse Inference. The representations in the Response are perplexing, particularly in light of the below email communication in which I specifically 1) informed you of the search terms that we would run derived from your list, and 2) specifically requested a telephone conference on the issue of search terms pursuant to the Court's Order and prior to any such search.

Your representation to the Court that we are running "secret search terms unilaterally chosen by Defendant" is simply inaccurate. As clearly set forth in the below email communication, in order to move production forward, we invited discussion regarding our plan to run a subset of the search terms that you selected. The items excluded from the search were those terms you proposed that were unattached to any discovery request, or would result in the selection irrelevant documents due to the commonality of the term or their irrelevance to this case, such as TerraMar. The terms run are not "secret" and not selected by the defense – they are "the remainder of the terms" not specifically discussed in the below email. For avoidance of doubt, it is your proposed list, excluding items 49, 50, 51, 64, 66-72, 93-94, 113, 114-116, 119-120, 121-122, 124-341, 355, 358, 360, 361, and 365, 366-368.

Second, and again contrary to the representation in your Response, I specifically requested a time for a telephone conferral to discuss the search terms. Specifically, I stated "I am available by telephone today and tomorrow to discuss the issues raised herein." Despite this clear request for a call if there were issues you wished to discuss, or if you had specific RFP's to which the excluded terms related, I heard nothing from you on Thursday afternoon or Friday to set a time to discuss the terms or the issues raised regarding overbreadth. As such, we proceeded processing your list with the exceptions set forth.

I will reiterate my offer to set a call to discuss the excluded terms to determine if there are agreeable additions. In light of the deposition scheduled for Friday and the time it takes to run searches, any call would need to be set prior to noon MT tomorrow. Please advise, one way or the other, if you are satisfied with the list or if you would like to set a call.

To: 'Meredith Schultz'
Subject: RE: Giuffre - Conferral regarding search terms

Meredith:

I write to confirm our oral conferral. Please let me know if you disagree with the following or if there is some other agreement you think we reached:

1. I will endeavor to have my client gain access to an earthlink account that you believe is hers. Your basis for that belief is a disk you produced last week, obtained pursuant to a FOIA request, that contained at Page 2035 an address book from approximately 2005 which has that earthlink account name next to Ms. Maxwell's name.
2. Terramar – You have withdrawn that as a standalone search term. I have represented to you that we have searched all Terramar emails for otherwise responsive documents as well as [REDACTED]
3. Witness names – You believe that search terms 124-341, which are witness names broken up into first and last names from your Rule 26 list, relate to your RFP number 5 (“All documents relating to massages...”). I represented to you that I have searched for the terms “massage,” “masseur,” “therapy” etc. as you requested, but you would still like me to search a subset of 124-341 surnames names for all communications with certain witnesses that you believe relate to “massages.” I said I would look at your list, when you send it, and evaluate whether we still object to running those more limited names to see if there are any communications that “relate to massages.” I still object that the search terms involving names is too broad and burdensome for me to have to review all communications with those individuals to try to discern what you believe may or may not relate to a “massage.”
4. Lawyer names – You have withdrawn.
5. Common words – You have withdrawn with the exception of “lingerie,” which I will run to see if it relates in some way to RFP 5 (“massages”).
6. Other words –
 - a. You have withdrawn #93 Abernathy and #94 Brillo.
 - b. I maintain my objection to Guggenheim, the name of a museum which you represented to me pertains in some way to allegations made by witnesses Farmer, but for which no documents or other information has been shared (i.e., I have never seen any allegations by witnesses Farmer). Because there is no RFP to which I believe that term relates, and it is the name of a museum, I object to running that search term.
 - c. Gerbil – You have withdrawn.
7. Additionally:
 - a. I advised you that I was not able to search for # [REDACTED] because those letters are the first part of my client's longstanding email address, and search for that term will yield literally every single email she has sent or received. I believe you have withdrawn that requested search term.
 - b. I advised you that I was not able to search for initials at #16-21 and 75-77. To the extent those initials represent people from whom you have requested all communications (and which the Court has limited to 1999-2002 and post-2002 as they relate to sex trafficking), for example, Jeffrey Epstein, Prince Andrew, I am searching for and producing responsive documents, so there is no need to search for the initials. With regards to [REDACTED], you told me that is "[REDACTED]" and there is no standalone request for communications with her.

Subject: Giuffre - Conferral regarding search terms

Meredith –

I am writing to you, in compliance with the Court's Order, to negotiate the search terms for the search of our client's electronic devices. While Jeff raised many of these issues orally with Brad last week, I am including them in written form so that there can be no dispute about our position.

I do object to the vast number of your 368 search terms. Most are not tied to any Request for Production served on Ms. Maxwell, nor the Court's Orders limiting those requests.

Terramar –

Search term 49 is "Terramar." While we are searching our client's terramar email address for otherwise responsive documents, this search term would pull up thousands of documents related to her work for that organization which are (a) non-responsive and (b) irrelevant to this action. We will not agree to this standalone search term.

Witness Names

With regard to the search terms numbered 124-341, insofar as I can tell, you have simply broken apart the first and last names of every witness included within your Rule 26 disclosures. However, you never submitted a RFP seeking all communications between our client and your witnesses. There are some RFPs which identify individual witnesses whose communications with our client you sought (e.g., 1 – Epstein, 2, -Plaintiff, 3-Prince Andrew [REDACTED] Kellen, Dubins, Brunel and Marcincova, 17-Gow, 37-Clintons) and I will include those names within our searches.

As to other names included on the list, many are incredibly common names (e.g., Bill, Mark, Phil, Pete, Bob, Mike, Todd) which you are asking to search as standalone terms, i.e., divorced from the accompanying surnames or first names. You have included the name “max*” well aware that our client’s surname, and that of all of her paternal family members, will begin with those three letters together. Your search terms thus are likely to yield every single email sent or received by our client, or her family members, or any other document in her possession with her own name on the document or in the metadata, in other words hundreds of thousands of non-responsive documents. Your search terms include “bill” and thus are likely to include every bill that our client has received or sent or discussed. Your search terms include Philip Barden who the court has already ruled maintains an attorney-client relationship with our client (and to the extent others are copied on his emails, those would be captured by searches for the other people’s names). You included my client’s boyfriend of many years, though he is not on any witness list or in any RFP.

In sum, I will not agree to the search terms regarding witness names numbered 124-341 unless you (a) provide me with an actual RFP to which they each relate, and (b) make some effort to match them to actual people who have some relationship to this case (like first name /3 last name or some parts thereof).

Lawyer Names

What is your basis for search terms numbered 366-368: McCawley, Schultz and Boies? Likewise to the extent Mr. Edwards and Cassell are also included in the witness list, what is your basis for searching for documents referencing them? These search terms seemed designed to pull privileged attorney-client communications and do not correspond to any RFP. We will not agree to these terms.

Common Words

You have included a number of words that relate to common items and place names. Please explain which RFP allows for a search of the following terms:

50 – Southern District (which will pull up every attorney-client communication that refers to our case and includes any pleading)
51 – Palm Beach (a place our client lived for many years)
64 – New Mexico
66-72 – USVI by various names
113 – hospital
114 – 116 – hotel, suite, villa (every single travel record related to our client’s travel which the Court has not ordered)
119 – 120 – Paris, France
121 – 122 – Zoro, Ranch
360 – Bed
361 – Bath
365 - Lingerie

Other Words

Many other words have no relationship to this case. Please advise me as to (a) which RFP they correspond to and (b) your good faith basis for seeking these search terms in relation to any such RFP:

93 – Abernathy
94 – Brillo
355 – Guggenheim
358 - Gerbil

Conferral

Although many of your other search terms are a tremendous stretch, I can agree to them in the interest of getting the search done on a timely basis. According to our forensic expert, running a search on Ms. Maxwell's devices of all 368 terms will take more than a week. I am available by telephone today and tomorrow to discuss the issues raised herein. If I do not hear from you, I will presume that you are in agreement to the remainder of the terms being run on the devices. That should allow a production of documents in time for Ms. Maxwell's continued deposition next week.

I am intentionally not taking a position regarding the other demands you provided in your letter of June 30 at pages 1-2. The searches will be conducted in accordance with standard practices in the industry and the Court ordered us to negotiate search terms only.

Subject: RE: Giuffre - Conferral regarding search terms

Meredith:

I write to confirm our oral conferral. Please let me know if you disagree with the following or if there is some other agreement you think we reached:

1. I will endeavor to have my client gain access to an earthlink account that you believe is hers. Your basis for that belief is a disk you produced last week, obtained pursuant to a FOIA request, that contained at Page 2035 an address book from approximately 2005 which has that earthlink account name next to Ms. Maxwell's name. Please advise of the processes you are undertaking to access the account, and the process you undertook to ascertain that the mindspring account no longer exists.
2. Terramar – You have withdrawn that as a standalone search term. I have represented to you that we have searched all Terramar emails for otherwise responsive documents as well as [REDACTED].
3. Witness names – You believe that search terms 124-341, which are witness names broken up into first and last names from your Rule 26 list, relate to your RFP number 5 (“All documents relating to massages...”). I represented to you that I have searched for the terms “massage,” “masseur,” “therapy” etc. as you requested, but you would still like me to search a subset of 124-341 surnames names for all communications with certain witnesses that you believe relate to “messages.” I said I would look at your list, when you send it, and evaluate whether we still object to running those more limited names to see if there are any communications that “relate to messages.” I still object that the search terms involving names is too broad and burdensome for me to have to review all communications with those individuals to try to discern what you believe may or may not relate to a “message.”

I disagree with your objection that reviewing (and producing relevant) documents containing these discrete surnames is too broad a request or overly burdensome, particularly, as you have not presented any numbers of documents associated with those names, since you have not yet run the terms. Should one of the names somehow yield thousands of documents, please let me know, and I’m certain we can come to an agreement to adjust the term so as to not yield an unmanageable result. As it is, I would expect these discrete surnames to yield a reasonable number of “hits,” as most are not common words (more on that below).

Per our conversation, there are a number of individuals who we have reason to believe were either:

- (1) victims of the “messages;”
- (2) witnesses the “messages” (including people who have knowledge of the “messages”); or
- (3) perpetrators of the “messages,” either by having a “message” themselves, arranging for another to have a “message,” or by arranging for a girl to give a “message” (either directly or through another girl).

The following are surnames of the aforementioned individuals, all of which are taken from the parties’ Rule 26 disclosures. Individuals who possess the same last name will be represented once by the common name. Names enumerated in Plaintiff’s individual requests are absent from this list pursuant to your representation that those names have been run. The vast majority of the surnames are fairly uncommon (e.g., [REDACTED]), therefore, I assume from the outset that any “hits” they yield will relate to the individual, and be limited in number. For those surnames are more common, or have other meanings (e.g., [REDACTED]), I have noted the full name for ease of reference. For those names, please use a reasonable, good-faith syntax to capture communications with those individuals -- [REDACTED] Sometimes that takes some trial-and-error – I’m happy to be of any assistance with regard to that process. Please let me know what your syntax you ended up using for those terms.

4. Lawyer names – You have withdrawn.

5. Common words – You have withdrawn with the exception of “lingerie,” which I will run to see if it relates in some way to RFP 5 (“massages”).
6. Other words –
 - a. You have withdrawn #93 Abernathy and #94 Brillo.
 - b. I maintain my objection to Guggenheim, the name of a museum which you represented to me pertains in some way to allegations made by witnesses Farmer, but for which no documents or other information has been shared (i.e., I have never seen any allegations by witnesses Farmer). Because there is no RFP to which I believe that term relates, and it is the name of a museum, I object to running that search term.
 - c. Gerbil – You have withdrawn.
7. Additionally:
 - a. I advised you that I was not able to search for [REDACTED] because those letters are the first part of my client’s longstanding email address, and search for that term will yield literally every single email she has sent or received. I believe you have withdrawn that requested search term.
 - b. I advised you that I was not able to search for initials at #16-21 and 75-77. To the extent those initials represent people from whom you have requested all communications (and which the Court has limited to 1999-2002 and post-2002 as they relate to sex trafficking), for example, Jeffrey Epstein, Prince Andrew, I am searching for and producing responsive documents, so there is no need to search for the initials. With regards to [REDACTED], you told me that is “[REDACTED]” and there is no standalone request for communications with her.

-Laura

Additionally, please inform me what steps you have taken to ascertain that the [REDACTED] is no longer in existence. Similarly, please keep me informed of your steps to access the [REDACTED]. Please pursue all available avenues to access those accounts, as Ms. Giuffre did with regard to her email accounts.

Finally, Ms. Maxwell’s produced documents that indicate that she has an iPad, etc. Please confirm that you have imaged her iPad as well as her phone in order to obtain the data from both (text messages, etc.).

One last thing - it occurred to me that in our discussion of terms that were run/not run and to be run/and not to be run, I don’t believe we discussed the terms containing individuals’ email account addresses, specifically Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz. (If we did discuss that, apologies for my lack of memory). Please confirm that you have run the terms associated with their email addresses. Specifically, these were the terms:

- 1)jeevacation*
- 2)j* w/2 jep
- 3)j* w/2 jeep
- 4)dersh*
- 5)law.harvard.edu*
- 6)alandersh*

Please let me know if you have any questions. Please treat this email as confidential under the Protective Order as it contains the names of underage victims of sexual abuse.

Thank you,

Meredith

Subject: Conferral regarding forensic search

Meredith –

Apart from (i) the list of witness names you believe might be associated with the term “massage” (“massage” and related terms that you requested have been searched), (ii) the word “lingerie”, and (iii) [REDACTED] we have completed the forensic copy, search, retrieval and review of all hits on our client’s devices and email accounts as directed by the Court based on agreed to search terms, including those agreed to in our conferral yesterday.

After review of more than 9,000 documents and files containing your search terms, the only documents located not previously produced are 6 privileged documents which we will add to our log. We also located a number of privileged communications between our client and myself following the onset of litigation in this case which will not be logged consistent with both parties' agreed to practice. As predicted, no responsive non-privileged documents resulted from the exercise.

I will keep you apprised of the results of the “lingerie” and status of ability to access the [REDACTED] account. If you want me to consider running additional witness names because you believe those people may relate to RFP 5 regarding “massages”, please forward those names to me and your basis.

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

_____ /

PLAINTIFF'S SUPPLEMENT TO MOTION FOR ADVERSE INFERENCE INSTRUCTION BASED ON NEW INFORMATION

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this Supplement to her Motion for Adverse Inference Instruction Based on New Information. Eleven months into this case, and after the close of fact discovery, Defendant continues to refuse to abide by her most basic and fundamental discovery obligations. A summary of this ongoing and willful non-compliance, as well as a supplement to her motion for an adverse inference instruction based on new information, follows. Most notably, Defendant claims to have run search terms and reviewed over 10,000 documents, but, remarkably, claims that not a single document - not one - is relevant to this litigation, and therefore produced nothing with respect to the search.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

On October 27, 2015, Ms. Giuffre submitted her first set of Requests for Production. Defendant failed to make a reasonable search or production of her documents, and Ms. Giuffre sought relief from the Court numerous times:

- Plaintiff's Response in Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Stay Discovery (DE 20) - Defendant's Motion to Stay - Denied (DE 28).
- Plaintiff's February 26, 2016 Letter Motion to Compel Defendant to Sit for Her Deposition (DE 63) - Granted (DE 106).
- Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Documents Subject to Improper Claim of Privilege (DE 33) - Granted in Part (DE 73).
- Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Documents Subject to Improper Objections (DE 35) - Granted in part (106).
- Plaintiff's Response in Opposition to Defendant's Motion for a Protective Order Regarding Defendant's Deposition (DE 70) - Defendant's Motion Denied (DE 106).
- Plaintiff's Motion for Forensic Examination (DE 96) - Granted in part (June 20, 2016 Sealed Order).
- Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions (DE 143) – Granted (June 20, 2016 Sealed Order).
- Plaintiff's Motion for Adverse Inference Instruction (DE 279) - Pending.
- Plaintiff's Motion to Enforce the Court's Order and Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions (DE 315) - Pending.

On June 20, 2016, this Court Granted in Part Ms. Giuffre's Motion for Forensic Exam, and directed Defendant to capture her data and run mutually agreed-upon search terms. The Court also ordered Defendant to produce documents to Ms. Giuffre by July 11, 2016. (This part of the Court's Order is not under seal and can be found at DE 264-1). On June 30, 2016, and on July 8, 2016, counsel for Ms. Giuffre sent letters to Defendant following up on this Order and proposing search terms (attached as exhibits to DE 279). Defendant did not respond. The July 11, 2016, deadline passed without any production from Defendant.

On July 13, 2016, Ms. Giuffre moved for an adverse inference instruction (DE 279). Thereafter, the Court denied Defendant's motion to strike Ms. Giuffre's motion for an adverse inference instruction, directing the parties to submit search terms to the Court on August 1, 2016, advising that "[a] briefing schedule and the submission date will be set after search terms are determined." (DE 301).

Pursuant to this Court's July 22, 2016, on Monday, August 1, 2016, Ms. Giuffre filed the list of search terms that Ms. Giuffre believes should be run over Defendant's data. (DE 323).

II. DISCUSSION

At a minimum, the Court should direct Defendant to run the search terms in the list originally submitted by Ms. Giuffre. More broadly, the Court should grant Ms. Giuffre's request for an adverse inference based on the incurable prejudice she has suffered as a result of Defendant's failure to comply with her discovery obligations and this Court's June 20, 2016, Order.

A. Defendant's Refusal to Even Run Ms. Giuffre's Name as a Search Term.

Defendant has been recalcitrant in running even the most basic searches of electronic data. For example, in a letter sent on June 8, 2016, and in a meet and confer call on July 26, 2016, counsel for Ms. Giuffre asked Defendant to run Ms. Giuffre's name as a search term to find documents responsive to (for example) Ms. Giuffre's Request No. 12, which sought Defendant's documents relating to Ms. Giuffre. That request was refused in writing on Friday, July 29, 2016, at 7:02 p.m. (EST). See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, July 29, 2016, 7:02 p.m., Letter from Ty Gee to Ms. Schultz (refusing to run Ms. Giuffre's name as a search term as part of effort to identify responsive documents). Specifically, Mr. Gee's letter said that such a search term was inappropriate because it was "guaranteed" to generate "thousands of hits":

In your June 8 letter, apparently acknowledging the overbreadth of the RFP, you suggest the defendant could respond by conducting an electronic search for plaintiff's various names—searching all documents in defendant's possession. Setting aside that this is not what the RFP asked for, that too would entail an extraordinary and unreasonable amount of time and money, since plaintiff's various names are guaranteed to have thousands of hits, and someone would have to review every hit to determine, e.g., whether the document previously was provided to you, whether the document is not subject to production because of privilege, or whether it was a false hit. What would be the purpose of such an enormous expenditure of time and money? You have not said, but it appears fairly obvious that this is fishing with a drift net. We decline your request to engage in this exercise.

Having represented that running Ms. Giuffre's that name was an “extraordinary and unreasonable” task “guaranteed to have thousands of hits, and someone would have to review every hit ...” (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1 at pg. 2 (emphasis added)), a mere three days later, on Monday, August 1, 2016, Defendant seemingly reversed her position, and represented to the Court that she had, in fact, run Ms. Giuffre's names as search terms. (DE 321-6). But, contrary to the previous claim that it would be enormously burdensome to sort through these “hits,” Defendant now claimed that she had not found any responsive documents.

It is possible that Defendant changed her mind over the weekend and reversed course. And, it is possible that Defendant did run those recently-contested terms over the weekend. And, it is possible that Defendant, over the weekend, gathered a team of lawyers to review the “thousands of hits” yielded by those terms. And, it is possible that not a single one of Defendant's thousands of documents bearing Ms. Giuffre's name was relevant to this action. All these things are possible, but none is likely.

Either way, Defendant's refusal to even include Ms. Giuffre's name as a search term (either in reality or in the position she took on Friday) is evidence of Defendant's continued bad faith and complete avoidance of her discovery obligations. The case centers on Defendant's defamatory statements made about Ms. Giuffre. Obviously, Ms. Giuffre has a compelling need to obtain Defendant's documents about her, and she has accordingly requested Defendant's communications concerning her. Defendant's documents concerning Ms. Giuffre are directly relevant to this action, particularly because Defendant has created multiple drafts of statements to the press defaming Ms. Giuffre.

Throughout the months of motion practice concerning these issues, and throughout all of the meet and confers, Defendant's counsel has never presented a case supporting the far-fetched position that documents in the possession of the Defendant, and containing explicit references to Ms. Giuffre, are irrelevant and not subject to discovery. Defendant's refusal to use Ms. Giuffre's name as a search term, in light of Ms. Giuffre's requests for production, and in light of the defamation claim in this case, is so unfounded and obstructionist that it constitutes a violation of this Court's Order, whether or not Defendant actually engaged in the "extraordinary and unreasonable" task of running the term over the weekend.

The refusal to run this term is particularly inappropriate in light of this Court's order directing the Defendant to run "mutually agreed" upon search terms. It is impossible for Ms. Giuffre's counsel to begin working with opposing counsel to craft appropriate search terms when they refuse to extend minimal cooperation - first by completely ignoring Ms. Giuffre's multiple attempts to negotiate terms, then by ignoring the deadline to produce documents, and then by refusal to run the most basic search term. The first term that should be run in this defamation action - the most fundamental term - is Ms. Giuffre's name. Defendant's refusal to run that term is palpably unreasonable.

Defendant's refusal to cooperate is even more egregious given Ms. Giuffre's extensive efforts to provide discovery to Defendant. Ms. Giuffre has complied with Defendant's overly-broad discovery requests that sought documents concerning dozens of individuals, including Ms. Giuffre's close family members. To comply with these extraordinarily broad requests, Ms. Giuffre ran search terms constituting the names of all these individuals. For example, Ms. Giuffre has run the following names as search terms, including Defendant's name, over her data:

- Ghislaine (the defendant)
- Maxwell (the defendant)
- Jeffrey (Jeffrey Epstein)
- Epstein (Jeffrey Epstein)
- Sky Roberts (the name Ms. Giuffre's father and brother)
- Lynn, Roberts (the name of Ms. Giuffre's mother)

Indeed, to date Ms. Giuffre has produced 8,321 pages of documents in her possession.

Fact discovery has now closed. Ms. Giuffre has requested that Defendant negotiate search terms with her as far back as March 10, 2016. This Court ordered Defendant to run mutually agreed upon search terms and produce relevant documents. Yet Defendant has yet to make any document production pursuant to this Court's June 20, 2016, Order.

B. Defendant's Other Failures to Produce Documents

Defendant's ignoring the July 11, 2016, court-ordered deadline to produce documents pursuant to mutually agreed upon terms, and Defendant's recalcitrance in searching for documents related to Ms. Giuffre are not the only examples of Defendant's failure to make appropriate discovery. Defendant claims to have run a number of Ms. Giuffre's search terms, yet claims that such a search yielded no responsive documents, save the few added to Defendant's privilege log. Defendant did not provide any "hit" information to show which terms yielded results, or how many results they yielded. Defendant claims to have reviewed over 10,000 documents containing the search terms and remarkably states that none – not a single one of the documents are responsive or relevant to the issues in this matter. Defendant's representation is simply implausible, as a review of Defendant's interactions with several of the important players in this case makes clear.

i. Ross Gow

The Court will recall that Ross Gow is Defendant's London-based press agent, who shares Defendant's attorney, Philip Barden, and who was connected with Defendant's statements about Ms. Giuffre in both 2011 and 2015. Defendant admitted that she used Mr. Gow in 2011 in relation to Ms. Giuffre's claims:

Q. And then below there is an email from Philip Barden to you and cc'ing Ross Gow on January 11, 2015. Do you see that?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. It says, Dear Ghislaine, as you know I have been working behind the scenes and this article comes from that. It helps but doesn't answer the VR claims. I will get the criminal allegations out. This shows the MOS will print truth, not just a VR voice piece. We can only make the truth by making a statement. What did he mean when he said, I will get the criminal allegations out, what was he referring to?

A. I have no idea.

Maxwell Dep. Tr. at 405:13-406:7 (April 22, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2).

Defendant has admitted that she again used Mr. Gow in 2015 to issue a statement relating to Ms. Giuffre:

Q. This is an email from you on January 10, 2015 to Philip Barden and Ross Gow. The statement you had before you earlier, that, if you can pull that in front of you, the one page press release that you gave. You might know from memory. Was the press release that you issued with the statement about Virginia issued in or around January 2, 2015?

A. As best as I can recollect.

Maxwell Dep. Tr. at 361:4-13 (April 22, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2).

Indeed, Defendant retained counsel to further assist Mr. Gow:

Q. Did you authorize Ross Gow to issue that statement on your behalf in January of 2015?

A. I already testified that that was done by my lawyers.

Maxwell Dep. Tr. at 273:6-10 (April 22, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2).

In both years, 2011 and 2015, Defendant communicated with her counsel, communicated with her public relations agent, and caused a statement regarding Ms. Giuffre to be released publically, whereupon it was disseminated abroad. Yet, Defendant claims that she has no communications related to Ms. Giuffre beyond the handful of communications this Court ordered her to produce after the Court's in camera review. (DE 73).

ii. Eva Dubin

Defendant also appears to be claiming that she had not had even a single communications with Eva Dubin, Defendant's long-time friend whose husband was implicated in sexual abuse by Ms. Giuffre's deposition testimony. Defendant admitted that she is friends with Eva Dubin and admitted to visiting her home from time to time.

Q. Is Eva Dubin one of your friends?

A. Yes.

Maxwell Dep. Tr. at 57:22-23 (April 22, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2).

Q. You remember from time to time being at the Dubin residence, correct?

A. I do.

Maxwell Dep. Tr. at 163:6-8 (July 22, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 3).

The Dubins are closely connected to this case. Indeed, Rinaldo Rizzo, the Dubins' butler, was in tears as he recounted Defendant bringing a fifteen-year-old girl to Eva Dubin's home. The girl, in utmost distress, told Mr. Rizzo that Defendant had stolen her passport and tried to make her have sex with Epstein on his private island, and then threatened her. Rizzo Dep. Tr. at 52:8-57:23 (June 10, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4). Ms. Giuffre has also implicated Eva Dubin's husband, Glen Dubin, as someone who was involved in Defendant and Epstein's sex trafficking ring. And yet, Defendant would have the Court believe that Defendant and her friend never communicated about Ms. Giuffre's testimony. There are no emails; no text messages produced.

Q. Do you remember speaking with a female by the name of [REDACTED]?

A. Yes.

Q. And is that -- did you learn from [REDACTED] about [REDACTED]?

THE WITNESS: That's correct.

Q. And what did you understand [REDACTED] interaction with Jeffrey Epstein to be?

THE WITNESS: [REDACTED] was allegedly dating Jeffrey Epstein at the time. And [REDACTED]s and [REDACTED] were roommates. During that time, [REDACTED] had met with [REDACTED] and went shopping with her at the Palm Beach Mall, where they purchased items from Victoria's Secrets. After spending the day together, they went over to the Palm Beach house, where Epstein requested to see what was purchased. She was a little reluctant initially, but because of the fact that it was his money that purchased the items, she showed the outfit that she had purchased at Victoria's Secrets. He had asked her to try it on, at which time she did. She went back to the house at another time, where she was going to meet with [REDACTED] and Epstein. They went for a bike ride, but [REDACTED] had a massage, which Epstein walked in on while she was getting a massage. He asked her to turn over, expose her breasts to him. I think he performed a chiropractic move on her. And she was completely uncomfortable with the whole situation.

Recarey Dep. Tr. at 106:2-107:20 (June 21, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5).

Q. Does [REDACTED] know Jeffrey Epstein?

A. What do you mean by know?

Q. Has she met her him before?

A. I can't recollect a time when [REDACTED] -- I've seen [REDACTED] with Jeffrey but --

Q. You are not sure --

A. I know they know either other. I can't testify to a meeting between them.

Maxwell Dep. Tr. at 270:18-271:8 (April 22, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2).

Q. Why do you think that [REDACTED] might know Jeffrey?

A. Because you know, I know Jeffrey.

Maxwell Dep. Tr. at 271:18-22 (April 22, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2).

Yet, Maxwell now wants this court to believe that she has no responsive communications with [REDACTED] relevant to this case.

C. Defendant's Failures to Search All Email Accounts

Perhaps part of the reason that Defendant has failed to produce responsive document is that still refusing to collect data from all of her email accounts. In particular, Defendant has not collected data from her [REDACTED] account nor produced relevant documents from her [REDACTED] account. Both email accounts are listed as part of Defendant's contact information gathered by the police from Epstein's home, and turned over to the Palm Beach County State Attorney as part of the investigation and prosecution of Epstein:

Ms. Ghislaine Maxwell

Email [REDACTED]

See (DE 280-2), Palm Beach County State Attorney's Office, Public Records Request No.: 16-268, Disc 7 at p. 2305 (GIUFFRE007843).

i. The mindspring.com Account

As evidenced from the police collection above, [REDACTED], was an email address Defendant used while she was with Epstein. Id. In her filing with this Court, Defendant represented that this was merely a "spam" account "to use when registering for retail sales notifications and the like," and that it contains no relevant documents. Br. at pg. 8. Of course, if she wasn't using the [REDACTED] or the [REDACTED], what email address was Defendant using while she was with Epstein, and why hasn't that account been disclosed and searched? This Court should order Defendant to disclose all email accounts she has used from 1999 to the present.

At any rate, both recent testimony in this case, and older testimony in a related case, completely belies Defendant's claim that her [REDACTED] account was merely for "spam." Jeffrey Epstein's house manager, Juan Alessi testified that [REDACTED] was in daily use by the Epstein household to send and receive messages, a household to which Defendant belonged:

Q. So when there would be a message from one of them while they were out of town, they would call you, call you on the telephone?

A. I haven't spoken to Ghislaine in 12 years.

Q. Sorry. I'm talking about when you worked there and you would receive a message that they were coming into town, would that be by way of telephone?

A. Telephone, and also, there was a system at the house, that it was MindSpring, MindSpring I think it's called, that it was like a message system that would come from the office.

Q. What is MindSpring?

A. It was a server. I think it was -- the office would have, like, a message system between him, the houses, the employees, his friends. They would write a message on the computer. There was no email at that time.

Q. Okay. So what computer would you use?

A. My computer in my office.

Q. And so was part of your daily routine to go to your computer and check to see if you had MindSpring messages?

A. No. That was at the end of my stay. That was the very end of my stay. I didn't get involved with that too much. But it was a message system that Jeffrey received every two, three hours, with all the messages that would have to go to the office in New York, and they will print it and send it faxed to the house, and I would hand it to him.

Q. Did it look like the message pads that we've been looking at?

A. No, no, nothing like that.

Q. Was it typed-out messages?

A. Yes, typed-out messages.

Q. Just explain one example of how it would work. Let's say that Ghislaine wanted to send him a message on MindSpring. How would that work?

A. An example?

Q. Sure.

A. It got so ridiculous at the end of my stay, okay? That Mr. Epstein, instead of talking to me that he wants a cup of coffee, he will call the office; the office would type it; they would send it to me, Jeffrey wants a cup of coffee, or Jeffrey wants an orange juice out by the pool.

Q. He would call the office in New York. They would then type it in MindSpring?

A. Send it to me.

Q. How would you know to check for it? How would you know to look for this MindSpring?

A. Because I was in the office. I was there. I was there. And we have a signal when it come on and says, Hey, you've got mail.

Q. Okay.

A. Every day. Every day it was new things put in. That's why I left, too.

Q. Do you know who set up the mind spring system?

A. It was a computer guy. It was a computer guy who worked only for Jeffrey. Mark. Mark Lumber.

Q. Was he local to Palm Beach?

A. No. He was in New York. Everything was set up from New York. And Mark Lumber, I remember he came to Palm Beach to set up the system at the house.

Alessi Dep. Tr. at 223:5-225:17. (June 1, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 7). Accordingly, mindspring was a server set up for Jeffrey Epstein and his household to use to communicate to one another, and was, in fact, used in this manner.

The sworn testimony of Janusz Banasiak, another of Epstein's house managers, from the case L.M. v. Jeffery Epstein and Sarah Kellen,¹ gives a fuller representation of how Defendant, and others in Epstein's sex-trafficking ring, used their accounts on Epstein's mindspring server:

Q. Okay. Were you aware that Mr. Epstein used a Citrix program to link various computers? Did you know that?

A. Yeah. I use Citrix too in my computer for exchanging e-mails and get through Internet.

Q. That's not something that you were, you were privy to? You weren't, you weren't in the loop of the sharing of information in the house in terms of the computers being connected through any server?

A. I don't really know what, how, how to answer your question because Citrix is for the whole organization to exchange e-mail between employees.

Q. All right. You used the term?

A. So, even my computer is connected to Citrix. I can receive mail and I can e-mail information to employee within organization. But I don't know if you can see to each computer what is going on on another computer.

Q. You have used the term organization, you can share within the organization. What do you -- just so I can understand what you're calling the organization, what do you mean by that word?

A. People employed by Jeffrey Epstein. There are a few groups of people, his office in New York and I guess --

Q. Okay. The other people mentioned as co-conspirators are Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross, and Nadia Marcinkova. So we'll get to them in a minute but first just so we stay on the track of who was in the organization, is Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross and Nadia Marcinkova all people that you would also consider within the organization?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So, we just added three more names to it. Who else would you consider, Ghislaine Maxwell?

¹ Case No.: 502008CA28051XXXXMB AB, In the Circuit Court of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit in and for Palm Beach County, Florida.

A. Yes.

56:13-17; 5:2-14; 58:1-7; 60:21-61:7 (February 16, 2010) (Emphasis added) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 8).

Defendant's [REDACTED] email account was part of Epstein's [REDACTED] account through which he communicated with his employees and other members of his household, including his co-conspirators Sarah Kellen, Nadia Marcinkova, and the Defendant. This email account likely has (or had) myriad of communications between and among Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein, Defendant and Sarah Kellen, Defendant and Nadia Marcinkova, and others. This email account is the one most likely to have the most relevant documents in this case, as it was used by Jeffrey Epstein and his sex trafficking organization. The fact that this account - an account created for the sole purpose of enabling Defendant and others to communicate with Jeffrey Epstein - has no communications with Epstein or the other co-conspirators, is extremely strong indicia that someone destroyed those email communications. Their destruction warrants an adverse inference instruction. And, at the very least, the Court should direct Defendant to retrieve her data from the Citrix server or any other applicable server upon which the mindspring.com account was hosted.

ii. The [REDACTED] Account

The [REDACTED] account bears Defendant's initials, and, again, listed as part of her contact information gathered by the police from Epstein's home, and turned over to the Palm Beach County State Attorney as part of the investigation and prosecution of Epstein:

Ms. Ghislaine Maxwell

Email [REDACTED]

See (DE 280-2), Palm Beach County State Attorney's Office, Public Records Request No.: 16-268, Disc 7 at p. 2305 (GIUFFRE007843)

Because of Defendant's refusal to search this important email account, any production yielded from any search terms will necessarily be incomplete. Indeed, this failure is particularly prejudicial, as this account appears to be the one she used while she was with Epstein, and therefore, the one she used during the time period Defendant was abusing Ms. Giuffre.

Defendant does not appear to have pursued access to this account very far. This inaction lies in stark contrast to Ms. Giuffre's efforts to recover data. Ms. Giuffre has sent executed releases to Microsoft for her inaccessible account, and even issued a Rule 45 Subpoena to Microsoft for the production of her account data. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 9, Microsoft Subpoena. At a minimum, the Court should direct the Defendant to take these steps to access the earthlink.net email account.

D. An Adverse Inference Instruction is Appropriate.

In light of this clear and persistent pattern of recalcitrance, the Court should instruct the jury that it can draw an adverse inference that the Defendant has concealed relevant evidence. Defendant has yet to provide responsive information. And even if Defendant were, at this late date, to run Ms. Giuffre's proposed search terms over her data (which has not yet been collected), such a production would be both untimely and prejudicial. Fact discovery has closed. Numerous depositions have already been taken by Ms. Giuffre without the benefit of these documents. The window for authenticating the documents through depositions has shut. Expert reports are due at the end of the month, and Ms. Giuffre's experts do not have the benefit of reviewing these documents. Late production of information robs Ms. Giuffre of any practical ability to use the discovery.

The Second Circuit has stated, “[w]here documents, witnesses, or information of any kind relevant issues in litigation is or was within the exclusive or primary control of a party and is not provided, an adverse inference can be drawn against the withholding party. Such adverse inferences are appropriate as a consequence for failure to make discovery.” Bouzo v. Citibank, N.A., 1993 WL 525114, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. 1993) (internal citations omitted). The Defendant’s continued systemic foot-dragging and obstructionism – even following the Court’s June 20 order – makes an adverse inference instruction with regard to Defendant’s documents appropriate. An adverse inference instruction is appropriate when a party refuses to turn over documents in defiance of a Court Order. See Lyondell-Citgo Refining, LP v. Petroleos de Venezuela, S.A., 2005 WL 1026461, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. May 2, 2005) (denying application to set aside Magistrate Judge Peck’s order entering an adverse inference instruction against defendant for failure to produce documents that the Judge Peck had ordered Defendant to produce). Accordingly, because a “party’s failure to produce evidence within its control creates a presumption that evidence would be unfavorable to that party” an adverse inference should be applied with respect to Defendant’s failure to produce “in order to ensure fair hearing for [the] other party seeking evidence.” Doe v. U.S. Civil Service Commission, 483 F. Supp. 539, 580 (S.D. N.Y., 1980) (citing International Union v. NLRB, 148 U.S. App. D.C. 305, 312-317, 459 F.2d 1329, 1336-41 (D.C.Cir.1972)).

“An adverse inference serves the remedial purpose of restoring the prejudiced party to the same position he would have been in absent the wrongful destruction of [or willful refusal to produce] evidence by the opposing party.” Chevron Corp. v. Donziger, 296 F.R.D. 168, 222 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (granting an adverse inference when defendants refused to produce documents pursuant to the District Court’s order). Where “an adverse inference ... is sought on the basis that the evidence was not produced in time for use at trial, the party seeking the instruction must show (1) that the party having control over the evidence had an obligation to timely produce it; (2) that the party that failed to timely produce the evidence had ‘a culpable state of mind’; and (3) that the missing evidence is ‘relevant’ to the party's claim or defense such that a reasonable trier of fact could find that it would support that claim or defense.” Id. (citing Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Financial Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 108 (2d Cir. 2002)).

Furthermore, as discussed in detail in Ms. Giuffre’s Motion for an Adverse Inference Instruction (DE 315), an adverse inference is appropriate regarding the documents that Defendant is withholding under the Second Circuit’s test set forth in Residential Funding. Defendant has admitted to deleting emails as this Court noted in its Order. Defendant has not collected what data remains from at least half of her email accounts. An adverse inference is equally appropriate if the non-compliance was due to Defendant’s destruction of evidence. See Brown v. Coleman, 2009 WL 2877602, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 8, 2009) (“Where a party violates a court order—either by destroying evidence when directed to preserve it or by failing to produce information because relevant data has been destroyed—Rule 37(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that the court may impose a range of sanctions, including dismissal or judgment by default, preclusion of evidence, imposition of an adverse inference, or assessment of attorneys' fees and costs. Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(b); see Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Financial Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 106–07 (2d Cir.2002)”). See also Essenter v. Cumberland Farms, Inc., 2011 WL 124505, at *7 (N.D.N.Y. Jan. 14, 2011); and Rule 37(e), Fed. R. Civ. P. (“If electronically stored information that should have been preserved in the anticipation or conduct of litigation is lost because a party failed to take reasonable steps to preserve it . . . the court: (2) only upon finding that the party acted with the intent to deprive another party of the information’s use in the litigation may: (A) presume that the lost information was unfavorable to the party; (b) instruct the jury that it may or must presume the information was unfavorable to the party; or (C) dismiss the action or enter a default judgment.”).

The Court may also wish to consider the possibility of a having a neutral, third-party expert review Defendant’s production. In her filing with the Court on Monday, August 1, 2016, Defendant represented that she ran hundreds of search terms - including the names of people involved in the sex trafficking ring with whom she still associates in the present - and got zero “hits” for any of them. That is strong indicia that Defendant intentionally deleted documents. This strongly suggests that relevant documents either lie in the two email accounts that were not searched or Defendant has deleted these communications. Defendant does not state that the individual who examined Defendant’s devices attempted to recover Defendant’s deleted email and other documents, or attempted to identify if and when a hard drive was wiped.

In these circumstances, the Court should allow an independent forensic expert review the computer and all her email accounts to determine whether responsive materials exists and have either not been produced or have been deleted. The Court could then use that information in determining whether an adverse inference is appropriate.

III. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, Ms. Giuffre respectfully request that this Court grant her motion for an adverse inference jury instruction pursuant to Rule 27(b), (e), and (f), with respect to the electronic documents and electronic communications that this Court Ordered her to produce, allow a forensic review of her computer to evaluate whether material was intentionally deleted; and direct Defendant to recover any remaining mindspring.com data from the applicable server.

13 don't know. It was a pretty nice black jet.

14 Q Did you observe Virginia entering or 15 exiting that airplane?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And other than Virginia what other people
18 did you observe entering or exiting that airplane?

19 A I'm pretty sure Jeffrey and Ms. Maxwell
20 were both there.

21 Q Can you tell me the first time that you
22 met Ms. Maxwell. Describe that occasion?

23 A Like I said we were just pretty much I was 24 in the house hang out and she was in the kitchen she 25 was there one of the times I guess. And pretty much

1 Q How many times did you go to Jeffrey
2 epi/STAOEPBZ pool area?

3 A Like three times.

4 Q And on the three occasions that you went
5 to Jeffrey epi/STAOEPBZ pool area who else was by 6 had pool parea?

7 A I understand nobody like I was liltry just 8 sitting out there by myself waiting for her to get
9 done talking with him. But pretty much everytime I
10 was at that house there was just random girls the 11 chef and Ms. Maxwell.

12 Q At this time in 2000 one your how old are 13 you. What is your date of birth?

14 A March 4th 1982. I'm 34.

15 Q Okay. So in 2001 you about 19?

16 A Yeah.

17 Q When you were at Jeffrey epi/STAOEPBZ
18 house and by the pool?

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q I your describing other girls that were in 21 had house did youknow these other hours?

22 A No they were like fraught different
23 countries.

24 Q Hoe did you know they waere from different
25 contries?

1 A Because whenever they would talk or I
2 would hear them say blah blah or she would tell me
3 this girl was this place and that girl was thaw that 4 place.

5 Q Would could tell from the accent?

6 A Yeah.

7 Q Would you ever talk to these girls?

8 A Not really. I mean sometimes I would.
9 But not like a conversation about asking what they
10 were doing ear.

11 Q At this time 19 years old. Can you tell
12 me what the age range of these girls you describing 13 that are foreign girls at Jeffries house?

14 MS. MENNINGER: Objection form

15 /TPAUFRPBGZ.

16 A They looked about Virginia's age. They
17 all looked about that about 17, 18. But I don't
18 know. I did not ask hem how old they were so I
19 don't know the exact number.

20 BY MR. EDWARDS:

21 Q Okay. And when you were in the house by
22 the pool by yourself you said Virginia was just I
23 guess describing one occasion Virginia was just talk
24 to them?

25 A Jeffrey I don't know about what.

1 Q Was Ms. Maxwell the?

2 A I'm not sure I know she was only there 5
3 or six times out of the whole time I was with her
4 that I met her.

5 Q All right. And each of the five or six
6 times that you met Ms. Maxwell do I understand it
7 correctly that it was inside Jeff sephouse?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Each of the 5 or six times that you met
10 Ms. Maxwell inside of Jeffrey's house was your 11 conversation with her always fairly similar stoowhat
12 you described?

13 A Yeah, it was never like I never talked to 14 her as I would like Jeffrey. Like she never set
15 down with me I had a conversation 0 high how you
16 doing blew blew ahow doing and that would be it.

17 Q Okay.

18 Q And when St. The first time you met
19 Jeffrey Epstein in relationship the the first time
20 you met Ms. Maxwell. Meaning did you meet him
21 first. Second?

22 A I met Jeffrey first.

23 Q How did how were you introduced to Jeffrey
24 Epstein?

25 A Just high this is Jeffrey this is Tony,

1 you know, just casually.

2 Q When is the first time that you were asked
3 by anyone to bring other girls Jeff /AEF
4 epi/STAOEPBZ house?

5 A Pretty much right after she left. When
6 she would go on trips. They would just ask me if I
7 would find like Jeffrey would say when you get back
8 find more girls to have here blue blue this and 9 that. And then after she went to thiland when he 10 was calling me searching for her he would throw that 11 in there randomly do you have any girls. And then 12 where is Virginia at. Like trying to seem like he 13 was trying to get more information about her than 14 anything after she left but make it seem like still 15 wanted me to be around kind of.

16 Q Okay.

17 A But I don't know exactly.

18 Q Okay. So in the beginning?

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q Of your going over to Jeffrey Epstein
21 house primary it was just you and Virginia?

22 A Yeah, .

23 Q At someintp point in time Virginia starts
24 recruiting other girls to go to the house; is that
25 right?

1 Q Describe for us what these girls looked
2 like that were being brought to the house?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Object to the form found
4 vague time to place.

5 BY MR. EDWARDS:

6 Q Sorry let me prephrase the question during
7 this 2001 period if you were driving Virginia and 8 another girl to the house, what type of girls would 9 you be driving?

10 MS. MENNINGER: Form form foundation.

11 A Pretty much like young looking teenager
12 girls 16, 17, really pretty.

13 Q How did you know that's what was being 14 requested that that age range and that look and?

15 A I just assumed that that's what most guys
16 are into.

17 Q Girls that looked like Virginia?

18 A Yeah.

19 Q When you would bring girls over to the 20 house were you looking for some sort of professional
21 mussuese or massge experience?

22 A Just get friends that I knew from school.

23 Q And that's what Jeffrey wanted?

24 A Yeah.

25 MS. MENNINGER: Object form founds.

1 BY MR. EDWARDS:

2 Q How did you know what Jeffrey wanted?

3 A That's what he asked me.

4 Q What would he ask you?

5 A Ask me to try to find gills a resem
6 believed like somewhat that type.

7 Q And when you would bring these girls that
8 resem believed Virginia or some type would Jeffrey
9 Epstein pay you?

10 A Yes cension form /STKPWHROUPBGZ.

11 Q Would Jeffrey pay you every time?

12 A Ojbection form foundation.

13 A Yes.

14 Q And how much would he pay you foreach girl
15 that you brought to him?

16 A Object form founds.

17 A Two hundred dollars apiece.

18 Q Where would this transaction tace place?

19 A Object to the form.

20 MS. MENNINGER: Object to the form
21 /TPOUFRPBLZ the living room.

22 BY MR. EDWARDS:

23 Q And how much money do you think overall
24 Jeffy epistein paid you for bringing girls to him?

25 A Me personal or us together.

1 Q Sure. How how often did Jeffy Epstein ask
2 you to bring girls to the house?

3 A Pretty much as much as possible like he 4 would tell us as men girls we could bring the 5 better, so...

6 Q When you say us who are the us?

7 A Me I Virginia.

8 Q So walking me through an example of that
9 you would go thohouse with Virginia and describe
10 what would happen that ultimately let to this
11 conversation that you just describe would Jeff /AEF
12 Epstein?

13 A Well because /THRAOEU explain that.

14 Q Sure you I Virginia my initial question
15 was I think you initial answer was is as often
16 Jeffrey bring girls to him as muffin as possible as 17 many osto us. Us being you I Virginia. So walk ame
18 through an example go thohouse and then where do you
19 have this discussion where did you have this 20 discussion what words did he use what did he tell
21 you specifically?

22 A Specifically he just said see if you can
23 find firls. It was in the living room. There's a
24 little desk that is where I normally talk to him. He 25 would sit behind the so you have any nor girls you

1 want to beak in a cupp for nis weekend and like I
2 said pretty much every time I went there if I knew
3 /KPWEBLS I could bring to him I started bring ilto I
4 guessee liked then they would start doing stuff
5 without me so then slowy just fading out, you know.

6 Q Squat this point Jeffrey Epstein in the 7 living room and Virginia to bring other girls?

8 A Uh-huh.

9 Q Was he using the world massage anymore?

10 A No,ee did not say anything like that just 11 is saying to bring them.

12 Q At that stage where this conversation a
13 happening dud you already settle conversation and 14 Virginia you knew what was actually at the house as 15 apoid I'ma masagge therapist?

16 A I'm not positive but I don't doubt it.

17 Q Once you were hin house with Virginia and
18 you were having these conversation with Jeffy
19 Epstein was it obviously to you whata happening that
20 house?

21 A I mean it was obvious to me. Like I said
22 I never witnesses any of the stuff so...

23 Q Of course?

24 Q What would you tell the girls that you
25 would bring to Jeffrey's what the did you del the

1 Jeffries house to get them to the house.

2 A Well I told them that it was for a
3 massage. And I told them obviously that if people
4 when they get massaged I don't know going to expect
5 more from you or not. If he does tell him know it's 6 up to you if you want to go. And they would still 7 do it it.

8 Q How did you know to use the word massage
9 to get the girls to Jeffrey epi/STAOEPBZ house?

10 A I did not want to straight up be like why
11 don't you jerk this guy off for money so...

12 Q You thought that was a better way to get
13 them to the house?

14 A Yeah, sounded a little bit more
15 professional aguess not as bad.

16 Q Okay.

17 Q When you brought other girls to the house
18 aside from Virginia where was elenmax in the house?

19 A Object form /STKPWHROUPBZ brought other
20 girls to the house aside from Virginia was 21 Ms. Maxwell in the house?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Where was Ms. Maxwell in the house when 24 you brought other girls to the house aside from 25 Virginia?

1 A In the kitchen.

2 Q And on these occasions would you see
3 Ms. Maxwell in the kitchen?

4 A Yes.

5 Q On these occasion when you would bring
6 girls other the Virginia to the house and
7 Ms. Maxwell was in the kitsch would Ms. Maxwell see
8 the girl you brought to the house?

9 A Yes.

10 A Form foundation.

11 Q And when you would brink these girls other
12 than Virginia to Jeff /AEF epi/STAOEPBZ house I see
13 Ms. Maxwell in the kitchen were you with the girl
14 that you just brought?

15 A Yes.

16 MS. MENNINGER: /TPOPBL form foun.

17 BY MR. EDWARDS:

18 Q I during these occasion what conversation
19 if any did Ms. Maxwell have knyefe girls you
20 brought?

21 A Not much pretty mump like I said when I
22 take the girls all it would just a friendly
23 conversation with everybody and just high what's 24 your name asking about what they do and where they 25 are and stuff like that. It was never anything like

1 sexual talk or anything like that.

2 Q Okay. So just so have a good image of that
3 bring a girl authority when you brought a other than
4 verge into -- what door did you enter Jeffrey
5 Epstein's house?

6 A When you pull up to his house a walkway
7 where higarage is like off to the side that's the 8 bay I always go.

9 Q I know the sider door by the kitchen?

10 A Yeah.

11 Q So on one of occasions if you can think to 12 one of the occasion brought a girl into the kitchen
13 other than Virginia?

14 A Uh-huh.

15 Q And Ms. Maxwell an in the kitchen, did you
16 and this /OEURT girl that you were bringing over sit 17 there and together have this small stalk and 18 McMaxal?

19 A Yeah.

20 MS. MENNINGER: Fom form foundation.

21 A Yes.

22 Q And how long would you and one of these 23 other girls sit there and have this small talk with
24 Ms. Maxwell?

25 A No more than 10 or 15 minutes.

1 Q What were you waiting for?

2 A Pretty much her to take them up stairs
3 then I would leave. I would wait for them to be
4 like we're ready. And I would be all right. See you
5 later and I would leave.

6 Q You were waiting for who to take who up
7 stairs?

8 A I had seen Ms. Maxwell take a girl up
9 there well not up there visibly but I watched her
10 leave had room with one.

11 Q Up stairs?

12 A Well, I didn't see the stairs. Like in 13 the kitchen there's not like you have to go all
14 around and all that shit.

15 Q Let me just understand what you did see
16 then. So you brought a girl over. We're talking
17 about an instance where you brought another girl
18 over to the house?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And your in the kitchen with this other
21 girl and Ms. Maxwell?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And what did you actually see in terms of 24 of where did that girl and with whom?

25 A I just saw them leave the room.

1 Q Together?

2 A Together. And assumed that they were
3 heading up to massage room.

4 Q Because that was the purpose of bringing 5 her over?

6 MS. MENNINGER: Objection.

7 A Yeah.

8 MS. MENNINGER: Form founds.

9 BY MR. EDWARDS:

10 Q When during that circumstance?

11 Q So you understand the circumstance I'm 12 talking about you bring a girl into the kitchen and 13 Ms. Mackle is in the kitchen?

14 A Uh-huh.

15 Q And you see Ms. Maxwell and this girl
16 leave the kitchen?

17 A Yes.

18 Q When during that circumstances do you get 19 paid?

20 A I did paid before anything happens period.
21 I walk in the door talk to Jeffrey and then he hands
22 me my money walk back to kitchen say by and leave.
23 And then like I said at some point and seen her
24 before when I was leave walking the girl out the 25 living room out through the kitchen. So she could

1 have taken up stairs she could have not but I
2 definitely seen her walking.

3 Q On how many occasionings?

4 Q /KWROPBLT might I told me this but how
5 many occasion did you bring girls into the kitchen
6 and the three of you, you the girl you brought and I
7 /STKPWEULian Maxwell have conversation?

8 A Not many. I only met her maybe six times.

9 Q Each of the times you met gillian Maxwell
10 in Jeffrey epi/STAOEPBZ house did you have girls
11 that were being brought to Jeffrey?

12 A Everything time at the house it was either
13 with Virginia or some girl. I never went there by 14 myself.

15 Q He did not have a use for you?

16 A Yeah, he did not need me.

17 Q All right. That beginning of the 18 deposition I believe tell me if I got this wrong I
19 believe talk about it time Virginia just gone to 20 thiland talking to you in telephone?

21 A Uh-huh.

22 Q And you believe Jeff /AEF was supposed to
23 pay the phone bill; is that correct?

24 A Yeah.

25 Q Why did you believe Jeffrey Epstein was

1 lead to where is she, so...

2 Q How did Jeffrey Epstein have you telephone
3 number?

4 A I would imagine from Virginia.

5 Q Okay. What prior to her going did he call
6 you on the telephone?

7 A I mean sometimes he would have his
8 assistant call thee but he did call me sometimes.

9 Q Which assistant call you of jiffy
10 sep/STAOEFRPBZ I can't remember her name but his 11 main asigh?

12 Q Would sarah callin cal lyou?

13 A I believe that's her.

14 Q Gillian Maxwell call you?

15 A I think she might have once or twice.
16 I'm not positive but I'm pretty sureee did.

17 Q Would the calls that gill wherein Maxwell
18 made to you been during the time that you were 19 living with Virginia or after Virginia had left?

20 A It was while living together.

21 Q And what would be what did Virginia what
22 did gillian Maxwell say to you when she called you
23 while living?

24 A

25 MS. MENNINGER: Objection miscontact when

1 watt.

2 A And what say what did he say?

3 Q Yes.

4 A Just ask mead had anybody else lined up.

5 Q Anything else lined up for what?

6 A Objection form /TPOUFRPBLDZ.

7 A For Jeffrey.

8 Q Let me fix this. Gill when gillian
9 Maxwell would call you during the time that you were 10 living with Virginia she would ask you what
11 specifically?

12 MS. MENNINGER: Fom form foundation.

13 A Just if I had found any ear girls just to 14 bring the Jeffrey.

15 Q Okay.

16 A Pretty much everytime a conversation with 17 any of them it was either asking Virginia where she 18 was ask the asking her to get girls or asking me get
19 girls.

20 Q Let's go to that second categorizing you
21 just identified asking Virginia to get girls. How 22 many times were you in a room where specifically
23 gill max would ask Virginia to bring girls?

24 A Not that I can recall.

25 Q How many times when you say thigh asked

1 Q How often would Virginia according to
2 Virginia how much would Virginia and /PH*BGS maxal
3 go out look forg girls?

4 A I stopped asking after a while. I would
5 imagine every time but I don't recall.

6 A Every time when she was telling you or you
7 were asking that's what was happening.

8 A Yeah.

9 Q All right. And going back to when he
10 finally told you that having sex with these people?

11 A Uh-huh.

12 Q It was the people she told you that she
13 was having sex with Jeffp /STAOEPB Ms. Mackual
14 andthol other girls did you understand all the other
15 girls were?

16 A I just assumed justthol girls that heever
17 had at his house I never on a personal basis with 18 pretty much anyone except for the ones I went to 19 school with so...

20 Q And?

21 Q Of the girls brought to had us or that you
22 observed Virginia bring to the house how many of 23 them were professional masuesses?

11 they all seemed like there were younger.

12 Q Are you bring you bring 253540 year olds
13 to the house?

14 A No.

15 Q So within a range?

16 A I'd say probably 16 to 19.

17 Q Okay.

Re: Guiffre v. Maxwell
Case No. 15-cv-07433-RWS

Dear Laura,

I write pursuant to this Court's June 20, 2016, Order regarding search and production from Defendant's electronic media. Accordingly, please use IMAP Capable software (or a functional equivalent) to capture all of the sent/received emails from Ms. Maxwell's various email accounts, including but not limited to the following: (1) GMax1@ellmax.com (and any other accounts at ellmax.com); (2) gmax1@mindspring.com (and any other accounts at mindspring.com); (3) any of Ms. Maxwell's email account associated with The Terramar Project (including any account ending in @theterramarproject.org); and (4) any other email accounts either used in the past, or currently in use.

Additionally, please use FileSeek software (or a functional equivalent) to retrieve any data, including electronic documents (such as Word documents; PDFs; Excel sheets; etc.), from Ms. Maxwell's devices, including personal computers, work computers, any tablets, and any phones. This includes any cloud storage accounts. Please confirm that you have imaged Ms. Maxwell's hard drives and other devices.

Once you have gathered that data onto a platform (such as Summation or its functional equivalent), please run the below search terms. Since the Court ordered us to negotiate the search terms, please let me know if you think additional terms would be appropriate or whether you object to any terms, and your basis thereof.

When applying the search terms, the search terms need to "hit" on documents even if the terms are embedded within other words. So, for example, the term "acuity" would yield a hit on the document, even if the word in the document is "acuityreputatoin." To return a hit on those embedded terms, I request that you use “wildcards” to ensure that embedded terms are located. (Wildcard characters are used to expand word searches into pattern searches by “replacing” single or multiple characters.) Where there are a specific number of characters needed to be included, a single wildcard will achieve that purpose. For example, in some programs, ! is used for single character wildcards, and * is used for multiple character wildcards. For instance:

- (a) Single character wildcard example: a search for L!n! will return “long,” “link,” “lane,” “lone,” etc.
- (b) Multiple character wildcard example: a search for chil will return “children,” “chill,” “chilling,” etc.
- (c) Mixed use of wildcards: a search for L!n will return “lines,” “lining,” “linty,” etc.

Accordingly, the below search terms are submitted with wildcard characters to be applied in the manner of the examples above. Please apply them as such with whatever characters is required by the software/platform that you will be using.

Similarly, regarding how the terms are combined (AND or OR). OR should expand your results while AND will restrict result to only those which include all the terms.

Additionally, I want to clarify that I would like all of the metadata to be searched in addition to the text of the documents. For example, if the search term is “acuity,” “hits” should include all the document that include the word “acuity” in their text OR in their metadata (this includes words in items such as email subjects, filenames, as well as any documents which include that word somewhere within their text).

I also wanted to point out another special syntax with regard to proximity searching. This is a search that finds words within a specified distance from one another. On some software, this is represented as w/#, so a search for “meet w/2 greet” will return “meet and greet,” “greet and meet” and “meet and nicely greet.” Please apply accordingly.

Additionally, for searches for people’s initials in the search terms, please use “exact matches,” “stand alone,” or “literal” terms (see, e.g., PA, AD, JE, GM).

Finally, the search terms are not to be treated as case-sensitive, meaning that the terms should be searched according to their letters, regardless of whether they are represented in the list as containing upper case or lower case letters.

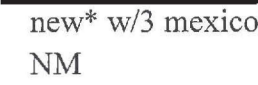

The following are the applicable search terms.

- 1) jef*

16 A. In what context.

17 Q. In any context. Have you ever
18 talked to Jeffrey Epstein about [REDACTED]?

19 A. [REDACTED] works for me so it's entirely
20 possible that in the course of conversations
21 since 2002, 2003 that a conversation in which 22 [REDACTED] name would have come up is entirely
23 possible.

24 Q. I provided you with and I'm sorry,
25 I don't know all the numbers, but the

2 statement that was issued by Ross Gow that
3 should be a single page still in your stack
4 of exhibits there.

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Exhibit 10.

6 Q. Did you authorize Ross Gow to issue
7 that statement on your behalf in January of 8 2015?

9 A. I already testified that that was
10 done by my lawyers.

11 Q. So did you authorize your lawyers
12 to issue a statement on your behalf through 13 Ross Gow in January of 2015?

14 A. It was determined that I had to 15 make a statement in the United Kingdom
16 because of the appalling lies and I just 17 thought of some new ones.

18 Virginia's statement that I
19 celebrated her 16 birthday with her. We can
20 all agree that that's entirely impossible. I
21 didn't meet her until she was 17 and other
22 lies she perpetrated that she had a diary and 23 we all know is a complete fake. That's not a
24 diary. It was just a book she was writing
25 that you helped sell to the press, as if it

2 (Maxwell Exhibit 17, email, marked

4 Q. This is an email from you on
5 January 10, 2015 to Philip Barden and Ross
6 Gow. The statement you had before you
7 earlier, that, if you can pull that in front
8 of you, the one page press release that you
9 gave. You might know from memory.

10 Was the press release that you
11 issued with the statement about Virginia
12 issued in or around January 2, 2015?

13 A. As best as I can recollect.

14 Q. I want to turn your attention to 15 the document I just handed you which is Bates
16 No. 001044, from you to Philip Barden and 17 Ross Gow. It says in the first sentence, I'm 18 out of my depth to understand defamation,
19 other legal hazards and I don't want to end
20 up in a lawsuit aimed at me from anyone, if I
21 can help it. Apparently, even saying
22 Virginia is a liar has hazards.

23 You knew at the time you called
24 Virginia a liar in early January of 2015 that
25 that was something that would result in a

3 Q. I'm marking this as Maxwell 25.

4 (Maxwell Exhibit 25, email, marked
5 for identification.)

6 Q. I'm showing you what has been
7 marked as Maxwell 25.

8 This is an email dated January 11,
9 2015 at the top?

10 Do you see that that from Jeffrey
11 to you?

12 A. Uh-huh.

13 Q. And then below there is an email
14 from Philip Barden to you and cc'ing Ross Gow
15 on January 11, 2015.

16 Do you see that?

17 A. Uh-huh.

18 Q. It says, Dear Ghislaine, as you
19 know I have been working behind the scenes
20 and this article comes from that. It helps
21 but doesn't answer the VR claims. I will get 22 the criminal allegations out. This shows the 23 MOS will print truth, not just a VR voice
24 piece. We can only make the truth by making
25 a statement.

2 What did he mean when he said, I
3 will get the criminal allegations out, what
4 was he referring to?

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
6 form and foundation.

7 A. I have no idea.

8 Q. Were there criminal allegations
9 about Virginia that either your lawyer or 10 press agent were leaking to the press?

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
12 and foundation.

13 A. I have no idea.

14 Q. Did you ask him what he meant when 15 he said, I will get the criminal allegations
16 out?

17 A. I don't recollect the conversation.

18 Q. Did you direct him to leak to the 19 press criminal allegations about Virginia
20 Roberts?

21 A. I already testified that I have no
22 knowledge of what you are asking me.

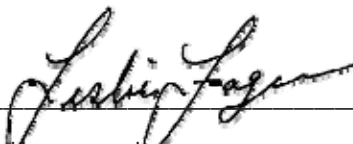

23 Q. Were you copied on this email,
24 correct?

25 A. I was.

Deposition of JOSEPH RECAREY, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401
Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida,
before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered
Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime
Reporter and Notary Public within and
for the State of Florida.

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Q. Do you remember speaking with a female by
3 the name of [REDACTED]?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And is that -- did you learn from [REDACTED]
6 [REDACTED] about [REDACTED]?

7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
8 foundation.

9 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

10 BY MR. EDWARDS:

11 Q. And what did you understand [REDACTED]
12 [REDACTED] interaction with Jeffrey Epstein to be?

13 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
14 foundation.

15 THE WITNESS: [REDACTED] was allegedly
16 dating Jeffrey Epstein at the time. And [REDACTED]
17 and [REDACTED] were roommates.

18 During that time, [REDACTED] had met with [REDACTED]
19 and went shopping with her at the Palm Beach
20 Mall, where they purchased items from 21 Victoria's Secrets.

22 After spending the day together, they went
23 over to the Palm Beach house, where Epstein
24 requested to see what was purchased. She was a
25 little reluctant initially, but because of the

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 fact that it was his money that purchased the 3 items, she showed the outfit that she had
4 purchased at Victoria's Secrets. He had asked
5 her to try it on, at which time she did.

6 She went back to the house at another
7 time, where she was going to meet with [REDACTED]
8 and Epstein. They went for a bike ride, but 9 [REDACTED] had a massage, which Epstein walked in on 10 while she was getting a massage.

11 He asked her to turn over, expose her
12 breasts to him. I think he performed a
13 chiropractic move on her. And she was 14 completely uncomfortable with the whole
15 situation.

16 BY MR. EDWARDS:

17 Q. Did you ever attempt to interview [REDACTED]
18 [REDACTED]?

19 A. I'm trying to recall. I believe I may 20 have. I just -- off the top of my head, I can't 21 remember whether I did or didn't.

22 Q. Okay. At some point in time did you
23 encounter Alan Dershowitz?

24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
25 foundation.

1 Q. And what -- do you recall any observations
2 about [REDACTED] when you met her?

3 A. To speak with, she was a little rough
4 around the edges, and I could see the progression of
5 her being groomed a little. They got her braces.
6 She had terrible posture. And with a lot of
7 massages, she learned to stand up straight. So I
8 just saw her become a much more confident person.

9 Q. Do you recall how old she was when you
10 first met her?

11 A. I assumed she was 18, but I do not know
12 her age.

13 MS. McCAWLEY: We're going to take a break
14 really quickly and then we will be back. So we

Deposition of JOHN ALESSI, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401
Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida,
before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered
Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime
Reporter and Notary Public within and
for the State of Florida.

1 JOHN ALESSI

2 Q. You never received emails from either of
3 them?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. So when there would be a message from one
6 of them while they were out of town, they would call
7 you, call you on the telephone?

8 A. I haven't spoken to Ghislaine in 12 years.

9 Q. Sorry. I'm talking about when you worked
10 there and you would receive a message that they were 11 coming into town, would that be by way of telephone?

12 A. Telephone, and also, there was a system at 13 the house, that it was MindSpring, MindSpring I
14 think it's called, that it was like a message system
15 that would come from the office.

16 Q. What is MindSpring?

17 A. It was a server. I think it was -- the 18 office would have, like, a message system between 19 him, the houses, the employees, his friends. They 20 would write a message on the computer. There was no
21 email at that time.

22 Q. Okay. So what computer would you use?

23 A. My computer in my office.

24 Q. And so was part of your daily routine to 25 go to your computer and check to see if you had

1 JOHN ALESSI

2 MindSpring messages?

3 A. No. That was at the end of my stay. That
4 was the very end of my stay. I didn't get involved
5 with that too much. But it was a message system
6 that Jeffrey received every two, three hours, with 7 all the messages that would have to go to the office
8 in New York, and they will print it and send it
9 faxed to the house, and I would hand it to him.

10 Q. Did it look like the message pads that 11 we've been looking at?

12 A. No, no, nothing like that.

13 Q. Was it typed-out messages?

14 A. Yes, typed-out messages.

15 Q. Just explain one example of how it would
16 work. Let's say that Ghislaine wanted to send him a
17 message on MindSpring. How would that work?

18 A. An example?

19 Q. Sure.

20 A. It got so ridiculous at the end of my 21 stay, okay? That Mr. Epstein, instead of talking to 22 me that he wants a cup of coffee, he will call the 23 office; the office would type it; they would send it
24 to me, Jeffrey wants a cup of coffee, or Jeffrey
25 wants an orange juice out by the pool.

1 JOHN ALESSI

2 Q. He would call the office in New York.
3 They would then type it in MindSpring?

4 A. Send it to me.

5 Q. How would you know to check for it? How
6 would you know to look for this MindSpring?

7 A. Because I was in the office. I was there.
8 I was there. And we have a signal when it come on 9 and says, Hey, you've got mail.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. Every day. Every day it was new things
12 put in. That's why I left, too.

13 Q. Do you know who set up the mind spring
14 system?

15 A. It was a computer guy. It was a computer
16 guy who worked only for Jeffrey. Mark. Mark
17 Lumber.

18 Q. Was he local to Palm Beach?

19 A. No. He was in New York. Everything was 20 set up from New York. And Mark Lumber, I remember 21 he came to Palm Beach to set up the system at the
22 house.

23 Q. Did you become aware at some point in time
24 that there was a bag or a briefcase of cash that was 25 in the house?

1 A. One was in cabana. One, the other second one
2 was in living room and one was in small office next to
3 the kitchen.

4 Q. All right. In your time at the house
5 prior to that, is it fair to say those computers had 6 never been removed before?

7 A. I remember that there was to bring some new
8 ones to replace them at some point. I don't know
9 remember exactly if it was for upgrading, but they
10 change computers very often I would say.

11 Q. All right. But the computers -- the 12 removal by Adriana and this individual, that wasn't 13 done -- we're talking about a different -- that's 14 not a time where they were replacing computers.
15 This was just removing computers from the house?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And did you receive any explanation as to 18 why the computers were being removed from the house?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Did you ever have occasion to use any of 21 the three computers that were removed from the
22 house?

23 A. No. I never, I never, you know, touch them,
24 never use them. I have my own computer in my office, so
25 I use this computer.

1 Q. Is your computer in your office --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Let me finish. Is the computer in your
4 office linked up with the three computers that were 5 removed from the house? Meaning, can you look at 6 the system and see what is on those three computers?

7 A. No, no.

8 Q. Is it your understanding that those three
9 computers are linked with one another or do you
10 know?

11 A. I don't know, but I, I doubt it. They are 12 separate I guess.

13 Q. Okay. Were you aware that Mr. Epstein
14 used a Citrix program to link various computers?
15 Did you know that?

16 A. Yeah. I use Citrix too in my computer for 17 exchanging e-mails and get through Internet.

18 Q. Okay. So, is it your understanding that 19 the only connection then through Citrix with these 20 computers, these various computers that were in 21 Mr. Epstein's home, was for e-mail purposes?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. To your knowledge, you're not 24 familiar with those computers sharing other files or 25 information?

1 A. No.

2 Q. That's not something that you were, you
3 were privy to? You weren't, you weren't in the loop
4 of the sharing of information in the house in terms
5 of the computers being connected through any server?

6 A. I don't really know what, how, how to answer
7 your question because Citrix is for the whole
8 organization to exchange e-mail between employees.

9 Q. All right. You used the term?

10 A. So, even my computer is connected to Citrix.
11 I can receive mail and I can e-mail information to 12 employee within organization. But I don't know if you
13 can see to each computer what is going on on another
14 computer.

15 Q. You don't know about --

16 A. Is that your question?

17 Q. You don't know about shared files?

18 A. No.

19 Q. You only know that the one computer can 20 e-mail the other?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. But that can happen with any two computers
23 in the world pretty much. You can send e-mails to 24 each other, right.

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You have used the term organization, you
2 can share within the organization. What do you --
3 just so I can understand what you're calling the 4 organization, what do you mean by that word?

5 A. People employed by Jeffrey Epstein. There are
6 a few groups of people, his office in New York and I
7 guess --

8 Q. Who are those people by name that you
9 would consider within the Jeffrey Epstein
10 organization?

11 A. His accountant, his --

12 Q. Who is that?

13 A. Bella Klen.

14 Q. What is it?

15 A. Bella Klen. K-l-i-n. E-n, I'm sorry.

16 Q. Bella, B-e-l-l-a?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Is that somebody in New York?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Is that a male or female?

21 A. Female.

22 Q. And you understand that's his accountant?

23 A. Right.

24 MR. GOLDBERGER: Just to get the spelling
25 correct is it K-l-e-i-n?

1 THE WITNESS: K-l-e-n.

2 MR. MERMELSTEIN: K-l-e-n.

3 BY MR. EDWARDS:

4 Q. And in addition to Bella Klen, who else
5 would you have considered to be in Jeffrey Epstein's
6 organization?

7 A. Rich Kahn. Richard Kahn.

8 Q. And how do you spell the last name?

9 A. K-a-h-n.

10 Q. And where is he located?

11 A. New York office.

12 Q. What does he do?

13 A. I guess he was involved with the accounting.

14 Q. And who else?

15 A. Leslie. I would think I would say secretary.

16 Q. Leslie Groff?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And is she also in the New York office?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. What do you understand her role to be?

21 A. Secretary I would say.

22 Q. Did she also schedule appointments for 23 these young females to come to Jeffrey Epstein's
24 house?

25 MR. GOLDBERGER: Form.

1 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

2 BY MR. EDWARDS:

3 Q. We'll go back to that but I tell you why I
4 ask. If you don't know then you don't know, but in 5 the course of Mr. Epstein's -- you're aware that he
6 did plead guilty to a couple felonies in state
7 court, right?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Well, in the course of the negotiation
10 with the federal government and the U.S. Attorney's 11 Office, they, the agreement between Mr. Epstein and 12 the U.S. Attorney's office mentions people that are 13 called co-conspirators of Epstein. And Leslie Groff
14 is named as one of those co-conspirators.

15 Do you know what involvement, if any, that 16 she had with the crimes that were being
17 investigated?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. I am not aware of this.

21 Q. Okay. The other people mentioned as 22 co-conspirators are Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross, and 23 Nadia Marcinkova. So we'll get to them in a minute
24 but first just so we stay on the track of who was in 25 the organization, is Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross and

1 Nadia Marcinkova all people that you would also
2 consider within the organization?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. So, we just added three more names
5 to it. Who else would you consider, Ghislaine
6 Maxwell?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And who else?

9 A. Who was working there?

10 Q. Bella, Richard Kahn, Leslie Groff,
11 Ghislaine Maxwell, Nadia, Sarah, Adriana.

12 A. I think Harry was involved with the 13 accounting.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. I don't recall his last name.

16 Q. Somebody else involved with the
17 accounting?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Any of those people that you just 20 named, were any of those people that you just named
21 the person that you described as the gentleman that 22 assisted Adriana in removing the computers from the 23 house prior to the search warrant being executed?

24 A. No. You mean the one who show up to do those
25 computers?

1 Q. Right. The one who helped Adriana move
2 it.

3 A. No, it wasn't.

4 Q. Had you ever seen that individual on the
5 property, on Mr. Epstein's property at 358 Albrillo
6 Way prior to him assisting Adriana in removing the 7 computers from the home?

8 A. No.

9 Q. That was their first time seeing him?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Had you ever seen him since that date?

12 A. No.

13 Q. And to this date you don't know who that 14 individual was?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Were you told that the -- let me rephrase
17 that. I guess you told me that anything that 18 happened in the home in terms of guests coming over
19 or things of that nature, you would be forewarned
20 about it, right?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. So, when was the first time that you
23 learned that Adriana and some gentleman that you had 24 never met would be coming to the home to remove the 25 computers?

1 A. I got the phone call from her that there would
2 be -- I don't know what time it was in the house in 3 certain time and they would pick up those computers.

4 Q. Okay. And you got a phone call from 5 Adriana?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Why were you called by Adriana to tell you
8 that Adriana and would be coming over to, with some
9 other gentleman to remove the computers. Do you
10 know why you were told that?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Would Adriana call every time she would 13 come over?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. I mean, any, any time coming to the house,
17 they always let me know who is coming when they are 18 arriving or whatever.

19 Q. Back in 2000, sorry.

20 A. I said even if Jeffrey Epstein arriving at the 21 house, I always know what time and which day he would be 22 here or another person, so I would be aware of what was 23 going on and I would be prepared.

24 Q. Who besides you back in 2005 lived at the 25 house full time; just you?

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell, by and through her counsel, hereby submits the following Response in Opposition (“Response”) to Plaintiff’s Motion to Enforce the Court’s Order and Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions Filed Under Seal (“Motion”), as follows:

INTRODUCTION

This lawsuit presents one relatively simple question: is Plaintiff’s claim that she was sexually abused, sexually trafficked and held as a “sex slave” by Jeffrey Epstein between 1999 and 2002 “with the assistance and participation of” Ms. Maxwell substantially true? Plaintiff already has admitted, under oath, that substantial portions of her story are untrue; she has so far refused to say under oath what other lies printed by the press about her story are untrue, but has admitted that journalist Sharon Churcher “got it wrong.” For example, Plaintiff has admitted that she did not meet Ms. Maxwell or Mr. Epstein in 1999 (or in 1998) at the age of 14 or 15, as she previously has sworn and as she told members of the press. Declaration of Jeffrey S. Pagliuca (“Pagliuca Decl.”), Composite Ex. A (Testimony of Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre on May 3, 2016), at 26-27, 220-226. Plaintiff admitted that she did not spend her sweet 16th birthday with Mr. Epstein and Ms. Maxwell as she included in her book manuscript, her Jane Doe #102 Complaint and in the story she sold to the Daily Mail. Id. at 102. Plaintiff’s counsel has admitted that it was a mistake to sue Alan Dershowitz for defamation, after he provided them documentation establishing he never was in their client’s presence, nor did he have sex with her. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. B. And Plaintiff’s story about attending a dinner party with Bill Clinton on Little St. James was debunked by none other than former FBI head, Louis Freeh. Id.

Yet, undeterred, Plaintiff and her counsel continue to use this lawsuit to seek discovery of matters far afield of the one simple question posed in the defamation claim, to explore events that occurred well past 2002, when Plaintiff lived in Australia and had no contact with Ms. Maxwell or Mr. Epstein. The current witch-hunt has now expanded into the private personal life of defendant Ghislaine Maxwell. The harassing, extended, repetitive, cumulative and redundant continued deposition of Ms. Maxwell should be concluded.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

On April 22, 2016 Plaintiff deposed Ms. Maxwell for a full seven hours. The transcript of that deposition is 418 pages long. Ms. Maxwell did not assert any privilege against self-incrimination and was questioned extensively about, among other things: her relationship with Jeffrey Epstein, her knowledge of “sexual trafficking,” sex with minors, non-consensual sex, sex involving the Plaintiff and others, sex involving Plaintiff and Mr. Epstein, sex involving the Plaintiff and Ms. Maxwell, sex involving the Plaintiff, Ms. Maxwell and Mr. Epstein. She was asked questions about whether she recruited girls for Ms. Epstein to have sex with, her knowledge of Ms. Epstein’s sex with a number of people. She was asked questions about “sex toys,” pornographic images, child pornography, and nudity at Mr. Epstein’s house. Ms. Maxwell answered these questions, and many others, to the best of her ability. See Pagliuca Decl., Composite Exhibit C (Transcript of (First) Deposition of Ghislaine Maxwell on April 22, 2016).

During her first deposition, Ms. Maxwell was freely questioned and testified about the following:

- She never had a sexual encounter with Plaintiff, ever. Id. at 76:3-11.
- She never saw Plaintiff massage Mr. Epstein. Id. at 75:12-24.
- She never saw Jeffrey Epstein and Plaintiff in a sexual situation. Id. at 75:23- 76:l.
- She did not have a set of outfits for Plaintiff to wear. Id. at 69:1-24, and again at 117:4-15.
- She had no knowledge of any non-consensual sex acts involving Mr. Epstein. Id. at 55:5-15.
- She never had non-consensual sex with anyone. Id. at 62:19-20 & 63:23-25.

- She did not train Plaintiff to “recruit” other girls for massages or sexual massages. Id. at 81:21- 82:7.
- She never arranged for or asked Plaintiff to have sex with anyone. Id. at 58:6-11.
- She never gave a massage with Plaintiff in the room with Mr. Epstein. Id. at 19:16-21.

Because Ms. Maxwell had not, by virtue of becoming a defendant in this case, injected her entire personal sexual history into this litigation counsel for Ms. Maxwell, during the first 7 hour deposition, instructed Ms. Maxwell to not answer questions related to consensual sexual activity with adults. No objection was raised, and no instruction to not answer lodged, to questions regarding Ms. Maxwell's knowledge of sexual activity (consensual or non-consensual) by Mr. Epstein or others with children, Plaintiff, or other persons. No objections were made, or instructions to not answer, to questions about whether Ms. Maxwell assisted Mr. Epstein in the alleged sexual trafficking of the Plaintiff from 1999 to 2002. Ms. Maxwell answered questions about sexual trafficking, prostitution, her job with Mr. Epstein, and police reports related to Mr. Epstein. Ms. Maxwell was questioned, without any instruction not to answer, about message pads, phone lists, the hiring practices related to massages, hiring practices in general, whether Jeffrey Epstein had a scheme to recruit underage girls for sexual massages and whether Jeffrey

Epstein's assistants would arrange times for underage girls to perform sexual massages. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. C at 253-55. She was extensively questioned about various message pads recovered from Jeffrey Epstein's home by the Palm Beach Police Department. Id. at 147:23-167:23. She was extensively questioned regarding her knowledge about Johanna Sjoborg. Id. at 307:6-312:12. She was extensively questioned about a list containing names and phone numbers under the heading "Massage Florida." Id. at 313:18 – 334:8. Simply stated, with the exception of her adult consensual sex life, Plaintiff was free to question Ms. Maxwell, and in fact questioned Ms. Maxwell on any topic. Importantly, Plaintiff's original motion recognized this fact, seeking only to response Plaintiff on one subject: "Defendant should be ordered to sit for a follow-up deposition and directed to answer questions regarding her knowledge of alleged "adult" sexual activity." Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Deposition Questions, WHEREFORE Clause, at 10 (Doc. # 143).

On June 20, 2016 the Court issued its Order allowing Ms. Maxwell to be re-deposed on a limited basis. The Court authorized questioning relating to:

1. Ms. Maxwell's sexual activity with or involving Jeffrey Epstein;
2. Ms. Maxwell's sexual activity with or involving the Plaintiff;
3. Ms. Maxwell's sexual activity with or involving underage females;
4. Ms. Maxwell's sexual activity involving or including massage with individuals Ms. Maxwell knew were or were likely involved with Mr. Epstein;
5. Ms. Maxwell's knowledge of sexual activities of others with or involving Epstein;
6. Ms. Maxwell's knowledge of sexual activities of others with or involving Plaintiff;
7. Ms. Maxwell's knowledge of sexual activity of others with underage females known to Epstein or believed to be known to Epstein;
8. Ms. Maxwell's knowledge of sexual activity of others involving massage with individuals Ms. Maxwell knew or believed might be known to Epstein.

The continued deposition was expressly limited to the above eight categories, and the Court instructed that Ms. Maxwell “need not answer questions that relate to none of these subjects or that is clearly not relevant, such as sexual activity of third-parties who bear no knowledge or relation to key events, individuals, or locations of this case.” Order of June 20, 2016 at 10 (Doc. # 264-1). Presumably the Court did not authorize repetitive questioning about topics that had been asked and answered in the prior deposition.

Ms. Maxwell had already been subjected to, and fully answered, questions related the majority of the 8 topics in her first 7-hour deposition. Questions related to topics 2, 3, 5, 6, and 7 had all been answered in the negative, i.e., Ms. Maxwell did not have any sexual contact with the Plaintiff (2), did not have sexual contact with any underage females (3), did not have any sexual contact with anyone during a massage (4); had no knowledge of Epstein’s sexual activity other than with Ms. Maxwell (5); had no knowledge of sexual activity with others and the Plaintiff (6); and Ms. Maxwell’s knowledge of sexual activity of others with minors. Topics 4 and 8 had been substantially answered, in the negative. The instruction not to not to answer questions about sexual activity and massages was limited to any activity involving consensual adults. See Plaintiff’s Motion to Compel Deposition Questions at 10 (Doc. #143).

Given that the majority of the questions had already been posed and answered over a full seven-hour time period one might reasonably assume that Ms. Maxwell’s second deposition would be short and direct. Unfortunately, Plaintiff’s counsel chose to ignore the Court’s Order, repeatedly sought to reopen previously completed deposition topics and tried to ask questions about new topics completely unrelated to the limited purpose authorized. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. D (Transcript of (Second) Deposition of Ghislaine Maxwell on July 22, 2016). The entire deposition was far beyond the specific request made by Plaintiff in her Motion that Ms. Maxwell be required to answer questions about adult consensual sexual activity – the only questions on which instructions were given in the first deposition. Yet, broad latitude was given by counsel in the deposition, permitting pages of duplicative, redundant examination on countless topics which had already been asked and fully answer in the first disposition. By way of example:

| Duplicative Topic of Questioning | First Deposition (Exhibit C) | Second Deposition (Exhibit D) |
|--|--|--------------------------------|

¹ Consistent with Ms. Maxwell's testimony, Ms. Sjoberg testified that 1) all massages she gave to Ms. Maxwell were ordinary professional massages, and never of a sexual nature; 2) Ms. Maxwell and she never engaged in any sexual activity, nor was it ever requested; and 3) all interactions she had at Mr. Epstein's property of a sexual nature were consensual activities while she was an adult. THE QUESTIONS

I. PLAINTIFF'S FAILURE TO IDENTIFY THE SPECIFIC QUESTIONS CLAIMED UNANSWERED REQUIRES DENIAL OF THE MOTION

Plaintiff broadly, and inaccurately, claims now that at her second deposition, Ms. Maxwell "refused to answer many questions" related to sexual activity or "refused to answer questions about subject integral to this lawsuit." Motion at 3-4. This assertion is patently dispelled by a review of the second deposition transcript which is 193 pages long. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. D. The deposition began at 9:04 a.m. and concluded at 2:51 p.m. The total time Ms. Maxwell testified in this deposition was 4 hours and 52 minutes for a total combined deposition time of 11 hours and 52 minutes. A total of 787 questions were posed to Ms. Maxwell in the second deposition. Ms. Maxwell answered every question posed to her that fell within the scope of the June 20 Order, many that were outside the scope, and countless questions that had been asked and answered in her first deposition.

It is difficult to discern precisely what questions Plaintiff is complaining about in her Motion because of her generalized and non-specific complaints. Plaintiff fails to cite to a single instruction not to answer that 1) falls within the scope to the Court's Order and 2) that was not answered when properly rephrased to fall within the scope of the Order. S.D.N.Y. Local Rules require that:

A party seeking or opposing relief under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 through 37 inclusive, or making or opposing any other motion or application, shall quote or attach only those portions of the depositions, interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admissions, or other discovery or disclosure materials, together with the responses and objections thereto, that are the subject of the discovery motion or application, or that are cited in papers submitted in connection with any other motion or application. See also Civil Local Rule 37.1.

The failure to comply with Rule 37.1 and set forth the particular questions or responses Plaintiff claims are deficient is “enough to require denial of the motion.” Sibley v. Choice Hotels Int'l, No. CV 14-634 (JS) (AYS), 2015 WL 9413101, at *5 (E.D.N.Y. Dec. 22, 2015) (denying motion to compel where party failed to identify the specific questions and responses to interrogatories claimed deficient); see also Kilkenney v. Greenberg Traurig, LLP, No. 05 CIV. 6578NRB, 2008 WL 371808, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 7, 2008) (denying motion to compel where specific questions and objection were not provided, noting rule 37.1 is “This is not an academic or ritual requirement. . . . Court cannot be tasked with performing the functions of Kilkenney's legal counsel [by identifying claimed deficiencies] and thereby seen as advocating for one party over another.”); Frattalone v. Markowitz, No. 91 CIV. 5854 (LMM), 1994 WL 494878, at *3

(S.D.N.Y. Sept. 9, 1994) (permitting reopening of deposition only if party could specifically identify areas of inquiry previously foreclosed). To the extent Plaintiff has not identified specific questions that Ms. Maxwell was instructed not to answer she has waived any issue related to the questioning.

II. THE REQUESTED TOPIC AREAS ARE CUMULATIVE, DUPLICATIVE AND NO GOOD CAUSE EXISTS FOR PERMITTING ADDITIONAL DEPOSITION TIME

Plaintiff's proffered "topic areas" that she would like to re-open the deposition to cover – again – makes clear that what she is asking for is additional time – in excess of the almost 12 hours she has already had – to ask questions that have already been answered. This is impermissible under Rule 30(d)(1) which prohibits depositions in excess of 7 hours seeking the type of duplicative and cumulative testimony Plaintiff seeks.

The only testimony cited in the Motion are instances in which Ms. Maxwell had already fully testified on the topic area. First, she cites questions concerning Johanna Sjoberg, a witness who has been deposed in this case. What Plaintiff ignores is that Ms. Maxwell had already been fully examined concerning her knowledge about Ms. Sjoberg and answered every question, with the exception of a single questions regarding adult consensual sexual activity which was answered in the second deposition. See Pagliuca Decl., Ex. C at 59:7-63:16; 286:23-293:13; 307:6-312:12 & Ex. D at 77:24 – 78:6 ("Q. Did Mr. Epstein, insofar as you believe, engage in sexual activities with Johanna? A. I would not know. I would say no. Q. Did you engage in sexual activities with Johanna? A. No."). Despite this, leeway was given, and 5 pages of repeated testimony concerning Ms. Sjoberg commenced and was permitted until the duplicative nature of the testimony was simply too much. See Pagliuca Decl., Ex. D at 74:2-78:19.

Second, Plaintiff inaccurately complains that Ms. Maxwell refused to answer questions concerning sexual activity involving two women named Annie and Maria Farmer. Motion at 6. Not so. Ms. Maxwell answered questions for fully 13 pages of her deposition concerning the Farmers. See Pagliuca Decl., Ex. D at 95-98 and 103-113. Ms. Maxwell answered well over 76 questions relating to Annie and Maria Farmer including who they are, when she met them, whether she ever saw them at Epstein's homes or her own home, whether Epstein ever had sex with them, whether they worked for Epstein, whether they flew on planes together, gave or received massages, participated in any sexual activities with one another, where they lived, the description of their living environments, and whether journalist Vicky Ward ever told Ms. Maxwell that Epstein had engaged in sexual activities. Id. This was on top of the questions that Ms. Maxwell had already answered at her first deposition that were nearly identical: who are the Farmers, how did you meet them, whether they ever made any allegations of sexual abuse by Epstein, or whether Ms. Maxwell had ever had non-consensual sexual contact with Annie Farmer. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. C at 95:14 -98:10 & 103:19-113:22. In fact, at the first deposition, Ms. Maxwell did not refuse to answer a single question regarding the Farmers. Thus, all of the questions at the second deposition were redundant, cumulative and outside of the Court's Order. The only question that Ms. Maxwell refused to answer was: "What did Vicky Ward tell you about Maria Farmer when she talked to you?" after which she answered another 10 pages of questions that centered around whether Vicky Ward had said specific things regarding the Farmers. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. D at 103-113. Ms. Maxwell has already flatly denied she had any knowledge of the allegations posited by reporter Vicky Ward.

Plaintiff is not permitted to re-depose Ms. Maxwell on issues already covered, or which she had the opportunity to cover, in the first 7-hour deposition, particularly in light of the additional 4.5 hours permitted in the second deposition and the fact that she answered in the second deposition the only pertinent questions permitted by the Court Order. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(d)(1) (“the court must allow additional time consistent with Rule 26(b)(1) and (2) if needed to fairly examine the deponent”) (emphasis added). Rule 30(d)(1) requires a court to guard against redundant or disproportionate discovery, stating that any additional deposition time must be consistent with Rule 26(b)(1) and (2), prohibiting, among other things, cumulative and duplicative testimony. The duplicative nature of the “topics” requested by Plaintiff is demonstrated by the previously cited testimony. It is compounded by the fact that Ms. Sjoberg has fully testified concerning how she came to work for Epstein, what she did while working for him, and how she was paid. See This Response at 20-21, infra. The redundancy of the requested testimony (much of which is outside the scope of the Order) prohibits a finding of good cause for reopening – yet again – Ms. Maxwell’s testimony. See Kleppinger v. Texas Dep’t of Transp., 283 F.R.D. 330, 333 (S.D. Tex. 2012) (“a party seeking a court order to extend the duration of the examination must show ‘good cause’ to justify such an order” including showing information is not duplicative and cumulative).

Of course, Ms. Maxwell and her counsel had no desire to subject Ms. Maxwell to a third deposition, thus permitting many questions that far exceeded the scope of the Order. When called on to explain how extraneous questions were proper, Plaintiff’s counsel refused to proffer why certain questions were within the Court’s order leaving Ms. Maxwell’s counsel no option, on a few occasions, to instruct Ms. Maxwell to not answer. Plaintiff’s counsel’s refusal to simply explain how objectionable questions were within the scope of the permitted deposition makes clear that they were not, and should act as a waiver. See, e.g., Pagliuca Decl., Ex. D at 99-101.

III. COUNSEL INSTRUCTED MAXWELL NOT TO ANSWER TO ENFORCE THE COURT’S ORDER AND TO PREVENT HARASSMENT BY PLAINTIFF’S COUNSEL

The only questions to which counsel for Ms. Maxwell instructed her not to answer were those that she had already answered or were outside the Court’s Order permitting a re-opening of the deposition. Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(c)(2) (instruction not to answer appropriate “when necessary to ... enforce a limitation ordered by the court”). Plaintiff loosely points to eleven questions in her Motion. She omits parts in which the question had already been answered, and she implies an instruction not to answer where none was given. None of the cited questions merits the re-opening of Ms. Maxwell’s deposition for a third bite at the apple.

A. Objected to Question Number 1:

“So how did it happen, Ms. Maxwell, that Joanna, who had been hired to answer phones, ended up giving massages to you and Mr. Epstein.”

In Ms. Maxwell’s first, 7 hour, deposition she was questioned extensively about her relationship with Ms. Sjoberg. See Pagliuca Decl. Ex. C at 59-63; 112-113; & 307-309. Consistent with the Defendant’s position at that time, Plaintiff was free to ask, and asked, questions about Ms. Sjoberg with the exception of consensual adult sexual contact. The only instruction to not answer was limited to consensual adult sexual contact, of which there was none. (Although in fact, Ms. Maxwell testified in her first deposition that the massages with Ms. Sjoberg did not involve sex.). See Pagliuca Decl. Ex. C at 61:14-15..

In Ms. Maxwell’s second, 4.5 hour deposition, she was again questioned extensively about Ms. Sjoberg. The questioning begins on page 74 of the transcript. Plaintiff’s counsel asked dozens of questions about Ms. Sjoberg without any instruction to not answer. When the questions became repetitive to the questions asked at the first deposition and strayed outside the Court's Order counsel for Ms. Maxwell sought guidance from the Court, which was not available.

Notwithstanding that the examination was repetitive, Ms. Maxwell responded to questions, without instruction not to answer, that were within the Court's Order. She testified that she did not have any sexual relationship or contact with Ms. Sjoberg and was unaware of any sexual contact between Mr. Epstein and Ms. Sjoberg. See Pagliuca Decl. Ex. D at 77:24-78:6. She also testified about Ms. Sjoberg and massages, both in her first deposition and the second. See Pagliuca Decl. Ex. C at 59-63; 112-113; & 307-309 and Ex. D at 74-82:8.

When the question about Ms. Sjoberg answering phones for was asked for the fourth time, the instruction not to answer was given. These questions had been asked in the first deposition, could have been asked in greater detail in the first deposition, and were answered in both depositions prior to the instruction not to answer being given: Ms. Sjoberg was hired to answer phones and sometime after that went to massage school and began giving massages. Ms. Maxwell was not sure how the transition occurred but believed "that she went to massage school and became a professional masseuse." Id., at 75:10-11.

B. Objected to Questions Number 2 and 3.

"Did Mr. Epstein pay Johanna for the massages that she gave Mr. Epstein?"
"Do you know how much Mr. Epstein paid Johanna to give massages?"

Plaintiff has selectively and misleadingly provided only a portion of the transcript related to this issue and ignores the fact that Plaintiff, in the first deposition, asked questions on the same topic. Moreover, Ms. Maxwell previously testified that she did not pay Ms. Sjoberg and did not know who paid her. See Pagliuca Decl. Ex. C at 59-63; 112-113; & 307-309 and Ex. D at 82:2-7.

C. “Objected” to Question Number 4.

“Do you know if Maria Farmer was ever at Mr. Wexner’s property in Ohio?”

This question is completely outside the Court’s June 20, 2016 Order as it does not relate to Ms. Maxwell, Mr. Epstein, massages, sex, or any property identified in this case. Regardless, the witness was never instructed to not answer the question and did not refuse to answer questions about the Farmers. After the question was posed, counsel for Ms. Maxwell simply asked for an explanation as to how the question was within the Court’s Order. The witness was not instructed not to answer. It appears that after considering the request for a proffer as to how the question was within the Court’s Order, the question was withdrawn and a different question was posed: “Mr. Boies: Let me approach it this way.” ... Did Ms. Ward tell you that?” The questioning about the Farmers continues many pages thereafter. See Pagliuca Decl., Ex. D at 99-113.

D. “Objected” to Question Number 5

Without any record support Plaintiff claims that “Defendant’s counsel also stopped a line of questioning in which defendant was asked if she recalled several girls Tony Figueroa brought over to give a ‘massage’ to Epstein.” Plaintiff cites no specific instruction not to answer because one was never given. Ms. Maxwell answered questions about Mr. Figueroa and was questioned extensively regarding lists of names, about which Ms. Maxwell had no knowledge. Plaintiff was not forced to “cease questioning” about any person. The questioning occurred and Ms. Maxwell responded.

E. “Objected” to Question Number 6

“Was there a list that was kept of women or girls who provided massages?”

The “list” was introduced as Exhibit 13 to Ms. Maxwell’s first deposition. Ms. Maxwell was questioned extensively about the “list” and testified, without objection about the list. In her second deposition, the same Exhibit 13 was introduced and Ms. Maxwell was asked, without objection, questions relating to specific names on Exhibit 13. See Pagliuca Decl., Ex. C at 312-334 and Ex. D at 179- 89.

Exhibit 13 was a document prepared by someone other than Ms. Maxwell, was not maintained by Ms. Maxwell and over which Ms. Maxwell had no control. Given the extensive testimony on the subject in both depositions, it was appropriate to instruct the witness to not answer the question. This debate, however is unnecessary because the question was asked again in a slightly different form and answered: Q: “Did you, or insofar as you are aware anyone, maintain a list of females that provided massage services to Mr. Epstein at his residences?” A: “I don’t know anything about a list.” Id., Ex. D at 185:13-20. No follow up questions were asked after this answer.

F. Objected to Question Number 7

“In 2005, were you aware of any effort to destroy records of messages you had taken of women who had called Mr. Epstein in the prior period?”

Ms. Maxwell was previously deposed about documents purportedly seized when Mr. Epstein’s house was searched by the Palm Beach Police Department. See Pagliuca Decl., Ex. C at 312-19.

The Court’s June 20, Order did not reopen the deposition to allow for baseless questions about the destruction of evidence in 2005. Alleged destruction of records has nothing to do with any of the 8 areas that the Court addressed. Accordingly, the objection is well founded. Plaintiff’s tortured explanation about how the question fits into the Court’s Order is nonsense.

G. Objection to Question Number 8

“In terms of preparing for this deposition, what documents did you review?”

Ms. Maxwell was instructed to not answer the question as it related to privileged communications between Ms. Maxwell and counsel. Ms. Maxwell was asked if any of the documents refreshed her recollection about any of the events that occurred. Her response was: “No.” A follow up question was asked as to whether counsel provided Ms. Maxwell with any documents and the answer was “One, I believe.”

The communication between Ms. Maxwell and counsel was privileged, did not refresh her recollection, and the question was properly objected to.

H. Objections to Questions 9, 10, and 11.

“Now have you ever engaged in oral sex?”

“Did you ever have oral sex with anyone in any of Mr. Epstein’s five homes that you’ve identified other than Mr. Epstein?”

“Did you, in the 1990s and 2000s, engage in sexual activities other than intercourse with women other than what you have testified already?”

All of these questions were prohibited by the Court’s Order because they were related to unidentified “third-parties who bear no knowledge or relation to the key events, individuals, or locations of this case.”

The question “Now have you ever engaged in oral sex?” is not tied to any person place, event or time. It is clearly out of bounds. Ms. Maxwell did, in fact, answer the question about oral sex with individuals other than Mr. Epstein when the locations were specified, i.e., planes; New York; Palm Beach; New Mexico; Paris; and the Virgin Islands. See Pagliuca Decl., Ex. D, Excerpts from July22, 2016 Maxwell Deposition pp. 21-23. (The answer was “no”).

The question: “Did you, in the 1990s and 2000s, engage in sexual activities other than intercourse with women other than what you have testified already?” is also prohibited by the Court’s Order as it is not tied to a person, location, or key event associated with this case.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(1) provides, in relevant part, that “[p]arties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, that is relevant to the claim or defense of any party” Although the scope of discovery is deliberately broad, a Court is not “required to permit plaintiff to engage in a ‘fishing expedition’ in the hope of supporting his claim.” McGee v. Hayes, 43 Fed.Appx. 214, 217 (10th Cir. 2002) (unpublished opinion); see also Tottenham v. Trans World Gaming Corp., 2002 WL 1967023, at *2 (S.D.N.Y.2002) (“Discovery, however, is not intended to be a fishing expedition, but rather is meant to allow the parties to flesh out allegations for which they initially have at least a modicum of objective support”) (quotations omitted); Hardrick v. Legal Services Corp., 96 F.R.D. 617, 618 (D.D.C.1983) (courts should, remain concerned about “fishing expeditions, discovery abuse and inordinate expense involved in overbroad and far-ranging discovery requests.”) (quotation omitted). “[B]road discovery is not without limits and the trial court is given wide discretion in balancing the needs and rights of both plaintiff and defendant.” Gomez v. Martin Marietta Corp., 50 F.3d 1511, 1520 (10th Cir.1995) (quotation omitted).

Although relevance in discovery is broader than that required for admissibility at trial, “the object of inquiry must have some evidentiary value before an order to compel disclosure of otherwise inadmissible material will issue.” Zenith Electronics Corp. v. Exzec, Inc., No. 93 C 041, 1998 WL 9181, at *2 (N.D.Ill.1998) (quoting Piacenti v. Gen. Motors Corp., 173 F.R.D. 221, 223 (N.D.Ill.1997)). Courts have also recognized that “[t]he legal tenet that relevancy in the discovery context is broader than in the context of admissibility should not be misapplied so as to allow fishing expeditions in discovery." Id. (quotation omitted).

Under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure any party may move the court, for good cause shown, for a protective order regarding pretrial discovery "which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression or undue burden or expense." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). "Although the Rule contains no specific reference to privacy or to other rights or interests that may be implicated, such matters are implicit in the broad purpose and language of the Rule." Seattle Times Company v. Rhinehart, 467 U.S. 20, 35 (1984).

It is important to consider, again, that Ms. Maxwell is the defendant in this action. She has not put her private affairs at issue. She simply denied that she assisted Jeffrey Epstein in the sexual trafficking of the Plaintiff. It is also important to recognize that Ms. Maxwell is not Mr. Epstein and Mr. Epstein's alleged conduct after Plaintiff left the country is not an issue in this defamation case. The Plaintiff has no personal knowledge of any of Mr. Epstein's activities after 2002. Accordingly, any statements by Plaintiff about Mr. Epstein's activities occurring after 2002 are her opinions, not facts that are subject to any defamation claim.

I. THE PURPORTED "FACTUAL BACKGROUND" CITED BY PLAINTIFF IS NOT RELEVANT TO THE ISSUES IN THE CASE OR THIS MOTION

As Carl Sandburg famously said, "If the facts are against you, argue the law. If the law is against you, argue the facts. If the law and the facts are against you, pound the table and yell like hell." In this case, rather than pound the table, Plaintiff tries to distract from the issues at hand – whether Ms. Maxwell fully answered all questions posed – by pointing to selective misleading quotes from various other witnesses who have been deposed in this case. When viewed in their entirety, those witnesses neither support Plaintiff's single claim for defamation nor her claim for relief in this Motion. In direct contradiction to Plaintiff's fabricated story, the witnesses actually testified as follows:

Johanna Sjoberg worked as a masseuse for Jeffrey Epstein for 5 years from 2001-2006, while she was aged 21-26, including 1 ½ years that Plaintiff claims she was his "sex slave". As to that experience, Ms. Sjoberg testified:

- She never saw underage girls with Jeffrey Epstein or Ms. Maxwell and was "surprised" by the allegations of underage girls. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. E at 102. She never witnessed anyone underage in the presence of Epstein and Maxwell. Id. at 29. She only witnessed masseuses who were her age or older and they wore "normal" clothes. Id. at 31-32.
- She never was asked by Epstein or Maxwell to give sexual massages to any of their friends or any famous people and the massages she gave Epstein's friends were purely non-sexual. Id. at 112-116.
- She never gave any type of sexual massages to Ghislaine Maxwell. Ms. Maxwell never asked her to get naked during a massage, never asked for any sexual contact with her, and she remained appropriately draped during any massages. Ms. Maxwell was never present when she gave massages to Mr. Epstein. Id. at 95-97.
- Plaintiff appeared to Ms. Sjoberg to be some type of assistant who possibly also gave massages to Epstein. Id. at 19. She never seemed traumatized, she never reported to her any inappropriate requests or contact by Epstein or Maxwell, never said she had been sexually trafficked, she freely came and went. Id. at 113-16. In the only massage by Plaintiff of Epstein that Ms. Sjoberg observed, Plaintiff was fully clothed, on a beach, and it was non-sexual. Id. at 27. Ms. Sjoberg never saw Plaintiff in the presence of any famous people, apart from Prince Andrew and she did not observe anyone asking Plaintiff to do anything sexual, nor did Plaintiff report to her that anything sexual had occurred, even though Ms. Sjoberg inquired. Id. at 85, 87, 113 & 120. Plaintiff disappeared from the Epstein home about June 2001 when attempts to contact her led to a seemingly drugged-out boyfriend who could not explain her whereabouts. Id. at 92.
- Despite hundreds of times in the Epstein home, Ms. Sjoberg only saw a few photos of adult women in topless poses in the bathroom of Epstein, there was no child pornography in the homes, and she does not recall any naked photos of Plaintiff. Id. at 25, 29, 42, 103-106.
- Ms. Sjoberg observed no orgies or sexual contact occur in the open at Epstein's homes or on his planes. Id. at 94, 102.

- Ms. Maxwell asked her if she knew any friends who might be interested in being masseuses, but the one she brought was an adult; Ms. Maxwell never asked for “underage” participants. Id. at 141, 152-53.
- Whatever sexual contact occurred between Ms. Sjoberg and Mr. Epstein was between “consenting adults,” as she told the police in 2006, and she only was “expected” to have sexual intercourse in 2005, after she had worked for him for 4 years. Id. at 101, 147.
- Ms. Sjoberg respects Ms. Maxwell and is impressed by her talents. Id. at 55, 94-95, 97-98, 147 She have a lot of fun the last time they hung out in 2006. Id. at 98.

Joe Recarey, the lead investigator of Jeffrey Epstein from the Palm Beach County Police Department, testified at his deposition, that (in contrast to Plaintiff’s claims):

- He and other investigators interviewed approximately 30-33 females in connection with the case and identified approximately 17 victims. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. F at 179, 334.
- Ms. Maxwell was never a suspect in their investigation, was not a target of the grand jury investigation, nothing of Ms. Maxwell’s was seized from the home during execution of the search warrant, and Ms. Maxwell was never observed at the Epstein home during the police surveillance. Id. at 177, 211-12, 214-16, 257.
- None of the victims identified Ms. Maxwell as having “recruited” them to come give massages to Epstein. Id. at 180-82, 191-93, 195.
- None identified Ms. Maxwell as even being at the house when they were there, or paying them, or instructing them on what to wear or how to act, or ever of having spoken to them. Id.
- None were ever sexually trafficked to other men; Jeffrey Epstein was the only person with whom they had any sexual contact. Id. at 300-301.
- None were ever asked to spend the night with Epstein, or travel with them. Id.
- He did not observe any child pornography or any photos of naked women in the home when he went to help install cameras to catch a thief in Mr. Epstein’s home in 2002 (who turned out to be butler Juan Alessi). Id. at 288-90.

Juan Alessi. He served as the butler for approximately 10 year period at Mr. Epstein’s home in Palm Beach. He testified that:

- The majority of masseuses that came to the house were over the age of 20. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. G at 200.
- Mr. Epstein and Ms. Maxwell found the massage therapists from the high-end spas nearby, including the Breakers, Boca Raton and Mar-a-Lago, as Mr. Alessi confirmed when he called them at their jobs to arrange home visits. Id. at 187-88.
- The massage therapists were paid by check. Id. at 166.
- Plaintiff was working at one of these spas when she was hired, wearing an old-fashioned nurse's type uniform. Id. at 174.
- Contrary to Plaintiff's main story, she did not go upstairs with Mr. Epstein the first time she came over and he did not drive her home. Id. at 192.

Tony Figueroa – Plaintiff's live-in boyfriend during the time that she worked for Mr.

Epstein, testified that:

- He and Plaintiff used a substantial quantity of drugs during this time period which affected both of their memories. Pagliuca Decl., Ex. H at 129-32 (describing their daily use of "weed," their joint regular use of "Xanax," as well as use of cocaine, Xanax, Ecstasy and acid).
- Jeffrey Epstein is the one who called him and asked him to bring other females to give massages. Id. at 104-107. In particular, Mr. Figueroa denied that Ms. Maxwell ever asked him to bring a girl to Jeffrey:

Q: Did Jeffrey call you directly about getting more girls?

A: Yes.

Q: On the phone?

A: uh-huh (affirmative)

Q: What did he say?

A: He was just asking me if I had any other girls that wanted to come work...

Q: And did he pay – he paid you personally?

A: Yeah. He handed me $200 for every girl that I walked in that door, whether they did stuff with him or not.

Q: In cash?

A: Cash.

Q: Did you ever get paid by Ms. Maxwell for that?

A: No.

Q: Did you ever bring a girl to Ms. Maxwell?

A: No.

Q: Did Ms. Maxwell ever call you and ask you to bring a girl to her?

A: No.

Q: Did Ms. Maxwell ever call you and ask you to bring a girl to Jeffrey?

A: No.

Id. at 106-07.

- He did not have any discussions with these females (who were adult) about what was entailed with the job other than massages. Id. at 104-105.
- Later in his testimony, upon leading questions from Mr. Edwards, Mr. Figueroa committed a complete about-face:

Q: Would Ghislaine Maxwell call you?

A: I think she might have actually called me once or twice. I'm not positive, but I'm pretty sure she did....

Q: ...What did you say? What did she say?

A: She would just ask me if I had anybody lined up, so.....for Jeffrey.

- Mr. Figueroa testified that he was arrested for grand theft the same night that he dropped Plaintiff off to go to Thailand, he served time, and only recently had his rights restored. Id. at 67-69.

Rinaldo Rizzo. Mr. Rizzo was a butler for Mr. Glenn and Dr. Eva Dubin at their home in upstate New York. In addition to his history of litigation against the Dubins and his admitted hope to receive compensation from his testimony, his deposition is so palpably incredible as to be potentially sanctionable. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Pagliuca Decl., Ex. I at 11. In any event, none of Mr. Rizzo's testimony related to Ms. Maxwell's participation in massages, sex with underage minors, or sex with adults, and thus is further irrelevant to the issues presented by the Motion.

CONCLUSION

Because Ms. Maxwell fully answered all questions within the Court's Order (and many that were not) at her continued deposition, she respectfully requests the Court deny Plaintiff's

Motion to Enforce the Court's Order and Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions
Filed Under Seal. Further, because Plaintiff brought this Motion without a valid basis to assert that she refused to answer any question that was (a) within this Court's Order and (b) not already responded to either at her first deposition or during this deposition, Ms. Maxwell requests that the fees and costs associated with defending this Motion be imposed on Plaintiff, her counsel or both.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jeffrey S. Pagliuca

1 January 19th, 2015?
 2 A At the very top of the page it says
 3 January 21st, 2015.
 4 Q The date it was filed. Is there a date
 5 just above the signature block?
 6 A Oh, yes, sorry. Yes, there is.
 7 Q And what date -- what date was that?
 8 A The 19th day of January, 2015.
 9 Q Okay. And this document is something that
 10 you believe contains the truth, correct?
 11 A To the best of my knowledge at the time,
 12 yes.
 13 Q All right. Did something change between
 14 the time then and today that makes you believe that
 15 it's not all accurate?
 16 A Well, as you can see, in line 4 on page 1,
 17 I wasn't aware of my dates. I was just doing the
 18 best to guesstimate when I actually met them.
 19 Since then I've been able to find out that
 20 through my Mar-a-Lago records that it was actually
 21 the summer of 2000, not the summer of 1999.
 22 Q Oh, I'm sorry. Are you back on page 1?
 23 A On the first page.
 24 Q Okay.
 25 A Yes.

1 Q And you're talking about line 4?
 2 A Line 4.
 3 Q Paragraph 4 or line 4?
 4 A Oh, sorry. Number 4, the paragraph
 5 number 4.
 6 Q Okay. And what part of paragraph 4 do you
 7 now believe to be untrue?
 8 A In approximately --
 9 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 10 You can answer.
 11 A In approximately 1999 when I was 15 years
 12 old I met Ghislaine Maxwell.
 13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay.
 14 A I now know that it was 2000, that I was 16
 15 years old when I met Ghislaine Maxwell.
 16 Q So when you signed this document under
 17 penalty of perjury stating that it was true, you no
 18 longer believe that to be true, correct?
 19 A It was an honest mistake. We had no idea
 20 how to pinpoint without any kind of records or dates
 21 or anything like that. I was just going back
 22 chronologically through time. And that's the best
 23 time that I thought it was. And now I know the
 24 facts, so it's good to know.
 25 Q So you now believe that a document you

1 filed under oath is no longer true, correct?
 2 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 3 A I wouldn't say that it wasn't true. I was
 4 just unaware of the times and the dates.
 5 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Again, is there more
 6 than one truth, Ms. Roberts?
 7 A No, there's no more than one truth.
 8 Q All right. So a document in which you
 9 swore that you were 15 years old when you met
 10 Ms. Ghislaine Maxwell is an untrue statement,
 11 correct?
 12 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.
 13 A It's not that it's an untrue statement.
 14 It was a mistake. So it wasn't intentionally trying
 15 to say something that wasn't true. It was to my best
 16 knowledge that I thought it was 1999. And when I got
 17 my records from Mar-a-Lago I was able to find out
 18 that it was 2000. And this was entered before I
 19 found out the actual dates that I did work at
 20 Mar-a-Lago.
 21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Okay. So a document
 22 that you filed under oath --
 23 A Um-hum.
 24 Q -- is now, you believe to be untrue,
 25 correct?

1 MR. EDWARDS: Objection. Asked and
 2 answered.
 3 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You may answer.
 4 MR. EDWARDS: Answer again.
 5 A Again, I wouldn't say it's untrue. Untrue
 6 would mean that I would have lied. And I didn't lie.
 7 This was my best knowledge at the time. And I did my
 8 very best to try to pinpoint time periods going back
 9 such a long time ago.
 10 It wasn't until I found the facts that I
 11 worked at Mar-a-Lago in 2000 that I was able to
 12 figure that out.
 13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And approximately when
 14 did you learn those facts about the dates you worked
 15 at Mar-a-Lago?
 16 A I would say it was mid-2015.
 17 Q Mid-2015 is the first time you became
 18 aware of the dates --
 19 A I don't know the exact --
 20 Q If you could just let me finish.
 21 A I'm sorry.
 22 Q That's all right. Approximately mid-2015
 23 when you learned the true dates that you had worked
 24 at Mar-a-Lago?
 25 A That's correct. Sorry.

1 please.

2 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recall seeing a
3 press article in which Sharon Churcher reported that
4 you were on a helicopter with Bill Clinton and
5 Ghislaine Maxwell as the pilot?

6 MR. EDWARDS: Again, I'll let you answer
7 the question once she's looking at the document that
8 you're being asked about.

9 MS. MENNINGER: You're not letting her
10 answer a question about whether she recalls a
11 particular press statement?

12 MR. EDWARDS: I will let her answer every
13 question about the press statement as long as she
14 sees the press statement. I'm okay with that. She
15 can answer all of them.

16 MS. MENNINGER: No, there is a rule of
17 civil procedure that allows you to direct a witness
18 not to answer a question when there's a claim of
19 privilege.

20 What privilege are you claiming to direct
21 her not to answer this question?

22 MR. EDWARDS: I thought that you wanted
23 accurate answers from this witness. If the --

24 MS. MENNINGER: I asked her if she
25 recalled something --

1 MR. EDWARDS: If the sole purpose is to
2 just to harass her --

3 MS. MENNINGER: I asked her if she
4 recalled something --

5 MR. EDWARDS: Then that's just not going
6 to be what's happening today.

7 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. So you're
8 refusing to answer a question about whether you
9 recall a particular press statement --

10 MR. EDWARDS: She's --

11 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) -- is that true?

12 MR. EDWARDS: She is not refusing to
13 answer any questions. She --

14 A I'm not refusing to answer. I just want
15 to see the article you're talking about so I can be
16 clear in my statement.

17 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Do you recall seeing a
18 press article written by Sharon Churcher reporting
19 that you flew on a helicopter with Bill Clinton and
20 Ghislaine Maxwell as the pilot?

21 A No, I do not recall reading a press
22 article saying that I was on a helicopter with Bill
23 Clinton as Ghislaine is the pilot.

24 Q Do you recall telling Sharon Churcher that
25 you had conversations with Bill Clinton regarding him

1 flying on a helicopter with Ghislaine Maxwell?

2 A I believe that it was taken out of
3 context. Ghislaine told me that she flew Bill
4 Clinton in. And Ghislaine likes to talk a lot of
5 stuff that sounds fantastical. And whether it's true
6 or not, that is what I do recall telling Sharon
7 Churcher.

8 Q So you told Sharon Churcher that Ghislaine
9 Maxwell is the one who told you that she flew Bill
10 Clinton in the helicopter?

11 A I told Sharon Churcher that Ghislaine flew
12 Bill Clinton onto the island, based upon what
13 Ghislaine had told me.

14 Q Not based upon what Bill Clinton had told
15 you, correct?

16 A Correct.

17 Q Did you ever ask Sharon Churcher to
18 correct anything that was printed under her name,
19 concerning your stories to Sharon Churcher?

20 A I wasn't given those stories to read
21 before they were printed.

22 Q After they were printed did you read them?

23 A I tried to stay away from them. They were
24 very hard. You have to understand it was a very hard
25 time for me and my husband to have to have this

1 public -- we didn't think it was going to be this
2 publicly announced and that big. So we turned off
3 the news and we stopped reading so many things.

4 Q You didn't read the articles about your
5 stories to Sharon Churcher --

6 A I've read some articles --

7 Q Let me just finish. You did not read the
8 articles published by Sharon Churcher about your
9 stories to Sharon Churcher?

10 A I have read some articles about what
11 Sharon Churcher wrote. And a lot of the stuff that
12 she writes she takes things from my own mouth and
13 changes them into her own words as journalists do.

14 And I never came back to her and told her
15 to correct anything. What was done was done. There
16 was nothing else I can do.

17 Q So even if she printed something that were
18 untrue you didn't ask her to correct it, correct?

19 A There was things that she printed that
20 really pissed me off, but there was nothing I could
21 do about it. It's already out there.

22 Q She printed things that were untrue,
23 correct?

24 MR. EDWARDS: Objection to the form.
25 Mischaracterization.

1 A I wouldn't say that they were untrue. I
2 would just say that she printed them as journalists
3 take your words and turn them into something else.

4 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) She got it wrong?

5 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

6 Mischaracterization.

7 A In some ways, yes.

8 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did she print things
9 in her articles that you did not say to her?

10 MR. EDWARDS: I object and ask that the
11 witness be given the opportunity to see the document
12 so that she can review it and answer that question
13 accurately. Otherwise she's unable to answer the
14 question. I'm not going to allow her to answer.

15 MS. MENNINGER: You know the civil rules
16 tell you not to suggest answers to your client.

17 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) And you understand
18 your lawyer is now directing you to not all of a
19 sudden remember what your answer is. That's what
20 he's suggesting that you say. So you're not supposed
21 to listen to him suggest that to you. You're
22 supposed to tell me from your memory.

23 MR. EDWARDS: That is not what I'm --

24 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did you --

25 MR. EDWARDS: That's not what I'm doing.

1 You don't get to just talk over me and
2 tell my client when not to listen to me. All you
3 have to do to get answers is show her the document
4 you're talking about, and I'll let her answer every
5 question. I don't know why we're so scared of the 6 actual documents.

7 MS. MENNINGER: I don't know why you're
8 scared of your client's recollection, Mr. Edwards.
9 But anyway --

10 MR. EDWARDS: Why would you do this to
11 her?

12 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did Sharon Churcher
13 print things that you did not say?

14 MR. EDWARDS: I'm going to instruct my
15 client not to answer unless you give her what it is 16 that you're talking about that was printed. And she
17 will tell you the answer, the accurate answer to your
18 question. Just without the document to refresh her
19 recollection and see it, she's not going to answer
20 the question.

21 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did Sharon Churcher
22 print things that you did not say?

23 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
24 instruction not to answer.

25 I think I've made a very clear record as

1 to why I want my client to answer all of these
2 questions, but I want her to have the fair
3 opportunity to see this document.

4 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did Sharon Churcher
5 print things that you felt were inaccurate?

6 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
7 instruction. If she sees the document, she's going
8 to answer every one of these questions.

9 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did any other reporter
10 print statements that you believe are inaccurate?

11 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
12 instruction.

13 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) Did any reporter print
14 statements about Ghislaine Maxwell that were
15 inaccurate?

16 MR. EDWARDS: Same objection. Same
17 instruction.

18 This is harassing. This is harassing a
19 sexual abuse victim. And all I'm asking is for 20 fairness, that we just let her see the document so
21 she can answer this.

22 MS. MENNINGER: Mr. Edwards, please stop
23 saying anything other than an objection, what the
24 basis is, or instructing your client not to answer.

25 MR. EDWARDS: I will do that.

1 MS. MENNINGER: That's what the Federal
2 Rules of Civil Procedure provide.

3 MR. EDWARDS: I hear you. They also
4 provide for fairness and civility. And all I'm
5 asking, very calmly, is for her to see this.

6 MS. MENNINGER: Mr. Edwards, this is not
7 your deposition. I'm asking your client what she
8 remembers. If she doesn't want to talk about what
9 she remembers, then let her not answer. But you
10 cannot instruct her not to answer unless there's a
11 privilege.

12 What privilege --

13 MR. EDWARDS: I am instructing her not to
14 answer.

15 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) All right. You are
16 refusing to answer questions about whether statements
17 to the press about Ghislaine Maxwell attributed to
18 you were inaccurate?

19 MR. EDWARDS: She's not refusing not to
20 answer.

21 A You are refusing to show me these
22 documents so I could answer properly. I would give
23 you an answer if you were to show me some documents.

24 Q (BY MS. MENNINGER) You can't say without
25 looking at a document whether the press attributed to

1 you is accurate or inaccurate?
2 A Please show me the document.
3 Q You can't say from the top of your head
4 whether any inaccurate statement has been attributed
5 to you in the press?
6 A Please show me a document and I will tell
7 you.
8 Q Are you refusing to answer my questions
9 about your knowledge of whether inaccurate statements
10 have been attributed to you in the press?

| 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 meet Mr. Epstein? 3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 4 and foundation. 5 Q. You can answer. 6 A. I just explained. 7 A. I spent the entire time talking to 8 Virginia's mother outside the house so the 9 answer to the question is no. 10 Q. No, did you not walk her up and 11 introduce her to Mr. Epstein? 12 A. I just said no. 13 Q. Did you participate in a massage 14 this first time when she first came to the 15 home and you were speaking with her mother, 16 she was in the home, is that correct, you 17 brought her into the home? 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 19 and foundation. 20 A. I will repeat again, I was standing 21 outside with her mother so very difficult for 22 me to do anything else at that time so no, I 23 did not take her upstairs. 24 Q. Did you participate -- 25 A. Virginia lied 100 percent about | 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 you not to answer that question. I 3 don't have any problem with you asking 4 questions about what the subject matter 5 of this lawsuit is, which would be, as 6 you've termed it, sexual trafficking of 7 Ms. Roberts. 8 To the extent you are asking for 9 information relating to any consensual 10 adult interaction between my client and 11 Mr. Epstein, I'm going to instruct her 12 not to answer because it's not part of 13 this litigation and it is her private 14 confidential information, not subject to 15 this deposition. 16 MS. McCAWLEY: You can instruct her 17 not to answer. That is your right. But 18 I will bring her back for another 19 deposition because it is part of the 20 subject matter of this litigation so she 21 should be answering these questions. 22 This is civil litigation, deposition and 23 she should be responsible for answering 24 these questions. 25 MR. PAGLIUCA: I disagree and you |
| Page 19 | Page 21 |
| 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 absolutely everything that took place in that 3 first meeting. She has lied repeatedly, 4 often and is just an awful fantasist. So 5 very difficult for anything to take place 6 that she repeated because I was with her 7 mother the entire time. 8 Q. So did you have -- did you give a 9 massage with Virginia Roberts and Mr. Epstein 10 during the first time Virginia Roberts was at 11 the West Palm Beach house? 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 13 and foundation. 14 Q. Yes or no? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Have you ever given a massage with 17 Virginia Roberts in the room and Jeffrey 18 Epstein? 19 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 20 and foundation. 21 A. No. 22 Q. Have you ever given Jeffrey Epstein 23 a massage? 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form, 25 foundation. And I'm going to instruct | 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 understand the bounds that I put on it. 3 MS. McCAWLEY: No, I don't. I will 4 continue to ask my questions and you can 5 continue to make your objections. 6 Q. Did you ever participate from the 7 time period of 1992 to 2009, did you ever 8 participate in a massage with Jeffrey Epstein 9 and another female? 10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection. Do not 11 answer that question. Again, to the 12 extent you are asking for some sort of 13 illegal activity as you've construed in 14 connection with this case I don't have 15 any problem with you asking that 16 question. To the extent these questions 17 involve consensual acts between adults, 18 frankly, they're none of your business 19 and I will instruct the witness not to 20 answer. 21 MS. McCAWLEY: This case involves 22 sexual trafficking, sexual abuse, 23 questions about her having interactions 24 with other females is relevant to this 25 case. She needs to answer these |

| Page 22 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 questions. 3 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm instructing her 4 not to answer. 5 MS. McCAWLEY: Then we will be back 6 here again. 7 Q. Have you ever given a massage to 8 Mr. Epstein with a female that was under the 9 age of 18? 10 A. Can you repeat the question? 11 Q. Yes. Have you ever given a massage 12 to Mr. Epstein with a female that was under 13 the age of 18? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Have you ever observed Mr. Epstein 16 having a massage given by an individual, a 17 female, who was under the age of 18? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Have you ever observed females 20 under the age of 18 in the presence of 21 Jeffrey Epstein at his home? 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 23 and foundation. 24 A. Again, I have friends that have 25 children -- | Page 24 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 3 and foundation. 4 A. How would I possibly know how 5 someone is when they are at his house. You 6 are asking me to do that. I cannot possibly 7 testify to that. As far as I'm concerned, 8 everyone who came to his house was an adult 9 professional person. 10 Q. Are you familiar with the police 11 report that was issued in respect to the 12 investigation in this matter? 13 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 14 and foundation. 15 Q. Are you familiar with the police 16 report that was used in this matter, the 17 investigation of Jeffrey Epstein, has been 18 produced as a document in this matter? 19 A. I have seen a police report. 20 (Maxwell Exhibit 1, police report, 21 marked for identification.) 22 Q. The police report that you have in 23 front of you, can you turn to page 28 of that 24 report, the numbers are on the top right-hand 25 corner. |
| Page 23 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Q. I'm not talking about friends. I'm 3 talking about individuals -- 4 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to object 5 to you interrupting the witness who was 6 answering your question. The question 7 was, have you ever seen anyone, female 8 under the age of 18 at the house and 9 that's the question she was answering. 10 If you want to strike that question and 11 ask another question, feel free, but let 12 the witness respond, please. 13 MS. McCAWLEY: I will do that. 14 Q. Have you ever observed a female 15 under the age of 18 at Jeffrey Epstein's home 16 that was not a friend, a child -- one of your 17 friend's children? 18 A. Again, I can't testify to that 19 because I have no idea what you are talking 20 about. 21 Q. You have no idea what I'm talking 22 about in the sense you never observed a 23 female under the age of 18 at Jeffrey 24 Epstein's home that was not one of your 25 friend's children, is that correct? | Page 25 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 You will see some redactions in 3 this report, Ms. Maxwell, the redacted 4 information is redacted because it reveals 5 the name of a minor, someone who is under the 6 age of 18. 7 On page 28, in the third paragraph, 8 about halfway down, it says, Roberts stated 9 she performed the massage naked. At the 10 conclusion of this massage, Epstein paid 11 RobSON $200 for the massage. He explained, I 12 know you are not comfortable put I will pay 13 you if you bring some girls. He told her the 14 younger the better. Robson stated once tried 15 to bring a 23 year old to Epstein and he 16 stated the female was too old. 17 Have you heard Mr. Epstein use the 18 phrase the younger the better? 19 A. I have no recollection of hearing 20 that. 21 Q. Have you used the phrase in talking 22 to Ms. Roberts and asking her to recruit 23 females for Mr. Epstein, the younger the 24 better? 25 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form |

Did Sarah Kellen recruit or bring 22 girls to the home that were under the age of 23 18? 24 MR. Ms. Maxwell, are you aware of any 6 sexual acts with masseuses and Jeffrey 7 Epstein that were nonconsensual? 8 A. No. 9 Q. How do you know that? 10 A. All the time that I have been in 11 the house I have never seen, heard, nor 12 witnessed, nor have reported to me that any 13 activities took place, that people were in 14 distress, either reported to me by the staff 15 or anyone else. I base my answer based on 16 that. 17 Q. Are you familiar with a person by 18 the name of Annie Farmer? 19 A. I am. 20 Q. Has Annie Farmer given a statement 21 to police about you performing sexual acts on 22 her? 23 A. I have not heard that. 24 Q. Has Annie Farmer given a statement 25 to police about Jeffrey Epstein performing | Page 57 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 asked and answered already. 3 Q. You can answer the question. 4 A. I have no idea what Sarah Kellen 5 did. 6 Q. You never observed Sarah Kellen 7 with girls under the age of 18 at Jeffrey's 8 home? 9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 10 and foundation. 11 A. The answer is no, I have no idea. 12 Q. Do you know Glenn Dubin? 13 A. I do. 14 Q. What is your relationship with 15 Glenn Dubin? 16 MR. He is the husband of Eva Dubin. 22 Q. Is Eva Dubin one of your friends? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Did you ever send Virginia to 25 Glenn's condo at the Breakers to give him a |

Did you ever instruct Virginia 7 Roberts to have sex with Glenn? 8 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 9 form and foundation. 10 A. I have never instructed Virginia to 11 have sex with anybody ever. 12 Q. How old was Eva Anderson when she 13 met Jeffrey? 14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 15 form and foundation. 16 A. I have no idea. 17 Q. What's she under the age of 18? 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 19 form and foundation. 20 A. I just testified I have idea how 21 old she was. 22 Q. You testified she was your friend. 23 You don't know how old she was when she met 24 Jeffrey? 25 A. That happened sometime in the '70s, | Page 60 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. She was tasked to answer 3 telephones. 4 Q. Did you ever ask her to rub 5 Jeffrey's feet? 6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 7 form and foundation. 8 A. I believe that I have read that, 9 but I don't have any memory of it. 10 Q. Did you ever tell Johanna that she 11 would get extra money if she provided Jeffrey 12 massages? 13 A. I was always happy to give career 14 advice to people and I think that becoming 15 somebody in the healthcare profession, either 16 exercise instructor or nutritionist or 17 professional massage therapist is an 18 excellent job opportunity. Hourly wages are 19 around 7, 8, $9 and as a professional 20 healthcare provider you can earn somewhere 21 between as we have established 100 to $200 22 and to be able to travel and have a job that 23 pays that is a wonderful job opportunity. So 24 in the context of advising people for 25 opportunities for work, it is possible that I |

I have no idea. 3 Can you testify to what your friends did 30 4 years ago? 5 Q. You don't ask the questions here, 6 Ms. Maxwell. 7 What about Johanna Sjoberg, when 8 did you first meet Johanna? 9 A. I don't recall the exact date. 10 Q. Did you hire Johanna? 11 A. I don't hire people, she came to 12 work at the house to answer phones. 13 Q. Where did you meet her? 14 A. I just testified, I don't recall 15 exactly when I met her. 16 Q. Was one of your job 17 responsibilities to interview people that 18 would be then hired by Jeffrey? 19 A. That was one of my 20 responsibilities. 21 Q. Do you recall interviewing Johanna? 22 A. I don't recall the exact interview, 23 no. 24 Q. Do you know what tasks Johanna was 25 hired to performance? | Page 61 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 would have said that she should explore that 3 as an option. 4 Q. Did you tell her she would get 5 extra money if she massaged Jeffrey? 6 A. I'm just saying, I cannot recall 7 the exact conversation. I give career advice 8 and I have done that. 9 Q. Did you ever have Johanna massage 10 you? 11 A. I did. 12 Q. How many times? 13 A. I don't recall how many times. 14 Q. Was there sex involved? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Did you ever instruct Johanna to 17 massage Glenn Dubin? 18 A. I don't believe -- I have no 19 recollection of it. 20 Q. Did you ever have sexual contact 21 with Johanna? 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 23 and foundation. I've just been instructed not to 11 answer. 12 Q. On what basis? 13 A. You have to ask my lawyer. 14 Q. It's important to understand that I 5 wasn't with Jeffrey all the time. In fact, I 6 was only in the house less than half the 7 time, so I cannot testify to when I wasn't in 8 the house how often she came when I wasn't 9 there. 10 What I can say is that I barely 11 would remember her, if not for all of this 12 rubbish, I probably wouldn't remember her at 13 all, except she did come from time to time 14 but I don't recollect her coming as often as 15 she portrayed herself. 16 Q. Do you recall Virginia Roberts 4 calling you because she was having a medical 5 crisis and you and Jeffrey taking her to the 6 hospital? 7 A. I have heard this absurd story and 8 if any part of it were true I would remember 9 that. I do not. 10 Q. You don't remember taking her to 11 the hospital? 12 A. It's not that I don't remember it, 13 it didn't happen. 14 Q. How do you know it didn't happen? 15 A. That's the sort of memory you would 16 recall. 17 Q. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 6 form and foundation. 7 A. No. And it's absurd and her entire 8 story is one giant tissue of lies and 9 furthermore, she herself has -- if she says 10 that, you have to ask her about what she did. 11 Q. Does Jeffrey like to have his 12 nipples pinched during sexual encounters? 13 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form 14 and foundation. 15 A. I'm not referring to any advice on 16 my counsel. I'm not talking about any adult 17 sexual things when I was with him. 18 Q. When Jeffrey would have a massage, 19 would he request that the masseuse pinch his 20 nipples while he was having a massage? 21 A. I'm not talking about anything with 22 consensual adult situation. 23 Q. What about with underage -- 24 A. I am not aware of anything. 25 Q. You are not aware of Jeffrey | Page 84 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 30 girls -- 3 A. I did not count the number of girls 4 and I did read the police report. I can only 5 testify to what I read. 6 Q. So you are aware that the police 7 report contains reports from 30 underage 8 girls? 9 A. I can't testify to what the girls 10 said. I can only testify to the fact that I 11 read a police report that stated that. 12 Q. Were you working for Jeffrey -- you 13 said you worked for him off an on until 2009, 14 is that correct? 15 A. I helped out from time to time. 16 Q. So you were working with him during 17 the time period when these underage girls 18 were visiting Jeffrey's home? 19 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 20 form and foundation. 21 A. I was not -- what year, I need 22 years. 23 Q. How about let's say 2005? 24 A. I'm not sure I was at the house at 25 all in 2005, maybe one day, maybe. |
| Page 83 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Epstein ever having sex with an underage 3 minor and asking them to pinch his nipples? 4 A. I am not. 5 Q. So I'm going to direct you to, I 6 believe it's Maxwell Exhibit 1, the police 7 report. 8 Are you aware that over 30 under 9 age minors gave testimony to police that they 10 were engaged in sexual acts during, 11 quote-unquote, massages. 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: The witness needs to 13 find Exhibit 1. Exhibit 1 -- if you can 14 hand me that please. 15 Q. So now with respect to the police 16 report, are you aware that over 30 underage 17 girls, meaning under the age of 18 gave 18 reports to police that they were assaulted 19 sexually by Jeffrey Epstein during massages? 20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 21 form and foundation. 22 A. I read the police report. That's 23 all I can testify to. 24 Q. I was present for his mother's -- 4 his mother died in 2004 so I was there for 5 his mother's death and the funeral and I was 6 at the house maybe a handful of days, again. 7 Q. I would like to direct you to, you 8 have it pulled together now, it's page 39, 9 Bates stamped Giuffre 00040? 10 A. Can you repeat that, please. 11 Q. Sure. 00040. 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. At the top of that document, about 14 three lines down, you see the redacted 15 portions where there is black so it blacks 16 out the name. 17 A. I see black redacted portions. 18 Q. That's a black redaction of the 19 name of the minor and there is -- I will 20 represent for the record that's what it is. 21 You can contest that but I'm not asking about 22 the name of the minor. 23 Five lines down, it says, She was 24 just 16 years of age. 25 Do you see that? |

Break it down a lot please. 8 Q. I will do that. 9 The question is, have you ever said 10 to anybody that you recruit other girls -- 11 A. Why don't you stop there. 12 Q. Let me finish my question. 13 Have you ever said to anybody that 14 you recruit girls to take the pressure off 15 you, so you won't have to have sex with 16 Jeffrey, have you said that? 17 That's the question? 18 A. You don't ask me questions like 19 that. First of all, you are trying to trap 20 me, I will not be trapped. You are asking me 21 if I recruit, I told you no. Girls meaning 22 underage, I already said I don't do that with 23 underage people and as to ask me about a 24 specific conversation I had with language, we 25 talking about almost 17 years ago when this | Page 96 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 testify to actual language. 3 Q. So you won't testify to anything 4 I'm asking you 17 years ago about a statement 5 you made. How do you know it's 17 years ago? 6 A. We are talking about a time in 7 2000, right? 8 Q. Have you ever said that to anybody? 9 A. I'm 54 years old so you are asking 10 me in my entire life, what words are you 11 asking me in my entire life? 12 Q. Your entire life is limited by the 13 time you were with Jeffrey, this is the 14 question. 15 A. Let's time limit the question you 16 are asking me. 17 Q. So from, let's say, I think you 18 said you started with him in 1992, is that 19 correct, and finished with him in 2009. 20 So from 1992 to 2009 have you ever 21 said to anybody that you recruit other and we 22 will start with girls to take the pressure 23 off you to have sex with Jeffrey? 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 25 form and foundation. |
| Page 95 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 took place. I cannot testify to an actual 3 conversation or language that I used with 4 anybody at any time. 5 Q. Have you ever said to anybody that 6 you recruit other females over the age of 18 7 to take the pressure off you to having to 8 have sex with Jeffrey? 9 A. I totally resent and find it 10 disgusting that you use the word recruit. I 11 already told you I don't know what you are 12 saying about that and your implication is 13 repulsive. 14 Q. Answer my question. 15 A. I just did. 16 Q. Have you ever said to anybody that 17 you recruit females -- 18 A. I don't recruit anybody. 19 Q. That's an answer. So you never 20 said that? 21 A. I'm testifying that I cannot 22 testify to an actual language -- 23 Q. It's a yes or no. 24 A. I will not testify to an actual 25 statement made 17 years ago, so I cannot | Page 97 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. First of all I resent and despise 3 the world recruit. Would you like to define 4 what you mean by recruit and by girls, you 5 mean underage people. I never had to do 6 anything with underage people. So why don't 7 you reask the question in a way that I am 8 able to answer it. 9 Q. I'm asking if you ever said that to 10 anybody. So if you don't understand the word 11 recruit and you never used that word then the 12 answer to that question would be no. 13 A. I have no memory as I sit here 14 today having used that word. 15 Q. Did you ever meet an underage girl 16 in London to introduce her to Jeffrey to 17 provide him with a massage? 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 19 form and foundation. 20 A. Run that past me one more time. 21 Q. Did you ever meet an underage girl 22 in London to introduce her to Jeffrey to 23 perform a massage? 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same objection. 25 A. Are you asking me if I met anybody |

| Page 98 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 that was underage in London specifically to 3 provide a massage to Jeffrey, is that your 4 question? 5 Q. Yes. 6 A. No. 7 Q. Do you know who Alexander Dixon is? 8 A. I don't recall her right now. 9 Q. Do you know if -- strike that. 10 During the time that you were 11 working for Jeffrey, did you ever observe any 12 foreign females, so in other words, not from 13 the United States, that were brought to 14 Jeffrey's home to perform massages? 15 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 16 form and foundation. 17 A. Females, what age are we talking? 18 Q. Any age. 19 A. Can you repeat the question? 20 Q. During the time you were working 21 for Jeffrey, did you ever observe any foreign 22 females of any age that were at Jeffrey's 23 home to perform a massage? 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 25 form and foundation. | Page 100 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 form and foundation. 3 A. I already testified about not 4 knowing about underage girls. 5 Q. Did you provide any assistance with 6 obtaining visas for foreign girls that were 7 under the age of 18? 8 A. I've never participated in helping 9 people of any age to get visas. 10 Q. Did Jeffrey, was it Jeffrey's 11 preference to start a massage with sex? 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 13 form and foundation. 14 A. I think you should ask that 15 question of Jeffrey. 16 Q. Do you know? 17 A. I don't believe that was his 18 preference. I think -- you have to 19 understand, a massage -- perhaps you are not 20 really familiar with what massage is. 21 Q. I am, I don't need a lecture on 22 massage. 23 A. I think you do. 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: No question pending. 25 She will ask you another question now. |

| Page 102 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. I don't recall. 3 Q. Did it change over the years or did 4 the payment remain the same? 5 A. I believe over the course of time 6 it increased a little bit. 7 Q. Was that the -- was that payment 8 the payment that -- was the payment made with 9 respect to the jobs, the work you were 10 performing for Jeffrey, was that your sole 11 income at that time? 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: I object to the 13 form. I'm also going to instruct you 14 not to answer about sources of -- your 15 personal sources of income outside of 16 Mr. Epstein at all. 17 MS. McCAWLEY: What's the basis for 18 that? 19 MR. PAGLIUCA: It's confidential, 20 it's not part of this lawsuit. 21 MS. McCAWLEY: We have a protective 22 order and it is part of this lawsuit 23 with respect to our damage claims. 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: It's not and, in 25 fact, you are not entitled to ask | Page 104 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 worked for it and I had a loan, we did loans. 3 Q. So a loan through Jeffrey? 4 A. I don't recall the exact 5 transaction. 6 Q. Did he purchase for you a 7 helicopter during the time you were working 8 for him? 9 A. It was his helicopter. 10 Q. When did you obtain your pilot 11 license? 12 A. I believe it was '98 or '99. 13 Q. Was that for both airplanes and 14 helicopters or just helicopters? 15 A. Just helicopters. 16 Q. Have you ever flown President 17 Clinton on your helicopter? 18 A. That is another one of Virginia's 19 lies. 20 Q. The question is have you ever done 21 that? 22 A. I have never flown President 23 Clinton at any time ever, in any helicopter, 24 in any place, any time, in any state, in any 25 country, at any time anywhere. |
| Page 103 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 financial information of a defendant in 3 this kind of case, in a defamation case 4 unless and until there is a finding that 5 you are entitled to punitive damages. 6 That is clear in New York case law, both 7 state and Federal. 8 MS. McCAWLEY: We disagree on that 9 point and we will come back to that. 10 Q. From the source of payment from the 11 source of Jeffrey, from your work, can you 12 give me a range on that, do you know was it 13 over $100,000? 14 A. I just testified I don't recall. 15 Q. You don't don't know if it was 16 $500,000? 17 A. It was less than that. 18 Q. Somewhere between 100 and 500, 19 would that be fair to say? 20 A. I believe it was between 100 and 21 $200,000. 22 Q. Did Jeffrey during the time that 23 you were working for him purchase a town home 24 for you? 25 A. The subject of the townhouse is, I | Page 105 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Q. Have you ever had dinner with 3 President Clinton at Jeffrey's home, at any 4 of Jeffrey's homes? 5 A. No, I don't believe so. 6 Q. Have you traveled on Jeffrey's 7 planes with President Clinton? 8 A. Yes, I have. 9 Q. Would that have been in 2002? 10 A. It's very hard for me to recollect 11 exact dates but that sounds about right. 12 Q. Was that during the time that 13 Virginia was working for Jeffrey? 14 A. I don't know that Virginia ever did 15 work for Jeffrey. I don't exactly know if 16 she testified to her so-called duties, we 17 know she is a serial liar so I can't testify 18 to what she did or didn't do. So I object to 19 that characterization of her. So repeat the 20 question, please. 21 Q. Can you read the question back? 22 (Record read.) 23 Q. You can answer the question. 24 A. What was the question again? 25 Q. When you were traveling on the |

| Page 106 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 plane with President Clinton, was that during 3 the time, it was 2002, that you were on a 4 flight with Clinton, was that during the time 5 Virginia was working for Jeffrey? 6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form. 7 Misstates the witness' answer and if you 8 can answer the question, you can answer 9 it. 10 A. Well, like I said, I don't recall 11 exactly when I flew with him. I don't recall 12 when Virginia, we know what Virginia claims 13 when she left, so I can't answer the 14 question. I have no idea. 15 Q. Do you know Prince Andrew? 16 A. I do. 17 Q. How long have you known him? 18 A. A very long time. 19 Q. Since you were a child? 20 A. I really -- it's so long, it's 21 really a long time ago. I just don't recall. 22 Q. Do you remember how you first met 23 him? 24 A. No, I do not. 25 Q. Did you introduce him to Jeffrey? | Page 108 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 that he may have met socially through me. 3 Q. Did you ever introduce Prince 4 Andrew to Virginia in London? 5 A. I understand her story about London 6 but again, her tissue of lies is extremely 7 hard to pick apart what is true and what 8 isn't. Actually I wouldn't recollect her at 9 all but for her tissue stories about this 10 situation. 11 Q. So did you ever introduce Prince 12 Andrew to Virginia in London? 13 A. I have no recollection. 14 Q. Did Virginia ever stay at your home 15 in London, your town home? 16 A. I know she claims she did but if 17 you are asking me here today to remember 18 specifically, I cannot. 19 Q. Do you remember taking a trip with 20 Virginia to travel over to Europe, including 21 London? 22 A. So I have seen her reports and I 23 have seen the plane reports. I see she says 24 she was on that but again, I really have no 25 recollection of her. |
| Page 107 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. That would be another of Virginia's 3 lies and the lies you perpetrate. I never 4 introduced Prince Andrew to Jeffrey Epstein 5 at any time ever, so just add that the to 6 long list of lies. 7 Q. Did Jeffrey know Prince Andrew? 8 A. Clearly he knew him. I think we 9 have that answer but how -- yeah. 10 Q. Do you know how Jeffrey met Prince 11 Andrew? 12 A. I do not know Jeffrey met Prince 13 Andrew. What I do know is that I did not 14 introduce them. That is one of the many 15 lies. Are we tallying all the lies? 16 Q. Do you know when Jeffrey met Prince 17 Andrew? 18 A. I do not know when Jeffrey met 19 Prince Andrew. 20 Q. Did you ever introduce Prince 21 Andrew to any girls under the age of 18 who 22 were not friends of yours children? 23 A. I have not introduced Prince Andrew 24 to anyone that I am aware of other than 25 friends of mine who have kids under that age | Page 109 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Q. Did you know that she was 17 at the 3 time of that trip? 4 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 5 form and foundation. 6 A. I have -- 7 Q. Did you know she was 17 at the time 8 of that trip? 9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 10 form and foundation. 11 A. I didn't even know she was on the 12 trip. 13 Q. Did you hold her passport for her 14 when she was traveling? 15 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 16 form and foundation. 17 A. I have no recollection whatsoever 18 of her even being on the trip nor holding her 19 passport. 20 (Maxwell Exhibit 4, picture, marked 21 for identification.) 22 Q. I'm showing you what we marked as 23 Maxwell Exhibit 4. 24 Can you take a look at that picture 25 for me? |

| Page 110 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. I've looked at it. 3 Q. Are you in that picture? 4 A. I am. 5 Q. Is that Prince Andrew in the 6 picture as well? 7 A. It is. 8 MR. PAGLIUCA: I don't believe this 9 has been produced to us in discovery by 10 you. 11 MS. McCAWLEY: The picture? 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Yes. 13 MS. McCAWLEY: It has. 14 MS. MENNINGER: Is it the same 15 exact photograph. 16 MS. McCAWLEY: I believe so. We 17 will find one. The picture has been 18 produced a number of times. 19 MR. PAGLIUCA: I've seen different 20 iterations of this, I don't believe I 21 have ever seen this. 22 MS. McCAWLEY: We had them blow it 23 up on a page so she could see it. We 24 could use an article. 25 While you are looking for that, I | Page 112 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. No, I don't. 3 Q. Where in your town home -- we will 4 come back to that. 5 Do you have guest bedrooms in your 6 town home in London? 7 A. I do. 8 Q. How many? 9 A. Two. 10 Q. Did Prince Andrew ever visit 11 Jeffrey and you in New York? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Do you remember him visiting you 14 and Jeffrey in New York in the spring of 15 2001? 16 A. Again, I can't testify to any 17 specific dates. 18 Q. So you don't have a recollection of 19 that? 20 A. I have a recollection -- you've 21 asked me if I have a recollection of being in 22 New York but if you are asking for a date, I 23 cannot confirm that date. 24 Q. Do you remember Prince Andrew being 25 present in New York for a party where Johanna |
| Page 111 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 will skip ahead. Hold that until we can 3 find one that has the Bates range on it. 4 Q. Do you recall Virginia being at 5 your London town home? 6 A. I do not. 7 Q. Do you recall going to dinner with 8 Prince Andrew, Jeffrey Epstein and Virginia 9 Roberts in London, at any time? 10 A. I do not. 11 Q. Do you recall going to a place 12 called Club Tramp with Prince Andrew, Jeffrey 13 Epstein and yourself and Virginia Roberts? 14 A. I would just like to state for the 15 record that Prince Andrew is a very famous 16 person, I know you are aware because you like 17 to use him so often in your press stories -- 18 please let me finish. Were he at Tramp, at 19 any time, that would be reported by the 20 press. I do not have any recollection of it 21 and I doubt it actually happened. 22 Q. You don't recall that. 23 Do you recall taking Virginia 24 shopping when you were in London to buy an 25 outfit to meet Prince Andrew? | Page 113 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Sjoberg was also present? 3 A. I don't recollect. 4 Q. Do you recall ever giving Prince 5 Andrew a gift of a puppet that was in the 6 same -- that looked like him? 7 A. I never gave him a gift of a 8 puppet. 9 Q. Did Jeffrey ever give him a gift of 10 a puppet? 11 A. No, not that I am aware of. 12 Q. Have you ever given him any gifts? 13 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection, 14 foundation. 15 A. I know Andrew -- 16 Q. Have you ever given him any gifts 17 that you remember when he came to Jeffrey's 18 home in New York? 19 A. I don't recall giving him any gifts 20 in New York. 21 (Maxwell Exhibit 5, picture, marked 22 for identification.) 23 Q. I think I directed you to page 24 0034. 25 Is that a picture that was taken at |

| 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 your London town home? 3 A. I have no idea what this picture 4 was taken. I know what she purports it to be 5 but I'm not going to say that I do. 6 Q. Do the surroundings look like your 7 London town home? 8 A. They are familiar. 9 Q. Do you know who took this picture? 10 A. I do not. 11 Q. Did Jeffrey Epstein take the 12 picture? 13 A. I just testified I don't know who 14 took the picture. 15 Q. So you don't know if Jeffery 16 Epstein took the picture? 17 A. When I tell you I don't know who 18 took the picture, it doesn't mean him -- I 19 don't know who took the picture. You can 20 come up with 50 names, I still do not know 21 who took the picture. 22 Q. Did you observe Prince Andrew go 23 into a room with Virginia alone in your town 24 home? 25 A. I cannot recall. As I have said, | 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Q. Were you present on the island when 3 Prince Andrew visited? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. How many times? 6 A. I can only remember once. 7 Q. Were there any girls under the age 8 of 18 on the island during that one visit 9 that you remember that were not family or 10 friends of or daughters of your friends? 11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 12 form and foundation. 13 A. There were no girls on the island 14 at all. No girls, no women, other than the 15 staff who work at the house. Girls meaning, 16 I assume you are asking underage, but there 17 was nobody female outside of the cooks and 18 the cleaners. 19 Q. Did you, as part of your duties in 20 working for Jeffrey, ever arrange for 21 Virginia to have sex with John Luc Brunel? 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 23 form and foundation. 24 A. Just for the record, I have never 25 at any time, at anyplace, in any moment ever |

Did Jeffrey Epstein ever tell you 7 that Prince Andrew had sex with Virginia 8 Roberts? 9 A. He did not. 10 Q. Did Prince Andrew ever visit -- let 11 me back up for a moment. We talked about 12 Jeffrey's homes, did Jeffrey have a home in 13 the U.S. Virgin islands called Little St. 14 James? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Did Prince Andrew ever visit that 17 island -- are you aware of Prince Andrew ever 18 visiting Jeffrey's island? 19 A. I am aware of that, yes. 20 Q. Do you know how many times he 21 visited? 22 A. I do not. 23 Q. Do you know if he visited when 24 Virginia was on the island? 25 A. I do not. | 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 asked Virginia Roberts or whatever she is 3 called now to have sex with anybody. 4 Q. Did you ever provide Virginia 5 Roberts with an outfit, an outfit of a sexual 6 nature to wear for Les Wexner? 7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 8 form and foundation. 9 A. I think we addressed the outfit 10 issue. 11 Q. I am asking you if you ever 12 provided her with an outfit of a sexual 13 nature to wear for Les Wexner? 14 A. Categorically no. You did get 15 that, I said categorically no 16 Q. Don't worry I'm paying attention. 17 A. You seemed very distracted in that 18 moment. 19 (Maxwell Exhibit 6, flight logs, 20 marked for identification.) 21 A. Do you mind if I take a break for 22 the bathroom. 23 Q. It's 11:08 and we are going to go 24 off the record now. 25 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It's now 11:09. |

| Page 146 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 one of his planes? 3 A. There was a bed on one of his 4 planes that folded out, yes. 5 Q. Do you recall whether with respect 6 to this being in Santa Fe, do you recall 7 whether you were there for some form of a 8 party? 9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 10 form and foundation. 11 A. I don't recall the trip at all and 12 this looks like a total work trip, not a 13 party trip. 14 Q. What would be the difference 15 between a work trip and a party trip? 16 A. Just that I would be on trips for 17 work and I believe that this looks like, AP 18 looks like it's one of the -- probably one of 19 the designers and the time would meet with a 20 trip to decorate the house, just the timing 21 of it. 22 Q. So would Virginia be brought on 23 trips that were for the purpose of work and 24 decorating the house? 25 A. Like I said, I never worked with | Page 148 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 excerpts from -- we will identify what they 3 are but from the message pads. 4 Did you want to correct anything? 5 A. I want to make an addendum. 6 Would you mind rereading the last 7 question back to me? 8 (Record read.) 9 A. I also just want to say that at 10 this point I cannot recollect flying to 11 parties. Jeffrey went for work so -- was 12 this in Santa Fe, this flight as well. 13 Q. The flight we were looking at, yes 14 but it was to Santa Fe -- 15 A. I don't recall going to any parties 16 in Santa Fe at any time but certainly flying 17 to Santa Fe for a party seems highly 18 improbable. 19 Q. So I'm going to direct your 20 attention to the document that I set before 21 you which is Bates number [REDACTED] and it 22 has different Bates numbers because it's a 23 smaller version of the larger production. 24 These are the pages I will be asking about. 25 In the time that you were working |
| Page 147 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 her but you would have to ask Jeffrey what he 3 brought her on the trip for. 4 Q. But she would travel with him when 5 there was a work trip like this? 6 A. I can't -- I'm seeing that she is 7 on this flight but I have no idea what she is 8 doing, he invited her, it would not be my 9 job. 10 Q. What about Nadia Bjorlin, would she 11 regularly travel with Jeffrey on flights? 12 A. I have no idea, you would have to 13 look through the flight logs. I have no 14 idea. 15 Q. Your recollection is -- what is 16 your recollection, do you recollect Nadia 17 traveling often on flights with Jeffrey? 18 A. Absolutely not. No, not at all. I 19 don't recollect her actually on the flight at 20 all. 21 Q. I think you can set that aside for 22 the moment. 23 (Maxwell Exhibit 9, message pad 24 pages, marked for identification.) 25 Q. We will mark as Exhibit 9 these | Page 149 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 with Jeffrey in Palm Beach, do you recall a 3 process for taking, anybody at the house 4 taking messages when incoming phone calls 5 came in? 6 A. You are supposed to take a message 7 and receive the message and write the message 8 down. Who was the message was for, what time 9 it was taken and who took it and what the 10 message was, obviously. 11 Q. Does what's in front of you look 12 familiar with respect to the message pads 13 that you would have used at the house? 14 A. It is familiar. 15 Q. I'm going to direct your attention 16 to the second page of it? 17 MR. PAGLIUCA: These all have SAO 18 numbers on them or Bates ranges and I 19 don't see any of your Bates ranges on 20 these. I know you have produced message 21 pads but those have your Bates range 22 numbers on them and I'm wondering if 23 these are different documents. 24 MS. McCAWLEY: It's the same, just 25 ours have the Bates underneath them. |

 2 These were produced as part of the rule
 3 26 discovery. We can get the additional
 4 Bates if you want.
 5 Q. The one I'm asking about first is
 6 the [REDACTED]. You can look at that and then
 7 I will identify the Bates number referenced
 8 in this case.
 9 I want to direct your attention to
 10 the top right-hand corner just so I have an 11 understanding of how these messages were 12 taken. So I see that it says at the top it
 13 says in the for line it says Ms. Maxwell and 14 the date of [REDACTED] and then I see under the 15 M line it looks like Necole Hesse or
 16 something like that, a phone number and a
 17 message saying returning your call and on the 18 bottom it looks like [REDACTED].
 19 Explain to me, is this -- does this
 20 represent [REDACTED] taking down a message for you
 21 from Ms. Hesse, is that how these work?
 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 23 form and foundation. Go ahead.
 24 Q. My question is, I'm trying to 25 understand how the messages were taken.

Page 151

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 Looking at this message pad, where it says
 3 signed [REDACTED], can you tell me who [REDACTED] was?
 4 A. I cannot.
 5 Q. You do not know.
 6 Typically when these messages were
 7 taken in your practice when you were there,
 8 would the individual who took the message
 9 write their name on the message?
 10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 11 form and foundation.
 12 A. I don't recollect, you can ask who 13 wrote it so you can find out who it was.
 14 Q. Do you know who Necole Hesse is?
 15 A. I don't.
 16 Q. I'm going to direct your
 17 attention -- do we have a Bates number for 18 that?
 19 MR. EDWARDS: [REDACTED].
 20 Q. Giuffre [REDACTED] for that one.
 21 I will direct your attention to the
 22 first page which has the [REDACTED] on it.
 23 A. Okay.
 24 Q. Now at the top of that document, on 25 the right-hand side, the message that reads

Page 152

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 for JE, date 1/02/03, message Caroline Casey
 3 and then it's signed GM.
 4 Is that your signature?
 5 A. That's not my handwriting.
 6 Q. Would other people take a message,
 7 how did this process work, is there someone
 8 else in the house with the initials GM?
 9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 10 form and foundation.
 11 A. I cannot answer that. It's not my
 12 handwriting.
 13 Q. I'm trying to understand how this
 14 gets there. If you took a message and didn't 15 write it down, would someone else record that 16 message for you?
 17 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 18 form and foundation.
 19 A. All I can tell you, this is not my 20 handwriting so I cannot -- I have no idea
 21 what that is.
 22 Q. Was the practice that, what was the 23 practice when someone answered the phone with 24 these message pads, what were they supposed
 25 to do?

Page 153

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 A. They were supposed to take a
 3 message and the time and date and give the
 4 message.
 5 Q. Were they supposed to indicate who
 6 took the message?
 7 A. They were but it wasn't -- I don't
 8 really recall the actual process. I can see
 9 from here it looks like you were supposed to 10 but that's not my handwriting so I can't say
 11 what that was.
 12 Q. Do you know who Caroline Casey is?
 13 A. No, I don't.
 14 Q. Do you know whether Caroline Casey
 15 was under the age of 18?
 16 A. I just testified I couldn't
 17 remember who she was so it would be difficult
 18 to know how old she was.
 19 Q. Do you know if she was coming to 20 the house to provide massages?
 21 A. I don't remember who she is at all,
 22 so no.
 23 Q. And then I would like to direct
 24 your attention to the message right
 25 underneath it. Which says JE. [REDACTED]

Page 154

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 and has a phone number and the message says,
 3 wants to know if she should bring her friend
 4 [REDACTED] tonight.
 5 What is that message referring to?
 6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 7 form and foundation.
 8 A. I can't possibly know.
 9 Q. Did individuals at the house take 10 messages for underage girls to come over and 11 bring friends for the purpose of providing
 12 massages?
 13 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 14 form and foundation.
 15 A. How would I possibly know what you
 16 are talking about.
 17 Q. Did you record messages at the
 18 house?
 19 A. It's not my job.
 20 Q. You did from time to time record
 21 messages?
 22 A. Hardly ever.
 23 Q. But you did from time to time do
 24 it?
 25 A. I'm just saying I hardly ever took

Page 155

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 messages, very, very, very, very
 3 infrequently.
 4 Q. Do you know if [REDACTED] brought her
 5 friend [REDACTED] over on that night?
 6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 7 form and foundation.
 8 A. One, I don't know what this message
 9 is, I don't know if I was in Palm Beach, I
 10 don't know who [REDACTED] is, I don't know who 11 [REDACTED] is and I don't know what this message
 12 is referring to.
 13 Q. So on January 2nd of 2003, were you
 14 in Palm Beach?
 15 A. I don't know.
 16 Q. Where would you have been other
 17 than Palm Beach at the time?
 18 A. I could have been anywhere.
 19 Q. Where did you typically live?
 20 A. What are you asking me?
 21 Q. So for example, in 2003, where was 22 your primary residence, was it wherever
 23 Jeffrey was living and staying or was it
 24 independent of that?
 25 A. What was the date again.

Page 156

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 Q. In 2003?
 3 A. The end of 2003?
 4 Q. January, the beginning.
 5 A. I don't know, I could have been
 6 anywhere, Jeffrey and I were leading almost
 7 separate lives by then.
 8 Q. If you were at the house that day,
 9 did you recall seeing anybody by the name of
 10 [REDACTED]
 11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 12 form and foundation.
 13 A. I don't know if I was at the house,
 14 so I can't testify to that.
 15 Q. Let's flip back to the next page,
 16 the one we were on before the [REDACTED], the 17 message towards the bottom that says, for 18 Jeffrey, message of Ghislaine. And it says,
 19 Would it be helpful to have and then redacted
 20 come to Palm Beach today to stay here and 21 help train new staff with Ghislaine. Who 22 were you referring to in that message; do you
 23 remember?
 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 25 form and foundation.

Page 157

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 Q. The question is, do you recall this
 3 message?
 4 A. I do not recall this message.
 5 Q. Do you recall training a female
 6 under the age of 18 at Jeffrey's home?
 7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 8 form and foundation.
 9 A. I never trained a female under the
 10 age of 18 at Jeffrey's home.
 11 Q. Did you ever say it would be
 12 helpful to have a female under the age of 18
 13 come to Palm Beach today to stay here and
 14 help train new staff with Ghislaine?
 15 A. I never asked anyone under the age
 16 of 18 come to help train new staff.
 17 Q. I'm going to flip to the next page
 18 which is [REDACTED].
 19 A. By the way, that is not my
 20 handwriting and it's not dated and I couldn't 21 possibly tell you who that is.
 22 Did you hear that?
 23 Q. You got your testimony on the
 24 record.
 25 [REDACTED].

Page 158

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 A. Yes.
 3 MR. EDWARDS: Giuffre [REDACTED].
 4 Q. I'm going to direct your attention
 5 to the top right-hand corner, for Mr.
 6 Epstein, [REDACTED], message [REDACTED], a phone
 7 number and called.
 8 Do you know who [REDACTED] is?
 9 A. I don't.
 10 Q. Do you know that [REDACTED] was 15 at 11 the time she left this message?
 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 13 form and foundation.
 14 A. I don't know who [REDACTED] is.
 15 Q. And then I'm going to direct your
 16 attention to the bottom left which is a
 17 message JE message of Jean Luc and the 18 message says, He just did a good one, 18
 19 years, she spoke to me and said I love
 20 Jeffrey.
 21 Was Jean Luc referring to sex with
 22 an 18 year old in that message?
 23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 24 form and foundation.
 25 A. How could I know what Jean Luc is

Page 159

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 referring to.
 3 Q. Do you know if Jean Luc had sex
 4 with an 18 year old that he referenced to
 5 Jeffrey Epstein?
 6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 7 form and foundation.
 8 A. How could I possibly know.
 9 Q. Did Jeffrey Epstein or Jean Luc
 10 ever tell you that Jean Luc had sex with an 11 18 year old?
 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 13 form and foundation.
 14 A. I have no idea what you are talking
 15 about.
 16 Q. Did they ever tell you that?
 17 A. I have no recollection of ever
 18 hearing such a ridiculous thing.
 19 Q. I will turn to the next page which
 20 is SAO 2841?
 21 MS. MENNINGER: Do you have the 22 Bates number?
 23 Q. The bottom right-hand corner, Mr.
 24 Epstein, the date [REDACTED], Ms. Maxwell, it
 25 says, [REDACTED], it says, quote, [REDACTED] is

Page 160

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 available on Tuesday, no one for tomorrow.
 3 Is this a message you took?
 4 A. It's not my handwriting and I don't
 5 know who R is.
 6 Q. So when it says Ms. Maxwell in the
 7 line there, is that you calling for Mr.
 8 Epstein?
 9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 10 form and foundation.
 11 A. I didn't write it, I don't know
 12 when this message was taken. I don't even
 13 know what it's referring to and I don't know
 14 what my name is doing on that message pad.
 15 Q. I know you said you only took them
 16 a few times. Do you have a recollection of 17 taking messages of females who would call the 18 house to indicate whether or not they were 19 coming over?
 20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 21 form and foundation.
 22 A. Give me a date range.
 23 Q. On 7/9/04.
 24 A. How would I know if I'm in Palm
 25 Beach, most likely not.

Page 161

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 Q. I'm asking if you have a
 3 recollection of taking messages for girls who
 4 would call the house --
 5 A. Girls.
 6 Q. Females, who would call the
 7 house --
 8 A. Over the age of 18.
 9 Q. [REDACTED] is 15.
 10 A. I don't know who [REDACTED] is, so I
 11 can't testify anything to [REDACTED].
 12 Q. Your name is on the message.
 13 A. I didn't put it there and I don't
 14 know what it's doing there.
 15 Q. So your testimony is you didn't
 16 take this message?
 17 A. I obviously didn't take the 18 message, it's signed by somebody R, it's not
 19 my handwriting. We don't know if I'm in Palm
 20 Beach.
 21 Q. Did you arrange for [REDACTED] to have 22 his friend [REDACTED] come over on Tuesday of 23 this week?
 24 A. I don't know who [REDACTED] is so it
 25 would be hard for me to arrange anything with

Page 162

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 someone I don't know.
 3 Q. Why is your name reflected on this
 4 message pad?
 5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 6 form and foundation.
 7 A. I have no idea. You would have to
 8 ask whoever took the message.
 9 Q. Did you, in the course of your
 10 work, regularly take messages for Jeffrey
 11 Epstein?
 12 A. I already testified I hardly ever
 13 did.
 14 Q. Would you, in the course of your 15 work, regularly set up appointments for 16 females to come over and give massages for
 17 Jeffrey Epstein?
 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 19 form and foundation.
 20 A. Can you specify, females, you mean
 21 adults over the age of 18.
 22 Q. Did you regularly set up for 23 Jeffery adults over the age of 18 to come for
 24 massages?
 25 A. I didn't regularly do that, no.

Page 163

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 Q. Would you take messages with
 3 respect to females over the age of 18 to come
 4 over for a massage?
 5 A. I already testified I hardly ever
 6 did take messages.
 7 Q. But would you?
 8 A. I already testified, I hardly 9 ever --
 10 Q. I know hardly ever, but did you?
 11 A. Over the course of time it is
 12 possible I may have taken a couple, I have no
 13 recollection. I hardly ever did and I did so 14 irregularly that it would hard for me to 15 pinpoint.
 16 Q. Did you ever take a message for a
 17 female under the age of 18 to come over for a
 18 massage or for any other reason to be with
 19 Jeffrey Epstein?
 20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form
 21 and foundation.
 22 A. I hardly ever took a message. I
 23 have absolutely no way of knowing, maybe one
 24 of my friends' daughters called to say they
 25 were coming to visit me. I have never taken

Page 164

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 messages, I don't know about how I would
 3 possibly know if somebody I spoke to, one or 4 two times I took a message is, how old they
 5 would be but I have never taken a message
 6 where I was aware of anything being under the 7 age of 18 and I probably took it so
 8 infrequently, it would be impossible.
 9 Q. Can you turn to [REDACTED] it
 10 should be the next page.
 11 A. Uh-huh.
 12 Q. Do you see at the top, it says, for 13 Mr. J. 11/8/04 and then the name is 14 redacted. It says, I have a female for him.
 15 Why would a minor be calling
 16 Jeffrey to say they have a female for him?
 17 Do you know?
 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 19 form and foundation.
 20 A. First of all, I don't know that's a
 21 minor, I don't know who took the message.
 22 Q. I will represent to you these are 23 police reports and minor's names have to be 24 redacted for privacy purposes?
 25 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the

Page 165

 2 form and foundation.
 3 Q. Do you know why a minor child would
 4 be calling Jeffrey and leaving a message to
 5 say, quote, I have a female for him?
 6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 7 form and foundation.
 8 A. I can't testify anything about this
 9 message, I don't know anything about it.
 10 Q. I'm going to direct your attention
 11 to the next page [REDACTED]. If you look at 12 the bottom left, you are going to see a
 13 message for Jeffrey, from [REDACTED], it
 14 says she doesn't have a number and left a
 15 message that she called.
 16 Do you know who [REDACTED] is?
 17 A. I do not.
 18 Q. Do you know that [REDACTED] was 19 13 at the time she placed this call to
 20 Jeffrey?
 21 A. I don't know who [REDACTED] is.
 22 Q. Would Jeffrey regularly have 13
 23 year olds call and leave messages?
 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 25 form and foundation.

| Page 166 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. How would I possibly, these were 3 messages taken when I was not at the house 4 and I have no idea who they are nor how old 5 they are nor anything. 6 Q. How do you know you weren't at the 7 house on this day? 8 A. I was hardly at the house in 2005. 9 Q. So you could have been there, you 10 just don't know? 11 A. In the five days I might have been 12 there in 2005, I suppose it's possible but 13 it's unlikely. 14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Do you know why this 15 isn't redacted if you are representing 16 all the names of people who are underage 17 have been redacted from these records. 18 MS. McCAWLEY: I think it was -- my 19 assumption is it was a miss by the 20 police department. 21 Q. I will direct your attention to [REDACTED] 22 [REDACTED] so you will skip a page and go back, 23 it's the final page in the message pads and 24 you will see on the top left for Jeffrey, on 25 6/1/2005 from Jean Luc Brunel with a phone | Page 168 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 off the record. 3 (Recess.) 4 AFTERNOON SESSION 5 (Time noted: 1:21 p.m.) 6 GHISLAINE MAXWELL, 7 resumed and testified as follows: 8 EXAMINATION BY (Cont'd.) 9 MS. McCAWLEY: 10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It's now 1:21, 11 we're starting disk No. 4. We are back 12 on the record. 13 Q. Ms. Maxwell, before the break, we 14 were talking about and I think it's one of 15 the exhibits that's marked in front of you, 16 I'm not sure of the number, but the police 17 report that I showed you earlier today. 18 Now that you have knowledge of the 19 police report and the criminal investigation 20 with respect to Jeffrey Epstein, do you 21 believe that Jeffrey Epstein abused any minor 22 children? 23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 24 form and foundation. 25 A. Can you repeat the question please |

She 4 is two times eight years old. Not blond. 5 Lessons are free and you can have your first 6 today if you call. 7 Do you know whether Jean Luc Brunel 8 sent a Russian girl that was 16 years old 9 over to Jeffrey Epstein's home? 10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 11 form and foundation. 12 A. I do not know. 13 Q. Did you ever observe a Russian girl 14 that was 16 years old come to Jeffrey 15 Epstein's home? 16 A. I am not aware of any 16 year old 17 Russian girl that I can recall in Jeffrey 18 Epstein's home. 19 Q. Do you know whether Jeffrey Epstein 20 had sex with a 16 year old Russian girl? 21 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 22 form and foundation. 23 A. I do not know. 24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It's 12:25. 25 This will be the end of disk 3, we are | Page 169 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 and break it down so it's more 3 understandable. 4 Q. Now that you have the police report 5 that I showed you this morning that you had 6 an opportunity to look at. 7 A. You gave it to me, I did not look 8 at it. 9 Q. The questions that I asked you 10 about the police report -- you are aware 11 there is a police report? 12 A. I am aware there is a police 13 report. 14 Q. You are aware there was a criminal 15 investigation of Jeffrey Epstein? 16 A. I am aware that there was that. 17 Q. Now that you are aware of those two 18 things and having talked to Jeffrey Epstein, 19 do you believe Jeffrey Epstein sexually 20 abused minors? 21 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 22 form and foundation. 23 A. Can you reask the second part of 24 that question please. 25 Q. Sure. The two documents we were |

| Page 242 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 please? 3 Q. Is it an obvious lie that you had 4 sex toys in Jeffrey Epstein's Palm Beach 5 house? 6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 7 form and foundation. 8 A. Did Virginia say that? 9 Q. I'm asking you a question. 10 Is it an obvious lie that you had 11 sex toys in Jeffrey Epstein's house? 12 A. I don't recall any sex toys. 13 Q. If someone said had you sex toys, 14 would that be an obvious lie? 15 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 16 form and foundation. 17 A. Like I said -- can you be more 18 specific about the house or whatever, what 19 exactly you are referring to, what's a sex 20 toy? 21 Q. Yes. How would you define a sex 22 toy? 23 A. No. I need you to define a sex 24 toy, I don't have enough knowledge of sex 25 toys. | Page 244 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 I took of people would only have been 3 mainstream type magazine type photos and any 4 photos I took could have been very happily 5 and expected to be displayed on your parents' 6 mantel piece or grandparents' mantel piece. 7 Q. Is it a lie that you approached 8 females to bring them to Jeffrey Epstein? 9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 10 form and foundation. 11 A. Please ask the question, again. 12 Q. Sure. Is it a lie that you 13 approached females to bring them to Jeffrey 14 Epstein? 15 A. I don't know what you are asking 16 me. 17 Q. I'm asking you, if it's a lie that 18 you approached females to bring them to 19 Jeffrey Epstein? 20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 21 form and foundation. 22 A. You are not asking me a good 23 question, sorry. 24 Q. You don't get to choose the 25 questions. |
| Page 243 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Q. I will define it based on the 3 dictionary's definition, which is an object 4 or device used to sexually stimulate or 5 enhance sexual pleasure. 6 A. What's your question, please? 7 Q. The question is, is it an obvious 8 lie that you had sex toys in Jeffrey 9 Epstein's Palm Beach house? 10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same objection. 11 Q. You can answer. 12 A. Like I said, I do not have any 13 recollection of sex toys in Jeffrey's house. 14 Q. Is it a lie, is it an obvious lie 15 that you took pictures of nude girls? 16 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 17 and foundation. 18 A. We already covered this. Girls we 19 are not referring to -- I can only testify to 20 taking pictures of adult people and I already 21 testified they are not nude, per se. That 22 every picture that I ever took and which they 23 were very limited, always by request, the 24 people would be covered or it would be a hand 25 or a foot. There was never any pictures that | Page 245 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. I would like to answer your 3 questions but you are not asking me a 4 question that I can answer. 5 Q. What about that is causing you 6 pause where you can't answer the question? 7 A. You are trying to trap me and 8 that's not fair, so I already testified that 9 I hire people across the board, so I would 10 hire architects, decorators, pool people, 11 exercise instructors, gardeners, cooks, 12 chefs, cleaning people. So I, in the course 13 of a very long time when I would hire people 14 I hired people to work for Jeffrey. So I'm 15 happy to testify to hiring people for every 16 possible conceivable proper job that you 17 could conceive of within the context of 18 Jeffrey's life and homes. 19 Q. Is it a lie that you approached 20 females to bring them to Jeffrey Epstein for 21 the purpose of performing massages? 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 23 form and foundation. 24 A. Again, I have already testified 25 that part of the job that I had was to hire |

| Page 250 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 agree to that? 3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 4 form and foundation. 5 Q. Are they under the age of 18? 6 A. We already established that you can 7 be a masseuse in Florida at age 17. That 8 does not make it inappropriate. 9 A. I'm not saying appropriate or 10 inappropriate. I'm just asking if there were 11 any exercise instructors that were under the 12 age of 18. 13 A. I am not aware if anybody was but I 14 don't want to full out and say you oh she 15 said, we already established you can be a 17 16 year old masseuse and have it not be 17 something that is not appropriate. So when 18 you say that and then you go, well, you come 19 back and say something, now we can establish 20 that Virginia was 17 but you can be a 17 year 21 old legal masseuse, but I am not aware to 22 your point. 23 Q. Who were the other 17 year old 24 masseuses that you were aware of? 25 A. I am not aware of any. | Page 252 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Epstein had a sexual preference for underage 3 minors? 4 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 5 and foundation. 6 A. I cannot testify to what 7 Jeffrey's -- 8 Q. You don't know his preference? 9 A. You handed me a stack of papers 10 from the police reports and that's what I've 11 read but I have no knowledge, direct 12 knowledge, of what you are referencing. 13 Q. So you don't know, you don't know 14 in your own mind that Jeffrey Epstein had a 15 sexual preference for underage minors, is 16 that correct? 17 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 18 form and foundation. 19 Q. Is that correct? 20 A. Please ask the question again. 21 Q. You don't know in your own mind 22 that Jeffrey Epstein had a sexual preference 23 for underage minors? 24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 25 form and foundation. You have to pause, |
| Page 251 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Q. Were there any 16 year year old 3 masseuse that you are aware of? 4 A. I am not aware. 5 Q. Any 15? 6 A. I just want to be clear. The only 7 person that I am aware of who claims to have 8 been a -- we have to -- we established 9 Virginia now is 17, given she has changed her 10 age so many times. The only person that I am 11 aware of that was a masseuse at the time when 12 I was present in the house was Virginia. 13 Q. Is it an obvious lie that Jeffrey 14 Epstein had a sexual preference for underage 15 miners? 16 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 17 form and foundation. 18 A. Can you ask the question again? 19 Q. It is it an obvious lie that 20 Jeffrey Epstein had a sexual preference for 21 underage minors? 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 23 form and foundation. 24 A. Can you ask the question again? 25 Q. Is it an obvious lie that Jeffrey | Page 253 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 let me object, answer the question. 3 Listen to her question, pause, I object, 4 you answer. 5 Q. So you don't know in your own mind 6 that Jeffrey Epstein had a sexual preference 7 for underage minors? 8 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 9 form and foundation. 10 Q. You can answer. 11 A. I cannot tell you what Jeffrey's 12 story is. I'm not able to. 13 Q. Did Jeffrey Epstein have a scheme 14 to recruit underage girls to use them for 15 purposes of sexual massages? 16 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 17 form and foundation. 18 A. Can you ask me again, please? 19 Q. Did Jeffrey Epstein have a scheme 20 to recruit underage girls to recruit them for 21 sexual massages? 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 23 form and foundation. 24 A. Can you ask it a different way? 25 Q. Did Jeffrey Epstein have a scheme |

| Page 254 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 to recruit underage girls for sexual 3 massages? 4 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 5 form and foundation. 6 Q. If you know. 7 A. I don't know what you are talking 8 about. 9 Q. Is it an obvious lie that Virginia 10 Giuffre was a minor the first time she was 11 taken to Jeffrey Epstein's house? 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 13 form and foundation. 14 A. So we've already established that 15 Virginia was 17 and we have established that 16 her mother brought her to the house and that 17 she came as a masseuse, age 17, which is 18 legal in Florida. 19 Q. Would Jeffrey Epstein's assistants 20 arrange times for underage girls to come to 21 the house for sexual massages? 22 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 23 form and foundation. 24 A. What are you talking about? 25 Q. Sure. Would Jeffrey Epstein's | Page 256 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Q. During any period of time you 3 worked, did you observe that? 4 A. I did not observe any such 5 photographs. 6 Q. Are you aware if they took those 7 kinds of photos? 8 A. I am not aware. 9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Can we take a 10 five-minute break. 11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It's 2:58 and we 12 are off the record. 13 (Recess.) 14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It's now 3:10. 15 We're starting disk No. 6 and we are 16 back on the record. 17 Q. Ms. Maxwell, was it an obvious lie 18 when Virginia said she was sent to Thailand 19 by Epstein in September of 2002? 20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 21 form and foundation. 22 A. I have no knowledge of Virginia 23 being sent to Thailand. 24 But may I say something? 25 Q. There is not a question pending |
| Page 255 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 assistants, I think earlier you mentioned, we 3 talked about Sarah Kellen who worked in the 4 role as an assistant or Nadia Marcinkova. 5 Would Jeffrey Epstein's assistants arrange 6 times for underage girls to come over the 7 house for sexual massages? 8 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 9 form and foundation. 10 A. Again, I read the police reports so 11 this is all happening according to the police 12 reports when I am no longer at the house so I 13 can't testify to what Jeffrey's assistants 14 did when this kind of activity as alleged in 15 the reports. 16 Q. So you don't know? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Would Jeffrey Epstein's assistants, 19 meaning Sarah Kellen, Nadia Marcinkova or any 20 other assistant that you are aware of from 21 the time you worked there take nude 22 photographs of underage girls? 23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 24 and foundation. 25 A. During what period of time? | Page 257 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 unless you want to clarify something. 3 Did you want to clarify that? 4 A. No, I just wanted to say something. 5 Q. Is it an obvious lie when Virginia 6 said she was given instructions to maintain 7 telephone contact with you while she was in 8 Thailand? 9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 10 form and foundation. 11 A. Can you repeat the question? 12 Q. Is it an obvious lie when Virginia 13 said she was given instructions to maintain 14 telephone contact with you when she was in 15 Thailand? 16 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same objection. 17 A. I have no idea what instructions 18 Virginia was given, if any, when she went to 19 Thailand. 20 Q. So you know she went to Thailand? 21 A. I know she claimed she went to 22 Thailand from having read it but given that 23 she lied about everything it's hard to know 24 what is true and not true. 25 Q. Would it make any sense for her to |

 3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Can you identify a
 4 Bates number, please.
 5 Q. [REDACTED], which was at the top says,
 6 [REDACTED]. I'm going to refer you,
 7 at the same time, to the flight logs which
 8 were marked, the thicker document that looks
 9 like this with all the log entries on it.
 10 I'm going to refer you to page --
 11 MR. PAGLIUCA: That's Exhibit No.
 12 6, correct? I'm trying to keep the 13 record straight.
 14 MS. McCAWLEY: I don't have Exhibit
 15 numbers on mine. That's Giuffre [REDACTED].
 16 MR. PAGLIUCA: Hang on one second.
 17 A. Can you repeat the number please.
 18 Q. [REDACTED]. And if you will look on 19 that page at the entry, under [REDACTED]
 20 [REDACTED] starting with the [REDACTED] and then it runs
 21 down to the, looks like the [REDACTED], that first
 22 entry has President Clinton, Kevin Spacey,
 23 Chris Tucker, Jeffrey Epstein and the 24 initials GM.
 25 Do you remember taking a trip with

 3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 4 form and foundation.
 5 A. Can you repeat the question,
 6 please?
 7 Q. Do you remember taking a trip with
 8 President Clinton during September of 2002,
 9 that's the 21st, it looks like, through the 10 27th?
 11 A. I don't remember the dates. I
 12 couldn't testify to when we actually did it
 13 but I do remember the trip itself.
 14 Q. So you were traveling with Jeffrey
 15 Epstein and President Clinton at the same
 16 time Virginia was headed to Thailand, is that
 17 correct?
 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 19 form and foundation.
 20 A. I don't know, is that right?
 21 Q. If you look at September 27 on the
 22 document that I gave you, the first document
 23 and then you referred to, if you look in the 24 same as above lines, you will see the travel
 25 group with President Clinton?

 2 MR. PAGLIUCA: Are you asking her
 3 to compare the documents or are you
 4 asking her what her personal knowledge
 5 is.
 6 MS. McCAWLEY: I'm asking if she can
 7 look at the doubts and tell me if she
 8 recalls that she traveling with
 9 President Clinton at the same time this 10 document reflects Virginia was in
 11 Thailand.
 12 A. I can't testify to any dates. I
 13 couldn't tell you. I can see a date and I
 14 can see a date but I can't tell you that I
 15 have a memory of the dates. I have a memory
 16 of the trip, I don't have a memory of the
 17 time.
 18 Q. Who is [REDACTED]?
 19 A. [REDACTED].
 20 Q. What is her address?
 21 A. I don't know.
 22 Q. Does she live in the United States?
 23 A. She does.
 24 Q. In what state?
 25 A. I believe in New Jersey somewhere.

 2 Q. Do you have her phone number?
 3 A. Not memorized.
 4 Q. Do you have the ability to get her
 5 phone number?
 6 A. Of course.
 7 Q. Has she ever asked -- has [REDACTED]
 8 [REDACTED] ever asked other girls to come over to 9 see Jeffrey Epstein for the purpose of a
 10 sexual massage?
 11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 12 form and foundation.
 13 A. Can you ask the question again
 14 please.
 15 Q. Has [REDACTED] ever asked girls to
 16 come over to see Jeffrey Epstein for the
 17 purpose of a sexual massage?
 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
 19 foundation.
 20 A. Can you ask again, please?
 21 Q. Has [REDACTED] ever asked girls to
 22 come over to see Jeffrey Epstein for the
 23 purpose of sexual massage?
 24 A. I have no personal knowledge.
 25 Q. What does [REDACTED] do for you?

I think that's the answer to 9 the question. 10 Q. Has the document been produced, do 11 you know? 12 A. You have everything that I have 13 given you, so if you can't -- if it's not in 14 those documents, I don't know what to tell 15 you. 16 Q. Your lawyers haven't withheld any 17 documents? 18 A. They are right here. You can ask 19 them. 20 Q. I'm asking you. 21 A. I don't know what -- they're 22 lawyers. 23 Q. When we were talking earlier about 24 Prince Andrew, I asked you whether you had 25 ever given him a gift of a puppet. | Page 288 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 hand puppets, all sorts of puppets. 3 Q. Is there any puppet you've ever 4 seen in Jeffrey Epstein's home in the 5 presence of Prince Andrew? 6 A. Again, puppet, you know, there is 7 lots of types of puppets. 8 Q. Any type of puppet. 9 A. If you want to give me a 10 description of the puppet, I would be perhaps 11 be able to say. 12 Q. Any type of puppet? 13 A. Can you be more detailed? 14 Q. Have you ever seen a puppet in 15 Jeffrey Epstein's home in the presence of 16 Prince Andrew? 17 A. My understanding of a puppet is a 18 small handheld item you have in a circus. I 19 have never seen that. 20 Q. Have you ever seen a puppet which 21 is defined as a movable model of a person or 22 animal that is used in entertainment and 23 typically moved either by strings or 24 controlled from above or by a hand inside it? 25 MR. Were you ever in a room with 9 Prince Andrew where there was a puppet? 10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 11 form and foundation. 12 A. Can you be more specific please and 13 can you bound it by time and be more 14 specific, whatever you are actually asking 15 me? 16 Q. Were you ever in a room with Prince 17 Andrew in New York in Jeffrey Epstein's home 18 where there was a puppet? 19 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 20 form and foundation. 21 A. What sort of puppet are you asking 22 me? 23 Q. Any kind of puppet? 24 A. You need to be more descriptive. I 25 don't know what you mean by puppet, there is | Page 289 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 form and foundation. 3 A. I have not seen a puppet that fits 4 exactly that description. 5 Q. Have you seen any puppet that fits 6 any description? 7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 8 form and foundation. 9 A. Can you reask the question, please? 10 Q. Yes. 11 Have you seen any puppet that fits 12 any description in the presence of Prince 13 Andrew in Jeffrey Epstein's home? 14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 15 form and foundation. 16 A. I am not aware of any small 17 handheld puppet that was there. There was a 18 puppet -- not a puppet -- there was a -- I 19 don't know how would you describe it really, 20 I don't know how would you describe it. Not 21 a puppet, I don't know how you would describe 22 it. A caricature of Prince Andrew that was 23 in Jeffrey's home. 24 Q. Did you use that caricature to put 25 the hand of the caricature on Johanna |
